Dallas Theological Seminary is authorized by the Tennessee Higher Education Commission. This authorization must be renewed each year and is based on an evaluation by minimum standards concerning quality of education, ethical business practices, health and safety, and fiscal responsibility.

Dallas Theological Seminary has received a Letter of Exemption from Certification issued by the Arkansas Department of Higher Education to offer church-related training courses and degrees.

Degree programs of study offered by Dallas Theological Seminary have been declared exempt from the requirements for licensure, under provisions of North Carolina General Statutes Section (G.S.) 116-15 (d) for exemption from licensure with respect to religious education. Exemption from licensure is not based upon assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.
A Message from the President

One of the hallmarks in the heritage of the seminary has been the emphasis on the gospel of grace, evangelism, and the emphasis on the mission that springs from that gospel. Whether on the DTS campus, at our extension sites, and through our distance education, the seminary’s commitment over the years to excellence has not changed in preparing communicators of the Bible. What is it that makes DTS different from many other seminaries?

DTS continues to stand unequivocally committed to God’s inerrant Scriptures. This commitment leads to a system of doctrine in which the great fundamentals of the Christian faith are affirmed and expounded. The doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy are taught in the framework of premillennial, dispensational theology, derived from a consistent grammatical-historical interpretation of the Bible.

A central characteristic of the DTS curriculum is that every student in a professional masters-level ministry degree program studies all 66 books of the Bible in expositional and exegetical courses. A DTS education, however, extends beyond the academic pursuit of biblical and theological disciplines to the art of communicating biblical truth effectively. Courses in ministry and communication seek to cultivate in students a sensitivity to spiritual needs, zeal for world missions, fervor in evangelism, and Spirit-filled enthusiasm for effectively communicating the Word of God.

DTS’s commitment to “teaching truth and loving well” is reflected as students move outside the seminary walls and engage compassionately in the communities in which they work and live. From our Agape Projects to our missional focus, students are exposed to multiple avenues of service.

The purpose of this catalog is to introduce you to DTS. I hope that you will discover a resource to help you take the glory of God to a watching world. Our recognition of sin, His work of gracious transformation in our lives, and a life of committed service are what drives us to fulfill our mission—to glorify God by equipping students to be godly servant leaders for the faithful proclamation of His Word so that the body of Christ will be built up worldwide.

For more than 90 years DTS has helped train the next generation of servant-leaders for the church of Jesus Christ. Like any school, how well we equip our students will be measured ultimately by their ministry. Take the opportunity and incredible privilege of studying at Dallas Theological Seminary. Get equipped, know the Word of God—and discover the God of the Word.

Teach Truth. Love Well.

JAMES DARNELL
Associate Pastor, Shadow Mountain Community Church
Padres infielder (2008-2013)

In my opinion DTS is the best theological seminary in the country. The history of the school, its diversity, and the people that the school has produced over the years is awe inspiring. The professors are highly trained and the curriculum is very challenging. My father had a significant influence on my decision to attend DTS as he is approaching forty-seven years in ministry and still has a passion for bringing people to the Savior. In addition, my senior pastor, Dr. David Jeremiah (ThM, 1967) at Shadow Mountain Community Church attended DTS, and he encouraged me to make DTS my first choice.

EMMANUEL RUHEZA
ThM student, Rwanda

This program has grown in me a deeper desire to live life with an eternal perspective. BE classes have helped me have a more in-depth understanding of the triune God, His mission throughout the Bible, His character, and His eternal Love for His people. I am more aware of my identity in Him and see His presence in all lives. All of this along with being trained on how to use resources for a lifetime career of ministry. I have greatly enjoyed the growth that has taken place in my life and the depth of reverence I have gained for our Savior and His word since I came here. My failures have helped me appreciate grace, and I have been amazed at how much I can do with God’s help.

JENN ROTH
MABC student, Academic Advisor

Counseling was a desire for many years but the timing was never right. I continued to serve on staff at my church and thought it was a dream that died. During those years, God placed a burden in my heart for pastors and their families. Eventually, I realized that God was opening the door for both. I knew that if I was going to counsel pastors one day, I needed the biblical and theological training as well as a counseling education. DTS was my only choice. I’d only pursue counseling if this was the avenue. Within a year, I moved from New York City to Dallas. I know that every life experience along with what I am learning in seminary is preparing me to minister effectively to men and women in vocational ministry.

NATE BEARFIELD
MACE student, Executive Chef

After being accepted to (DTS), I realized how blessed I was to attend. There wasn’t another option for me. I found myself intrigued with the notion that I could study ALL 66 books of the Bible. I never looked beyond that message. DTS has helped me realize that what I have been given is not for me, rather it has been given to me so that I may bless those whom the Lord has put in my life. Studying at DTS has help me discover and explain the reason I’ve been gifted in this particular field because having a meal around a conversation is a powerful experience.

Expanded Statement of Purpose

The following Expanded Statement of Purpose articulates the practical outworking of the seminary’s mission to equip godly servant-leaders and provides elaboration or qualification related to elements of the seminary’s mission statement.

1. Dallas Theological Seminary is a professional, graduate-level theological seminary that seeks to provide training at the master’s and doctoral levels to prepare its students for a variety of Christian ministries.

   • As a professional, graduate-level theological institution of higher learning, DTS seeks to provide training for specific Christian ministries and to encourage the pursuit of Christian scholarship at the highest levels of research befitting the mission of a theological seminary.

