The purpose of this catalog is to introduce you to Dallas Seminary. Our commitment is to provide the very best theological training for a lifetime of study and ministry. We are confident that your experience at Dallas can be a great blend of academics, spiritual formation, ministry preparation, fellowship, and worship. Whether in the classroom, in chapel, or through the experience of Christian community, our desire is that you become more Christlike and reflect Him throughout your ministry.

For 80 years Dallas Seminary has helped prepare the next generation of servant-leaders for Jesus Christ. Like any school, how well we are doing our job is measured ultimately by the ministry of our graduates. I’m confident when I say we consistently have produced graduates who know the Word of God—and who love the God of the Word.
HOW DO I APPLY?
This catalog contains all the information you’ll need to apply. You can even apply online at our website: www.dts.edu. (You should have a B.A. or B.S. degree from an accredited university or college.)

CAN I RECEIVE ADVANCED STANDING AND TRANSFER CREDIT?
You sure can. Advanced standing credit for up to one-sixth of most degree programs can be earned by passing the appropriate proficiency exams. We also accept transfer credit up to one-half of most program requirements from other accredited seminaries and graduate schools.

IS FINANCIAL AID AVAILABLE?
Absolutely! Last year our Student Financial Services Office distributed over $1.5 million in scholarships. General scholarship funds are available as well as specialized funds for American-born minorities and international students. An interest-free payment plan provides funds for tuition, books, and room and board to eligible students. Low-cost group health insurance is also available.

WHAT ABOUT HOUSING?
We offer residence-hall rooms for single male students, including a full-service dining facility, as well as a new 10-story, 159-unit, student-housing complex that provides housing for Seminary students at below-market rates. Our Housing Office can also help you find off-campus housing for sale or rent.

HOW CAN I FIND A JOB IN DALLAS?
We participate in a Dallas-area job bank that lists over 2,000 jobs. This computerized job-search program, located in the Student Services Office, is available to assist you in finding employment that will meet your needs. A number of our students are also employed in churches and parachurch organizations throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex.

IS THERE JOB PLACEMENT ASSISTANCE AFTER GRADUATION?
Yes! After graduation our Placement Office works with you to help you find a ministry position. Our graduates serve in church and parachurch ministries, missions, Bible colleges and seminaries, and in a number of other fields. Many also go on to further study after completing one of our degrees. Our placement record is excellent.

WHAT IS YOUR DOCTRINAL POSITION?
The full Doctrinal Statement appears in the back of this catalog. While our faculty and board annually affirm their agreement with the entire statement, students need only affirm these seven essentials:

• the authority and inerrancy of Scripture
• the Trinity
• the full deity and humanity of Christ
• the spiritual lostness of the human race
• the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ
• salvation by faith alone in Christ alone
• the physical return of Christ.

OUR MISSION
The mission of Dallas Theological Seminary as a professional, graduate-level school is to glorify God by equipping godly servant-leaders for the proclamation of His Word and the building up of the body of Christ worldwide.

Expanded Statement of Purpose
1. Dallas Theological Seminary is a professional, graduate-level theological seminary that seeks to provide training at the master’s and doctoral levels to prepare its students for a variety of Christian ministries.

   • As a professional, graduate-level theological institution of higher learning, Dallas Seminary seeks to provide training for specific Christian ministries and to encourage the pursuit of Christian scholarship at the highest levels of research befitting the mission of a theological seminary.

   • While the doctrinal commitment of the Seminary is intentionally evangelical, Dallas Theological Seminary seeks to provide a contribution from its vantage to a broader constituency through community, theological and ecclesiastical involvement, and dialogue.

   • The Seminary seeks to maintain an appropriate balance between the training it provides for effective vocational ministries and the academic rigors necessary to graduate those who will research, write, and teach at the highest levels of theological education. As both a professional and graduate-level educational institution, the Seminary is committed to providing the appropriate support services, departments, resources, and facilities to accomplish the mission of the institution.

2. In order to equip men and women for ministry as godly servant-leaders, Dallas Theological Seminary encourages the development of godly character in each of its students.

   • The Seminary is committed to the preparation of students who are deeply committed to Jesus Christ and are marked by biblical and theological knowledge and maturing spirituality, along with the skills necessary for their future ministries.

   • Students are encouraged to grow spiritually in their personal relationship with God, to function responsibly within the Christian community, and to engage and witness to the world from a life of faith and integrity.

   • Dallas Seminary is committed to helping leaders develop a biblical philosophy of servant-hearted leadership as defined by Jesus Christ and as modeled by Him and the other godly individuals depicted in the Scriptures. Such leadership results from the gracious working of God through a person’s experience, training, spiritual gifting, natural talents, and the enablement of God’s Spirit.

3. Dallas Theological Seminary is committed to its founding ideal that the central subject of study is the entire Bible.

   • Dallas Seminary stands unequivocally committed to the Bible as God’s inerrant, infallible, and authoritative written revelation. Members of the school’s boards and faculty subscribe to the Seminary’s Doctrinal Statement, which is uniquely complete and detailed, thus helping safeguard the school’s unwavering theological stance since its founding.

• The Seminary’s commitment to the Scriptures leads to a framework of doctrine in which the great fundamentals of the Christian faith are affirmed and expounded. The doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy are taught in the framework of premillennial, dispensational theology, derived from a consistent grammatical-historical interpretation of the Bible. Those truths include such essentials as the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

• The goal of all biblical and theological instruction is to glorify God through a transformed life that is manifested by a wholehearted love for God and a servant-hearted love for others.

4. In order to prepare godly servant-leaders who reflect the heart of God, Dallas Seminary is committed to a worldwide vision of Christian ministry.

• Dallas Seminary is committed to fulfilling the mandate of Jesus to make disciples of all nations. The Seminary community is enriched and has its vision for ministry expanded by the presence of students from a wide variety of countries and ethnic backgrounds.

• Dallas Seminary embraces a wide context of ministries. Training for vocational ministry is the primary purpose for which the Seminary was founded and now exists. A secondary purpose is to provide theological training for those who choose to remain in their professions but who desire to be trained for leadership and a more effective ministry in the church.

• Dallas Seminary is firmly committed to promoting the missionary endeavor throughout the world. This commitment is demonstrated in a variety of ways that provide both exposure and experience for students in the diverse nature of missions and the unique opportunities for vocational service in missions around the world.

HISTORY OF DALLAS SEMINARY

In the fall of 1924, the first student body of Dallas Theological Seminary met to study under the noted Bible teacher, Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer. This class of 13 students was the result of Dr. Chafer’s burden and vision to found a seminary that would emphasize expository preaching and teaching of the Scriptures.

In 1935, the Seminary pioneered the four-year Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree, which is a year longer than the three-year Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree offered at most other seminaries. The Th.M. gives all the essential theological courses offered in a three-year curriculum with additional emphasis in systematic theology, Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis, Greek and New Testament exegesis, and Bible exposition.

In 1974, the Seminary instituted the two-year Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) program for students whose ministries would not require the in-depth language training of the Th.M. program. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree was begun in 1980 to provide further pastoral training for Seminary graduates to meet the changing demands of ministry. In 1982, the Seminary began the M.A. in Christian Education so that students could receive specialized training for Christian ministries. In 1987, the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries program was inaugurated to give specialized missions training. In 1993, the Seminary launched a three-year M.A. in Biblical Counseling and a two-year M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics. The latter program is offered jointly with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics located in south Dallas.

Outstanding leadership and scholarly expertise have characterized the Seminary’s presidents:

Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, 1924–52
Dr. John F. Walvoord, 1952–86
Dr. Donald K. Campbell, 1986–94
Dr. Charles R. Swindoll, 1994–2001
Dr. Mark L. Bailey, 2001–

Throughout the Seminary’s history it has steadfastly maintained its allegiance to biblical truth. A Doctrinal Statement articulates the beliefs of Dallas Seminary, and each year the faculty and board members reaffirm their agreement with this statement.

DALLAS DISTINCTIONS

The Seminary’s commitment to excellence in preparing communicators of the Bible has set it in a place of distinction. What is it that makes Dallas Seminary different from many other seminaries?

A Consistent Theological Approach

Dallas Seminary stands unequivocally committed to God’s inerrant Scriptures. Members of the school’s boards and faculty subscribe to the Seminary’s Doctrinal Statement, which safeguards the school’s unswerving theological stance.

The Seminary’s commitment to the Scriptures leads to a system of doctrine in which the great fundamentals of the Christian faith are affirmed and expounded. The doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy are taught in the framework of premillennial, dispensational theology, derived from a consistent grammatical-historical interpretation of the Bible. Those truths include such essentials as the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

A Bible-centered Curriculum

The study of the entire Bible is a central characteristic of the Dallas curriculum. Every student in a master’s-level program (except Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) studies the 66 books of the Bible in expositional and exegetical courses. Two and one-half years of Greek and two years of Hebrew enable Th.M. students to develop exegetical skills basic to their own inductive examination of the written Word.

A Dallas Seminary education, however, extends beyond the academic pursuit of biblical and theological disciplines to the art of communicating biblical truth effectively. Courses in ministry and communication seek to cultivate in students a sensitivity to spiritual needs, zeal for world missions, fervor in evangelism, and Spirit-filled enthusiasm for effectively communicating the Word of God.

A World-class Faculty

Resident and adjunct faculty collectively hold over 225 graduate degrees from universities and seminaries around the world. Over 90 percent of the resident faculty have at least one doctorate. All together, resident and retired faculty have authored more than 370 books.

Not only are Dallas Seminary faculty known for their competence as biblical scholars, teachers, and communicators, but they are also Spirit-led people of God, who have a personal interest in their students.

A Dynamic Spiritual Emphasis

From its beginning the Seminary has admitted only students who give evidence of being born again. More than regeneration, however, a student must fully understand the Word of God. To be qualified properly for seminary instruction, a student must be walking in fellowship with God so that he or she can be taught by the Holy Spirit.

At Dallas, the cultivation of the spiritual life is inseparably fused with the scholarly study of biblical and related subjects. All of this is designed to prepare students to communicate the Word of God in the power of the Spirit of God.

A Strong Commitment to Missions

Dallas Seminary’s commitment to missions is demonstrated through its programs and conferences, which expose students to the diverse nature of missions and the unique opportunities for vocational service in missions.

Students whose goal is career missions may enroll in the Cross-cultural Ministries emphasis of either the Master of Arts (M.A.) or the Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree programs. Those particularly interested in Bible translation should consider the Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics (M.A./BEL) program, offered jointly with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL). There is also a Th.M. track offering courses in urban ministries.

Students in most of the Seminary’s master’s-level degree programs are required to take at least one course in the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. A number of elective courses are available to students desiring greater exposure to missions issues in North America or abroad.

The presence of many international students on campus creates a culturally rich environment that reflects the diversity of the global church and the scope of the Great Commission.

ALUMNI

Alumni and Church Relations

More than 11,300 alumni have studied at Dallas Seminary. They currently serve in all 50 states and 96 countries, teaching the Bible in over 60 denominations and in independent churches.

The quarterly Connection publication is designed to encourage and inform alumni.
About Dallas Seminary

Dallas Seminary Goals
The curricula and related seminary experiences are designed to help Dallas Seminary students grow in the following areas of knowledge, ministry skills, and character development. Depending on their vocational goals, Dallas Seminary students should:

- know how to study the Bible personally, using proven hermeneutical principles
- learn how to exegete the Scriptures in the original languages in order to communicate biblical truth
- understand biblical and systematic theology
- understand contemporary theological, moral, and ethical issues and evaluate them scripturally
- develop the ability to define, justify, and defend theological truth
- know the historical development of theology and the heritage of the church
- know the biblical basis and effective principles for ministry, pastoral care, leadership, counseling, evangelism, church education, and administration
- be actively committed to advancing the cause of world missions
- mature in their relationship with God by prayer, Bible study, meditation, and worship
- apply scriptural truths to life and ministry
- communicate the Word of God enthusiastically
- develop leadership skills to help meet the deep spiritual needs in the world
- grow in their spiritual life and Christlike character in order to use spiritual gifts to serve Christ, the church, and the world.

About significant ministry issues, announcements, and news items.

The biannual DTS Alumni Directory furnishes alphabetical, class-year, denominational, and geographical listings of alumni. The directory is a valuable resource for networking and for staying in touch with friends.

Continuing Education
Dallas Seminary’s continuing education program equips alumni and other Christian leaders for the changing demands of ministry. It also meets immediate ministry needs and represents the Seminary’s continued commitment to the success of its alumni.

Continuing education is provided through seminars taught around the country by Dallas Seminary faculty and other well-known Christian leaders. These brief, inexpensive seminars address current biblical and theological issues and build upon the training graduates received during their years of study. Graduates may also audit D.Min. classes. (For further information contact the director of Alumni and Church Relations.)

The Alumni-in-Residence program allows alumni with a minimum of three years’ full-time ministry experience after graduation to return to campus as nondegree students for a tuition-free semester of study. (Courses taken in this program cannot be applied to a degree program at the Seminary but may be transferable to other graduate institutions.)

The Association of Evangelical Ministers
The Association of Evangelical Ministers (AEM) is made up of Dallas Seminary alumni who are active in vocational Christian ministry. Members of the AEM are committed to a moral and ethical code of conduct that unites them for ministerial encouragement, support, and fellowship.

Benefits include continuing-education seminars, mentoring and networking opportunities, career assessment, discounted placement services, and other ministry resources. Members also receive the distinction of being able to carry the endorsement and seal of the association, knowing that their ministry has been reviewed and reflects the highest standards. For more information, call the Alumni Office or email aem@dts.edu.

Placement Office
This office provides consultation to graduating students, alumni, and churches in the placement process. Services provided include assistance in résumé development, the candidate-interviewing process, compensation guidelines, and assisting churches in search... strategy. The office also produces a biweekly list of ministry opportunities.

CENTER FOR CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

The Center for Christian Leadership (CCL), founded in 1986, serves as a training and resource center to develop leadership skills in DTS students, alumni, and other Christian workers and business leaders. Programs include leadership conferences, spiritual-gifts assessment, church consulting, life-planning, character development, and assistance in vision refinement.

In conjunction with the Academic Dean’s Office, the CCL coordinates the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership and the Center for Biblical Studies.

Center for Biblical Studies

The Dallas Seminary Center for Biblical Studies (CBS) offers nondegree, adult continuing-education courses in Bible, theology, spiritual life, and ministry skills for people in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. CBS offers evening courses in the fall, spring, and summer semesters, and one-day seminars are held on Saturdays during the fall and spring semesters. Upper-level M.A., Th.M., S.T.M., and Ph.D. students teach CBS courses for internship credit. (See the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership for the course description of SL130 Academic Ministries Internship.)

SUPPORTING MINISTRIES

Bibliotheca Sacra

The oldest conservative theological journal in America, Bibliotheca Sacra has been in continuous publication since 1843 and has been published by Dallas Seminary since 1934. This quarterly journal contains articles, periodical reviews, and book reviews on biblical exposition and current theological and ministerial issues of interest to pastors, scholars, alumni, teachers, and serious lay Bible students. Bibliotheca Sacra enjoys one of the largest circulations of any theological journal in the world.

Faculty Ministries

Dallas Seminary’s distinguished faculty members are in frequent demand as speakers and leaders at Christian conferences and professional association conferences in the United States and around the world. Several of them are involved in popular radio and video ministries, and all serve in local churches.

Kindred Spirit

Dallas Seminary publishes Kindred Spirit four times a year as a ministry to friends of the school. Each issue of this award-winning magazine features helpful articles on Bible doctrine and Christian living from a conservative, evangelical perspective. Free subscriptions are available within the United States.

Off-campus Bible Conferences

Each year the Seminary sponsors Bible conferences taught by faculty members at Mount Hermon Bible Conference (CA) and Word of Life (FL).

ACCREDITATION AND AFFILIATIONS

Dallas Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; telephone number 404-679-4501) to award master’s and doctoral degrees. The Seminary is also an accredited member of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15275-1103; telephone number 800-367-8250).

Dallas Seminary is a member of the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI), the Evangelical Training Association (ETA), the Jerusalem University College, and the Institute of Theological Studies (ITS).

Dallas Seminary is nondenominational and seeks to serve those of like biblical faith in evangelical Protestantism. The faculty, governing boards, and students are members of various denominational or independent churches.

LOCATION

The main campus of Dallas Seminary is located in Dallas, Texas, with a metropolitan area population of over 3 million.

With an average temperature of 65 degrees and an abundance of affordable housing, the city also boasts beautiful residential areas, parks, and playgrounds, along with fine schools and universities. Students and their families may enjoy a host of cultural activities, museums, and participant and spectator sports.

The business capital of the Southwest, Dallas provides numerous employment opportunities through its banks, offices, hospitals, and other industries, and is serviced by the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, one of the world’s largest, located approximately 25 miles from the Seminary. For directions, see page 204 in this catalog for maps. Also go to www.dts.edu/prospective and click on “Visit Campus.”

Students are what we are about at Dallas Seminary. Training you for future ministry involves ministering to you and encouraging you to minister to each other. You will find the atmosphere and programs on our campus conducive to building authentic community within the body of Christ.

SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT
As a student, you will have many opportunities for personal interaction and growth—in class, in chapel, in prayer, and in fellowship—that will help you develop a passion for ministry.

Chapel
Dallas Seminary provides chapel services for students each morning, Tuesday through Friday, during the fall and spring semesters, and each Wednesday morning during Summer School. Chapel services feature worship and messages by members of the faculty and other Christian leaders. Friday Forums provide an opportunity for dialogue on critical current issues with an open-forum discussion between faculty, students, and, at times, visiting leaders from the Christian community. (See the Student Handbook for chapel attendance requirements.)

Prayer Chapels
Students and faculty come together several days each semester for special times of prayer in chapel.

Spiritual Formation
Spiritual Formation groups of six to eight students (required of Th.M. and M.A./CE students, and offered as an elective in other programs) may significantly impact a student’s life while at the Seminary. These groups provide an environment for prayer, fellowship, and ministry. As group members grow in character and spiritual maturity together, significant friendships and ministry partnerships are established that may last a lifetime.

STUDENT SERVICES
Dallas Seminary provides resources to students and their spouses. Following are just a few of the available services. Contact the Student Services Office for more detailed information.

Counseling and Testing Services
The Counseling Services department offers short-term counseling assistance to students, staff, faculty, and their immediate families. The director of Counseling and Testing Services is complemented by a referral network of counselors from the community, all working from a biblical foundation in providing professional counseling services to the Seminary family.

Christian Ministry Opportunities
The Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex offers a variety of opportunities for students to apply what they are learning in the classroom. Many churches welcome students to teach Sunday school, lead youth groups, and minister in other ways. Students are often able to fulfill their internship requirements while ministering at these churches. (See Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership for more information on internship requirements.)
Student Government
Dallas Seminary has an active student government. The Student Council, elected by students, serves primarily to integrate all phases of extracurricular life of the student body. Leaders from all active student groups participate in Student Council.

Student Newspaper
A student newspaper containing news, features, and articles relating to the student body publishes articles that are submitted mostly by students.

Student Missions Fellowship
Student Missions Fellowship (SMF) hosts numerous prayer meetings, discussion groups, and chapels to keep the student body aware of spiritual needs around the world. SMF encourages students to participate in an Intercultural Ministries Internship abroad. They also sponsor a campus-wide World Evangelization Conference each spring, which urges students to consider long-term missionary service.

Physical Fitness Facilities
Each student enrolled in six or more hours per semester pays an activity fee that provides a membership to the Baylor Fitness Center each fall and spring term. Optional memberships are available for those enrolled in fewer than six hours, students’ spouses, and Summer School students.

Women’s Student Fellowship Board
The Women’s Student Fellowship Board (WSFB) serves to help acclimate female students to campus and to prepare them for ministry. This organization develops and organizes activities such as an annual women students’ retreat, newcomers’ fellowship groups, mentoring programs, a prayer ministry, informal lunches, guest speakers, and social events. The WSFB is led by a group of women students dedicated to enriching the academic, spiritual, and social lives of DTS women students.

Student Handbook
The Student Handbook includes academic, library, financial regulations and procedures, and other instructions and policies regarding student life.

While the Seminary recognizes the freedom of each student to develop exemplary personal standards under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, students at the Seminary are recognized as Christian leaders by people in the community.

Therefore, certain exemplary standards of conduct and appearance are to govern the student body (Rom. 14:21–22). The use of tobacco and the use of alcoholic beverages (except for liturgical, ceremonial, medicinal, or other exceptional instances) are not considered suitable for the Seminary faculty, staff, and students. (See Handbook for further information.)

Seminary Wives in Ministry
The Seminary Wives in Ministry (SWIM) program is designed to help wives of students become competent servant-leaders in ministry. Three distinct ministries facilitate this preparation: A self-study program focusing on independent reading and community involvement is monitored by a faculty wife adviser; Seminary Wives in Nurturing Groups, administered and led by student wives, is a small-group ministry that encourages Bible study, fellowship, and leadership development; and periodic seminars deal with topics of interest to women preparing for leadership roles alongside their husbands.

Employment Opportunities
Jobs are listed on the Seminary’s job board, which is available online to students through the student information page. Terminals are located in Student Services in the Walvoord Student Center. Students and their spouses who wish to be considered for on-campus employment should contact the Human Resources Office.

To view a list of on-campus openings, or to obtain an application, go to www.dts.edu. Select “Employment” from the menu. Contact Human Resources for questions regarding these on-campus openings.

Accepted students may view a list of job openings made known to us by employers in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex by selecting DFW Job Board. A student ID and password are required. Contact Student Services for more information regarding the Job Board.

Students with Disabilities
In accordance with Section 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Dallas Theological Seminary will make reasonable accommodation to ensure equal opportunity and access for qualified students to applicable programs, services, activities, and facilities. Dallas Theological Seminary is a privately funded, nonprofit, religious organization and is committed to providing reasonable accommodations within the limitations of Seminary resources.
Accommodation provided to the student will be determined after the applicant has been accepted for admission. Inquiries about available services and resources prior to application cannot be answered with specific information.

After acceptance for admission, but before initial matriculation, it is the responsibility of the student to make known his or her need for accommodation. Requests for special accommodation or auxiliary aids should be made well in advance of need to the coordinator of services for students with disabilities in the Student Services department. Proof of disability may be required if the disability is not evident.

The Seminary assumes no responsibility for personal assistance necessary for independent functioning or for specialized medical care.

HEALTH INSURANCE

The Seminary requires all students taking nine or more credit hours per semester to carry health insurance for themselves and their immediate families. Any student taking six or more credits is eligible at any time to purchase health insurance through the Seminary’s group plan.

HOUSING

Dallas Seminary is committed to providing quality campus housing that is economical and convenient and that encourages an atmosphere of community.

For single men, 108 private rooms are available in two residence halls. Lincoln and Stearns Halls offer environments in which to build strong, mutually supportive communities in on-campus facilities. All rooms are private with communal bath facilities. Stearns Hall offers a common television lounge and laundry facilities, and each room features built-in desks and sinks. Lincoln Hall offers a large television lounge, game room, study areas, laundry facilities, and a language-resource library. First-year single men are required to live on campus as long as space is available. (The Housing Office must receive requests for exemption from this policy in writing no later than August 1 for the fall semester and December 1 for the spring semester.) This provides economical accommodations with convenient access to campus facilities. The fee for residence hall rooms also includes dining services in the Mitchell Dining Commons.

The Swiss Tower apartment complex contains 159 apartments that are available for married students and their families, and single women. This 10-story complex is located on campus directly across the street from the Turpin Library. It offers one-bedroom apartments, which have a study, and two-bedroom apartments. Amenities include adult and child swimming pools, a community room featuring a small kitchen for social functions, game and conversation areas, and a small playroom for residents’ children. Laundry facilities are available on each floor.

Residence-hall rooms for single students are available during the summer at a reasonable cost. A limited number of apartments may also be available for sublease to married students. The Housing Office also maintains a large database of off-campus housing opportunities. (For more information on housing, see the website or contact the Housing Office.)

FACULTY AND ACADEMIC ADVISING

Since the Seminary considers the advising process an integral part of each student’s program, all degree students are assigned a faculty adviser from a department appropriate to their course of study. Faculty advisers help not only in planning a satisfactory program of study, but also by providing spiritual and vocational counsel. Students are encouraged to meet regularly with their adviser.

Academic advising is available through the Registrar’s Office.

TURPIN LIBRARY

The Mosher Library building, opened in 1960, is named in memory of William and Theodore Mosher. It has 20,000 square feet of space for periodicals, study carrels, and the Media Center. Turpin Library, opened in 1988 and named in honor of Jack and Sally Turpin, has 38,000 square feet of space for the circulation desk, administrative offices, and most of the bookstacks. The two library buildings are connected and together hold over 275,000 items, including more than 200,000 volumes, plus audiotapes, videos, slides, and microforms. The library maintains almost 900 current periodical subscriptions plus indexes, abstracts, and bibliographies.

The library has seating for 584 readers, including two conference rooms and two small-group study rooms. Library staff with theological and library degrees assist students and faculty. The general collection is strong in systematic and historical theology. It also emphasizes biblical exegesis and interpretation, with exceptional holdings in biblical languages, archaeology, and the history and culture of the biblical world.
The Media Center makes available audio recordings, videos, slides, and other media formats. It has an audio studio, video suite, a computer lab with 24 computers, and an AV lab/classroom with 10 computers. The Doctoral Study Center in Mosher Library contains 41 doctoral cubicles, and another 24 are in Turpin Library.

Special collections include rare books and pamphlets relating to the theological heritage of the Seminary, rare Bibles, a collection of codex and papyrus manuscripts in facsimile and microform, and faculty publications. The archives include institutional records, papers of Seminary presidents, and the papers of the International Council on Biblical Inerrancy.

The library’s holdings are accessed through BIBLOS, an online catalog using the SIRSI system. BIBLOS is available on the web at http://library.dts.edu. Through BIBLOS students can access an array of bibliographic databases, such as the ATLA Religion Index, and full-text periodicals and books.

Students and faculty have borrowing privileges through TexShare at most academic and some public libraries in the state of Texas. The library participates in the AMIGOS Bibliographic Council, the Online Computer Library Center, the American Theological Library Association, and the Southwest Area Theological Library Association.

2. A 32-hour program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree for students who previously earned a three-year Master of Divinity or its equivalent.
3. A 90-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling degree. Students in this program interested in pursuing Texas State Licensure may be required to take one or two additional courses beyond the 90 hours required for the degree.
4. A 62-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree, offered in collaboration with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (associated with Wycliffe Bible Translators).
5. A 65-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Christian Education degree.
6. A 62-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Cross-cultural Ministries degree.
7. A 62-hour program leading to the Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) degree.
8. A 30-hour program leading to the Certificate of Graduate Studies.
9. A 30-hour professional program leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree for those presently in ministry and holding a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent.
10. A 35-hour program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree for those presenting a Master of Theology degree or its equivalent, with an additional 26 hours for those holding a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent.

