Exhibitor Opportunities
Dear Friend,

How can current church leadership minister to and partner with young adults? How can we build the kingdom of Christ together rather than isolating ourselves with walls of miscommunication, culture, and/or preference? Join us and our keynote speaker, Gabe Lyons, founder of Q Ideas and author of The Next Christians, to probe whether the way the Church minsters to the next generation is in touch with the spiritual needs of those in the 13–34 age range.

I would like to personally invite you and your organization to partner with the Hendricks Center at Dallas Theological Seminary as an exhibitor at Prone to Wander. By serving as an exhibitor, you will be able to provide our attendees products, resources, and ministry opportunities. If this important discussion resonates with your organization’s goals and you agree with our core doctrinal beliefs, we encourage you to apply.

Thank you for considering this invitation. We look forward to receiving your application by Monday, August 24, 2015.

Blessings,

Kymberli Cook

Keynote Speaker

GABE LYONS is the author of The Next Christians: The Good News About the End of Christian America and the founder of Q—a learning community that mobilizes Christians to advance the common good in society. Additionally, he is the coauthor of UnChristian: What a New Generation Really Thinks About Christianity and Why It Matters, a bestselling book based on original research that revealed the pervasiveness of pop culture’s negative perceptions of Christians. Prior to launching Q, Gabe cofounded Catalyst, a national gathering of young leaders. His work represents the perspectives of a new generation of Christians and has been featured by CNN, The New York Times, Fox News and USA Today. Gabe, his wife Rebekah, and their three children reside in Manhattan, New York.