   • While the doctrinal commitment of the seminary is intentionally evangelical, Dallas Theological Seminary seeks to provide a contribution to a broader constituency through community, theological and ecclesiastical involvement, and dialogue.

   • The seminary seeks to maintain an appropriate balance between the training it provides for effective vocational ministries and the academic rigors necessary to graduate those who will research, write, and teach at the highest levels of theological education. As both a professional and graduate-level educational institution, the seminary is committed to providing the appropriate support services, departments, resources, and facilities to accomplish the mission of the institution.

2. In order to equip men and women for ministry as godly servant-leaders, Dallas Theological Seminary encourages the development of godly character in each of its students.

   • The seminary is committed to the preparation of students who are deeply committed to Jesus Christ and are marked by biblical and theological knowledge and maturing spirituality along with the skills necessary for their future ministries.

   • Students are encouraged to grow spiritually in their personal relationship with God, to function responsibly within the Christian community, and to engage and witness to the world from a life of faith and integrity.

   • DTS is committed to helping leaders develop a biblical philosophy of servant-hearted leadership as defined by Jesus Christ and as modeled by Him and the other godly individuals depicted in the Scriptures. Such leadership results from the gracious working of God through a person’s experience, training, spiritual gifting, natural talents, and the enablement of God’s Spirit.

3. Dallas Theological Seminary is committed to its founding ideal that the central subject of study is the entire Bible.

   • DTS stands unequivocally committed to the Bible as God’s inerrant, infallible, and authoritative written revelation. Members of the school’s boards and faculty subscribe to the seminary’s doctrinal statement, which is uniquely complete and detailed, thus helping safeguard the school’s unwavering theological stance since its founding.

   • The seminary’s commitment to the Scriptures leads to a framework of doctrine in which the great fundamentals of the Christian faith are affirmed and expounded. The doctrines of evangelical orthodoxy are taught in the framework of premillennial, dispensational theology, derived from a consistent grammatical-historical interpretation of the Bible. These truths include such essentials as the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

• The goal of all biblical and theological instruction is to glorify God through a transformed life that is manifested by a wholehearted love for God and a servant-hearted love for others.

4. In order to prepare godly servant-leaders who reflect the heart of God, DTS is committed to a worldwide vision of Christian ministry.

• DTS is committed to fulfilling the mandate of Jesus to make disciples of all nations. The seminary community is enriched and has its vision for ministry expanded by the presence of students from a wide variety of countries and ethnic backgrounds.

• DTS embraces a wide context of ministries. Training for vocational ministry is the primary purpose for which the seminary was founded and now exists. A secondary purpose is to provide theological training for those who choose to remain in their professions but who desire to be trained for leadership and a more effective ministry in the church.

• DTS is firmly committed to promoting the missionary endeavor throughout the world. This commitment is demonstrated in a variety of ways that provide both exposure and experience for students in the diverse nature of missions and the unique opportunities for vocational service in missions around the world.

DTS Core Educational Values

Core values are deeply held commitments to beliefs or principles deemed vital in the formation of students for the proclamation of God’s Word and the building up of the body of Christ worldwide. These values flow from the mission of the seminary and find fuller expression in the seminary’s expanded statement of purpose. They are reflected in the heritage, distinctives, services, and curricula of the seminary. During a student’s time at DTS, these values lead to a vibrant community, meaningful interactions, and significant learning experiences in a manner consistent with the unique purposes of each academic program.

The seminary’s ultimate purpose is to glorify God through all its programs, services, and curricula. The following core educational values pursue this goal.

The Bible
DTS values all sixty-six books of the Bible as the inspired, inerrant, and authoritative Word of God, and its accurate interpretation and appropriate application.

Theology
DTS values theology supported by Scripture, consistent with the orthodox, protestant, evangelical faith and the seminary’s doctrinal convictions, lived out in a variety of cultural contexts.

Communication
DTS values contextualized, effective communication of biblical and theological truth by a variety of means for personal and corporate transformation.

Christian Spirituality
DTS values growing, Spirit-empowered, personal relationships with the triune God in the context of Christian community, resulting in increasing Christlikeness and love for God and others.

Christian Leadership
DTS values Christlike leadership that equips others and emphasizes humility with sacrificial service.

Cultural Engagement
DTS values relationships with diverse individuals, cultures, and ideas, resulting in evangelism, dialogue, application, and service that are biblical, courageous, and compassionate.
History of DTS

In the fall of 1924 the first student body of Dallas Theological Seminary met to study under the noted Bible teacher Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer. This class of 13 students was the result of Dr. Chafer’s burden and vision to found a seminary that would emphasize expository preaching and teaching of the Scriptures.

In 1935 the seminary pioneered the four-year Master of Theology (ThM) degree, which is a year longer than the three-year Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree offered at most other seminaries. The ThM gives all the essential theological courses offered in a three-year curriculum with additional emphasis in systematic theology, Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis, Greek and New Testament exegesis, and Bible exposition.

In 1974 the seminary instituted the two-year Master of Arts (Biblical Studies) (MABS) program for students whose ministries would not require the in-depth language training of the ThM program (name changed to Master of Arts [Christian Studies] MACS in 2015). The Doctor of Ministry (DMin) degree began in 1980 to provide further pastoral training for seminary graduates to meet the changing demands of ministry. In 1982 the seminary began the MA in Christian Education (MACE) degree program so that students could receive specialized training for Christian ministries.

