Greetings from the campus of Dallas Theological Seminary.

Our commitment is to provide the very best theological training for a lifetime of study and ministry. We are confident that your experience at Dallas will be a rich blend of academics, spiritual formation, ministry preparation, fellowship, and worship. Our desire is that as you progress through your particular program—whether in the classroom, in chapel, or through the experience of our Christian community—you will become more like Christ.

The purpose of this catalog is to introduce you to the Seminary. For 89 years DTS has helped train the next generation of servant-leaders for the church of Jesus Christ. Like any school, how well we equip our students will be measured ultimately by their ministry. Throughout its history DTS has produced graduates who know the Word of God—and who love the God of the Word.

Teach Truth. Love Well.
WELCOME TO DTS
HOW DO I APPLY?
You can apply online at our website: www.dts.edu. Graduate enrollment requires a B.A. or B.S. degree from an accredited university or college.

CAN I RECEIVE ADVANCED STANDING AND TRANSFER CREDIT?
You sure can. Advanced standing credit for up to one-fourth of most degree programs can be earned by passing the appropriate proficiency exams. We also accept transfer credit, up to one-half of most program requirements, from other accredited seminaries and graduate schools.

WHAT IF I WENT TO A BIBLE COLLEGE?
Let us know! Depending on the school you attended and the courses taken, you may be eligible for Bible Exposition validation. In other words, we’ll replace a basic required Bible course with an advanced elective so that you don’t have to repeat similar content.

IS FINANCIAL AID AVAILABLE?
Absolutely! Last year, DTS students received more than $2.5 million in financial aid. General scholarship funds are available as well as specialized funds for American-born minorities and international students. An interest-free payment plan is available for tuition and books to eligible students. Low-cost group health insurance is also available.

WHAT ABOUT HOUSING?
DTS is committed to providing quality, economical housing that supports the mission of DTS by encouraging spiritual growth and community in two on-campus apartment facilities.

HOW CAN I FIND A JOB IN DALLAS?
Once you are admitted to DTS, you gain access to the Seminary’s job board, an online tool that lists jobs from local employers who frequently seek seminary students to fill positions. Our Servant Leadership Internship office also assists students with part-time employment with churches and parachurch organizations throughout the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. Access to the Internship Job Board is available to all students at www.dts.edu/internship.

IS THERE JOB PLACEMENT ASSISTANCE AFTER GRADUATION?
Yes! After graduation our Placement office works with you to help you find a ministry position. Our graduates serve in church and parachurch ministries, missions, Bible colleges and seminaries, and in a number of other fields. Many also go on to further study after completing one of our degrees. Our placement record is excellent.

WHAT IS YOUR DOCTRINAL POSITION?
The full Doctrinal Statement appears in the back of this catalog. While our faculty and board annually affirm their agreement with the entire statement, students need only affirm these seven essentials:

- the authority and inerrancy of Scripture
- the Trinity
- the full deity and humanity of Christ
- the spiritual lostness of the human race
- the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ
- salvation by faith alone in Christ alone
- the physical return of Christ

ABOUT DALLAS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

OUR MISSION
The mission of Dallas Theological Seminary as a professional, graduate-level school is to glorify God by equipping godly servant-leaders for the proclamation of His Word and the building up of the body of Christ worldwide.

EXPANDED STATEMENT OF PURPOSE
I. Dallas Theological Seminary is a professional, graduate-level theological seminary that seeks to provide training at the master’s and doctoral levels to prepare its students for a variety of Christian ministries.

- As a professional, graduate-level theological institution of higher learning, DTS seeks to provide training for specific Christian ministries and to encourage the pursuit of Christian scholarship at the highest levels of research befitting the mission of a theological seminary.

- While the doctrinal commitment of the Seminary is intentionally evangelical, Dallas Theological Seminary seeks to provide a contribution to a broader constituency through community, theological and ecclesiastical involvement, and dialogue.

- The Seminary seeks to maintain an appropriate balance between the training it provides for effective vocational ministries and the academic rigors necessary to graduate those who will research, write, and teach at the highest levels of theological education. As both a professional and graduate-level educational institution, the Seminary is committed to providing the appropriate support services, departments, resources, and facilities to accomplish the mission of the institution.

2. In order to equip men and women for ministry as godly servant-leaders, Dallas Theological Seminary encourages the development of godly character in each of its students.

- The Seminary is committed to the preparation of students who are deeply committed to Jesus Christ and are marked by biblical and theological knowledge and maturing spirituality along with the skills necessary for their future ministries.

- Students are encouraged to grow spiritually in their personal relationship with God, to function responsibly within the Christian community, and to engage and witness to the world from a life of faith and integrity.

- DTS is committed to helping leaders develop a biblical philosophy of servant-hearted leadership as defined by Jesus Christ and as modeled by Him and the other godly individuals depicted in the Scriptures. Such leadership results from the gracious working of God through a person’s experience, training, spiritual gifting, natural talents, and the enablement of God’s Spirit.

3. Dallas Theological Seminary is committed to its founding ideal that the central subject of study is the entire Bible.

DTS COMPETENCIES
The curricula and related seminary experiences are designed to help DTS students develop competencies of knowledge, abilities and skills, and beliefs and values to help evangelize the world and build the church. Specific competencies are developed in each professional degree program, but all master’s-level DTS students are to develop competency in:

BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION
The student understands the Bible in its historical, literary, and theological contexts in order to apply and communicate the Scriptures.

THEOLOGY
The student is committed to a doctrinal position consistent with historic Christian orthodoxy, derived from Scripture and measured by general agreement with the doctrinal statement of the Seminary, and is able to articulate sound doctrine in a variety of cultural settings.

COMMUNICATION
The student is able to persuade others with respect to biblical and theological truth through oral, written, and electronic media.

CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY
The student, by means of the Spirit, demonstrates increasing love and devotion to God and loving service to others.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP
The student models servant leadership and equips others in a God-given direction through Christlike character, leadership capability, and love.

CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT
The student demonstrates appreciation for other cultures and the many dimensions of ongoing public-square and global conversations related to social, cultural, religious, biblical, and theological concerns, and develops a biblical Christian perspective that results in knowledgeable, compassionate dialogue with appropriate evangelistic engagement.
4. In order to prepare godly servant-leaders who reflect the heart of God, DTS is committed to a worldwide vision of Christian ministry.

- DTS stands unequivocally committed to the Bible as God’s inerrant, infallible, and authoritative written revelation. Members of the school’s boards and faculty subscribe to the Seminary’s doctrinal statement, which is uniquely complete and detailed, thus helping safeguard the school’s unwavering theological stance since its founding.

- The Seminary’s commitment to the Scriptures leads to a framework of doctrine in which the great fundamentals of the Christian faith are affirmed and expounded. The doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy are taught in the framework of premillennial, dispensational theology, derived from a consistent grammatical-historical interpretation of the Bible. These truths include such essentials as the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

- The goal of all biblical and theological instruction is to glorify God through a transformed life that is manifested by a wholehearted love for God and a servant-hearted love for others.

4. In order to prepare godly servant-leaders who reflect the heart of God, DTS is committed to a worldwide vision of Christian ministry.

- DTS is committed to fulfilling the mandate of Jesus to make disciples of all nations. The Seminary community is enriched and has its vision for ministry expanded by the presence of students from a wide variety of countries and ethnic backgrounds.

- DTS embraces a wide context of ministries. Training for vocational ministry is the primary purpose for which the Seminary was founded and now exists. A secondary purpose is to provide theological training for those who choose to remain in their professions but who desire to be trained for leadership and a more effective ministry in the church.

- DTS is firmly committed to promoting the missionary endeavor throughout the world. This commitment is demonstrated in a variety of ways that provide both exposure and experience for students in the diverse nature of missions and the unique opportunities for vocational service in missions around the world.

HISTORY OF DTS

In the fall of 1924 the first student body of Dallas Theological Seminary met to study under the noted Bible teacher Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer. This class of 13 students was the result of Dr. Chafer’s burden and vision to found a seminary that would emphasize expository preaching and teaching of the Scriptures.

In 1935 the Seminary pioneered the four-year Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree, which is a year longer than the three-year Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree offered at most other seminaries. The Th.M. gives all the essential theological courses offered in a three-year curriculum with additional emphasis in systematic theology, Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis, Greek and New Testament exegesis, and Bible exposition.

In 1974 the Seminary instituted the two-year Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) [M.A.(BS)] program for students whose ministries would not require the in-depth language training of the Th.M. program. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree began in 1980 to provide further pastoral training for Seminary graduates to meet the changing demands of ministry. In 1982 the Seminary began the M.A. in Christian Education (M.A./CE) degree program so that students could receive specialized training for Christian ministries. In 1987 the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries (M.A./CM) program was inaugurated to give specialized training for intercultural ministry. In 1993 the Seminary launched a three-year M.A. in Biblical Counseling (M.A./BC) degree program and a two-year M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics (M.A./BEL) degree program. The latter program is offered jointly with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics located in south Dallas. In 2005 the Seminary launched the M.A. in Media and Communication (M.A./MC) degree program for those interested in employing the media arts in ministry (name changed to Master of Arts in Media Arts and Worship in 2012). In 2011 the Seminary began offering the Master of Arts in Christian Leadership (M.A./CL) degree program.

Outstanding leadership and scholarly expertise have characterized the Seminary’s presidents:

- Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, 1924–1952
- Dr. John F. Walvoord, 1952–1986
- Dr. Donald K. Campbell, 1986–1994
- Dr. Charles R. Swindoll, 1994–2001
- Dr. Mark L. Bailey, 2001–present

Throughout the Seminary’s history it has steadfastly maintained its allegiance to biblical truth. A doctrinal statement articulates the beliefs of DTS, and each year the faculty and board members reaffirm their agreement with this statement.
DALLAS DISTINCTIVES
The Seminary’s commitment to excellence in preparing communicators of the Bible has set it in a place of distinction. What is it that makes DTS different from many other seminaries?

A CONSISTENT THEOLOGICAL APPROACH
DTS stands unequivocally committed to God’s inerrant Scriptures. This commitment leads to a system of doctrine in which the great fundamentals of the Christian faith are affirmed and expounded. The doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy are taught in the framework of premillennial, dispensational theology, derived from a consistent grammatical-historical interpretation of the Bible.

A BIBLE-CENTERED CURRICULUM
The study of the entire Bible is a central characteristic of the Dallas curriculum. Every student in a master’s-level program (except Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) studies the 66 books of the Bible in expositional and exegetical courses.

Two-and-a-half years of Greek and two years of Hebrew enable Th.M. students to develop exegetical skills basic to their own inductive examination of the written Word.

A DTS education, however, extends beyond the academic pursuit of biblical and theological disciplines to the art of communicating biblical truth effectively. Courses in ministry and communication seek to cultivate in students a sensitivity to spiritual needs, zeal for world missions, fervor in evangelism, and Spirit-filled enthusiasm for effectively communicating the Word of God.

A WORLD-CLASS FACULTY
Resident and adjunct faculty collectively hold more than 230 graduate degrees from universities and seminaries around the world. Ninety-two percent of the resident faculty have at least one doctorate. Altogether, resident and retired faculty have authored more than 450 publications.

Not only are DTS faculty known for their competence as biblical scholars, teachers, and communicators, but they are also Spirit-led people of God who have a personal interest in their students.

A DYNAMIC SPIRITUAL EMphasis
From its beginning the Seminary has admitted only students who give evidence of being born again. More than regeneration, however, a student must understand how the Word of God impacts his or her daily life. To be qualified properly for seminary instruction, a student must be walking in fellowship with God so that he or she can be taught by the Holy Spirit.

At Dallas, the cultivation of the spiritual life is inseparably fused with the scholarly study of biblical and related subjects. All of this is designed to prepare students to communicate the Word of God in the power of His Spirit.

A STRONG COMMITMENT TO MISSIONS
DTS’s commitment to missions is demonstrated through its programs and conferences, which expose students to the diverse nature of missions and the unique opportunities for vocational missionary service.

Students whose goal is career missions may enroll in the Cross-cultural Ministries emphasis of either the Master of Arts (M.A.) or the Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree programs. Those particularly interested in Bible translation should consider the Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics (M.A./BEL) program, offered jointly with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL). Th.M. courses are also offered in urban ministries.

Students in most of the Seminary’s master’s-level degree programs are required to take at least one course in the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. A number of elective courses are available to students who desire greater exposure to missions issues in North America or abroad.

ALUMNI AND PLACEMENT
More than 14,000 alumni have studied at Dallas Seminary. They currently serve in all 50 states and in more than 100 countries, teaching the Bible in more than 70 denominations and independent churches. DTS is committed to the success of its alumni and provides support, resources, and networking in the following ways.

PLACEMENT SERVICES
The Placement office offers a lifetime of support for DTS graduates and provides consultation to graduating students, alumni, and churches in the placement process. Its services include assistance with resume development, interviewing and candidating, and compensation guidelines. The Placement office also helps ministries search for candidates and maintains a list of ministry opportunities through the Placement website. For more information on placement, please go to the Alumni placement website at alumni.dts.edu.

WAYS TO STAY CONNECTED
In addition to providing placement services, DTS seeks to foster and maintain a network for Seminary alumni through other means such as the publication, Connection; monthly email updates, eNews; and a printed biennial Alumni Directory, which is also password protected and available online. The alumni-only website fosters a networking community among alumni. The Seminary helps its constituents find churches, schools, and counselors that employ DTS graduates through its online locator.

CONTINUING EDUCATION
DTS is committed to continuing education for alumni in order to address the changing demands of ministry as well as current biblical and theological issues.

Through the alumni-only website, graduates are able to view online courses free of charge. They may also audit master’s-level courses for a small fee or take courses for credit at a reduced rate. Courses taken for credit cannot be applied toward another degree at the Seminary unless the full tuition rate is paid; however, these courses may be transferable to other graduate institutions.

An Alumni-in-Residence program allows alumni with a three-year minimum of full-time ministry experience after graduation to return to campus as nondegree students for a tuition-free semester of study. Courses taken in this program cannot be applied to a degree program at the Seminary, but may be transferable to other graduate institutions.

C.B.T.S. COMPLETION FOR NONGRADUATE ALUMNI
Qualified nongraduate alumni may apply to complete the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies at the Alumni Nondegree tuition rate. The program requires readmission to the Seminary and completion of all remaining C.B.T.S. requirements. Interested alumni will need to complete at least one course the semester before graduation, even if all other requirements have been previously met.

For more information, contact the Alumni office.

HOWARD G. HENDRICKS CENTER FOR CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
Founded in 1986, the Howard G. Hendricks Center for Christian Leadership (CCL) serves as a training and resource center to develop leadership skills in DTS students, alumni, and other Christian workers and business leaders. Programs include leadership conferences, personal leadership development experiences, church consulting, life-planning, character development, and assistance in vision development or refinement. The CCL has also recently added an emphasis on Cultural Engagement.

LAY INSTITUTE
The Lay Institute is an outreach ministry of Dallas Theological Seminary that offers nondegree, adult continuing-education courses for the purpose of equipping lay people in the church to build the body of Christ. Classes are offered in Bible, theology, spiritual life, and ministry skills for people in the Dallas/Fort Worth area during the spring, summer, and fall terms. Upper-level M.A. and Th.M. students teach the courses for internship credit or as artifacts for their portfolio.

SUPPORTING MINISTRIES
BIBLIOTHECA SACRA
The oldest conservative theological journal in America, Bibliotheca Sacra has been in continuous publication since 1843 and has been published by DTS since 1934. This quarterly journal contains articles, periodical reviews, and book reviews on biblical exposition and current theological and ministerial issues of interest to pastors, scholars, alumni, teachers, and serious lay Bible students. Bibliotheca Sacra enjoys one of the largest circulations of any theological journal in the world.

FACULTY MINISTRIES
DTS’s distinguished faculty members are in frequent demand as speakers and leaders at Christian conferences and professional association conferences in the United States and around the world. Several of them are involved in popular radio and video ministries, and all serve in local churches.

KINDRED SPIRIT
DTS publishes Kindred Spirit three times a year as a ministry to friends of the school. Each issue of this award-winning magazine features helpful articles on Bible doctrine and Christian living from a conservative, evangelical perspective. Free subscriptions are available within the United States.

DTS BIBLE CONFERENCE AT MOUNT HERMON
Each year the Seminary sponsors a Bible conference taught by faculty members and alumni at Mount Hermon Conference Center in California.

ACCREDITATION AND AFFILIATIONS
Dallas Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; telephone number 404-679-4500) to award master’s and doctoral degrees. The Seminary is also an accredited member of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15275-1103; telephone number 800-367-8250).

DTS is a member of the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI), the Evangelical Training Association (ETA), and an affiliate member of the Council of Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU).

DTS is nondenominational and seeks to serve those of like biblical faith in evangelical Protestantism. The faculty, governing boards, and students are members of various denominational or independent churches.

LOCATION
The main campus of DTS is located in Dallas, Texas, with a metropolitan area population of more than four million.

With an average temperature of 66 degrees and an abundance of affordable housing, the city also boasts beautiful residential areas, parks, and playgrounds, along with fine schools and universities. Students and their families may enjoy a host of cultural activities, museums, and participant and spectator sports.

The business capital of the Southwest, Dallas provides numerous employment opportunities through its banks, offices, hospitals, and other industries and is serviced by the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport—one of the world’s largest—located approximately 25 miles from the Seminary. (See maps at the end of this catalog.) Maps are also available on the Seminary website at http://www.dts.edu/maps/dallascampus/.
"Dallas Theological Seminary opens many doors to international students, and it is a blessing for us to come to study God’s Word, to be prepared for the ministry, and to go back."

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Degree requirements published in this catalog are effective for all new students, including those beginning their program in the summer.

DTS offers 13 degrees and 1 certificate. Information in this section describes each of these programs, including course requirements. All programs are coeducational.

The Seminary offers the following master’s degrees and certificate.

- A 120-hour program leading to the Master of Theology degree.
- A 32-hour program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree for students who previously earned a three-year Master of Divinity or its equivalent.
- A 90-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling degree. Students in this program interested in pursuing Texas State Licensure may be required to take one or two additional courses beyond the 90 hours required for the degree.
- A 62-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree, offered in collaboration with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (associated with Wycliffe Bible Translators).
- A 65-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Christian Education degree.
- A 62-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Christian Leadership degree.
- A 64-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Cross-cultural Ministries degree.
- A 67-hour program leading to the Master of Arts in Media Arts and Worship degree.
- A 62-hour program leading to the Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) degree.
- A 62-hour program leading to the Master of Arts (Christian Studies) degree in Chinese.
- A 30-hour program leading to the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies (Certificate of Graduate Studies in Chinese).

The Seminary offers the following doctoral degrees:

- A 39-hour professional program leading to the Doctor of Educational Ministry degree for those presently in ministry and holding a Master of Arts in Christian Education degree from Dallas Theological Seminary or its equivalent.
- A 30-hour professional program leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree for those presently in ministry and holding a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent.
- A 35-hour program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree for those presenting a Master of Theology degree or its equivalent, with an additional 26 hours for those holding a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent.

Students wishing to earn a second master’s degree may do so by adding additional hours to the earned degree. The total hours needed to earn two degrees are listed below. Consult the Registrar’s office for the specific courses that must be completed to earn the second degree.

- 2-year M.A. + 2-year M.A. = 90 hours
- 3-year M.A. + 2-year M.A. = 120 hours
- 3-year M.A. + 3-year M.A. = 135 hours
- Th.M. + 2-year M.A. = 150 hours
- Th.M. + 3-year M.A. = 165 hours

While all programs at DTS are coeducational, the Seminary holds the position that Scripture limits to men the roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church. Therefore the Seminary programs of study are not designed to prepare women for these roles.
Academic Programs

Purpose
The Master of Theology degree program is designed to produce competent Bible expositors who are qualified to serve God effectively as pastors, missionaries, or leaders in other areas of vocational Christian ministry.

Goals
Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• verbalize a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• demonstrate the ability to exegesis the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible; and
• evidence an understanding of the educational program of the local church and an awareness of the worldwide mission of the church.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• communicate the Bible effectively;
• demonstrate skills in various ministries; and
• lead a local church or other group by means of biblical exposition, leadership skills, evangelism, and service.

Admission Requirements
Admission requirements and application procedures for the Th.M. program are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary. See the Admission section of this catalog.

Transfer of Credit
Transfer of up to 60 semester hours is allowed toward the Th.M. degree from accredited graduate theological schools. See the Admission section of this catalog for information on eligibility for transfer of credit. Consult the Registrar’s office for specific information on transfer of credit.

Curriculum
The prescribed Master of Theology curriculum involves not only extensive preparation in Hebrew, Greek, Bible, and systematic and historical theology, but also preparation in pastoral ministries, Christian education, missions, and ministry leadership. Th.M. students enroll in Spiritual Formation groups during their first four consecutive fall and spring semesters at either the Dallas campus or the Houston Campus.

Students are encouraged to take courses in the order in which they appear on the curriculum chart on the following page. This is to the student’s advantage as courses are designed to build on previous coursework.

TOTAL TH.M. HOURS 120

1 Students have two calendar years (four consecutive fall/spring semesters) to complete the SF100 Spiritual Formation requirement. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

2 RS101 will be offered during the same class session as NTI 13 each semester. Therefore students should plan to register for RS101 and NTI 13 concurrently. The remainder of the 3-hour research component of the Th.M. degree program will consist of either RS102 (2 hours) or a thesis (2 hours). Those planning on writing a thesis should register for the thesis in the fall semester of the fourth year (or the year of graduation). Students writing a thesis are advised to begin the process of topic selection the year before the year of graduation.

3 Students should average 15 hours per semester in order to complete the Th.M. degree in four years without taking courses in Summer School or Wintersession. However, since ministry emphasis and elective courses at DTS vary between 2 and 3 semester hours, some semesters after the second year may have slightly more or fewer hours, depending on courses taken. For information on scheduling courses effectively, students should consult the Registrar’s Office.

4 Students have 24 hours of electives beyond the 96-hour core Th.M. curriculum from which they select a ministry emphasis as well as other elective courses based on vocational intent and interest. Regardless of emphasis, students must take at least 9 hours of the 24 elective hours in the Ministries and Communications division. In many cases, all or part of these 9 hours will have already been taken within the emphasis, but if not, the student must take them within the remainder of the 24-hour elective pool. Emphasis courses are chosen in consultation with an academic department.

Students in the Th.M. program may also take up to an additional (over and above the 120 hours required for the degree) five courses for credit for a modest fee to cover the cost of materials. Students may start taking the free classes any time during their program of study, but may take no more than one free class in any term.

5 Students have one calendar year (three consecutive semesters) to complete the SL105 Master of Theology Internship. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

NOTE: Semester loads can be reduced by taking courses in Summer School and/or Wintersession.

NOTE: See footnotes under the four-year curriculum chart for important information on the Th. M. requirements.
Out of the required 120 credit hours in the Th.M. curriculum, 96 credit hours are predetermined in the curriculum. With the remaining 24 credit hours beyond this core, students are given the flexibility to pursue areas of ministry emphasis and choose electives based on vocational intent and interests.

As part of the 96 core credit hours, all students participate in a 3-hour Servant Leadership Internship. During the internship, students will complete a professional portfolio. When students declare their ministry emphasis (no later than at the completion of 60 hours), they should start planning for their internship experience. Consult the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

Th.M. students are responsible for demonstrating competence in research by satisfactorily completing either (1) a Th.M. thesis in an academic department of their choosing, or (2) a 2-hour research seminar (RS102).

To provide greater opportunity for learning, students may also take up to five courses for credit beyond the 120 hours required for the degree for only a modest fee to cover the cost of materials. Consult the Registrar’s office for more information and limitations on this special program.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Because Dallas Seminary values character and spiritual maturity, Th.M. students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups each of their first four consecutive fall and spring semesters at either the Dallas campus or Houston Campus.

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of six to eight students focus on identity, community, integrity, and ministry. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with ministry. Students participate with the same group during four consecutive semesters; therefore, they should arrange their schedules so they meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. The prerequisite for all required Servant Leadership Internships is the first semester of SF100 Spiritual Formation.

MINISTRY EMPHASES

Each student in the Master of Theology program selects a Ministry Emphasis from the following list. In addition to the 96-hour core curriculum (which includes a 3-hour Servant Leadership Internship that involves the production of a professional portfolio), students will customize the remaining 24 elective hours with respect to their ministry goals and areas of interest. Regardless of their Ministry Emphasis, students will take at least 9 of their 24 credit hours in the Ministries and Communication division. A faculty coordinator for each emphasis is available to meet with students. The requirements for each emphasis will vary based on student backgrounds and interests, but each department may require certain courses and hours for the emphases supervised by that department. Academic advising for all Ministry Emphases begins in the Student Advising Center in the Walvoord Student Center. Students may request an emphasis through CampusNet.

Additional Ministry Emphases may be approved subsequent to the publishing of this catalog. For a complete listing of current Ministry Emphases, go to http://www.dts.edu/thm/#emphases. See the departmental Course Descriptions sections later in this catalog for additional Ministry Emphasis information.
ADULT EDUCATION
This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for ministry with adults in a local church or parachurch context. Courses focus on foundational adult learning theory and practice, the ability to create and lead transformational ministries to adults, and understanding generational, gender, and cultural differences that affect learning.

Requirements:
CE102  History and Philosophy of Christian Education
CE103  Teaching Process
CE104  Audiovisual Presentations

Select 9 hours from the following:
CE205  Small-group Process in Ministry
CE425  Church Ministries with Adults
CE705  Principles of Discipleship
CE710  Practice of Discipleship

APOLOGETICS
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary for defending Christianity against its various opponents. In so doing, it equips students to respond effectively to intellectual challenges to their faith in a variety of ministerial settings. Courses in this emphasis will be selected in consultation with the department of theological studies.

Requirements: A minimum of nine hours in Apologetics, to be crafted in consultation with the Department of Theological Studies.

BIBLE BACKGROUND
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by concentrating on the geographical, cultural, and archaeological background to the Scriptures and the contribution such make to a proper understanding and application of the Bible.

Requirements: 9 hours from the following:
BE305  Physical and Historical Geography of Israel
BE310  Bible Chronology
BE315  Bible Manners and Customs
BE909  Field Study of the Bible
NT410  Greco–Roman and Jewish Sites and Backgrounds
OT605  Old Testament Backgrounds
OT610  History of Israel
OT615  Israelite Religion in Its Ancient Near Eastern Context
OT620  Introduction to Biblical Archaeology
OT625  Field Work in Biblical Archaeology

BIBLE TRANSLATION
This 18-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for the task of Bible translation. All courses in this emphasis are offered by the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL). GIAL is located at the International Linguistic Center in south Dallas and is associated with Wycliffe Bible Translators. Because of the unique nature of the Bible translation ministry and the needs of translators on the field, 18 semester hours of courses are required to complete the Bible Translation emphasis.

AL 5207  Field Data Management
AL 5312  Discourse Analysis
AL 5315  Semantics and Pragmatics
AL 5316  Theory and Practice of Translation
AL 5406  Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis

GIAL elective in cultural anthropology

Select one of the following:
DTS WM205  Cultural Dynamics in Ministry
DTS WM540  Applied Biblical Contextualization (taken for 3 credit hours).

BIBLICAL THEOLOGY
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on the development of a biblical theology. Biblical theology is that exegetical and synthetic study of a biblical text, texts, or section of the Bible that seeks to determine the theological meaning of that portion as it was written and then to explain what that theology means for today.

Requirements:
BE505  The Kingdom and Covenants

Select 6 hours from the following:
BE503  The Psalms and the Worship of God
BE507  The Kingdom in the Gospel of Matthew
BE542  The Lord’s Supper
BE555  Messianic Prophecy
OT705  Introduction to Old Testament Biblical Theology

CHILDREN’S EDUCATION
This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for ministry with children in a local church or parachurch organization. Elements of foundational education training are combined with courses related to the student’s ability to organize and supervise local church or parachurch ministries to children, including the recruitment and retention of adult staff.
Requirements:

CE102  History and Philosophy of Christian Education
CE103  Teaching Process
CE104  Audiovisual Presentations

Select 9 hours from the following:

CE315  Administrative Process
CE405  Early Faith Foundations
CE410  Children’s Ministry in the Church
CE515  Family Life Education

EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for ministry in schools or other educational institutions. Elements of foundational education training are combined with courses related to the student’s ability to equip students for leadership in an educational institution at the elementary, secondary, or higher level.

Requirements:

CE102  History and Philosophy of Christian Education
CE103  Teaching Process
CE104  Audiovisual Presentations

Select 9 hours from the following:

CE315  Administrative Process
CE715  The Role of the Associate in Ministry

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for educational leadership in a local church or parachurch organization, and includes training both in foundational education and courses related to the student’s ability to design, direct, supervise, and evaluate the overall educational process of a local church or other ministry. This emphasis is not designed for those whose primary ministry will be preaching or pastoral leadership.

Requirements:

CE102  History and Philosophy of Christian Education
CE103  Teaching Process
CE104  Audiovisual Presentations

In addition, the student must take:

CE410  Children’s Ministry in the Church
CE415  Church Ministries with Youth

EVANGELISM AND DISCIPLESHIP

This 12-hour emphasis is designed to equip students to do the work of evangelism and to develop disciples. It combines advanced courses taught in Bible Exposition, Theological Studies, Pastoral Ministries, Christian Education, and World Missions and Intercultural Studies departments.

Requirements:

Select 12 hours from the following:

BE540  Discipleship in the Gospels
CE435  Effective Ministry with Women
CE450  Women Teaching Women
CE705  Principles of Discipleship
CE710  Practice of Discipleship
PM251  Evangelistic Preaching
PM405  Seminar in Evangelistic Issues and Strategies
PM410  Lifestyle Evangelism and Apologetics
ST215  Issues in Soteriology and Sanctification
WM210  Intercultural Communication
WM305  Context for Intercultural Ministry
–345  Courses
WM525  Spiritual Warfare
WM530  Cross-cultural Apologetics and Worldview Evangelism

EXPOSITION OF BIBLICAL BOOKS

This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by concentrating on developing expositional skills (understanding and application) by studying specific biblical books.

Requirements:

9 hours from the following:

BE405  Exposition of Genesis
BE408  The Books of Samuel
BE410  The Wisdom Books
BE415  The Book of Isaiah
BE420  The Book of Jeremiah
BE425  The Minor Prophets
BE430  The Sermon on the Mount
BE435  The Gospel of Mark
BE440  The Gospel of Luke
BE445  The Gospel of John
BE446  The Upper Room Discourse
BE450  The Book of Hebrews
BE455  Daniel and Revelation

Students should choose courses representing both OT & NT, and various genres.
FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION
This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for ministry with families in a local church or parachurch organization. Elements of foundational education training are combined with courses related to the student’s ability to develop and direct a church program of family life education, including family classes, counseling, and discipling relationships.

Requirements:
- CE102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education
- CE103 Teaching Process
- CE104 Audiovisual Presentations

Select 9 hours from the following:
- CE325 Legal and Financial Issues in Ministry
- CE405 Early Faith Foundations
- CE505 The Christian Home (1 hour per module)
- M1 Dynamics of a Christian Marriage
- M2 Communication and Conflict Resolution
- M3 Dynamics of a Christian Family
- M4 Family Research and Assessment
- CE515 Family Life Education
- CE705 Principles of Discipleship

HEBREW & COGNATE STUDIES
This 9-hour emphasis broadens skills necessary for advanced work in Hebrew exegesis through introduction to cognate Semitic languages, further development of Hebrew reading ability, and an emphasis on research methods.

Requirements:
- OT310 Hebrew Reading
- Select 6 hours from any OT300–level Philological Studies courses.

HERMENEUTICS
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by helping students to advance in their understanding and practice of a proper approach to the application of Scripture.

Requirements:
- BE220 Advanced Hermeneutics
- Select 6 hours from the following:
  - BE205 The Analytical Method of Bible Study
  - BE210 Advanced Bible Study Methods
  - BE215 Literary Genre in the Scriptures
  - BE225 Interpreting Progressive Revelation
  - OT720 The Use of the Old Testament in the New Testament

HISTORICAL THEOLOGY
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on the development of the Christian faith through historical study of its classic sources. This study equips the student to communicate faithfully the teachings of Scripture in continuity with historic orthodoxy in various ministerial settings.

Requirements: A minimum of 9 hours in Historical Theology, to be crafted in consultation with the Department of Theological Studies.

HOMILETICS
This 9-hour emphasis, designed to equip students for the multiple challenges of pastoral ministry in the local church, provides students with pastoral theology and a broad exposure to diverse pastoral skills.

Requirements:
- PM201 Topical Expository Preaching
- PM202 Advanced Expository Preaching
Select 3 hours from the following:

- PM360 Preparation for Ordination
- PM210 Homiletic Theory and Practice
- PM231 Preaching Old Testament Narrative
- PM232 Preaching the Gospels
- PM251 Evangelistic Preaching
- PM281 Spiritual Preparation for Preaching and Ministry
- PM291 Teaching Homiletics

INTERCULTURAL MINISTRIES

This 13-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for evangelistic, church planting, discipleship, and educational ministries in intercultural situations in North America and abroad. It provides training in cultural adaptation, effective mission strategies, religious and cultural contexts, and leadership development. Students may consult with WMIS department professors to construct the most appropriate courses for the ministry context they anticipate.

Requirements:

- WM 205 Cultural Dynamics in Ministry
- WM 210 Intercultural Communication
- WM 215 Dynamics of Missionary Development

Select 4 hours from any WM305–615 courses.

The WMIS department recommends that students complete one course from each of these four elective categories: Context (WM300-level), Strategic Approaches (WM400-level), Biblical and Theological Studies (WM500-level), and TESOL (WM600-level). However, students also may freely elect from any of these categories.

JESUS STUDIES

This 9-hour emphasis is designed to prepare students for a variety of academic, college-campus, and apologetic ministries through additional studies in the biblical, theological, and historical subject of Jesus Christ.

Requirements: 6 hours from the following:

- NT305 Exegesis of Gospel Narrative
- NT405 New Testament Study and the Life of Christ
- NT407 Historical Jesus

Select 3 hours from the following:

- NT310 The Gospel of Matthew
- NT315 The Gospel of Mark
- NT320 The Gospel of Luke
- NT325 The Gospel of John
- NT408 Jesus and the Media

- BE510 The Life of Christ on Earth
- ST415 Theology and World Religions
- WM535 Theology and World Religions
- HT217 The Apostolic Fathers
- PM232 Preaching the Gospels

LEADERSHIP STUDIES

This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance the student’s ability to provide organizational leadership in a variety of ministry settings by offering additional training in areas such as leadership dynamics, change and resistance in leadership, personal and organizational leadership development, and team leadership.

Requirements:

- SL305 Dynamics of Christian Leadership

In addition, the student must take 6 hours in consultation with the SFL Department.

MEDIA ARTS

This 9-hour emphasis is designed to equip students to serve the body of Christ in media-arts vocations such as artists, writers, musicians, directors, and producers in the context of biblically oriented, congregational, and parachurch ministries. Courses in this emphasis will be selected in consultation with the Media Arts and Worship department.

Requirements:

- MW102 A Christian View of Art

Select 6 hours from any Media Arts electives (MW101–802).

MINISTRY WITH WOMEN

While Dallas Seminary holds the position that Scripture limits to men the roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church, it also affirms that local churches, denominational structures, parachurch organizations and ministries, educational institutions, and missions agencies all present strategic ministry opportunities for women.