Students wishing to earn a second master's degree may do so by adding additional hours to the earned degree. The total hours needed to earn two degrees follow. Consult the Registrar's Office for the specific courses that must be completed to earn the second degree.

Now that I am in the Spiritual Formation program I can’t imagine being prepared for what God is calling me to do without this blessed opportunity.
—Sherry Klein
DTS Student
PURPOSE
The Master of Theology degree program is designed to produce competent Bible expositors who are qualified to serve God effectively as pastors, missionaries, or leaders in other areas of vocational Christian ministry.

GOALS
Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• verbalize a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• demonstrate the ability to exegete the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible; and
• evidence an understanding of the educational program of the local church and an awareness of the worldwide mission of the church.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• communicate the Bible effectively;
• demonstrate skills in various ministries; and
• lead a local church or other group by means of biblical exposition, leadership skills, evangelism, and service.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Admission requirements and application procedures for the Th.M. program are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.)

TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Transfer of up to 60 semester hours is allowed toward the Th.M. degree from accredited graduate theological schools. Consult the Admission section of the catalog for information on eligibility for transfer of credit.

CURRICULUM
The prescribed Master of Theology curriculum involves not only extensive preparation in Hebrew, Greek, Bible, and systematic and historical theology, but also preparation in pastoral ministries, Christian education, missions, and ministry leadership. Th.M. students enroll in Spiritual Formation groups during their first four semesters in the program.

While the Master of Theology degree is coeducational, the Seminary holds the position that Scripture limits to men the

TOTAL TH.M. HOURS = 120

1. RS101 will be offered during the same class session as PM101 each semester. Therefore, students should plan to register for RS101 and PM101 concurrently. The remainder of the three-hour research component of the Th.M. degree program will consist of either RS102 (2 hours) or a thesis (2 hours). Those planning on writing a thesis should register for the thesis in the fall semester of the fourth year (or the year of graduation). Students writing a thesis are advised to begin the process of topic selection the year before the year of graduation.

2. NT111 and BE103 (and NT112 and BE105) will be offered during the same class sessions each semester; BE103 and BE105 normally will be taught the first 10 weeks of the semester followed by NT111 and NT112 respectively during the last five weeks of the semester. The courses are designed to be taken concurrently and students should make every effort to do so.

3. Students should average 15 hours per semester in order to complete the Th.M. degree in four years without taking courses in Summer School or Wintersession. However, since track and elective courses at Dallas Seminary vary between two and three semester hours, some semesters after the second year may have slightly more or fewer hours, depending on courses taken. For information on scheduling courses effectively, students should consult the Registrar’s Office.

4. Ministry track requirements range from 14 hours (Pastoral Ministries track) to 20 hours (Interdisciplinary Studies track). Each track requires a two-hour ministry leadership internship related to the track. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership section of this catalog for more information.

5. Open elective hours range from 14 hours (for those in the Interdisciplinary Studies track) to nine hours (for those in Pastoral Ministries track). The 17-hour tracks will leave six hours free for electives. Students in the Th.M. program may also take up to an additional (over and above the 120 hours required for the degree) five courses for credit for a modest fee to cover the cost of materials. Students may start taking the free classes any time during their program of study, but may take no more than one free class in any semester or summer term.

NOTE: Semester loads can be reduced by taking courses in Summer School and/or Wintersession.

NOTE: See footnotes under the four-year curriculum chart for important information on the Th.M. requirements. roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church. Therefore the Pastoral Leadership concentration of the Pastoral Ministries track is not open to women.

Students are encouraged to take courses in the order in which they appear on the curriculum chart. This is to the student’s advantage as courses are designed to build on previous course work.

The Th.M. curriculum requires 120 credit hours, including 14–20 hours in a ministry track, of which two hours are a servant ministry internship related to the track. (The only exception to the two-hour internship is in the Bible translation track, which requires field work as part of the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL) portion of the degree program.) When students declare their ministry track (at the completion of 60 hours), they should start planning for their internship experience because of the time involved (as many as 400 hours of ministry). Consult the Spiritual Formation and Leadership section of the catalog for more information.

Th.M. students are responsible to demonstrate competence in research by satisfactorily completing either (1) a Th.M. thesis in an academic department of their choosing, or (2) a two-hour research seminar.

The program includes up to nine hours of open electives, depending on the track selected. To provide greater opportunity for learning, students may also take up to five courses for credit beyond the 120 hours required for the degree, for only a modest fee to cover the cost of materials. Consult the Registrar’s Office for more information and limitations on this special program.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Because Dallas Seminary values character and spiritual maturity, Th.M. and M.A./CE students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups each of their first four semesters of study.

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups (six to eight students) focus on identity, community, integrity, and ministry. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, career assessment, and the integration of learning with ministry. Additionally, the groups act as the small group component of all required internships. As courses should be taken consecutively, students are encouraged to arrange their schedules so that they may stay in the same group each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. The prerequisite for all required internships is SF101 Spiritual Formation I (Identity).

Additional Spiritual Formation courses focusing on leadership may be taken as electives.

TH.M. MINISTRY TRACKS

Each student in the Master of Theology program selects a ministry track from the following. (Concentrations within individual tracks are listed below each track.)

- Academic Ministries
  - Old Testament Studies
  - New Testament Studies
  - Bible Exposition
  - Systematic Theology
  - Historical Theology
  - Biblical Counseling
  - Christian Education
  - World Missions and Intercultural Studies
- Bible Translation
- Cross-cultural Ministries
- Educational Leadership
  - Church Educational Leadership
  - Children’s Ministry
  - Youth Ministry
  - Adult Ministry
  - Family Life Ministry
  - Educational Administration
- Evangelism and Discipleship
- Interdisciplinary Studies
- Media Arts in Ministry
- Parachurch Ministries
- Pastoral Ministries
- Women’s Ministry

* Students wishing to combine elements of two tracks may do so through the Interdisciplinary Studies track. Overlapping courses are replaced by electives in the same department. (Substitutions can be determined by the student’s adviser.)

Academic Ministries Track

This track is designed to equip students for ministry in a nonchurch educational context such as teaching in a Bible college or seminary, or a parachurch ministry emphasizing research and communication. Elements of instructional theory and practice are combined with additional study in an academic discipline. For many of these students, study beyond the Th.M. will be necessary or advisable. Students desiring to teach in the area of Pastoral Ministries should select the Pastoral Ministries track and consult with their adviser.

Bible Translation Track
This track is designed to equip students for the task of Bible translation. All track courses are offered by the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL). GIAL is located at the International Linguistic Center in south Dallas and is associated with Wycliffe Bible Translators. Because of the unique nature of the Bible translation ministry and the needs of translators on the field, the following 18 semester hours of courses are required to complete the Bible Translation track.

All Bible Translation track courses are taken through the GIAL and are offered in a six-month modular format in either the spring/summer or summer/fall. Students should plan to complete all track requirements in either the fall or spring. Students in this track should consult the Registrar’s Office for additional information on class scheduling.

Additional information on the following courses, along with course descriptions, can be found in the M.A./BEL section of this catalog. Since the GIAL courses require field work, no other internship is required through Dallas Seminary.

SL140 Intercultural Ministries Internship 2
17 (19*)

If choosing WM405, WM410, and/or WM505, the extra hour(s) would apply toward free elective requirements for a Th.M. student.
Academic Programs

NOTE: Students wishing to earn a TESOL certificate must take the following courses in addition to the above track requirements:

- WM605 General Linguistics (3)
- WM610 Introduction to TESOL (3)
- WM615 Methodology and Practice of TESOL (3)
- SL205 TESOL Internship (2)

NOTE: SL205 in this case can substitute for a Th.M. student’s SL140 requirement, but must be taken for two hours’ credit.

Educational Leadership Track
This track, designed to equip students for leadership in a local church or parachurch organization, includes training both in foundational courses and courses related to the student’s chosen concentration. The student may select one of the following six concentrations:

Church Educational Leadership Concentration
Students completing this concentration should be able to design, direct, supervise, and evaluate the overall educational ministries of a local church.

Interdisciplinary Studies Track
The Interdisciplinary Studies track is designed to provide a more generalized ministry preparation course of study for students whose ministry goals are less settled or incorporate elements of two or more of the standard ministry tracks in the Th.M. curriculum. Since the Interdisciplinary Studies track requires a combination of requirements from two different departments plus a servant leadership internship in an area of intended ministry, the total hours required for the track are 20 (two hours of which are the internship). Students in the Interdisciplinary Studies track may select a wide variety of departmental combinations under the following guidelines.

One of the Interdisciplinary Studies track departments must be from the Division of Biblical Studies or the Division of Theological Studies (Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, Bible Exposition, or Theological Studies); the second department must be from the Division of Ministries and Communication (Pastoral Ministries, Biblical Counseling, Christian Education, or World Missions and Intercultural Studies). Students will take a minimum of nine credit hours in each of the two departments selected as specified and in consultation with their advisers.

Parachurch Ministries Track
The Parachurch Ministries track, developed jointly by the Christian Education and World Missions and Intercultural Studies departments, is designed to facilitate ministry training for those currently engaged in or anticipating serving in parachurch ministries either in the United States or overseas.

The track is designed with maximum flexibility. Courses totaling 15 semester hours are selected in consultation with the student’s adviser.

Electives approved by departments 15
SL160 Parachurch Ministries Internship 2

Pastoral Ministries Track
The Pastoral Ministries track, designed to equip students for ministry as senior or associate pastors in local churches, provides training in pastoral ministry, leadership, worship, and preaching.

PM201 Expository Preaching III 3
PM202 Expository Preaching IV 3
PM301 Pastoral Theology and Leadership I 3
PM302 Pastoral Theology and Leadership II 3
SL105 Pastoral Ministries Internship 2

Women’s Ministry Track
While Dallas Seminary holds the position that Scripture limits to men the roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church, it also affirms that local churches, denominational structures, parachurch organizations and ministries, educational institutions, and missions agencies all present strategic ministry opportunities for women. This track is designed to equip women to organize and lead women’s ministry programs in a variety of these settings.

The Women’s Ministry track is an interdisciplinary track under the oversight of the Christian Education department but with course options from several departments. Though the following courses compose the general requirements of the track, students may substitute other relevant courses, with the approval of the department, to tailor the track to meet their unique ministry goals.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
Of the 120 semester hours of course work required for graduation, a minimum of 60 must be taken in residence at the Dallas campus. All work leading to the degree must normally be completed within eight years from the time a student begins the program. Extension beyond the eight years requires approval by the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy for the Master of Theology degree by action of the faculty after these requirements have been met: (1) completion of a minimum of 90 semester hours with a grade point average of 2.0; (2) satisfactory progress toward meeting ministry leadership internship requirements, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; (3) evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty of proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ; and (4) provision of a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates for the Master of Theology degree must have completed 120 semester hours of course work, including ministry leadership credits, with a grade point average of at least 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, proven Christian character, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.
Academic Programs

Master of Sacred Theology (S.T.M.)

Purpose
The program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree is open to those who have graduated from a standard three-year seminary program and hold the degree of Master of Divinity or its equivalent. The S.T.M. is designed to provide opportunity for additional and advanced studies in the theological disciplines in preparation for Christian service.

Goals
Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• verbalize a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• demonstrate ability to exegete the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible; and
• evidence a commitment to a biblically based philosophy of Christian education and a commitment to the worldwide mission of the church.

Spiritual Goal
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• communicate the Bible effectively;
• demonstrate skills in various ministries;
• lead a local church or other group by means of biblical exposition, leadership skills, evangelism, and service; and
• Be prepared for advanced theological education

Admission Requirements
Admission requirements and application procedures for the S.T.M. program are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog), with two exceptions: (1) students who desire to pursue studies toward this degree must present at the time of application approved college and seminary degrees or their respective academic and theological equivalents; (2) transcripts of this work must show a grade point average of at least 2.5 on a scale of 4.0.

Each applicant’s evaluation for admission to the S.T.M. program will include a review of the applicant’s completed M.Div. (or equivalent) course work to ensure the appropriate breadth of preparation necessary to pursue the S.T.M. degree. Identified deficiencies must be completed in addition to the program requirements indicated below. On acceptance, S.T.M. students will receive a preliminary degree plan outlining how many hours will be required for their program.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Thirty-two semester hours of course work are normally required for the S.T.M. degree. The requirements listed below allow the S.T.M. program to be customized individually to prepare students for their intended ministry goals.

Total S.T.M. hours

All S.T.M. students must demonstrate exegetical proficiency in Greek and Hebrew. Those intending to apply to the Ph.D. program at the Seminary should include OT104 Principles of Hebrew Exegesis and NT105 Exegesis of Romans in their hours in the Divisions of Biblical and Theological Studies. Students who do not have the appropriate Hebrew and Greek courses at the Master of Divinity level will also be required to take the prerequisite Hebrew and Greek courses as necessary (OT101 and OT102, and NT101–NT102 and NT103, respectively).

In addition S.T.M. students are expected to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the department proficiency in expository preaching as required in PM103 Expository Preaching I in order to take an advanced homiletics course. Students who do not have this level of proficiency will be required to take PM103. These prerequisite courses in Hebrew, Greek, or expository preaching, if required, will not count toward the 32-hour requirement for the S.T.M. degree (see Admission Requirements on previous page).

Students who have had Hebrew or Greek at the M.Div. level will need to pass a Hebrew or Greek proficiency exam before enrolling in OT103 or NT103. Failure to pass the exams will require the student to enroll in first-year language courses, which will not credit toward the S.T.M. degree.

Two courses, ST104 Soteriology and ST106 Eschatology, must be taken if the student does not already have credit for them or their equivalents. These courses may be taken as part of the hours available in the Divisions of Biblical and Theological Studies.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of up to six credit hours is allowed toward the S.T.M. degree from accredited graduate theological schools. Only courses completed after the conferral of the M.Div. degree, and in which a grade of C or better is earned, will be eligible for transfer. Transfer-ability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s Office for further information.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

Of the 32 semester hours of course work required for graduation, 26 hours must be taken in residence at the main campus or one of the extension centers. In most cases it will be necessary for S.T.M. students to be enrolled in a minimum of three semesters of study, which can include Summer School.

All work leading to the S.T.M. degree must be completed within three years from the time of matriculation. Extension requires approval by the Credits Committee. Reinstatement in the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy for the S.T.M. degree by action of the faculty at the beginning of the semester of their anticipated graduation after these requirements have been met: (1) grade point average of at least 2.5; (2) satisfactory progress toward meeting ministry leadership internship requirements, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; (3) evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty of proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ; and (4) provision of a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary.
GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates for the S.T.M. degree must have completed the required 32 semester hours of course work with a grade point average of at least 2.5, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, proven Christian character, and adherence to the doctrines stated above in the Admission to Candidacy section.
Diplomas will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.
PURPOSE

Master of Arts degrees in specialized ministries:

- Biblical Counseling (M.A./BC)
- Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics (M.A./BEL)
- Christian Education (M.A./CE)
- Cross-cultural Ministries (M.A./CM)

Programs leading to the professional Master of Arts degrees are designed to give men and women a biblical and theological foundation for various kinds of Christian service other than pulpit ministry. Graduates are normally recommended only for the types of ministry positions for which their degrees are intended. These M.A. programs are not designed to prepare students for doctoral studies at the Seminary.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission requirements and application procedures for professional M.A. degree programs are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.) Students will generally not be admitted into a degree program without goals consistent with the ministries for which the program is designed to equip them.

Those applying to the M.A. in Biblical Counseling program will also need to complete a process of testing and interviews with faculty. This process will determine whether the applicant has the dispositional and relational skills needed to enter into this kind of interpersonally intense program of study.

Those applying to the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics program must also be accepted as students at the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL).

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of some credit is allowed toward the professional M.A. programs from accredited graduate theological schools. Up to 30 hours of credit may be transferred toward the M.A. in Christian Education or the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries, and up to 45 hours toward the M.A. in Biblical Counseling (of the 45 hours, students are limited to 12 hours of transfer in counseling courses). M.A./BC students pursuing licensure may have stricter transfer-credit guidelines as required by the state licensing agency.

No more than 30 hours of course work from institutions outside of Dallas Theological Seminary and the GIAL will be transferred toward the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics.
For purposes of transfer consideration, course work from all GIAL centers will be considered as part of GIAL and not part of the 30-hour transfer limit. Some provision will be made for students to transfer work from the Jerusalem University College to the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics program. Entering students with missions experience in Bible translation may be eligible for advanced standing.

Students must have earned a grade of C or better for a course to be considered in transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s Office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

Of the 90 semester hours required for the M.A. in Biblical Counseling, a minimum of 45 hours must be taken in resident study at the Dallas campus. Of the 65 semester hours required for the M.A. in Christian Education, a minimum of 35 hours must be taken in resident study at the Dallas campus. Of the 62 semester hours required for the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries, a minimum of 32 hours must be taken in resident study at the Dallas campus. Of the 62 hours required for the M.A. degree in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics, a minimum of 22 hours must be taken through Dallas Seminary.

All work leading to any of the M.A. degrees must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to these programs after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy for the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree, the M.A. in Christian Education degree, or the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries degree by action of the faculty after they have completed a minimum of 45 hours of course work with a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

Students may be admitted to candidacy for the M.A. in Biblical Counseling degree by action of the faculty after they have completed a minimum of 65 hours of course work with a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and show reasonable promise for effective ministry in people’s lives.

In addition, students must evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in all M.A. programs must also provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the M.A. in Biblical Counseling degree must have completed 90 hours of course work. Candidates for the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree must have completed 62 hours of course work. Candidates for the M.A. in Christian Education degree must have completed 65 hours of course work. Candidates for the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries degree must have completed 62 hours of course work. Candidates must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and must evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty proven Christian character and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling degree provides a graduate-level, biblically and theologically focused education for people who desire to enter into Christian counseling practice. The training prepares men and women to engage in church, institutional, or private counseling practices. Meeting the program requirements enables a student to apply to the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors for licensure and complete the state’s post-graduate licensure requirements, including additional internship hours and a state licensing examination.

GOALS
Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• understand and explain the issues and problems that people face in life from a thoroughly biblical point of view;
• enter deeply into people’s lives with the truth and power of God’s Word and the gospel of His redemptive grace; and
• understand and evaluate secular and Christian psychological theories and practices from a sound biblical and theological point of view in order to develop professional competence within a thoroughly biblical framework focused on ministry.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to:
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
• develop deep levels of biblical and spiritual integrity in their own personal life, relationships, and ministry; and
• develop a deep level of commitment to people and to a ministry of helping them with their lives in a way that is pleasing to God.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• possess the personal and spiritual maturity, discernment, and wisdom needed to help people resolve spiritual, relational, and behavioral issues and problems; and
• engage in effective biblically based counseling in the context of a local church, private practice, or mental health institution.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Those applying to the M.A. in Biblical Counseling program will need to demonstrate appropriate academic and practical preparation broadly related to the field of counseling. Admitted students are designated as M.A./BC in either the first or second stage. In Stage 1 students move toward official designation as M.A./BC, and in Stage 2 they complete a process of interviews and examination with faculty members of the Biblical Counseling department during their second year.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The M.A. program in Biblical Counseling is three years in length with 90 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, and four in Spiritual Life and Evangelism. In addition, there are 43 hours in prescribed counseling courses and three counseling elective hours. Students who wish to pursue licensure in the State of Texas will need to complete an additional two hours in counseling courses under the direction of the department. Meeting these course requirements will enable a student to apply to the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors for licensure. No thesis is required.

Students move from Stage 1 to Stage 2 of the M.A./BC program on the satisfactory completion of a minimum of 24 hours of course work, including BC305 Counseling Practicum I. This normally occurs after the student’s third semester in the program. This process involves a “Personal, Academic, and Professional Progress Interview” with the departmental faculty and will help determine whether the student has the dispositional and relational skills to progress in this kind of interpersonally intense program of study. Students must successfully move to Stage 2 to continue in the program.

Students may take certain specialized counseling courses, other than those that are prescribed and/or offered in the M.A. in Biblical Counseling curriculum, at other accredited schools to fulfill any needed academic requirements for state licensure as a professional counselor.

Students pursuing state licensure in Texas will need to complete 48 hours in specified counseling courses, resulting in a 92-semester-hour program.

DALLAS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY 2005–2006 CATALOG
ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree is designed to provide graduate-level training for people who desire instruction in Bible translation. It is designed for missionary recruits from America and other nations, furloughing and in-service missionaries, and translation support personnel. It is offered jointly with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL), which prepares people for service with Wycliffe Bible Translators and other organizations. (The program only fulfills the minimum requirements for the first term of service with Wycliffe Bible Translators.) The New Testament Studies department is responsible for administering the program on campus.

GOALS

Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• exegete the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible;
• form a basic theological foundation as a grid for Bible translation;
• engage in collaborative work with speakers of minority languages;
• record an unfamiliar language using the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA);
• apply basic principles of hermeneutics in Bible study and Bible translation;
• employ computational tools to construct a phonological analysis, descriptive grammar, partial lexicography, and interlinear text of a minority language;
• discover their language learning styles and practice various language learning methods;
• conduct and record participatory observations in a cross-cultural setting; and
• do linguistic analysis of a previously unwritten language.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to:
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
• evidence commitment to world evangelism; and
• evidence an awareness of spiritual conflict and the resources in Christ.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• translate the Bible effectively in a cross-cultural context;
• produce an accurate profile of a chosen country or area of the world; and
• design an effective strategy for cross-cultural ministry.
ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The application process for the M.A./BEL is a dual process. Applicants for the program must apply to both Dallas Seminary and the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL), and the admission requirements of both institutions must be met. Since the program is offered by Dallas Seminary, the admission process should begin with the DTS Admissions Office. In most cases students admitted to Dallas Seminary will meet the admission requirements at GIAL. An orientation program at Dallas Seminary is designed to facilitate transition into the program and help students navigate the unique aspects of this collaborative program.

Students interested in the M.A./BEL may opt to begin their course work at GIAL. However, until they apply to DTS for admission to the program, they will not be officially enrolled in the M.A./BEL program. Students are advised to contact both institutions as soon as possible regarding their intentions to enroll in the M.A./BEL program so that adequate advice and direction can be provided.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Sixty-two semester hours of course work are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 18 are prescribed in linguistics and language, 12 in Greek grammar and exegesis, 12 in Hebrew grammar and exegesis, three in biblical manners and customs, three in theology of world missions, nine in Bible Exposition, and five in Systematic and Historical Theology. The New Testament Studies department advises students in this program. Career guidance is also available from the GIAL staff.

Substitutions may be made for required courses with appropriate departmental approval. Students who have linguistics background or training should consult the GIAL registrar for course advice.

Linguistics and related translation courses are offered on the campus of GIAL in Dallas. Biblical and theological course work, as well as course work in biblical languages, is offered at Dallas Seminary. A Spiritual Formation group supervised by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies is designed to meet the needs of this group of students.

Completion of course requirements for the M.A./BEL requires careful planning on the part of students as they seek to coordinate course work at two institutions. Every attempt is made to facilitate the completion of the program in two calendar years for full-time students. However, students should be aware that the linguistics courses from GIAL require prerequisites that may extend the length of the program. Before students begin their studies in the M.A./BEL, they should consult the DTS registrar to develop a degree plan for completing requirements. This plan will include input from GIAL on the completion of linguistics requirements.

GIAL has designed its courses to be taught in six-month bimesters, from either January through June or July through December. Each bimester is divided into four sessions. Dallas Seminary follows a regular early-semester calendar. This may result in the overlap of DTS courses with GIAL courses in a given term. The following curriculum chart shows two options for completing the M.A./BEL in two or two-and-one-half years. In Option 1 most of the GIAL course work is taken at the beginning of the program, and this option leads to the shortest route for completing the M.A./BEL requirements in two calendar years. Students should keep in mind, however, that they will begin their studies at GIAL rather than DTS. In Option 2 most of the GIAL course work follows the DTS portion of the program, and the completion time is slightly longer. Both options allow students to proceed through the M.A./BEL without interruption in the progression of DTS or GIAL courses.

Because of the unique requirements of various missions based on a student’s anticipated geographic field of ministry, prerequisite requirements for the GIAL portion of the program may vary and may include completion of the 27-hour GIAL Certificate in Applied Linguistics (of which 5207 and 5406 apply to the M.A./BEL program). Students should consult both the DTS and GIAL registrars’ offices for information on scheduling options. The Admissions Office at Dallas Seminary will also be able to assist students.

ACADEMIC PROCEDURES

A dual registration process is followed for all GIAL courses taken for the degree. Students must register through GIAL before taking linguistics courses at that campus. Dallas Seminary is then notified by GIAL and enters the courses in the DTS registration system. This allows the tracking of student status for such purposes as loan deferments, international visa requirements, etc. There is no charge for the DTS portion of the registration process for GIAL courses.

At the end of each term, GIAL sends official grade sheets to the Registrar’s Office at Dallas Seminary for transcripting of their courses. Grades earned for GIAL courses are factored into the cumulative grade point average at Dallas Seminary.
GIAL COURSE DESCRIPTIONS
The following courses are offered through the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics. Prerequisite courses are not listed, but may be found in the GIAL Catalog available from the Admissions Office at GIAL by calling (800-892-3356 or 972-708-7340), by email (admissions@gial.edu), or online at www.gial.edu.

AL5207 Field Data Management
After completing this course, students will be able to use computational tools for managing and presenting phonological, textual, and lexical data collected in linguistic field research. Prerequisite: AL 4302 Principles of Articulatory Phonetics, AL 4410 Principles of Grammatical Analysis, LD 4330 Principles of Phonological Analysis, and LD 4505 Second Language and Culture Acquisition. Co-requisite: AL 5406 Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis. 2 hours.

AL5312 Discourse Analysis
After completing this course, students will be able to analyze the discourse structure of a text, using a specific approach to text analysis, and be able to compare this with other current approaches to text analysis. They will be able to describe typical features of different types of prominence and cohesion and coherence. They will be able to chart sample texts from different languages and analyze how a discourse may be segmented into hierarchical units. They will be able to indicate evidence for foregrounding and backgrounding (or mainline and supportive information), including differences in verb forms; to describe topic or participant reference; and to investigate constituent order variation. They will focus on the interface between syntactic forms and their functions in discourse as they investigate grammatical structures of discourse, paragraph, sentence and clause. Prerequisite: AL 4410 Principles of Grammatical Analysis. 3 hours.

AL5315 Semantics and Pragmatics
After completing this course, students will be able to explain and discuss relationships between form and meaning at various levels of language. They will be able to explain the difference between meaning and reference; describe and identify homonymy, polysemy, and ambiguity; analyze and describe word meanings, sentence meanings, utterance meanings and speech act functions; identify and describe presuppositions, entailments, implicature and ellipsis; identify components of meaning and write clear definitions based on componential analysis. Prerequisite: AL 4410 Principles of Grammatical Analysis. 3 hours.