In 1987 the MA in Cross-cultural Ministries (MACM) program was inaugurated to give specialized training for intercultural ministry. In 1993 the seminary launched a three-year MA in Biblical Counseling (MABC) degree program and a two-year MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) (MABEL) degree program. The latter program is offered jointly with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics located in south Dallas.

In 2005 the seminary launched the MA in Media and Communication (MAMC) degree program for those interested in employing the media arts in ministry (name changed to Master of Arts in Media Arts and Worship in 2013). In 2011 the seminary began offering the Master of Arts in Christian Leadership (MACL) degree program. The Master of Biblical and Theological Studies (MBTS) program and the academic Master of Arts degree with majors in Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, and Theological Studies began in 2015.

Outstanding leadership and scholarly expertise have characterized the seminary’s presidents:
- Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, 1924–1952
- Dr. John F. Walvoord, 1952–1986
- Dr. Donald K. Campbell, 1986–1994
- Dr. Charles R. Swindoll, 1994–2001
- Dr. Mark L. Bailey, 2001–present

Throughout the seminary’s history it has steadfastly maintained its allegiance to biblical truth. A doctrinal statement articulates the beliefs of DTS, and each year the faculty and board members reaffirm their agreement with this statement.

Mosher, Turpin, and Miller Libraries

The 58,000-square-foot Dallas campus library is comprised of the Mosher Library building which opened in 1960, named in memory of Dallas businessmen William and Theodore Mosher, and the Turpin Library building which opened in 1988, named in honor of Jack and Sally Turpin. The library includes study space for 550 people, the library collection, conference rooms, small-group study rooms, copiers, lockers, doctoral carrels, a computer lab, an audio suite, and a video suite. Wireless connection to the Internet is available throughout the facility.

The Dallas library collection exceeds 500,000 items, including more than 250,000 print volumes, plus DVDs, videos, microforms, and electronic resources. The library licenses access to scores of bibliographic databases, including the ATLA Religion Index, Religious and Theological Abstracts, Old Testament Abstracts, New Testament Abstracts, Christian Periodical Index, ERIC, JSTOR, WorldCat, Academic-Search, PsycINFO, Philosopher’s Index, and many others. Thousands of books and articles are available online. The general collection is strong in systematic and historical theology, but it especially emphasizes biblical exegesis and interpretation, biblical languages, and the history, culture, and archaeology of the biblical world.

Miller Library is located on the Houston campus. Named for Dallas businessman Norm Miller, the library houses a growing collection of over 18,000 items that have been carefully chosen to support the curriculum of Dallas Theological Seminary. The library contains generous study space and computers, copiers, and scanners for student use. Students at DTS-Houston also have access to all the electronic resources available to students at the Dallas campus library, and materials from the Dallas campus library can be sent to Houston on request.

Staff with theological, research, library, and computer/technical expertise are available to assist students in Dallas and Houston. Reference help is available in person and via phone or email. The library provides access to additional resources through inter-library loan and the TexShare consortium, which includes borrowing privileges at hundreds of libraries in the state of Texas.

See the library website (library.dts.edu) or contact library@dts.edu for additional information such as facilities, hours, collections, services, and policies.

Annual Conferences and Lectureships

The Nathan D. Maier Memorial Series in Bible Exposition features outstanding Bible expositors with significant experience in Christian ministry. The series honors Nathan D. Maier, a Christian businessman and layman whose life reflected the character of Jesus Christ as he modeled servant-hearted leadership.

The Missions and Evangelism Lectureship brings to campus missions executives, evangelists, and theologians to speak on issues pertaining to missions and evangelism. The speakers are recommended by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies.

Arts Conference provides an opportunity for students to think critically about the integration of creativity and theology in the church and the world. Lectures from world-class philosophers, theologians, and artists challenge students to engage with on-campus art exhibits and discussions about the role of the arts in their own ministries.

The World Evangelization Conference (WEC) allows students to interact with outstanding missionaries and missions executives representing many mission boards and ministry contexts. The purposes of the conference are to introduce students to the spiritual needs of the world, confront them with the challenge of missionary service, and enlarge their missionary concern.

The Spiritual Life Conference is designed to challenge and encourage students in their spiritual walk.

The W. H. Griffith Thomas Memorial Lectureship was created in memory of William Henry Griffith Thomas, a DTS founder. The lectureship hosts speakers who are capable of insightful analysis of contemporary issues.

For a complete list of conference titles and speakers, see the General Information section of the online catalog.

Accreditation and Affiliations

Dallas Theological Seminary is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award master’s and doctoral degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Dallas Theological Seminary.

Other than for questions about the seminary’s accredited status, the SACSCOC should be contacted only if there is evidence that appears to support a significant noncompliance with a SACSCOC requirement or standard. Normal inquiries about the seminary, such as admission requirements, financial aid, educational programs, etc., should be addressed directly to the seminary and not to the Commission’s office.

The seminary is also accredited by the Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) in the United States and Canada, and the following degree programs are approved: ThM, STM, MA in Biblical Counseling, MA in Christian Education, MA in Christian Leadership, MA in Cross-cultural Ministries, MA in Media Arts and Worship, Master of Biblical and Theological Studies, Master of Arts (MA), MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics), MA (Christian Studies), DMin, DEdMin, and PhD.

