Brave New World is a one-day conference on the DTS campus that will explore how the church can effectively communicate the unchanging Word in a relentlessly changing world.

We'll look at current examples of where the church is succeeding—as well as where it has failed—in its responses to cultural shifts, and provide insight for moving forward.

This event won’t be just a series of talks, but a dynamic gathering of leaders to participate in a frank and open forum on how the gospel compels us to engage our culture for the sake of Christ.

Breakout Session Leaders Include:

Mark Yarbrough
Darrell Bock
Barry Jones

During this highly interactive experience, you’ll have the opportunity to hear from leading evangelical ethicist Russell Moore, whom The Wall Street Journal describes as “vigorous, cheerful, and fiercely articulate.” President of the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission for the Southern Baptist Convention, Moore is the author of Onward: Engaging the Culture Without Losing the Gospel.

Keynote Speaker: Russell Moore

Register Today!

Early registration: $70/person (until 7/11/16) • Regular admission: $85/person (until 8/31/16)
Late registration: $95/person (after 8/31/16) • Group rate: $60/person for groups of 5 or more (until 8/29/16)

Special volunteer and student rates available. Please contact our events team at cclevents@dts.edu for more information.

For more information and to register, visit www.dts.edu/bravenewworld or call 214-887-5250.