AL5316 Theory and Practice of Translation
After completing this course, students will be able to explain the basic principles of transferring meaning across languages and cultures, and to compare different approaches to translation. They will be able to explain and discuss at least one theory of translation. They will also be able to explain and discuss methods for training and facilitating national colleagues in the process of translation. They will recognize common translation problems and applied methods for finding solutions. They will have recognized common translation problems and applied methods for finding solutions. They will have translated selected texts into their mother-tongue (or, completed a translation simulation exercise), also tested these translations to evaluate accuracy and communicative effectiveness, and improved and polished the translation into a final form. Prerequisites: AL 5312 Discourse Analysis and EITHER AL 5314 Culture, Language and Mind OR AL 5315 Semantics and Pragmatics. 3 hours.
ALS406 Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis

By the end of Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis, students should be able to elicit, record, and transcribe linguistic data by working with a speaker of a non-Western language; use external sources plus the elicited data to formulate explanatory hypotheses; and test those hypotheses against available data and refine them. Prerequisites: AL4302 Principles of Articulatory and Acoustic Phonetics, AL4410 Principles of Grammatical Analysis, LD4330 Principles of Phonological Analysis, and LD4505 Second Language and Culture Acquisition. Corequisite: AL5207 Field Data Management. 4 hours.

LD5332 Applied Phonology

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to analyze and describe the phonology of a language within various theoretical frameworks. They will have developed an understanding of various factors influencing innovative and/or systematic sound change in a language. The student’s analytical and descriptive skills will be developed through the study of phonological data from a variety of languages, with special attention to stress and tone. Prerequisite: LD4330 Principles of Phonological Analysis. Spring bimester only. 3 hours.

LD5352 Language Program Design and Management

Students successfully completing this course will be able to design and manage a language-development program. Students will conduct and interpret sociolinguistic research in order to identify the key national and local factors most likely to influence a language-development program for a linguistic community. Students will demonstrate mastery of the strategic-planning procedures taught during the class, including setting goals, strategies (with rationale), objectives, activities and evaluation measures, by stating long-range program goals and designing tentative, short-term (one to two years) language development plans appropriate to local language project needs. The course will highlight fundamental management skills crucial for partnering with any sponsoring agencies and the local community, with attention given to training local citizens for greater involvement in language-development program activities. Prerequisite: LD4350 Language and Society. Spring bimester only. 3 hours.

LDS361 Principles of Language Survey

After completing this course, students will be able to describe the linguistic and sociolinguistic criteria that can be used to define language and dialect boundaries and to determine the extensibility of existing literature in multilingual situations. They will be able to explain the methods used in language surveys to discover ethno-linguistic identity, determine linguistic similarity, measure inherent intelligibility, access bilingual proficiency, and describe language attitudes and patterns of language use. They will be able to assess the requirements of a survey and select the methods that are appropriate for the survey. They will be able to read and evaluate language survey reports and to develop the proposal and initial plan for a language survey. Prerequisite: LD4350 Language and Society. Spring bimester only. 3 hours.

1. Option 1 is recommended for students who do not have the prerequisite linguistics background and will need to complete the Certificate in Applied Linguistics through GIAL. Certificate courses begin in July and end before Christmas break. Of the 27 hours required for the Certificate in Applied Linguistics, six hours (AL5207 and AL5406) apply to the M.A./BEL degree program. For students who enter with the prerequisite linguistics background, both course schedule options are available.

2. AL5207 and AL5406 are scheduled in Session 4 of GIAL’s fall and spring terms, beginning mid-October and ending before Christmas break and beginning mid-April and ending the first week of June, respectively.

3. AL5312 is scheduled for Sessions 2 and 3 of the GIAL fall bimester beginning the third week of August and ending mid-October; AL5315 is scheduled for Session 4, beginning mid-October and ending before Christmas break.

4. Students should choose either LD5332 Applied Phonology, LD5352 Language Program Design and Management, or LD5361 Principles of Language Survey.

5. Bible Exposition courses may be replaced with exegesis courses in the Old or New Testament Studies departments or by other Bible Exposition courses as approved by the program adviser.

6. M.A./BEL students must register for a one-hour independent study to be taken concurrently with WM520.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Arts degree with a major in Christian Education is designed to provide a graduate-level biblical and theological education for men and women who anticipate vocational ministry as Christian education specialists. This program helps prepare its graduates to assume positions as ministers of Christian education, children's workers, ministers of youth, parachurch youth leaders, ministers of adults, directors of family-life education, administrators or teachers in Christian higher education, Christian school teachers and administrators, or women's ministry leaders.

GOALS
Educational Goals
To enable students to:

• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• develop a biblical philosophy of and commitment to Christian education in home, church, and school; and
• verbalize the nature and needs of at least one age group, state biblical goals for that age-level ministry, and apply appropriate educational principles.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to:

• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit; and
• exhibit godly leadership with a team spirit that will lead others into spiritual maturity and help develop them for leadership roles.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:

• organize, administer, and evaluate an educational program based on stated goals and objectives, working successfully with people in a variety of ministry situations;
• communicate effectively in a variety of Christian education ministry settings;
• formulate educational programs that are biblically based, educationally accurate, and related to people's needs; and
• utilize proper biblical and educational methods and materials for at least one age level.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-five semester hours of course work are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 are in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, two are in Spiritual Life, nine are in prescribed Christian Education courses, 12 are elective Christian Education hours, and two hours are in a ministry leadership course (SL165 Christian Education Internship). No thesis is required.

All students in the M.A. in Christian Education degree program are required to take CE101 Educational Process of the Church, CE102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education, CE103 Teaching Process, CE104 Audiovisual Presentations, and SL165 Christian Education Internship. In addition each student must select 12 hours in one of the following 10 ministry concentrations: (1) church educational leadership, (2) children’s ministry, (3) youth ministry, (4) parachurch ministry, (5) adult ministry, (6) family life ministry, (7) educational administration, (8) Christian school administration, (9) college teaching, or (10) women’s ministry. Details on each ministry concentration, to be selected in consultation with the department, are outlined on the following pages. Substitutions outside the concentration may be approved by a departmental adviser.

International students whose concentration requires CE715 The Role of the Associate in Ministry may, with adviser approval, substitute WM405 Christian Education in Intercultural Contexts. Those on staff with Young Life may transfer a maximum of 12 hours toward a parachurch youth ministries concentration. Consult the Registrar’s Office for further information.

(Students completing the M.A. in Christian Education are eligible to apply for admission to the Ed.D. or Ph.D. in Higher Education program at the University of North Texas. For more information see the Special Programs section of this catalog or contact the Christian Education Office.)

M.A. students interested in pursuing the Doctor of Ministry degree in Christian Education will need to take additional master’s-level courses to attain M.Div. equivalence.

Additionally, the groups act as the small-group component of all required internships. As courses should be taken consecutively, students are encouraged to arrange their schedules so that they may stay in the same group each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. The prerequisite for all required internships is SF101 Spiritual Formation I (Identity).

Extra Spiritual Formation courses focusing on leadership may be taken as electives.

Church Educational Leadership
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to design, direct, supervise, and evaluate the overall educational ministry of a local church.

- CE410 Children’s Ministry in the Church (3)
- CE415 Church Ministries with Youth (3)
- CE425 Church Ministries with Adults (3)
- CE505 The Christian Home (3)
- CE515 Family Life Education (3)
- CE715 The Role of the Associate in Ministry (3)

Children’s Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and supervise a local church or parachurch ministry to children, including the recruitment and retention of adult staff.

- CE405 Early Childhood Education (3)
- CE410 Children’s Ministry in the Church (3)
- CE505 The Christian Home (3)
- CE515 Family Life Education (3)
- CE715 The Role of the Associate in Ministry (3)

Youth Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and supervise an effective church program of youth ministry at the junior-high and high-school levels.

- CE415 Church Ministries with Youth (3)
- CE430 Programming for Youth Ministries (3)
- CE505 The Christian Home (3)
- CE515 Family Life Education (3)
- CE715 The Role of the Associate in Ministry (3)

Parachurch Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and supervise various parachurch ministries either in the United States or internationally. The concentration is designed with maximum flexibility and comprises courses from the Christian Education and World Missions and Intercultural Studies departments. Courses are selected in consultation with the student’s adviser.

Electives approved by departments (12)
Academic Programs

Adult Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and lead an adult education program.

- CE425 Church Ministries with Adults (3)
- CE440 Single and Senior Adult Ministry in the Local Church (3)
- CE505 The Christian Home (3)
- OR
- CE515 Family Life Education (3)
- CE715 The Role of the Associate in Ministry (3)

Family Life Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to develop and direct a church program of family life education including family classes, counseling, and discipling relationships.

- CE425 Church Ministries with Adults (3)
- OR

- OR
- CE710 Practice of Discipleship (3)

Educational Administration
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to serve effectively in a leadership role in an educational institution at the elementary, secondary, or higher level. This program does not lead to certification.

- CE210 Designing Biblical Instruction (3)
- CE220 Evaluating Ministry Effectiveness (3)
- CE310 Administration in Christian Higher Education (3)
- OR
- CE320 Christian School Administration (3)
- CE315 Administrative Process (3)

Christian School Administration
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to serve effectively in leadership of a Christian elementary or secondary school. This program does not lead to certification.

- CE210 Designing Biblical Instruction (3)
- CE315 Administrative Process (3)
- CE320 Christian School Administration (3)
- CE325 Legal and Financial Issues in Ministry (3)

College Teaching
Students completing this ministry concentration should have a foundation for success as a teacher in a Christian institution of higher learning. However, most colleges, universities, and seminaries require an earned doctorate in the teaching discipline. Also, most seminaries and graduate schools of theology require an M.Div. or, in some cases, the Th.M./S.T.M. degree for admission to doctoral programs.

- CE215 Teaching in Christian Higher Education (3)
- OR
- WM410 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts (3)
- CE310 Administration in Christian Higher Education (3)
- CE315 Administrative Process (3)
- CE605 Christian Journalism (3)
- OR
- CE705 Principles of Discipleship (3)

Women's Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and lead a women's ministry program in a local church or any other area of ministry to women.

- CE435 Developing and Leading Women's Ministry (3)
- CE505 The Christian Home (3)
- PM221 Expository Teaching for Women (3)
- PM351 The Role of Women in Ministry (3)

The M.A./CE and the D.Min.—CE
Those wishing to complete the Doctor of Ministry in Christian Education program will need to take the following courses in addition to completing the M.A. in Christian Education:

- BC101 Christian Counseling (2)
- CE410 Children's Ministry in the Church (3) and/or
- CE415 Church Ministries with Youth (3) and/or
- CE425 Church Ministries with Adults (3)
- HT102 The Church in the Modern Era Europe and America (3)
- ID201 Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis
- PM102 Evangelism (2)
- PM103 Expository Preaching I (3)

Individual evaluations of master's-level work required for admission to the D.Min. program in Christian Education may be obtained from the D.Min. Office. Requirements will vary depending on the courses that were included in the M.A. in Christian Education program. For more information, see the D.Min. section of this catalog.

CURRICULUM

(M.A. IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION)

1 The CE internship can be completed in the summer after the first or second year.

NOTE: Courses can be taken in Wintersession or Summer School to reduce the load during the fall and spring terms.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the M.A. degree with a major in Cross-cultural Ministries is designed to provide graduate-level training for people whose ministries include serving in other cultures. Prospective and veteran missionaries from North America and around the world will benefit from this program. It meets the essential academic requirements of most mission agencies and is ideal for those whose anticipated ministries will not include regular preaching.

GOALS

Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• trace the redemptive purpose of God for the world from Genesis to Revelation;
• verbalize principles of effective intercultural ministry;
• demonstrate familiarity with essential principles of anthropology, ethnology, sociology, and psychology in relation to missions; and
• state pertinent data on the contemporary world scene.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to:
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
• evidence a deep commitment to world evangelism; and
• evidence an awareness of spiritual conflict and the resources in Christ.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• communicate the Bible effectively in an intercultural context;
• produce an accurate profile of the chosen country or area of the world; and
• design an effective strategy for an intercultural ministry.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-two semester hours of course work are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, and four in Spiritual Life and Evangelism. There are 12 hours of prescribed World Missions and Intercultural Studies courses. The remaining six hours are missions electives. Department professors will assist students in designing the most appropriate program of missions electives for the student’s personal career goals.
Missions electives should be selected as follows:

1 contexts course 2
1 strategic approaches course 2 or 3
1 biblical and theological studies course 2 or 3

*If WM405 Christian Education in Intercultural Contexts, WM410 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts and/or WM505 Christianity and Non-Christian Religions are elected, students not needing the third hour of those courses for normal program requirements may reduce expenses by taking WM405, WM410, or WM505 for two hours' credit and one hour audit. Contact the Registrar's Office for details.

Students who lack adequate missions experience are required to do an intercultural or missions-related internship as part of their missions electives before completing the program. The acceptability of this experience is determined by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies faculty. Those interested in the TESOL certificate must take TESOL courses in addition to missions electives. This will require an additional 10 hours of course work. No thesis is required for the M.A./CM degree.

Students wishing to earn a TESOL (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages) certificate must take the following courses in addition to the six hours of missions electives. This will require an additional 10 hours of course work.

- WM605 General Linguistics (3)
- WM610 Introduction to TESOL (3)
- WM615 Methodology and Practice of TESOL (3)
- SL205 TESOL Internship (1)

(Note: SL205 in this case can be taken for one hour credit as opposed to the Th.M., where it must be taken for two hours' credit for the TESOL certificate.)

¹ Missions electives should include a contexts course (2 hours), a strategic approaches course (2 or 3 hours), and a biblical and theological studies course (2 or 3 hours). Students electing the three-hour courses may be adding hours to the normal requirements for the M.A./CM degree. Students not needing the extra hours may reduce expenses by taking WM405, WM410, or WM505 for two-hours' credit and one-hour audit. Contact the Registrar’s Office for details. Students lacking adequate missions experience will be required to complete a missions-related internship as part of their elective requirements.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Arts degree with a major in Biblical Studies is designed to provide a graduate-level biblical and theological foundation for various kinds of Christian service. This degree is designed primarily for lay leaders who desire training for better ministry within their church or organization. The M.A.(BS) may also provide supplemental training for those engaged in parachurch ministries or those in support positions with mission agencies or churches. Those who are seeking full preparation for vocational ministry should apply for admission to one of the professional degree programs.

GOALS
Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books; and
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues.

Spiritual Goal
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• demonstrate an increasing involvement in the local church or other ministries with which they are associated; and
• minister within a local church or other group by means of leadership skills, evangelism, and service.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Admission requirements and application procedures for the M.A.(BS) are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.) Students will generally not be admitted into this degree program without goals consistent with the ministries for which the program is designed to equip them.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Transfer of up to 30 credit hours is allowed toward the M.A.(BS) program from accredited graduate theological schools. Students must have earned a grade of C or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s Office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
Of the 62 hours required for the M.A. (Biblical Studies), a minimum of 32 hours must be taken in resident study at the main campus or one of the extension centers. All work leading to the M.A.(BS) must be completed within seven years from the
Academic Programs

General Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) (M.A.[BS])

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-two semester hours of course work are required as a minimum for graduation. Students may pursue this degree on a year-round basis or during summers. By taking about 12 hours of course work each summer, students can complete the program in five summers (or four summers if several elective hours in independent study courses are taken between summers of study).

Twenty-four of the 62 hours are prescribed Biblical Studies courses, 18 are prescribed Systematic Theology courses, two are in Historical Theology, and four are in Spiritual Life and Evangelism. Of the remaining 14 elective hours at least two hours must be taken in Christian Education and at least two hours in World Missions and Intercultural Studies.

No admission is required for the M.A.[BS] degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy for the M.A. (Biblical Studies) degree by action of the faculty after they have completed a minimum of 45 hours of course work with a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

In addition, students must evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in all M.A. programs must also provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates for the M.A.[BS] degree must have completed 62 hours of course work with a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and must evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty proven Christian character and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.

NOTES: At least two hours of electives must be selected from the Department of Christian Education and at least two hours from the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies.

Courses can be taken in Wintersession or Summer School to reduce the load during the fall and spring terms.
Certificate of Graduate Studies (C.G.S.)

Purpose
This certificate program provides a flexible course of study for:

• Christian laypersons who desire a short program of seminary studies to equip them for effective ministry in the local church or elsewhere;

• Those who wish to begin seminary studies on a trial basis to help them determine if they desire to pursue a degree program;

• Christian workers with limited time available for seminary studies (Those who intend to enter a professional ministry are encouraged to apply for admission to one of the master’s-level degree programs.);

• Missionary candidates who anticipate service in nonprofessional ministries whose mission board requires graduate study in Bible and theology;

• College graduates who want a year of seminary studies as a supplement to their undergraduate work; and

• Spouses of current Dallas Seminary students who want to complete a program of graduate seminary studies.

Goals

Educational Goals
To enable students to:

• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible; and

• evidence a general knowledge of premillennial theology and an ability to support their theological views.

Spiritual Goal
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

Ministry Goal
To enable students to evidence an interest and involvement in the local church or other ministries with which they are associated.

Admission Requirements

Admission requirements and application procedures for the Certificate of Graduate Studies program are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.)

In a few cases applicants without a bachelor’s degree may be admitted, but such applicants must demonstrate both maturity and adequate educational background. Contact the Admissions Office for further details.

Graduates of this certificate program are normally not recommended by the Alumni and Church Relations Office for ministry placement. Students in the Certificate of Graduate Studies program are classified as nondegree students.

Students now can work toward the 30-hour C.G.S. or the 62-hour M.A.(BS) at five extension sites or via online courses. Visit www.dts.edu/prospective.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Thirty hours of course work are required, consisting of nine hours in Bible Exposition, nine hours in Systematic Theology, two hours in Pastoral Ministries, and 10 hours of electives. Students are able to take up to six additional hours beyond the designated 30 hours without needing to apply to a degree program.

Flexibility in the Bible and theology courses and in the 10 hours of electives allows students to select courses suited to their particular interests and needs.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Transfer of up to six credit hours from accredited graduate theological schools is allowed toward the Certificate of Graduate Studies.

Students must normally have earned a grade of C or better (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) in order to be eligible to transfer a course from another institution to Dallas Seminary. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s Office for further information.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy for the C.G.S. degree by action of the faculty at the beginning of the semester of their anticipated graduation after these requirements have been met: (1) grade point average of at least 2.0; (2) evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty of proven Christian character; and (3) adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in the C.G.S. program must also provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
To receive the Certificate of Graduate Studies students must have completed 30 semester hours of course work with a grade point average of at least 2.0, evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty proven Christian character, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section above.

Certificates will not be released or transcripts issued unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or the student loan program are current.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
Of the 30 semester hours of course work required for graduation, a minimum of 24 must be taken in resident study at either the main campus or one of the extension centers.

All work leading to the certificate must normally be completed within five years from the time of matriculation. Extension requires approval by the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the certificate.
The Doctor of Ministry program is designed to provide advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry to those actively involved in vocational or bivocational ministry. The program concentrates on developing expertise in the biblical rationale, sociological strategy, and practical implementation of ministry.

The Doctor of Ministry degree is the highest professional degree for those engaged in local church and parachurch ministries, world missions, and similar ministries. (The Ph.D. degree, by comparison, purposes primarily to equip students to engage in scholarly research and teaching.) The D.Min. program is offered “in ministry” rather than “in residence,” as it assumes students will remain in ministry throughout the program and does not require them to relocate to Dallas. It normally requires a minimum of three years of meaningful ministry experience. Each course assumes this ministry experience and endeavors to integrate learning with the student’s present context of ministry as well as future goals.

One of the most inviting features of the D.Min. at Dallas is that the curriculum is designed with a high degree of flexibility. Of the 27 hours of course work required for the degree, only six hours are prescribed so that students may tailor their programs to their own ministry goals. Three additional hours are granted for the student’s applied research project, which the student reports in the dissertation.

Educational Goals

To enable students to:

- evaluate personal, spiritual, and professional development;
- chart a course for lifelong learning and improvement;
- assess and construct ministries from a biblical theology applied in a variety of contemporary contexts;
- conduct applied research of professional, doctoral-level breadth and depth within their chosen field of study; and
- articulate and defend evangelical theology in the practice of ministry.

Spiritual Goal

To enable students to manifest a maturing and Spirit-filled character.

Ministry Goals

To enable students to:

- enhance identified ministerial skills such as preaching, counseling, leadership, administration, vision-casting, educational programming, and communication;
- communicate God’s Word effectively through preaching, teaching, writing, or other media;
- lead and manage a church or ministry organization competently;
- work successfully and ethically with people in a variety of ministry situations;

As a woman, the D.Min. degree has opened the opportunity for me to teach on the seminary level in Christian Education. As more and more seminaries see the value of women on their faculties, the D.Min. degree will enable women to be equipped for graduate-level teaching and provide the mentoring and role modeling needed by female students.

—Joye Baker
D.Min. Student
• provide the framework for developing a biblical ministry in a culturally and ethnically diverse context; and
• demonstrate excellence in character and in ministry.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
The D.Min. program admits men and women who show evidence that they (1) are born again; (2) are of proven Christian character; (3) are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and (4) adhere to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

In addition, the following prerequisites apply to D.Min. applicants. All applicants must:

• hold the Master of Divinity or Master of Theology degree, or have academic preparation equivalent to the M.Div. degree.

Credits taken toward the M.Div. or M.Div. equivalence must cover the breadth of M.Div. curriculum consistent with Dallas Seminary’s curriculum and commitment to Scripture as prescribed by the Doctor of Ministry Office and Registrar’s Office. Deficiency credits may be earned at Dallas Seminary, its extension centers, through external studies programs, or other accredited institutions.

• have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies. All applicants must have passed satisfactorily at least two years of Greek and one year of Hebrew. However, if a student has only three semesters of Greek, he or she may take ID201 “Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis” for D.Min. credit in lieu of the fourth semester in order to qualify for the program. (Applicants holding other accredited theological master’s degrees must take ID201 “Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis” to fulfill this language requirement.)

• normally have at least three years of full-time vocational or bivocational Christian ministry experience since receiving their first graduate theological degree

• give evidence of growth and competence in ministerial skills and leadership

• be involved in an ongoing ministry.

Applicants must supply the requisite written admission materials and must have a personal or phone interview with members of the faculty. Prospective D.Min. students may apply for admission at any time. The deadline for the Summer Seminar is February 15, and for the Winter Seminar, August 15. Further details on admission requirements and procedures are available from the Admissions Office.

Equivalency
Applicants who hold a two-year professional master’s degree will need to earn additional graduate semester hours that are approved by the D.Min. Office and the Registrar’s Office before they will be admitted to candidacy for the D.Min. degree. These additional credits, distributed so as to approximate M.Div. equivalence, may be earned at Dallas Seminary, its extension centers, through external studies programs, or other accredited institutions. The applicant must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies.

Christian Education Track
Applicants to the Christian Education track must also earn additional graduate semester hours to reach a minimum of 80 hours to achieve Master of Divinity equivalence. Students in the D.Min. Christian Education program will work with the Christian Education department chair to design their program to meet their ministry needs.

The Doctor of Ministry track in Christian Education is designed to enhance ministry competence for those serving in such church or parachurch educational leadership roles as: (1) church education specialists; (2) ministers to children, youth, or adults; (3) family life educators; (4) administrators of Christian schools or colleges; and (5) camp leaders.

D.Min. Extension Programs
Dallas Seminary also offers the Doctor of Ministry program at two extension campuses: Seminario Teologico Centroamericano (SETECA) in Guatemala City, Guatemala, and Philadelphia Biblical University (PBU) in Langhorne, Pennsylvania. The extension program at SETECA is designed to offer a Dallas Seminary D.Min. program in Spanish to Hispanic leaders. Students in this program may take all of the required courses in Guatemala.

The Philadelphia extension is designed to make the Dallas Seminary D.Min. degree more accessible to students living in the Northeast; however, any D.Min. student may take courses at PBU. Students can take all but two courses at PBU—they must come to Dallas for DM101 and DM102.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
The D.Min. program requires 27 semester hours of course work (which includes from 21 to 24 hours of prescribed and elective courses and from three to six hours of independent study courses), plus a three-hour applied research project related to the student’s ministry. The program normally requires at least four years of study.

Three prescribed courses must be taken by all D.Min. students: DM101 The Ministry Leader, DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar, and DM103 The Applied Research Project. In addition, students normally complete at least one independent study course, DM901 Independent Study. Course descriptions for these and other D.Min. courses may be found in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All courses are six months in length and include one week of residence on the main campus or at the Guatemala or the Philadelphia extension sites. (See the Special Programs and Sessions section for more information on these two sites.) During the preresident months, students read and interact with course material. After the course meets for the resident week, students complete assignments that are appropriate for their ministry. Dallas Seminary alumni are allowed to audit the resident portion of courses as space permits. Registration for summer D.Min. courses must be completed by March 15, and registration for winter D.Min. courses must be completed by September 15. Electives in the various areas of concentration are listed in the Course Description section of this catalog.

All work leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree must be completed in no less than three and no more than six years from the time of matriculation. A minimal grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the applied research project.

Additional information on D.Min. policies and procedures is given in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook, which is available on the DTS website.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of up to 10 hours of doctoral-level credit may be applied toward the D.Min. degree if those hours constitute equivalent work. Normally only courses taken after receiving an M.A., M.Div., Th.M., S.T.M., or equivalent degree can be credited toward the D.Min. degree. Requests for transfer of credit should be directed to the director of D.Min. studies. Plans to take other courses for transfer credit must be approved by the D.Min. committee prior to taking the course.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy for the D.Min. degree by action of the faculty only after these requirements have been met:
1. completion of all residence requirements and all independent study courses leading to the degree;
2. evidence of proven Christian character;
3. effectiveness in Christian ministry; and
4. adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students in the D.Min. program must also provide a written letter from the local church or organization where the student is serving, endorsing the student's ministry.

APPLIED RESEARCH PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

The applied research project is the student’s major research project in the degree program. It must be directly related to his or her ministry and must make a significant contribution to the field of professional ministry, as well as to the student’s personal life. The project should normally deal with some aspect of communication, administration, nurture, leadership, or Christian education. The length is to be appropriate for the subject as judged by the student’s advisers. Details on the procedures and deadlines for the topic approval, proposal, and first and final drafts of the applied research project are available in the Doctor of Ministry Office as well as in the D.Min. Handbook.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the D.Min. degree must have completed 27 semester hours of course work and the three-hour applied research project along with any other requirements that may have been assigned. The completion of minimal requirements does not automatically qualify a student for the degree. The candidate must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section above. Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or the student loan program are current.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree is designed for those who are capable of doing research at the highest level with a view to becoming scholars and educational leaders in various fields of Christian ministry.

GOALS
Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• do in-depth research in both primary and secondary sources relating to their chosen field of study;
• understand and critique the major issues in their chosen field and the main views on those issues; and
• articulate conservative, evangelical theology.