DTS is a member of the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI), the Evangelical Training Association (ETA), and an affiliate member of the Council of Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU).

DTS is and seeks to serve those of like biblical faith in evangelical Protestantism. The faculty, governing boards, and students are members of various denominational or independent churches.

Location

The main campus of DTS is located in Dallas, Texas, with a metropolitan area population of more than 6.5 million.

The city offers an abundance of affordable housing, beautiful residential areas, parks and playgrounds, along with fine schools and universities. Students and their families may also enjoy a host of cultural activities, museums, and sports.

As the business capital of the Southwest, Dallas provides numerous employment opportunities through its banks, offices, hospitals, and other industries. The city is serviced by the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport—one of the world’s largest—located approximately 25 miles from the seminary. (See maps at the end of this catalog.) Maps are also available on the seminary website at dts.edu/map.

Getting Started

Team Admissions is available to help students navigate toward the degree that will best prepare them for their planned ministry context. Academic and financial advisors help students navigate the responsibilities of seminary life so that students can focus on their training for the ministry to which God has called them.

ADMISSION PROCESS

If you are considering DTS, we would love to have you visit one of our campuses. In addition to personalized visits, we also host several on-campus events throughout the year called Seminary Preview Day. These events are designed to give prospective students a good feel for what life is like at the seminary. For more information or to schedule a visit, please go to dts.edu/visit.

DTS enrolls men and women who:

1. show evidence of saving faith in Christ,
2. are of proven Christian character,
3. are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts, and
4. adhere to the following doctrines:
   • the authority and inerrancy of Scripture,
   • the Trinity,
   • the full deity and humanity of Christ,
   • the spiritual lostness of the human race,
   • the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ,
   • salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and
   • the physical return of Christ.

As an applicant you will be evaluated on the basis of (1) your academic records, (2) the assessment of your references, (3) the extent and quality of involvement in Christian service, and (4) your apparent gifts and potential for placement in Christian ministry.

The Admissions Committee will also consider compatibility of ministry goals with the applicant’s intended seminary program of study; future ministry placement; emotional, financial, and personal stability; and issues of character, behavior, and lifestyle. Applications are evaluated on receipt of all necessary information. All new students are subject to a criminal background check.

While all degree programs at DTS are coeducational, the seminary holds the position that Scripture assigns to men the roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church. Therefore the seminary programs of study are not designed to prepare women for these roles.

Enrollment is based on a four-year bachelor’s degree, or its equivalent, conferred by an accredited college or university. Exceptions to this requirement are necessarily limited. If approved for admission, applicants who have a weak undergraduate GPA (below 2.5 cumulative), who are graduates of unaccredited institutions, or who do not possess a completed bachelor’s degree are placed on academic probation for their first year at DTS. This probation is removed after one year of satisfactory progress toward their degree (2.0 or above GPA).

Application Procedures

Applicants for all programs, including audit-only, must make formal application through the Admissions office. Applications may be submitted by completing the online application on the seminary’s website: dts.edu/apply.

You may review the status of your application at any time from your application portal. We urge applicants to apply four to eight months before the anticipated enrollment date, but no earlier than 15 months before that date. The following dates represent the Admissions office’s priority deadlines: for the fall semester, July 1; for the Winter Session/spring semester, November 1; and for Summer Session, April 1.

International applicants should submit all documents no later than three months before the start of their study. (Applications, except those for international students, may be submitted after the above deadlines; however, priority will be given to applications received before the deadline.)
Applicants can apply for financial aid once an application for admission has been submitted. (Please see the Financial Aid section for scholarship application dates.) To be considered for scholarships, international applicants must submit the completed application, including Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores, and be granted initial approval by the Admissions Committee by January 15.

Application Credentials
There is a nonrefundable application fee of $75. The following credentials must be submitted.

1. Character references from three individuals. One must be from a pastor. The second should come from a college professor (if currently enrolled in college or recently graduated) or businessperson (supervisor, coworker, or an employer). When an applicant includes the reference’s email in the online application, a reference can submit his or her information electronically. References cannot be related to the applicant.

2. Church Reference. The form should confirm the applicant’s membership or regular participation in good standing. In addition, the form should endorse the applicant’s potential for effective ministry and describe the length and kind of ministry involvement. (Note: This is in addition to the reference from a pastor and can be completed online by the church if an email address is provided.)

3. Demonstration of English proficiency. Applicants for whom English is not their native or birth language must submit a score for the TOEFL. This applies even to applicants who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents. (See “International Students” in this section for further information.)

4. Official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended. This includes work beyond the bachelor’s level. Transcripts are not required for schools where less than 12 hours were taken. Final approval for admission is contingent on receiving an official transcript verifying conferral of the qualifying degree. We accept two types of official transcripts: (1) paper copies sent by the school’s registrar in a sealed envelope; and (2) electronic copies sent directly by the institution. We are not able to accept faxed transcripts as official.

5. Assessment test scores. Certain applicants are required to submit results of assessment tests to supplement their undergraduate academic record. Assessment test scores are required as evidence of academic aptitude when (1) the preseminary GPA is less than 2.5 on a 4.0 scale or (2) the applicant does not hold a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution. Scores from either of two assessments can be used for this purpose: the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). Note: On the GRE, only the Verbal and Analytical scores are considered for admissions purposes.