This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip women to understand women as audience and learners and teach, lead, mentor, shepherd, and care for women in a variety contexts. The Ministry with Women emphasis falls under the oversight of the Department of Christian Education but with course options from several departments.

Requirements:

- CE102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education
- CE103 Teaching Process
- CE104 Audiovisual Presentations
In addition, the student must take:
CE435 Effective Ministry with Women
CE450 Women Teaching Women

NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to prepare students for a variety of church, parachurch, or academic ministries through additional studies in exegesis and other New Testament disciplines, such as textual criticism, lexical and literary analysis, use of interpretive tools, exegetical problem-solving, New Testament introduction, grammar, and syntax.

Requirements: Select 6 hours from the following:
NT205 Advanced Greek Grammar
NT305 Exegesis of Gospel Narrative
NT335 The Epistle of 1 Corinthians
Select 3 hours from any remaining New Testament electives.

NEW TESTAMENT TEXTUAL CRITICISM
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to prepare students for a variety of academic, college campus, church, or apologetics ministries through additional studies in New Testament textual criticism and related sub-disciplines.

Requirements:
NT215 New Testament Textual Criticism
In addition, the student must select 6 hours in consultation with the Department of New Testament Studies. Because of the unique nature of this emphasis, students may fulfill elective requirements by independent study on various topics related to textual criticism. Consult the Department of New Testament Studies for more information.

OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by refining skills for Bible interpretation and exposition. It focuses on interpreting the Hebrew text, use of the Old Testament in the New Testament, theological and spiritual formation, and engaging contemporary culture.

Requirements:
Select 3 hours from any OT400-level courses (OT405–460).
Select 6 hours from any remaining Old Testament electives (OT205–905).

PARACHURCH MINISTRIES
This 15-hour emphasis, developed jointly by the departments of Christian Education and World Missions and Intercultural Studies, is designed to facilitate ministry training for those currently engaged in or anticipating serving in either the United States or overseas.

Requirements:
CE102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education
CE103 Teaching Process
CE104 Audiovisual Presentations
Select 9 hours from the following:
CE425 Church Ministries with Adults
Any WM elective

PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for effective Christian counseling in a nonprofessional environment. Individuals interested in exploring nuances of pastoral counseling, pastoral care, and marriage and family ministry will be served well by this area of emphasis.

Requirements: A minimum of 9 hours in Biblical Counseling Electives selected in consultation with the Department of Biblical Counseling.

PASTORAL THEOLOGY & PRACTICE
This 12-hour emphasis, designed to equip students for the multiple challenges of pastoral ministry in the local church, provides students with pastoral theology and a broad exposure to diverse pastoral skills.

Requirements:
PM301 Pastoral Theology and Leadership I
PM302 Pastoral Theology and Leadership II
Select 3 hours from any Homiletic electives (PM201–291).
Select 3 hours from the following:
PM341 Church Planting I
PM342 Church Planting II
PM360 Preparation for Ordination
SL330 Personal and Organizational Leadership Development

PHILOSOPHY
This 9-hour emphasis focuses on developing and articulating a distinctively Christian philosophy. In so doing, it equips students to engage constructively the broader philosophical milieu in which they find themselves and to use philosophical reflection to serve Christ and His church.

Requirements: A minimum of 9 hours in Philosophy, to be selected in consultation with the Department of Theological Studies.
SPIRITUAL FORMATION
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance the student’s ability to guide others in spiritual formation in a variety of ministry settings by offering additional training in areas such as spiritual formation in historical perspective, spiritual formation in contemporary culture, and the practice of the spiritual disciplines.

Requirements:
SF310  Spiritual Formation in Historical Perspective

In addition, the student must select 7 hours in consultation with the Department of Spiritual Development and Leadership.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on articulating the evangelical Christian faith through systematic study of its sources. This study equips the student to engage constructively the issues and implications of theology in various ministerial settings.

Requirements: A minimum of 9 hours in Systematic Theology, to be selected in consultation with the Department of Theological Studies.

TEACHING IN CHRISTIAN INSTITUTIONS
This 15-hour emphasis seeks to develop skill in the teaching role of educators at the K–12 and higher-education levels. This will be accomplished with selective, but advanced exploration of learning theory, designing course syllabi and other materials, and investigating several prominent Christian school models. Skills will be further developed and honed through modular courses that build on previous study with a view to simulated practice and laboratory exploration.

Requirements:
CE102  History and Philosophy of Christian Education
CE103  Teaching Process
CE104  Audiovisual Presentations

Select 9 hours from the following:
CE215  Teaching in Christian Higher Education
CE310  Administration in Christian Higher Education
CE320  Christian School Administration
CE325  Legal and Financial Issues in Ministry
CE905  Special Topics in Christian Education

URBAN MINISTRIES
This 9-hour emphasis deals with particular issues arising from urban, culturally diverse ministry. It provides an opportunity for students to focus either on a single ethnic community or multi-ethnic, socioeconomically diverse context.

Requirements:
Choose one of the following:
PM540  Developing and Leading the Culturally Diverse Church
WM325  Ministry in Multicultural America

Select 6–7 hours from the following:
ST515  Theology of Ethnic Concerns
BC235  Social and Cultural Foundations
WM425  Intercultural Church Planting
WM440  Foundations of Christian Community Development
WM445  Business as Mission
WM450  Local Church and Social Outreach Ministry

WORSHIP STUDIES
This 9-hour emphasis, as a joint project between Pastoral Ministries and Media Arts, seeks to prepare students to design and lead theologically sound worship experiences in the local church.

Requirements:
PM302  Pastoral Theology and Leadership II
MW102  A Christian View of Art

Select 3 hours from the following:
MW701  Introduction to Hymnology
MW702  Introduction to Praise and Worship Music
MW703  Seminar in Worship Arts

YOUTH EDUCATION
This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for ministry with youth in a local church or parachurch organization. Elements of foundational education training are combined with courses related to the student’s abilities in order to better equip the student to organize and supervise an effective program of ministry for adolescents and their families.

Requirements:
CE102  History and Philosophy of Christian Education
CE103  Teaching Process
CE104  Audiovisual Presentations
CE415  Church Ministries with Youth
CE430  Programming for Youth Ministries
CE715  The Role of the Associate in Ministry
GENERAL STUDIES
This emphasis is designed to provide a more generalized ministry preparation course of study for students whose ministry goals are less settled, who want to incorporate elements from multiple courses in various departments, or whose specialized ministry goals are not addressed by other ministry emphases. Courses in this emphasis will be selected in consultation with the Student Advising Center.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
Of the 120 semester hours of coursework required for graduation, a minimum of 40 must be taken in residence at the Dallas campus or at the Houston Campus. All work leading to the degree must normally be completed within eight years from the time a student begins the program. Extension beyond the eight years requires approval by the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the Master of Theology degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony after these requirements have been met: (1) a minimum grade point average of 2.0; (2) satisfactory progress toward meeting Servant Leadership Internship requirements, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; (3) evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, of proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ; (4) provision of a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in Seminary; and (5) provision of a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates for the Master of Theology degree must have completed 120 semester hours of coursework, including Servant Leadership Internship credits, with a grade point average of at least 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, proven Christian character, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree is open to those who have graduated from a standard three-year seminary program and hold the degree of Master of Divinity or its equivalent. The S.T.M. is designed to provide opportunity for additional and advanced studies in the theological disciplines in preparation for Christian service.

GOALS

EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• verbalize a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• demonstrate ability to exegesis the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible; and
• evidence a commitment to a biblically based philosophy of Christian education and a commitment to the worldwide mission of the church.

SPIRITUAL GOAL
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
• communicate the Bible effectively;
• demonstrate skills in various ministries;
• lead a local church or other group by means of biblical exposition, leadership skills, evangelism, and service; and
• be prepared for advanced theological education.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Admission requirements and application procedures for the S.T.M. program are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog), with three exceptions: (1) students who desire to pursue studies toward this degree must present at the time of application approved college and seminary degrees or their respective academic and theological equivalents; (2) transcripts of this work must show a grade point average of at least 2.5 on a scale of 4.0; and (3) applicants must provide a research paper, in English, previously written at the master’s level that shows an acceptable level of competency in research and writing.

Each applicant’s evaluation for admission to the S.T.M. program will include a review of the applicant’s completed M.Div. (or equivalent) coursework to ensure the appropriate breadth of preparation necessary to pursue the S.T.M. degree. Identified deficiencies must be completed in addition to the following program requirements. On acceptance, S.T.M. students will receive a preliminary degree plan outlining how many hours will be required for their program.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The S.T.M. degree normally requires 32 semester hours of coursework. The requirements listed below allow the S.T.M. program to be customized individually to prepare students for their intended ministry goals.

* S.T.M. students intending to apply to the Ph.D. program at DTS must include OT104 Hebrew Exegesis II and Old Testament Introduction and NT105 Exegesis of Romans in their hours in the Divisions of Biblical and Theological Studies.

All S.T.M. students must demonstrate exegetical proficiency in Greek and Hebrew. Students who do not have the appropriate Hebrew and Greek courses at the Master of Divinity level will also be required to take the prerequisite Hebrew and Greek courses as necessary (OT101, OT102, NT101–NT102, and NT103, respectively).

Students who have had Hebrew or Greek at the M.Div. level will need to pass a Hebrew or Greek proficiency exam before enrolling in OT103 or NT103. Failure to pass the exams will require the student to enroll in first-year language courses, which will not credit toward the S.T.M. degree.

In addition, S.T.M. students are expected to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the department, proficiency in expository preaching, as required in PM103 Expository Preaching I, in order to take PM104 Expository Preaching II or an advanced homiletics course. Students who do not have this level of proficiency will be required to take PM103. Prerequisite courses in Hebrew, Greek, or expository preaching, if required, will not count toward the 32-hour requirement for the S.T.M. degree. (See Admission Requirements on previous page.)

Two courses, ST104 Soteriology and ST106 Eschatology, must be taken if the student does not already have credit for them or their equivalents from another school. These courses may be taken as part of the hours available in the Divisions of Biblical and Theological Studies.
TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Transfer of up to 6 credit hours is allowed toward the S.T.M. degree from accredited graduate theological schools. Only courses completed after the conferral of the M.Div. degree, and in which a grade of C or better is earned, will be eligible for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for further information.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
Of the 32 semester hours of coursework required for graduation, 11 hours must be taken in residence at the main campus. In most cases it will be necessary for S.T.M. students to be enrolled in a minimum of three semesters of study, which can include Summer School.

All work leading to the S.T.M. degree must be completed within three years from the time of matriculation. Extension requires approval by the Credits Committee. Reinstatement in the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the S.T.M. degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony after these requirements have been met: (1) grade point average of 2.5; (2) satisfactory progress toward meeting Servant Leadership Internship requirements, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; (3) evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, of proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ; (4) provision of a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in Seminary, and (5) provision of a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates for the S.T.M. degree must have completed the required 32 semester hours of coursework with a grade point average of at least 2.5, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, proven Christian character, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.
PURPOSE

Master of Arts degrees in specialized ministries:

- BIBLICAL COUNSELING (M.A./BC) 33
- BIBLICAL EXEGESIS AND LINGUISTICS (M.A./BEL) 36
- CHRISTIAN EDUCATION (M.A./CE) 40
- CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (M.A./CL) 43
- CROSS-CULTURAL MINISTRIES (M.A./CM) 45
- MEDIA ARTS AND WORSHIP (M.A./MW) 48

Programs leading to the professional Master of Arts degrees are designed to give men and women a biblical and theological foundation for various kinds of Christian service other than pulpit ministry. Graduates normally are recommended only for the types of ministry positions for which their degrees are intended. These M.A. programs are not designed to prepare students for doctoral studies at the Seminary.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission requirements and application procedures for professional M.A. degree programs are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.) Students generally will not be admitted into a degree program without goals consistent with the ministries for which the program is designed to equip them.

Those applying to the M.A. in Biblical Counseling program also will need to complete a process of testing and interviews with faculty in the department. This process will determine whether the applicant has the dispositional and relational skills needed to enter into this kind of interpersonally intense program of study.

Those applying to the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics program also must be accepted as students at the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL).

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of some credit is allowed toward the professional M.A. programs from accredited graduate theological schools. Up to 30 hours of credit may be transferred toward the M.A. in Christian Education, the M.A. in Christian Leadership, the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries, or the M.A. in Media Arts and Worship. Up to 45 hours may be transferred toward the M.A. in Biblical Counseling. (Of the 45 hours, students are limited to 12 hours of transfer in counseling courses.) M.A./BC students pursuing licensure may have stricter transfer-credit guidelines as required by the state licensing agency.

No more than 30 hours of coursework from institutions outside of DTS and the GIAL will be transferred toward the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics. Some provision will be made for students to transfer work from the Jerusalem University College to the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics program. Entering students with missions experience in Bible translation may be eligible for advanced standing.
Students must have earned a grade of C or better for a course to be considered in transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
Of the 90 semester hours required for the M.A. in Biblical Counseling, a minimum of 30 hours must be taken in resident study at the Dallas campus. Of the 65 semester hours required for the M.A. in Christian Education, a minimum of 22 hours must be taken in resident study at the Dallas campus or the Houston Campus. Of the 62 semester hours required for the M.A. in Christian Leadership, a minimum of 21 hours must be taken in resident study at the Dallas campus. Of the 62 hours required for the M.A. degree in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics, a minimum of 21 hours must be taken through DTS. Of the 67 semester hours required for the M.A. in Media Arts and Worship, 23 must be taken in resident study through the Dallas campus.

All work leading to any of the M.A. degrees must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to these programs after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree, the M.A. in Christian Education degree, the M.A. in Christian Leadership degree, the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries degree, or the M.A. in Media Arts and Worship degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral, or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony. They must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the M.A. in Biblical Counseling degree. They must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0 and show reasonable promise for effective ministry in people’s lives.

In addition, students must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in all M.A. programs also must provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in Seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer. Those students who are required to complete a Servant Leadership Internship must demonstrate satisfactory progress toward the completion of all internship requirements prior to admission to candidacy, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates for the M.A. in Biblical Counseling degree must have completed 90 hours of coursework. Candidates for the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree must have completed 62 hours of coursework. Candidates for the M.A. in Christian Education degree must have completed 65 hours of coursework. Candidates for the M.A. in Christian Leadership must have completed 62 hours of coursework. Candidates for the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries degree must have completed 62 hours of coursework. Candidates for the M.A. in Media Arts and Worship must have completed 67 hours of coursework. Candidates must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.
Purpose

The program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling degree provides a graduate-level, biblically and theologically focused education for men and women who desire to enter into Christian counseling practice. The training prepares men and women to engage in church, institutional, or private counseling practices. Meeting the program requirements enables a student to apply to the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors for licensure and complete the state’s post-graduate licensure requirements, including additional internship hours and a state-licensing examination.

Goals

Educational Goals
To enable students to:

• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• understand and explain the issues and problems that people face in life from a thoroughly biblical point of view;
• enter deeply into people’s lives with the truth and power of God’s Word and the gospel of His redemptive grace; and
• understand and evaluate secular and Christian psychological theories and practices from a sound biblical and theological point of view in order to develop professional competence within a thoroughly biblical framework focused on ministry.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to:

• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
• develop deep levels of biblical and spiritual integrity in their own personal life, relationships, and ministry; and
• develop a deep level of commitment to people and to a ministry of helping them with their lives in a way that is pleasing to God.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:

• possess the personal and spiritual maturity, discernment, and wisdom needed to help people resolve spiritual, relational, and behavioral issues and problems; and
• engage in effective biblically based counseling in the context of a local church, private practice, or mental health institution.
ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Those applying to the M.A. in Biblical Counseling program will need to demonstrate appropriate academic and practical preparation broadly related to the field of counseling. Admitted students are designated as M.A./BC in either the first or second stage. In Stage 1 students move toward official designation as M.A./BC, and in Stage 2 they complete a process of interviews and examination with faculty members of the Biblical Counseling department during their second year.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
The M.A. program in Biblical Counseling is three years in length, with 90 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, and 2 in Spiritual Life. In addition, there are 39 hours in prescribed counseling courses and 9 hours in counseling electives. Meeting these course requirements will enable students to apply to the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors for licensure in the state of Texas. Students who wish to pursue licensure in states other than Texas should consult the department. No thesis is required.

Students move from Stage 1 to Stage 2 of the M.A./BC program on the satisfactory completion of a minimum of 24 hours of coursework, including BC305 Counseling Practicum I. This normally occurs after the student’s third semester in the program. This process involves a Personal, Academic, and Professional Progress Interview with the department faculty and will help determine whether the student has the dispositional and relational skills to progress in this kind of interpersonally intense program of study. Students must successfully move to Stage 2 to continue in the program.

Students may take certain specialized counseling courses, other than those that are prescribed and/or offered in the M.A. in Biblical Counseling curriculum, at other accredited schools to fulfill any needed academic requirements for state licensure as a professional counselor.

¹ Electives should be chosen in consultation with advisers to ensure that all licensing requirements are met for the state where the student intends to practice. Students pursuing state licensure in Texas should consult with their adviser on the selection of electives.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Arts in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics degree is designed to provide graduate-level training for men and women who desire instruction in Bible translation. It is designed for missionary recruits from America and other nations, furloughing and in-service missionaries, and translation support personnel. It is offered jointly with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL), which prepares people for service with Wycliffe Bible Translators and other organizations. (The program only fulfills the minimum requirements for the first term of service with Wycliffe Bible Translators.) The World Missions and Intercultural Studies department is responsible for administering the program on campus.

GOALS
EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• exegete the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible;
• form a basic theological foundation as a grid for Bible translation;
• engage in collaborative work with speakers of minority languages;
• record an unfamiliar language using the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA);
• apply basic principles of hermeneutics in Bible study and Bible translation;
• employ computational tools to construct a phonological analysis, descriptive grammar, partial lexicography, and interlinear text of a minority language;
• discover their language-learning styles and practice various language-learning methods;
• conduct and record participatory observations in a cross-cultural setting; and
• do linguistic analysis of a previously unwritten language.

SPIRITUAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
• evidence commitment to world evangelism; and
• evidence an awareness of spiritual conflict and the resources in Christ.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
• translate the Bible effectively in a cross-cultural context;
• produce an accurate profile of a chosen country or area of the world; and
• design an effective strategy for cross-cultural ministry.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
The application process for the M.A./BEL is a dual process. Applicants for the program must apply to both DTS and the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (GIAL), and the admission requirements of both institutions must be met. In most cases students admitted to DTS will meet the admission requirements at GIAL. However, prospective M.A./BEL students should be aware that the requirements for linguistic courses at GIAL vary and may include the completion of all or a portion of the 27–hour Certificate of Applied Linguistics (6 of the 27 hours in two courses, AL5207 and AL5406, will apply toward the M.A./BEL) or its equivalent. Students must complete all GIAL course prerequisites before matriculating to DTS.

Students are strongly advised to complete all GIAL graduate courses before beginning DTS coursework. However, until they apply to DTS for admission to the program, students will not be officially enrolled in the M.A./BEL program. Students are advised to contact both institutions as soon as possible regarding their intentions to enroll in the M.A./BEL program so that adequate advice and direction can be provided.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Sixty–two semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 18 are prescribed in linguistics and language, 12 in Greek grammar and exegesis, 12 in Hebrew grammar and exegesis, 3 in biblical manners and customs, 3 in world missions, 9 in Bible exposition, and 5 in systematic and historical theology. The World Missions and Intercultural Studies department advises students in this program. Career guidance is also available from the GIAL staff.

Substitutions may be made for required courses with appropriate departmental approval. Students who have linguistics background or training should consult the GIAL registrar for course advice.

Linguistics and related translation courses are offered on the campus of GIAL in Dallas. Biblical and theological coursework, as well as coursework in biblical languages, is offered at DTS. A Spiritual Formation group supervised by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies is designed to meet the needs of this group of students.

Completion of course requirements for the M.A./BEL requires careful planning on the part of students as they seek to coordinate coursework at two institutions. Every attempt is made to facilitate the completion of the program in three calendar years for full-time students. However, students should be aware that the linguistics courses from GIAL require prerequisites that may extend the length of the program. Before students begin their studies in the M.A./BEL, they should consult the DTS registrar to develop a degree plan for completing requirements. This plan will include input from GIAL on the completion of linguistics requirements.

GIAL has designed its courses to be taught in six–month bimesters, from either January through June or July through December. Each bimester is divided into four sessions. DTS follows a regular early–semester calendar. This results in the overlap of DTS courses with GIAL courses in a given term. As such, students are strongly encouraged to adhere to the curriculum chart that follows.

Students should consult both the DTS and GIAL Registrars’ offices for information on scheduling options. The Admissions office at DTS also will be able to assist students.

ACADEMIC PROCEDURES

A dual registration process is followed for all GIAL courses taken for the degree. Students must register through GIAL before taking linguistics courses at that campus. DTS is then notified by GIAL and enters the courses in the DTS registration system. This allows the tracking of student status for such purposes as loan deferments, international visa requirements, etc. There is no charge for the DTS portion of the registration process for GIAL courses.

At the end of each term GIAL sends official grade sheets to the Registrar’s office at Dallas Seminary for transcripting of their courses. Grades earned for GIAL courses are factored into the cumulative grade point average at DTS.

GIAL COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

The following courses are offered through the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics. Prerequisite courses are not listed, but may be found in the GIAL catalog available from the Admissions office at GIAL by calling 800–892–3356 or 972–708–7340, emailing admissions@gial.edu, or going online at www.gial.edu.

AL5207 Field Data Management

After completing this course, students will be able to use computational tools for managing and presenting phonological, textual and lexical data collected in linguistic field research.

Prerequisites: AL4302 Principles of Articulatory and Acoustic Phonetics, AL4303 Principles of Phonological Analysis, AL4410b Principles of Grammatical Analysis, LD4505 Second Language and Culture Acquisition.

Corequisite: AL5406 Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis. 2 hours.
AL5312 Discourse Analysis
After completing this course, students will be able to analyze the discourse structure of a text, using a specific approach to text analysis, and be able to compare this with other current approaches to text analysis. They will be able to describe typical features of different types of prominence and cohesion and coherence. They will be able to chart sample texts from different languages and analyze how a discourse may be segmented into hierarchical units. They will be able to indicate evidence for foregrounding and backgrounding (or mainline and supportive information), including differences in verb forms; to describe topic or participant reference; and to investigate constituent order variation. They will focus on the interface between syntactic forms and their functions in discourse as they investigate grammatical structures of discourse, paragraph, sentence, and clause. Prerequisite: AL4410b Principles of Grammatical Analysis. 3 hours.

AL5315 Semantics and Pragmatics
After completing this course, students will be able to explain and discuss relationships between form and meaning at various levels of language. They will be able to explain the difference between meaning and reference; describe and identify homonymy, polysemy, and ambiguity; analyze and describe word meanings, sentence meanings, utterance meanings, and speech act functions; identify and describe presuppositions, entailments, implicature, and ellipsis; identify components of meaning, and write clear definitions based on componential analysis. Prerequisite: AL4410b Principles of Grammatical Analysis. 3 hours.

AL5316 Theory and Practice of Translation
Upon completing this course students will be able to explain and practice the principles of transferring meaning across languages and cultures. They will be conversant with different theories and approaches to translation. They will be able to critically analyze the meaning of a text from another language, translate that text, and evaluate the result for accuracy, communicative effectiveness, and naturalness. They will be conversant with methods for training and facilitating national colleagues in the process of translation. They will be able to recognize common translation problems and apply standard methods for solving them. They will be able to access current literature on translation theory and practice and the tools most commonly used by professional Bible translators. Prerequisites: AL5312 Discourse Analysis, and either AL5311 Relevance Theory or AL5315 Semantics and Pragmatics. 3 hours.

AL5406 Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis
By the end of Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis, students will be able to elicit, record, and transcribe linguistic data by working with a speaker of a nonwestern language; use external sources plus the elicited data to formulate explanatory hypotheses; test those hypotheses against available data; and refine them. Prerequisites: AL4302 Principles of Articulatory and Acoustic Phonetics, AL4303 Principles of Phonological Analysis, AL4410b Principles of Grammatical Analysis, and LD4505 Second Language and Culture Acquisition. Corequisite: AL5207 Field Data Management. 4 hours.

1. This plan minimizes potential problems with financial aid and housing between the two programs. Students not following this plan may experience unforeseen problems and delays in degree completion.
2. Students are strongly advised to complete all GIAL graduate courses before beginning DTS coursework.
3. Students may choose any GIAL master’s-level elective recommended by their GIAL adviser. Consult the current GIAL catalog for available electives. Students have the option of taking their elective during either the fall or spring semester at GIAL.
4. BE315 and WMS20 are offered in the fall semester of even-numbered years. WMS40 is offered in the fall semester of odd-numbered years. WMS901 is taken in conjunction with and is designed to be a 1-credit-hour enhancement of WMS20 and WMS40.
5. Bible Exposition courses may be replaced with exegesis courses in the Old or New Testament Studies departments or by other Bible Exposition courses as approved by the program adviser.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Arts in Christian Education degree is designed to provide a graduate-level biblical and theological education for men and women who anticipate vocational ministry as Christian education specialists. This program helps prepare its graduates to assume positions as ministers of Christian education, children’s workers, ministers of youth, parachurch youth leaders, ministers of adults, directors of family-life education, administrators or teachers in Christian higher education, Christian school teachers and administrators, or women’s ministry leaders.

GOALS

EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
- demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
- evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
- develop a biblical philosophy of and commitment to Christian education in home, church, and school; and
- verbalize the nature and needs of at least one age group, state biblical goals for that age-level ministry, and apply appropriate educational principles.

SPIRITUAL GOALS
To enable students to:
- evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit; and
- exhibit godly leadership with a team spirit that will lead others into spiritual maturity and help develop them for leadership roles.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
- organize, administer, and evaluate an educational program based on stated goals and objectives, working successfully with people in a variety of ministry situations;
- communicate effectively in a variety of Christian education ministry settings;
- formulate educational programs that are biblically based, educationally accurate, and related to people’s needs; and
- utilize proper biblical and educational methods and materials for at least one age level.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-five semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 are in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 2 are in Spiritual Life, 9 are in prescribed Christian Education courses, 12 are elective Christian Education hours, and 2 hours are in a Servant Leadership Internship (SL165 Christian Education Internship). No thesis is required.
All students in the M.A. in Christian Education degree program are required to take CE101 Educational Process of the Church, CE102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education, CE103 Teaching Process, CE104 Audiovisual Presentations, and SL165 Christian Education Internship. In addition, each student must select 12 hours in one of the following 10 ministry concentrations. Concentration courses will be selected in consultation with the student’s adviser in the department and will be recorded on the student’s M.A./CE degree plan. Students in the M.A./CE degree program must meet with their CE adviser and submit a CE degree plan during the first semester of their first year.

Adult Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and lead an adult education program.

Children’s Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and supervise a local church or parachurch ministry to children, including the recruitment and retention of adult staff.

Christian School Administration
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to serve effectively in leadership of a Christian elementary or secondary school. This program does not lead to certification.

College Teaching
Students completing this ministry concentration should have a foundation for success as a teacher in a Christian institution of higher learning. However, most colleges, universities, and seminaries require an earned doctorate in the teaching discipline. Most seminaries and graduate schools of theology also require an M.Div. degree or, in some cases, the Th.M./S.T.M. degree for admission to doctoral programs.

Educational Administration
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to serve effectively in a leadership role in an educational institution at the elementary, secondary, or higher level.

Educational Leadership
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to design, direct, supervise, and evaluate the overall educational process of a local church or other ministry.

Family Life Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to develop and direct a church program of family life education, including family classes, counseling, and discipling relationships.

Ministry with Women
Students completing this ministry concentration should understand women as audience and learners, and be equipped to teach, lead, mentor, shepherd, and care for women in various ministry contexts.

Parachurch Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and supervise various parachurch ministries either in the United States or internationally. Courses in this concentration may be selected from any department in the Ministries and Communication division.

Youth Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should be able to organize and supervise an effective church program of youth ministry at the junior-high and high-school levels. Those on staff with Campus Crusade for Christ or Young Life may transfer a maximum of 12 hours toward a Parachurch Ministry concentration. Consult the Registrar’s office for further information.

Students completing the M.A. in Christian Education are eligible to apply for admission to the Ed.D. or Ph.D. in Higher Education program at the University of North Texas. For more information see the Special Programs section of this catalog or contact the Christian Education office.

Educational Leadership—Houston Campus
The Educational Leadership concentration is the only CE concentration available in Houston. Other concentrations will be supported as resources and enrollment allow. Students in the Houston Educational Leadership concentration may take CE105 Teaching Process and Audiovisual Presentations in place of CE103 Teaching Process and CE104 Audiovisual Presentations. In addition to the core Christian Education courses in the M.A./CE program, the Houston concentration also includes CE401 Age-level Ministries, which is only offered at the Seminary’s extension sites. Other electives in the Houston concentration will be selected with input from the students in the program.

Spiriitual Formation
Because DTS values character and spiritual maturity, M.A./CE students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups each of their first four consecutive fall and spring semesters at either the Dallas campus or Houston Campus. (M.A./CE students who are not planning to be in residence in Dallas or Houston for four consecutive fall and spring semesters must contact the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirement.)

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of six to eight students focus on identity, community, integrity, and ministry. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with life and ministry.

Because students participate with the same group during four consecutive semesters, they should plan their schedules so they may meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. The prerequisite for all required internships is the first semester of SF100 Spiritual Formation.

Additional Spiritual Formation courses focusing on leadership may be taken as electives.

THE M.A./CE AND THE D.ED.MIN.

Those wishing to complete the Doctor of Educational Ministry program may need to take some courses in addition to completing the M.A. in Christian Education. Individual evaluations of master’s-level work required for admission to the D.Ed.Min. program in Christian Education may be obtained from the D.Ed.Min. office. Requirements will vary depending on the courses that were included in the M.A./CE program. For more information see the D.Ed.Min. section of this catalog.

² Students have two consecutive semesters to complete the Internship. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

NOTE: Courses can be taken in Wintersession or Summer School to reduce the load during the fall and spring terms.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Arts in Christian Leadership degree is designed to provide graduate-level biblical and theological education to prepare students for organizational leadership roles in a wide variety of ministry settings. The training prepares students to assume leadership positions in church, parachurch, missions, and marketplace contexts.

GOALS
EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• develop a biblical philosophy of Christian leadership.

SPIRITUAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
• develop deep levels of biblical and spiritual integrity in their own personal life, relationships, and ministry.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
• appraise the leadership needs of an organization;
• design a leadership development plan for an organization;
• demonstrate transformational leadership skills within an organization.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-two semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 hours are in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 2 are in Spiritual Life, 3 are in prescribed Christian Education courses, 11 are electives in leadership related courses from the Division of Ministries and Communication, 1 is in Orientation and Research Methods, and 3 hours are in a Servant Leadership Internship. A 2-hour Applied Research Project is also required.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION
Because DTS values character and spiritual maturity, M.A./CL students are required to fulfill a Spiritual Formation requirement during the course of their program. M.A./CL students must contact the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirement.

1. Master of Arts in Christian Leadership (M.A./CL) students now have the option of completing either a three-credit-hour Servant Leadership Internship or the new twelve-credit-hour Ministry Residency. Students selecting the 3-hour internship have one calendar year (three consecutive semesters) to complete it. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

2. Students need one calendar year (three consecutive semesters) to complete the Applied Research Project. See the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership for more information.

NOTE: Courses can be taken in Wintersession or Summer School to reduce the load during the fall and spring terms. M.A./CL students must fulfill a spiritual formation requirement. More information can be obtained from the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries degree is designed to provide graduate-level training for people whose ministries include serving in other cultures. Prospective and veteran missionaries from North America and around the world will benefit from this program. It meets the essential academic requirements of most missions agencies and is ideal for those whose anticipated ministries will not include regular preaching.

GOALS
EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• trace the redemptive purpose of God for the world from Genesis to Revelation;
• verbalize principles of effective intercultural ministry;
• demonstrate familiarity with essential principles of anthropology, ethnology, sociology, and psychology in relation to missions; and
• state pertinent data on the contemporary world scene.

SPIRITUAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
• evidence a deep commitment to world evangelism; and
• evidence an awareness of spiritual conflict and the resources in Christ.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
• communicate the Bible effectively in an intercultural context;
• produce an accurate profile of the chosen country or area of the world; and
• design an effective strategy for an intercultural ministry.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-four semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, and 4 in Spiritual Life and Evangelism. There are 12 hours of prescribed World Missions and Intercultural Studies courses and a 2-hour Intercultural Ministries Internship. The remaining 6 hours are missions electives. Department professors will assist students in designing the most appropriate program of missions electives for each student’s personal career goals.
Missions electives should be selected as follows:

1. Contexts course 2
2. Strategic Approaches course 2 or 3
3. Biblical and Theological Studies course 2 or 3

*If WM405 Christian Education in Intercultural Contexts, WM410 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts, or WM505 Christianity and Non-Christian Religions is elected, students not needing the 3rd hour of those courses for normal program requirements may reduce expenses by taking WM405, WM410, or WM505 for 2 hours of credit and 1 hour of audit. Contact the Registrar’s office for details.

Students are required to do a cross-cultural internship as part of their missions electives before completing the program. The acceptability of this experience is determined by the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership. Those interested in the TESOL certificate must take TESOL courses in addition to missions electives. This will require an additional 10 or 11 hours of coursework.

No thesis is required for the M.A./CM degree.

SPRiritual Formation

Because DTS values character and spiritual maturity, M.A./CM students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups each of their first four consecutive fall and spring semesters at either the Dallas campus or Houston Campus. (M.A./CM students who are not planning to be in residence in Dallas or Houston for four consecutive fall and spring semesters must contact the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirement.)

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of six to eight students focus on identity, community, integrity, and ministry. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with life and ministry. Because students participate in the same group during four consecutive semesters, they should plan their schedules so they may meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. The prerequisite for all required Servant Leadership Internships is the first semester of SF100 Spiritual Formation.

Students wishing to earn a TESOL (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages) certificate must take the following courses in addition to the 6 hours of missions electives. This may require an additional 9–10 hours of coursework.

- WM605 General Linguistics (3)
- WM610 Introduction to TESOL (3)
- WM615 Methodology and Practice of TESOL (3)
- SL205 TESOL Internship (1)

1. Students have two calendar years (four consecutive fall/spring semesters) to complete the SF100 Spiritual Formation requirement. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

2. Missions electives should include a Contexts course (2 hours), a Strategic Approaches course (2 or 3 hours), and a Biblical and Theological Studies course (2 or 3 hours). Students electing the 3-hour courses may be adding hours to the normal requirements for the MA/CM degree. Students not needing the extra hours may reduce expenses by taking WM405, WM110, or WM505 for 2 hours of credit and 1 hour of audit. Contact the Registrar’s office for details.

3. Students have two consecutive semesters to complete the Internship. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

4. TESOL students should consult the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership before planning and registering for SL140 to determine if one hour of SL140 can substitute for the SL205 TESOL internship.
ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

PURPOSE
The Master of Arts in Media Arts and Worship degree program provides graduate-level training for those who desire to integrate a sound biblical and theological education with training and experience in media arts. The program, which assumes the student has some training or experience in the arts, enhances the ministries of worship leaders, writers, and other media practitioners.