Spiritual Goal
To enable students to manifest a maturing and Spirit-filled character.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• demonstrate ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; and
• communicate effectively through one or more of the following: preaching, teaching, evangelism, and writing.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Applicants must (1) hold the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree, Master of Theology degree (Th.M.), or Master of Sacred Theology (S.T.M.) degree; (2) have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability; (3) satisfactorily pass a written examination in the field of their intended major and an oral examination of their Christian experience, scholarship, theology, achievement, and purpose; and (4) show evidence that they:
• are born again;
• are of proven Christian character;
• are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and
• adhere to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Applications for the doctoral program must be received by the Admissions Office by January 1 for admission the following fall semester or by September 1 for admission the following spring semester. The completed applications are then considered by the Ph.D. Studies Committee for preliminary acceptance.

Further details on admission requirements and procedures are given in the Doctor of Philosophy Handbook, available from the Admissions Office.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Students in the Ph.D. program may major in either the Division of Biblical Studies or the Division of Theological Studies.
Academic Programs

For students admitted with only the M.Div. degree, the program requires two stages. Stage 1 consists of 26 semester hours of work at the master’s level (see below) and Stage 2 requires an additional 35 hours of doctoral work. Students with the Th.M. or S.T.M. degree complete only Stage 2 of the program, or 35 semester hours of classroom work involving at least three semesters of study.

Qualifying exams for Stage 2 assume completion of the 26 hours of Stage 1. However, students are eligible to take the qualifying exams for Stage 2 during their final semester before completion of Stage 1 if they are making satisfactory progress on the thesis. Qualifying exams for Stage 2 must be completed successfully before continuing in the doctoral program. Students may attempt the Stage 2 qualifying exams a maximum of two times.

Stage 1 requirements for students admitted with the M.Div. degree consist of 26 hours of classroom work. The student is required to pass a proficiency exam in Greek grammar and syntax, complete NT104 and NT105 (6 hours), pass a proficiency exam in Hebrew grammar and syntax, and complete OT103 and OT104 (6 hours). The student must also complete a major of nine hours in a Biblical Studies or Theological Studies department, complete either CE215 or WM410 (3 hours), and write a two-hour thesis in his or her intended major. After completion of the 26 hours of Stage 1, the student must pass the Ph.D. written and oral qualifying exams.

Stage 1 courses are master’s-level courses with increased requirements consistent with the demands of doctoral study.

Stage 2 requirements for all doctoral students are as follows.

All Biblical Studies majors are required to take nine hours of course work in designated divisional courses. Students must take BS1001 Old Testament Backgrounds (3 hours), BS1002 New Testament Backgrounds (2 hours), BS1003 Hermeneutics (3 hours), and BS1004 Research Procedures (1 hour). In addition to these required divisional courses, students in Biblical Studies must also satisfy the requirements of their concentration, whether Old Testament, New Testament, or Bible Exposition.

The following guidelines for completion of elective courses apply:

- Each student is required to take two electives outside the concentration but within the Biblical Studies division—one from each of the two departments in which he or she is not concentrating. These courses are selected in consultation with the respective departments and with consideration of the student’s background and needs. At the student’s request, exceptions to this requirement may be considered jointly by the department coordinators in the Biblical Studies division.
- Remaining elective hours may be selected wherever the student chooses—in his or her concentration, in his or her division, or outside the Biblical Studies division.

For a concentration in Old Testament Studies, students must take OT1001 Old Testament Criticism (2 hours), OT1002 Historical Hebrew Grammar (2 hours), OT1003 Advanced Old Testament Biblical Theology (2 hours), and two of the following three exegetical courses: OT1004 Exegesis in the Torah (3 hours), OT1005 Exegesis in the Prophets (3 hours), and OT1006 Exegesis in the Writings (3 hours). Students must also take either OT2020 Introduction to Akkadian (3 hours) or OT2030 Readings in Ugaritic (2 hours), eight to nine hours of electives, and OT1008 Old Testament Dissertation (3 hours). See the following chart for further details.

Doctoral students are required to demonstrate ability to read scholarly French and German. Information on the dates when the examinations in these languages must be taken is given in the Doctor of Philosophy Handbook.

Only courses taken after receiving the prerequisite degree (M.Div., Th.M., or S.T.M.) can be credited toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Normally work done in other institutions may not be credited toward Stage 2 of the Ph.D. degree. A minimal grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the dissertation.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
The program normally includes at least three years of study, a minimum of two years of which must be spent in residence. All work leading to the Ph.D. degree must be completed within eight years from the time of matriculation.

S.T.M. COMPLETION
If the student fails the qualifying exams on completion of Stage 1 of the program, he or she may complete the S.T.M. degree by finishing six more hours in the following segments: three hours in Communications, two hours in Theological Studies (if the major is Biblical Studies) or two hours in Biblical Studies (if the major is Theological Studies), and one hour of servant-leadership internship. Students must also have completed... course work in soteriology and eschatology in their master's program.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy for the Ph.D. degree by action of the faculty only after: (1) completion of all residence requirements leading to the degree; (2) passing written and oral examinations in the fields within the major; (3) meeting foreign language requirements; and (4) evidencing, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students in the Ph.D. program must also provide a written letter of church involvement from the local church the student has regularly attended while in seminary.

DISSERTATION REQUIREMENTS
Students must register for and complete a dissertation of between 50,000 and 75,000 words on an approved subject. Details on the procedures and deadlines for the dissertation subject proposal, syllabus, first and final drafts, and oral defense are given in the Doctor of Philosophy Handbook.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates in the Ph.D. program must have completed 61 semester hours of course work (35 for students entering with a Th.M. or S.T.M. degree), including dissertation and any other requirements that may have been assigned.

The completion of minimal requirements does not automatically qualify students for the degree. They must evidence to the satisfaction of the faculty proven Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or the student loan program are current.
Academic Programs

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)
Extension Locations and Degree Programs

In an effort to serve students who cannot attend classes on the Dallas campus, Dallas Seminary offers classes at seven extension campuses. The External Studies mission is twofold: (1) to deliver a Dallas Seminary education to those who cannot study at the Dallas campus, and (2) to encourage extension students, at the right time, to migrate to the Dallas campus for degree programs other than the M.A.(BS).

Courses leading to completion of either the 30-hour Certificate of Graduate Studies (C.G.S.) or the 62-hour Master of Arts degree with a major in Biblical Studies (M.A.(BS)) may be taken at Atlanta, Georgia; Houston, Texas; San Antonio, Texas; Austin, Texas; or Tampa, Florida. Up to half the courses required for other Dallas Seminary master’s-degree programs may also be taken at the extensions.

Courses toward the Doctor of Ministry Program (D.Min.) are offered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Seminary also offers the complete D.Min. degree in Spanish in Guatemala City, Guatemala.

C.G.S. and M.A.(BS) Course Offerings

Courses taught at the extension campuses are identical to those offered on the Dallas campus. Courses required in the M.A.(BS) program are available during a two- to four-year schedule of rotation at the extensions. Some Bible, theology, and practical ministry courses can also be applied to other degree programs.

Extension classes take place on weekends and/or evenings, facilitating study for those already involved in full-time ministry or other vocations. During the fall and spring semesters, most classes can be completed in four weekends with a Friday night and all-day Saturday schedule (once per month during the regular four-month semester). Summer classes follow a more intensive format, with classes generally held over four weekends, Friday night and all day Saturday during June and July. Additionally, some classes are offered once a week in the evenings during the fall and spring semesters.

Extension students are considered resident Dallas Seminary students for the purposes of the M.A.(BS) and C.G.S. programs. Other degree program residency requirements must be met at the Dallas campus.

For more information, contact the External Studies Office by phone (800-992-0998, ext. 3772), by email (externalstudies@dts.edu), or by visiting the Seminary’s website (www.dts.edu).

D.Min. Course Offerings

Courses taught in Philadelphia are the same courses taught on the Dallas campus, and follow the same schedule as Dallas campus courses. Students may not complete the D.Min. degree through the Philadelphia extension. Courses in the Spanish-language D.Min. program also follow the same schedule as other D.Min. courses, but are taught in Spanish.
Academic Programs

Contact the Doctor of Ministry Office for more information on courses offered in Philadelphia and in Guatemala.

Admission Requirements
The application process and admission requirements for the extension programs are the same as for all degree programs. (See the Admission section of this catalog.) Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Admissions Office at 800-992-0998.

Jerusalem University College
Since the Seminary is a member of the Jerusalem University College, students in master’s-level or doctoral programs may participate in a three-week graduate program in Israel and transfer credits earned to their Seminary program. Students in the Certificate of Graduate Studies, M.A.(BS), Th.M., and S.T.M. programs may transfer up to four hours of credit from this university to the Seminary.

Instruction is given by staff and faculty members of universities in Israel. In addition to receiving class-time instruction in archaeology, Bible geography, history of Palestine, and ancient Near Eastern cultures, students spend a portion of their time on field trips in Bible lands.

Additional information on this program may be obtained from the Academic Dean’s Office.

Israel Study Program
Dallas Seminary teams with IBEX (Israel Bible Extension) of The Master’s College to provide an opportunity each summer for students to take a study tour of Israel for seminary credit. The three-week study tour is team-led by a Dallas Seminary faculty member and a faculty member from IBEX. Students wanting Seminary credit should register for BE903 Field Study of the Bible in the Registrar’s Office.

Additional information on this program and other opportunities to study in Israel through IBEX may be obtained from the Academic Dean’s Office.

DTS and UNT Collaborative Program
Dallas Seminary and the University of North Texas (UNT) Higher Education department offer a collaborative program of study for the doctorate in higher education for the development of senior-level administrators for Christian colleges, universities, and seminaries. Students who have not yet begun a master’s degree may enroll in the M.A. in Christian Education or the Th.M. program at Dallas Seminary and, after completing 36 semester hours of approved master’s course work, apply to the doctoral program in higher education at UNT. (Students who already hold a master’s degree must complete a minor for the doctorate in additional hours taken at Dallas Seminary.) A Dallas Seminary faculty member serves as the professor on the doctoral committee who oversees the minor. Applicants for this program must meet the standard admission and program requirements at each institution.

For more information, contact the chair of the Christian Education department at Dallas Seminary or the coordinator of the program in higher education at the University of North Texas.

DTS Partnerships with Campus Crusade for Christ and Young Life
Dallas Seminary and the U.S. campus ministry of Campus Crusade for Christ International have partnered to provide training opportunities for full-time Campus Crusade staff seeking to enhance their ministry skills through seminary training. The program provides a tuition discount for qualifying full-time Crusade staff, and provides for the earning of Seminary credit for New Staff Training (NST) courses, School of Leadership (SOL) courses, and the Leadership Development Project. Crusade training courses accepted toward the degree programs of Dallas Seminary are subject to the requirements and limits of the individual degree programs.

Dallas Seminary also partners with Young Life to help in the training of Young Life staff by transferring up to 12 hours of Young Life training courses toward the Certificate of Graduate Studies program, the Parachurch Ministries track of the Th.M. degree, or the Parachurch Ministry concentration of the M.A./CE degree.

In order to provide more flexibility to the Seminary’s Campus Crusade for Christ and Young Life partners, a 17-hour Parachurch Ministries track in the Th.M. degree and a 12-hour Parachurch Ministry concentration in the M.A./CE degree program were developed. (For specifics on the Parachurch Ministries track, see the Th.M. degree earlier in this section; for specifics on the Parachurch Ministry concentration, see the M.A./CE degree program earlier in this section.) These programs provide maximum flexibility to those engaged in or anticipating parachurch ministry and seeking to enhance ministry skills through seminary training. The Th.M. track provides 15 hours of electives (12 hours in the M.A./CE concentration) taken under the leadership of a track adviser from either the Christian Education Department or the World Missions and Intercultural Studies department. In either the Th.M. track or the M.A./CE concentration, students may transfer several hours from ministry-specific training received from Campus Crusade for Christ or Young Life.

Contact the Registrar’s Office for more information on tuition costs, the specific requirements, eligibility, transfer of courses, and limitations of the Crusade and Young Life partnership programs.

TEACHERS OF ENGLISH FOR SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (TESOL)

TESOL is a 13- or 14-hour certificate program offered by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. It is designed to equip Christian workers both academically and professionally for teaching ESL/EFL in multicultural America or abroad.

Students must include the following courses as part of or in addition to their degree program to be eligible for the certificate: WM210 Intercultural Communication (students in the Th.M. or M.A./CM programs will have already taken this as part of their track or concentration), WM605 General Linguistics, WM610 Introduction to TESOL, WM615 Methodology and Practice of TESOL, and SL205 TESOL Internship. WM205 Cultural Dynamics in Ministry or WM325 Ministry in Multicultural America is recommended but not required for the certificate. Th.M. students will need to take the TESOL Internship for two hours’ credit instead of one.

TESOL courses are open to students in all degree programs. For further information on TESOL, including its applicability in various cultures, contact the World Missions and Intercultural Studies department.

MINISTRY-ENHANCEMENT PROGRAMS

Dallas Seminary students may earn academic credit for work done through several ministry-enhancement programs or special conferences and seminars at local churches. These special learning opportunities may be credited toward a student’s track or toward free electives under the umbrella of the Special Topics course listed under the departmental listing of courses in this catalog. Some of the programs through which students may earn independent-study credit are:

BILD International
Center for Church-Based Training
The Christian Resource Center’s Rural/Rurban Church Ministry Conference
Church Discipleship Ministries (Navigators)
Church Dynamics International
Church Planting Boot Camp (Trinity Evangelical Divinity School)
Churches Alive
The Connecting Church Conference, Pantego Bible Church
Seminars by Fellowship Bible Church, Little Rock, AR Sonlife Ministries
T-Net (Training Network for Disciple-Making Churches)
Willow Creek Association’s Leadership Information on these and other ministry-enhancement opportunities as well as information on policies and procedures governing Special Topics courses may be obtained from the Registrar’s Office.

ANNUAL LECTURESHIPS AND CONFERENCES

The Nathan D. Maier Memorial Series in Bible Exposition features outstanding Bible expositors with significant experience in Christian ministry.

The Missions and Evangelism Lectureship brings to campus mission executives, evangelists, and theologians to speak on issues pertaining to missions and evangelism.

The World Evangelization Conference allows students to interact with outstanding missionaries and missions executives representing many mission boards and ministry contexts. The purposes of the conference are to introduce students to the spiritual needs of the world, confront them with the challenge of missionary service, and enlarge their missionary concern.

The Spiritual Life Conference is designed to challenge and encourage students in their spiritual walk.
Academic Programs

The W. H. Griffith Thomas Memorial Lecture-ship was created in memory of William Henry Griffith Thomas, who helped found Dallas Seminary. The academic divisions alternate in inviting speakers who are capable of insightful analysis of contemporary issues germane to the division. (For a complete list of conference titles and speakers see the General Information section of this catalog.)

SUMMER SCHOOL
In addition to the two-semester academic year, Dallas Seminary conducts summer sessions offering a diversified curriculum over a 13-week period.

Summer School dates are listed in the Academic Calendar. Summer School schedules for the upcoming year are published in late fall. Inquiries about application should be addressed to the Admissions Office.

All course work for summer classes must be completed within the time frame in which the class is offered. (The professor may extend the due date until the end of the week following the end of the course, at his or her discretion.)

WINTERSESSION
Dallas Seminary offers a variety of courses each year in the recess period between fall and spring semesters. The Wintersession courses are held in the one- or two-week period immediately before the spring semester begins. All coursework must be completed within one week of the end of the Wintersession.

EVENING AND WEEKEND COURSES
Dallas Seminary offers a number of evening and weekend courses during the fall, spring, and summer terms. These courses offer those with full-time jobs or other daytime obligations an opportunity to pursue graduate-level biblical and theological education. Courses apply to several of Dallas Seminary’s degree programs. The Certificate of Graduate Studies program and the Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) can be completed during evenings and/or weekends.

Interested students may contact the Registrar’s Office for information on evening and weekend courses offered in any given semester.

ONLINE EDUCATION
Online Education at Dallas Seminary offers “structured flexibility” for students pursuing theological studies. The online course offerings are designed primarily to allow students to take full-credit courses toward a degree program before making the commitment to move to a campus location. Online courses are also ideal for students who wish to continue study while serving on short-term mission trips or to balance education with other responsibilities such as work and family. By receiving graduate-level preparation through online courses, other students simply may wish to supplement their current vocations or to serve better their families, churches, or communities.

The following courses currently are available and are offered regularly in the fall, spring, and summer semesters.

BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics with Drs. Mark Bailey and Howard Hendricks
BE510 The Life of Christ on Earth with Dr. J. Dwight Pentecost
SL305 Dynamics of Leadership with Dr. Howard Hendricks
ID101 Intertestamental History with Dr. John Grassmick
WM101 Introduction to World Missions with Dr. Mark Young PM102 Evangelism with Dr. Doug Cecil
ST101 Introduction to Theology with Dr. Glenn Kreider

Other courses will soon be available. Please check with the Registrar’s Office to verify availability.

The application and admission requirements are the same for all degree programs. DTS online courses are semester-driven and require broadband internet access for streaming material and forum interaction. For a detailed description of the Seminary’s online-education format, philosophy, and general requirements, visit the Online Education section of the web page or contact the Admissions Office.

If you are considering Dallas Seminary, we encourage you to come and visit us. We host a special on-campus event throughout the year called Discover Dallas!, which is designed to give prospective students a good feel for what life is like at the Seminary. Visit our website at www.dts.edu/prospective or contact the Admissions Office about these events or to schedule a campus visit.

Dallas Seminary enrolls men and women who:

1. show evidence of saving faith in Christ;
2. are of proven Christian character;
3. are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and who
4. adhere to the following doctrines:
   • the authority and inerrancy of Scripture,
   • the Trinity,
   • the full deity and humanity of Christ,
   • the spiritual lostness of the human race,
   • the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ,
   • salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and
   • the physical return of Christ.

As an applicant, you will be evaluated on the basis of (1) your academic records, (2) the extent and quality of involvement in Christian service, (3) your apparent gifts and potential for placement in Christian ministry, and (4) the assessment of your references.

The Admissions committee will also consider future ministry placement; emotional, financial, and personal stability; and issues of character, behavior, and lifestyle. Applications are evaluated on receipt of all necessary information. A criminal background check will be conducted on all accepted applicants. (For more information, see instructions in the application packet from the Admissions Office, or download it from the Seminary’s website.)

The curriculum builds on a baccalaureate degree, or its equivalent, conferred by an accredited college or university. Exceptions to this requirement are necessarily limited. When accepted, graduates of unaccredited institutions are placed on academic probation for their first year at Dallas Seminary. This probation is removed after one year of satisfactory progress toward their degree (2.0 or above GPA).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE AND CREDENTIALS

Applicants for all programs must make formal application through the Admissions Office. Applications may be submitted in the following ways: (1) by completing the online application on the Seminary’s website, www.dts.edu; (2) by downloading the application from the website and sending a printed copy, along with all supporting documents, to the Admissions Office; or (3) by requesting an application packet from the Admissions Office, completing it, and sending it, along with all supporting documents, to the Admissions Office.
Admission, Academic Procedures, & Financial Information

You may review the status of your application at any time on the Admissions webpage at www.dts.edu. A personalized identification number will be given to you when your application is submitted. We urge applicants to apply four to eight months before the anticipated enrollment date, but no earlier than 15 months before that date. All application items must be received by the Admissions Office no later than the following dates: for the fall semester, July 1; for the Wintersession/spring semester, November 1; and for the summer session, April 1. International applicants should submit all documents no later than three months before the start of their study. (Applications, except those for international students, may be submitted after the above deadlines. Priority will be given to applications received before the deadline.

Students enrolling in Summer School must be admitted to a degree program or as nondegree students.

If you need financial aid, you should submit your application early, since scholarship applications are not considered until applicants are accepted for admission. (Please see the Financial section for scholarship application dates.) International applicants desiring to be considered for scholarship for the fall semester must submit the completed application (including TOEFL and TWE scores) by November 1.

There is a nonrefundable application fee of $50. In addition the following credentials must be submitted:

1. Personal/character references from three individuals. One must be from a pastor. The other two, preferably, should come from a college professor (if currently enrolled in college or recently graduated), and a professional or businessperson. If an applicant includes the reference's email on the online application, a reference can submit information electronically via the web. The Admissions Office will contact the reference. Reference forms may be downloaded from the Seminary's website or are included with the application materials available from the Admissions Office.

2. A completed “Validation of Church Relationship” form from the applicant's church. The form should confirm the applicant's membership or regular participation in good standing. In addition the form should endorse the applicant’s potential for effective ministry and describe the length and kind of involvement in ministry. (Note: This is in addition to the reference from a pastor and can be completed online by the church if an email address is provided.)

3. Demonstration of English proficiency. Applicants for whom English is not their native or birth language must submit scores for the TOEFL and TWE. This applies even to applicants who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents. (See “International Students” in this section for further information.)

4. Official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended. Final approval for admission is contingent on receiving an official transcript verifying conferred of the qualifying degree. An official transcript is one issued by the college, and sent by the school’s registrar in a sealed envelope.

5. Assessment test scores. Certain applicants are required to submit results of assessment tests to supplement their undergraduate academic record. Assessment test scores are required as evidence of academic aptitude when: (1) the preseminary academic record is questionable (a GPA of less than 2.5 on a 4.0 scale), or (2) the applicant does not hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution. Scores on either of two assessments can be used for this purpose: the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT).

The GRE General Test is administered interactively at most Sylvan Technology Centers across the United States and Canada. You can obtain information concerning this examination from the Educational Testing Service, Box 6000, Princeton, New Jersey 08541–6000 or at www.gre.org. The institutional code for reporting scores to the Seminary is R6156.

The MAT is administered at colleges and universities throughout the United States. You can obtain information on this exam by requesting the MAT Candidate Information Booklet: The Psychological Corporation, 555 Academic Court, San Antonio, Texas, 78204 (800-622-3231) or at www.hbtpc.com/mat. Contact the Admissions Office to discuss which exam to take.

While all degree programs are coeducational, the Seminary holds the position that Scripture limits to men the roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church. Therefore the Pastoral Leadership concentration of the Pastoral Ministries track is not open to women Th.M. students.

PRESEMINARY PREPARATION

Dallas Seminary recognizes the importance of a broad educational foundation. A bachelor’s program that includes work in the humanities, sciences, English grammar and composition, literature, speech, logic, and history gives students discipline and general information helpful for theological study and the work of the ministry.

Students who have not had an introductory course in philosophy are encouraged to enroll in one. Any courses in apologetics or philosophy would give a student a good philosophical framework for theological study.

NONBACCALAUREATE ADMISSION

Applicants who lack the prerequisite college degree may apply for admission to the Th.M., professional-preparation M.A. programs (Biblical Counseling, Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics, Christian Education, or Cross-cultural Ministries), or the Certificate of Graduate Studies.

Admission of students without bachelor's degrees is highly selective. Qualifications considered include maturity, educational background, ministry experience, and vocational goals. Applicants must be at least 30 years of age, and preference is given to those who have the most qualifying educational background. Applicants are expected to take and achieve acceptable scores on the GRE or MAT assessment test to demonstrate their readiness for graduate-level study.

ENTERING STUDENT ORIENTATION

Orientation is designed to help entering students adjust to seminary by providing necessary information about the many facets of seminary life and course work. This time also allows new students to get to know one another and faculty members. Students should attend the Entering Student Orientation held just prior to the semester in which they enter. Students entering in the summer should attend the fall orientation.

Two mandatory tests are administered during orientation, the Test of Biblical and Theological Knowledge (TBTK) and the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI). The MMPI assists Student Services and Counseling Services in assessing whether some may have personal struggles that, if not addressed, could be detrimental to their seminary experience or future ministries. (See the Student Handbook or contact Student Services for further details.)

ACADEMIC AND CULTURAL ORIENTATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The Seminary has developed a course for the purpose of orienting incoming international students to Dallas Seminary’s academic standards and culture, along with adapting to American culture. Topics include:

• time management of study and family life
• using technology and resources for academic writing and researching with attention to format and detail
• developing critical thinking and evaluation, not only of academic sources but also of the curriculum at Dallas Seminary, in light of the student’s home culture.

Emphasis is also placed on the goal of the student’s returning to his or her home country. The course, which is offered by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies, provides the foundation for ongoing mentoring and advising of international students throughout their time at Dallas Theological Seminary (IE100 Academic and Cultural Orientation for International Students).

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Regular Students

Students enrolled in degree programs (M.A., Th.M., S.T.M., D.Min., or Ph.D.) are classified as regular students. Continuation as a student depends on satisfactory progress toward graduation.

Nondegree Students

A limited number of applicants may be admitted as nondegree students. Academic and spiritual qualifications necessary for regular student admission are the same for nondegree students. Application procedures are also the same, but some credentials are not required. (See the instructions that accompany the application.)

A maximum of 30 credit hours may be taken by nondegree students, or 36 hours for students in the Certificate of Graduate Studies program. Nondegree students are not to be confused with audit students. (See the following section.) Course work requirements for nondegree students are the same as for degree students. Nondegree and degree students are expected to do the course work, which is graded, and upon satisfactory completion of the work they receive credit for the course. The credit is normally transferable to a degree program at Dallas Seminary or another graduate-level institution.

Audit Students

Most electives may be audited by regularly admitted students with the permission of the instructor, when classroom space allows. Students enrolled as credit students may audit a course at a reduced rate. Audits are recorded on the transcripts of regularly admitted students. Alumni may audit courses as nondegree students at a reduced rate.

Spouses of resident credit students currently enrolled in a regular seminary degree program may audit up to three courses a semester or three courses a summer for a nominal charge. Spouses of students enrolled in the Alumni-in-Residence program are also eligible to audit courses at the spouse audit rate. Spouses who audit must complete a brief form in the Registrar's Office and pay the audit fee. No permanent record is kept and no transcript is issued.

Audit students can participate in the class discussions and receive copies of handouts, but course work and examinations are not assigned or graded, and academic credit is not given.

Courses may be audited in Summer School under the same conditions as in the regular academic year.

Special Students
A student pursuing a degree at another accredited seminary or graduate school may apply to enroll as a special student to take one or two classes. (Contact the Admissions Office for further information.)

TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Course credits with a minimum grade of C earned at other accredited seminaries and graduate theological schools are accepted to the extent that the courses are comparable to the Seminary's stated requirements.

The following number of semester hours may be transferred:

- a maximum of 60 hours toward the Th.M. degree
- a maximum of six hours toward the S.T.M. degree and the C.G.S.
- a maximum of 30 hours toward the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics, the M.A. in Christian Education, the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries, and the M.A. (Biblical Studies)
- a maximum of 45 hours toward the M.A. in Biblical Counseling.

An official transcript from the institution attended showing satisfactory course completion is required. Transfer hours are not accepted for nondegree students except for those enrolled in the Certificate of Graduate Studies program. Transferability of credits earned at Dallas Seminary is at the discretion of the receiving institution. (Questions regarding the transfer of credits should be directed to the Registrar's Office.)