The GRE General Test is administered across the United States and Canada. You can obtain information concerning this examination from the Educational Testing Service at gre.org. The institutional code for reporting scores to the seminary is R6156.

The MAT is administered at colleges and universities throughout the United States. You can obtain information on this exam by reading the information available at milleranalogies.com.

More information about these assessments, including helpful tips, can be found at dts.edu/gre. Please contact the admissions office to discuss which exam to take.

Nonbaccalaureate Admission

Applicants who lack the prerequisite college degree may apply for admission to the ThM, professional MA programs (Biblical Counseling, Christian Education, Christian Leadership, Cross-cultural Ministries, or Media Arts and Worship), or the Certificate of Graduate Studies.

Admission of students without bachelor’s degrees is highly selective. Qualifications considered include maturity, educational background, ministry experience, and vocational goals. Applicants must be at least 30 years of age, and preference is given to those who have the most qualifying educational background. Applicants are expected to take and achieve acceptable scores on the GRE or MAT to demonstrate their readiness for graduate-level study.

New Student Orientation
Orientation is designed to help entering students adjust to seminary by providing necessary information about the many facets of seminary life. This time also allows new students to get to know one another as well as faculty members. Students should attend the New Student Orientation held just prior to the semester in which they enter. Students entering in the summer should attend the fall orientation.

The Director of Counseling Services administers a psychological assessment to each incoming student in conjunction with New Student Orientation. The purpose of this assessment is to determine whether the student has entered the Seminary with personal struggles that, if not addressed, could be detrimental to his or her future ministries. (See the Student Handbook for further details.) Students unable to attend orientation must still complete this assessment. Please contact the Department of Counseling Services for more information.

Classification of Students

Regular Students
Students enrolled in degree programs (MBTS, MA, ThM, STM, DMin, or PhD) are classified as regular students. Continuation as a student depends on satisfactory progress toward graduation.

Nondegree Students
A limited number of applicants may be admitted as nondegree students. Academic and spiritual qualifications necessary for regular student admission are the same for nondegree students. Application procedures are also the same, but some credentials are not required (see the instructions that accompany the application).

A maximum of 30 credit hours may be taken by nondegree students or by students in the Certificate of Graduate Studies program. All standard prerequisites apply when enrolling in courses.

Nondegree students are not to be confused with students auditing a course (see the following section). Course-work requirements for nondegree students are the same as for degree students. Nondegree and degree students are expected to do the coursework, which is graded, and upon satisfactory completion of the work they receive credit for the course. The credit is transferable to a degree program at DTS or another graduate-level institution if it satisfies the curriculum requirements.

Audit Students
Any current student (regular or nondegree) may audit a course, as long as that course is not required for completion of the student’s program. Alumni may audit courses as nondegree students at a reduced rate.

Spouses of regular students may audit up to three courses a semester or three courses a summer for a nominal charge. Spouses of students enrolled in the Alumni-in-Residence program are also eligible to audit courses at the spouse-audit rate. Spouses who audit must pay the audit fee. No permanent record is kept and no transcript is issued. Contact the Registrar’s office for more information.

Audit students can participate in the class discussions and receive copies of handouts, but coursework and examinations are not assigned or graded, and academic credit is not given.

Courses may be audited in Summer Session under the same conditions as in the regular academic year.
Special Students (nondegree)
A student pursuing a degree at another accredited seminary or graduate school may apply to enroll as a nondegree special student to take one class. Contact the Admissions office for further information.

Transfer of Credit
Course credits with a minimum grade of C earned at other accredited seminaries, graduate theological schools and through other related programs are accepted to the extent that the courses are comparable to the seminary’s stated requirements.

The following number of semester hours may be transferred toward the respective DTS degree program:

- a maximum of 60 hours toward the ThM degree;
- a maximum of 6 hours toward the STM degree and the CGS;
- a maximum of 12 hours toward the MBTS degree;
- a maximum of 30 hours toward the MA in Christian Education, the MA in Christian Leadership, the MA in Cross-cultural Ministries, the MA in Media Arts and Worship, the MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics), the academic MA, and the MA (Christian Studies); or
- a maximum of 45 hours toward the MA in Biblical Counseling, including a maximum of 15 hours in counseling courses.

Additionally, no more than half of the credits earned toward a graduate degree at another institution may be transferred to a DTS degree program. Typically, course work more than ten years old is not eligible for transfer.

An official transcript from the institution attended showing satisfactory course completion is required. Transfer hours are not nondegree students except for those enrolled in the Certificate of Graduate Studies program.

Transferability of credits earned at DTS is at the discretion of the receiving institution. (See dts.edu/transfer for more information.)

Advanced Standing
Students entering DTS with a strong background in Bible or theology may choose to pursue advanced standing. Advanced standing is a curricular adjustment based on a student's demonstrated competency. In most cases this competency is gained from courses taken at an approved Christian university, Bible college, or parachurch ministry. Two types of advanced standing are available at DTS: substitution and reduction of credit hours.

Substitution of Credit Hours
Students may qualify to substitute required or core courses with more advanced courses but with no curricular reduction of degree program credit hours.

A student who desires to pursue course substitution must interview with a faculty member from the department relevant to each course. The faculty member will assess the student’s competency and recommend an appropriate substitute course.