GOALS
By the time of graduation, the student will show evidence that he or she is able to:
• communicate biblical and theological knowledge to a contemporary audience;
• articulate an understanding of the role of art in Christian thought and communication;
• demonstrate specialization in writing, presentation, and/or worship arts;
• demonstrate the integration of media arts into effective Christian communication; and
• construct and present a media presentation using effective production principles.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-seven semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Twenty-two of the 67 hours are prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 are prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 2 are in Historical Theology, 2 are in Spiritual Life, 6 are in prescribed Media Arts courses, and 2 are in Media Arts and Worship practica in which the student will develop a professional portfolio, in a field experience context. The remaining 15 hours must be taken in media arts and communication electives, with at least one elective taken in each of the three major program divisions—writing, presentation, and worship—listed below. All electives are taken in consultation with the program adviser.

No thesis is required for the M.A./MW degree.

Writing
MW301 Creative Writing in Ministry (3)
MW302 Writing for Publication (3)

Presentation
NT408 Jesus in the Media (3)
PM103 Expository Preaching I (3)
MW201 Intro. to Audio Broadcasting (3)
MW202 Creative Audio Production for Ministry (3)
MW401 Publishing Layout and Design for Ministry (3)
MW501 Video Production for Ministry (3)
MW504 Teaching Scripture to Change Lives (3)
MW505 Dramatizing Scripture (3)
MW506 Audiovisual Presentations (1)

Worship
BE503 The Psalms and the Worship of God (2)
PM302 Pastoral Theology and Leadership II*
MW701 Intro. to Hymnology (2)
MW702 Intro. to Praise and Worship Music (2)
MW703 Seminar in Worship Arts (2)

Independent Study
MW904 Independent Study in Media Arts (1–4)

*Students may take PM302 for 2 or 3 credit hours.
SPIRITUAL FORMATION
Because DTS values character and spiritual maturity, M.A./MW students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups each of their first four consecutive fall and spring semesters at either the Dallas campus or Houston Campus. (M.A./MW students who are not planning to be in residence in Dallas or Houston for four consecutive fall and spring semesters must contact the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirements.)

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of six to eight students focus on identity, community, integrity, and ministry. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with life and ministry. Since students participate with the same small group during four consecutive semesters, they should plan their schedules so they may meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. The prerequisite for all required Servant Leadership Internships is the first semester of SF100 Spiritual Formation.

1. Students have two calendar years (four consecutive fall/spring semesters) to complete the SF100 Spiritual Formation requirement. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

2. At least one elective must be chosen from each of the three areas of Writing, Presentation, and Worship. (See above for a listing of courses in each category.)

NOTE: Courses can be taken in Wintersession or Summer School to reduce the load during the fall and spring terms.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Master of Arts degree with a major in Biblical Studies is designed to provide a graduate-level biblical and theological foundation for various kinds of Christian service. This degree is designed primarily for lay leaders who desire training for more effective ministry within their church or organization. The M.A.(BS) may also provide supplemental training for those engaged in parachurch ministries or those in support positions with missions agencies or churches. Those who are seeking full preparation for vocational ministry should apply for admission to one of the professional degree programs.

GOALS

EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books; and
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues.

SPIRITUAL GOAL
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
• demonstrate an increasing involvement in the local church or other ministries with which they are associated; and
• minister within a local church or other group by means of leadership skills, evangelism, and service.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Admission requirements and application procedures for the M.A.(BS) are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog). Students generally will not be admitted into this degree program without goals consistent with the ministries for which the program is designed to equip them.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Transfer of up to 30 credit hours is allowed toward the M.A.(BS) program from accredited graduate theological schools. Students must have earned a grade of C or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Sixty-two semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Students may pursue this degree on a year-round basis or during summers. By taking about 12 hours of coursework each summer, students can complete the program in five summers (or four summers if several elective hours in independent study courses are taken between summers of study).
Twenty-four of the 62 hours are prescribed Biblical Studies courses, 18 are prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 2 are in Historical Theology, 4 are in Spiritual Life and Evangelism, 1 is in Orientation and Research Methods, 2 are in Personal Assessment and Ministry Vision, and 3 are in a communications course. Of the remaining 8 elective hours, at least 2 hours must be taken in Christian Education and at least 2 hours in World Missions and Intercultural Studies.

No thesis is required for the M.A.(BS) degree.

All work leading to the M.A.(BS) must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Because DTS values character and spiritual maturity, M.A.(BS) students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups each of their first four consecutive fall and spring semesters. Extension students must contact the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirement.

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of six to eight students focus on identity, community, integrity, and ministry. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with life and ministry.

Because students participate with the same group during four consecutive semesters, they should plan their schedules so they may meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience.

Additional Spiritual Formation courses focusing on leadership may be taken as electives.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the M.A.(BS) degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony. They must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

In addition, students must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in all M.A. programs must also provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the M.A.(BS) degree must have completed 62 hours of coursework with a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.

Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

2. At least 2 hours of electives must be selected from the Department of Christian Education and at least 2 hours from the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. If CE103/104, CE105, or CE450 is taken for the student’s Communications course, the CE elective requirement will have been met.

3. The following courses are approved to meet the Communications course requirement: CE103 Teaching Process (2 hrs.) AND CE104 Audiovisual Presentations (1 hr.), CE105 Teaching Process and Audiovisual Presentations (3 hrs.), CE450 Women Teaching Women (3 hrs.), or an approved PM Communications course (3 hrs.). For more information contact the Student Advising Center.

NOTE: Courses can be taken in Wintersession or Summer School to reduce the load during the fall and spring terms.
PURPOSE
The Chinese language degree program leading to the Master of Arts degree with a major in Christian Studies is designed to provide a graduate-level biblical and theological foundation, primarily through online courses, for various kinds of Christian service in Chinese ministry contexts. This degree is designed primarily for lay leaders who desire training for more effective ministry within their church or organization. The M.A.(CS) may also provide supplemental training for those engaged in parachurch ministries or those in support positions with missions agencies or churches. Those who are seeking full preparation for vocational ministry should apply for admission to one of the Seminary’s professional degree programs.

GOALS

EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues; and
• develop a biblical philosophy of Christian ministry in Chinese contexts.

SPIRITUAL GOAL
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
• design an effective strategy for Chinese ministry;
• communicate biblical and theological knowledge to a contemporary Chinese audience; and
• minister within a local church or other group by means of leadership skills, evangelism, and service.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Admission requirements and application procedures for the M.A.(CS) are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog). Students generally will not be admitted into this degree program without goals consistent with the ministries for which the program is designed to equip them.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Transfer of up to 30 credit hours is allowed toward the M.A.(CS) program from accredited graduate theological schools. Students must have earned a grade of C or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
While most of the courses for the M.A.(CS) can be completed online, a few of the courses are offered as classroom courses. This is to enhance the learning objectives of certain subjects that are best achieved through a live interactive setting. All work leading to the M.A.(CS) must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Credits Committee.
Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Sixty–two semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Students may pursue this degree on a year–round basis. By taking about 12 hours of coursework each year, students can complete the program in five years. Students who do not have prior experience with online courses are encouraged not to take more than one course their first online semester.

Twenty–four of the 62 hours are in prescribed Biblical Studies courses, 18 are in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 5 are in Chinese church and ministry, 5 are in Spiritual Life and Communication, 1 is in Orientation and Research Methods, and 5 are in Christian Education. Students may choose courses suited to their interests and needs for the remaining 4 elective hours.

No thesis is required for the M.A.(CS) degree.

Spiritual Formation

Because DTS values character and spiritual maturity, M.A.(CS) students are required to fulfill a Spiritual Formation requirement during the course of their program. M.A.(CS) students must contact the Online Chinese Studies Department concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirement.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the M.A.(CS) degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony. They must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

In addition, students must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in all M.A. programs must also provide a written statement of faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the M.A.(CS) degree must have completed 62 hours of coursework with a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or student loan program are current.
目的

本文學碩士學位乃是以基督教研究為主修的中文學位課程，其設計旨在透過中文網路課程，在華語環境裡為各種華人基督教事工奉獻人員奠定學士程度的聖經和神學根基。

基督教研究碩士學位的設計主要對象是那些希望得到裝備的平信徒領袖，從而讓他們在教會或機構中的事工更有成效。本碩士學位MA (CS)也為那些從事與教會有關的文教事工，或是參與支持宣教或教會事工的人提供補充性的訓練。至於那些願意尋求為全時間服事做準備的人，應該申請入讀本神學院專業性的學位課程。

目標

教育目標
旨在使學生能夠：
• 瞭解聖經的一般知識，包括對主要書卷的綜合性理解；
• 認識神學在歷史中的發展，了解千年禧年神學觀的神學立場，有能力支持他們的神學觀點，並將其應用於當代的問題；
• 在中華文化的情境內，開發符合聖經原則的基督教事工理念。

屬靈目標
• 讓學生能效法基督，表現在對神的愛，對他人的愛，以及結出聖靈的果子。

事工目標
旨在使學生能夠：
• 為中文事工設計出有效的策略；
• 向講中文之聽眾溝通聖經和神學的知識；
• 通過學習領導、佈道和事奉等能力，在地方教會或其它團體服事。

入學要求

MA (CS)的入學要求和申請程序，與在神學院修讀的其他學科相同（參本手冊的招生部分）。任何申請人的生涯目標若與本學位設計主旨不符，一般情況下不會被錄取。

轉學分

MA (CS)學位最多可以轉30個學分，但學分必須轉自認證合格的碩士水平的神學院。若轉學分，學生的成績必須是C或高於C，才予以考慮。在該校所修的學分是否可轉，或是轉到另一所學校，需由接收學校來裁定。關於轉學分的資格，請查詢註冊組主任辦公室。

住讀要求

雖然本學位大多數的課程可以通過網路完成，但有一些課程的要求需在傳統課堂裡完成。此舉是為了提高某些學科的學習，授課教師認為這些教學目標最好是通過傳統課堂現場的互動來完成。MA (CS) 所有的課業要求，必須要在入學後的七年內完成。期滿的延長需要學分委員會的批准。退學後要復學，需要經過招生委員會認可，對學位完成可能會有額外的要求。

課程要求

畢業的最低要求是完成62個學分的課程學習。學生可以在全年學習的基礎上努力達到這一目標。學生若能每兩年修讀12個學分，可以在五年內完成本學位。學生若未曾有通過網路學習的經驗，在第一網路學期最好只修讀一門課程。

在62個學分中，學生必須修讀24個聖經研究學分及18個系統神學學分，5個學分的華人教會與事工，另外5個學分為靈命塑造和溝通藝術，1個學分的研究方法，加上5個學分的基督教教育。其餘4個學分為選修課，學生可以選擇適合自己興趣和需要的課程。

M.A. (CS)學位沒有論文要求。

靈命塑造
由於達拉斯神學院看重學生的品格和靈性上的成熟，MA（CS）的學生在修讀期間必須參與靈命塑造小組。請聯繫中文網絡課程部，查詢如何達到靈命塑造方面的要求。

錄取為畢業生候選人
在授予學位或學生參加畢業典禮之前的春季或秋季學期，學生可以經教師團推薦被接納為MA（CS）的候選人。他們的平均成績必須不低於2.0。

此外，學生必須要證明，在教師滿意的情況下，擁有成熟的基督徒品格，持守以下的教義：聖經的權威和無誤、三位一體、基督完全的神性和人性、人類屬靈的失喪、基督的替代性贖罪和身體的復活、救恩唯靠相信基督，以及基督帶著身體再來。所有M.A.碩士科的學生，還必須提供一份定期聚會證明，由學生所定期參加的當地教會出具書面證明。

錄取為畢業生候選人的有效期為一年。學生在被錄取成為候選人之後，若因故延遲接受學位或學生參加畢業典禮直到次年春季，就需要重新申請被錄取為畢業生候選人。

畢業要求
畢業生候選人必須完成總計62學分所有課程，總平均成績必須不低於2.0，學業表現讓教師滿意的情況下，在基督徒品格成熟與持守校方教義立場各方面都足證符合畢業資格。

畢業生必須在學生貸款等財務問題處理妥善後才能領取畢業文憑(或證書)及成績單。

The Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies (C.B.T.S.) is the new name for Dallas Theological Seminary’s Certificate of Graduate Studies (C.G.S.). The new nomenclature reflects more accurately the content of the Certificate. The Seminary also offers the Certificate online in Chinese, and has chosen to retain the C.G.S. nomenclature for the Chinese version of the certificate program. More information on the C.G.S. in Chinese can be found at the end of this section.

PURPOSE
The Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies (C.B.T.S.) provides a flexible course of study for:

• Christian laypersons who desire a short program of seminary studies to equip them for effective ministry in the local church or elsewhere;
• those who wish to begin seminary studies on a trial basis to help them determine if they desire to pursue a degree program;
• Christian workers with limited time available for seminary studies (those who intend to enter a professional ministry are encouraged to apply for admission to one of the master’s-level degree programs);
• missionary candidates who anticipate service in nonprofessional ministries whose mission board requires graduate study in Bible and theology;
• college graduates who want a year of seminary studies as a supplement to their undergraduate work; and
• spouses of current DTS students who want to complete a program of graduate seminary studies.

GOALS

EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible; and
• evidence a general knowledge of premillennial theology and an ability to support their theological views.

SPIRITUAL GOAL
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

MINISTRY GOAL
To enable students to evidence an interest and involvement in the local church or other ministries with which they are associated.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission requirements and application procedures for the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies program are the same as for all programs of study at the Seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog).

In a few cases applicants without a bachelor’s degree may be admitted, but such applicants must demonstrate both maturity and adequate educational background. Contact the Admissions office for further details.
Graduates of this certificate program normally are not recommended by the Alumni and Church Relations office for ministry placement. Students in the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies program are classified as nondegree students.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Thirty hours of coursework are required, consisting of 9 hours in Bible Exposition, 9 hours in Systematic Theology, 2 hours in Pastoral Ministries, and 10 hours of electives. Students are able to take up to 6 additional hours beyond the designated 30 hours without needing to apply to a degree program. Flexibility in the Bible and theology courses and in the 10 hours of electives allows students to select courses suited to their particular interests and needs. Many, if not all, of these courses may be completed online. Contact the Admissions office or Registrar’s office for more information.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of up to 6 credit hours from accredited graduate theological schools is allowed toward the Certificate of Graduate Studies.

Students normally must have earned a grade of C or better (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) in order to be eligible to transfer a course from another institution to DTS. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for further information.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

Of the 30 semester hours of coursework required for graduation, a minimum of 24 must be taken through DTS.

All work leading to the certificate normally must be completed within five years from the time of matriculation. Extension requires approval by the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the certificate.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the C.B.T.S. in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony after these requirements have been met: (1) grade point average of at least 2.0; (2) evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, of proven Christian character; and (3) adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in the C.B.T.S. program must also provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in Seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.
Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
To receive the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies students must have completed 30 semester hours of coursework with a grade point average of at least 2.0; evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character; and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section above.

Certificates will not be released or transcripts issued unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or the student loan program are current.

C.B.T.S. COMPLETION FOR NONGRADUATE ALUMNI
Qualified nongraduate alumni may apply to complete the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies at a reduced tuition rate. The program requires readmission to the Seminary and completion of all remaining C.B.T.S. requirements. Interested alumni will need to complete at least one course the semester before graduation, even if all other requirements have been previously met.

For more information, contact the Alumni or Admissions office.

C.G.S. IN CHINESE
The Certificate of Graduate Studies (C.G.S.) in Chinese is the online Chinese version of the Seminary’s Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies (C.B.T.S.). Interested students may earn a C.G.S. in Chinese through the Seminary’s Chinese Online Studies program. More information on online courses in Chinese is available in the Online Education section of this catalog under Special Programs and Sessions.
PurposE
The Doctor of Educational Ministry degree program is designed to provide advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented educational ministry to those actively involved in vocational or bivocational educational ministry. The program concentrates on developing expertise in the biblical rationale, sociological strategy, and practical implementation of those ministries.

The Doctor of Educational Ministry degree is the highest professional degree for those engaged in local church and parachurch ministries, world missions, and similar educational ministries. (The Ph.D. degree, by comparison, purposes primarily to equip students to engage in scholarly research and teaching.) The D.Ed.Min. program is offered “in ministry” rather than “in residence,” as it assumes students will remain in ministry throughout the program and does not require them to relocate to Dallas. It normally requires a minimum of three years of meaningful ministry experience prior to admission to the program. Each course assumes this ministry experience and endeavors to integrate learning with the student’s present context of ministry as well as future goals.

One of the most inviting features of the D.Ed.Min. at Dallas is that the curriculum is designed with a high degree of flexibility. Of the 36 hours of coursework required for the degree, at least 15 hours are provided for students to customize their programs to their own ministry goals. Additionally, 3 hours are granted for the student’s applied research project, and 3 hours are given to directed reading leading to a literature review the student reports in the dissertation project.

Goals
Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• evaluate personal, spiritual, and professional development;
• chart a course for lifelong learning and improvement;
• assess and construct educational ministries from a biblical theology applied in a variety of contemporary contexts;
• conduct applied research of professional, doctoral-level breadth and depth within their chosen field of study; and
• articulate and promote evangelical theology in the practice of ministry.

Spiritual Goal
To enable students to manifest a maturing and Spirit-filled character.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• enhance identified ministerial skills such as teaching, counseling, leadership, administration, vision-casting, educational programming, and communication;
• communicate God’s Word effectively through verbal communication, writing, or other media;
• lead and manage an educational ministry organization competently;
• work successfully and ethically with people in a variety of ministry situations;
• provide the framework for developing a biblical ministry in a culturally and ethnically diverse context; and
• demonstrate excellence in character and in ministry.
ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
The D.Ed.Min. program admits men and women who show evidence that they (1) are born again; (2) are of proven Christian character; (3) are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and (4) adhere to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

In addition, the following prerequisites apply to D.Ed.Min. applicants.

All applicants must:
• normally have at least three years of vocational or bivocational Christian ministry experience since receiving their first graduate theological degree;
• give evidence of growth and competence in educational ministerial skills and leadership;
• be involved in an ongoing educational ministry (including lay ministry);
• have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies; and
• hold a Dallas Theological Seminary’s Master of Arts in Christian Education (M.A./CE) or its equivalent, Master of Divinity (M.Div.), Master of Theology (Th.M.), or a Master of Arts (M.A.) degree plus leveling courses as necessary to provide DTS M.A./CE equivalence.

Courses needed to meet the DTS M.A./CE equivalence requirements must cover the breadth and scope of DTS’s curriculum and commitment to Scripture as prescribed by the D.Min./D.Ed.Min. office and the registrar’s office. Courses required for M.A./CE equivalence may be earned at DTS, its extension sites, through external studies programs, or other accredited institutions. For more information on M.A./CE equivalence, please contact the Doctor of Ministry office or the registrar’s office.

Applicants must supply the requisite written admission materials and must have a personal or phone interview with members of the faculty. Prospective D.Ed.Min. students may apply for admission at any time. The deadline for the summer seminar is February 15, and for the winter seminar, August 15. Further details on admission requirements and procedures are available from the Admissions office.

D.ED.MIN. PROGRAM OVERVIEW
The Doctor of Educational Ministry program generally follows a standard model in which students, in consultation with their adviser, design and customize their degree plan around individual ministry needs and goals. Some emphases follow a cohort model. In the cohort model, students proceed through the courses necessary for their emphasis with a small group of ministry colleagues. This group moves through the designated part of the program together. The cohort model has the advantage of providing a community experience with fellow learners and faculty mentors.

COHORT EMPHASES
The Doctor of Educational Ministry is designed to equip students for greater ministry effectiveness in church and parachurch educational leadership roles. Ministry leaders can concentrate their individualized plan of study in church education, ministry to children, youth or adult ministry, roles as associate pastors or ministry directors, educational administration, camp ministry, women’s ministry, or they may customize their own concentration. The D.Ed.Min. also offers the following cohort emphases.

- Marriage and Family Ministry
  This cohort-based emphasis explores biblical and theological foundations, cutting-edge programs, and ministry education strategies. Certification in the use of research-based tools for marriage and family educators will be included. A major focus will be to design sustainable, context-specific marriage and family ministries, particularly in the church.

- Spiritual Formation
  This cohort-based emphasis provides advanced training in Christian spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. Special attention will be given to the theology and history of Christian spirituality, personal and corporate practices of spiritual formation, and the process of providing spiritual nurture and guidance to others. This cohort-based program will further provide advanced study on topics related to the history and practice of soul care, spiritual direction, and spiritual formation in small groups.

- Women in Ministry
  This cohort-based Christian Education program provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for women. It is designed to support and promote the complementary role of men and women in ministry.

NATIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

Presently, the following two national certification programs are offered for D.Ed. Min. students in cooperation with partnership organizations. Contact the D.Min./D.Ed.Min. and Counseling offices for more information.

- Christian Conciliator, Peacemaker Ministries
- Sexual Educator, Institute of Sexual Wholeness

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The D.Ed.Min. program requires 36 semester hours of coursework (which includes from 30 to 33 hours of prescribed and elective courses and from 3 to 6 hours of independent study courses) plus a 3-hour applied research project related to the student’s ministry. The program normally requires at least four years of study.

Normally, three prescribed courses must be taken by all D.Ed.Min. students: DM101 The Ministry Leader, DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar, and DM103 The Applied Research Project. Some cohorts fuse the leadership and/or research components into the selected cohort. In addition, students normally complete at least one independent study course. DM901 Independent Study.

Course descriptions for these and other D.Ed. Min. courses may be found in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All courses are six months in length and include one or two weeks of residence in either January or July. During the presresident months, students read and interact with course material. After the course meets for the resident week, students complete assignments that are appropriate for their ministry. DTS alumni are allowed to audit the resident portion of a course as space permits. Registration for summer D.Ed.Min. courses must be completed by March 15, and registration for winter D.Ed.Min. courses must be completed by September 15. Electives in the various areas of concentration are listed in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All work leading to the Doctor of Educational Ministry degree must be completed in no less than three and no more than six years from the time of matriculation. A minimal grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the applied research project.

Additional information on D.Ed.Min. policies and procedures is given in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook, which is available on the DTS website.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of up to 10 hours of doctoral-level credit may be applied toward the D.Ed.Min. degree if those hours constitute equivalent work. Normally only courses taken after receiving an M.A., M.Div., Th.M., S.T.M., or equivalent degree can be credited toward the D.Ed.Min. degree. Requests for transfer of credit should be sent to the director of D.Min./D.Ed.Min. studies. Plans to take other courses for transfer credit must be approved by the D.Min./D.Ed.Min. committee prior to taking the course.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy for the D.Ed.Min. degree by action of the faculty only after these requirements have been met: (1) completion of all residency requirements leading to the degree; (2) the satisfactory completion of a minimum of 21 semester hours of coursework; (3) evidence of proven
Christian character; (4) effectiveness in Christian ministry; and (5) adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students applying to candidacy for the D.Ed. Min. degree must also provide a written letter of reference from the local church or organization where the student is serving, endorsing the student’s ministry.

Students must be admitted to candidacy before they can register for DM103 The Applied Research Project. Three of the 6 hours that remain for completion of the degree can be taken concurrently with DM103 (3 hours).

APPLIED RESEARCH PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

The applied research project is the student’s major research project in the degree program. It must be directly related to his or her ministry and must make a significant contribution to the field of professional ministry as well as to the student’s personal life. The project normally should deal with some aspect of educational ministry related to communication, administration, nurture, or program leadership. The length is to be appropriate for the subject as judged by the student’s advisers.

If the applied research project is not completed within the first year after enrolling in DM103, then the student will be required to register for DM105 Applied Research Continuation each summer and winter term until project completion.

Details on the procedures and deadlines for the topic approval, proposal, and first and final drafts of the applied research project are available in the Doctor of Ministry office as well as in the D.Ed.Min. handbook.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the D.Ed.Min. degree must have completed 36 semester hours of coursework and the 3-hour applied research project along with any other requirements that may have been assigned. The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify a student for the degree. The candidate must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the previous Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or the student loan program are current.

  – a minimum of 90 semester hours of credit (80 hours for selected DTS master’s degrees) and – four semesters of Greek and two semesters of Hebrew. (If a student has only three semesters of Greek, he or she may take ID201 Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis in lieu of the fourth semester of Greek. For selected DTS master’s degrees the student needs only ID201 Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis in lieu of Greek and Hebrew.)

Credits needed to meet M.Div. equivalence requirements must cover the breadth and scope of DTS’s curriculum and commitment to Scripture as prescribed by the D.Min. office and the Registrar’s office. D.MIN. PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Doctor of Ministry program offers two tracks of study: Ministry Leadership and Spanish Ministry Leadership. Students may select different emphases within each of the two tracks. While the D.Min. program generally follows a standard model in which students, in consultation with their adviser, design and customize their degree plan around individual ministry needs and goals, some emphases follow a cohort model. In the cohort model, students proceed through the courses necessary for their emphasis with a small group of ministry colleagues. This group moves through the designated part of the program together. The cohort model has the advantage of providing a community experience with fellow learners and faculty mentors.

MINISTRY LEADERSHIP TRACK

The Ministry Leadership track is designed to equip students for greater ministry effectiveness in their respective areas of leadership. Ministry leaders can concentrate their individualized plan of study in Church Planting, Expository Preaching, Pastoral Leadership, Marriage and Family, Urban Ministries, or customize their own concentration. The Ministry Leadership track also offers the following cohort emphases.
• Advanced Expository Preaching
  This emphasis provides advanced training in the art and discipline of expository preaching as practiced in a church context. This specialty will reaffirm and refine the principles of homiletics. The courses will also address leading from the pulpit, long-range sermon planning, and preaching the major biblical genres with accuracy and creativity. This cohort-based program will further provide advanced study in audience analysis, variety in sermon structures, mentoring in homiletics and preaching to the post-modern generation. Key aspects of this cohort specialty are peer group interactive learning and individual mentoring in homiletics.

• Church Health, Leadership, and Multiplication
  This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for church pastors and church planters. It focuses on an evaluation of problems, programs, and/or procedures unique to church leaders through case–study methodology, with special attention given to church health, leadership development, and ministry multiplication.

• Executive/Associate Pastors
  This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for executive and associate pastors serving in the local church. This training specialty supports and promotes pastoral leadership development through the evaluation of problems, programs, and/or procedures unique to executive and associate church leaders. Attention is given to leadership development and case–study research method.

• Large Church Pastors
  This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for pastors serving in large churches. It is designed to support and promote pastoral leadership development through the evaluation of problems, programs, and/or procedures unique to pastors of large churches. Attention is given to leadership development and case–study research method.

• Multicultural Ministry
  This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for multicultural church leaders serving the local church and parachurch organizations. This cohort program is designed to help ministry leaders through a study of the principles, leadership issues, challenges, and opportunities uniquely confronting multicultural church leaders with the goal of helping students take their ministry to the next level. Attention is given to leadership development and case–study research method. This cohort is hosted at the DTS Houston Campus.

• Marriage and Family Ministry
  This emphasis explores biblical and theological foundations, cutting edge programs, and ministry education strategies. Certification in the use of research–based tools for marriage and family educators will be included. A major focus will be to design sustainable, context–specific marriage and family ministries, particularly in the church.

• Spiritual Formation
  This emphasis provides advanced training in Christian spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. Special attention will be given to the theology and history of Christian spirituality, personal and corporate practices of spiritual formation, and the process of providing spiritual nurture and guidance to others. This cohort-based program will further provide advanced study on such topics related to the history and practice of soul care, spiritual direction, and spiritual formation in small groups.

• Women in Ministry
  This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for women. It is designed to support and promote the complementary role of men and women in ministry.

SPANISH MINISTRY LEADERSHIP TRACK

The Spanish Ministry Leadership track is designed to equip Spanish–speaking students for greater ministry effectiveness in their respective areas of leadership. This program of study is offered on the campus of Seminario Teológico Centroamericano (SETECA) in Guatemala City for leaders in Latin America, Spain, North America, and elsewhere. Spanish ministry leaders can concentrate their individualized plan of study in Church Planting, Expository Preaching, Pastoral Leadership, Marriage and Family, Urban Ministries, or customize their own concentration.

D.MIN. EXTENSION PROGRAMS

The Seminary offers D.Min. classes in three locations outside the Dallas area: Guatemala City, Guatemala; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Houston, Texas. These extension sites are designed to provide greater access to D.Min. studies for interested students.

The D.Min. extension in Guatemala City is the Seminary’s Spanish language D.Min. program for leaders in Latin America, Spain, North America, and elsewhere. It is offered on the DOCTOR OF MINISTRY (D.MIN.)

The D.Min. program requires 27 semester hours of coursework (which includes from 21 to 24 hours of prescribed and elective courses and from 3 to 6 hours of independent study courses) plus a 3-hour applied research project related to the student’s ministry. The program normally requires at least four years of study.

Normally, three prescribed courses must be taken by all D.Min. students: DM101 The Ministry Leader, DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar, and DM103 The Applied Research Project. Some cohorts fuse the leadership and/or research components into the selected cohort. In addition, students normally complete at least one independent study course, DM901 Independent Study. Course descriptions for these and other D.Min. courses may be found in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All courses are six months in length and include one or two weeks of residence in either January or July. Classes meet on the main campus, the Houston campus, or at the Guatemala or the Philadelphia Extension sites. (See the Special Programs and Sessions section for more information on these two sites.) During the prereatent months, students read and interact with course material. After the course meets for the resident week, students complete assignments that are appropriate for their ministry. DTS alumni are allowed to audit the resident portion of a course as space permits. Registration for summer D.Min. courses must be completed by March 15, and registration for winter D.Min. courses must be completed by September 15. Electives in the various areas of concentration are listed in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All work leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree must be completed in no less than three and no more than six years from the time of matriculation. A minimal grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the applied research project.

Additional information on D.Min. policies and procedures is given in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook, which is available on the DTS website.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of up to 10 hours of doctoral-level credit may be applied toward the D.Min. degree if those hours constitute equivalent work. Normally only courses taken after receiving an M.A., M.Div., Th.M., S.T.M., or equivalent degree can be credited toward the D.Min. degree. Requests for transfer of credit should be directed to the director of D.Min. studies. Plans to take other courses for transfer credit must be approved by the D.Min. committee prior to taking the course.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

Students may be admitted to candidacy for the D.Min. degree by action of the faculty only after these requirements have been met: (1) completion of all residence requirements leading to the degree; (2) the satisfactory completion of a minimum of 21 semester hours of coursework; (3) evidence of proven Christian character; (4) effectiveness in Christian

NATIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

Presently, two national certification programs are offered for D.Min. students in cooperation with partnership organizations. Contact the D.Min. and Counseling offices for more information.

1. Christian Conciliator, Peacemaker Ministries
2. Sexual Educator, Institute of Sexual Wholeness

Course Requirements

The D.Min. program requires 27 semester hours of coursework (which includes from 21 to 24 hours of prescribed and elective courses and from 3 to 6 hours of independent study courses) plus a 3-hour applied research project related to the student’s ministry. The program normally requires at least four years of study.

Normally, three prescribed courses must be taken by all D.Min. students: DM101 The Ministry Leader, DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar, and DM103 The Applied Research Project. Some cohorts fuse the leadership and/or research components into the selected cohort. In addition, students normally complete at least one independent study course, DM901 Independent Study. Course descriptions for these and other D.Min. courses may be found in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All courses are six months in length and include one or two weeks of residence in either January or July. Classes meet on the main campus, the Houston campus, or at the Guatemala or the Philadelphia Extension sites. (See the Special Programs and Sessions section for more information on these two sites.) During the prereatent months, students read and interact with course material. After the course meets for the resident week, students complete assignments that are appropriate for their ministry. DTS alumni are allowed to audit the resident portion of a course as space permits. Registration for summer D.Min. courses must be completed by March 15, and registration for winter D.Min. courses must be completed by September 15. Electives in the various areas of concentration are listed in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All work leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree must be completed in no less than three and no more than six years from the time of matriculation. A minimal grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the applied research project.

Additional information on D.Min. policies and procedures is given in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook, which is available on the DTS website.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT

Transfer of up to 10 hours of doctoral-level credit may be applied toward the D.Min. degree if those hours constitute equivalent work. Normally only courses taken after receiving an M.A., M.Div., Th.M., S.T.M., or equivalent degree can be credited toward the D.Min. degree. Requests for transfer of credit should be directed to the director of D.Min. studies. Plans to take other courses for transfer credit must be approved by the D.Min. committee prior to taking the course.

ministry; and (5) adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students applying to candidacy for the D.Min. degree must also provide a written letter of reference from the local church or organization where the student is serving, endorsing the student’s ministry.

Students must be admitted to candidacy before they can register for DM103 The Applied Research Project. Six of the 9 hours that remain for completion of the degree can be taken concurrently with DM103 (3 hours).

APPLIED RESEARCH PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

The applied research project is the student’s major research project in the degree program. It must be directly related to his or her ministry and must make a significant contribution to the field of professional ministry as well as to the student’s personal life. The project normally should deal with some aspect of communication, administration, nurture, leadership, or Christian education. The length is to be appropriate for the subject as judged by the student’s advisers.

If the applied research project is not completed within the first year after enrolling in DM103, then the student will be required to register for DM105 Applied Research Continuation each summer and winter term until project completion.

Details on the procedures and deadlines for the topic approval, proposal, and first and final drafts of the applied research project are available in the Doctor of Ministry office as well as in the D.Min. Handbook.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for the D.Min. degree must have completed 27 semester hours of coursework and the 3-hour applied research project along with any other requirements that may have been assigned. The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify a student for the degree. The candidate must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the previous Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or the student loan program are current.
PURPOSE
The program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree is designed for those who are capable of doing research at the highest level, with a view to becoming scholars and educational leaders in various fields of Christian ministry.

GOALS
EDUCATIONAL GOALS
To enable students to:
• do in-depth research in both primary and secondary sources relating to their chosen field of study;
• understand and critique the major issues in their chosen field and the main views on those issues; and
• articulate conservative, evangelical theology.

SPIRITUAL GOAL
To enable students to manifest a maturing and Spirit-filled character.

MINISTRY GOALS
To enable students to:
• demonstrate ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; and
• communicate effectively through one or more of the following: preaching, teaching, evangelism, and writing.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Applicants must 1) hold or be completing the final semester of coursework for the Master of Divinity degree (M.Div.), Master of Theology degree (Th.M.), or Master of Sacred Theology (S.T.M.) degree; 2) have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability; 3) complete the Personality Inventory (arranged through Student Services); 4) satisfactorily pass a written examination in the field of their intended major and an oral examination of their Christian experience, scholarship, theology, achievement, and purpose; and 5) show evidence that they:
• have saving faith in Christ;
• are of proven Christian character;
• are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and
• adhere to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Applications for the doctoral program must be received by the Admissions office by January 1 for admission the following fall semester or by September 1 for admission the following spring semester. Supporting materials (e.g., references, transcripts) must be received by January 15 and September 15, respectively. The completed applications are then considered by the Ph.D. Studies Committee for preliminary acceptance.

Depending on their prior academic preparation, students enter the Ph.D. program either at Stage 1 or Stage 2. Applicants entering at Stage 1 must have attained a bachelor’s degree (B.A., B.S., etc.)
and the Master of Divinity degree (M.Div.) or their educational equivalents. For purposes of admission to Stage 1 of the Ph.D. program, an M.Div. degree is understood to be a minimum of three years of full-time study (approximately 90 semester hours). Applicants must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies. In the absence of a master’s thesis, applicants must provide a research paper previously written at the master’s level that shows an acceptable level of competency in research and writing. After completing Stage 1, applicants must complete requirements for entrance into Stage 2.