ADVANCED STANDING
Students entering Dallas Seminary with a strong background in Bible or theology may want to take proficiency exams to earn advanced standing credit. Exams are available in most courses required in each degree program. (No exams are available in areas of elective credit.) There is a non-refundable testing fee for each exam. Up to one-sixth of a degree can be earned by advanced standing, except for the C.G.S., S.T.M., and the doctoral programs.

New students have three semesters, or one calendar year, from the time they begin taking classes at Dallas Seminary to apply for advanced-standing credit. (For more information on advanced standing, contact the Registrar's Office.)

If a student has completed a college course in a subject required at Dallas Seminary but does not pass the advanced-standing exam for that course, the student is encouraged to request permission to substitute another Dallas Seminary class offered by the same department. (See Validation of Courses.)

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
Dallas Theological Seminary is enriched by the presence of more than 145 international students from over 50 foreign countries.

International applicants whose native or birth language is not English are required to demonstrate their proficiency in English by submitting satisfactory Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and Test of Written English (TWE) scores taken within two years of the date of application. This applies even if the applicant is a U.S. citizen, has attended American or English-speaking colleges and universities, and is a longtime resident of English-speaking countries.

The minimum computer-based TOEFL score is 233, with subscores of at least 22 in the reading and listening sections, and 23 in the writing/structure section. The minimum score on the standard written TOEFL is 575, with subscores of at least 56 on each of its three sections. Information about the TOEFL and TWE may be obtained from TOEFL, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, New Jersey, 08541–6151, U.S.A., or www.toefl.org. The TOEFL institution code for Dallas Seminary is 6156.

International students should plan to be in Dallas for the International Student Orientation, which is held the week prior to the Entering Student Orientation. All entering... international students are required to enroll in IE100 Academic and Cultural Orientation for International Students.

International applicants, like other students, must submit the $50 nonrefundable application fee drawn on an American bank or a money order in U.S. dollars. No application will be processed until this application fee is received.

International students must show evidence of financial documentation for the first 12 months of study, and show a plan of support for the length of their program. Documentation can be in the form of bank statements, which show the current balance and the average balance over the past three months. Family or friends who provide financial support must sign a financial pledge form and return it, along with bank statements from the past three months, to the International Student Office. (Pledges for students are not tax deductible.)

The documents needed to apply for a student visa will not be issued until proof of financial support has been shown. All documents must be submitted no later than three months prior to the anticipated date of enrollment. (For a current estimate of tuition and living expenses, contact the International Student Office.)

A limited number of tuition scholarships are available for international students each year. Application forms are distributed and processed by the Admissions Office. To be considered for scholarship, the application for admission and all supporting materials (including TOEFL and TWE scores) must be received by November 1.
REGISTRATION
Students cannot be admitted to classes without formal registration, which takes place before the beginning of each semester. Priority enrollment will be given to students graduating that year. Without special approval, a student cannot receive credit for a course added after the first week of the semester.

Summer School registration of resident students occurs at the same time as registration for the following fall term. Nonresident students who wish to enroll in the summer session should contact the Registrar's Office by March 1 to receive registration materials.

A late fee is assessed if registration is completed after the published deadline. Students registering late run the risk of courses or sections being filled or canceled. Space in class and availability of textbooks are not guaranteed for those who fail to register on time. Final dates for late registration and other deadlines are published by the Registrar's Office.

INDEPENDENT STUDY
Students may complete a portion of the following graduate-level programs by independent study:

- Th.M.—up to 18 hours of elective credit
- M.A.—up to 12 hours of elective credit
- C.G.S. and S.T.M.—up to 6 hours of elective credit.

Independent study in required courses (including Institute of Theological Studies required course equivalents) is not available without special approval. For more information, contact the Registrar's Office.

Academic Load
Students may earn up to 18 hours of credit each semester, including the summer session. In the summer, students taking a language course in a five-week session are encouraged not to take additional courses during the same session due to the heavier workload in language courses.

COURSE PAPERS
Unless otherwise specified by the professors in individual courses, all course papers and theses must be typewritten and in thesis form in conformity to the standards outlined in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 6th ed., by Kate L. Turabian, and supplemental instructions as authorized by the faculty.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Students are responsible for meeting the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their acceptance. Students who leave the Seminary for more than one year are automatically withdrawn from school. If reinstated, students are subject to the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their reinstatement, unless written permission was obtained before the extended leave. Students who reclassify are also subject to the graduation requirements.
set forth in the catalog at the time of their approved reclassification. (See the Student Handbook regarding reclassification to another degree program.)

DEGREE CONFERAL
While the graduation ceremony is held only once a year in May, degrees are conferred in May, August, and January. Students who finish during the summer session will receive degree conferral in August. However, they are encouraged, if they desire, to participate in the May Commencement ceremony preceding the summer in which their work will be completed. Those who complete their degree requirements in December will be able to participate in the Commencement ceremony held the following May. Students unable to complete their work in the spring, summer, or fall may be required to pay a fee to postpone their graduation date and cover costs related to the postponement.

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE
Students whose grade point average (GPA) falls below a 2.0 (2.5 for S.T.M.) are given an academic warning. If the GPA falls below this level again, the student is placed on academic probation. Students who are admitted from unaccredited colleges or with a low grade point average (2.0) are also placed on academic probation. (For further details, see the Student Handbook.)

VALIDATION OF COURSES
Students may apply to validate a required course if they have college credit for a similar course. Validation of a course does not give credit for the course or reduce curricular requirements, but does allow substitution of elective hours in the same department as the validated course. Students desiring to validate required courses should consult the Registrar’s Office. (For further details, see the Student Handbook.)

GRADING SYSTEM
The Seminary follows a 4.0 grading scale as outlined in the Student Handbook.
FEES AND EXPENSES FOR 2005–2006

The tuition and fee rates that follow are effective beginning with the fall 2005 semester. Tuition, fees, and other expenses are subject to change without notice and are due at the beginning of each session.

New students who plan to write a check for expenses at the time of registration must have sufficient funds in a bank to cover the check. Payment can also be made with a credit card or a cashier’s check payable to the student.

Every effort is made to keep student expenses as low as possible. Because of contributions, students pay only a portion of the real cost of their education.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

Dallas Campus
The Seminary’s student financial aid program, including scholarships, loans, and a payment plan, offers students realistic opportunities to finance their education. The amount of scholarship available to students has increased in recent years—total aid available now exceeds $1.5 million.

To apply for need-based scholarships, you may print the application from the Seminary’s website or request an application from the Student Financial Services Office. Other forms from Student Financial Services may be required depending on the type of aid.

For continuing and returning students, applications for need-based scholarships must be submitted by February 28 for the fall semester and September 30 for the spring semester. Applications for new students must be submitted by May 1 (January 1 for international students) for the fall semester and September 30 for the spring semester.

Applications for scholarship will not be considered until an applicant is accepted for admission to the Seminary. The scholarship application deadline is two months before the application for admission deadline; thus, new students who intend to apply for scholarship should plan the admission process accordingly.

Financial aid is distributed as tuition scholarship grants. Financial need is the primary criterion for the distribution of institutional aid. Secondary criteria include academic program, academic load, and academic performance. Applications for scholarship are reviewed by the director of Student Financial Services and the Financial Aid Committee.

Eligibility
To be eligible for scholarship, a student must have financial need, be enrolled full-time (12 credit hours or more), be employed, have a GPA of 2.5 or higher, and not be in default or delinquent on any account or loan programs with the Seminary.

If you receive scholarship through the Seminary and you receive additional outside assistance, you must report this to the Student Financial Services Office at once. Name and address changes and changes in academic course load must also be reported.

Determination of Financial Aid
After receiving the need-based scholarship application form, the Student Financial Services Office will determine students’ needs and the types of awards for which they qualify.

Financial need is determined by calculating the difference between the cost of attending the Seminary and the resources available to the student. Therefore financial need equals the cost of attendance minus student contribution and outside resources.

Students are expected to contribute toward the cost of their education from summer earnings and from employment during the academic year. Student Financial Services is available to counsel students about their financial situations.

Stafford Loan Program
The Seminary participates in the Stafford Loan Program, which is federally subsidized. It provides limited funds at a low interest rate and delayed repayment schedule to eligible students. The interest and principal payments are deferred as long as the student remains on at least half-time status in an approved degree program.

Students who are not financially qualified for a subsidized Stafford Loan, in whole or part, may be eligible for an unsubsidized Stafford Loan. On this program, students are required to make their interest payments monthly, or they can be capitalized per a designated period of time.

To apply for a Stafford Loan, the student must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the Department of Education. The FAFSA may be completed online at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov. It is used to determine financial need. Once processed by the Department of Education, a Student Aid Report (SAR) will be available. The school code for Dallas Seminary is G03562. Entering the school code on the FAFSA application will ensure that the SAR will be sent electronically to Dallas Seminary. If the school code is not entered, the student will need to print a copy of the SAR and turn it in to the Student Financial Services Office. In addition to the SAR, a Master Promissory Note and a Loan Confirmation Form are required to process a Stafford Loan. Forms are available online at www.dts.edu. Choose “Departments,” then choose “Student Financial Services,” then “Stafford Loan Program.”

To ensure that loan funds are available for the student’s registration, the FAFSA must be submitted by April 1. All supporting documents must be received in the Student Financial Services Office by May 31 for the fall semester and November 1 for the spring semester.

The director of Student Financial Services is available to assist students and their families by providing advice and suggestions suitable for their financial status. For more information on the specific forms of financial aid available, contact the director of Student Financial Services at 800-392-0998, ext. 3601.

Student Responsibilities

It is the student's responsibility to:

1. Accurately complete the application for student financial aid—errors can result in long delays in the receipt of financial aid. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal programs is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the United States Criminal Code.

2. Return to Student Financial Services and/or the Department of Education all requested documentation, verification, corrections, and/or new information.

3. Read, understand, and keep copies of all forms requiring a signature.

4. Accept responsibility for all signed agreements.

5. Notify the lender of any change in name, address, or school status.

6. Know and comply with deadlines for application and reapplication for aid.

7. Know and comply with attending school's refund procedures.

8. Maintain good standing and satisfactory academic progress.

Scholarship and Academic Load

Graduate students must be enrolled for at least 12 credit hours or more in order to be considered full-time students and eligible for scholarship. Students enrolled part-time (less than 12 hours) will be eligible for the payment plan and loan program only.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

A student is required to make satisfactory progress toward his or her degree in order to be eligible for scholarship and federal financial aid. Students must maintain a 2.5 GPA for scholarship and a 2.0 GPA for federal loans, without excessive course drops.

Independent Status

The federal government considers an independent student one who has attained age 24 by December 31 of the award year, or who is a graduate student.

Continuation of Scholarship

Scholarship must be approved each year. Students who postpone enrollment must reapply for scholarship for the semester they plan to attend. Current students are required to reapply each semester that aid is needed.

Physical Disabilities

Students who have physical disabilities should contact the Texas Rehabilitation Commission regarding financial aid for the disabled. Such students will also be considered for financial assistance by Student Financial Services, provided the necessary forms have been submitted.

Stafford Loan Refund Policies

Refunds of financial aid to eligible students are made through the Business Office. Students receiving Title IV (federal) Aid who withdraw or change enrollment status will have federal aid adjusted according to the following formula: the amount of refund credited to the student's account multiplied by the quotient of Title IV Aid, divided by Total Aid equals the amount returned to Title IV program.

"Refund credited to the student's account" in the above calculation is equal to the amount of the refund as calculated by the Business Office, according to the refund policy schedule in the Student Handbook.

Tuition Management Systems Payment Plan (TMS)

The Seminary recommends that entering students come with sufficient funds for at least one semester. For students who are unable to pay their expenses in full, financing in the form of a payment plan with no interest is available at the time of registration for tuition and dormitory room and board. The payment plan may be taken out for a five- or 10-month period.

At the beginning of the spring semester, a five-month plan is available to students who are not currently utilizing the program. Students must apply for TMS online prior to the semester in which they plan to attend. There is a $55 enrollment fee for the 10-month plan and a $40 enrollment fee for the five-month plan. (Please note that fees are subject to change. Questions regarding the payment plan should be directed to Student Financial Services.)

TYPES OF SCHOLARSHIPS

General Scholarships

General scholarships are available to students who do not meet the criteria for other scholarships. Applications for aid are reviewed by the director of Student Financial Services and the Financial Aid Committee. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.
Doctoral Student Scholarships
Doctoral scholarships are available for students in the Doctor of Philosophy program who meet the scholarship criteria. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

Minority Student Scholarships
Dallas Seminary provides a significant amount of aid each year to qualified American-born minority students. Minority students may apply for aid in February for the following academic year using the standard financial aid application form. Applications for aid are reviewed by the Financial Aid Committee. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

International Student Scholarships
International students may apply for tuition scholarships and on-campus employment. To be considered for aid, incoming students must be approved for enrollment in a regular program of study and pursue study under the F-1 (student) visa. New international applicants who will require aid are encouraged to file their applications by January 1, since all international aid is assigned by March 31 for the following academic year. International applicants should be aware that competition for available scholarships is heavy and that grants are made only to the most highly qualified candidates, with respect to ministry experience, ministry potential, support from a sponsoring organization, and academic background. Applications for aid to international students are reviewed by the director of Admissions and the Financial Aid Committee. Students who are awarded an international scholarship should be aware that acceptance of a tuition scholarship obligates them to return to their homeland on completion of their program. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

Other Sources of Financial Aid
Additional financial aid is available through veterans’ benefits, foundation grants, and nonprofit organizations. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

COURSE OFFERINGS
Required courses are offered on a regular basis and in most cases are offered according to the curriculum chart for each program found in the Academic Programs section of this catalog. Ministry track and elective courses are generally offered on a rotating basis. For information on ministry track and elective course offerings for any given academic year contact the Registrar’s Office or the respective departments.

NONDEPARTMENTAL COURSES
Th.M. students are responsible to demonstrate competence in research by satisfactorily completing either (1) a Th.M. thesis in an academic department of their choosing, or (2) a three-hour research seminar culminating in a written thesis-style research project. All Th.M. students are required to register for either RS101 or RS102. Students should register for RS101 during their first semester at the time they take PM101. Contact the Registrar’s Office for more information.

RS101 Orientation and Research Methods
Boyle, Kisling
This course is designed to guide students in the use of library materials, computerized databases, and bibliographic resources. It provides instruction in research strategies, thesis topic selection, and familiarization with form and style for papers and theses. In addition, this course provides an orientation to the educational philosophy of biblical, theological, and ministry-related studies at Dallas Seminary. 1 hour.

RS102 Research and Summary of Christian Doctrine
The Faculty
This course is designed to provide opportunity and guidance for the writing of a summative research paper within the Th.M. degree program, and to offer a general review of the major areas of Christian doctrine with a view to ordination and professional ministry. 2 hours.

IE100 Academic and Cultural Orientation for International Students
Baker
This course will explore issues of cultural adaptation, awareness, and approaches to academic writing and documentation to enable the student to be successful in the classroom. It is equivalent to RS101 Orientation and Research Methods. This course is required for all incoming international students whose first language is not English or for those who have not completed a degree previously in English. Exceptions may be made by the World Missions and Intercultural Studies department. Only one hour of this course credits toward a degree. 2 hours.

There is no question in my mind that the training I received at Dallas Seminary has equipped me to remain true to the Scriptures and to preach the gospel clearly.

DIVISIONAL COURSE

Harris
An introduction to the use of computer tools for original language study for the student who has no previous background in Greek and Hebrew or who has had language courses some years previously. Students will learn how to do word studies, solve interpretive problems, and do basic exegetical work using available electronic tools. Selected computer software will be required as listed in the current syllabus. Enrollment is limited to 15 D.Min. C.E. students seeking M.Div. equivalency and currently enrolled D.Min. students. 3 hours.

Carl R. Anderson, Visiting Professor

The purpose of this department is to equip students to do accurate exegetical work in the Old Testament and to expound the Old Testament in their ministries with the goal of meeting contemporary needs. The required courses give students the skills necessary for such work, including:

• Hebrew grammar, syntax, textual criticism
• lexicography
• literary forms
• Old Testament backgrounds
• critical theory
• hermeneutics
• biblical theology.

The elective courses provide opportunity for further development of students’ proficiency in these disciplines, as well as in the exegesis of various kinds of Old Testament literature.

Left to Right: Robert B. Chisholm Jr., Eugene H. Merrill, Richard A. Taylor, Brian L. Webster, Dorian G. Coover-Cox, John W. Hillber.
REQUIRED COURSES
Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for specific courses required in each degree program.

Courses OT101–103 each require a reading-group component that meets as a lab outside the regularly scheduled class time. Consult the department for more information on this requirement.

OT101 Introduction to Old Testament Language and Literature
The Department
A survey of the cultural, historical, literary, and theological backgrounds of the Old Testament as well as an introduction to the basic principles of Hebrew phonology and morphology. 3 hours.

OT102 Elements of Hebrew
The Department
A study of Hebrew morphology and syntax. Includes translation of the Book of Jonah, with syntactical analysis of selected forms, phrases, and clauses. 3 hours.

OT103 Introduction to Hebrew Exegesis
The Department
An introduction to Hebrew exegesis, including a review of Hebrew morphology and syntactical analysis, and an introduction to the basic tools and methods for text critical, lexical, literary, and genre analysis. Application is made to narrative literature. Attention is also given to theological correlation and homiletical application of passages studied, as well as to relevant elements of Old Testament historical and cultural background.
Prerequisite: OT101 Introduction to Old Testament Language and Literature and OT102 Elements of Hebrew. 2 hours.

OT104 Principles of Hebrew Exegesis
The Department
An application of the methods introduced in OT103 to selected passages from prophetic, hymnic, and wisdom literature. The course includes an introduction to hermeneutical principles and critical methods pertaining to these genres, as well as to Hebrew poetry in general. Attention is also given to theological correlation and homiletical application of passages studied, as well as to relevant elements of Old Testament history and backgrounds. Prerequisite: OT103 Introduction to Hebrew Exegesis or a satisfactory score on the advanced-standing exam. 3 hours.

ELECTIVE COURSES
Th.M. students in the Academic Ministries track or Interdisciplinary Studies track with an Old Testament academic concentration must choose OT310 Hebrew Reading as one of their electives. They may credit BE315 Bible Manners and Customs and BE903 Field Study of the Bible to this department. These courses, however, may not be credited as elective hours to replace a validated course. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.

Introductory Studies

OT205 Introduction to Old Testament Criticism
Merrill
An investigation of the roots, development, and impact of various critical approaches to the Old Testament, with a view to understanding and responding to them. Special attention is given to how modern criticism affects exegesis, interpretation, and theology. (This elective is highly recommended for students intending to pursue doctoral studies in Old Testament.) 2 hours.

Philological Studies

OT305 Advanced Hebrew Grammar

The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed four semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
In each NT class, I knew my Greek professors cared about me as a person and believed in the life-changing power of the text. In that environment, the mechanics of grammar and exegesis can stimulate deeper love for our Lord and for people.
—Rachel Morris
DTS Student

The purpose of this department is to equip students to do accurate exegetical work in the Greek New Testament, so that they can expound and apply it effectively in their ministries. The required courses help students develop the skills necessary for this work in the following areas:

- New Testament introduction
- Greek grammar and syntax
Course Descriptions

• textual criticism
• lexical and literary analysis
• use of interpretive tools
• exegetical problem-solving
• movement from exegesis to theology and exposition.

The elective courses allow students to advance their skills in these areas and in the exegesis of New Testament books.

An advanced-standing examination is available for all new students who have taken some Greek. Students who have not had Greek should enroll in NT101–NT102 Elements of Greek.

REQUIRED COURSES
Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

NT101—NT102 Elements of Greek
The Department
A study of the basic principles of biblical Greek, for students who have not had Greek or who need an extensive review in the elements of the language. 3 hours each semester.

One section each of NT101 and NT102 will be an honors Greek section. The purpose of honors Greek is to gain greater facility in the Greek language as a preparation for more thorough exegesis in the New Testament. Besides the standard requirements for NT101—NT102, honors Greek will focus on increased vocabulary and composition from English to Greek. No previous study of Greek is required.

NT103 Intermediate Greek
The Department
A study of the grammar and syntax of the Greek New Testament, and an introduction to New Testament textual criticism. Prerequisite: NT101—NT102 Elements of Greek or a satisfactory score on the advanced-standing exam. 3 hours.

NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis
The Department
An introduction to exegetical procedures and practice of exegesis in various New Testament genres, with an emphasis on Ephesians. Procedures include outlining the argument of passages, doing word studies, validating exegetical decisions, and using exegetical tools properly. Prerequisite: NT103 Intermediate Greek or a satisfactory score on the advanced-standing exam. 3 hours.

NT105 Exegesis of Romans
Fanning, Hoehner, Lowery, Wallace
An exegetical study of Romans, emphasizing the theological content and development of the book. Prerequisite: NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis. 3 hours.

NT111 Intertestamental History
The Department
A study of the historical background and canon of the New Testament. In programs for which it is required, this one-hour course is designed to be taken in conjunction with BE103 Old Testament History II and Poetry and can be scheduled concurrently. 1 hour.

NT112 New Testament Introduction
The Department
An evaluation of New Testament criticism and an examination of special introductory problems of selected New Testament books. In programs for which it is required, this one-hour course is designed to be taken in conjunction with BE105 The Gospels and can be scheduled concurrently. 1 hour.

ELECTIVE COURSES
Elective courses are designed to aid students who wish to make a more intensive study of the Greek New Testament than is possible in the required courses. The emphasis is on exegesis. Students concentrating in New Testament through the Academic Ministries track must elect nine hours from the courses listed below, one course of which must be NT205 Advanced Greek Grammar. Th.M. students concentrating in New Testament as part of the Interdisciplinary Studies track must elect eight or nine hours from the following courses (three of the following four courses):

• NT205 Advanced Greek Grammar 3
• NT305 Exegesis of Gospel Narrative 3
• NT335 1 Corinthians 3
• NT Elective 2 or 3

In addition Th.M. students with a New Testament concentration may credit to this department up to four elective hours in the Academic Ministries track and up to three hours in the Interdisciplinary Studies track from the following courses: OT320 The Septuagint, OT625 Field Work in Biblical Archaeology (with departmental permission), OT720 The Use of the Old Testament in the New Testament, BE315 Bible Manners and Customs, and BE903 Field Study of the Bible. These courses, however, may not be credited... as elective hours to replace validated courses. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without notice.

Course Descriptions

The purpose of this department is to help students comprehend the Bible and to equip them for a lifetime of study and exposition of the Scriptures. Courses help them develop skills in:

- inductive Bible study
- applying principles of interpretation to the biblical text
- relating Bible content to the problems of contemporary life.

REQUIRED COURSES

Specific Bible books studied in required Old or New Testament exegesis courses are excluded from Bible Exposition courses required of Th.M. students (e.g., Ephesians is studied in NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis and therefore is not included in BE106 Acts and Pauline Epistles). Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

BE101  Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics
Bailey, Hanna, Hendricks, Johnson
An introduction to inductive Bible study involving the steps of observation, interpretation (hermeneutics), application, and correlation. Principles in these steps are applied to several biblical passages and books. Required prerequisite or corequisite to all Bible Exposition courses. 3 hours.

BE102  Old Testament History I
Allen, Allman, Bramer, Johnson, Hanna
An exposition of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, and Judges, with emphasis on the biblical theology of these books, their genre, and application. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. 3 hours.

BE103  Old Testament History II
Allen, Allman, Bramer, Hanna, Pond, Quine, Waters
An exposition of the historical books (1 Samuel through Esther); Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon, with emphasis on the biblical theology of these books, their genre, and application. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. Recommended Prerequisite: BE102 Old Testament History I. 2 hours.

BE104  Old Testament Prophets
Allen, Allman, Bramer, Constable, Loken, Quine, Waters
An exposition of the preexilic, exilic, and postexilic writing prophets (Isaiah through Malachi), excluding Jonah, but including Lamentations, with emphasis on the biblical theology of these books, their genre, and application. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics and BE103 Old Testament History II and Poetry. 3 hours.

BE105  The Gospels
Baylis, Bramer, Johnson, Quine, Waters
An exposition of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, with emphasis on the biblical theology of these books, their genre, and application. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. Recommended Prerequisite: BE104 Old Testament Prophets. 2 hours.

BE106  Acts and Pauline Epistles
Allman, Baylis, Bramer, Constable, Hanna, Johnson, Toussaint
An exposition of Acts and 10 of the Pauline Epistles (all except Romans, Ephesians, and Philippians), with emphasis on the biblical theology of these books, their genre, and application. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics and BE105 The Gospels. 3 hours.

BE107  Hebrews, General Epistles, and Revelation
Allman, Baylis, Constable, Quine, Toussaint
An exposition of Hebrews, James, 1 and 2 Peter, 1, 2, and 3 John, Jude, and Revelation, with emphasis on the biblical theology of these books, their genre, and application. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. 3 hours.

BE108  Ruth, Psalms, Jonah, and Selected Epistles
Allen, Baylis, Constable, Hanna, Pond
An exposition of Ruth, Psalms, Jonah, and three of Paul’s epistles (Romans, Ephesians, and Philippians) that are not taught in the other required Bible courses, with emphasis on the biblical theology of these books, their genre, and application. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. Recommended Prerequisites: BE102 Old Testament History I and BE104 Old Testament Prophets. 3 hours.
ELECTIVE COURSES

Th.M. students with a Bible Exposition concentration in the Academic Ministries track may take any nine hours of Bible Exposition electives. In addition Th.M. students may credit up to four elective hours from the following courses to this department: OT610 History of Israel, OT615 Israelite Religion in Its Ancient Near Eastern Context, OT625 Field Work in Biblical Archaeology, OT720 The Use of the Old Testament in the New Testament, and NT410 Historical Backgrounds of the Gospels. These courses, however, may not be credited as elective hours to replace validated courses. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.

Th.M. students with a Bible Exposition concentration as part of the Interdisciplinary Studies track should select at least one course from each of the following four areas, or, depending on course hours, at least three of the following four areas:

- Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics
- Background Studies
- Biblical Studies
- Thematic Studies

The purpose of the Division of Theological Studies is to equip students with discernment in systematic and biblical theology and an awareness of the historical and theological development of the church.

Department of Theological Studies

Christians should be backward-looking and forward-looking, a people with historical discretion and confident expectation.

—Dr. Jeffrey Bingham

DTS Faculty
The Theological Studies department has made a profound impact on my life by showing me that theology, what I think about God, influences every aspect of life. I so appreciate the willingness of the professors to pour not only their wisdom and knowledge, but also their lives into the students.

