

Dr. Richard Fountain

B.Agr., Massey University, 1989; Dip. Agr. Sc.1991;

Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 2003;
PhD., 2010.

Richard has pastored for three years in an inner city church in Auckland and was then appointed Theological Consultant for the Selwyn Foundation, one of New Zealand's largest faith based charities, headquartered in Auckland. He currently consults for faith-based organizations, colleges and churches, enjoys writing NT courses, and lecturing locally in biblical studies.

Dr. Fountain received his Th.M. in 2003, and Ph.D. in 2010 and his book on Eschatological Relationships and Jesus is soon to be published. Richard has taught church leaders in The Sudan and Vietnam with BEE International and he maintains a teaching ministry with GoEast ministries in places like Nepal. He has been involved with seminary distance education for nearly 10 years, and developed some of the early online courses at DTS on Christian Leadership and Life of Christ. He maintains an ongoing interest as a facilitator for DTS online.

He is married to Karen, whose is a Food Safety auditor, and they have three children aged, 21, 19 and 17. He enjoys rugby, walking his two dogs, and playing the piano for relaxation.