Applicants entering at Stage 2, in addition to the bachelor’s degree and the M.Div. degree, must have attained the Master of Theology degree (Th.M.) or Master of Sacred Theology degree (S.T.M.) or their educational equivalents. For purposes of admission to Stage 2 of the Ph.D. program, the Th.M. or S.T.M. degree must be a minimum of one year of full-time study (approximately 30 semester hours), or in the case of DTS graduates, the four-year Th.M. degree. Applicants entering at Stage 2 must give evidence either by transcript or by examination of at least two years of study in biblical Hebrew and two-and-a-half years of study in New Testament Greek. Any deficiencies in these areas must be made up without credit in the Ph.D. program. Applicants must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies. Applicants must also present an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies. In the absence of a master’s thesis, applicants must provide a research paper previously written at the master’s level that shows an acceptable level of competency in research and writing. After completing Stage 2, the student must pass the Ph.D. written and oral qualifying exams.

Stage 1 courses are master’s-level courses with increased requirements consistent with the demands of doctoral study.

Thesis in major 9

Stage 2 requirements for all doctoral students are as follows.

All Biblical Studies majors are required to take 9 hours of coursework in designated divisional courses. Students must take BS1001 Old Testament Backgrounds (3 hours), BS1002 New Testament Backgrounds (2 hours), BS1003 Hermeneutics (3 hours), and BS1004 Research Procedures (1 hour). In addition to these required divisional courses, students in Biblical Studies also must satisfy the requirements of their concentration, whether Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, or Bible Exposition.

The following guidelines for completion of elective courses apply.
• Each student is required to take two electives outside the concentration but within the Biblical Studies division—one from each of the two departments in which he or she is not concentrating. These courses are selected in consultation with the respective departments and with consideration of the student’s background and needs. At the student’s request, exceptions to this requirement may be considered jointly by the department coordinators in the Biblical Studies division.

• Remaining elective hours should be selected in consultation with the student’s departmental adviser.

For a concentration in Old Testament Studies, students must take OT1001 Old Testament Criticism (2 hours), OT1002 Historical Hebrew Grammar (2 hours), OT1003 Advanced Old Testament Biblical Theology (2 hours), and two of the following three exegetical courses: OT1004 Exegesis in the Torah (3 hours), OT1005 Exegesis in the Prophets (3 hours), and OT1006 Exegesis in the Writings (3 hours). Students also must take either OT2020 Introduction to Akkadian (3 hours) or OT2030 Readings in Ugaritic (2 hours), 8 to 9 hours of electives, and OT1008 Old Testament Dissertation (3 hours). See the following chart for further details.

Doctoral students are required to demonstrate ability to read scholarly French and German. Information on the dates when the examinations in these languages must be taken is given in the Doctor of Philosophy Handbook.

Only courses taken after receiving the prerequisite degree (M.Div., Th.M., or S.T.M.) can be credited toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Normally work done in other institutions may not be credited toward Stage 2 of the Ph.D. degree. A minimum grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the dissertation.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
The program normally includes at least three years of study, a minimum two years of which must be spent in residence. All work leading to the Ph.D. degree must be completed within eight years from the time of matriculation.

S.T.M. COMPLETION
Students who fail the qualifying exams on completion of Stage I of the Ph.D. program, may choose to complete the S.T.M. degree by finishing any requirements that remain for that degree (see the S.T.M. degree program section of this catalog). In most cases, this will require only 6 more hours of coursework. (This assumes that students have completed the 26 hours of coursework required for Stage I of the Ph.D. program, since the S.T.M. degree requires 32 hours for completion.) The additional 6 hours should be taken in the following segments: 3 hours in Communications, 2 hours in Theological Studies (if the major is Biblical Studies) or 2 hours in Biblical Studies (if the major is Theological Studies), and 1 hour of Servant Leadership Internship. Students must also have completed coursework in soteriology and eschatology in their master’s program.

Students may transfer a maximum of 6 hours into the S.T.M. program, even if additional transfer was considered toward Stage I requirements of the Ph.D. program. Additional information on S.T.M. completion is available from the Advising Center.

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY
Students may be admitted to candidacy for the Ph.D. degree by action of the faculty only after: (1) completing all residence requirements leading to the degree; (2) passing written and oral examinations in the fields within the major; (3) meeting foreign language requirements; and (4) evidencing, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability, and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students in the Ph.D. program also must provide a written letter of church involvement from the local church the student has regularly attended while in Seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

DISSERTATION REQUIREMENTS
Students must register for and complete a dissertation of between 50,000 and 75,000 words on an approved subject. Details on the procedures and deadlines for the dissertation subject proposal, syllabus, first and final drafts, and oral defense are given in the Doctor of Philosophy Handbook.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Candidates in the Ph.D. program must have completed 61 semester hours of coursework (35 for students entering with a Th.M. or S.T.M. degree), including dissertation and any other requirements that may have been assigned.

The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify students for the degree. They must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the Seminary and/or the student loan program are current.
“I learned at DTS much more than just learning or studying the Bible. I learned to experience the Bible. This personal relationship between teacher and student really impacted my ministry.”

EXTENSION LOCATIONS AND DEGREE PROGRAMS
In an effort to serve students who cannot attend classes on the Dallas campus, DTS offers classes at seven extension sites. The External Studies mission is twofold: (1) to deliver a DTS education to those who cannot study at the Dallas campus, and (2) to encourage extension students, at the right time, to migrate to the Dallas or Houston campus for degree programs not offered in full at the other extension sites.

Dallas Theological Seminary offers the following certificates and degrees at the following extensions:

• Atlanta, Georgia
  Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies, M.A. in Christian Leadership, M.A. (Biblical Studies)

• Austin, Texas
  Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies, M.A. in Christian Leadership, M.A. (Biblical Studies)

• Guatemala City, Guatemala
  D.Min.

• Houston, Texas

• Knoxville, Tennessee
  Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies, M.A. in Christian Leadership, M.A. (Biblical Studies)

• Langhorne, Pennsylvania
  D.Min.

• San Antonio, Texas
  Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies, M.A. in Christian Leadership, M.A. (Biblical Studies)

• Tampa, Florida
  Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies, M.A. in Christian Leadership, M.A. (Biblical Studies)

The Seminary also offers courses at McLean Bible Church in Manassas, Virginia (Washington, D.C. extension), but is not yet authorized by its accrediting agencies to offer complete degrees at this location. However, the Seminary is in the process of gaining approval to offer the complete C.B.T.S., M.A.(BS), and M.A./CL at this site. More information on current course offerings and limitations at this location is available from the External Studies office.

Courses toward the Doctor of Ministry degree (D.Min.) are offered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Seminary also offers the complete D.Min. degree in Spanish in Guatemala City, Guatemala.
COURSE OFFERINGS
Courses taught at the extension sites are identical to those offered on the Dallas campus. Courses required in the M.A. (BS) program are available during a two- to four-year schedule of rotation at the extensions. Some Bible, theology, and practical ministry courses also can be applied to other degree programs.

Extension classes take place on weekends and/or evenings, facilitating study for those already involved in full-time ministry or other vocations. During the fall and spring semesters, most classes can be completed in four weekends with a Friday night and all-day Saturday schedule (once per month during the regular four-month semester). Summer classes follow a more intensive format, with classes generally held over four weekends, Friday night and all day Saturday, during June and July. Additionally some classes are offered once a week in the evenings during the fall and spring semesters.

Residency status for extension students varies by program and extension location. Additional information on residency and other matters related to the Seminary’s extensions is also available from the External Studies office by phone, 800-DTS-WORD (800-387-9673), ext. 3781; by email (external_studies@dts.edu); or by visiting the Seminary’s website (www.dts.edu/es).

Tusculum College at Knoxville (1305 Centrepoint Blvd., Knoxville, TN 37932) is the site for Dallas Theological Seminary courses conducted at the Knoxville extension. The classroom used for DTS courses is housed in one of Tusculum College at Knoxville’s educational building, has a maximum occupancy of 32, and is equipped with the following educational equipment: chairs, table-desk, digital projector, overhead projector, screen, DVD/CD player, speakers, a personal computer, and dry erase board. All equipment is owned and maintained by Tusculum College at Knoxville.

D.MIN. COURSE OFFERINGS
Courses taught in Houston and Philadelphia are the same courses taught on the Dallas campus and follow the same schedule as Dallas campus courses. Students may not complete the D.Min. degree program through the Philadelphia Extension. Courses in the Spanish-language D.Min. program also follow the same schedule as other D.Min. courses, but are taught in Spanish.

Contact the Doctor of Ministry office for more information on courses offered in Houston, Philadelphia, and Guatemala.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
The application process and admission requirements for the extension programs are the same for all degree programs (see the Admission section of this catalog). Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Admissions office at 800-3-DALLAS (800-332-5527).
Online education at DTS is primarily designed to allow students to take graduate-level credit courses equivalent to the courses offered in the classroom at DTS that may apply toward a degree program at the Dallas campus or any DTS extension. Online courses are ideal for students who wish to continue study while serving on short-term missions trips or to help balance education with life responsibilities, such as work and family. Also, by receiving graduate-level preparation through online courses, students may supplement their current vocations and serve better their families, churches, or communities.

While you cannot complete a full degree program online, you can complete the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies online. You can take up to 30 total semester hours toward your degree program online.

ELEMENTS OF AN ONLINE COURSE

All of the elements necessary for truly life-changing theological education are present in our online format: instruction from world-class faculty, challenging assignments, and a community experience. Online courses are structured in a very similar format to traditional classroom learning. Courses are arranged in units (usually one to three weeks in length) and students are assigned a series of tasks to accomplish before the end of each unit. These tasks include reading, watching video clips of previously captured lecture material, completing and posting written assignments to the online platform, offering feedback on fellow students’ work, and participating in class discussions in an online-forum setting.

Online courses provide flexibility but are not independent studies. They do not meet at a certain time in a given day, but during a given period of days for a particular unit. Like any course, there are due dates for unit tasks. However, there is flexibility for viewing lecture materials within each unit.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

There are three technical requirements for DTS online education. First, you must have access to a high-speed Internet connection to view streaming video segments. Second, you must have access to a computer using a Windows, Mac, or Linux operating system. DTS’s online education player will work on most browsers (Google Chrome, Internet Explorer, Firefox, Safari, Opera, etc.). Third, a student must have the current version of Adobe Reader to open PDF documents and the ability to convert documents to PDF in order to submit assignments.

COURSES OFFERED ONLINE

The following courses currently are available and are offered regularly in the fall and spring semesters and summer sessions.

- BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics with Dr. Mark Bailey
- BE102 Old Testament History I with Dr. James Allman
- BE103 Old Testament History II and Poetry with Dr. Gene Pond
- BE104 Old Testament Prophets with Dr. Stephen Bramer

Additional courses may soon be available. Please check with the Registrar’s office to verify availability.

The application and admission requirements for online courses are the same as all degree programs. For a detailed description of the Seminary’s online-education format, philosophy, and general requirements, visit the Online Education section of the website or contact the Admissions office.

CHINESE ONLINE STUDIES PROGRAM

DTS offers a series of online courses in the Chinese language to the Chinese-speaking Christian global community. This Online Chinese program is designed to train individuals who desire to be equipped for effective ministry in the local church or as a beginning step to pursue a degree program later, without having to leave their ministries, career, or home. On completion of 30 hours of prescribed coursework, the student is awarded the Certificate of Graduate Studies, the Seminary’s Chinese-language version of the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies (i.e. the C.B.T.S. section of this catalog). These 30 hours can be transferred to any degree program.

達拉斯神學院為全球華人基督徒提供一系列的中文網絡課程, 其目的是訓練裝備基督徒有效的參與地方教會服事, 或是日後繼續修讀碩士學位, 修課期間無需離開他們的事工、行業, 或家園。修完三十個所規劃的課程學分後, 學生可獲得神學研究證書 (詳情請參閱本目錄 Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies 部分)。這三十個學分可被納入達拉斯神學院任何碩士科學位。

The online courses are structured in a format similar to traditional classroom learning, but they are much different from traditional correspondence courses. Each online course is arranged in units that are one to three weeks in length. Students need to complete a series of tasks before the end of each unit. These tasks include watching video clips, written assignments, reading, offering feedback on fellow students' work, and participating in class discussions in an online-forum setting. Online Chinese courses can be viewed with the traditional script or the simplified script. The video broadcast is in English, with Chinese subtitles provided. Students can switch between Chinese and English subtitles while watching the video. Chinese courses typically last 17 to 19 weeks.

網絡神學課程和傳統教室十分類似, 與傳統函授課程卻大不相同。其內容由一系列的單元組合而成，每一單元為期約一至三週。學生在每一單元結束前必須完成幾項作業，包括觀看教學視頻影像，寫作業、閱讀中文教科書，以及回應其他同學的文章並參與論壇討論。中文網上神學課程設有繁
Students who wish to enroll in the Online Chinese courses, in addition to the normal DTS admission requirements (see the Admission section of this catalog), must have broadband Internet access and the latest version of Adobe Reader, Adobe Flash Player and Microsoft Word (2003 or higher). Please visit www.dts.edu/chinese for a detailed description and online application form.

有意願修讀中文網絡課程的學生必須符合達拉斯神學院設定的人學要求（詳情請參閱本目錄Admission部分），也必須備有寬頻網路，最新版本的Adobe Reader, Adobe Flash Player及Microsoft Word（2003或以上）。有關中文網絡課程的詳細資料及網上申請表，請瀏覽www.dts.edu/chinese網頁。

JERUSALEM UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
Students in master’s-level or doctoral programs may participate in a three-week graduate program in Israel and transfer credits earned to their Seminary program. Students in the C.B.T.S., M.A. (BS), Th.M., and S.T.M. programs may transfer up to 4 hours of credit from this university to the Seminary. Instruction is given by staff and faculty members of universities in Israel. In addition to receiving class–time instruction in archaeology, Bible geography, history of Palestine, and ancient Near Eastern cultures, students spend a portion of their time on field trips in Bible lands.

Additional information on this program may be obtained from the Academic Dean’s office.

ISRAEL STUDY PROGRAM
DTS teams with IBEX (Israel Bible Extension) of The Master’s College in California to provide an opportunity each summer for students to take a study tour of Israel for Seminary credit. The three–week study tour is team–led by a DTS faculty member and a faculty member from IBEX. Students wanting Seminary credit should register for BE909 Field Study of the Bible in the Registrar’s office.

Additional information on this program and other opportunities to study in Israel through IBEX may be obtained from the Academic Dean’s office.

DTS COLLABORATIVE DOCTORAL PROGRAMS WITH UNT AND TX A&M–COMMERCE
DTS collaborates with two local-area universities, the University of North Texas (UNT) Higher Education department in Denton, Texas, and Texas A&M University—Commerce (TAMU–C) Department of Educational Leadership in Commerce, Texas, to offer doctoral degrees in higher–education–related fields. The programs are designed for the development of senior–level administrators and faculty for Christian colleges, universities, and seminaries.

Students who have not yet begun a master’s degree program may enroll in the M.A. in Christian Education or the Th.M. program at DTS and, after completing 36 semester hours of approved master’s coursework, apply to either the Ed.D. or Ph.D. program in higher education at UNT or the Ed.D. program in curriculum, supervision, and instruction at TAMU–C. (Students who already hold a conferred master’s degree may not transfer hours toward the doctoral degree if those hours are credited toward a DTS master’s degree. In such cases, students may take additional hours at DTS for transfer toward the doctoral program.) A DTS faculty member serves as the minor professor on the student’s doctoral committee. Applicants for either of these programs must meet the standard admission and program requirements at each institution.

For more information contact the chair of the Christian Education department at DTS or either the coordinator of the program in higher education at the University of North Texas or the advisers of the collaborative Ed.D. in the Department of Educational Leadership at TAMU–C.

DTS PARTNERSHIPS WITH CAMPUS CRUSADE FOR CHRIST, YOUNG LIFE, AND THE KANAKUK INSTITUTE
DTS and the U.S. campus ministry of Campus Crusade for Christ International have partnered to provide training opportunities for full–time Campus Crusade staff seeking to enhance their ministry skills through seminary training. The program provides a tuition discount for qualifying full-time Crusade staff, and provides for the earning of Seminary credit for select courses offered through the Institute of Biblical Studies (IBS). Crusade training courses accepted toward the degree programs of DTS are subject to the requirements and limits of the individual degree programs.

DTS also partners with Young Life to help in the training of Young Life staff by transferring up to 12 hours of Young Life training courses toward the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies program, the Parachurch Ministries emphasis of the Th.M. degree, or the Parachurch Ministry concentration of the M.A./CE degree. The program also provides a tuition discount for qualifying full-time Young Life staff.

The partnership with the Kanakuk Institute in Branson, Missouri, a youth-ministry training program associated with Kanakuk Ministries, allows for up to 30 hours of transfer credit toward the Th.M. program and up to 20 hours of transfer credit toward the M.A./CE degree program, depending on a student’s selected ministry emphasis respectively. Students must have satisfactorily completed the one-year Kanakuk Institute program and matriculate into a DTS degree program within five years of graduation from the Kanakuk Institute to be able to transfer credit toward a DTS degree program. DTS offers a tuition discount to any students who are also on full-time staff with any of the Kanakuk ministries.

In addition to the Seminary’s Youth Education emphasis in the Th.M. and the Youth Ministry concentration in the M.A./CE program, and in order to provide more flexibility to the Seminary’s Campus Crusade for Christ, Young Life, and Kanakuk Institute partners, a Parachurch Ministries emphasis in the Th.M. degree program and a 12-hour Parachurch Ministry concentration in the M.A./CE degree program were developed. (For specifics on the Parachurch Ministries emphasis, see the Th.M. degree program earlier in this section. For specifics on the Parachurch Ministry concentration, see the M.A./CE degree program earlier in this section.) These programs provide maximum flexibility for those engaged in or anticipating parachurch ministry and seeking to enhance ministry skills through seminary training. The Th.M. Parachurch Ministries emphasis and the M.A./CE Parachurch Ministry concentration are taken under the leadership of an adviser from either the Christian Education department or the World Missions and Inter-cultural Studies department.

Contact the Registrar’s office for more information on tuition costs, the specific requirements, eligibility, transfer of courses, and limitations of the Campus Crusade, Young Life, and Kanakuk Institute partnership programs.

TEACHERS OF ENGLISH TO SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (TESOL)

TESOL is a certificate program offered by the World Missions and Intercultural Studies department. It equips Christian workers both academically and professionally for teaching English (outside the U.S. public-school system) to speakers of other languages.

Students must complete the following courses to be eligible for the certificate: WM605 General Linguistics (3 hours), WM610 Introduction to TESOL (3 hours), WM615 Methodology and Practice of TESOL (3 hours), SL205 TESOL Internship (1 hour), and WM210 Intercultural Communication (3 hours), also required for M.A./CM and Th.M.Intercultural Ministries Emphasis. WM205 Cultural Dynamics in Ministry or WM325 Ministry in Multicultural America is recommended but not required.

TESOL courses are open to all regularly enrolled students, including nondegree and C.B.T.S. TESOL students in the M.A./CM program should consult the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department before planning and registering for their SL140 M.A./CM internships to determine if one hour of SL140 can substitute for the SL205 TESOL internship.

MINISTRY RESIDENCY

To provide more intentional opportunities to integrate classroom instruction with field-based experience within partnering churches and parachurch/mission organizations, DTS is offering Th.M. students the opportunity to earn seminary credit for on-site instruction and cohort interactions at select ministry sites. While students in every vocational degree do some type of internship or practicum, this larger block of academic credit will allow students the opportunity to pursue integration at a much deeper level, since their focus during the residency will primarily be in the field.

This intensive learning opportunity is designed as an eight-month residency (two consecutive semesters—Ministry Residency I and Ministry Residency II) with an approved church or parachurch/mission organization during a student’s Th.M. program.

Additional information on this program may be obtained by contacting the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership.
MINISTRY-ENHANCEMENT PROGRAMS/SPECIAL TOPICS

DTS students may earn academic credit for work done through a variety of ministry-enhancement programs or special conferences and seminars offered through parachurch ministries or local churches. These special learning opportunities may be taken as a foundation for independent study in a student’s emphasis or as free electives. Some examples of ministry-enhancement programs in which students have participated as a foundation for independent study are:
- BILD International
- CASA Academy (Christian Association Serving Adults)
- Church Discipleship Ministry through the Navigators
- T-Net (Training Network for Disciple-Making Churches)
- Willow Creek Association’s leadership training programs
- Youthfront (formerly Sonlife Ministries)

Students who desire to participate in a ministry-enhancement program for independent study credit must have prior approval from the department in which they desire to receive academic credit, and must complete the Independent Study Request form available from the Registrar’s office prior to registration.

SPECIAL TOPICS

DTS has a more formal relationship with some ministry organizations that provide specialized training for ministry. In such cases, students may participate in these special programs under the umbrella of the Special Topics course listed as a 905 course under the departmental listing of courses in this catalog. These experiences are normally preapproved and require only the submission of the Special Topics approval form available from the Registrar’s office.

In most cases, the programs in which students participate for Special Topics credit require additional registration fees. To help offset these additional fees, the Seminary will reimburse the approved organization up to 50 percent of the student’s tuition. Most Special Topics programs are offered off campus, and some are offered at various locations around the United States (or occasionally in other countries). In these cases, students will need to plan for travel costs and living expenses as well.

Following are some of the approved programs through which students may earn Special Topics credit.

Church Planting Boot Camp (Evangelical Free Church of America)
The Church Planting Boot Camp is an intensive five-day training experience that covers the major issues church planters face in their first year in starting a new church. The Boot Camp is offered as a 3-hour, one-week intensive course in the first summer session on the Dallas campus and in the Intercampus at the Houston Campus. Credit for the Church Planting Boot camp is earned in the Pastoral Ministries department. More information on the Boot Camp is available at the EFCA website (www.efca.org/church-planting).

Cramner Theological House
The Cramner Theological House in Houston, Texas, is a graduate-level educational institution associated with the Reformed Episcopal Seminary in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The Cramner House provides training for those who plan on entering vocational ministry in the evangelical Anglican Church in North America. Students who desire to take courses through Cramner Theological House must have prior approval from the department in which they desire to receive academic credit. More information is available on the Cramner House Website at www.cramnerhouse.org.

D6 Conferences
The D6 Conference is an annual conference that is designed to bring together speakers, seminar leaders, and collected resources to help minister to families. Students will enroll in CE905 Special Topics in Christian Education, attend the D6 Conference, and complete all necessary coursework in order to receive credit. More information is available from the Christian Education department.

FirstSTOP, Christar
The Christar Summer Training and Outreach Programs (FirstSTOP) are hands-on learning experiences that include intensive classroom instruction and practical training coupled with extensive opportunities to witness cross-culturally to Muslims or Chinese. These summer-long training programs may be offered at locations in the United States or in other countries. Special Topics credit for FirstSTOP may be earned in the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. More information on FirstSTOP is available from the WMIS department or online at www.christar.org/FirstSTOP.htm.

James M. Stanton Center for Ministry Formation
The Stanton Center for Ministry Formation at the Cathedral Church of St. Matthew in Dallas, Texas, is a conservative evangelical ministry of the Episcopal Church serving the Dallas area by providing a variety of training programs and courses for those interested in serving in the Episcopal or Anglican traditions. Students interested in such training may earn elective credit in the Pastoral Ministries department. More information on the Stanton Center is available from the Pastoral Ministries department or at the Stanton Center website (www.episcopalcathedral.org/stantoncenter.html).

Probe Ministries

Probe Ministries offers a one-week, 2-hour course entitled Communicating Contemporary Apologetics at their offices in Plano, Texas. The course may be taken by DTS students and credited in the Pastoral Ministries department or, with departmental approval, in the Theological Studies department. The course is an introduction to key topics in apologetics and worldviews, with emphasis on preparing students to better communicate these topics to other believers. Students learn to apply a Christian worldview to everyday cultural decisions, and to defend their faith and decisions in ways that effectively transcend worldview barriers. Students will attend a local one-week Worldview/Apologetics Conference hosted by the staff of Probe Ministries. More information on the Communicating Contemporary Apologetics course is available in the Pastoral Ministries department or by contacting Probe Ministries at (972) 480-0240.

Rural Home Missionary Association’s Town & Country Training (TACT) Program

Rural Home Missionary Association (RHMA) is devoted to planting and strengthening Bible-based, evangelical churches in small-town America. The TACT Program curriculum includes:

- Ministering in the Town and Country Church
  An overview of ministry in the town and country community and church with an emphasis on understanding the varied types of contexts and how each affects pastoral work and strategy. The town and country culture is experienced as well as studied during the class.

- Leading the Town and Country Church
  A look at how town and country residents think and the spiritual and social tools required to lead them. The course examines the standard issues of church leadership as they apply to the town and country church. It also touches on the role of the pastor as community leader.

- Faith Communication in a Town and Country Context
  The oral culture and intimacy of the town and country context present a unique set of circumstances for preaching, evangelism, discipleship, and youth and children’s ministries. This course explores the ways town and country culture impacts and reshapes the common methods and strategies for communicating the gospel.

- Pastoral Care in a Town and Country Context
  Pastors in isolated settings find themselves facing a large number of pastoral care issues, some unique to the context, with less help than their suburban and urban counterparts have available. This course looks at some of the stresses town and country life places on pastors and their families as well as those in the church, and explores ways pastors can keep themselves spiritually, emotionally, and physically healthy and thereby able to offer pastoral care to others.

- Seminar in Town and Country Ministry
  Students in this course will research a topic in Town and Country Ministry and present their findings to the class in a collaborative learning environment. The instructor will suggest topics and offer reading lists, and students may suggest topics of special interest.

TACT courses each earn 3 semester hours of credit, and may be taken for emphasis or elective credit in the Pastoral Ministries department. All TACT classes are held during the summer at RHMA headquarters in Morton, Illinois. For more information on the TACT Program, see the TACT website at http://tactprogram.rhma.org.

Walk Thru The Bible

For more than 30 years, Walk Thru The Bible, a ministry founded by DTS graduate Bruce Wilkinson, has created discipleship materials that are reaching millions of people all over the world. Their live Bible seminars are highly interactive and scripturally sound overviews of the Old and New Testaments. Students may participate in the Walk Thru the Old Testament and the Walk Thru the New Testament live seminars and earn 1 hour of elective academic credit in the Bible Exposition department for each seminar. More information on the Walk Thru The Bible seminars is available from the Bible Exposition department or online at www.walkthru.org.

Additional information on these and other ministry-enhancement opportunities not listed here, as well as information on policies and procedures governing Independent Studies and Special Topics courses, may be obtained from the Registrar’s office.
ANNUAL CONFERENCES AND LECTURESHIPS
The Nathan D. Maier Memorial Series in Bible Exposition features outstanding Bible expositors with significant experience in Christian ministry. The series honors Nathan D. Maier, a Christian businessman and layman whose life reflected the character of Jesus Christ as he modeled servant-hearted leadership. (For a complete list of conference titles and speakers, see the General Information section of this catalog.)

The Missions and Evangelism Lectureship brings to campus missions executives, evangelists, and theologians to speak on issues pertaining to missions and evangelism. The speakers are recommended by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. (For a complete list of conference titles and speakers, see the General Information section of this catalog.)

The World Evangelization Conference (WEC) allows students to interact with outstanding missionaries and missions executives representing many mission boards and ministry contexts. The purposes of the conference are to introduce students to the spiritual needs of the world, confront them with the challenge of missionary service, and enlarge their missionary concern.

The Spiritual Life Conference is designed to challenge and encourage students in their spiritual walk.

The W. H. Griffith Thomas Memorial Lectureship was created in memory of William Henry Griffith Thomas, who helped found DTS. The academic divisions alternate in inviting speakers who are capable of insightful analysis of contemporary issues germane to the division. (For a complete list of conference titles and speakers, see the General Information section of this catalog.)

SUMMER SCHOOL
In addition to the two-semester academic year, DTS conducts summer sessions that offer a diversified curriculum during a 13-week period. The Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies program and the Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) can be completed during Summer School.

Summer School dates are listed in the Academic Calendar. Summer School schedules for the upcoming year are published in late fall. Inquiries about application should be addressed to the Admissions office.

All coursework for summer classes must be completed within the time frame in which the class is offered. (The professor may extend the due date until the end of the week following the end of the course at his or her discretion.)

WINTERSSESSION
DTS offers a variety of courses each year in the recess period between fall and spring semesters. The Wintersession courses are held in the one- or two-week period immediately before the spring semester begins. All coursework must be completed within one week of the end of the Wintersession.

EVENING AND WEEKEND COURSES
DTS offers a number of evening and weekend courses during the fall, spring, and summer terms. These courses offer those with full-time jobs or other daytime obligations an opportunity to pursue graduate-level biblical and theological education. Courses apply to several of DTS’s degree programs. The Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies program and the Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) can be completed during evenings and/or weekends.

Interested students may contact the Registrar’s office for information on evening and weekend courses offered in any given semester.

If you are considering DTS, we encourage you to come and visit us. We host several on-campus events throughout the year called Day at DTS. These events are designed to give prospective students a good feel for what life is like at the Seminary. Visit our website at www.dts.edu/admissions or contact the Admissions office about these events or to schedule a campus visit.

DTS enrolls men and women who:
1. show evidence of saving faith in Christ,
2. are of proven Christian character,
3. are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts, and who
4. adhere to the following doctrines:
   • the authority and inerrancy of Scripture,
   • the Trinity,
   • the full deity and humanity of Christ,
   • the spiritual lostness of the human race,
   • the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ,
   • salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and
   • the physical return of Christ.

As an applicant you will be evaluated on the basis of (1) your academic records, (2) the assessment of your references, (3) the extent and quality of involvement in Christian service, and (4) your apparent gifts and potential for placement in Christian ministry.

The Admissions Committee also will consider compatibility of ministry goals with the applicant’s intended Seminary program of study; future ministry placement; emotional, financial, and personal stability; and issues of character, behavior, and lifestyle. Applications are evaluated on receipt of all necessary information. All new students are subject to a criminal background check.

While all degree programs at DTS are coeducational, the Seminary holds the position that Scripture limits to men the roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church. Therefore the Seminary programs of study are not designed to prepare women for these roles.

Enrollment is based on a bachelor’s degree, or its equivalent, conferred by an accredited college or university. Exceptions to this requirement are necessarily limited. When accepted, graduates of unaccredited institutions are placed on academic probation for their first year at DTS. This probation is removed after one year of satisfactory progress toward their degree (2.0 or above GPA).

APPLICATION PROCEDURES
Applicants for all programs, including audit-only, must make formal application through the Admissions office. Applications may be submitted by completing the online application on the Seminary’s website, www.dts.edu/apply.

You may review the status of your application at any time on the Admissions webpage at www.dts.edu/apply. A personalized identification number will be given to you when your application is submitted. We urge applicants to apply four to eight months before the anticipated enrollment date, but no earlier than 15 months before that date. All application items must be received by the Admissions office no later than the following dates: for the fall semester, July 1, for the Wintersession/spring semester, November 1; and for Summer School, April 1. International applicants should submit all documents no later than three months before the start of their study. (Applications, except those for international students, may be submitted after the above deadlines; however, priority will be given to applications received before the deadline.)

If you need financial aid, you should submit your application early, since scholarship applications are not considered until applicants are accepted for admission. (Please see the Financial section for scholarship application dates.) International applicants desiring to be considered for scholarship for the fall semester must submit the completed application, including Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores, and be approved by the Admissions Committee by January 15.

APPLICATION CREDENTIALS

There is a nonrefundable application fee of $50 if applying online and $75 if applying by mail. The following credentials must be submitted.

1. Personal/character references from three individuals. One must be from a pastor. The second should come from a college professor (if currently enrolled in college or recently graduated) or businessperson (supervisor, coworker, or an employer). When an applicant includes the reference’s email on the online application, a reference can submit his or her information electronically via the Web. References cannot be related to the applicant.

2. A completed “Validation of Church Relationship” form from the applicant’s church. The form should confirm the applicant’s membership or regular participation in good standing. In addition, the form should endorse the applicant’s potential for effective ministry and describe the length and kind of ministry involvement. (Note: This is in addition to the reference from a pastor and can be completed online by the church if an email address is provided.)

3. Demonstration of English proficiency. Applicants for whom English is not their native or birth language must submit a score for the TOEFL. This applies even to applicants who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents. (See “International Students” in this section for further information.)

4. Official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended. This includes work beyond the bachelor’s level. Transcripts are not required for schools where less than 12 hours were taken. Final approval for admission is contingent on receiving an official transcript verifying conferral of the qualifying degree. An official transcript is one issued by the college and sent by the school’s registrar in a sealed envelope.

5. Assessment test scores. Certain applicants are required to submit results of assessment tests to supplement their undergraduate academic record. Assessment test scores are required as evidence of academic aptitude when: (1) the preseminary GPA is less than 2.5 on a 4.0 scale, or (2) the applicant does not hold a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution. Scores on either of two assessments can be used for this purpose: the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT).

The GRE General Test is administered across the United States and Canada. You can obtain information concerning this examination from the Educational Testing Service at www.gre.org. The institutional code for reporting scores to the Seminary is R6156.

The MAT is administered at colleges and universities throughout the United States. You can obtain information on this exam by reading the information available at www.milleranalogies.com. You may contact the Admissions office to discuss which exam to take.

PRESEMINARY PREPARATION

DTS recognizes the importance of a broad educational foundation. A bachelor’s program that includes work in the humanities, sciences, English grammar and composition, literature, speech, logic, and history gives students discipline and general information helpful for theological study and the work of the ministry.

NONBACCALAUREATE ADMISSION

Applicants who lack the prerequisite college degree may apply for admission to the Th.M., professional M.A. programs (Biblical Counseling, Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics, Christian Education, Christian Leadership, Cross-cultural Ministries, or Media Arts and Worship), or the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies. Admission of students without bachelor’s degrees is highly selective. Qualifications considered include maturity, educational background, ministry experience, and vocational goals. Applicants must be at least 30 years of age, and preference is given to those who have the most qualifying educational background. Applicants are expected to take and achieve acceptable scores on the GRE or MAT assessment test to demonstrate their readiness for graduate-level study.

ENTERING STUDENT ORIENTATION

Orientation is designed to help entering students adjust to Seminary by providing necessary information about the many facets of Seminary life and coursework. This time also allows new students to get to know one another and faculty members. Students should attend the Entering Student Orientation held just prior to the semester in which they enter. Students entering in the summer should attend the fall orientation.

Among other mandatory testing for entering students (see assessment checklist on Campus-Net), the Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI) is administered as part of orientation activities. The MMPI assists Student Services and Counseling Services in assessing whether some students may have personal struggles that, if not addressed, could be detrimental to their Seminary experience or future ministries. (See the Student Handbook or contact Student Services for further details.) Students unable to attend orientation still must complete the MMPI exam. Please contact Student Services for more information.

ACADEMIC AND CULTURAL ORIENTATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The Seminary has developed a course for the purpose of orienting incoming international students to DTS’s academic standards and culture as well as American culture. This course is required for all international students regardless of their English background. Please contact the International Student office for more information.