Reduction of Credit Hours
Students may qualify to reduce their degree program credit hours by up to one-fourth (except for CGS, STM, and doctoral degrees) based on a current demonstration of competency. Reduction of credit hours can occur in two ways:

Disclaimer for Transferability of DTS Credit
The mission of DTS is to glorify God by equipping godly servant-leaders for the proclamation of His Word and the building up of the body of Christ worldwide. This unique mission may limit the transferability of DTS courses to other educational institutions. Students should be aware that transfer of credit is always the responsibility and prerogative of the receiving institution. Any student interested in transferring credit hours should check with the receiving institution directly to determine to what extent, if any, credit hours can be transferred.
Course-by-course

Students may qualify to reduce degree program credit hours on a course-by-course basis by taking an assessment exam. Course-by-course advanced standing (except for biblical languages) is available to students prior to the completion of their first 24 credit hours at DTS. Course-by-course advanced standing for biblical languages (i.e., Hebrew and Greek) is available to students at any time during their course of study provided they have not taken a class in that language at DTS.

Accelerated Advanced Standing (for Dallas-campus students)

Accelerated advanced standing reduces the number of credit hours required in a degree by replacing them with advanced seminar courses available on the Dallas campus. Through accelerated advanced standing, Master of Theology students can reduce their program by 30 credit hours. Depending on the program, Master of Arts students can reduce their program by 15 or 16 credit hours. Accelerated advanced standing is available only to Dallas-campus students before they begin classes at DTS.

For more information about advanced standing see dts.edu/advancedstanding.

International Students

Dallas Theological Seminary is enriched by the presence of more than 100 international students from nearly 35 foreign countries.

Applicants for whom English is not their native or birth language or who were not born in the U.S. are required to demonstrate their proficiency in English by submitting satisfactory Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores taken within two years of the date of application. This applies even if the applicant is a U.S. citizen, has attended American or English-speaking colleges and universities, and is a longtime resident of English-speaking countries.

Waivers for the English proficiency requirement are only given to applicants who have completed both high school and an accredited bachelor’s degree in the U.S. The Admissions Committee reserves the right to require an official TOEFL or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) score from any applicant whose correspondence and/or application materials do not demonstrate the necessary English language proficiency for graduate study.

The minimum score on the Internet-based TOEFL (iBT) for the CGS, MBTS, and all MA programs is 86, with subscores of 21 for Reading and Listening and 22 for Speaking and Writing. The minimum requirement for the ThM, STM, and all doctoral programs is 90, with subscores of 22 for Reading and Listening and 23 for Speaking and Writing. The TOEFL institution code for DTS is 6156, and more information can be obtained at toefl.org. DTS also accepts scores from the IELTS exam. The minimum overall score requirement is 6.5 with subscores of 7.0 in Speaking, 6.5 in Reading and Listening, and 6.0 in Writing.

International applicants, like other students, must submit the nonrefundable application fee of $75. The application fee must be paid with funds drawn on a U.S. bank, a money order in U.S. dollars, U.S. credit card over the phone, or traveler’s check. Occasionally applicants have a contact in the U.S. who will pay the fee on their behalf. No application will be processed until this application fee is received.

International students must show evidence of financial documentation for the first year of study and provide a plan of support for the length of their program. Documentation can be in the form of bank statements, which show the current balance and the average balance during the past six months. Family or friends who provide financial support must sign a financial pledge form and return it, along with bank statements from the past three months, to the International Student Office. (Pledges for students are not tax-deductible.)

The documents needed to apply for a student visa will not be issued until proof of financial support has been shown. All documents must be submitted at least two months prior to the anticipated date of enrollment. For a current estimate of tuition and living expenses, please visit the International Admissions website: dts.edu/ais.

A very limited number of tuition scholarships are available for international students each year. Application forms are distributed and processed by the Financial Aid Office and can be obtained online. To be considered for scholarships, an applicant must be granted initial approval by the Admissions Committee by January 15.

International students must be in Dallas for the International Student Orientation, which is held the week of New Student Orientation. Additionally, all international students are required to take RS100, Research Seminar for International Students (see course description in “Interdepartmental Courses”). This course is designed for the purpose of orienting incoming international students to DTS’s academic standards and culture.
Entering Students
Orientation is required for all entering students. Students attending courses in Dallas, Houston, or Washington DC will attend new student orientation in person on their respective campus. Students taking courses online or at one of our other extension locations can participate in our online new student orientation. Find all the details about new student orientation at students.dts.edu/newstudents.

Topics covered in our new student orientation include:
• The spiritual life of a seminary student
• Academic Advising
• Financial Aid
• Online technology (including Logos Bible software)
• Student groups
• Pastoral care and counseling
• A “seminary charge” from Dr. Mark Bailey

Students will also have a chance to have lunch with the faculty at the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC orientations.

Further questions can be directed to the Division of Student Life, in person on the first floor of Walvoord, by email at studentlife@dts.edu, or by phone at 214-887-5360.

International Students
All entering international students on F or J visas are required to attend the International Student Orientation. Be sure to arrange your flight arrival to enter the US at least one day before the day of International Orientation. The immigration requirements and legal obligations to maintain your legal status will be given as well as other items of information. In both the fall and spring semesters, the International Student Orientation typically falls on the Monday preceding the general student orientation.

The International Student Orientation and the general student orientation are two different mandatory events.