—Joe Allen
DTS Student

The purpose of the Department of Theological Studies is to equip godly servant-leaders for worldwide ministry by:

- Passing on to students an understanding of the church’s one true faith embraced within a distinctively dispensational, premillennial evangelicalism
- Encouraging students to think theologically as a response to Scripture, with a sensitivity to the history of theology, philosophy, and culture
- Helping students gain perspectives essential to spiritual formation, global servant-leadership, and the evaluation of contemporary issues and trends.

CE905 Special Topics in Christian Education
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed four semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
The purpose of this department is to focus students’ attention on Christ’s mandate to make disciples among all nations. The department is a resource for the Seminary regarding cross-cultural and intercultural aspects of ministry. It gives biblical, theoretical, and practical preparation to those called to intercultural evangelism, church planting, leadership development, Christian education, and Christian higher education. The department also prepares students for intercultural parachurch ministries and seeks to train leaders for the growing global missionary movement.
REVIEW COURSE
Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

WM101 Introduction to World Missions
Pocock, Young
A study of the biblical meaning and purpose of missions, missions agencies and instruments, and missions accomplishments, trends, needs, and possibilities.
3 hours.

ELECTIVE COURSES
Th.M. students in the Academic Ministries track with a World Missions concentration must complete at least nine hours of the following electives within the department:

• 1 foundations course 3
• 1 contexts course 2
• 1 strategic approaches course 2 or 3
• 1 biblical and theological studies course 2 or 3

*If WM405, WM410, or WM505 is chosen, the extra hour of each course would be in addition to normal elective requirements and would count as either free electives in the Th.M. program, or as extra hours in the M.A./ICM program. Students not needing the extra hours may reduce expenses by taking WM405, WM410, or WM505 for two hours’ credit and one hour audit.

Directed Studies

WM901  Independent Study in Missions
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of missions not specifically treated in other courses. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed four semester hours in any one subject of study. Limited to advanced students and subject to consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

WM902  World Missions and Intercultural Studies Thesis
The Department
Independent research and writing of a thesis on an approved topic pertaining to World Missions and Intercultural Studies, under the supervision of two faculty advisers. 2 or 3 hours.

WM903  Mission Field Research
The Department
On-the-field training and research, including 12 hours in pre-field analysis and orientation, six to eight weeks in another culture under the guidance of missions personnel, and the completion of a research project. 2 hours.

WM905  Special Topics in World Missions
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed four semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
The purpose of this department is to develop character and personal vision that enables students to:
• sharpen relational and leadership skills
• integrate classroom studies with ministry experience
• acquire, reinforce, and refine ministry knowledge and skills
• evaluate giftedness, passions, and vocational goals.

This focus is based largely on small-group and internship contexts, which facilitate spiritual formation and ministry development of future godly servant-leaders. Spiritual formation will be addressed primarily in the first three semesters, while the fourth semester will focus on developing a vision for ministry. Servant-Leadership internships will be introduced at the spiritual formation new-student kick-off in the first semester of the program and become prominent in the fourth semester. The issues addressed in the first three semesters will lay the foundation for the students’ understanding of ministry development.
Th.M. and M.A./CE students are required to enroll in SF101–SF104 during their first four semesters of study at the Seminary. Though the courses are noncredit, they will appear on students’ transcripts.

Internship credit is required of all Th.M. and S.T.M. students, and also of those in the M.A. program in Christian Education, as detailed below. (It is also available to students in other degree programs as elective credit.)

- Th.M.—2 hours
- S.T.M.—1 hour
- M.A./CE—2 hours
  (SL165 Christian Education Internship)

Additional internship hours may also be credited toward a degree. Normally only one internship may be taken at a time.

Each student must identify a mentor who agrees to supervise the internship. Mentors must be approved by the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership. (For information on available internship opportunities, consult the DTS Job Board at www.dts.edu.)

To encourage global, cross-cultural perspectives and skills, students may participate in a short-term, cross-cultural mission trip as a part of any required track internship. Participation in a preapproved, short-term mission trip experience can count toward up to one-third of the total hours of ministry experience required. Partial internship credit also is available to students who lead a Spiritual Formation group or teach in the Center for Biblical Studies. Consult the department for more information.

REQUIRED COURSES

Spiritual Formation
The following four courses must be taken in sequence and are required of all Th.M. and M.A./CE students. Each student is placed in a Spiritual Formation group that meets together for four consecutive semesters and is led by a qualified facilitator. Retreats, outreach events, work projects, and campus activities are woven throughout the two-year experience.

SF101 Spiritual Formation I (Identity)
This course challenges students to grasp more fully the reality of identity in Christ both personally and corporately. Life Inventory is the primary resource used in discovering and establishing identity. An adequate understanding of one’s identity in relation to God, self, the body of Christ, and the world is presented as a precursor to developing authentic community. Noncredit, fall only.

SF102 Spiritual Formation II (Community)
This course challenges students to pursue new depths of trust out of common commitment to discovering God’s authorship in their lives. Life Story is the primary resource used in guiding each group toward the development of authentic community. Noncredit, spring only.

SF103 Spiritual Formation III (Integrity)
This course challenges students to examine the personal and corporate implications of sin and grace in their lives. Life Change is the primary resource used in developing integrity in the lives of group members. Noncredit, fall only.

SF104 Spiritual Formation IV (Service)
This course challenges students to implement their divine design in harmony with the mission of Christ and the uniqueness of others. Life Vision is the primary resource used in establishing each group member’s vision for future ministry. The course helps focus the remainder of the students’ academic experiences by providing an opportunity to anticipate carefully how they might serve the Lord for a lifetime. Noncredit, spring only.

Servant Leadership
All required internships for the ministry tracks are two-credit hour courses with 400 hours of total involvement (200 hours per credit hour). Any internship may be taken as an elective for one or two semester hours of credit with 100 hours of involvement per semester hour of credit. Details on the specific requirements of each internship may be obtained from the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department. Consult the Th.M. ministry track course listings in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for internships required in each degree program.

For information on the D.Min. program see the Academic Programs section of this catalog or contact the Admissions Office.

REQUIRED COURSES

DM101  The Ministry Leader
Lawrence
Concentrating on two primary elements, personal awareness and leadership practice, students are provided the opportunity to engage in a series of self-assessments leading to a statement of life vision. The leadership-development process is also examined through case studies, leadership literature, and selected leadership concerns. 3 hours.

DM102  Applied Research Project Development Seminar
Reed, Wofford
A "walk-through" of the development of the applied research and dissertation, including problem-statement, research question, hypotheses, research design, theoretical grounding and literature review, and biblical-theological foundation. The course also explores thesis-writing strategies and ministry research methods. 3 hours.

DM103  The Applied Research Project
The Department
D.Min. studies culminate in the completion of an applied research project. A report of the student’s project is submitted as a dissertation. Note that the term “applied research project” refers to the entire project. The term “dissertation” refers to the actual written document. Students should register for DM103 (paying three hours of tuition) the first term following the completion of 27 hours and all course requirements. Students will have one year from then to complete their dissertation and graduate. 3 hours.

ELECTIVE COURSES

Bible

DM205  Selected Topics of Biblical Issues in Today’s Ministry
The Department
A study of selected biblical issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM210  Interpretation and Communication of Narrative Literature
Johnson and Warren
A study of accurate interpretation and effective communication of this unique form of literature. 3 hours.

The Department
A study of selected issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM310  Instructional and Learning Theories
Lawson
A survey of contemporary learning theories, with emphasis on their instructional implications. Students will integrate theoretical and empirical bases to derive implications for effective instruction. 3 hours.
Course Descriptions

DM315 Creative Problem-solving
Lawson
A presentation of problem-solving strategies that will enable students to identify, analyze, and propose solutions for their most pressing ministry problems. Each problem and solution will then be critiqued, with a view to providing a more comprehensive solution.
3 hours.

DM320 Group Process in Church Ministry
Donahue
The examination and practice of group skills necessary for promoting effective group work in committees, ministry teams, Bible studies, and fellowship groups.
3 hours.

DM325 Family Life: Enrichment and Education
Humphries
An exploration of the relationship between enrichment of family life and family life education programs in the church. The seminar format provides an opportunity to interact with leading authorities in the field of family ministry and to become aware of networking possibilities with family ministers.
3 hours.

DM330 Biblical Patterns for Contemporary Parenting
Humphries
An exploration of how biblical texts present patterns useful to parents for addressing contemporary parenting issues in family life. The seminar will provide opportunity for a survey of available resource materials, involvement in practical projects, and interaction with other professional ministers interested in the field. Students will assess the current status of ministries to parents in their own churches and devise strategies for enhancing those ministries.
3 hours.

DM335 Trends and Issues in Church Education
McLaughlin
An examination of current educational paradigms in light of biblical anthropology and a Christian worldview. Students will identify and evaluate social and political trends at global and national levels in order to develop effective educational structures.
3 hours.

DM340 Strategic Resource Development
Lawson, McLaughlin
The development of three key resources in church ministry: people, finances, and space. Students will review various strategies to enable parishioners to discover, develop, and utilize God-given gifts. Issues in fundraising, financial proposals, and budget presentations will be discussed. Space allocation and utilization will be integrated into master planning and design strategies.
3 hours.

DM345 Biblical Church Leadership and Church Staffing
Gangel
A seminar in leadership style, process, and implementation, with a focus on developing biblical qualities, designing team ministry, and solving common problems in church educational leadership.
3 hours.

DM350 Applied Educational Technology
Regier
A study of current educational equipment and techniques to enable students to design materials for presentation in their ministries.
3 hours.

DM355 Trends and Issues in Family Ministries
The Department
A seminar on advanced issues in church educational programming in which students analyze past achievement, assess program strengths and weaknesses, and prescribe effective ministries for the twenty-first century.
3 hours.

Communication

DM405 Selected Topics of Communication Issues in Today's Ministry

3 hours.

DM410 Homiletics Practicum
López, Ralston, Reed, Tie, Kuruvilla, Raymer, Warren
This practicum includes an evaluation of three of the student’s videotaped sermons, the preparation and use of various means of obtaining feedback on the student’s preaching from the congregation, and the development of a year’s preaching plan. Normally open to students who are currently pastoring churches. Limited enrollment.
3 hours.
DM415 Evangelism and Assimilation
Cecil
A study of strategies for evangelism and assimilation in the local church, including a biblical foundation, trends, and contextualization. 3 hours.

DM420 Creativity in Ministry
Hendricks
A study of the principles and motivation for developing creativity in one’s ministry and for teaching others to be creative in a ministry context. 3 hours.

DM425 Communicating in Contemporary Culture
Hendricks
A study of contemporary culture, with a view to enabling students to communicate effectively in their ministries. 3 hours.

DM430 Biblical Exposition for the Twenty-first Century
Warren
Effective biblical preaching spans the gulf between the biblical world and the modern world. To accomplish this task, students will examine the communication process and development of expository messages toward improvement in their skills in preparation and delivery of biblical sermons. 3 hours.

DM435 Writing for Publication
Gangel
A course designed to help pastors and other Christian leaders develop basic skills in writing articles for magazines, devotional materials, and items for lay readership, with attention to all phases of writing for publication from idea generation to manuscript delivery. 3 hours.

DM440 Communication Relevance in Preaching
Sunukjian
The development of a communicative model of relevance that provides strategies for contextualized preaching in various settings. Students will do an in-depth analysis of their respective audiences and develop a framework for demonstrating the relevance of biblical messages. 3 hours.

DM445 Sharpening Your Interpersonal Skills for Ministry
Barnes
A practical application of God’s Word on how to relate to others. Through discussion, study, and practice, students will grow in such interpersonal skills as listening, drawing out, confrontation, conflict management, building trust, living in community, and stress management. 3 hours.

The Department
A study of selected issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.
DM510 Leadership Evaluation and Development
Lawrence
LEAD is an intensely personal small-group seminar in leadership assessment and development dealing with the personalized steps needed to identify and solve leadership obstacles. Spouses must participate in the course. It covers several areas of the life of the leader and his or her spouse: personal family history, marriage and family, personal life visions, preaching, and current ministry. Various resident periods available. This course is scheduled through the Dallas Seminary Center for Christian Leadership. 3 hours.

DM515 Leadership and Management in the Church
Seidel
A study of critical leadership and management elements of church ministry. This course is intended to be a link between DM101 The Ministry Leader and DM525 Strategic Planning and Mission for Ministry. The ultimate goal of this course is to help the student become more effective and more efficient in church ministry. 3 hours.

DM520 Church Planting and Extension
Malphurs
A study of church-planting strategies, with a focus on “mother-daughter” church extension strategies. Not included is cross-cultural church planting, which is covered extensively in DM530. 3 hours.

DM525 Strategic Planning and Mission for Ministry
Malphurs
This course will help ministry leaders to think and plan strategically in four critical areas: (1) discover and articulate the ministry’s core values, (2) craft a mission statement for the leader’s ministry, (3) craft a vision statement for the leader’s ministry, and (4) design a strategy to implement the mission and vision. 3 hours.

DM530 Cross-cultural Church Planting
Pocock
A study of biblical principles and relevant new research in church planting, with an analysis of a variety of case studies and effective outreach tools. 3 hours.

DM535 Developing Leadership through Mentoring and Coaching
Hendricks
A study of biblical principles for developing mentoring and/or coaching relationships with others and the value of mentoring in ministry. Students will learn to develop leaders for their church or ministry through this effective, biblical process. 3 hours.

DM550 Effective Church Leadership: Stonebriar Community Church, Frisco, TX
Swindoll and Young
An on-site study of the history, philosophy, and programs of Stonebriar Community Bible Church. Students participate in the activities of the church and interact intensively with church leaders. Emphasis is placed on the application of the on-site experience to the student’s personal ministry setting. The focus of this course is the staff and ministry dynamics of a large, multistaff church. 3 hours.

DM551 Effective Church Leadership: Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship, Dallas, TX
Evans and Hawkins
An on-site study of the history, philosophy, and programs of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship. Students participate in the activities of the church and interact intensively with church leaders. Emphasis is placed on the application of the on-site experience to the student’s personal ministry setting. The focus of this course is on the student’s personal growth and ministry development within the church or institution being served. 3 hours.

DM552 Effective Church Leadership: Fellowship Bible Church North, Plano, TX
Getz
An on-site study of the history, philosophy, and programs of Fellowship Bible Church North. Students participate in the activities of the church and interact intensively with church leaders. Emphasis is placed on the application of the on-site experience to the student’s personal ministry setting. 3 hours.
Course Descriptions

DM553  Effective Church Leadership: Fellowship Bible Church, Tulsa, OK
Ewing
An on-site study of the history, philosophy, and programs of Fellowship Bible Church (FBC). Students participate in the activities of the church and interact intensively with church leaders. Emphasis is placed on the application of the on-site experience to the student’s personal ministry setting. The focus of this course is on FBC’s discipleship for leadership program. 3 hours.

Nurture

DM605  Selected Topics of Nurture Issues in Today’s Ministry
The Department
A study of selected issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM610  The Primacy of the Minister’s Spiritual Life
David Wyrtzen
Given the rate of ministerial burnout and fallout, ministers must not neglect their own spiritual journey. This seminar addresses the struggles faced in ministry and offers realistic strategies of hope for ongoing spiritual maturation. 3 hours.

DM615  Advanced Pastoral Psychology and Counseling
Barnes, Jones
A study of psychodynamics in relation to pastoral counseling, and the study and practice of counseling techniques, emphasizing special problems in counseling. 3 hours.

DM620  Worship Enhancement and Effectiveness
Ralston and Donald Wyrtzen
An analysis of the theology of worship and worship trends, with a view toward leading God’s people to appreciate and participate in worship. 3 hours.

DM625  Discipleship Dynamics
Bailey
An examination of the concept of discipleship as defined by Christ as the seedbed strategy for developing Christian character. The characteristics of a disciple articulated in the Gospels are carefully correlated with the practice of discipleship in the church as described in the Epistles. 3 hours.

DM630  Ministry’s Ethical Dilemmas
Lightner
A study of current political, medical, and legal issues in the light of Scripture, with attention to the ethical and moral implications of these issues on people engaged in ministry. Students bring case studies to the seminar and develop a framework for decision-making and resolution. 3 hours.

DM635  Marriage and Family Counseling
Jones
An examination of the theoretical foundations of healthy Christian family life, with emphasis on practical skills and counseling techniques in the assessment, intervention, and resolution of marital and family problems. Enrollment limited to 20 students. 3 hours.

Theology

DM705  Selected Topics of Theological Issues in Today’s Ministry
The Department
A study of selected theological issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM710  The Charismatic Movement
Hannah
A study of the theological and historical framework of the charismatic movement, with exegesis of select biblical passages. 3 hours.

DM715  Theological Construction for Ministry
Hannah
Students “do theology” by constructing a biblical theology for their respective ministry organizations. Instruction focuses on theological grounding and directives for ministry as opposed to proof-texting. 3 hours.

DM720  Culture, Meaning, and Contextualization in Ministry
Pocock and Young
The development of a biblical theology of culture and integration of the roles of culture and meaning in contextualized ministry. The course will provide a grid for evaluating ministries according to culture and meaning toward the goal of effectively contextualized and globalized ministry rather than copying indiscriminately. 3 hours.
DM725 Ministries of Reconciliation
Peterson
A discussion of the biblical theology of ministries of reconciliation that allows students to develop a model for reconciliation ministries of their choice—racial, gender, marital, cultural, intra-church, interchurch, restoration of a fallen leader, and so on. The course goes beyond the “should” to develop the “how to” of reconciliation. 3 hours.

DM730 The Structure of Christian Doctrine
Hannah
Combining an emphasis on the history of doctrinal development with the insights of the Scriptures, this study is an attempt to think through the logic of Christian orthodox faith by an overview of the origins and content of the Christian theology. 3 hours.

DM735 The Role of Prayer in Ministry
Constable
A study of the biblical teaching on prayer, its practice throughout church history, and its place in the ministry. 3 hours.

DM740 Trends in Contemporary Theological Movements
Pyne
A study of the historical and theological development of current trends in theology. Topics will vary according to student interest. 3 hours.

Directed Study

DM901 Independent Study
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of ministry studies. Normally the independent study is associated with the student’s research project, though it may be related to other interests. Students may take up to two independent studies as part of their program. 3 hours.

DM905 Special Topics
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed four semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
Doctor of Philosophy

Richard A. Taylor, Director Biblical Studies Division
Gordon H. Johnston, Coordinator for Old Testament Studies
Harold W. Hoehner, Coordinator for New Testament Studies
Ronald B. Allen, Coordinator for Bible Exposition
Glenn R. Kreider, Coordinator for Theological Studies

The Doctor of Philosophy program is designed for those who are capable of doing research at the highest level with a view to becoming scholars and educational leaders in various fields of Christian ministry. The program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree is divided into two divisions: Biblical Studies and Theological Studies.

Whether God has called you to the pastorate, mission field, classroom, or Christian organization, a solid grasp of New Testament theology is invaluable to your ministry.

The New Testament doctoral program at DTS has given me the historical and exegetical tools to understand the world of Jesus, Paul and the disciples, and to apply their teaching to my life and ministry.

—Matthew Edwards Ph.D. Student

PH.D. IN BIBLICAL STUDIES

In addition to the Biblical Studies core listed below, each student must take 12 hours of course work and write a three-hour dissertation in a concentration, either Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, or Bible Exposition.

Each student in the Biblical Studies major also has 11 hours of electives, with at least one course to be taken in each of the other Biblical Studies division departments. An Old Testament student, for example, is required to take one doctoral course from the New Testament Studies department and one course from the Bible Exposition department. The remaining nine elective hours are open and taken in consultation with the student’s departmental adviser.

With approval of the director, WM410 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts may be credited to the Ph.D. program.

Biblical Studies

REQUIRED COURSES

BS1001 Old Testament Backgrounds
Allen and Merrill

BS1002 New Testament Backgrounds
The Department and Allman

BS1003 Hermeneutics
Bock and Johnson
A study of hermeneutics, including its history, with emphasis on recent trends and applications. This will include issues like the impact of presuppositions on interpretation, the dynamics of dual authorship, the question of where meaning resides, the effect of differences in genre on interpretation, as well as considerations of the reality of the progress of revelation and its application to today’s world. The seminar involves a mixture of discussion on theory and discussion of texts. 3 hours.

BS1004 Research Procedures
Hoehner and Taylor
This course is designed to guide the student in the use of library materials, computerized databases, bibliographic resources as well as research strategies, dissertation topic selection, and familiarization with form and style for dissertations. 1 hour.

Old Testament Studies Concentration

The purpose of the Old Testament Studies concentration is to prepare students for a ministry based on scholarly research in the text of the Old Testament. The program integrates the study of biblical Hebrew exegesis, historical Hebrew grammar, Old Testament backgrounds, Old Testament criticism, and biblical theology. Ph.D. students majoring in Old Testament Studies are encouraged either to teach in the Center for Biblical Studies or to serve for a year as a teaching assistant in the department.

In addition to nine hours of divisional courses, an Old Testament concentration requires 14–15 hours of Old Testament courses, a three-hour dissertation in Old Testament Studies, and eight to nine hours of electives, with at least one of the courses selected in New Testament Studies (excluding NT9001 and NT9002) and one in Bible Exposition. Electives should be chosen in consultation with the department.

Before the end of the first semester in the Ph.D. program, students with an Old Testament Studies concentration must pass a reading proficiency exam demonstrating basic competence in Hebrew grammar and syntax and the ability to translate Hebrew prose literature. Remedial instruction to prepare for this exam will be provided by the department, but no credit will be given for such instruction.

REQUIRED COURSES

This is not a course in conversational French, although points concerning conversation and pronunciation will occasionally be covered as an aid to study and memorization. 2 hours.
Dallas Seminary is a member of the Institute of Theological Studies (ITS), a cooperative program of several evangelical seminaries. Courses based on lectures by biblical scholars are offered on audiocassette. Course credit in independent study may be earned by students who enroll in the courses, listen to the tapes, and complete the requirements stipulated in the syllabi. ITS courses can be used toward unrestricted electives in a degree program; however, Dallas Seminary does not offer any degree programs through correspondence. Substitution of selected ITS courses for required courses in a degree program is only allowed in exceptional circumstances with Credits Committee approval.

For more information, contact the External Studies Office by phone (800-992-0998, ext. 3772), by email (externalstudies@dts.edu), or by visiting the Seminary’s website (www.dts.edu).

The following courses are presently available.

Old Testament

IOTS05 The Book of Psalms
Bruce K. Waltke
An introduction to the Book of Psalms, with emphasis on the principles of exegesis of the hymnic literature and the application of these principles in selected portions. Attention is given to the various forms of psalms, their setting within the historical experience of Israel, and their application today within the church. A knowledge of Hebrew is helpful but not required. 2 hours.

IOTS06 Understanding the Old Testament
Bruce K. Waltke
A survey of the history of salvation in the Old Testament as it relates to Old Testament theology, that is, the establishment of God’s kingdom on earth. A knowledge of Hebrew is helpful but not required. 3 hours.

IOTS07 The Book of Proverbs
Bruce K. Waltke
An exegetical study of the Book of Proverbs in both its cultural and historical setting and its literary setting, with attention to critical and hermeneutical problems. To get full benefit from the course, a knowledge of Hebrew is required. 3 hours.

IOTS09 The Christian and Old Testament Theology
Walter C. Kaiser
A biblical and theological study of the foundational theology applied by the Old Testament for the New Testament and the Christian church. Included are the topics of saving faith, the people of God, the role of the law of God, the worship of God, the doctrine of the atonement, the relationship between the Law and wisdom theology, the kingdom of God, the Messiah, the inclusion of the Gentiles, the theology of the Holy Spirit, and the preparation of the New Covenant. 3 hours.

I consider a Dallas Seminary degree a guarantee to solid biblical exposition and correct understanding of Scripture.

DTS Board Member
Course Descriptions

New Testament

INT501 The Sermon on the Mount
John R. W. Stott
The course is an exposition of Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5–7. The emphasis is on the distinctive character that is expected of the Christian and on the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ. The course emphasizes the practical and spiritual applications of the Sermon on the Mount and the theological issues and historical interpretations of that passage. 2 hours.

INT502 The Pastoral Epistles
John R. W. Stott
An expository and exegetical study of 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus, with emphasis on their exegetical and interpretive problems and their theology and practical relevance for society and the church, especially church leadership. One syllabus requires a knowledge of Greek with the careful use of the specified commentaries. A separate syllabus for the course does not require Greek. 3 hours.

INT504 The Gospels/Life of Christ
Terry C. Hulbert
A chronological, synthetic study of the four Gospel records, emphasizing the time, place, circumstances, and persons involved in the events of our Lord’s ministry, with a view to a fuller understanding of the significance of His words and works. 3 hours.

INT505 The Parables of Jesus
Craig L. Blomberg
Methods of interpreting Jesus’ parables are surveyed and then an eclectic model drawing on the best insights of each parable is applied to some of the major narrative parables in the Gospels. Conclusions are drawn concerning the theology and significance of this portion of Jesus’ teaching. 2 hours.

INT506 The Gospel of Luke
Darrell L. Bock
An examination of the Gospel of Luke, with concentration on its message and preparation of narrative material for preaching and teaching. 3 hours.

INT507 The Acts of the Apostles
Darrell L. Bock
An exegetical examination of Acts, with concentration on the biblical theology of the book, the historical background of events, and the theological emphasis of the speeches. Special attention is given to the relationship between the church and Israel in the early church era. 3 hours.

Church History

ICH503 The History of Christianity in America
John D. Hannah
A study of the Protestant churches in America from colonial beginnings to the present, with emphasis on numerous influences that have forged the current religious scene. 3 hours.

ICH510 The History of the Charismatic Movement
John D. Hannah
A historical and theological study of the origins and developments within the Classical Pentecostal, Charismatic Renewalist, and Restoration movements, with emphasis on theological backgrounds and trends. 3 hours.

General Ministry Studies

IMT501 Spiritual Formation: The Corporate Dimensions of Spirituality
John R. Lillis
An investigation into the meaning of biblical Christianity and its relationship to faith and practice within contemporary cultural contexts. Special attention is given to the corporate dimensions of spirituality and spiritual formation as defined in the New Testament. Those historical and cultural factors that have led to the privatization of Christianity are analyzed and discussed. A paradigm of spiritual growth and maturity, which focuses on the assembly rather than the individual, is developed. 3 hours.

IMT502 The Role of Women in Ministry
Lucy L. Mabery-Foster
A study of ministry to and by women, including biblical foundations for roles of women in the home, church, and society. The course includes principles for evangelizing, discipling, and counseling women and is designed to aid both men and women who will be responsible for various areas of women’s ministries. 3 hours.
Course Descriptions

Christian Education

ICE501 Church Leadership and Administration
Kenneth O. Gangel
A course designed to develop leadership potential in students and to give them a familiarity with the various elements of the administrative process, including setting and achieving goals, organization, delegation, human relations, group dynamics, supervision, and the training of other leaders. Though the principles are universal, the focus of the course is the Christian organization, particularly the local church. 2 hours.