Topics include:

- academic writing and communication
- research technology and bibliographic software
- research methods and critical evaluation

The course RS100 Research Seminar for International Students, which is offered by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies, provides the foundation for ongoing mentoring and advising of international students throughout their time at DTS.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

REGULAR STUDENTS

Students enrolled in degree programs (M.A., Th.M., S.T.M., D.Min., or Ph.D.) are classified as regular students. Continuation as a student depends on satisfactory progress toward graduation.

NONDEGREE STUDENTS

A limited number of applicants may be admitted as nondegree students. Academic and spiritual qualifications necessary for regular student admission are the same for nondegree students. Application procedures are also the same, but some credentials are not required (see the instructions that accompany the application).

A maximum of 30 credit hours may be taken by nondegree students or by students in the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies program. All standard prerequisites apply when enrolling in courses.

Nondegree students are not to be confused with students auditing a course (see the following section). Course-work requirements for nondegree students are the same as for degree students. Nondegree and degree students are expected to do the coursework, which is graded, and upon satisfactory completion of the work they receive credit for the course. The credit is transferable to a degree program at DTS or another graduate-level institution if it satisfies the curriculum requirements.

STUDENTS AUDITING A COURSE

Any current student (regular or nondegree) may audit a course, as long as that course is not required for completion of the student’s program. Students enrolled as credit students may audit a course at a reduced rate. When at least 75 percent of audit courses are attended, audits are recorded on the transcripts of regularly admitted students. Alumni may audit courses as nondegree students at a reduced rate.

Spouses of resident credit students currently enrolled in a regular Seminary degree program may audit up to three courses a semester or three courses a summer for a nominal charge. Spouses of students enrolled in the Alumni-in-Residence program are also eligible to audit courses at the spouse-audit rate. Spouses who audit must complete a brief form in the Advising Center and pay the audit fee. No permanent record is kept and no transcript is issued.

Audit students can participate in the class discussions and receive copies of handouts, but coursework and examinations are not assigned or graded, and academic credit is not given.
Courses may be audited in Summer School under the same conditions as in the regular academic year.

SPECIAL STUDENTS (NONDEGREE)
A student pursuing a degree at another accredited seminary or graduate school may apply to enroll as a nondegree special student to take one or two classes. Contact the Admissions office for further information.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT
Course credits with a minimum grade of C earned at other accredited seminaries and graduate theological schools are accepted to the extent that the courses are comparable to the Seminary’s stated requirements.

The following number of semester hours may be transferred:

- a maximum of 60 hours toward the Th.M. degree;
- a maximum of 6 hours toward the S.T.M. degree and the C.B.T.S.;
- a maximum of 30 hours toward the M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics, the M.A. in Christian Education, the M.A. in Christian Leadership, the M.A. in Cross-cultural Ministries, the M.A. in Media Arts and Worship, and the M.A. (Biblical Studies); or
- a maximum of 45 hours toward the M.A. in Biblical Counseling, including a maximum of 12 hours in counseling courses.

An official transcript from the institution attended showing satisfactory course completion is required. Transfer hours are not accepted for nondegree students except for those enrolled in the Certificate of Biblical and Theological Studies program. Transferability of credits earned at DTS is at the discretion of the receiving institution. (See www.dts.edu/transfercredit for more information.)

ADVANCED STANDING AND COURSE VALIDATION
Students entering DTS with a strong background in Bible or theology may want to take proficiency exams to earn advanced standing credit. Exams are available in most courses required in each degree program. (No exams are available in areas of elective credit.) There is a nonrefundable testing fee for each exam. Up to one-fourth of a degree can be earned by advanced standing, except for the C.B.T.S., S.T.M., and doctoral programs.

New students have three semesters, or one calendar year, from the time they begin taking classes at DTS, to apply for advanced-standing credit. For more information on advanced standing, see www.dts.edu/advancedstanding.

If a student has completed a college course in a subject required at DTS but does not pass the advanced-standing exam for that course, the student is encouraged to request permission to substitute another DTS class offered by the same department (see Validation of Courses).

If a student has a Bible college background, depending on the school attended and courses taken, the student may be eligible for Bible Exposition validation. An advanced elective can be substituted for a basic required Bible course. Please contact the Bible Exposition department for details.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
Dallas Theological Seminary is enriched by the presence of more than 100 international students from nearly 35 foreign countries.

International applicants whose native or birth language is not English are required to demonstrate their proficiency in English by submitting satisfactory Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores taken within two years of the date of application. This applies even if the applicant is a U.S. citizen, has attended American or English-speaking colleges and universities, and is a longtime resident of English-speaking countries.

The minimum score on the Internet-based TOEFL (IBT) is 85 with subscores of 22 in the Listening and Speaking sections, 19 in the Writing/Structure section, and 21 in the Reading section. The minimum score on the paper-based TOEFL (PBT) is 575, with subscores of at least 56 in each of its three sections. Information about the TOEFL may be obtained at www.toefl.org; or www.ets.org/toefl. The TOEFL institution code for DTS is 6156. DTS also accepts scores on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) exam. The minimum overall score accepted by DTS is 6.5, with subscores of 6.5 in Listening, Reading, and Speaking, and 6.0 in Writing.

International applicants, like other students, must submit the nonrefundable application fee of $50 if applying online and $75 if applying by mail. The application fee must be paid with funds drawn on an American bank, a money order in U.S. dollars, U.S. credit card over the phone, or traveler’s check. Occasionally applicants have a contact in the U.S. that will pay the fee on their behalf. No application will be processed until this application fee is received.
International students must show evidence of financial documentation for the first 12 months of study and show a plan of support for the length of their program. Documentation can be in the form of bank statements, which show the current balance and the average balance during the past three months. Family or friends who provide financial support must sign a financial pledge form and return it, along with bank statements from the past three months, to the International Student Office. (Pledges for students are not tax-deductible.)

The documents needed to apply for a student visa will not be issued until proof of financial support has been shown. All documents must be submitted at least one month prior to the anticipated date of enrollment. For a current estimate of tuition and living expenses, please visit the International Admissions website: www.dts.edu/ais.

A very limited number of tuition scholarships are available for international students each year. Application forms are distributed and processed by the Financial Aid Office and can be obtained online. For a student to be considered for scholarship, his or her application for admission must be approved by the Admissions Committee by January 15.

International students must be in Dallas for the International Student Orientation, which is held the week prior to the Entering Student Orientation.

DISCLAIMER FOR TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDIT
The mission of DTS is to glorify God by equipping godly servant-leaders for the proclamation of His Word and the building up of the body of Christ worldwide. This unique mission may limit the transferability of DTS courses to other educational institutions. Students should be aware that transfer of credit is always the responsibility and prerogative of the receiving institution. Any student interested in transferring credit hours should check with the receiving institution directly to determine to what extent, if any, credit hours can be transferred.
REGISTRATION

Students cannot be admitted to classes without formal registration, which takes place around the middle of the preceding fall or spring semester, while late registration continues into the beginning of the semester. Priority enrollment will be given to students graduating that year. Without special approval, a student cannot receive credit for a course added after the first week of the semester.

Summer School registration of resident students occurs at the same time as registration for the following fall term.

A late fee is assessed if registration is completed after the published deadline. New students have two weeks from the time they are admitted to register without paying late fees. Students registering late run the risk of courses or sections being filled or canceled. Space in class and availability of textbooks are not guaranteed for those who fail to register on time. Final dates for late registration and other deadlines are published by the Registrar’s office.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Students may complete a portion of the following graduate-level programs by independent study:

- Th.M. — up to 18 hours of elective credit;
- M.A. — up to 12 hours of elective credit; or
- C.B.T.S. and S.T.M. — up to 6 hours of elective credit.

Independent study in required courses is not available without special approval. For more information contact the Registrar’s office.

ACADEMIC LOAD

Students may earn up to 18 hours of credit each semester, including the summer session. Students taking a language course in a five-week summer session are encouraged not to take additional courses during the same session due to the heavier workload in language courses.

COURSE PAPERS

Unless otherwise specified by the professors in individual courses, all course papers and theses must be typewritten and in thesis form in conformity to the standards outlined in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 7th ed. by Kate L. Turabian, and supplemental instructions as authorized by the faculty.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Students are responsible for meeting the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their acceptance. Students who leave the Seminary for more than one year are automatically withdrawn from school. If reinstated, students are subject to the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their reinstatement, unless written permission was obtained before the extended leave. Students who reclassify are also subject to the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their approved reclassification. (See the Student Handbook regarding reclassification to another degree program.)
DEGREE CONFERRAL
While the graduation ceremony is held only once a year in May, degrees are conferred in May, August, and January. Students who finish during the summer session will receive degree conferral in August. However, they are encouraged, if they desire, to participate in the May commencement ceremony preceding the summer in which their work will be completed. Those who complete their degree requirements in December will be able to participate in the commencement ceremony held the following May. Students unable to complete their work in the spring, summer, or fall may be required to pay a fee to postpone their graduation date and cover costs related to the postponement.

VALIDATION OF COURSES
Students may apply to validate a required course if they have college credit for a similar course. Validation of a course does not give credit for the course or reduce curricular requirements, but does allow substitution of elective hours in the same department as the validated course. Students desiring to validate required courses should consult the Registrar’s office. For further details see the Student Handbook.

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE
Students whose grade point average (GPA) falls below a 2.0 (2.5 for S.T.M.) are given an academic warning. If the GPA falls below this level again, the student is placed on academic probation. Students who are admitted from unaccredited colleges or with a low grade point average (2.0) are also placed on academic probation. For further details see the Student Handbook.

GRADING SYSTEM
The Seminary follows a 4.0 grading scale as outlined in the Student Handbook.
FEES AND EXPENSES FOR 2013–2014

The tuition and fee rates that follow are effective beginning with the fall 2013 semester. Tuition, fees, and other expenses are subject to change without notice and are due at the beginning of each session.

Tuition and fee payments can be made by cash, check, or credit card. Credit card payments (American Express, Discover Card, and MasterCard only) can be made online through a third-party provider. A convenience fee for credit card use will apply. For more information regarding payment plans, contact the Business office.

Every effort is made to keep student expenses as low as possible. Because of contributions, students pay only a portion of the real cost of their education.

FINANCIAL AID
The Seminary’s student financial aid program, including scholarships, loans, and a payment plan, offers students realistic opportunities to finance their education. The amount of scholarship available to students has increased in recent years—total aid available now exceeds $2.5 million.

To apply for need-based scholarships you must be an accepted student. Students will be able to submit the application form digitally from the Student CampusNet. Other documents may be required depending on the type of aid requested.

For continuing students, applications for need-based scholarships must be submitted by February 28 for the fall semester and September 30 for the spring semester. For continuing international students, scholarships are awarded annually only and must be submitted by January 31. Applications for new students must be submitted by May 1 for the fall semester and November 1 for the spring semester. For new international students, scholarships are awarded on an annual basis only and are due January 1 to be considered for the following academic year.

Applications for scholarship will not be considered until an applicant is accepted for admission to the Seminary. The scholarship application deadline is two months before the application for admission deadline; thus, new students who intend to apply for scholarship should plan the admission process accordingly.

Financial aid is distributed as tuition scholarship grants. Financial need is the primary criterion for the distribution of institutional aid. Secondary criteria include academic program, academic load, and academic performance. Applications for scholarship are reviewed by the Director of Financial Aid and the Financial Aid Committee.

ELIGIBILITY
To be eligible for scholarship, a student must have financial need, be employed, have a GPA of 2.5 or higher, and not be in default or delinquent on any account or loan program with the Seminary.

The number of hours required to qualify for financial aid varies by location. Students must take 12 hours at the Dallas campus, 6 hours at the Houston campus, or at least one course at all other extension sites. Online-only students are not eligible to receive financial aid. For more information contact the Financial Aid office.

If you receive scholarship through the Seminary and you receive additional outside assistance, you must report this immediately to the Financial Aid office. Name and address changes and changes in academic course load also must be reported.

DETERMINATION OF FINANCIAL AID
After receiving the need-based scholarship application form, the Financial Aid office will determine students’ needs and the types of awards for which they qualify.

Financial need is determined by calculating the difference between the cost of attending the Seminary and the resources available to the student. Therefore, financial need equals the cost of attendance minus student contribution and outside resources.

Students are expected to contribute toward the cost of their education from summer earnings and from employment during the academic year. Financial Aid personnel are available to counsel students about their educational financial situations.

DIRECT LOAN PROGRAM
The Seminary participates in the Direct Loan Program. It provides limited funds at a low interest rate and delayed repayment schedule to eligible students. The interest (on loans borrowed prior to Fall 2012) and principal repayments are deferred as long as the student remains on at least half-time status in an approved degree program. Nondegree students are not eligible for direct loans.

Students may apply for an unsubsidized Direct Loan where interest payments can be made monthly, or capitalized per a designated period of time.

To apply for a Direct Loan the student must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the Department of Education. The FAFSA may be completed online at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov. It is used to determine financial need. Once processed by the Department of Education, a Student Aid Report (SAR) will be available. The school code for DTS is G03562. Entering the school code on the FAFSA application will ensure that student information will be sent electronically to DTS. In addition to the SAR, a Master Promissory Note and a Loan Request Form are required to process a Direct Loan. Forms are available online at www.dts.edu. Choose “Departments,” then choose “Financial Aid,” then “Direct Loans.”
To ensure that loan funds are available for the student’s payment deadline, all documents must be received in the Financial Aid office by May 31 for the fall semester, November 1 for the spring semester, and April 1 for the summer semester.

The Director of Financial Aid is available to assist students and their families by providing advice and suggestions suitable for their financial status. For more information on the specific forms of financial aid available, contact the Financial Aid office at 800-DTS-WORD, ext. 3601.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES
The student has the following responsibilities:
1. Complete the application for student financial aid accurately as errors can result in long delays in the receipt of financial aid. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal programs is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the United States Criminal Code.
2. Return to Financial Aid and/or the Department of Education all requested documentation, verification, corrections, and/or new information.
3. Read, understand, and keep copies of all forms requiring a signature.
4. Accept responsibility for all signed agreements.
5. Notify the lender/servicer of any change in name, address, or school status.
6. Know and comply with deadlines for application and reapplication for aid.
7. Know and comply with attending school’s refund procedures.
8. Maintain good standing and satisfactory academic progress.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS
A student is required to make satisfactory progress toward his or her degree in order to be eligible for scholarship and federal financial aid. Students must maintain a 2.5 GPA for scholarship and a 2.0 GPA for federal loans, without excessive course drops.

INDEPENDENT STATUS
The federal government considers anyone who is a graduate student an independent student.

PHYSICAL DISABILITIES
Students who have physical disabilities should contact the Texas Rehabilitation Commission regarding financial aid for the disabled. Students with disabilities may also be considered for financial assistance by the Financial Aid office, provided the necessary forms have been submitted.

DIRECT LOAN REFUND POLICIES
Currently the only Title IV funds that DTS awards are Direct Loan program unsubsidized loans. These loans are awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend for the entire enrollment period or semester. When a student withdraws from DTS before completing 60% of the semester, the student has not “earned” all of his/her federal financial aid and a Return of Title IV Funds Calculation must be performed. The “earned” and “unearned” portions are determined by the number of days the student attended class. The school portion of “unearned” funds must be returned to the Department of Education by DTS. This return of funds may create a balance due on the student’s account based on the normal Seminary refund policy. In this case the student is responsible for paying the balance to DTS.

TUITION MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS
PAYMENT PLAN (TMS)
The Seminary recommends that entering students come with sufficient funds for at least one semester. For students who are unable to pay their expenses in full, financing in the form of a payment plan with no interest for tuition and fees is available at the time of registration. The payment plan may be taken out for a five- or 10-month period. The 10-month payment plan is available only for fall registration.

Students must apply for TMS online (www.afford.com) or call TMS (800-722-4867) prior to the semester they plan to attend. There is a $60 enrollment fee for the 10-month plan and a $42 enrollment fee for the five-month plan. Please note that fees are subject to change. Questions regarding the payment plan should be directed to the bursar in the Student Advising Center.
SCHOLARSHIPS

SCHOLARSHIP AND ACADEMIC LOAD
Graduate students must be enrolled for at least 12 credit hours or more in order to be considered full-time students and eligible for scholarship. Students enrolled part-time (less than 12 hours) will be eligible for the payment plan and loan program only.

GENERAL SCHOLARSHIPS
General scholarships are available to students who do not meet the criteria for other scholarships. Applications for aid are reviewed by the Director of Financial Aid and the Financial Aid Committee. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

CONTINUATION OF SCHOLARSHIP
Scholarships must be approved each semester. Students who postpone enrollment must reapply for scholarship for the semester they plan to attend. Current students are required to reapply each semester that aid is needed.

DOCTORAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS
Doctoral scholarships are available for students in the Doctor of Philosophy program who meet the scholarship criteria. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

MINORITY STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS
DTS provides a significant amount of aid each year to qualified American-born minority students. Minority students are required to reapply each semester that aid is needed using the standard financial aid application form. Applications for aid are reviewed by the Financial Aid Committee. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS
International students may apply for tuition scholarships and on-campus employment. To be considered for aid, incoming students must be approved for enrollment in a regular program of study and pursue study under the F-1 (student) visa. New international applicants who will require aid are encouraged to file their applications by January 1, as all international aid is assigned by March 31 for the following academic year. International applicants should be aware that competition for available scholarships is heavy and that grants are made only to the most highly qualified candidates, with respect to ministry experience, ministry potential, support from a sponsoring organization, and academic background. Applications for aid to international students are reviewed by the Financial Aid Committee. Students who are awarded an international scholarship should be aware that acceptance of a tuition scholarship obligates them to leave the United States upon completion of their program. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

OTHER SOURCES OF FINANCIAL AID
Additional financial aid is available through veterans' benefits, foundation grants, employers, and nonprofit organizations. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

HOUSING

On-Campus Housing 107
Off-Campus Housing 107
DTS cares deeply about its students. Training you for future ministry involves ministering to you and encouraging you to minister to each other. You will find the atmosphere and programs on our campus conducive to building authentic community within the body of Christ.

SPRITUAL DEVELOPMENT

At DTS, you have many opportunities for personal interaction and growth—in class, in chapel, in prayer, and in fellowship—that develop your growing passion for ministry.

CHAPEL

The administration and faculty strongly believe in the vital role of chapel and its ministry of encouragement, worship, and community development. DTS provides chapel services for students each week on Tuesdays through Fridays, during the fall and spring semesters, and each Wednesday morning during Summer School. Chapel services feature music and messages by faculty members and other Christian leaders as well as student-led chapels. Prayer needs, campus announcements, and items of general interest are also shared during this community time of rest, relief, and renewal. (See the Student Handbook for chapel attendance requirements.)

PRAYER CHAPELS

Students and faculty come together several days each semester for special times of prayer in chapel.

MILLER PRAYER CHAPEL

Located next to the Dining Commons in the Mitchell Ministries Center, the Miller Prayer Chapel is available to the Seminary family for personal prayer.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Spiritual Formation at DTS is an intentional attempt to provide a context for life-change. These groups provide an environment for prayer, fellowship, and ministry. As group members grow together in character and spiritual maturity, significant friendships and ministry partnerships are established that often last a lifetime. Spiritual Formation is required of Th.M., M.A./BEL, M.A./CE, M.A./CL, M.A./CM, M.A./MW, M.A.(BS), and M.S.(CS) students and is offered as an elective in other programs. Students on the Dallas campus or at the Houston Campus site should plan to complete this requirement in four consecutive fall/spring semesters. M.A./BEL, M.A./CL, and M.A.(CS) students participate in a specialized Spiritual Formation program. Spiritual Formation is a prerequisite for all Servant Leadership Internships. See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information.

STUDENT SERVICES

DTS provides a variety of resources to students and their spouses. Whether it’s social events, ongoing conversations, campus involvement, or crisis counseling, Student Services always has an open door and a listening ear. Come on in!

COUNSELING AND TESTING SERVICES

The Counseling Services department offers short-term counseling assistance to students, staff, faculty, and their immediate families. The director of Counseling and Testing Services maintains a referral network of counselors who work from a biblical foundation within the local community, and can also provide professional counseling services to the Seminary family.
CHRISTIAN MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES
The Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex offers a variety of opportunities for students to apply what they are learning in the classroom. Many churches and parachurch organizations welcome students to teach Sunday School, lead youth groups, and minister in other ways. Students are often able to fulfill their internship requirements while ministering at these churches and organizations. (See the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department section of this catalog for more information about internship requirements and opportunities.)

STUDENT GROUPS
DTS hosts several groups that provide fellowship and resources for different student interests within the Seminary. While the list of official student groups may change from year to year, below are listed a few of the long-standing communities.

STUDENT MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP (SMF)
Student Missions Fellowship exists to advance student involvement in God’s global enterprise of missions. SMF hosts prayer meetings, special events, and chapels, and encourages students to participate in Intercultural Ministries Internships. Each spring, SMF organizes a campus-wide World Evangelization Conference to show students how they can serve Christ in a global context.

SEMINARY WIVES IN MINISTRY (SWIM)
Seminary Wives in Ministry exists to equip wives to become competent servants alongside their husbands in ministry, and provides several programs and special events throughout the academic year to facilitate this preparation.

WOMEN STUDENTS FELLOWSHIP (WSF)
The Women Students Fellowship exists to serve and help female students connect with one another and to acclimate to Seminary life, and is led by a leadership team of women students dedicated to enriching the academic, spiritual, relational, and social lives of fellow women students.

PHYSICAL FITNESS FACILITIES
DTS encourages consistent, regular physical activity as a means of attaining your best level of wellness, and is pleased to offer three wellness options to fit your budget, location, and schedule. Each fall and spring semester, all Dallas campus student accounts are automatically charged an activity fee that provides a limited-access membership to the Baylor Tom Landry Fitness Center. Should students wish to invest in other options, they may opt out of the activity fee within the first three weeks of each semester, and take advantage of the Seminary’s agreements with the T. Boone Pickens YMCA in downtown Dallas, or with Baylor’s corporate membership plan.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES
Jobs are listed on the Seminary’s Job Board, which is available online to students through CampusNet. Accepted students and their spouses may view a list of job openings made known to us by employers in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. A student ID and password are required. Contact Student Services for more information regarding the Job Board.

Students and their spouses who wish to be considered for on-campus employment should contact the Human Resources office. To view a list of on-campus openings, or to obtain an application, go to www.dts.edu/jobs. Contact Human Resources for questions regarding these on-campus openings. Our Servant Leadership Internship office also assists students with part-time employment with churches and parachurch organizations. Consult the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department website (www.dts.edu/internship) for additional information and to view the Internship Job Board.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Dallas Theological Seminary, a privately funded, nonprofit, religious organization, will make modifications to ensure equal opportunity and access for qualified students with disabilities to applicable programs, services, activities, and facilities.

After acceptance and prior to entering classes, a student with disability must submit written requests for modifications or auxiliary aids to the Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities. Documentation of disability may be required in order to receive appropriate modifications. The department responsible for the services requested will coordinate with the appropriate Seminary personnel and/or federal or state agency to provide the student with maximal assistance.

The Seminary will not make substantial adjustments in existing programs beyond those necessary to eliminate discrimination against otherwise qualified students, and will not modify existing programs to the extent it places an undue financial or administrative burden on the Seminary. The Seminary assumes no responsibility for personal care attendants, health-care providers, personal devices, individually-prescribed devices, readers for personal use or study, or private tutors.

STUDENT HANDBOOK

The Student Handbook includes academic, library, and financial regulations and procedures as well as other instructions and policies regarding student life.

STUDENT CONDUCT

While the Seminary recognizes the freedom of each student to develop exemplary personal standards under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, students at the Seminary are recognized as Christian leaders by people in the community. Therefore certain standards of conduct and appearance are to govern the student body (Rom. 14:21–22). The use of tobacco and alcoholic beverages (except for liturgical, ceremonial, medicinal, or other exceptional instances) is not considered suitable for the Seminary faculty, staff, and students, all of whom are expected to abide by this standard.

The appearance of Seminary students, while on campus, is expected to reflect Christian modesty, maturity, discretion, and respect. Additionally, students are expected, while in classes and chapel, to dress with neatness and cleanliness following a professional casual standard as defined by Dallas Theological Seminary.

(See the Student Handbook for further information.)

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The DTS Student Council is elected by students each spring. The Student Council members interact with their counterparts in the Seminary’s staff and faculty, as well as integrating all phases of the extracurricular life of the student body. Leaders from active student groups participate in Student Council as well.

HEALTH INSURANCE

The Seminary requires all students taking 9 or more credit hours per semester to carry health insurance for themselves and their immediate families. All students taking 6–8 credit hours and Doctor of Philosophy students taking 3–5 credit hours are eligible to enroll in the student health insurance program offered through the Seminary.

FACULTY AND ACADEMIC ADVISING

Since the Seminary considers the advising process an integral part of each student’s program, all degree students are assigned a faculty adviser from a department appropriate to their course of study. Faculty advisers help not only in selecting a satisfactory program of study, but also by providing spiritual and vocational counsel. Students are encouraged to meet regularly with their adviser. All faculty hold weekly office hours for the purpose of advising students. Faculty help students select specialized electives, as well as provide spiritual and vocational counsel. A few of our faculty serve in the Advising Center to meet with students and discuss topics helpful in preparing students for select ministries.
Staff with theological, research, library, and computer/technical expertise are available to assist students. Reference help is available in person and via phone, fax, or email. Credit courses in research methods are also available. The library provides access to additional resources through interlibrary loan and through the TexShare consortium, which includes borrowing privileges at hundreds of libraries in the state of Texas.

See the library website (http://library.dts.edu/) or contact library@dts.edu for additional information such as facilities, hours, collections, services, and policies.

Academic advising also is available through the Advising Center in the Walvoord Student Center. Academic advisers can help students plan and complete their degree programs and give specific help with selecting courses and schedules. The Advising Center helps students make informed decisions in light of their life circumstances.

MOSHER & TURPIN LIBRARIES
The 58,000-square-foot library is comprised of the Mosher Library building, which opened in 1960 and was named in memory of Dallas businessmen William and Theodore Mosher, and the Turpin Library building, which opened in 1988 and was named in honor of Jack and Sally Turpin. The library includes study space for 550 people, the library collection, conference rooms, small-group study rooms, copiers, lockers, doctoral carrels, a computer lab, an audio suite, and a video suite. Wireless connection to the Internet is available throughout the facility.

The library collection exceeds 310,000 items, including more than 230,000 print volumes, plus DVDs, videos, microforms, and electronic resources. The library licenses access to scores of bibliographic databases, including the ATLA Religion Index, Religious and Theological Abstracts, Old Testament Abstracts, New Testament Abstracts, Christian Periodical Index, ERIC, JSTOR, WorldCat, AcademicSearch, PsycINFO, Philosopher’s Index, and many others. Thousands of books and articles are available online.

The general collection is strong in systematic and historical theology, but it especially emphasizes biblical exegesis and interpretation, biblical languages, and the history, culture, and archaeology of the biblical world.

DTS is committed to providing quality, economical housing that supports the mission of DTS by encouraging spiritual growth and community in two on-campus apartment facilities.

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING

Swiss Tower provides facilities for married couples with or without children in 159 apartments. This 10-story facility is located across the street from Turpin Library. It offers one-bedroom apartments with a study and two-bedroom apartments. Amenities include adult and child swimming pools, communal gas grills, a community room featuring a small kitchen for social functions, game and conversation areas, and a playroom for residents’ children. Laundry facilities are available on each floor. Swiss Tower also offers a language research library and a small-group meeting room.

Washington Hall provides 91 one- and two-bedroom apartments totaling 158 private bedrooms for our single students. Each apartment has a kitchen/living room area and one or two bedrooms with their own full bath and closet.

The amenities in this facility include a pool and grill area adjacent to an indoor lounge, a community room with game tables, two media rooms, two music practice rooms, and a kitchen for social functions. It also offers a language research library and computer lab, group study rooms, a laundry facility, an indoor basketball/volleyball court, an open-air courtyard on the upper two floors, and free wifi in all public areas of the building.

Both apartment facilities are equipped with electronically controlled access to the properties and apartments and are patrolled 24 hours a day by the DTS Campus Police department.

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING

The Housing office also maintains a large database of off-campus housing opportunities accessible to all accepted applicants, and the Housing staff is available to help students with their off-campus housing needs. The DTS Housing webpage offers a wealth of information about on-campus and off-campus housing options, information about Dallas and the surrounding Metroplex, schools, mass transit, tools for selecting a roommate, church information, and more.
“We want to have a little bit more intimate relationship with the pastor and his church. Not only do what DTS has done for years, that is equip him for ministry, but we want to come along side and partner with him.”

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

COURSE OFFERINGS
Required courses are offered on a regular basis and in most cases are offered according to the curriculum chart for each program found in the Academic Programs section of this catalog. Ministry Emphasis and elective courses are generally offered on a rotating basis. For information on Ministry Emphasis and elective course offerings for any given academic year, contact the Registrar’s office or the respective departments.

NONDEPARTMENTAL COURSES
Th.M. students are responsible to demonstrate competence in research by satisfactorily completing either (1) a Th.M. thesis in an academic department of their choosing or (2) a 3-hour research seminar culminating in a written thesis-style research project. All Th.M. students are required to register for RS101 and either RS102 or a thesis. Students should register for RS101 during their first semester at the time they take NT113. Contact the Registrar’s office for more information.

RS100  Research Seminar for International Students
McGill
This course prepares international students for academic success through instruction on the research process, research strategies, thesis topic selection, formatting, academic cultural differences, computerized databases, and bibliographic resources. Attention is given to research writing, communication, documentation, and cultural adaptation. The course is required for incoming international students and is a substitute for RS101 Orientation and Research Methods.
1 hour.

RS101  Orientation and Research Methods
The Faculty
This course is designed to guide students in the use of library materials, computerized databases, and bibliographic resources. It provides instruction in research strategies, thesis-topic selection, and familiarization with form and style for papers and theses. In addition, this course provides an orientation to the educational philosophy of biblical, theological, and ministry-related studies at DTS.
1 hour.

RS102  Research and Summary of Christian Doctrine
The Faculty
This course is designed to provide opportunity and guidance for the writing of a summative research paper within the Th.M. degree program and to offer a general review of the major areas of Christian doctrine with a view to ordination and professional ministry.
2 hours.
The purpose of the Division of Biblical Studies is to equip students with foundational knowledge and skill in interpreting and applying the Bible.

DEPARTMENT OF OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES 112
DEPARTMENT OF NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES 117
DEPARTMENT OF BIBLE EXPOSITION 122
The purpose of the Department of Old Testament Studies is to equip students to do accurate exegetical work in the Old Testament and to expound the Old Testament in their ministries, with the goal of meeting contemporary needs. The required courses give students the skills necessary for such work as follows:

- Hebrew grammar, syntax, textual criticism
- lexicography
- literary forms
- Old Testament backgrounds
- critical theory
- hermeneutics
- biblical theology

The elective courses provide opportunity for further development of students' proficiency in these disciplines as well as in the exegesis of various kinds of Old Testament literature.

OT730  A Biblical Theology of the Law
Johnston
An exegetical, hermeneutical, and theological study of the law of God. Special attention will focus on historical-cultural, literary, exegetical, hermeneutical, and theological issues, such as the relation of the Mosaic Law to Mesopotamian law codes, the relation of the Decalogue to the case laws, the relation of the Law to the covenants and promise, continuity and discontinuity in the relation of the Old Covenant law to the New Covenant, and the relevance of the Law in the Christian life. The course also will compare and evaluate the various models of the role/relevance of the Mosaic Law in the Christian life, as presented in various schools of dispensational and Reformed theology. 3 hours.

OT735  Righteousness, Justice, and Mercy
Webster
A biblical theology of righteousness, justice, and mercy and related concepts. Based in the Old Testament and incorporating New Testament material, the course examines key terms and their social expressions in Israel and in the New Testament. It also addresses modern contextualization issues, such as competing definitions of social justice and the involvement of the church in social mercy. 3 hours.

DIRECTED STUDIES

OT901  Independent Study in Old Testament
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of Old Testament studies not specifically treated in other courses. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed four semester hours in any one subject. Limited to advanced students and subject to consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

OT902  Old Testament Thesis
The Department
Independent research and writing of a thesis on an approved topic under the supervision of two faculty advisers. Students will have one calendar year to complete the thesis. If the thesis is not completed by the end of a year, students will be registered in OT903. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 2 or 3 hours.

OT903  Old Testament Thesis Continuation
The Department
The thesis continuation course is required of all students writing a thesis who are beyond one year in the thesis process. Students must register for this course each fall, spring, and summer until completion of the thesis. 1 hour.

OT905  Special Topics in Old Testament Studies
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed four semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
The purpose of the Department of New Testament Studies is to equip students to do accurate exegetical work in the Greek New Testament so that they can expound and apply it effectively in their ministries. The required courses help students develop the skills necessary for this work in the following areas.

- New Testament introduction
- Greek grammar and syntax
- textual criticism
- lexical and literary analysis
- use of interpretive tools
- exegetical problem-solving
- movement from exegesis to theology and exposition

The elective courses allow students to advance their skills in these areas and in the exegesis of New Testament books.

An advanced-standing examination is available for all new students who have taken some Greek. Students who have not had Greek should enroll in NT101–NT102 Elements of Greek.

REQUIRED COURSES

Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

NT101–NT102 Elements of Greek

The Department

A study of the basic principles of biblical Greek for students who have not had Greek or who need an extensive review in the elements of the language. 3 hours each semester.

One section each of NT101 and NT102 will be an honors Greek section. The purpose of honors Greek is to gain greater facility in the Greek language as a preparation for more thorough exegesis in the New Testament. Besides the standard requirements for NT101–NT102, honors Greek will focus on increased vocabulary and composition from English to Greek. No previous study of Greek is required.

NT103 Intermediate Greek

The Department

A study of the grammar and syntax of the Greek New Testament and an introduction to New Testament textual criticism. Prerequisite: NT101–NT102 Elements of Greek or a satisfactory score on the advanced-standing exam. 3 hours.

NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis

The Department

An introduction to exegetical procedures and practice of exegesis in various New Testament genres, with an emphasis on Ephesians. Procedures include outlining the argument of passages, doing word studies, validating exegetical decisions, and using exegetical tools properly. Prerequisite: NT103 Intermediate Greek or a satisfactory score on the advanced-standing exam. 3 hours.
ELECTIVE COURSES

Elective courses are designed to aid students who wish to make a more intensive study of the Greek New Testament than is possible in the required courses. Students in the New Testament Studies ministry emphasis must take 9 hours in this department. As part of their 9 hours, students must include two of the following three courses:

- NT205 Advanced Greek Grammar 3
- NT305 Exegesis of Gospel Narrative 3

NT390 The Book of Revelation
The Department

Exegesis of the Greek text of the Book of Revelation, with emphasis on the unique interpretive problems of the book. 3 hours.

THEMATIC STUDIES

NT400 The New Testament in Contemporary Culture
Bock and Fantin

An examination of New Testament biblical introduction that interacts with key issues about the Bible in the public square and university contexts. This course will engage in discussion of contemporary issues about the origins of the Jesus tradition, the apostolic teaching, the New Testament as a canon, and the origins of Christian orthodoxy as seen in the New Testament and important collateral writings of the period. Attention will be given to major first-century cultural features, both Jewish and Greco-Roman, that serve as a backdrop for the original Christian message leading to a greater appreciation of the New Testament message. The course will also treat how such issues impact one’s understanding of Scripture as inspired by God. Students may substitute NT400 The New Testament in Contemporary Culture for NT113 but may only take one or the other. 3 hours.