Orientation details are available at dts.edu/orientation.
Registration
Students cannot be admitted to classes without formal registration, which takes place around the middle of the preceding fall or spring semester, while late registration continues into the beginning of the semester. Priority enrollment will be given to students graduating that year. Without special approval, a student may not add a class after the first week of the semester.

Summer Session registration occurs at the same time as registration for the following fall semester. Winter Session registration occurs at the same time as registration for the following spring semester. A late fee is assessed if registration is completed after the published deadline. New students admitted after the deadline have two weeks from the time they are admitted to register without paying late fees. Students registering late run the risk of courses or sections being filled or cancelled. Space in class and availability of textbooks are not guaranteed for those who fail to register on time. Final dates for late registration and other deadlines are available at dts.edu/registrar.

Independent Study
Students may complete a portion of the following graduate-level programs by independent study:
- ThM—up to 18 hours of elective credit;
- MA—up to 12 hours of elective credit; or
- MBTS, CGS, and STM—up to 6 hours of elective credit.
Courses requiring independent study are available with special approval. For more information contact the Registrar’s office.

Academic Load
Students may earn up to 18 hours of credit each semester, including the summer session. Students taking a language course in a five-week summer session are encouraged not to take additional courses during the same session due to the heavier workload in language courses.

Course Papers
Unless otherwise specified by the professors in individual courses, all course papers and theses must be typewritten and in thesis form in conformity to the standards outlined in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers,
Graduation Requirements

Students are responsible for meeting the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their matriculation. Students who leave the seminary for more than one year are automatically withdrawn from school. If reinstated, students are subject to the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their reinstatement, unless written permission was obtained before the extended leave. Students who reclassify are also subject to the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog at the time of their approved reclassification. (See the Student Handbook regarding reclassification to another degree program.)

Degree Conferral

While the graduation ceremony is held only once a year in May, degrees are conferred in May, August, and January. Students who finish during the summer session will receive degree conferral in August. However, they are encouraged, if they desire, to participate in the May commencement ceremony preceding the summer in which their work will be completed. Those who complete their degree requirements in December will be able to participate in the commencement ceremony held the following May. Students unable to complete their work in the spring, summer, or fall may be required to pay a fee to postpone their graduation date and cover costs related to the postponement.

Grading System

The seminary follows a 4.0 grading scale. Grade points are determined on the basis of hours attempted according to the following scale:

- A+ (99–100) 4.0
- A (96–98) 4.0
- A- (94–95) 3.7
- B+ (91–93) 3.3
- B (88–90) 3.0
- B- (86–87) 2.7
- C+ (83–85) 2.3
- C (80–82) 2.0
- C- (78–79) 1.7
- D+ (75–77) 1.3
- D (72–74) 1.0
- D- (70–71) 0.7

Academic Discipline

Students whose grade point average (GPA) falls below a 2.0 (2.5 for STM) are given an academic warning. If the GPA falls below this level again, the student is placed on academic probation. Students who are admitted from unaccredited colleges or with a low grade point average (2.0) are also placed on academic probation. For further details see the Student Handbook.
Fees and Expenses for 2019–2020

Every effort is made to keep student expenses low. Because of the contributions of generous friends of the seminary, students pay only a portion of the real cost for their education. The seminary recommends that entering students come with sufficient funds for at least one semester.

Students may access their student account statement and make payments online via students.dts.edu. Payment of the semester balance completes a student’s registration for that semester. Payment of a semester balance must be received or fully covered by other means by the designated payment deadline for each semester. Deadlines are announced during the academic year, but are normally in the following months: August for the fall semester, November for Winter Session, December for the spring semester, and April for Summer Session. For registrations after the semester payment deadline, payment is due the Friday after registering for a class or classes. Deadlines are subject to change.

Payment on student accounts can be made by cash, paper check, electronic check (echeck), debit/credit card, or through Western Union Business Solutions (WUBS) for payment by international funds. Debit/Credit card payments (American Express, Discover Card, Visa, and MasterCard) are made online. A nonrefundable service fee for debit/credit card use will apply and be shown as a separate transaction. No service fee is assessed for electronic check transactions. Third Party Support Payments from church, family, or friends may be done online at dts.edu/give-to-a-student.

A monthly payment plan is also available. For more information regarding payment plans, please consult the information about Tuition Management Systems Payment Plan (TMS) in this catalog or go to dts.edu/tms.

For more information on the payment options available, please go to dts.edu and search for payment options. The tuition and fee rates that follow are effective beginning with the fall 2019 semester. Tuition, fees, and refunds are subject to change without notice.

Financial Information

The seminary’s student financial aid program, including scholarships, a payment plan, and loans, offers students realistic opportunities to finance their education. The amount of scholarship available to students has increased in recent years—total aid available now exceeds $4 million.

Students become eligible to apply for need-based scholarships after submitting an application or being accepted for admission to the seminary. Students will be able to submit the application form digitally on students.dts.edu. Other documents may be required depending on the type of aid requested. The scholarship application deadline is two months before the application for admission deadline; thus, new students who intend to apply for scholarship should plan the admission process accordingly.

For continuing students, applications for need-based scholarships must be submitted by February 28 for the fall semester and September 30 for the spring semester. Applications for new students must be submitted by May 1 for the fall semester and November 1 for the spring semester. All international student scholarships are awarded on an annual basis only and are due January 31 to be considered for the following academic year.