ICE502 Interpersonal Relations and Conflict Management in Church and Christian Organizations
Samuel L. Canine and Kenneth O. Gangel
An examination of the process of interpersonal communication and conflict management in relationships within Christian organizations, with attention to communication models, self-concept, nonverbal messages, stress, and strategies that will assist Christian leaders in developing skills in interpersonal communication and the productive use of conflict. 2 hours.

ICE503 Advanced Leadership and Administration
Kenneth O. Gangel
A study of the biblical foundation and practical functions of administrative leadership in churches and Christian organizations. 2 hours.

ICE505 Effective Administrative Leadership
Kenneth O. Gangel
The purpose of this course is to assist in the training of Christian administrative leaders by producing a helpful balance of both the biblical information concerning leadership and the practical “day-to-day” information needed for successful leadership. The goal of this study is for the student to obtain a fresh understanding of practical application of biblical leadership, principally for his or her ministry setting. 2 hours.

World Missions

IWM501 Introduction to World Christian Missions
William D. Taylor
An introductory survey of the theology, history, culture, politics, and methods of the Christian mission, with special emphasis on recent developments, crucial issues and future trends, and a study of missions in the local church. 3 hours.

The greatest asset of a seminary is its faculty members because they translate the school’s philosophy into meaningful content in the classroom. Dallas Seminary faculty devote much of their time to teaching, are current in their studies, and publish an impressive number of books and articles for theological journals and Christian magazines.

RESIDENT FACULTY, DALLAS CAMPUS

* Indicates when full-time faculty service began

RONALD B. ALLEN
Senior Professor of Bible Exposition
1995–

In addition to his teaching responsibilities at Dallas Seminary, Dr. Allen frequently ministers as a guest professor in numerous schools in North America and in several countries in Europe, the Middle East, and Asia. He is a popular Bible conference speaker, a regular study tour leader in Israel, Turkey and Greece, and has been a biblical and theological consultant for Maranatha! Music. An articulate writer, he was senior editor for The New King James Version, Old Testament and the Old Testament editor for both The Nelson Study Bible and The Nelson’s New Illustrated Bible Commentary.

JAMES E. ALLMAN
Associate Professor of Bible Exposition
2000–

Dr. Allman was professor at Crichton College for 18 years before joining the DTS faculty. Since 1987, he has been a visiting lecturer in Australia, Ukraine, and India, and has also conducted mission trips in those nations and in Siberia. He served as a translator for many of the psalms in the Holman Christian Standard Bible. Dr. Allman has written articles for Life and Work Directions for the Baptist Sunday School Board.

MARK L. BAILEY
Professor of Bible Exposition, President
1985–

Dr. Bailey assumed the Seminary’s presidency after years of service as both a professor and the vice president for Academic Affairs, as well as his role as pastor of a local church. He was a seminar instructor for Walk Thru the Bible Ministries for 20 years and is in demand for Bible conferences and other preaching engagements. His overseas ministries have included Venezuela, Argentina, and Hungary. He is also a regular tour leader in the lands of the Bible, including Israel, Jordan, Egypt, Turkey, Greece, and Rome.
C. GARY BARNES
Associate Professor of Biblical Counseling
1997–.
Dr. Barnes is an ordained minister, a licensed psychologist, and a licensed specialist in school psychology who specializes in marriage and family research, counseling, and training. After graduating from Dallas Seminary, he served as an assistant pastor for seven years and then earned a Ph.D. in psychology at Columbia University. While in the New York area he was a research project coordinator at NYU Medical Center’s Family Studies Clinic and later completed a two-year postdoctoral fellowship through Parkland Hospital (Dallas) and the Child Guidance Clinics of Dallas and Texoma.

CHARLES P. BAYLIS
Professor of Bible Exposition
Director of the Southeast Region for External Studies (Tampa, Atlanta) 1994–.
Dr. Baylis is the director and a teacher at the Seminary’s Tampa and Atlanta campuses. He also teaches at other extension sites as well as on the main campus. Dr. Baylis has been a Bible study teacher in many different contexts in addition to being an adjunct professor for the Word of Life Bible Institute. He has written a number of articles for journals and periodicals. Dr. Baylis greatly enjoys spending time with his family and in his off hours he can be found with his wife, Sharon, and their three children.

D. JEFFREY BINGHAM
Chair and Professor of Theological Studies
1996–2002; 2003–.
B.B.A., New Mexico State University, 1982; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1986; Ph.D., 1995
Dr. Bingham is a member of several professional academic societies and specializes in the study of early Christianity. He has written extensively on the early Christian church and his articles and essays have appeared in leading literary journals. Before joining the faculty of Dallas Seminary, he pastored a church in West Texas and taught at several Christian colleges. He has also served as assistant dean for theological studies at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

DARRELL L. BOCK
Research Professor of New Testament Studies
Professor of Spiritual Development and Culture 1982–.
B.A., University of Texas at Austin, 1975; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1979; Ph.D., University of Aberdeen, 1983; postdoctoral study, Tübingen University.
Dr. Bock has earned international recognition as a Humboldt Scholar (Tübingen University in Germany) and for his groundbreaking work in Luke-Acts and in Jesus’ examination before the Jews. He was president of the Evangelical Theological Society (ETS) for 2000–2001, and serves as corresponding editor for Christianity Today. His articles appear in leading journals and periodicals, including many secular publications such as the Los Angeles Times and the Dallas Morning News. He also is an elder at Trinity Fellowship Church.
STEPHEN J. BRAMER
Professor of Bible Exposition
1997–.

Dr. Bramer taught for 16 years at Briercrest Bible College and at Briercrest Biblical Seminary in Saskatchewan, Canada, before joining the faculty of Dallas Seminary. He has also enjoyed a variety of other ministries such as teaching elder, youth pastor, and pulpit supply throughout Canada and the United States. He serves as an adjunct professor for Word of Life Bible Institute, Hungary, as well as at the Jordan Evangelical Theological Society (JETS) in Jordan. He is also a teaching elder at Waterbrook Bible Fellowship.

G. WILLIAM BRYAN
Chaplain
Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries
1985–.

Chaplain Bryan has ministered for 24 years in a variety of pastoral areas, including senior and associate pastor, youth director, and minister of youth, music, and education. He has also devoted many years to Bible conferences and Christian conference centers where he has been speaker, worship leader, board member, and chairman. He has also ministered extensively throughout the Caribbean and Latin America.

MICHAEL H. BURER
Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies
2004–.

Before beginning his faculty service, Dr. Burer was involved heavily in biblical studies. For the past several years he has worked with Bible.org as an editor and assistant project director for the NET Bible. He was also instrumental in the completion of the New English Translation-Novum Testamentum Graece diglot, published jointly by Bible.org and the Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft of Stuttgart, Germany. An ordained minister, Dr. Burer is active in his local church as a Bible teacher and ministers frequently in France.

J. LANIER BURNS
Senior Professor of Systematic Theology, Research Professor of Theological Studies 1982–.

Recognized in several editions of Who’s Who, Dr. Burns is actively involved in Christian and secular organizations and devotes time to Bible conferences, evangelistic crusades, pastoral leadership training and administration. For nearly 30 years he has served as president of the Asian Christian Academy in Bangalore, India.

DOUGLAS M. CECIL
Director of Alumni and Church Relations
Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries
1988–.

Dr. Cecil is an ordained minister who complements his Seminary responsibilities by training students to serve in hospitals around the Dallas area. He is currently the acting director of the Association of Evangelical Ministers (AEM) and a professional, certified chaplain with Hospital Chaplains’ Ministry of America, a ministry he has had for the past 22 years. A former captain in the U.S. Air Force, Dr. Cecil is very active in his local church and a regular tour leader in Israel.
ROBERT B. CHISHOLM JR.
Chair and Professor of Old Testament Studies
1981–.
While he enjoys teaching the full breadth of Old Testament Studies, Dr. Chisholm takes special delight in the major and minor prophets. He can take the intricacies of those books and communicate them for marketplace use, as evidenced in his published texts on the prophetic literature. He was the translation consultant for the International Children's Bible and for The Everyday Bible, and is senior Old Testament editor for the NET Bible.

THOMAS L. CONSTABLE
Chair and Senior Professor of Bible Exposition 1966–.
Dr. Constable is the founder of Dallas Seminary’s Field Education department (1970) and the Center for Biblical Studies (1973), both of which he directed for many years before assuming other responsibilities. Today Dr. Constable maintains an active academic, pulpit supply, and conference-speaking ministry around the world. He has ministered in nearly three dozen countries and written commentaries on every book of the Bible. Dr. Constable also founded a church, pastored it for 12 years, and served as one of its elders for 30 years.

DORIAN G. COOVER-COX
Assistant Professor of Old Testament Studies
2001–.
Dr. Coover-Cox has been a part of DTS for over 20 years—as a student, an adjunct teacher, and associate editor for Bibliotheca Sacra. Originally, she came to the Seminary to become a better editor; she found, however, that what she enjoys most about editing is helping people learn. While still an editor, she has found her niche in the classroom as well, encouraging students as they learn Hebrew at Dallas Seminary.

CHARLES W. DICKENS
Chair and Assistant Professor of Biblical Counseling
2003–.
B.S., Texas Wesleyan University, 1991; M.A., Southern Methodist University, 1993; Ph.D., 1995.
Prior to joining the faculty Dr. Dickens served as an associate pastor in the areas of pastoral care and counseling. He has previously served on the faculty of Biola University and has taught seminary and graduate-level courses internationally in Austria, Hong Kong, and Sri Lanka. Dr. Dickens is professionally active in the American Association of Christian Counselors and also serves as a contributing editor for the Journal of Psychology and Theology. He is married to Rebecca and they have two children, Joshua and Jillian.

SUE G. EDWARDS
Assistant Professor of Christian Education
2005–.
Dr. Edward's heartbeat is to reinforce ministry partnerships between men and women, which strengthen church and parachurch organizations locally and worldwide. She has 30 years experience in Christian education and Bible teaching, directing women's ministry, retreat and conference speaking, training teams and teachers, overseeing staff, and writing curriculum. As former pastor to women at her local church, she experienced healthy men and women partnerships on staff, and her passion is to pass on what she has learned. She is the author of New Doors in Ministry to Women and Women's Retreats: A Creative Planning Guide. Married to David for 33 years, she especially enjoys romping with their four grandchildren.
BUIST M. FANNING III
Chair and Professor of New Testament Studies 1974–.

Dr. Fanning has devoted 30 years to teaching New Testament at Dallas Seminary and an equal length of time to various service and leadership positions at his local church. This continuous balance of scholarship and ministry is evident to students in his New Testament literature and exegesis classes. Dr. Fanning holds leadership positions in several professional societies and has preached in England, Fiji, Germany, India, Israel, Kenya, the Philippines, Russia, Rwanda, and Sweden.

JOSEPH D. FANTIN
Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies
2003–.

Dr. Fantin finished at the top of his class at Dallas Seminary and was awarded the Henry C. Theissen Award in New Testament. He also received the Ward-Lewis Departmental Scholarship from the University of Sheffield’s biblical studies department, where he is currently working on a second Ph.D. Before joining Dallas Seminary’s faculty, he served as an adjunct professor of New Testament at The Criswell College. His research interests include the first-century world, Greek, and linguistics. His teaching passion is to see students grow in their knowledge of Christ in order to bring Christ’s love to a lost world. He and his wife, Robin, have two children: Jillian and David.

ROBERT J. GARIPPA
Vice President for Student Services
Dean of Students
2000–.

Dr. Garippa is uniquely fitted for his role as Dean of Students with over 30 years of pastoral and administrative experience. Dr. Garippa is married to Elainadel, daughter of Wycliffe Bible Translators founder, Dr. W. Cameron Townsend. Dr. Garippa and Elainadel enjoy a warm family life with their seven children and three grandchildren. He has ministered in Hong Kong, Italy, Mexico, the Philippines, and Taiwan.

REG GRANT
Professor of Pastoral Ministries
1982–.

Dr. Grant enjoys teaching courses in homiletics, drama, voice, creative writing, and creative radio production. He also serves on the advisory boards for Nest Entertainment and Probe Ministries. Dr. Grant has coauthored several books and has written, produced, and acted for radio, television, theater, and film. Dr. Grant is married to Lauren and they have three children.

JOHN D. GRASSMICK
Professor of New Testament Studies
Vice President for Academic Affairs
Academic Dean
1974–.

Throughout his 30 years of teaching New Testament courses at Dallas Seminary, Dr. Grassmick has also served in various leadership and teaching roles in his local church. Thus he brings a rich background of pastor-teacher experience to the classroom and academic administration. He holds membership in two professional societies and has traveled to western Canada, Europe, and Israel. His wife Karen serves on the administrative staff of the Seminary. They have four children.
KENNETH G. HANNA
Professor of Bible Exposition
Director of the Southwest Region for External Studies 2002–.
A veteran Bible professor and scholar, Dr. Hanna has taught at six institutions and served as president of two: Winnipeg Bible College and Theological Seminary (now Providence) and Bryan College. He has had numerous articles published in periodicals and in the Christian Life Bible. He has also been a regular teacher on several radio programs, such as Radio School of the Bible. His service and leadership have included many board chairmanships and presidencies, including the Evangelical Theological Society of Canada and the Evangelical Pastors’ Fellowship.

JOHN D. HANNAH
Distinguished Professor of Historical Theology
Research Professor of Theological Studies 1972–.
B.S., Philadelphia College of Bible, 1967; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1971; Th.D., 1974; M.A., Southern Methodist University, 1980; Ph.D., University of Texas at Dallas, 1988; postdoctoral study, Yale University, 1993.
Dr. Hannah has enjoyed a distinguished 32-year career at Dallas Seminary. He is a frequent and popular church and conference speaker both at home and abroad. His publications include books, journals, chapters in books, audio materials, and computerized works. He remains active in church ministries and serves on the boards of several organizations.

W. HALL HARRIS III
Professor of New Testament Studies
1978–.
During his 27 years as a member of the Seminary faculty, Dr. Harris has remained extremely active in local church leadership positions. As an ordained minister, he has been a single adults pastor, elder, and adult Sunday school teacher. Dr. Harris serves as project director and general editor of the NET Bible, the first Bible to be published electronically on the Internet (www.netbible.org). He has worked closely with the German Bible Society in the production of the New English Translation—Novum Testamentum Graece New Testament, and has traveled extensively in Western Europe.

GREGORY A. HATTEBERG
Director of Admissions
1998–.
Before joining the faculty as director of Admissions, Mr. Hatteberg worked in recruitment at Moody Bible Institute. The former youth pastor is an instructor for Walk Thru the Bible Ministries and a licensed tour guide for Israel. Based on his experiences in Israel, he has coauthored The Christian Traveler’s Guide to the Holy Land.

MARK H. HEINEMANN
Associate Professor of Christian Education
Dr. Heinemann and his family were missionaries with Greater Europe Mission for 15 years, during which time he taught practical theology at the Freie Theologische Akademie in Germany and was a member of the mission’s European field leadership team. He has also served as a pastor and as a staff member with Campus Crusade for Christ.
HOWARD G. HENDRICKS
Chair of the Center for Christian Leadership Distinguished Professor 1951–

Dr. Hendricks is a household name in Christianity, and in his 50-plus years of ministry, he has directly or indirectly touched millions of lives. A faculty member since 1951, Dr. Hendricks sees the adult children of former students now attending his classes. Today he still maintains a rigorous travel schedule and has ministered in over 80 countries through speaking engagements, radio, books, tapes, and films. He is also the former Bible teacher and chaplain for the Dallas Cowboys football team.

JOHN W. HILBER
Associate Professor of Old Testament Studies
2004–

Dr. Hilber served for 15 years in pastoral ministry before pursuing doctoral studies in preparation for academic ministry. Consequently, he is deeply committed to preparing students for careful study in real-life settings, and a number of his journal publications have addressed practical issues in church life. His specialized interest is the use of ancient background material in Old Testament studies. Dr. Hilber and his wife, Charlotte, have one daughter.

GEORGE M. HILLMAN JR.
Assistant Professor of Spiritual Formation and Leadership
Director of Center for Biblical Studies
2002–

Dr. Hillman has a passion for discipleship and leadership development. He comes to Dallas Seminary with 10 years of ministry experience in Texas and Georgia, most recently as a pastor of spiritual development in a local church. He currently serves as cochairman of the Evangelical Association of Theological Field Education (EATFE). He and his wife, Jana, have one daughter.

HAROLD W. HOEHNER
Distinguished Professor of New Testament Studies
1968–

B.A., Barrington College, 1958; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1962; Th.D., 1965; Ph.D., Cambridge University, 1968; postdoctoral study, Tübingen University and Cambridge University.

Dr. Hoehner has written for scholarly journals and publications. He is especially well regarded for his work on biblical chronology, including the time aspects in and around the life of Christ, the rule of Herod Antipas, and the period between the Testaments. He has traveled and ministered in Europe, the Near East, Russia, South Africa, and Indonesia. Along with his many professional memberships, he serves on the board of Jews for Jesus.

J. SCOTT HORRELL
Professor of Theological Studies
1997–

Dr. Horrell has been a missionary and theologian in various world cultures, in addition to evangelism and church-planting with World Team, InterVarsity, and Youth with a Mission (YWAM). Along with cofounding and editing a leading Latin American theological journal, he has written several books in Portuguese and English. He especially loves to strengthen international believers in the truths of the Bible.
ROBERT D. IBACH
Library Director
1986–.
Before coming to Dallas Seminary, Mr. Ibach was library director at Grace College and Grace Theological Seminary, where he also taught biblical archaeology for 17 years. He has served as a consultant for several libraries in the United States and Israel, and is an active member of the Society of Biblical Literature, the American Theological Library Association, and several regional library organizations.

ELLIOTT E. JOHNSON
Senior Professor of Bible Exposition
1972–.
Dr. Johnson is the founder of the Asian Theological Seminary and has taught extensively overseas, including the Philippines, Poland, the former Czechoslovakia, Romania, and Russia. He has also ministered in Austria, Brazil, England, Germany, Israel, and Scotland. Dr. Johnson joined the Seminary as faculty in 1972 and as a pastor of a Dallas-area church the same year. He is a member of the Evangelical Theological Society (ETS).

GORDON H. JOHNSTON
1998–.
Unearthing the riches of the Old Testament is not limited to the classroom for Dr. Johnston. For a number of years Dr. Johnston has sifted through archaeological digs and excavations in Israel. He has worked with the Tel Malhata and the Khirbet el-Maquatir projects, and has served as a leader on several travel/study programs to Israel, Egypt, Jordan, and Turkey. In addition to his work in the field, Dr. Johnston has published numerous articles and essays in scholarly journals and is a contributor to theNET Bible. The frequent Who's Who honoree also has a strong commitment to evangelism and discipleship.

J. WILLIAM JOHNSTON
Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies, Houston Extension 2002–.
Before Dr. Johnston was a believer, he doubted the accuracy of Scripture translations, and therefore the integrity of the Bible. After coming to faith, he decided that the only way to find out whether the translations were reliable was to learn the original languages. After majoring in the classics at the University of Texas, he came to Dallas Seminary and discovered that teaching was his passion. Prior to joining the full-time faculty at Dallas Seminary, he taught Greek at The Criswell College and as an adjunct teacher at Dallas Seminary.

FRENCH A. JONES
Associate Professor of Biblical Counseling
1995–.
B.S., Georgia State University, 1972; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1980; Ph.D., University of North Texas, 1988.
In addition to serving on the faculty at Dallas Seminary, Dr. Jones is a licensed professional counselor with a private practice specializing in marriage and divorce issues. For 12 years he served as a pastor/counselor for singles at a church in Dallas and has also been the executive director and clinical director at the Swiss Avenue Counseling Center in downtown Dallas. Dr. Jones belongs to the American Association of Christian Counselors and the Christian Association for Psychological Studies. He is a former staff member of both Campus Crusade for Christ and Probe Ministries.
REID A. KISLING
Registrar
2001–.
B.S., Oregon Institute of Technology, 1992; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1997; Ph.D. candidate, Regent University.

With a background in both theology and organizational leadership, Mr. Kisling strives to impact enrollment management structures in theological education and influence the direction of others in personal and pastoral ministry. A member of, and regular presenter for, two professional associations of collegiate registrars, he also teaches research methodology to students at Dallas Seminary.

GLENN R. KREIDER
Associate Professor of Theological Studies
2001–.

Dr. Kreider identifies as his key ministry motivations his passion for God and his desire to help others understand His Word. Prior to coming to Dallas Seminary, he directed Christian education for and pastored a church in Cedar Hill, Texas. He is married to Janice and they have two children.

MICHAEL S. LAWSON
Chair and Senior Professor of Christian Education
1986–.

Dr. Lawson has a special burden for developing world churches and their Christian education programs. He has devoted 18 years to Dallas Seminary and over three decades to pastoral work and Christian education. He maintains an international teaching schedule to such places as Europe, the former Soviet Union, the Caribbean, Asia, Central America, the Middle East, and Africa. In addition, Dr. Lawson developed the National Congress on Christian Education for Mexico City. Tish, his wife of 39 years, serves as his assistant in the Christian Education department.

OSCAR M. LÓPEZ
1998–.

For more than 30 years Dr. López has played a pivotal role with CAM International, spreading the Word in many bilingual and bicultural contexts. He is an international worship consultant who has taught seminars in the United States, Canada, Latin America, and Spain. He also ministers in East Asia and East Africa. Along with his roles of pastor and church planter, he spent 12 years as a faculty member at the Central American Theological Seminary, and worked as a radio program director and station manager.

DAVID K. LOWERY
Professor of New Testament Studies
1977–.
B.A., The King’s College, 1971; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1975; Ph.D., University of Aberdeen, 1987; postdoctoral study, Tübingen University.

Dr. Lowery has been involved in church planting for over three decades, in Vermont and Texas. This veteran of the faculty has been an associate pastor at a Dallas-area church for more than 20 years. Dr. Lowery is a frequent author in leading journals and magazines and has contributed to the New American Standard Bible and to the NET Bible. Dr. Lowery has taught in Europe, the Middle East, the Caribbean, and the South Pacific.
AUBREY M. MALPHURS
Professor of Pastoral Ministries
1981–.

Dr. Malphurs is a visionary with a deep desire to influence a new generation of leaders through his classroom, pulpit, consulting, and writing ministries. He is involved in a number of ministries ranging from church planting and growth to leadership development. He has pastored three churches and is the author of numerous books and articles on leadership and church ministry. Currently, he is the president of the Malphurs Group and is a trainer and consultant to churches, denominations, and ministry organizations throughout North America and Europe.

LINDA M. MARTEN
Assistant Professor of Biblical Counseling
2002–.
B.A., State University of Iowa, 1964; M.A., University of Northern Iowa, 1971; Ph.D., University of North Texas, 1984.

Dr. Marten has over 30 years of counseling experience in private practice, at a university, and in an agency facility. She is a licensed professional counselor and supervisor, a licensed marriage and family therapist, and a clinical member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy. She has also supervised students in a master's-level counseling practicum at Dallas Seminary and taught psychology and counseling at Dallas Bible College.

LINDEN D. MCLAUGHLIN
Associate Professor of Christian Education
1996–.

Dr. McLaughlin brings a love for the pulpit to the classroom. His 20-plus years of ministry encompass nearly every aspect of church administration and Christian education. He brings to Dallas Seminary a wide variety of experience, ranging from campus staff minister for InterVarsity Christian Fellowship to a guest professorship at the Greek Bible Institute in Athens. Dr. McLaughlin has also been active on the boards of the Texas Sunday School Association and the Professional Association of Christian Educators.

EUGENE H. MERRILL
Distinguished Professor of Old Testament Studies 1975–.

Dr. Merrill has been heavily involved in international Christian ministry in Europe, Asia, and the Near East. As a scholar, Dr. Merrill regularly contributes to leading journals, periodicals, dictionaries, encyclopedias, and commentaries. Academia runs in his family, as his wife, Janet, holds a doctorate in counselor education from Columbia University and his daughter, Sonya, earned a Ph.D. in medical ethics from the University of London and an M.D. from Harvard University.

J. DWIGHT PENTECOST
Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Bible Exposition 1955–.

Dr. Pentecost is recognized in every circle of evangelicalism for his 19 books, including Things to Come and The Words and Works of Jesus Christ. He pastored for 10 years before joining the Seminary faculty in 1955, and held a pastorate for 18 years during his faculty tenure. Today he remains in great demand as a conference speaker and Bible teacher who has ministered on six continents.
MICHAEL POCOCK
Chair and Senior Professor of World Missions and Intercultural Studies 1987–.

A native of England who spent his formative years in the United States, Dr. Pocock has always subscribed to an intercultural approach to the gospel. Before joining the Seminary’s World Missions faculty in 1987, he pastored a culturally diverse church in Chicago and taught three years at Toccoa Falls College in Georgia. He also ministered for 16 years with The Evangelical Alliance Mission, first in Venezuela and later as mobilization director in Wheaton, Illinois. He continues to travel extensively in order to participate in missions ministries and conferences.

EUGENE W. POND
Director of Institutional Research and Effectiveness
Associate Professor of Bible Exposition
1990–.

Dr. Pond’s research interests are wide ranging, with memberships in professional societies for biblical studies, institutional research, and engineering management. He seeks to develop systems that cause Christian organizations to focus on their mission and run more efficiently. A teacher of adults for over 30 years, Dr. Pond is also helping to lead a North Dallas church where he serves as an elder. Dr. Pond and his wife, Carol, who teaches kindergarten at a Christian school, are committed to Christian education at both ends of the age spectrum.

ROBERT A. PYNE
1992–.

A popular conference speaker who has taught at all levels in his local church for over 20 years, Dr. Pyne served as a researcher and radio commentator with Dallas-based Probe Ministries before joining the faculty in 1992. He has been published in many theological journals and magazines and, most recently, authored Humanity and Sin. He and his wife, Julie, a former LPGA golfer, have four children.

JAY A. QUINE
Associate Professor of Bible Exposition
2005–.

Through seminars, lectures and consultations, Dr. Quine combines his background in law with a solid biblical and theological foundation to address legal issues that pastors, counselors, and other ministry leaders face. He has served as the chair of the Master of Divinity program and as the dean of Biblical Studies at Philadelphia Biblical University. An ordained minister, Dr. Quine is a member of the Washington State Bar Association, the Evangelical Theological Society, and the Pre-Trib Research Center. He and his wife, Carla, have four children.

TIMOTHY J. RALSTON
Interim Chair and Professor of Pastoral Ministries
1992–.

Dr. Ralston brings a rich pastoral background to his classroom. He has served as not only an associate pastor and pastor in Ontario, but also as a director of adult education in the United States. Dr. Ralston is an active member in the North American Academy of Liturgy, and the Evangelical Homiletics Society. His research in New Testament manuscripts and worship has taken him into a wide variety of settings and produced numerous scholarly articles.
JOHN W. REED
Director of Doctor of Ministry Studies
Senior Professor Emeritus of Pastoral Ministries
1970–.