NT405 New Testament Study and the Life of Christ
Bock

A study of the backgrounds to the ministry of Christ, a survey of His ministry in the Gospels, with primary focus on the Synoptics, and consideration of how to study the Gospels. Special attention will be given to evaluation of recent critical discussions of the life of Christ, including such topics as the quest for the historical Jesus and the Jesus Seminar. Open to non-Greek students. 3 hours.

NT407 Historical Jesus
Bock

An examination of the history, method, and approach of Historical Jesus studies to Jesus’ life in general and to specific key events in Jesus’ ministry. The student will be equipped to interact with current discussion and debate on the Historical Jesus and to understand the ways in which such discussion and debate are undertaken. 3 hours.

NT408 Jesus and the Media
Back and Grant

An examination and evaluation of how different media handle Jesus discussions, especially in university contexts. It also treats how the different media operate, as well as how best to work with the media. This course will focus on evaluating what is said about Jesus in the public square and how to interact with and respond to it. May also be credited in the Department of Media Arts and Worship (see MW104). 3 hours.

NT410 Greco-Roman and Jewish Sites and Backgrounds
Back

A visuals-based course using photographs of various finds and locales as well as key primary source texts designed to expose students to key Greco-Roman as well as Jewish sites and customs that shed light on the background of various NT books. 3 hours.
The New Testament and Sexual Ethics
Smith
An exegetical examination of selected New Testament texts related to sexual ethics (sexuality, singleness, and marriage and family), with attention to biblical theology and contemporary application. New Testament passages on such topics as divorce, adultery, fornication, homosexuality, celibacy, and the significance of the physical body will be studied in the course. Prerequisite: NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis. 3 hours.

EXEGETICAL ELECTIVES FOR NON-GREEK STUDENTS
A knowledge of Greek is not required for these electives.

Introduction to Exegesis for Non-Greek Students
Burer
An introduction to exegetical method and to Greek aids that can contribute to non-Greek students’ understanding of the Scriptures. Students study selected aspects of Greek grammar, do word studies, solve interpretive problems, and state the exegetical ideas of passages as they work through the Greek text of a short New Testament epistle. Recommended primarily for M.A., nondegree, and C.B.T.S. students. 3 hours.

Introduction to Gospel Narrative for Non-Greek Students
Bock and Harris
A study of narrative literature in the Gospels, with attention to comparison of the accounts of the Gospel narratives, their structures, and their theology. Recommended primarily for M.A., nondegree, and C.B.T.S. students. 3 hours.

DIRECTED STUDIES

Independent Study in New Testament
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of New Testament studies not specifically treated in other courses. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed 4 semester hours in any one subject of study. Limited to advanced students and subject to consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

New Testament Thesis
The Department
Independent research and writing of a thesis on an approved topic under the supervision of two faculty advisers. Students will have one calendar year to complete the thesis. If the thesis is not completed by the end of a year, students will be registered in NT903. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 2 or 3 hours.

New Testament Thesis Continuation
The Department
The thesis continuation course is required of all students writing a thesis who are beyond one year in the thesis process. Students must register for this course each fall, spring, and summer until completion of the thesis. 1 hour.

Special Topics in New Testament Studies
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed 4 semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
The purpose of the Department of Bible Exposition is to help students comprehend the Bible and to equip them for a lifetime of study, exposition, and application of the Scriptures. Courses help them develop skills in inductive Bible study, synthetic understanding of biblical books, applying principles of interpretation to the biblical text, and relating Bible content to the problems of contemporary life. Courses help them develop skills in:

- inductive Bible study,
- applying principles of interpretation to the biblical text, and
- relating Bible content to the problems of contemporary life.

REQUIRED COURSES

Specific Bible books studied in required Old or New Testament exegesis courses are excluded from Bible Exposition courses required of Th.M. students. For example, Ephesians is studied in NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis and therefore is not included in BE106 Acts and Pauline Epistles. Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

The purpose of the Division of Theological Studies is to equip students with discernment in systematic and biblical theology and an awareness of the historical and theological development of the church.
The purpose of the Department of Theological Studies is to equip godly servant-leaders for worldwide ministry by:

- passing on to students an understanding of the church’s one true faith embraced within a distinctively dispensational, premillennial evangelicalism;
- encouraging students to think theologically as a response to Scripture, with a sensitivity to the history of theology, philosophy, and culture; and
- helping students gain perspectives essential to spiritual formation, global servant-leadership, and the evaluation of contemporary issues and trends.

REQUIRED COURSES

The Department of Theological Studies offers a core curriculum, common to the Th.M. and most of the M.A. programs, examining both historical and systematic theology. The first two courses in Historical Theology, HT101 and HT102, survey the history of Christianity, particularly in the West, from the second century to the present. The second century to the present. HT200 History of Doctrine takes a different approach, tracing the development over time of several traditional subject areas in Systematic Theology. Those courses, ST101 to ST106, develop more fully the biblical rationale for vital doctrines, addressing the traditional subject areas of Prolegomena, Bibliology, the Doctrine of God, Christology, Pneumatology, Anthropology, Angelology, Hamartiology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology, and Eschatology.

Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

The purpose of the Division of Ministries and Communication is to equip students with the concepts, attitudes, and skills necessary to communicate biblical truth effectively through a variety of ministries.

DEPARTMENT OF PASTORAL MINISTRIES 134
DEPARTMENT OF MEDIA ARTS AND WORSHIP 138
DEPARTMENT OF BIBLICAL COUNSELING 141
DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION 145
DEPARTMENT OF WORLD MISSIONS & INTERCULTURAL STUDIES 149
DEPARTMENT OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND LEADERSHIP 154
The purpose of the Department of Pastoral Ministries is to prepare biblically centered pastors and other Christian leaders for ministry that focuses on the exposition of the Word of God and is characterized by vision for a lost world, leadership of God’s church, and a shepherd’s heart.

REQUIRED COURSES

Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

PM101  Spiritual Life
Anderson, Kuruvilla, Ralston
A study of the biblical principles that govern true Christian character and service, with emphasis on the sufficiency of the divine provisions and the heart conditions necessary for holy living and spiritual power in ministry. 2 hours.

PM102  Evangelism
Bolden, Cecil, Hillman, Jones, López
A study of the methods of personal and group evangelism, with emphases on equipping laypersons to evangelize, the use of church and parachurch structures in evangelism, the care of new converts and discipleship, and the use of apologetics as well as current issues in evangelism. 2 hours.

PM103  Expository Preaching I
The Department
An introduction to basic expository preaching theory and skills, emphasizing the preparation and delivery of a textually derived proposition with accuracy, interest, clarity, and relevance. Students preach twice and receive evaluation from fellow students and the professor. May be credited in the Department of Media Arts and Worship. Prerequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

PM104  Expository Preaching II
The Department
Instruction in narrative preaching with attention to theological development, sermon structures, oral clarity, the public reading of Scriptures, and long-term sermon development. Students preach three times and receive evaluation from fellow students and the professor. Prerequisite: PM103 Expository Preaching I. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

ELECTIVE COURSES

Students planning to take elective courses to fulfill a PM-related ministry emphasis should check with the department for a projected schedule of elective course offerings. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice.
Homiletics

PM201 Topical Expository Preaching

The purpose of the Department of Biblical Counseling is to develop biblically and theologically sound Christian counselors who are equipped to effectively impact people’s lives in a variety of ministry and professional counseling practice settings. Courses help students develop:

- a biblical, theological, and psychological perspective for understanding people and the struggles they experience;
- excellence in professional and interpersonal skills for the practice of counseling; and
- effective strategies for transformational ministry in counseling.

REQUIRED COURSES

Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

- BC101  Pastoral Counseling
  Barnes, Dickens
  A course designed to consider the special issues associated with the theory, practice, and administration of counseling in pastoral contexts. Students will receive training for certification in the PREPARE-ENRICH® and Counselaid® assessments as well as the Strategic Pastoral Counseling model. 2 hours.

- BC102  Theological and Psychological Foundations of Counseling
  Barnes, Dickens
  An introduction to the foundations of Christian counseling, emphasizing the priority of a theological system for theory and practice. Special attention is given to models of integration, historical developments, current directions, and collaborative models of Christian counseling for the local church and the professional Christian counselor. 3 hours.

- BC205  Personality Theory
  Dickens
  An analysis of major theories of personality taught by various Christian and secular authors and how those issues relate to biblical anthropology, sanctification, and counseling. 2 hours.

- BC210  Counseling Theory
  Chock, Jones
  A course designed to provide an introduction to primary counseling theories, with special attention given to evaluating those theories on the basis of Scripture, understanding the nature of men and women, observing how and why problems develop, and dealing with those problems in appropriate and effective ways. 3 hours.

- BC215  Normal Human Growth
  Marten, Thacker
  A course designed to trace the normal stages and understand the natural processes of human growth and development (from before birth to old age) on various levels: physical, intellectual, relational, and emotional. 3 hours.
BC220 Counseling Methods and Techniques
Marten
A study of the major techniques and strategies that can be appropriately and effectively used in counseling individuals, including ways of determining and defining problems (diagnosis) as well as helping with the problem (treatment). Prerequisite: BC210 Counseling Theory. 3 hours.

BC225 Abnormal Human Behavior
Dickens, Kim
A course designed to study the symptoms and underlying personal and interpersonal dynamics of the major categories of dysfunction as found in the DSM manual. Special attention will be given to depressive, obsessive-compulsive, and sexual disorders. Prerequisite: BC210 Counseling Theory. 3 hours.

BC227 Human Sexuality
Barnes, Rosenau
A basic introduction to counseling for sexual issues. Students are introduced to a theology of sexuality, a basic model for addressing sexual issues in counseling, basics of sexual biology and psychology, sexual development, sexual dysfunction, and basic intervention techniques. 3 hours.

BC230 Lifestyle and Career Development
Jones
A survey of theories, issues, and informational sources associated with educational choices, career options, and vocational decisions that will enable the counselor to assist clients with vocational guidance and healthy lifestyle choices. 2 hours.

BC235 Social and Cultural Foundations
Jones
A study of cultural and cross-cultural issues related to counseling. The course will investigate society and the church in terms of the role of women, ethnic groups, lifestyle traditions and change, population patterns, and counseling on the mission field. 2 hours.

BC240 Research Methods and Statistics
Dickens
A study of statistics (principles, usefulness, and limitations) and other standard research tools and methods as applied in the field of counseling. 2 hours.

BC245 Appraisal and Assessment Techniques

BC297 Marital Counseling
Dickens, Jones, Townsend
A study of theory and practice of conjoint therapy with married couples. A number of theoretical perspectives and related clinical techniques will be studied, including biblical integration. Attention will also be given to intervention techniques for couples in distress. 3 hours.

PRACTICUMS

BC305 Counseling Practicum I
The Department
A course designed to introduce the practicum, processes, and procedures involved in counseling based on the theory and practice taught in BC210 Counseling Theory. Direct interaction in 20 1-hour individual counseling sessions with a supervised LPC intern helps develop students’ understanding of and ability to address common problems that people face. Students enrolling in this course will be assessed a $100 student counseling fee to help defray the costs of the individual counseling sessions. Prerequisite: BC210 Counseling Theory (must be taken previously or concurrently with this practicum). Enrollment limited to 12 students per section. Open to students who are not in the M.A. in Biblical Counseling program. 3 hours.

BC310 Counseling Practicum II
The Department
A course designed for students to experience, observe, and apply in practice counseling theory, methods, and techniques at an off-site location, while under supervision (10 hours per week). Includes supervision and evaluation from professor as well as interactive feedback from professor and students within an on-site, group-practicum context. Students present a minimum of three videotaped counseling experiences supplemented with a case summary. Emphasis is placed on diagnosis, treatment plan, and biblical integration. Prerequisites: BC305 Counseling Practicum I, BC215 Normal Human Growth, BC220 Counseling Methods and Techniques, and BC225 Abnormal Human Behavior. (The latter two must be taken previously or concurrently with this practicum.) Enrollment limited to 8 students and requires consent of the professor. 3 hours.

BC315 Counseling Practicum III
The Department
A course designed as a continuation of Practicum II, with greater emphasis on comprehensive clinical definition carefully written in accordance with the standards of the profession. Students present a minimum of three videotaped counseling experiences supplemented with a case summary. Prerequisite: BC310 Counseling Practicum II. Enrollment limited to 8 students and requires consent of the professor. 3 hours.
BC325 Counseling Practicum Elective

The Department

The counseling practicum elective is a continuation of Practicum III, with a greater emphasis on careful clinical practice according to the standards of the profession. The course will require a supervisory relationship between a counseling professor and M.A./BC student working to accrue additional practicum hours. The student will be supervised as he or she experiences, observes, and practices the application of counseling techniques at an off-site location. The purpose of the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies is to motivate and prepare students to fulfill Christ’s mandate to make disciples among all nations. The department is a resource for the Seminary regarding cross-cultural and intercultural aspects of ministry. It gives biblical, theoretical, and practical preparation for intercultural evangelism, church planting, leadership development, Christian education, and Christian higher education. The department also prepares students for intercultural parachurch ministries and seeks to train leaders for the growing global missionary movement.

REQUIRED COURSE
Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

ELECTIVE COURSES
Th.M. students with an Intercultural Ministries emphasis must complete 12 hours in the department. Nine of the hours are in the department’s three Foundations courses (WM205, WM210, and WM215). An additional three hours must be taken from the department’s electives in the Contexts, Strategic Approaches, or Biblical/Theological Studies categories that follow.

Th.M. students with an Evangelism and Discipleship ministry emphasis must complete 12 hours from the following:

DIRECTED STUDIES

WM901 Independent Study in Missions
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of missions not specifically treated in other courses. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed 4 semester hours in any one subject of study. Limited to advanced students and subject to consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

WM902 World Missions and Intercultural Studies Thesis
The Department
Independent research and writing of a thesis on an approved topic under the supervision of two faculty advisers. Students will have one calendar year to complete the thesis. If the thesis is not completed by the end of a year, students will be registered in WM903. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 2 or 3 hours.

WM903 World Missions and Intercultural Studies Thesis Continuation
The Department
The thesis continuation course is required of all students writing a thesis who are beyond one year in the thesis process. Students must register for this course each fall, spring, and summer until completion of the thesis. 1 hour.

WM905 Special Topics in World Missions
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed 4 semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.

WM909 Mission Field Research
The Department
On-the-field training and research, including 12 hours in pre-field analysis and orientation, six to eight weeks in another culture under the guidance of missions personnel, and the completion of a research project. 2 hours.
The purpose of the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership is to contribute to the development of future leaders by providing courses and experiences that enable students to:

• demonstrate an increasing love and devotion to God and loving service to others;
• exhibit leadership character and skills;
• formulate vocational goals based on an evaluation of their giftedness, calling, and passions;
• integrate seminary coursework and ministry experience; and
• employ ministry knowledge and skills in a particular ministry venue.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION
All students in the Th.M., M.A./CE, M.A./CM, M.A./MW, and M.A.(BS) degree programs are required to enroll in SF100 starting their first fall semester of study at either the Dallas campus or the Houston Campus site. Though the Spiritual Formation courses do not receive academic credit, they will appear on students’ transcripts and are required for graduation. Students who have completed portions of their required coursework online or at extension sites, and who are therefore unable to spend two full academic years in residency in Dallas or in Houston, must contact the department and apply for an alternative program for completing their Spiritual Formation requirement. This alternative program will take a minimum of one calendar year to complete; therefore the responsibility lies with the student to contact the department in a timely manner.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP INTERNSHIPS
Internship credit is required of all Th.M., S.T.M., M.A./CE, M.A./CL, and M.A./CM students as detailed below. No advanced standing or validation is granted for prior ministry experience. Internship credit is also available to students in other degree programs as elective credit.

Th.M.—3 hours
SL105 Master of Theology Internship/Portfolio
M.A./CE—2 hours
SL165 Master of Arts in Christian Education Internship
M.A./CL—2 hours
SL155 Master of Arts in Christian Leadership Internship
M.A./CM—2 hours
SL140 Master of Arts in Cross-cultural Ministries Internship
S.T.M.—1 hour
Sl. 220 Master of Sacred Theology Internship

To gain global and cross-cultural perspectives and skills, students are strongly encouraged to participate in a short-term, cross-cultural missions trip as a part of any required internship. Participation in a preapproved, short-term missions trip experience will be credited toward the total hours of ministry experience required. Partial internship credit also is available to students who lead a Spiritual Formation group or teach in the Lay Institute. Consult the Spiritual Formation and Leadership department for more information.

REQUIRED COURSES

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

The following four semester course must be taken over four consecutive fall/spring semesters and is required of all Th.M., M.A./CE, M.A./CM, M.A./MW, and M.A.(BS) students. (M.A./BEL students are required to take only one semester of Spiritual Formation—SF100.) At the beginning of the fall semester at either the Dallas campus or Houston Campus, each new student is placed in a Spiritual Formation group that meets together for four consecutive fall and spring semesters and is led by a qualified facilitator. Groups are designated as follows:

- Men only: single and married* male students;
- Women only: single and married* female students;
- Married* couples only: married students whose spouses wish to join them in the Spiritual Formation process.

*Spouses of registered students are STRONGLY encouraged to join their spouses in a married couples’ group. If a student’s spouse wishes not to take part in the Spiritual Formation group, the registered student must sign up for a men’s or women’s group.

Retreats, outreach events, work projects, and campus activities are woven throughout the two-year experience.

SF100  Spiritual Formation

This course challenges students over the course of four semesters in the following four key areas: 1) Grasp more fully the significance of how their identity in Christ fundamentally effects everything they do, both personally and corporately; 2) through community utilize the concept of “life story” to pursue new depths of trust out of common commitment to discovering God’s authorship of their stories and how those divinely authored experiences have shaped and are shaping their lives; 3) examine the personal and corporate implications of sin and grace in their lives; and 4) implement a vision for future ministry informed by what has been learned over the previous three semesters and with the feedback and encouragement of the group. These four key areas will be addressed over four consecutive fall/spring semesters in the context of a Spiritual Formation Group. The goal of this course is not to give the student a small group experience. The goal is to equip the student for future ministry and service through the exploration of these four key concepts. That goal is best achieved through practical application in community. Transcribed as a noncredit academic requirement.

SF201  Spiritual Formation I (Identity)

Jones

This course challenges students to grasp more fully the reality of our identity in Christ both personally and corporately. The Life Inventory exercises are the primary resource used in discovering and establishing identity. An adequate understanding of one’s identity in relation to God, self, the body of Christ, and the world is presented as a precursor to developing authentic community. This course must be taken concurrently with the first semester of SF100. 1 hour.

SF202  Spiritual Formation II (Community)

Jones

This course challenges students to pursue new depths of trust out of a common commitment to discovering God’s authorship in their lives. Life Story is the primary resource used in guiding each Spiritual Formation group toward the development of authentic community. This course must be taken concurrently with the second semester of SF100. 1 hour.

SF203  Spiritual Formation III (Integrity)

Jones

This course challenges students to examine the personal and corporate implications of sin and grace in their lives. The Life Change Exercises are the primary resource used in developing integrity in the lives of group members. This course must be taken concurrently with the third semester of SF100. 1 hour.
SF204  Spiritual Formation IV (Ministry)
Jones
This course challenges students to implement their divine design in building up the body of Christ and witnessing to a lost world. The Life Vision Exercises are the primary resource used for exploring each member’s vision for a future life of ministry. This course helps focus the remainder of the students’ academic experiences by providing an opportunity to consider carefully how they might serve the Lord for a lifetime of effective ministry. This course must be taken concurrently with the fourth semester of SF100. 1 hour.

SF245  M.A./BEL Spiritual Formation
Orr
This course focuses on building community through an understanding of and appreciation for God’s sovereign and gracious work in the student’s life. It is an orientation uniquely suited to a cross-cultural experience. This course may not be taken as a substitute for SF101. Required of and limited to M.A. in Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics students. Transcribed nonacademic credit, spring only.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP INTERNSHIPS
A Servant Leadership Internship requires the student to be involved in ministry hours in a local church and in an area related to the student’s chosen ministry emphasis for the Th.M. program or concentration for the professional M.A. programs. Th.M. and M.A./CL students will have one calendar year (three consecutive semesters) to fulfill the Internship requirements. All other M.A. students will have two consecutive semesters to fulfill the Internship requirements. For Th.M students, it is strongly suggested that the student wait until at least the third year of study (60+ credit hours) before officially starting the Internship. For M.A. students, it is strongly suggested that the student wait until the second year of study (30+ credit hours) before officially starting the Internship.

In addition to the ministry hours in the field, the student will demonstrate readiness for ministry through the development of a portfolio related to the DTS Core Competencies and the student’s ministry emphasis or concentration. The portfolio will consist of assessed work that is based on the student’s vocational intent and uniqueness of the ministry sites.

Registration for all internships takes place only through a registration interview with the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership the semester prior to the start of the internship. Students should allow sufficient time prior to the start of the semester when scheduling the registration interview. Registration for the internship follows the same timeline as all other courses. If the registration interview takes place after the registration period, the student is responsible to pay all applicable late registration or schedule change fees.

For information on internship site requirements, the internship registration process, portfolio requirements, or available local, national, and international internship opportunities with churches and parachurch organizations (Internship Job Board), consult the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership website (www.dts.edu/internship).
REQUIRED INTERNSHIPS FOR VOCATIONAL DEGREES

SL105 Master of Theology Internship
Hillman
Supervised field-based education in the student’s intended vocational ministry context, under the supervision and encouragement of an experienced ministry mentor. Enrollment limited to Th.M. students. Prerequisite: SF101 Spiritual Formation I (Identity). 3 hours.

SL140 Master of Arts in Cross-cultural Ministries Internship
Hillman
Supervised field-based education in cross-cultural church planting or church nurture in a foreign country or in the United States, under the supervision and encouragement of an experienced ministry mentor. Enrollment limited to M.A./CM students. Prerequisite: SF101 Spiritual Formation I (Identity). 2 hours.

SL155 Master of Arts in Christian Leadership Internship
Hillman
Supervised field-based education in the student’s intended vocational ministry context, under supervision and encouragement of an experienced ministry mentor. Enrollment limited to M.A./CL students. Prerequisite: SL305 Dynamics of Leadership. 3 hours.

SL165 Master of Arts in Christian Education Internship
Hillman
Supervised field-based education in one or more forms of Christian education ministry and educational leadership, under the supervision and encouragement of an experienced ministry mentor. Enrollment limited to M.A./CE students. Prerequisite: SF101 Spiritual Formation I (Identity). 2 hours.

SL170 Master of Sacred Theology Internship
Hillman
Supervised field-based education in the student’s intended vocational ministry context, under the supervision and encouragement of an experienced ministry mentor. Enrollment limited to S.T.M. students. 1 hour.

MINISTRY RESIDENCY
To provide more intentional opportunities to integrate classroom instruction with field-based experience within partnering churches and parachurch/mission organizations, DTS is offering Th.M. and M.A./CL students the opportunity to earn seminary credit for on-site instruction and cohort interactions at select ministry sites. While students in every vocational degree do some type of internship or practicum, this larger block of academic credit will allow students the opportunity to pursue integration at a much deeper level, since their focus during the residency will primarily be in the field.

This intensive learning opportunity is designed as an eight-month residency (two consecutive semesters—Ministry Residency I and Ministry Residency II) with an approved church or parachurch/mission organization during a student’s Th.M. program.

Additional information on this program may be obtained by contacting the Department of Spiritual Formation and Leadership.
Courses SF215–SF230 are to be taken consecutively and in conjunction with leading a Spiritual Formation group through SF101–SF104. This leader laboratory provides development and training in the context of leading. The integrated approach focuses on the development of character and skill in the context of relationships. Enrollment in courses SF215–SF230 requires consent of the department.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY/DOCTOR OF EDUCATIONAL MINISTRY

The Doctor of Ministry and Doctor of Educational Ministry programs are designed to provide advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry to those actively involved in vocational ministry. For information on the D.Min or D.Ed.Min. programs, see the Academic Programs section of this catalog or contact the Admissions office.

REQUIRED COURSES

DM101  The Ministry Leader
Barfoot, Burke, Lawrence, Lawson
Concentrating on two primary elements, personal awareness and leadership practice, students are provided the opportunity to engage in a series of self-assessments leading to a statement of life vision. The leadership-development process is also examined through case studies, leadership literature, and selected leadership concerns. 3 hours.

DM102  Applied Research Project Development Seminar
Barfoot, Dickens, Lawson, Wofford
A “walk-through” of the development of the applied research and dissertation, including problem-statement, research question, hypotheses, research design, theoretical grounding and literature review, and biblical-theological foundation. The course also explores thesis-writing strategies and ministry-research methods. 3 hours.

DM103  The Applied Research Project
The Department
DMin. studies culminate in the completion of an applied research project. A report of the student’s project is submitted as a dissertation. Note that the term “applied research project” refers to the entire project. The term “dissertation” refers to the actual written document. Students may register for DM103 only after they have been admitted to candidacy for the D.Min. degree. 3 hours.
DM105 Applied Research Continuation
The Department
The applied research continuation course is required of all students writing a research project who are beyond one year in the applied research process. Students must register for this course each summer and winter until completion of the applied research project. 1 hour.

ELECTIVE COURSES

ID201 Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis
Harris
An introduction to the use of computer tools for original language study for the student who has no previous background in Greek and Hebrew or who has had language courses some years previously. Students will learn how to do word studies, solve interpretive problems, and do basic exegetical work using available electronic tools. Selected computer software will be required as listed in the current syllabus. Enrollment is limited to 15 D.Ed.Min. students and currently enrolled D.Min. students. 3 hours.

BIBLE

DM205 Selected Topics of Biblical Issues in Today’s Ministry
The Department
A study of selected biblical issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM210 Interpretation and Communication of Narrative Literature
Warren
A study of accurate interpretation and effective communication of this unique form of literature. 3 hours.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

DM305 Selected Topics of Christian Education Issues in Today’s Ministry
Heinemann, Lawson, McLaughlin
A study of selected issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM310 Instructional and Learning Theories
Lawson
A survey of contemporary learning theories, with emphasis on their instructional implications. Students will integrate theoretical and empirical bases to derive implications for effective instruction. 3 hours.

DM315 Creative Problem-solving
Lawson
A presentation of problem-solving strategies that will enable students to identify, analyze, and propose solutions for their most pressing ministry problems. Each problem and solution will then be critiqued, with a view to providing a more comprehensive solution. 3 hours.

DM320 Group Process in Church Ministry
Donahue
The examination and practice of group skills necessary for promoting effective group work in committees, ministry teams, Bible studies, and fellowship groups. 3 hours.

DM325 Family Life: Enrichment and Education
The Department
An exploration of the relationship between enrichment of family life and family life education programs in the church. The seminar format provides an opportunity to interact with leading authorities in the field of family ministry and to become aware of networking possibilities with family ministers. 3 hours.

DM330 Biblical Patterns for Contemporary Parenting
Bruner, Lawson, Trent
An exploration of how biblical texts present patterns useful to parents for addressing contemporary parenting issues in family life. The seminar will provide opportunity for a survey of available resource materials, involvement in practical projects, and interaction with other professional ministers interested in the field. Students will assess the current status of ministries to parents in their own churches and devise strategies for enhancing those ministries. 3 hours.

DM335 Trends and Issues in Christian Education
McLaughlin
An examination of current educational paradigms in light of biblical anthropology and a Christian worldview. Students will identify and evaluate social and political trends at global and national levels in order to develop effective educational structures. 3 hours.

DM340 Strategic Resource Development
Lawson, McLaughlin
The development of three key resources in church ministry: people, finances, and space. Students will review various strategies to enable parishioners to discover, develop, and utilize God-given gifts. Issues in fundraising, financial proposals, and budget presentations will be discussed. Space allocation and utilization will be integrated into master planning and design strategies. 3 hours.
DM345 Biblical Church Leadership and Church Staffing
The Department
A seminar in leadership style, process, and implementation, with a focus on developing biblical qualities, designing team ministry, and solving common problems in church educational leadership. 3 hours.

Regier
A study of current educational equipment and techniques to enable students to design materials for presentation in their ministries. 3 hours.

DM355 Trends and Issues in Family Ministries
The Department
A seminar on advanced issues in church educational programming in which students analyze past achievement, assess program strengths and weaknesses, and prescribe effective ministries for the twenty-first century. 3 hours.

DM356 Marriage and Family Ministry Cohort
This cohort explores biblical and theological foundations, cutting-edge programs, and ministry education strategies. Certification in the use of research based tools for marriage and family educators will be included. A major focus will be to design sustainable context-specific Marriage and Family Ministries particularly in the local church. The cohort seminars will meet for six weeks (two weeks each, with intervening weekends free, for three consecutive winters). Enrollment is limited to students participating in the Marriage and Family Ministry Emphasis. 18 hours (6 hours each seminar).

Seminar 1
Lawson, Bruner, Trent
Initial introduction and survey of biblical and theological foundations, current research, and numerous cutting-edge programs for marriage and family ministries. 6 hours.

Seminar 2
Lawson, Barfoot, Barnes, Dickens
Continuation of marriage and family cohort studies, with a focus on research-based tools for marriage and family educators such as PREPARE/ENRICH, the Prevention and Relationship Enhancement Program (PREP), and the DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar. 6 hours.

Seminar 3
Lawson, Bruner, Trent
Conclusion of marriage and family cohort studies, with specialization in evaluating taxonomies of values education, parenting skills, and student program designs. 6 hours.

Effective biblical preaching spans the gulf between the biblical world and the modern world. To accomplish this task, students will examine the communication process and development of expository messages toward improvement in their skills in preparation and delivery of biblical sermons. 3 hours.

DM435 Writing for Publication
Engel
A course designed to help pastors and other Christian leaders develop basic skills in writing articles for magazines, devotional materials, and items for lay readership, with attention to all phases of writing for publication from idea generation to manuscript delivery. 3 hours.
DM440 Communication Relevance in Preaching
Sunukjian
The development of a communicative model of relevance that provides strategies for contextualized preaching in various settings. Students will do an in-depth analysis of their respective audiences and develop a framework for demonstrating the relevance of biblical messages. 3 hours.

DM450 Creativity in Preaching
Grant and Miller
A study of contemporary preaching styles and approaches, with a view to enabling the student to preach more effectively. 3 hours.

DM455 Preaching Topical Expository Sermons
Warren
A study aimed at preparing students to preach theological expository messages, current-issues expository messages, and biographical expository messages. Prerequisite: DM430 Biblical Exposition for the Twenty-First Century. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

DM460 Long-term Sermon Planning to Facilitate Life Change
Jeffress and Need
A method for developing a series of expository sermons on a book of the Bible or a topic. The preacher is able to know the central proposition of each sermon in a series before preaching the first sermon. This permits the creation of effective strategies for communication and life-change. 3 hours.

DM465 Advanced Expository Preaching Cohort
Barfoot, Lawrence, and Raymer
This cohort explores an advanced study of the practical art and discipline of expository preaching as practiced in a church context. This specialty will reaffirm and refine the principles of homiletics. A major focus of this cohort includes leading from the pulpit, long-range sermon planning, and preaching the major biblical genres with accuracy and creativity. This cohort-based program will provide advanced study in audience analysis, variety in sermon structures, mentoring in homiletics, and preaching to the post-modern generation. Key aspects of this cohort specialty are peer-group interactive learning and individual mentoring in homiletics. The cohort seminars will meet for six weeks (two weeks each, with intervening weekends free, for three consecutive winters). Enrollment is limited to students participating in the Advanced Expository Preaching Cohort. 18 hours (6 hours each seminar).

Seminar 1
Barfoot, Lawrence, and Raymer
Initial introduction to reaffirming and refining the art and discipline of expository preaching (includes DM101 The Ministry Leader seminar). 6 hours.

Seminar 2
Barfoot and Raymer
Continuation of reaffirming and refining the art and discipline of expository preaching, with an emphasis on creativity, relevance, and mentoring techniques in homiletics (includes DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar). 6 hours.

Seminar 3
Barfoot and Raymer
Conclusion of reaffirming and refining the art and discipline of expository preaching, with a focus on current trends and communication skills in current culture. 6 hours.

DM555 Dynamics of Ministry in the Missional Church
MacIlvaine
A study of the leadership issues, challenges, and opportunities confronting missional church leaders. This course introduces students to the history of the missional church movement, contrasts the missional church movement to the fragmenting emergent church movement, and describes how missional church pastors skillfully transition their church from internally focused forms of ministry to externally focused ones. 3 hours.
NURTURE

DM605  Selected Topics of Nurture Issues in Today's Ministry
The Department
A study of selected issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM610  The Primacy of the Minister’s Spiritual Life
David Wyrtsen
Given the rate of ministerial burnout and fallout, ministers must not neglect their own spiritual journey. This seminar addresses the struggles faced in ministry and offers realistic strategies of hope for ongoing spiritual maturation. 3 hours.

DM615  Advanced Pastoral Psychology and Counseling
Barnes
A study of psychodynamics in relation to pastoral counseling and the study and practice of counseling techniques, emphasizing special problems in counseling. 3 hours.

DM620  Worship Enhancement and Effectiveness
Raison and Donald Wyrtsen
An analysis of the theology of worship and worship trends, with a view toward leading God's people to appreciate and participate in worship. 3 hours.

DM625  Discipleship Dynamics
Bailey
An examination of the concept of discipleship as defined by Christ as the seedbed strategy for developing Christian character. The characteristics of a disciple articulated in the Gospels are carefully correlated with the practice of discipleship in the church as described in the Epistles. 3 hours.

DM630  Ministry’s Ethical Dilemmas
Lightner
A study of current political, medical, and legal issues in the light of Scripture, with attention to the ethical and moral implications of these issues on people engaged in ministry. Students bring case studies to the seminar and develop a framework for decision-making and resolution. 3 hours.

DM635  Marriage and Family Counseling
Jones
An examination of the theoretical foundations of healthy Christian family life, with emphasis on practical skills and counseling techniques in the assessment, intervention, and resolution of marital and family problems. Enrollment limited to 20 students. 3 hours.

DM640  Human Sexuality
Barnes
An introductory course in human sexuality to help church leaders develop strategies for pastoral care as well as programs that deal with sexual issues across the life span. Students will be introduced to theology of sexuality, a basic model of addressing sexual issues in pastoral care, basics of sexual biology and psychology, sexual development, sexual dysfunction, and basic intervention programs for the prevention of sexual problems and the promotion of healthy sexuality. Students will also be challenged in their own growth and development in these areas. 3 hours.

DM641  Sexual Educator Certification I
Barnes
This course will focus on enhancing the practice of ministry for church educators and ministry leaders at the doctoral level with applied skills for the prevention of sexual problems and to promote healthy sexual development. The three specific topics of the course are: 1) Single sexuality, 2) men’s sexual integrity, and 3) marital sexual intimacy. 3 hours.

DM642  Sexual Educator Certification II
Barnes
This course will focus on enhancing the practice of ministry for church educators and ministry leaders at the doctoral level with applied skills for the prevention of sexual problems and to promote healthy sexual development. The three specific topics of the course are: 1) Female sexuality, 2) premarital sexual preparation, and 3) marital sexual and personal spiritual formation. 3 hours.

DM643  Sexual Educator Certification III
Barnes
This course will focus on enhancing the practice of ministry for church educators and ministry leaders at the doctoral level with applied skills for the prevention of sexual problems and to promote healthy sexual development. The three specific topics of the course are: 1) Parents teaching children sex education, 2) adolescent sexuality, and 3) sexual identity development. 3 hours.

DM645  Biblical Conflict Resolution I
Barnes
This course will focus on conflict coaching and mediation training skills needed for biblical conflict resolution. Conflict coaching skills equip the conciliator to work with only one of the parties to the conflict in a one-on-one setting. Mediation training equips the conciliator to work with two or more people in conflict desiring reconciliation. This training is offered in partnership with Peacemaker Ministries and will be conducted at their training site. This is the first of three courses required for the “Certified Christian Conciliator” credential offered by Peacemaker Ministries. 3 hours.

DM646 Biblical Conflict Resolution II

Barnes

This course will focus on advanced training skills needed for biblical conflict resolution in conflict coaching, mediation, and arbitration. The course will address a process that is an alternative to civil litigation for parties who are seeking assistance in disputes between individuals and/or organizations. This training is offered in partnership with Peacemaker Ministries and will be conducted at their training site. This is the second of three courses required for the “Certified Christian Conciliator” credential offered by Peacemaker Ministries. 3 hours.

DM647 Biblical Conflict Resolution III

Barnes

This course will focus on advanced training skills needed for biblical conflict resolution in one of three specific applications: 1) Intervening in Church Conflict; 2) Reconciling Marital Conflict; or 3) Peacemaking Cross-culturally. Students will select only one of these three application areas for their entire course focus. This training is offered in partnership with Peacemaker Ministries and will be conducted at their training site. This is the third of three courses required for the “Certified Christian Conciliator” credential offered by Peacemaker Ministries. 3 hours.

DM650 Spiritual Formation Cohort

A study of Christian spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. This cohort is comprised of three seminars that will give special attention to the theology and history of Christian spirituality, personal and corporate practices of spiritual formation, and the process of providing spiritual nurture and guidance to others. 18 hours (6 hours each seminar).

Seminar 1

B. Jones and G. Seidel

An introduction to Christian spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. This seminar will focus on the biblical and theological foundations for spiritual formation and the history of the church’s engagement in spiritual formation in the patristic, medieval, reformation, and modern eras. The history of spiritual formation will be studied, with special attention given to the contemporary appropriation of key insights and practices from the church’s past. 6 hours.

Seminar 2

B. Jones and G. Seidel

An introduction to the personal and corporate practices of spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. This seminar will focus on the classical spiritual disciplines, including prayer, fasting, biblical meditation, and acts of service as well as the history and practice of corporate worship. It is designed to help students understand, engage in, and lead others in the practice of the spiritual disciplines that are commended in Scripture and developed throughout the history of the church. 6 hours.

Seminar 3

B. Jones and G. Seidel

An examination of the process of providing nurture and guidance to others in spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. This seminar will focus on the history and practice of soul care and spiritual direction as well as the contemporary practice of spiritual formation in small groups. 6 hours.

THEOLOGY

DM705 Selected Topics of Theological Issues in Today’s Ministry

The Department

A study of selected theological issues and their significance for ministry. This seminar is offered based on student interest. May be repeated once for credit under a different topic. 3 hours.

DM710 The Charismatic Movement

Hannah

A study of the theological and historical framework of the charismatic movement, with exegesis of select biblical passages. 3 hours.

DM720 Culture, Meaning, and Contextualization in Ministry

Pocock

The development of a biblical theology of culture and integration of the roles of culture and meaning in contextualized ministry. The course will provide a grid for evaluating ministries according to culture and meaning toward the goal of effectively contextualized and globalized ministry rather than copying indiscriminately. 3 hours.

DM725 Ministries of Reconciliation

Peterson

A discussion of the biblical theology of ministries of reconciliation that allows students to develop a model for reconciliation ministries of their choice—racial, gender, marital, cultural, intrachurch, interchurch, restoration of a fallen leader, etc. The course goes beyond the “should” to develop the “how to” of reconciliation. 3 hours.
The Role of Prayer in Ministry
The Department
A study of the biblical teaching on prayer, its practice throughout church history, and its place in the ministry. 3 hours.

Trends in Contemporary Theological Movements
The Department
A study of the historical and theological development of current trends in theology. Topics will vary according to student interest. 3 hours.

Developing Biblical Strategies for Ministering to the Suffering
Waters
This course is designed to shape a biblical theology of suffering in order to develop various ministry strategies that can be implemented by ministry leaders to aid the Christian community in meeting the needs of a suffering world. 3 hours.

WOMEN IN MINISTRY
The Women in Ministry emphasis in the Christian Education track will offer advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for women. It is designed to support and promote the complementary roles of men and women in ministry.

Following a cohort structure, students will go through a designated part of the program together, enjoying a community experience with fellow learners and mentor scholars. Over a three-year period they move through the cohort courses specific to their track, forming networking relationships and sharpening their skills together. In addition, they take elective hours outside the cohort. This uniquely designed program combines the benefit of the cohort relational experience and the flexibility to study with a variety of DTS's faculty.

The Women in Ministry emphasis requires 27 semester hours of coursework plus a 3-hour applied research project related to the student's ministry.

Women in Christian Leadership
Edwards and Baker
An analysis of Christian leadership, the unique characteristics of women as leaders, the significant contribution of women in the Bible, and effective ways for women to enhance and strengthen Christian ministry through effective team-building. 3 hours.

The Role of Women Related to Biblical, Historical, and Futuristic Issues
Edwards and Baker
An exploration of biblical texts on the role of women in ministry, community, and the home; an examination of future trends; and the related impact of sound hermeneutics, culture, and history. 3 hours.

Understanding Women in Contemporary Cultures
Edwards and Baker
A study of selected cultural issues that affect women's spiritual lives today, including alternative spiritualities, feminism, gender-based epistemologies, and demographics and lifestyles of contemporary women. 3 hours.

Ministry Models in Multiple Contexts
Edwards and Baker
A seminar to expose women to distinctive prototypes of ministry models, equipping them to evaluate and apply what they learn to their own ministry contexts for the purpose of building dynamic transformational ministries. 3 hours.

Caring for Women in Pain
Edwards and Baker
An exploration of the unique characteristics and needs of women in pain and a discussion of ways to guide and mentor women back to spiritual health through effective caregiving skills and ministries. 3 hours.

DIRECTED STUDY

Independent Study
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of ministry studies. Normally the independent study is associated with the student's research project, though it may be related to other interests. Students may take up to two independent studies as part of their program. 1–4 hours.

Special Topics
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the Seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed 4 semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
The Doctor of Philosophy program is designed for those who are capable of doing research at the highest level, with a view to becoming scholars and educational leaders in various fields of Christian ministry. The program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree is separated into two divisions: Biblical Studies and Theological Studies. Ph.D. students enter the program either at Stage 1 or Stage 2. See the Ph.D. degree program section of this catalog for more information. Stage 1 students complete courses outlined in that section of the catalog. The courses listed in this section of the catalog are for Stage 2 of the Ph.D. program.

PH.D. IN BIBLICAL STUDIES (STAGE 2)
In addition to the Biblical Studies core of 9 hours listed below, each student must take 5–15 hours of coursework and 3 hours of dissertation research in a concentration, either Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, or Bible Exposition.

Each student in the Biblical Studies major also has 8–18 hours of electives, with at least one course to be taken in each of the other departments in the Biblical Studies division. An Old Testament student, for example, is required to take one doctoral course from the New Testament Studies department and one course from the Bible Exposition department. The remaining elective hours are open and taken in consultation with the student’s departmental adviser.

With approval of the director, WM410 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts may be credited to the Ph.D. program.

REQUIRED COURSES

BS1001 Old Testament Backgrounds
Allen and OT Department
A critical investigation of historical, literary, religious, and cultural backgrounds pertaining to the interpretation of the Old Testament.
3 hours.

BS1002 New Testament Backgrounds
NT Department, Allman, and Taylor
A critical investigation of historical, literary, religious, and cultural backgrounds pertaining to the interpretation of the New Testament.
2 hours.

BS1003 Hermeneutics
Bock and Johnson
A study of hermeneutics, including its history, with emphasis on recent trends and applications. This will include issues such as the impact of presuppositions on interpretation, the dynamics of dual authorship, the question of where meaning resides, the effect of differences in genre on interpretation, as well as considerations of the reality of the progress of revelation and its application to today's world. The seminar involves a mixture of discussion of theory and discussion of texts. 3 hours.
Old Testament Studies Concentration

The purpose of the Old Testament Studies concentration is to prepare students for a ministry based on scholarly research in the text of the Old Testament. The program integrates the study of biblical Hebrew exegesis, historical Hebrew grammar, Old Testament backgrounds, Old Testament criticism, and biblical theology. Ph.D. students majoring in Old Testament Studies are encouraged either to teach in the Lay Institute or to serve for a year as a teaching assistant in the department.

In addition to 9 hours of divisional courses, an Old Testament concentration requires 14–15 hours of Old Testament courses, 3 hours of dissertation research in Old Testament Studies, and 8 to 9 hours of electives, with at least one of the courses selected in New Testament Studies and one in Bible Exposition. Electives should be chosen in consultation with the student’s departmental adviser.

Before the end of the first semester in the Ph.D. program, students with an Old Testament Studies concentration must pass a reading proficiency exam demonstrating basic competence in Hebrew grammar and syntax and the ability to translate Hebrew prose literature. Remedial instruction to prepare for this exam will be provided by the department, but no credit will be given for such instruction.

The greatest asset of a seminary is its faculty members because they translate the school’s philosophy into meaningful content in the classroom. DTS faculty devote much of their time to teaching, are current in their studies, and publish an impressive number of books and articles for theological journals and Christian magazines.

FULL-TIME FACULTY

* Indicates when full-time faculty service began

---

RONALD B. ALLEN

Senior Professor of Bible Exposition, 1995–

In addition to his teaching responsibilities at DTS, Dr. Allen preaches in churches across the country, speaks at Bible conferences, regularly leads study tours in Israel, Turkey, and Greece, and has been a biblical and theological consultant for Maranatha! Music. He has written a dozen books, was one of the senior editors for The New King James Version, Old Testament, and was the Old Testament editor for both The Nelson Study Bible and The Nelson’s New Illustrated Bible Commentary. Aside from his academic pursuits, Dr. Allen loves to ride his bicycle—the one that fits into his suitcase.

JAMES E. ALLMAN

Professor of Bible Exposition, 2000–

Dr. Allman was professor at Crichton College for eighteen years before joining the DTS faculty. Since 1987 he has been a visiting lecturer in Australia, Ukraine, and India, and also has conducted missions trips in those nations and in Siberia. He served as a translator for many of the psalms in the Holman Christian Standard Bible. Dr. Allman has written articles for Life and Work Directions for the Baptist Sunday School Board, and his iTunes library includes volumes of classical music, one of his great passions.

VICTOR D. ANDERSON

Chair and Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries, 2006–

After 15 years of engagement in theological education in Ethiopia, Dr. Anderson joined the DTS faculty in 2006. With a broad base of teaching experience in Africa, in local churches, and briefly at Talbot School of Theology, he completed a Ph.D. in Intercultural Education, focusing his research on preaching in rural Ethiopia. Dr. Anderson maintains active ministry on a preaching team at his local church in Mesquite and at churches and conferences around the USA. He and his wife, Cindy, have two children. As associate missionaries with Serving in Mission (SIM), they continue to minister in cross-cultural contexts each summer.
MARK L. BAILEY
Professor of Bible Exposition, President, 1985–.
Dr. Bailey assumed the Seminary’s presidency after years of service as both a professor and the vice president for Academic Affairs as well as his various roles as pastor in the local church. He was a seminar instructor for Walk Thru the Bible Ministries for twenty years and is in demand for Bible conferences and other preaching engagements. His overseas ministries have included Venezuela, Argentina, Hungary, and China. He is also a regular tour leader in the lands of the Bible, including Israel, Jordan, Egypt, Turkey, Greece, and Rome. His board service includes Insight for Living, Jews for Jesus, Bible Study Fellowship, and Walk Thru the Bible Ministries.

D. SCOTT BARFOOT
Director of Doctor of Ministry Studies, 2008–.
Dr. Barfoot aspires to equip and empower global executive, pastoral, and educational ministry leaders who impact the next generation for the cause of Christ. Having served in a variety of pastoral leadership capacities in rural Canadian and suburban Asian and American churches in Canada and the United States since 1992, he has a special heart for leadership development in the local church. His most recent research examined the cultivation and breakdown of interpersonal trust between pastors and lay leaders from churches throughout the United States, Canada, and the Philippines. He and his wife, Debbie, have three children, David, Joel, and Karissa.

C. GARY BARNES
Professor of Biblical Counseling, 1997–.
Dr. Barnes is an ordained minister and a licensed psychologist who specializes in marriage and family research, counseling, and training. After graduating from DTS he served as an assistant pastor for seven years. While in the New York area he was a research project coordinator at NYU Medical Center’s Family Studies Clinic and later completed a two-year postdoctoral fellowship through Parkland Hospital (Dallas) and the Child Guidance Clinics of Dallas and Texoma. Dr. Barnes also loves biking and often competes in extended road races.

CHARLES P. BAYLIS
Professor of Bible Exposition, 1994–.
Dr. Charlie Baylis and his wife, Sharon, live in the Tampa, Florida, area, but currently is a resident Dallas campus professor. He has taught for many years at the Seminary’s extensions and continues to enjoy teaching at the extension sites on a regular basis. In addition to teaching in a variety of contexts, he is a conference speaker and also serves as an adjunct faculty member at Word of Life International. Dr. Baylis has authored several articles for journals and periodicals. He enjoys family activities as well as exploring the biblical sites in Israel, Turkey, Greece, and Italy.
D. Jeffrey Bingham
Chair and Professor of Theological Studies, 1996–2002; 2003–.

Dr. Bingham specializes in the study of early Christianity. He has written extensively on the early Christian church and his articles and essays have appeared in leading literary journals. Before joining the faculty of DTS he pastored a church in West Texas and taught at several Christian colleges. He also has served as assistant dean for theological studies at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Joshua J. Bleeker
Director of Admissions, 2008–.

After graduating in 2004 with his Th.M. in Systematic Theology, Mr. Bleeker joined Team Admissions full-time and was appointed Director of Admissions in 2007. Since his passion for God’s Word and love for DTS come together in his role, he describes his position as “the best job in the world.” Mr. Bleeker has published book reviews in Books and Culture (online edition) and Bibliotheca Sacra, and enjoys studying theology and culture. Photography, music (making and appreciating), and baking (savory and sweet) fill his free time. He and his wife, Eva, enjoy hiking, walking their dog, Ransom, and cheering on the Kansas State Wildcats.

Douglas K. Blount
Professor of Theological Studies, 2008–.

Prior to joining the faculty of DTS, Dr. Blount served on the faculties of Criswell College and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. His passions include helping students both to think Christianly and to grow in their commitment to that faith once for all delivered over to the saints. He and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Katie and Andrew.

Darrell L. Bock
Senior Research Professor of New Testament Studies, Executive Director of Cultural Engagement, 1982–.
B.A., University of Texas at Austin, 1975; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1979; Ph.D., University of Aberdeen, 1983; postdoctoral study, Tübingen University.

Dr. Bock has earned international recognition as a Humboldt Scholar (Tübingen University in Germany) and for his work in Luke–Acts and in Jesus’ examination before the Jews, as well as with messianic Jewish ministries. He was president of the Evangelical Theological Society (ETS) for 2000–2001, and serves as editor–at-large for Christianity Today. His articles appear in leading journals and periodicals, including many secular publications such as the Los Angeles Times and the Dallas Morning News. He has been a New York Times best-selling author in nonfiction, and is elder emeritus at Trinity Fellowship Church in Dallas. When traveling overseas, he will tune into the current game involving his favorite teams from Houston—live—even in the wee hours of the morning. He is a proud father of two daughters and a son, and is also a grandfather.
WILLIE J. BOLDEN
Executive Director of Community and Church Relations, DTS-Houston, 2012–.

Over thirty years of ministry experience has allowed Dr. Bolden to serve in capacities from door-to-door evangelism, street preaching, and church planting to college professor and senior pastor. In addition to his service at the Seminary, Dr. Bolden is the president and CEO of W. J. Bolden Ministries, a ministry in which he and his wife train couples in the biblical dynamics of successful marital relationships. He and his wife are the proud parents of seven children and eight grandchildren.

STEPHEN J. BRAMER
Chair and Professor of Bible Exposition, 1997–.

Dr. Bramer taught for 16 years at Briercrest Bible College and at Briercrest Biblical Seminary in Saskatchewan, Canada, before joining the faculty of DTS. He also has enjoyed a variety of other ministries such as teaching elder, youth pastor, and pulpit supply throughout Canada and the United States. He serves as an adjunct professor for Word of Life Bible Institute, Hungary; Montana Wilderness School of the Bible; as well as at the Jordan Evangelical Theological Seminary (JETS) in Jordan. He is a teaching pastor at Waterbrook Bible Fellowship, and travels yearly to Israel and Jordan.

G. WILLIAM BRYAN
Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries, Chaplain, 1985–.

Chaplain Bryan has ministered for over fifty years in a variety of pastoral areas, including roles as senior and associate pastor, youth minister, and director of music and education. He has ministered at Bible conferences and Christian conference centers as speaker, worship leader, and board member, and he has led several trips to the Holy Land. Chaplain Bill has served at DTS for over twenty-five years planning chapel programs, leading worship, and assisting in conferences sponsored by the Seminary. His pastoral role for the DTS family includes mentoring and counseling seminary students. When you see him play his trumpet in chapel, don’t be concerned when his face turns red; doctors have assured us that no permanent damage is occurring.

MICHAEL H. BURER
Associate Professor of New Testament Studies, 2004–.

Before beginning his faculty service Dr. Burer worked for many years with Bible.org as an editor and assistant project director for the NET Bible. He was also instrumental in the completion of the New English Translation–Novum Testamentum Graece diglot, published jointly by Bible.org and the Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft of Stuttgart, Germany. An ordained minister, Dr. Burer is active in his local church and has ministered frequently with The Evangelical Alliance Mission in France. He has served as a visiting teacher at the Faculté Libre de Théologie Évangélique in Vaux-sur-Seine, France. His research and teaching interests include Greek language and exegesis, the Gospels, and Jesus studies.
J. LANIER BURNS
Senior Professor of Systematic Theology, Research Professor of Theological Studies, 1982–.

Dr. Burns is actively involved in Christian and secular organizations and devotes time to conferences, writing, pastoral leadership training, and administration. He was a participant in the Oxford University Round Table from 2007 to 2011. His research interests include Trinitarianism, anthropology, sin, eschatology, neuroscience and theology, Catholicism, world religions, and issues in social justice. For almost forty years he has served as president of the Asian Christian Academy in Bangalore, India. Dr. Burns is a sports fan, and still finds time to play racquetball.

SAMUEL P. C. CHIA
Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies, Director for Chinese Online Education, 2008–.

Dr. Chia has been teaching in higher education for more than ten years. He regularly teaches classes related to a variety of New Testament topics and issues and has served as a lecturer, assistant professor, or adjunct professor at seminaries in Hong Kong, Taiwan, and the United States. In addition to teaching, he has served as a senior pastor of a Chinese church for nine years before moving to Taiwan in 2004. After serving as an adjunct professor for the Chinese Online program at DTS in 2006, Dr. Chia became the Director for Chinese Online Education in 2008. Dr. Chia and his wife have one son.

ROBERT B. CHISHOLM JR.
Chair and Professor of Old Testament Studies, 1981–.

While Dr. Chisholm enjoys teaching the full breadth of Old Testament Studies, he takes special delight in the major and minor prophets. Dr. Chisholm has published Handbook on the Prophets and A Workbook for Intermediate Hebrew. He was the translation consultant for the International Children’s Bible and for The Everyday Bible, and is senior Old Testament editor for the NET Bible. Any discussion with Dr. Chisholm on the Old Testament, however, can be quickly sidetracked when mentioning the New York Yankees or Syracuse Orange–men, teams which probably do not have a greater fan outside the state of New York, much to the chagrin of his colleagues.

DORIAN G. COOVER-COX
Associate Professor of Old Testament Studies, 2001–.

Dr. Coover–Cox has been a part of DTS as a student, a teacher, and associate editor for Bibliotheca Sacra. Originally she came to the Seminary to become a better editor; she found, however, that what she enjoys most about editing is helping people learn. While still an editor, she has found her niche in the classroom as well, encouraging students as they learn Hebrew. She has special interest in the Book of Exodus and in literary analysis of narratives and poetry.
CHARLES W. DICKENS
Chair and Associate Professor of Biblical Counseling, 2003–.
B.S., Texas Wesleyan University, 1991; M.A., Southern Methodist University, 1993; Ph.D., 1995.

Prior to joining the faculty, Dr. Dickens served as an associate pastor in the areas of marriage ministry and counseling. He has previously served on the faculty of Biola University and has taught seminary and graduate-level courses internationally in Austria, Hong Kong, and Sri Lanka. Dr. Dickens is professionally active in the Christian Association of Psychological Studies and The Association of Marriage and Family Ministries and also serves as a contributing editor for the Journal of Psychology and Theology. He is married to Rebecca and they have two children: Joshua and Jillian. At 6’8” Dr. Dickens loves to play basketball, and will gladly dunk a basketball right over your head—in a very gentle, loving way of course.

SUE G. EDWARDS
Associate Professor of Christian Education, 2005–.

Dr. Edwards’s heartbeat is to reinforce ministry partnerships between men and women, which strengthen church and parachurch organizations locally and worldwide. She has thirty-five years of experience in Christian education and Bible teaching, directing women’s ministry, retreat and conference speaking, training teams and teachers, overseeing staff, and writing curriculum. As former pastor to women at her local church she experienced healthy men and women partnerships on staff, and her passion is to pass on what she has learned. She is the author of “The Discovery Series,” a series of inductive Bible studies for women, and four leadership books for women. Dr. Edwards’s research and teaching interests include women’s epistemologies and leadership styles. Married to David, she especially enjoys romping with their five grandchildren.

BUIST M. FANNING III
Chair and Senior Professor of New Testament Studies, 1974–.

Buist Fanning has taught at DTS for more than thirty-five years, while serving also in various leadership positions at his local church and in teaching Christian workers in ten foreign countries. His passion is to know God and make Him known around the world and to see people transformed by the message of the Bible. His major teaching duties and research interests are New Testament Greek syntax and discourse analysis; New Testament criticism and backgrounds; and exegesis and theology of Romans, Pastoral Epistles, Hebrews, James, Peter, Jude, and Revelation.

JOSEPH D. FANTIN
Associate Professor of New Testament Studies, 2003–.

Dr. Fantin believes an accurate understanding of God’s Word will enable the believer to grow in his or her relationship with Christ, to love God and others, to bring Christ’s love to a lost world, to build up the church, and, most importantly, to glorify God. He is committed to teaching exegetical method in order to help students understand, apply, and teach the Bible in order to achieve these goals. His research interests include the prison epistles, the first-century world, Greek, linguistics, and relevance theory. He and his wife, Robin, have two children: Jillian and David.
BRUCE W. FONG
Professor of Pastoral Ministries, Dean of DTS Houston, 2012–.

Ministering at the intersection of parachurch, pastoral, and academic ministry, Dr. Fong is committed to teaching God's Word “to anyone and everyone who will lend him an ear.” By serving as the Dean of DTS Houston and Professor of Pastoral Ministries, he is excited to minister to and train the next generation of Christian leaders. Dr. Fong and his wife, Yvonne, have three children. He enjoys the outdoors, spending time with his family, and riding his motorcycle.

ROBERT J. GARIPPA

Dr. Garippa is uniquely fitted for his role as dean of students with over thirty years of pastoral and administrative experience. He is married to Elainadel, daughter of Wycliffe Bible Translators founder Dr. W. Cameron Townsend. Dr. Garippa and Elainadel enjoy a warm family life with their seven children and nine grandchildren. He has ministered in Hong Kong, Italy, Mexico, the Philippines, and Taiwan. "Papa G," as he is affectionately known, has east-coast Italian roots and makes an amazing pizza.

REG GRANT
Professor of Pastoral Ministries, 1982–.

Dr. Grant enjoys teaching courses in homiletics, drama, voice, creative writing, and creative radio production. He also serves on the advisory boards for Insight for Living and Enclave. Dr. Grant has coauthored several books and has written, produced, and acted for radio, television, theater, and film. Dr. Grant is married to Lauren and they have three grown children. Reg loves to spend time on his ranch near San Antonio. You’d never know it from his cultured personality, but this guy can “cowboy up” right quick.

KENNETH G. HANNA
Senior Professor of Bible Exposition, Director Emeritus of the Houston Extension, 2002–.

A veteran Bible professor, Dr. Hanna has taught at six institutions. He served as president of two institutions, Providence College and Theological Seminary and Bryan College, and as vice-president and dean of education at Moody Bible Institute. Until recently, Dr. Hanna served as director of the Houston campus of Dallas Theological Seminary. He has been a regular teacher on several radio programs including Radio School of the Bible, Bryan Life, and Hear O Israel. He has had numerous articles published in periodicals and in the Christian Life Bible. His service and leadership have included many board chairmanships, including the Association of Canadian Bible Colleges, the Evangelical Theological Society of Canada, and Christian Ministry to Israel.
JOHN D. HANNAH
Distinguished Professor of Historical Theology, Research Professor of Theological Studies, 1972–.
B.S., Philadelphia College of Bible, 1967; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1971; Th.D., 1974; M.A., Southern Methodist University, 1980; Ph.D., University of Texas at Dallas, 1988; postdoctoral study, Yale University, 1993.

Dr. Hannah has enjoyed a distinguished career for more than thirty–five years at DTS. He is a frequent and popular church and conference speaker both at home and abroad. His teaching interests include the general history of the Christian church, with particular interest in the works of Jonathan Edwards and John Owen. He recently published a history of DTS and is currently writing a general history of the Christian church. He remains active in church ministries and serves on the boards of several organizations.

W. HALL HARRIS III
Professor of New Testament Studies, 1978–.

During his long tenure as a member of the Seminary faculty, Dr. Harris has traveled and ministered extensively in Western Europe, especially in Germany and Italy. His wife is from Germany and he has close ties to the German Bible Society (Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft), including work as editor of the New English Translation—Novum Testamentum Graece New Testament. Since 1995, Dr. Harris has served as Project Director and Managing Editor of the NET Bible (New English Translation), the first Bible to be published electronically on the Internet (www.netbible.org). He has served as General Editor for The Lexham Greek–English New Testament and the Lexham English Bible. In addition, he has remained active in local church ministry. As an ordained minister he has served as a pastor of single adults, elder, and adult Sunday school teacher.

GREGORY A. HATTEBERG
Director of Alumni, 1998–.
A.A. Joliet Junior College, 1977; B.A., Moody Bible Institute, 1980; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1992; D.Min., 2010–.

Before joining the faculty, Mr. Hatteberg worked in recruitment at Moody Bible Institute and at DTS in the offices of the Academic Dean, Advancement, Placement, and Admissions. The former youth pastor is an instructor for Walk Thru the Bible Ministries, teaches the Rapid Reading course at DTS, and has been a licensed tour guide for Israel. Based on his experiences in Israel, he has coauthored The New Christian Traveler’s Guide to the Holy Land. Greg grew up on the prairies of Illinois and still loves the farming life. He also enjoys golf, a good game of pool, and a few licks on the harmonica.

MARK H. HEINEMANN
Professor of Christian Education, 2003–.

Dr. Heinemann and his family were missionaries with Greater Europe Mission for fifteen years, during which time he taught practical theology at the Freie Theologische Akademie in Germany. He was a member of the mission’s European field leadership team and has also served as a pastor and as a campus ministry staff member. Dr. Heinemann has published a variety of articles, and his research and teaching interests include learning outcomes assessment, teaching in Christian higher education, and discipleship. He and his wife, Leah, have three grown children and five grandchildren.
GEORGE M. HILLMAN JR.
Associate Professor of Spiritual Formation and Leadership, Director of Servant Leadership Internships, 2002–.
Dr. Hillman has a passion for discipleship, spiritual formation, and leadership development. He came to Dallas Seminary with ministry experience in Texas and Georgia, most recently as a pastor of spiritual development in a local church. Nationally known in theological field education, he is active in leadership of both the Association of Theological Field Education (former Steering Committee member) and the Evangelical Association of Theological Field Educators (former two-time co-chair). He and his wife, Jana, have one daughter.

NATHAN D. HOLSTEEN
Associate Professor of Theological Studies, 2005–.
B.S., Louisiana State University, 1983; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1992; Ph.D., University of Aberdeen, 1996.
Dr. Holsteen has worked full-time in engineering and in ministry, and also has served as adjunct professor for The Criswell College and for DTS before joining the faculty in 2005. He particularly is interested in encouraging students to be fully engaged in the world outside the Seminary walls, and loves to discuss the development of theological systems, especially in Reformation and post-Reformation contexts. He and his wife, Janice, have two children.

J. SCOTT HORRELL
Professor of Theological Studies, 1997–.
Dr. Horrell has been a missionary and theologian in various world cultures, in addition to evangelism and church-planting with World Team, InterVarsity, and Youth with a Mission (YWAM). Along with teaching in several seminaries and cofounding and editing a leading Latin American theological journal, he has written several books in Portuguese and English. He serves as adjunct faculty at SETECA (Guatemala) and JETS (Jordan). He desires to strengthen believers in the truths of the Bible, a Trinitarian framework of life, and an understanding of world Christian faith. Ever the adventurer, Dr. Horrell loves to bring home random pieces of art from other cultures—like his recent thirty-pound solid-wood rhinoceros.

MARVIN T. HUNN
Library Director, 2009–.
Mr. Hunn brings over thirty years of library experience to his job at DTS, with particular strengths in public services and information technologies. He is a member of the American Theological Library Association and the Association of Christian Librarians. His goal for his role as a theological librarian in a rapidly changing environment is to serve both new online/extension programs and traditional residential campus programs effectively. His wife, Debbie, is also a librarian. They have spent over ten years working with troubled youth detained by the juvenile justice system. They are inveterate walkers, and you can see them walking around the campus daily come rain or shine.
ELLIOtt E. JOHNSON
Senior Professor of Bible Exposition, 1972–.
Dr. Johnson is the founder of the Asian Theological Seminary and has taught extensively overseas, including the Philippines, Poland, the former Czechoslovakia, Romania, Russia, and India. He also has ministered in Austria, Brazil, England, Germany, Israel, and Scotland. Dr. Johnson joined the Seminary as a faculty member in 1972 and as a pastor of a Dallas-area church the same year. He is a member of the Evangelical Theological Society (ETS) and published in the field of hermeneutics. He is on the boards of the Council of Biblical Manhood and Womanhood and the Free Grace Alliance.

GORDON H. JOHNStON
Professor of Old Testament Studies, 1998–.
Unearthing the riches of the Old Testament is not limited to the classroom for Dr. Johnston. For a number of years Dr. Johnston has sifted through archaeological digs and excavations in Israel. He has worked with the Tel Malhata and the Khirbert el-Maqtir projects, and has served as a leader on several travel/study programs to Israel, Egypt, Jordan, and Turkey. In addition to his work in the field, Dr. Johnston has published numerous articles and essays in scholarly journals and is a contributor to the NET Bible. The frequent Who’s Who honoree also has a strong commitment to evangelism and discipleship.

J. WILLIAM JOHNStON
Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies, Houston Campus, 2002–.
Before Dr. Johnston was a believer he doubted the accuracy of Scripture translations, and therefore the integrity of the Bible. After coming to faith he decided that the only way to find out whether the translations were reliable was to learn the original languages. After majoring in the classics at the University of Texas, he came to DTS and discovered that teaching was his passion. His research interests are in Greek grammar, syntax, and Johannine studies.

BARRY D. JONES
Associate Professor of Spiritual Formation and Leadership, Department Chair of Spiritual Formation and Leadership, 2006–.
During his time as a student at the Seminary, Dr. Jones spent three years on staff with the Spiritual Formation program. Upon the completion of his Th.M., Dr. Jones had the privilege of being one of the first two students in Systematic Theology admitted to the Ph.D. program at Wheaton College where he was the recipient of the Betty Buttress Knoedler Doctoral Fellowship. His scholarly interests include the theology and history of Christian spirituality as well as issues in spiritual formation and leadership in contemporary culture. He and his wife, Kimberly, are the parents of two young sons, Will and Pierson.
FRENCH A. JONES
Professor of Biblical Counseling, 1995–.
B.S., Georgia State University, 1972; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1980; Ph.D., University of North Texas, 1988.

In addition to serving on the faculty at DTS, Dr. Jones is a licensed professional counselor with a private practice specializing in marriage and divorce issues. For twelve years he served as a pastor/counselor for singles at a church in Dallas and also has been the executive director and clinical director at the Swiss Avenue Counseling Center in downtown Dallas. Dr. Jones belongs to the American Association of Christian Counselors and the Christian Association for Psychological Studies. He is a former staff member of both Campus Crusade for Christ and Probe Ministries. He is also currently Director for the Global Counseling Initiative, a ministry of counseling missionaries overseas.

GLENN R. KREIDER
Professor of Theological Studies, 2001–.

Dr. Kreider identifies his motivations as his passion for the triune God and his desire to help others respond to divine revelation in spirit and truth. Prior to coming to DTS he directed Christian education and pastored a church in Cedar Hill, Texas. Dr. Kreider’s research interests include Jonathan Edwards, theological method, and our eschatological hope. He is married to Janice and they have two children. Dr. Kreider enjoys his pugs, bold coffee, and good music.

ABRAHAM KURUVILLA
Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries, 2007–.
M.D., University of Kerala, 1988; Ph.D., Baylor College of Medicine, 1993; Post-doctoral Research, Baylor College of Medicine, 1995; Internship in Pediatrics, Texas Children’s Hospital, 1996; Residency in Dermatology, Boston University and Tufts University Schools of Medicine, 1999; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 2002; Ph.D., University of Aberdeen, 2007

Captivated by the intricacies of the interpretive movement from Scripture to sermon, Dr. Kuruvilla centers his ministry around homiletics: exploring preaching through research and scholarship, explaining preaching by training the next generation of church leaders, and exemplifying preaching in regular pulpit engagements. He has also served as interim pastor of several churches. Dr. Kuruvilla is a Diplomate of the American Board of Dermatology, and he maintains an active clinical schedule. Single by choice, he also has a special interest in the theology of Christ-centered singleness and celibacy.

MICHAEL S. LAWSON
Senior Professor of Christian Education, 1986–.

Dr. Lawson invested twenty-six years in pastoral work and Christian education before returning to teach at DTS in 1986. His special concern for Christian education in the developing world has guided his international preaching and teaching schedule to scores of countries around the world. In recent years numerous international Bible colleges and seminaries have requested his help in curriculum design and faculty development. His recent focus has been on developing the Family Ministry cohort in the D.Min. program.
DAVID K. LOWERY
Professor of New Testament Studies, 1977–.
B.A., The King’s College, 1971; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1975; Ph.D., University of Aberdeen, 1987; postdoctoral studies, Tübingen University and Cambridge University.

Dr. Lowery has been involved in church planting for over three decades in Vermont and Texas. This veteran of the faculty has been an associate pastor at a Dallas-area church for more than twenty years. Dr. Lowery is a frequent author in leading journals and magazines and has contributed to the New American Standard Bible and the NET Bible.