Dr. Reed has been a vital part of the Dallas Seminary faculty since 1970. Currently, he serves as the director of the Doctor of Ministry program. Listed in Outstanding Educators of America, Dr. Reed is also recognized for his vast pastoral experience, which includes 37 years at churches in Indiana, Ohio, and Texas. He is also a chaplain (Lt. Col., retired) in the United States Air Force Reserves and is a member of the National Guard Association of Texas. He currently serves as vice president of the Association of Doctor of Ministry Education.

DONALD P. REGIER
Director of the Audiovisual Center
Associate Professor of Christian Education
1973–.

Professor Regier’s passion is to minister through art and technology. For over 35 years he has created and executed innumerable multimedia presentations for Dallas Seminary and has also guided thousands of students in the development of audiovisual support for their ministries. He and his wife, Jan, consider themselves parents of “two families.” With four grown children, they adopted two little girls from China. Professor Regier’s new children’s book, The Long Ride, tells their story and compares adoption with entrance into God’s family.

ramesh p. richard
Professor of Pastoral Ministries, World Missions and Intercultural Studies 1979–83; 1987–.

Dr. Richard, a member of the faculty for 20 years, is also the founder and president of RREACH International, a global proclamation ministry that seeks to evangelize leaders and strengthen pastors of developing economies. He has ministered in over 70 countries. He is the founder and chair of the Trainers of Pastors International Coalition and also serves on the board of Promise Keepers. Dr. Richard ministered as the pulpit pastor of the Delhi Bible Fellowship in New Delhi, India.

jay l. sedwick jr.
1998–.

Dr. Sedwick has more than 20 years of youth ministry experience, including the presidency of the Virginia Baptist Youth Ministers Association. An ordained minister who teaches youth at a large Dallas-area church, Dr. Sedwick is also a popular conference and seminar speaker and Sonlife trainer.

jay e. smith
Associate Professor of New Testament Studies
1996–.
B.S., Bowling Green State University, 1982; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1989; Ph.D., Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, 1996.

Discipleship and other types of ministry in the local church complement Dr. Smith’s role as a New Testament teacher. Now in his ninth year at Dallas Seminary, Dr. Smith has a special interest in the apostle Paul’s letters and New Testament theology. He also writes for leading journals and is a member of several professional societies.
RICHARD A. TAYLOR
Professor of Old Testament Studies
Director of Doctor of Philosophy Studies
1989–.

Dr. Taylor has accumulated more than 30 years of graduate-level teaching experience and maintains his academic sharpness through active memberships in a dozen professional societies and groups. Dr. Taylor’s specialties include Aramaic studies and Syriac literature. His travels have taken him throughout Central America, Europe, the Near East, Canada, and India. His wife and daughter are public-school teachers and his son is a Ph.D. student in Washington, D.C.

JAMES H. THAMES
Associate Academic Dean
Assistant Professor of Christian Education
1984–.

From his unique position as faculty and administrative staff member, Dr. Thames understands frontline teaching and behind-the-scenes logistics. Since joining the Seminary in 1984, he has served in a variety of positions and has been involved in establishing a professional association for registrars and admissions officers for theological schools. In addition, Dr. Thames, an ordained minister, has been involved in overseas ministry and is active in his local church, including several years of service as a member of the board of elders.

STANLEY D. TOUSSAINT
Senior Professor Emeritus of Bible Exposition
1960–.

A pastor-teacher committed to expository preaching, Dr. Toussaint enjoys both roles. He has taught at Dallas Seminary since 1960 and pastored for more than 20 years. An editor, author, teacher, and conference speaker, he has taught in Christian schools in the Middle East, Australia, and the Far East and has ministered in the pulpit literally around the world.

DANIEL B. WALLACE
Professor of New Testament Studies
1979–81; 1988–.

Dr. Wallace influences students across the country through his textbook on intermediate Greek grammar. It is used in more than two-thirds of the nation’s schools that teach that subject. He is senior New Testament editor of the NET Bible and coeditor of the NET-Nestle Greek-English diglot. Recently his scholarship has shifted from syntactical and text-critical issues to more specific work in John, Mark, and nascent Christology. His postdoctoral work includes work on Greek grammar at Tyndale House in Cambridge and textual criticism studies at the Institut für Neutestamentliche Textforschung in Münster. When he is not involved in scholarly pursuits, Dr. Wallace and wife, Pati, enjoy spending time with their boys and beagles.

TIMOTHY S. WARREN
1984–.

When Dr. Warren teaches pastoral ministries, he draws from nearly a quarter of a century of personal experience. After serving as a chaplain’s assistant in the U.S. Army and the Texas Air National Guard, he pastored churches in Texas and Ohio. He has been an educational consultant to his home church for the past 10 years and maintains an active schedule speaking, writing, and teaching.
BRIAN L. WEBSTER
Associate Professor of Old Testament Studies
2002–.
B.A., Cornerstone University, 1987; M. Phil., Hebrew Union College, 1993; Ph.D., 2000.
In the course of his professional career, Dr. Webster has worked as a research fellow at The Scriptorium, cataloguing cuneiform texts and working with Hebrew scrolls; taught Greek and Hebrew at Cornerstone University and at Puritan Reform Theological Seminary; and served as associate professor of Bible and chair of the Bible, religion, and ministry division at Cornerstone University. He has won several teaching awards and recognition in Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers.

MARK S. YOUNG
Professor of World Missions and Intercultural Studies
1995–.
Dr. Young has been involved in theological education in Eastern Europe and Russia for over 20 years. He was the founding academic dean of Biblijne Seminarium Teologiczne in Wroclaw, Poland. Along with teaching and consulting assignments in seminaries in Asia, Africa, and Europe, Dr. Young also serves on the pastoral staff of Stonebriar Community Church as executive pastor for ministry training.

The David L. Edwards Servant-Leader Award for Faculty Excellence in Spirit and Service

The David L. Edwards Servant-Leader Award for Faculty Excellence in Spirit and Service is given annually at the beginning of the fall semester to the full-time faculty member who, in the estimation of his or her peers, best represents:

- A servant attitude toward faculty, staff, and students,
- A willingness to invest time and life in students,
- A complete integrity of word and behavior—one whose commitments are always met,
- A genuine humility toward the teaching/leading role, able to serve without much notice or recognition, and
- An excellent quality in both task and process, doing the best one can do with the resources God has provided.

Recipients of this award since its inception are:

- 1998 Michael S. Lawson
- 1999 Darrell L. Bock
- 2000 Harold W. Hoehner
- 2001 Thomas L. Constable
- 2002 J. Lanier Burns
- 2003 Howard G. Hendricks
- 2004 Donald P. Regier

ARTICLE I—THE SCRIPTURES

We believe that “all Scripture is given by inspiration of God,” by which we understand the whole Bible is inspired in the sense that holy men of God “were moved by the Holy Spirit” to write the very words of Scripture. We believe that this divine inspiration extends equally and fully to all parts of the writings—historical, poetical, doctrinal, and prophetic—as appeared in the original manuscripts. We believe that the whole Bible in the originals is therefore without error. We believe that all the Scriptures center about the Lord Jesus Christ in His person and work in His first and second coming, and hence that no portion, even of the Old Testament, is properly read, or understood, until it leads to Him. We also believe that all the Scriptures were designed for our practical instruction (Mark 12:26, 36; 13:11; Luke 24:27, 44; John 5:39; Acts 1:16; 17:2–3; 18:28; 26:22–23; 28:23; Rom. 15:4; 1 Cor. 2:13; 10:11; 2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21).

ARTICLE II—THE GODHEAD

We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—and that these three are one God, having precisely the same nature, attributes, and perfections, and worthy of precisely the same homage, confidence, and obedience (Matt. 28:18–19; Mark 12:29; John 1:14; Acts 5:3–4; 2 Cor. 13:14; Heb. 1:1–3; Rev. 1:4–6).

ARTICLE III—ANGELS, FALLEN AND UNFALLEN

We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless, spiritual beings, known as angels; that one, “Lucifer, son of the morning”—the highest in rank—sinned through pride, thereby becoming Satan; that a great company of the angels followed him in his moral fall, some of whom became demons and are active as his agents and associates in the prosecution of his unholy purposes, while others who fell are “reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day” (Isa. 14:12–17; Ezek. 28:11–19; 1 Tim. 3:6; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6).

We believe that Satan is the originator of sin, and that, under the permission of God, he, through subtlety, led our first parents into transgression, thereby accomplishing their moral fall and subjecting them and their posterity to his own power; that he is the enemy of God and the people of God, opposing and exalting himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped; and that he who in the beginning said, “I will be like the most High,” in his warfare appears as an angel of light, even counterfeiting the works of God by fostering religious movements and systems of doctrine, which systems in every case are characterized by a denial of the efficacy of the blood of Christ and of salvation by grace alone (Gen. 3:1–19; Rom. 5:12–14; Acts 4:3–4; 11:13–15; Eph. 6:10–12; 2 Thess. 2:4; 1 Tim. 4:1–3).

We believe that Satan was judged at the Cross, though not then executed, and that he, a usurper, now rules as the “god of this world”; that, at the second coming of Christ, Satan will be bound and cast into the abyss for a thousand years, and after the thousand years he will be loosed for a little season and then “cast into the lake of fire and brimstone,” where he “shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Col. 2:15; Rev. 20:1–3, 10).

We believe that a great company of angels kept their holy estate and are before the throne of God, from whence they are sent forth as ministering spirits to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation (Luke 15:10; Eph. 1:21; Heb. 1:14; Rev. 7:12).

We believe that man was made lower than the angels; and that, in His incarnation, Christ took for a little time this lower place that He might lift the believer to His own sphere above the angels (Heb. 2:6–10).
ARTICLE IV—MAN, CREATED AND FALLEN
We believe that man was originally created in the image and after the likeness of God, and that he fell through sin, and, as a consequence of his sin, lost his spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and that he became subject to the power of the devil. We also believe that this spiritual death, or total depravity of human nature, has been transmitted to the entire human race of man, the Man Christ Jesus alone being excepted; and hence that every child of Adam is born into the world with a nature which not only possesses no spark of divine life, but is essentially and unchangeably bad apart from divine grace (Gen. 1:26; 2:17; 6:5; Pss. 14:1–3; 51:5; Jer. 17:9; John 3:4; 5:40; 6:35; Rom. 3:10–19; 8:6–7; Eph. 2:1–3; 1 Tim. 5:6; 1 John 3:8).

ARTICLE V—THE DISPENSATIONS
We believe that the dispensations are stewardships by which God administers His purpose on the earth through man under varying responsibilities. We believe that the changes in the dispensational dealings of God with man depend on changed conditions or situations in which man is successively found with relation to God, and that these changes are the result of the failures of man and the judgments of God. We believe that different administrative responsibilities of this character are manifest in the biblical record, that they span the entire history of mankind, and that each ends in the failure of man under the respective test and in an ensuing judgment from God. We believe that three of these dispensations or rules of life are the subject of extended revelation in the Scriptures, viz., the dispensation of the Mosaic Law, the present dispensation of grace, and the future dispensation of the millennial kingdom. We believe that these are distinct and not to be intermingled or confused, as they are chronologically successive.

We believe that the dispensations are not ways of salvation nor different methods of administering the so-called Covenant of Grace. They are not in themselves dependent on covenant relationships but are ways of life and responsibility to God which test the submission of man to His revealed will during a particular time. We believe that if man does trust in his own efforts to gain the favor of God or salvation under any dispensational test, because of inherent sin his failure to satisfy fully the just requirements of God is inevitable and his condemnation sure.

We believe that according to the “eternal purpose” of God (Eph. 3:11) salvation in the divine reckoning is always “by grace through faith,” and rests upon the basis of the shed blood of Christ. We believe that God has always been gracious, regardless of the ruling dispensation, but that man has not at all times been under an administration or stewardship of grace as is true in the present dispensation (1 Cor. 9:17; Eph. 3:2; 3:9, ASV; Col. 1:25; 1 Tim. 1:4, ASV). We believe that it has always been true that “without faith it is impossible to please” God (Heb. 11:6), and that the principle of faith was prevalent in the lives of all the Old Testament saints. However, we believe that it was historically impossible that they should have had as the conscious object of their faith the incarnate, crucified Son, the Lamb of God (John 1:29), and that it is evident that they did not comprehend as we do that the sacrifices depicted the person and work of Christ. We believe also that they did not understand the redemptive significance of the prophecies or types concerning the sufferings of Christ (1 Pet. 1:10–12); therefore, we believe that their faith toward God was manifested in other ways as is shown by the long record in Hebrews 11:1–40. We believe further that their faith thus manifested was counted unto them for righteousness (cf. Rom. 4:3 with Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:5–6; Heb. 11:7).

ARTICLE VI—THE FIRST ADVENT
We believe that, as provided and purposed by God and as preannounced in the prophecies of the Scriptures, the eternal Son of God came into this world that He might manifest God to men, fulfill prophecy, and become the Redeemer of a lost world. To this end He was born of the virgin, and received a human body and a sinless human nature (Luke 1:30–35; John 1:18; 3:16; Heb. 4:15).

We believe that, on the human side, He became and remained a perfect man, but sinless throughout His life; yet He retained His absolute deity, being at the same time very God and very man, and that His earth-life sometimes functioned within the sphere of that which was human and sometimes within the sphere of that which was divine (Luke 2:40; John 1:1–2; Phil. 2:5–8).

We believe that in fulfillment of prophecy He came first to Israel as her Messiah-King, and that, being rejected of that nation, He, according to the eternal counsels of God, gave His life as a ransom for all (John 1:11; Acts 2:22–24; 1 Tim. 2:6).

We believe that, in infinite love for the lost, He voluntarily accepted His Father’s will and became the divinely provided sacrificial Lamb and took away the sin of the world, bearing the holy judgments against sin which the righteousness of God must impose. His death was therefore substitutionary in the most absolute sense—the just for the unjust—and by His death He became the Savior of the lost (John 1:29; Rom. 3:25–26; 2 Cor. 5:14; Heb. 10:5–14; 1 Pet. 3:18).

We believe that, according to the Scriptures, He arose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He had lived and died, and that His resurrection body is the pattern of that body which ultimately will be given to all believers (John 20:20; Phil. 3:20–21).

We believe that, on departing from the earth, He was accepted of His Father and that His acceptance is a final assurance to us that His redeeming work was perfectly accomplished (Heb. 1:3).

We believe that He became Head over all things to the church which is His body, and in this ministry He ceases not to intercede and advocate for the saved (Eph. 1:22–23; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1).
ARTICLE VII—SAVATION ONLY THROUGH CHRIST

We believe that, owing to universal death through sin, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless born again; and that no degree of reformation however great, no attainments in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation, and only those thus saved are sons of God. We believe, also, that our redemption has been accomplished solely by the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was made to be sin and was made a curse for us, dying in our room and stead; and that no repentance, no feeling, no faith, no good resolutions, no sincere efforts, no submission to the rules and regulations of any church, nor all the churches that have existed since the days of the Apostles can add in the very least degree to the value of the blood, or to the merit of the finished work wrought for us by Him who united in His person true and proper deity with perfect and sinless humanity (Lev. 17:11; Isa. 64:6; Matt. 26:28; John 3:17–18; Rom. 5:6–9; 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; Phil. 3:4–9; Titus 3:5; James 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:18–19, 23).

We believe that the new birth of the believer comes only through faith in Christ and that repentance is a vital part of believing, and is in no way, in itself, a separate and independent condition of salvation; nor are any other acts, such as confession, baptism, prayer, or faithful service, to be added to believing as a condition of salvation (John 1:12; 3:16, 18, 36; 5:24; 6:29; Acts 13:39; 16:31; Rom. 1:16–17; 3:22, 26; 4:5; 10:4; Gal. 3:22).

ARTICLE VIII—THE EXTENT OF SALVATION

We believe that when an unregenerate person exercises that faith in Christ which is illustrated and described as such in the New Testament, he passes immediately out of spiritual death into spiritual life, and from the old creation into the new; being justified from all things, accepted before the Father as Christ His Son is accepted, loved as Christ is loved, having his place and portion as linked to Him and one with Him forever. Though the saved one may have occasion to grow in the realization of his blessings and to know a fuller measure of divine power through the yielding of his life more fully to God, he is, as soon as he is saved, in possession of every spiritual blessing and absolutely complete in Christ, and is therefore in no way required by God to seek a so-called “second blessing,” or a “second work of grace” (John 5:24; 17:23; Acts 13:39; Rom. 5:1; 1 Cor. 3:21–23; Eph. 1:3; Col. 2:10; 1 John 4:17; 5:11–12).

ARTICLE IX—SANCTIFICATION

We believe that sanctification, which is a setting-apart unto God, is threefold: It is already complete for every saved person because his position toward God is the same as Christ’s position. Since the believer is in Christ, he is set apart unto God in the measure in which Christ is set apart unto God. We believe, however, that he retains his sin nature, which cannot be eradicated in this life. Therefore, while the standing of the Christian in Christ is perfect, his present state is no more perfect than his experience in daily life. There is, therefore, a progressive sanctification wherein the Christian is to “grow in grace,” and to “be changed” by the unhindered power of the Spirit. We believe also that the child of God will yet be fully sanctified in his state as he is now sanctified in his standing in Christ when he shall see his Lord and shall be “like Him” (John 17:17; 2 Cor. 3:18; 7:1; Eph. 4:24; 5:25–27; 1 Thess. 5:23; Heb. 10:10, 14; 12:10).

ARTICLE X—ETERNAL SECURITY

We believe that, because of the eternal purpose of God toward the objects of His love, because of His freedom to exercise grace toward the meritless on the ground of the propitiatory blood of Christ, because of the very nature of the divine gift of eternal life, because of the present and unending intercession and advocacy of Christ in heaven, because of the immutability of the unchangeable covenants of God, because of the regenerating, abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of all who are saved, we and all true believers everywhere, once saved shall be kept saved forever. We believe, however, that God is a holy and righteous Father and that, since He cannot overlook the sin of His children, He will, when they persistently sin, chasten them and correct them in infinite love; but having undertaken to save them and keep them forever, apart from all human merit, He, who cannot fail, will in the end present every one of them faultless before the presence of His glory and conformed to the image of His Son (John 5:24; 10:28; 13:1; 14:16–17; 17:11; Rom. 8:29; 1 Cor. 6:19; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1–2; 5:13; Jude 24).

ARTICLE XI—ASSURANCE

We believe it is the privilege, not only of some, but of all who are born again by the Spirit through faith in Christ as revealed in the Scriptures, to be assured of their salvation from the very day they take Him to be their Savior and that this assurance is not founded upon any fancied discovery of their own worthiness or fitness, but wholly upon the testimony of God in His written Word, exciting within His children filial love, gratitude, and obedience (Luke 10:20; 22:32; 2 Cor. 5:1, 6–8; 2 Tim. 1:12; Heb. 10:22; 1 John 5:13).

ARTICLE XII—THE HOLY SPIRIT

We believe that the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the blessed Trinity, though omnipresent from all eternity, took up His abode in the world in a special sense on the day of Pentecost according to the divine promise, dwells in every believer, and by His baptism unites all to Christ in one body, and that He, as the Indwelling One, is the source of all power and all acceptable worship and service. We believe that He never takes His departure from the church, nor from the feeblest of the saints, but is ever present to testify of Christ; seeking to occupy believers with Him and not with themselves nor with their experiences. We believe that His abode in the believer will cease when Christ comes to receive His own at the completion... of the church (John 14:16–17; 16:7–15; 1 Cor. 6:19; Eph. 2:22; 2 Thess. 2:7).

We believe that, in this age, certain well-defined ministries are committed to the Holy Spirit, and that it is the duty of every Christian to understand them and to be adjusted to them in his own life and experience. These ministries are the restraining of evil in the world to the measure of the divine will; the convicting of the world respecting sin, righteousness, and judgment; the regenerating of all believers; the indwelling and anointing of all who are saved, thereby sealing them unto the day of redemption; the baptizing into the one body of Christ of all who are saved; and the continued filling for power, teaching, and service of those among the saved who are yielded to Him and who are subject to His will (John 3:6; 16:7–11; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 4:30; 5:18; 2 Thess. 2:7; 1 John 2:20–27).

We believe that some gifts of the Holy Spirit such as speaking in tongues and miraculous healings were temporary. We believe that speaking in tongues was never the common or necessary sign of the baptism nor of the filling of the Spirit, and that the deliverance of the body from sickness or death awaits the consummation of our salvation in the resurrection (Acts 4:8, 31; Rom. 8:23; 1 Cor. 13:8).

ARTICLE XIII—THE CHURCH, A UNITY OF BELIEVERS

We believe that all who are united to the risen and ascended Son of God are members of the church which is the body and bride of Christ, which began at Pentecost and is completely distinct from Israel. Its members are constituted as such regardless of membership or nonmembership in the organized churches of earth. We believe that by the same Spirit all believers in this age are baptized into, and thus become, one body that is Christ’s, whether Jews or Gentiles, and having become members one of another, are under solemn duty to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian differences, and loving one another with a pure heart fervently (Matt. 16:16–18; Acts 2:42–47; Rom. 12:5; 1 Cor. 12:12–27; Eph. 1:20–23; 4:3–16; Col. 3:14–15).

ARTICLE XIV—THE SACRAMENTS OR ORDINANCES

We believe that water baptism and the Lord’s Supper are the only sacraments and ordinances of the church and that they are a scriptural means of testimony for the church in this age (Matt. 28:19; Luke 22:19–20; Acts 10:47–48; 16:32–33; 18:7–8; 1 Cor. 11:26).

ARTICLE XV—THE CHRISTIAN WALK

We believe that we are called with a holy calling, to walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit, and so to live in the power of the indwelling Spirit that we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. But the flesh with its fallen, Adamic nature, which in this life is never eradicated, being with us to the end of our earthly pilgrimage, needs to be kept by the Spirit constantly in subjection to Christ, or it will surely manifest its presence in our lives to the dishonor of our Lord (Rom. 6:11–13; 8:2, 4, 12–13; Gal. 5:16–23; Eph. 4:22–24; Col. 2:1–10; 1 Pet. 1:14–16; 1 John 1:4–7; 3:5–9).

ARTICLE XVI—THE CHRISTIAN’S SERVICE

We believe that divine, enabling gifts for service are bestowed by the Spirit upon all who are saved. While there is a diversity of gifts, each believer is energized by the same Spirit, and each is called to his own divinely appointed service as the Spirit may will. In the apostolic church there were certain gifted men—apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers—who were appointed by God for the perfecting of the saints unto their work of the ministry. We believe also that today some men are especially called of God to be evangelists, pastors, and teachers, and that it is to the fulfilling of His will and to His eternal glory that these shall be sustained and encouraged in their service for God (Rom. 12:6; 1 Cor. 12:4–11; Eph. 4:11).

We believe that, wholly apart from salvation benefits which are bestowed equally upon all who believe, rewards are promised according to the faithfulness of each believer in his service for his Lord, and that these rewards will be bestowed at the judgment seat of Christ after He comes to receive His own to Himself (1 Cor. 3:9–15; 9:18–27; 2 Cor. 5:10).

ARTICLE XVII—THE GREAT COMMISSION

We believe that it is the explicit message of our Lord Jesus Christ to those whom He has saved that they are sent forth by Him into the world even as He was sent forth of His Father into the world. We believe that, after they are saved, they are divinely reckoned to be related to this world as strangers and pilgrims, ambassadors and witnesses, and that their primary purpose in life should be to make Christ known to the whole world (Matt. 28:18–19; Mark 16:15; John 17:18; Acts 1:8; 2 Cor. 5:18–20; 1 Pet. 1:17; 2:11).

ARTICLE XVIII—THE BLESSED HOPE

We believe that, according to the Word of God, the next great event in the fulfillment of prophecy will be the coming of the Lord in the air to receive to Himself into heaven both His own who are alive and remain unto His coming, and also all who have fallen asleep in Jesus, and that this event is the blessed hope set before us in the Scripture, and for this we should be constantly looking (John 14:1–3; 1 Cor. 15:51–52; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thess. 4:13–18; Titus 2:11–14).

ARTICLE XIX—THE TRIBULATION

We believe that the translation of the church will be followed by the fulfillment of Israel’s seventieth week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1–19:21) during which the church, the body of Christ, will be in heaven. The whole period of Israel’s seventieth week will be a time of judgment on the whole earth, at the end of which the times of the Gentiles will be brought to a close. The latter half of this period will be the time of Jacob’s trouble (Jer. 30:7), which our Lord called the great tribulation (Matt. 24:15–21). We believe that universal righteousness will not be realized previous to the second coming of Christ, but that the world is day by day ripening for judgment and that the age will end with a fearful apostasy.

ARTICLE XX—THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

We believe that the period of great tribulation in the earth will be climaxed by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ to the earth as He went, in person on the clouds of heaven, and with power and great glory to introduce the millennial age, to bind Satan and place him in the abyss, to lift the curse which now rests upon the whole creation, to restore Israel to her own land and to give her the realization of God’s covenant promises, and to bring the whole world to the knowledge of God (Deut. 30:1–10; Isa. 11:9; Ezek. 37:21–28; Matt. 24:15–25:46; Acts 15:16–17; Rom. 8:19–23; 11:25–27; 1 Tim. 4:1–3; 2 Tim. 3:1–5; Rev. 20:1–3).

ARTICLE XXI—THE ETERNAL STATE

We believe that at death the spirits and souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation pass immediately into His presence and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the glorified body when Christ comes for His own, whereupon soul and body reunited shall be associated with Him forever in glory; but the spirits and souls of the unbelieving remain after death conscious of condemnation and in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne at the close of the millennium, when soul and body reunited shall be cast into the lake of fire, not to be annihilated, but to be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power (Luke 16:19–26; 23:42; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23; 2 Thess. 1:7–9; Jude 6–7; Rev. 20:11–15).

OTHER SOURCES OF FINANCIAL AID

Veterans Benefits
Eligible veterans may receive many of the GI Bill education benefits at Dallas Theological Seminary. Further information is available from the Registrar’s Office.

Foundation Grants to Individuals
Some students have secured sizable grants by locating foundations associated with their parents, employers, regional areas, scholastic ability, or personal vocational interests. Before arriving on campus, students may research these options at a local library and on the Internet.

Student Ministries, Inc. (SMI)
This is a nonprofit national organization established to help theological students receive financial support in conjunction with involvement in a part-time ministry. Students seek to raise financial support from family, friends, churches, or others, who send donations to SMI, where they are receipted and forwarded to the student as a monthly salary. This provides a means of financial support that is tax-deductible for contributors and enables students to be involved in significant ministry while in school. The source of income can be especially helpful for students who have been supported for ministries or mission work before coming to Dallas, and whose supporters would like to help them continue in ministry on a part-time basis while they are in seminary. Applications and further information may be obtained from the Student Financial Services Office.

Canadian Student Loans
Canadian students may secure low-interest, deferred-payment loans under this program through participating banks in their province of residence.