Dr. Lowery has taught in Europe, the Middle East, the Caribbean, and the South Pacific. His particular areas of focus in the New Testament are Matthew, Mark, and Paul’s letters.

AUBREY M. MALPHURS
Senior Professor of Leadership and Pastoral Ministry, 1981–.

Dr. Malphurs is a visionary with a deep desire to influence a new generation of leaders through his classroom, pulpit, consulting, and writing ministries. He is involved in a number of ministries ranging from church planting and growth to leadership development. He has pastored three churches and is the author of numerous books and articles on leadership and church ministry. Currently he is the president of the Malphurs Group and is a trainer and consultant to churches, denominations, and ministry organizations throughout North America and Europe. His research and teaching interests include church planting, church growth, and leadership development.

LINDA M. MARTEN
Associate Professor of Biblical Counseling, 2002–.
B.A., University of Iowa, 1964; M.A., University of Northern Iowa, 1971; Ph.D., University of North Texas, 1984.

Dr. Marten brings to her classes both an enthusiasm for the counseling profession and skills that have been honed through her thirty plus years of client interactions in private practice. Though she works with many different life problems, her specialties are trauma and dissociation. She is an LPC supervisor, member of the Christian Association of Psychological Studies, and a clinical member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy.

LINDEN D. MCLAUGHLIN
Chair and Professor of Christian Education, 1996–.

Dr. McLaughlin brings a love for the pulpit to the classroom. His thirty-five plus years of ministry encompass nearly every aspect of church administration and Christian education. He brings to DTS a wide variety of experience, ranging from campus staff minister for InterVarsity Christian Fellowship to a guest professorship at the Greek Bible Institute in Athens. Dr. McLaughlin also has been active on the boards of the Texas Sunday School Association and the Professional Association of Christian Educators. He is interested in writing about learning domains and the educational cycle.
ROSCYN H. ORR
Associate Professor of World Missions and Intercultural Studies, 2012--.
B.S., Purdue University, 1977; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1990; Ph.D., University of Edinburgh, 1998.
Dr. Orr spent his formative years in Ethiopia and Germany. He served with Cru (Campus Crusade for Christ) for thirty-four years, seventeen of which were overseas. Dr. Orr taught at the Nairobi International School of Theology in Kenya and, serving as executive director, helped build Africa Leadership and Management Academy, a graduate school in Zimbabwe. While stateside, his ministry focused on Yale University and United Nations diplomats in New York City. Dr. Orr and his wife, Cortina, have a son and a daughter who joined him in climbing Mount Kilimanjaro in 2006.

EUGENE W. POND
Associate Professor of Bible Exposition, Dean of Assessment, Director of Institutional Research and Effectiveness, 1990--.
Dr. Pond’s research interests are wide ranging, with memberships in professional societies for biblical studies, institutional research, and enrollment management. He seeks to develop systems that cause Christian organizations to focus on their mission and run more efficiently. A teacher of adults for more than thirty years, Dr. Pond also is helping to lead a North Dallas church where he serves as a teaching elder. Dr. Pond and his wife, Carol, who teaches kindergarten at a Christian school, are committed to Christian education at both ends of the age spectrum. Dr. Pond faithfully follows college football and loves camping.

TIMOTHY J. RALSTON
Professor of Pastoral Ministries, 1992--.
Dr. Ralston brings a rich pastoral background to the classroom. He has served as not only an associate pastor and pastor in Ontario, but also as a director of adult education in the United States. Dr. Ralston is an active member in the North American Academy of Liturgy, the Evangelical Theological Society, and the Evangelical Homiletics Society. His research in New Testament manuscripts, worship, and spiritual direction has taken him into a wide variety of settings and produced many scholarly articles. He is also an active Master Scuba Diving instructor and emergency first-response trainer. He and his wife, Carol, have two daughters.

RAMESH P. RICHARD
Professor of Global Theological Engagement and Pastoral Ministries, 1979–83; 1987–2012; Leave of Absence 2013--.
In addition to his many years of faculty service, Dr. Richard is also the founder and president of Ramesh Richard Evangelism and Church Health (RREACH), a global proclamation ministry that seeks to evangelize leaders and strengthen pastors of developing countries. He is the founder and chair of the Trainers of Pastors International Coalition. In partnership with DTS, RREACH launched the Global Proclamation Academy to strengthen and connect influential young pastors from all over the world.
JAY L. SEDWICK JR.
Professor of Christian Education, 1998—.
B.S., Pennsylvania State University, 1984; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1989; M.A., Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1996; Ph.D., 2003.

Dr. Sedwick has more than twenty-six years of youth ministry experience and serves on the board of the Association of Youth Ministry Educators. He has four children, guaranteeing a youth laboratory in his house for the years to come. An ordained minister who teaches youth at a large Dallas-area church. Dr. Sedwick is also a popular conference and seminar speaker. His research and teaching interests include legal and financial issues in ministry, youth development, biblical education for youth, and curriculum design.

EDWARD W. SHYU
Assistant Director of Online Chinese Studies, Adjunct Professor in Christian Education, 2011—.

Dr. Shyu has served as Missionary Director of CEF San Gabriel Valley Region in mobilizing Good News Clubs in public schools and training Sunday school teachers at local churches since 1999. He also has served on pastoral teams at Chinese local churches in Southern California. His major duties are building online or hybrid courses for online Chinese studies. His passion is to teach children, train teachers, and equip leaders so that they are able to teach the truth, preach the gospel, and make disciples for the Lord.

BENJAMIN I. SIMPSON
Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies, Director of Operations-DTS Houston, 2011—.

Dr. Simpson joined the faculty in 2006 as the registrar, a role that gave him the opportunity to help students navigate the sometimes complicated path to completion of their degree programs. In 2011 he moved to Houston as the director of operations and continues to positively influence students’ ministries by helping them with course choice, scheduling, and degree completion. He is married to Amber and they have two children, Madison and Eli.

JAY E. SMITH
Professor of New Testament Studies, 1996—.
B.S., Bowling Green State University, 1982; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 1989; Ph.D., Trinity Evangelical
Divinity School, 1996.

Various forms of ministry in the local church complement Dr. Smith’s role as a teacher in the New Testament Studies department. He has a special interest in the apostle Paul’s letters and New Testament theology. He regularly contributes to leading academic journals and several professional societies. His current teaching and research interests include 1 Corinthians and sexual ethics in Pauline literature. “Dr. Jay” often uses sports metaphors to help his students learn Greek grammar and syntax. And maybe someday he and his daughters Karissa and Dayna will hook a big one at the lake right by his house.
STEPHEN J. STRAUSS
Chair and Professor of World Missions and Intercultural Studies, 2010—.
Dr. Strauss lived and served nineteen years as a missionary with Serving In Mission (SIM) in Ethiopia. While there, he helped establish three theological schools, including The Ethiopian Graduate School of Theology and The Evangelical Theological College. He also was active in local church life, serving as assistant pastor of the International Evangelical Church of Addis Ababa and speaking at churches and church conferences throughout Africa and India. From 2001–2009, Dr. Strauss served as U.S. Director of SIM. He is married to Marcia and loves spending time with their three adult children and their spouses.

MICHAEL J. SVIGEL
Associate Professor of Theological Studies, 2007—.
Besides teaching both historical and systematic theology at DTS, Dr. Svigel is actively engaged in teaching and writing for a broader evangelical audience. His passion for a Christ-centered theology and life is coupled with a penchant for humor, music, and writing. Dr. Svigel comes to DTS after working for several years in the legal field as well as serving as a writer with the ministry of Insight for Living. His books and articles range from text critical studies to juvenile fantasy. He and his wife, Stephanie, have three children: Sophie, Lucas, and Nathan.

RICHARD A. TAYLOR
Senior Professor of Old Testament Studies, Director of Doctor of Philosophy Studies, 1989—.
Dr. Taylor has accumulated more than thirty years of graduate-level teaching experience and maintains his academic sharpness through active memberships in a dozen professional societies and groups. His specialties include Aramaic studies and Syriac literature. His travels have taken him throughout Central America, Europe, the Near East, Canada, and India. His wife is a Christian school administrator, his daughter is a public-school teacher, and his son is a university professor.

JAMES H. THAMES
Associate Professor of Christian Education, Dean of Academic Administration, 1984—.
From his unique position as faculty and administrative staff member, Dr. Thames understands frontline teaching and behind-the-scenes logistics. Since joining the Seminary in 1984 he has served in a variety of positions and has been involved in establishing a professional association for registrars and admissions officers for theological schools. His areas of special interest include administration and accreditation in Christian higher education. In addition, Dr. Thames, an ordained minister, has been involved in overseas ministry and is active in his local church, including several years of service as a teacher and as a member of the board of elders. Both he and his wife, Laurie, grew up in Colorado and have a love for the outdoors. In fact, most of their vehicles are easily identified by the Colorado Native bumper sticker they sport. Dr. Thames and his wife have two daughters and one son-in-law, Steffany (and Paul) and Abby.
BILLY R. TODD JR.
Registrar, 2011–

B.S., Louisiana State University at Shreveport, 1992; M.S., 1996; Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 2008; Ph.D. Studies, 2011–

Mr. Todd serves as the DTS registrar after having served with the technical direction of the DTS academic departments. He has also worked with the Center for the Study of New Testament Manuscripts by photographing and analyzing ancient manuscripts of the New Testament. Currently working on his Ph.D. in Theological Studies, his interest is in Christian doctrine and the early church. He and his wife, Ashley, have two sons, Caleb and Jacob. They attend Lake Ridge Bible Church in Mesquite.

DANIEL B. WALLACE
Professor of New Testament Studies, 1979–81; 1988–

Dr. Wallace, a four-generation Californian, former surfer, and pastor, is a member of the Society of New Testament Studies, has written, edited, or otherwise contributed to more than twenty books, and has published articles in New Testament Studies, Novum Testamentum, Biblica, Westminster Theological Journal, and the Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society. His Exegetical Syntax of the New Testament is the standard intermediate Greek grammar and has been translated into several languages. He is the executive director of the Center for the Study of New Testament Manuscripts (www.csntm.org), an institute whose initial purpose is to preserve Scripture by taking digital photographs of all known Greek New Testament manuscripts. When not involved in scholarly pursuits, speaking engagements, or entertaining students at his home, he and his wife, Pati, enjoy spending time with their four boys, beagle, and lab.

TIMOTHY S. WARREN
Senior Professor of Pastoral Ministries, 1984–

When Dr. Warren teaches pastoral ministries he draws from decades of personal experience. After serving as a chaplain’s assistant in the U.S. Army and the Texas Air National Guard, he pastored churches in Texas and Ohio. He has held the position of adult ministry associate at his home church for twenty years, has taught a men’s Bible study at the Cooper Aerobic Center for more than twenty-five years, and maintains an active speaking, writing, and teaching schedule.

LARRY J. WATERS
Associate Professor of Bible Exposition, 2008–

Before joining the faculty of DTS, Dr. Waters and his wife, Mary, served as missionaries in the Philippines from 1973 to 1999. His worldwide ministry continues, primarily in the Philippines. Larry has authored five articles on the Book of Job, has published his dissertation, and has been involved in authoring or contributing to four books based on Job. Dr. Waters and his wife, Mary, enjoy time with their daughters, sons-in-law, and five grandchildren.
BRIAN L. WEBSTER
Associate Professor of Old Testament Studies, 2002–
B.A., Cornerstone University, 1987; M. Phil., Hebrew Union College, 1993; Ph.D., 2000.
In the course of his professional career Dr. Webster has worked as a research fellow at The Scriptorium, cataloguing cuneiform texts and working with Hebrew scrolls; taught Greek and Hebrew at Cornerstone University and at Puritan Reform Theological Seminary; and served as associate professor of Bible and chair of the Bible, Religion, and Ministry division at Cornerstone University. He has won several teaching awards and recognition in Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers. He and his wife serve as youth leaders at Lake Cities Community Church in Rowlett, Texas.

MARK M. YARBROUGH
Assistant Professor of Bible Exposition, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Academic Dean, 2001–
Dr. Yarbrough has served in a variety of positions during his tenure at DTS: Research Assistant to the President, Executive Director of Information Technology, Associate Dean for External Education, and Vice President for Communications. Regardless of the title, he is delighted to engage in the world of Christian higher education. His love for the classroom draws him to the Bible Exposition department, where he teaches a variety of courses, and his love for the local body of Christ has called him to the pastoral preaching team at Centerpoint Church in Mesquite, Texas. Mark and his wife, Jennifer, have four children: Kayla, Jacob, Kayci, and Joseph—and two energetic dogs named Biscuit and Gravy.

THE DAVID L. EDWARDS SERVANT-LEADER AWARD FOR FACULTY EXCELLENCE IN SPIRIT AND SERVICE

The David L. Edwards Servant-Leader Award for Faculty Excellence in Spirit and Service is given annually at the beginning of the fall semester to the full-time faculty member who, in the estimation of his or her peers, best represents:

- A servant attitude toward faculty, staff, and students;
- A willingness to invest one’s time and life in serving students;
- An integrity of word and behavior—someone whose commitments are faithfully met;
- A genuine humility toward the teaching/leading role, being able to serve without much notice or recognition; and
- A high standard of excellence in both task and process, doing the best one can do with the resources God has provided.

RECIPIENTS OF THIS AWARD SINCE ITS INCEPTION ARE:

1998  Michael S. Lawson
1999  Darrell L. Bock
2000  Harold W. Hoehner

DTS ENROLLS MEN AND WOMEN WHO:

1. show evidence of saving faith in Christ
2. are of proven Christian character
3. are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts
4. adhere to the following doctrines:
   - the authority and inerrancy of Scripture
   - the Trinity
   - Christ’s full deity and humanity
   - the spiritual lostness of the human race
   - Christ’s substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection
   - salvation by faith alone in Christ alone
   - the physical return of Christ

While students must adhere to the seven doctrines listed above to be admitted and graduate, each faculty member affirms full agreement with the entire doctrinal statement reproduced below.

ARTICLE I—THE SCRIPTURES

We believe that “all Scripture is given by inspiration of God,” by which we understand the whole Bible is inspired in the sense that holy men of God “were moved by the Holy Spirit” to write the very words of Scripture. We believe that this divine inspiration extends equally and fully to all parts of the writings—historical, poetical, doctrinal, and prophetical—as appeared in the original manuscripts. We believe that the whole Bible in the originals is therefore without error. We believe that all the Scriptures center about the Lord Jesus Christ in His person and work in His first and second coming, and hence that no portion, even of the Old Testament, is properly read, or understood, until it leads to Him. We also believe that all the Scriptures were designed for our practical instruction (Mark 12:26; 36; 13:11; Luke 24:27, 44; John 5:39; Acts 1:16; 17:2–3; 18:28; 26:22–23; 28:23; Rom. 15:4; 1 Cor. 2:13; 10:1; 2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21).

ARTICLE II—THE GODHEAD

We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—and that these three are one God, having precisely the same nature, attributes, and perfections, and worthy of precisely the same homage, confidence, and obedience (Matt. 28:18–19; Mark 12:29; John 1:14; Acts 5:3–4; 2 Cor. 13:14; Heb. 1:1–3; Rev. 1:4–6).

ARTICLE III—ANGELS, FALLEN AND UNFALLEN

We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless, spiritual beings, known as angels; that one, “Lucifer, son of the morning”—the highest in rank—sinned through pride, thereby becoming Satan, that a great company of the angels followed him in his moral fall, some of whom became demons and are active as his agents and associates in the prosecution of his unholy purposes, while others who fell are “reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day” (Isa. 14:12–17; Ezek. 28:11–19; 1 Tim. 3:6; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6).

We believe that Satan is the originator of sin, and that, under the permission of God, he, through subtlety, led our first parents into transgression, thereby accomplishing their moral fall and subjecting them and their posterity to his own power; that he is the enemy of God and the people
We believe that man was created in the image and after the likeness of God, and that he fell through sin, and, as a consequence of his sin, lost his spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and that he became an angel of light, even counterfeiting the works of God by fostering religious movements and systems of doctrine, which systems in every case are characterized by a denial of the efficacy of the blood of Christ and of salvation by grace alone (Gen. 3:1–19; Rom. 5:12–14; 2 Cor. 4:3–4; 11:13–15; Eph. 6:10–12; 2 Thess. 2:4; 1 Tim. 4:1–3).

We believe that Satan was judged at the Cross, though not then executed, and that he, a usurper, now rules as the “god of this world”; that, at the second coming of Christ, Satan will be bound and cast into the abyss for a thousand years, and after the thousand years he will be loosed for a little season and then “cast into the lake of fire and brimstone,” where he “shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Col. 2:15; Rev. 20:1–3, 10).

We believe that Satan was judged at the Cross, though not then executed, and that he, a usurper, now rules as the “god of this world”; that, at the second coming of Christ, Satan will be bound and cast into the abyss for a thousand years, and after the thousand years he will be loosed for a little season and then “cast into the lake of fire and brimstone,” where he “shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Col. 2:15; Rev. 20:1–3, 10).

We believe that a great company of angels kept their holy estate and are before the throne of God, from whence they are sent forth as ministering spirits to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation (Luke 15:10; Eph. 1:21; Heb. 1:14; Rev. 7:12).

We believe that man was made lower than the angels; and that, in His incarnation, Christ took for a little time this lower place that He might lift the believer to His own sphere above the angels (Heb. 2:6–10).

ARTICLE IV—MAN, CREATED AND FALLEN

We believe that man was originally created in the image and after the likeness of God, and that he fell through sin, and, as a consequence of his sin, lost his spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and that he became subject to the power of the devil. We also believe that this spiritual death, or total depravity of human nature, has been transmitted to the entire human race of man, the Man Christ Jesus alone being excepted; and hence that every child of Adam is born into the world with a nature which not only possesses no spark of divine life, but is essentially and unchangeably bad apart from divine grace (Gen. 1:26; 2:17; 6:5; Pss. 14:1–3; 51:5; Jer. 17:9; John 3:6; 5:40; 6:35; Rom. 3:10–19; 8:6–7; Eph. 2:1–3; 1 Tim. 5:6; 1 John 3:8).

ARTICLE V—THE DISPENSATIONS

We believe that the dispensations are stewardships by which God administers His purpose on the earth through man under varying responsibilities. We believe that the changes in the dispensational dealings of God with man depend on changed conditions or situations in which man is successively found with relation to God, and that these changes are the result of the failures of man and the judgments of God. We believe that different administrative responsibilities of this character are manifest in the biblical record, that they span the entire history of mankind, and that each ends in the failure of man under the respective test and in an ensuing judgment from God. We believe that three of these dispensations or rules of life are the subject of extended revelation in the Scriptures, viz., the dispensation of the Mosaic Law, the present dispensation of grace, and the future dispensation of the millennial kingdom. We believe that these are distinct and are not to be intermingled or confused, as they are chronologically successive.

We believe that the dispensations are not ways of salvation nor different methods of administering the so-called Covenant of Grace. They are not in themselves dependent on covenant relationships but are ways of life and responsibility to God which test the submission of man to His revealed will during a particular time. We believe that if man does trust in his own efforts to gain the favor of God or salvation under any dispensational test, because of inherent sin his failure to satisfy fully the just requirements of God is inevitable and his condemnation sure.

We believe that according to the “eternal purpose” of God (Eph. 3:11) salvation in the divine reckoning is always “by grace through faith,” and rests upon the basis of the shed blood of Christ. We believe that God has always been gracious, regardless of the ruling dispensation, but that man has not at all times been under an administration or stewardship of grace as is true in the present dispensation (1 Cor. 9:17; Eph. 3:2; 3:9, asv; Col. 1:25; 1 Tim. 1:4, asv).

We believe that it has always been true that “without faith it is impossible to please” God (Heb. 11:6), and that the principle of faith was prevalent in the lives of all the Old Testament saints. However, we believe that it was historically impossible that they should have had as the conscious object of their faith the incarnate, crucified Son, the Lamb of God (John 1:29), and that it is evident that they did not comprehend as we do that the sacrifices depicted the person and work of Christ. We believe also that they did not understand the redemptive significance of the prophecies or types concerning the sufferings of Christ (1 Pet. 1:10–12); therefore, we believe that their faith toward God was manifested in other ways as is shown by the long record in Hebrews 11:1–40. We believe further that their faith thus manifested was counted unto them for righteousness (cf. Rom. 4:3 with Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:5–8; Heb. 11:7).

ARTICLE VI—THE FIRST ADVENT

We believe that, as provided and purposed by God and as preannounced in the prophecies of the Scriptures, the eternal Son of God came into this world that He might manifest God to men, fulfill prophecy, and become the Redeemer of a lost world. To this end He was born of the virgin, and received a human body and a sinless human nature (Luke 1:30–35; John 1:18; 3:16; Heb. 4:15).

We believe that, on the human side, He became and remained a perfect man, but sinless throughout His life; yet He retained His absolute deity, being at the same time very God and very man, and that His earth-life sometimes functioned within the sphere of that which was human and sometimes within the sphere of that which was divine (Luke 2:40; John 1:1–2; Phil. 2:5–8).

We believe that in fulfillment of prophecy He came first to Israel as her Messiah-King, and that, being rejected of that nation, He, according to the eternal counsels of God, gave His life as a ransom for all (John 1:1; Acts 2:22–24; 1 Tim. 2:6).

We believe that, in infinite love for the lost, He voluntarily accepted His Father’s will and became the divinely provided sacrificial Lamb and took away the sin of the world, bearing the holy judgments against sin which the righteousness of God must impose. His death was therefore substitutionary in the most absolute sense—the just for the unjust—and by His death He became the Savior of the lost (John 1:29; Rom. 3:25–26; 2 Cor. 5:14; Heb. 10:5–14; 1 Pet. 3:18).

We believe that, according to the Scriptures, He arose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He had lived and died, and that His resurrection body is the pattern of that body which ultimately will be given to all believers (John 20:20; Phil. 3:20–21).

We believe that, on departing from the earth, He was accepted of His Father and that His acceptance is a final assurance to us that His redeeming work was perfectly accomplished (Heb. 1:3).

We believe that He became Head over all things to the church which is His body, and in this ministry He ceases not to intercede and advocate for the saved (Eph. 1:22–23; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1).

ARTICLE VII—SALVATION ONLY THROUGH CHRIST

We believe that, owing to universal death through sin, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless born again; and that no degree of reformation however great, no attainments in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation, and only those thus saved are sons of God. We believe, also, that our redemption has been accomplished solely by the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was made to be sin and was made a curse for us, dying in our room and stead; and that no repentance, no feeling, no faith, no good resolutions, no sincere efforts, no submission to the rules and regulations of any church, nor all the churches that have existed since the days of the Apostles can add in the very least degree to the value of the blood, or to the merit of the finished work wrought for us by Him who united in His person true and proper deity with perfect and sinless humanity (Lev. 17:11; Isa. 64:6; Matt. 26:28; John 3:7–18; Rom. 5:6–9; 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; Phil. 3:4–9; Titus 3:5; James 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:18–19, 23).

We believe that the new birth of the believer comes only through faith in Christ and that repentance is a vital part of believing, and is in no way, in itself, a separate and independent condition of salvation; nor are any other acts, such as confession, baptism, prayer, or faithful service, to be added to believing as a condition of salvation (John 1:12; 3:16, 18; 36; 5:24; 6:29; Acts 13:39; 16:31; Rom. 1:16–17; 3:22, 26; 4:5; 10:4; Gal. 3:22).

ARTICLE VIII—THE EXTENT OF SALVATION

We believe that when an unregenerate person exercises that faith in Christ which is illustrated and described as such in the New Testament, he passes immediately out of spiritual death into spiritual life, and from the old creation into the new; being justified from all things, accepted before the Father as Christ His Son is accepted, loved as Christ is loved, having his place and portion as linked to Him and one with Him forever. Though the saved one may have occasion to grow in the realization of his blessings and to know a fuller measure of divine power through the yielding of his life more fully to God, he is, as soon as he is saved, in possession of every spiritual blessing and absolutely complete in Christ, and is therefore in no way required by God to seek a so-called “second blessing,” or a “second work of grace” (John 5:24; 17:23; Acts 13:39; Rom. 5:1; 1 Cor. 3:21–23; Eph. 1:3; Col. 2:10; 1 John 4:17; 5:11–12).

ARTICLE IX—SANCTIFICATION
We believe that sanctification, which is a setting-apart unto God, is threefold: It is already complete for every saved person because his position toward God is the same as Christ’s position. Since the believer is in Christ, he is set apart unto God in the measure in which Christ is set apart unto God. We believe, however, that he retains his sin nature, which cannot be eradicated in this life. Therefore, while the standing of the Christian in Christ is perfect, his present state is no more perfect than his experience in daily life. There is, therefore, a progressive sanctification wherein the Christian is to “grow in grace,” and to “be changed” by the unhindered power of the Spirit. We believe also that the child of God will yet be fully sanctified in his state as he is now sanctified in his standing in Christ when he shall see his Lord and shall be “like Him” (John 17:17; 2 Cor. 3:18; 7:1; Eph. 4:24; 5:25–27; 1 Thess. 5:23; Heb. 10:10, 14; 12:10).

ARTICLE X—ETERNAL SECURITY
We believe that, because of the eternal purpose of God toward the objects of His love, because of His freedom to exercise grace toward the meritless on the ground of the propitiatory blood of Christ, because of the very nature of the divine gift of eternal life, because of the present and unending intercession and advocacy of Christ in heaven, because of the immutability of the unchangeable covenants of God, because of the regenerating, abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of all who are saved, we and all true believers everywhere, once saved shall be kept saved forever. We believe, however, that God is a holy and righteous Father and that, since He cannot overlook the sin of His children, He will, when they persistently sin, chasten them and correct them in infinite love; but having undertaken to save them and keep them forever, apart from all human merit, He, who cannot fail, will in the end present every one of them faultless before the presence of His glory and conformed to the image of His Son (John 5:24; 10:28; 13:1; 14:16–17; 17:11; Rom. 8:29; 1 Cor. 6:19; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1–2; 5:13; Jude 24).

ARTICLE XI—ASSURANCE
We believe it is the privilege, not only of some, but of all who are born again by the Spirit through faith in Christ, as revealed in the Scriptures, to be assured of their salvation from the very day they take Him to be their Savior and that this assurance is not founded upon any fancied discovery of their own worthiness or fitness, but wholly upon the testimony of God in His written Word, exciting within His children filial love, gratitude, and obedience (Luke 10:20; 22:32; 2 Cor. 5:1, 6–8; 2 Tim. 1:12; Heb. 10:22; 1 John 5:13).

ARTICLE XII—THE HOLY SPIRIT
We believe that the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the blessed Trinity, though omnipresent from all eternity, took up His abode in the world in a special sense on the day of Pentecost according to the divine promise, dwells in every believer, and by His baptism unites all to Christ in one body, and that He, as the Indwelling One, is the source of all power and all acceptable worship and service. We believe that He never takes His departure from the church, nor from the feeblest of the saints, but is ever present to testify of Christ; seeking to occupy believers with Him and not with themselves nor with their experiences. We believe that His abode in the world in this special sense will cease when Christ comes to receive His own at the completion of the church (John 14:16–17; 16:7–15; 1 Cor. 6:19; Eph. 2:22; 2 Thess. 2:7).

We believe that, in this age, certain well-defined ministries are committed to the Holy Spirit, and that it is the duty of every Christian to understand them and to be adjusted to them in his own life and experience. These ministries are the restraining of evil in the world to the measure of the divine will; the convicting of the world respecting sin, righteousness, and judgment, the regenerating of all believers; the indwelling and anointing of all who are saved, thereby sealing them unto the day of redemption; the baptizing into the one body of Christ of all who are saved; and the continued filling for power, teaching, and service of those among the saved who are yielded to Him and who are subject to His will (John 3:6; 16:7–11; Rom. 8:9; 1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 4:30; 5:18; 2 Thess. 2:7; 1 John 2:20–27).

We believe that some gifts of the Holy Spirit such as speaking in tongues and miraculous healings were temporary. We believe that speaking in tongues was never the common or necessary sign of the baptism nor of the filling of the Spirit, and that the deliverance of the body from sickness or death awaits the consummation of our salvation in the resurrection (Acts 4:8, 31; Rom. 8:23; 1 Cor. 13:8).

ARTICLE XIII—THE CHURCH, A UNITY OF BELIEVERS

We believe that all who are united to the risen and ascended Son of God are members of the church which is the body and bride of Christ, which began at Pentecost and is completely distinct from Israel. Its members are constituted as such regardless of membership or nonmembership in the organized churches of earth. We believe that by the same Spirit all believers in this age are baptized into, and thus become, one body that is Christ’s, whether Jews or Gentiles, and having become members one of another, are under solemn duty to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, rising above all sectarian differences, and loving one another with a pure heart fervently (Matt. 16:16–18; Acts 2:42–47; Rom. 12:5; 1 Cor. 12:12–27; Eph. 1:20–23; 4:3–10; Col. 3:14–15).

ARTICLE XIV—THE SACRAMENTS OR ORDINANCES

We believe that water baptism and the Lord’s Supper are the only sacraments and ordinances of the church and that they are a scriptural means of testimony for the church in this age (Matt. 28:19; Luke 22:19–20; Acts 10:47–48; 16:32–33; 18:7–8; 1 Cor. II:26).

ARTICLE XV—THE CHRISTIAN WALK

We believe that we are called with a holy calling, to walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit, and so to live in the power of the indwelling Spirit that we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. But the flesh with its fallen, Adamic nature, which in this life is never eradicated, being with us to the end of our earthly pilgrimage, needs to be kept by the Spirit constantly in subjection to Christ, or it will surely manifest its presence in our lives to the dishonor of our Lord (Rom. 6:11–13; 8:2, 4, 12–13; Gal. 5:16–23; Eph. 4:22–24; Col. 2:1–10; 1 Pet. 1:14–16; 1 John 1:4–7; 3:5–9).

ARTICLE XVI—THE CHRISTIAN’S SERVICE

We believe that divine, enabling gifts for service are bestowed by the Spirit upon all who are saved. While there is a diversity of gifts, each believer is energized by the same Spirit, and each is called to his own divinely appointed service as the Spirit may will. In the apostolic church there were certain gifted men—apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers—who were appointed by God for the perfecting of the saints unto their work of the ministry. We believe also that today some men are especially called of God to be evangelists, pastors, and teachers, and that it is to the fulfilling of His will and to His eternal glory that these shall be sustained and encouraged in their service for God (Rom. 12:6; 1 Cor. 12:4–11; Eph. 4:11).

We believe that, wholly apart from salvation benefits which are bestowed equally upon all who believe, rewards are promised according to the faithfulness of each believer in his service for his Lord, and that these rewards will be bestowed at the judgment seat of Christ after He comes to receive His own to Himself (1 Cor. 3:9–11; 10:12–17; 2 Cor. 5:10).

ARTICLE XVII—THE GREAT COMMISSION

We believe that it is the explicit message of our Lord Jesus Christ to those whom He has saved that they are sent forth by Him into the world even as He was sent forth of His Father into the world. We believe that, after they are saved, they are divinely reckoned to be related to this world as strangers and pilgrims, ambassadors and witnesses, and that their primary purpose in life should be to make Christ known to the whole world (Matt. 28:18–19; Mark 16:15; John 17:18; Acts 1:8; 2 Cor. 5:18–20; 1 Pet. 1:17; 2:11).

ARTICLE XVIII—THE BLESSED HOPE

We believe that, according to the Word of God, the next great event in the fulfillment of prophecy will be the coming of the Lord in the air to receive to Himself into heaven both His own who are alive and remain unto His coming, and also all who have fallen asleep in Jesus, and that this event is the blessed hope set before us in the Scripture. And for this we should be constantly looking (John 14:1–3; 1 Cor. 15:51–52; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thess. 4:13–18; Titus 2:11–14).
ARTICLE XIX—
THE TRIBULATION
We believe that the translation of the church will be followed by the fulfillment of Israel’s seventieth week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1–19:21) during which the church, the body of Christ, will be in heaven. The whole period of Israel’s seventieth week will be a time of judgment on the whole earth, at the end of which the times of the Gentiles will be brought to a close. The latter half of this period will be the time of Jacob’s trouble (Jer. 30:7), which our Lord called the great tribulation (Matt. 24:15–21). We believe that universal righteousness will not be realized previous to the second coming of Christ, but that the world is day by day ripening for judgment and that the age will end with a fearful apostasy.

ARTICLE XX—
THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST
We believe that the period of great tribulation in the earth will be climaxed by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ to the earth as He went, in person on the clouds of heaven, and with power and great glory to introduce the millennial age, to bind Satan and place him in the abyss, to lift the curse which now rests upon the whole creation, to restore Israel to her own land and to give her the realization of God’s covenant promises, and to bring the whole world to the knowledge of God (Deut. 30:1–10; Isa. 11:9; Ezek. 37:21–28; Matt. 24:15–25:46; Acts 15:16–17; Rom. 8:19–23; 11:25–27; 1 Tim. 4:1–3; 2 Tim. 3:1–5; Rev. 20:1–3).

ARTICLE XXI—
THE ETERNAL STATE
We believe that at death the spirits and souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation pass immediately into His presence and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the glorified body when Christ comes for His own, whereupon soul and body reunited shall be associated with Him forever in glory; but the spirits and souls of the unbelieving remain after death conscious of condemnation and in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne at the close of the millennium, when soul and body reunited shall be cast into the lake of fire, not to be annihilated, but to be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power (Luke 16:19–26; 23:42; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23; 2 Thess. 1:7–9; Jude 6–7; Rev. 20:11–15).

STATEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL EFFECTIVENESS

In an effort to assess the effectiveness of its educational programs, Dallas Theological Seminary tracks persistence rates, graduation rates, and placement information for all its educational programs. Since the majority of graduate theological institutions track such effectiveness data in a variety of ways, the following information is designed only to give interested individuals and the Seminary’s constituencies information about the Seminary and should not be used as a comparison, either good or bad, to the effectiveness of other seminaries and graduate-level theological institutions.

Persistence

DTS tracks persistence and graduation rates for its master’s-level degree programs. The persistence rates are a measure of the number of students that continue in a Seminary degree program three years after initial matriculation into the Seminary. Of masters students initially matriculating from fall 2007 through fall 2009, 65% continued or graduated after three years. Within that group, 71% of Master of Theology (Th.M.) students (the Seminary’s flagship, four-year, ministry-preparation degree program) continued after three years.

Graduation Rates

Graduation rates are a measure of the number of students who actually graduated with a DTS degree within eight years of initial matriculation. Eight years is the upper time-limit within which a student must complete a program of study. Of the master’s-level students initially matriculating from fall 2002 through fall 2004, 62% graduated within eight years. Within that group, 60% of students matriculating into the Th.M. earned their degrees within eight years.

Placement Information

The Seminary also tracks the percentage of known graduates who are in various categories of employment within a specified number of months of graduation. Of the 2012 graduates whose ministry placements are known to the Seminary within five months of their graduation, 38% are working in church ministry, 12% in parachurch ministry, 6% in missions, 12% in education, and 12% in secular employment. Twenty percent of 2012 graduates are still in placement five months after graduation. Further evidence that graduates of the Seminary are prepared for a lifetime of ministry can be seen from a recent canvass of the Seminary’s 13,040 living alumni. Of those for whom the Seminary has the information, 35% are working in church ministry, 17% in parachurch ministries, 14% in education, 7% in missions, 19% in secular work, and 8% are retired.