Financial aid is distributed as tuition scholarship grants. Financial need is the primary criterion for the distribution of institutional aid. Secondary criteria include academic program, academic load, and academic performance. Applications for scholarship are reviewed by the Director of Financial Aid and the Financial Aid Committee.

Eligibility

To be eligible for scholarships, a student must have financial need, be employed, have a minimum 2.5 GPA, be in good standing, and not be in default or delinquent on any account or loan program with the seminary.

In addition, recipients must register each semester for at least:
- 12 hours on the Dallas campus if working part-time or
- 9–11 hours if working full-time (30 hours/week)
- 6 hours on the Houston campus
- One class at another extension campus.

Online-only students may receive scholarship assistance if they are taking 12 or more credit hours and are working part time, or if they are taking a 9–11 credit hours and are working full time (30+ hours/week). For more information, contact the Financial Aid office.

If you receive a scholarship through the seminary and also receive additional outside assistance, you must report this immediately to the Financial Aid office. Name and address changes and changes in academic course load also must be reported.

Determination of Financial Aid

After receiving the need-based scholarship application form, the Financial Aid office will determine students’ needs and the types of awards for which they qualify.

Financial need is determined by calculating the difference between the cost of attending the seminary and the resources available to the student. Therefore, financial need equals the cost of attendance minus student contribution and outside resources.
Students are expected to contribute toward the cost of their education from summer earnings and from employment during the academic year. Financial Aid personnel are available to counsel students about their educational financial situations.

Direct Loan Program
The seminary participates in the Direct Loan Program. It provides limited funds at a low interest rate and delayed repayment schedule to eligible students. Nondegree students are not eligible for direct loans.

Students may apply for an unsubsidized Direct Loan where interest payments can be made monthly, or capitalized per a designated period of time.

To apply for a Direct Loan the student must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the Department of Education. The FAFSA may be completed online atfafsa.ed.gov. It is used to determine financial need. Once processed by the Department of Education, a Student Aid Report (SAR) will be available. The school code for DTS is G03562. Entering the school code on the FAFSA application will ensure that student information will be sent electronically to DTS. In addition to the SAR, a Master Promissory Note and a Loan Request Form are required to process a Direct Loan. Forms are available online at dts.edu/financialaid. Then choose “Direct Loans.”

To ensure that loan funds are available for the student’s payment deadline, all documents must be received in the Financial Aid office by May 31 for the fall semester, November 1 for the spring semester, and April 1 for the summer semester.

Student Loan Deferment
The interest (on subsidized loans borrowed prior to fall 2012) and principal repayments are deferred as long as the student remains on at least half-time status in an approved degree program. DTS considers full-time status to be enrollment in 12 hours per term for all master’s programs and 6 hours per term for all doctoral programs. Master’s-level students enrolled in at least 6 hours per term and doctoral students enrolled in at least 3 hours per term are considered half-time.

The Director of Financial Aid is available to assist students and their families by providing advice and suggestions suitable for their financial status. For more information on the specific forms of financial aid available, contact the Financial Aid office at 800-DTS-WORD, ext. 5087.

Student Responsibilities
The student has the following responsibilities:

1. Complete the application for student financial aid accurately as errors can result in long delays in the receipt of financial aid. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal programs is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the United States Criminal Code.

2. Return to Financial Aid and/or the Department of Education all requested documentation, verification, corrections, and/or new information.

3. Read, understand, and keep copies of all forms requiring a signature.

4. Accept responsibility for all signed agreements.

5. Notify the servicer(s) of any change in name, address, or school status.

6. Know and comply with deadlines for application and reapplication for aid.

7. Know and comply with attending school’s refund procedures.

8. Maintain good standing and satisfactory academic progress.

Satisfactory Academic Progress
A student is required to make satisfactory progress toward his or her degree in order to be eligible for scholarship and federal financial aid. Students must maintain a 2.5 GPA for scholarship and a 2.0 GPA for federal loans, without excessive course drops. A minimum number of hours must be completed each year to be considered making satisfactory academic progress.

- Students in the ThM must complete a minimum of 16 hours per academic year.
- Students in the MACE, MACL, MACM, MAMW, MABEL, MACS, MACE, and MA (with majors in OT, NT, or TS) must complete a minimum of 10 hours per academic year.
- Students in the MABC must complete a minimum of 13 hours per academic year.
- Students in the MBTS must complete a minimum of 6 hours per academic year.
- Students in the STM must complete a minimum of 6 hours per academic year.
- Students in the doctoral programs must complete a minimum of 6 hours per academic year.

Independent Status
The federal government considers anyone who is a graduate student an independent student.

Physical Disabilities
Students who have physical disabilities should contact the Texas Rehabilitation Commission regarding financial aid. Students with disabilities may also be considered for financial assistance by the Financial Aid office, provided the necessary forms have been submitted.
Direct Loan Refund Policies

Currently, the only Title IV aid funds DTS awards are the Direct Loan unsubsidized loans. When a student withdraws from DTS before completing 60% of the semester, the student has not "earned" all of the federal financial aid and a Return of Title IV Funds Calculation must be performed. The Department of Education mandates that students who withdraw from all classes may only keep the portion of federal aid they have "earned" up to the time of withdrawal.

Title IV funds disbursed in excess of the earned amount must be returned by the seminary and/or the student to the federal government. This situation could result in the student owing aid funds to the seminary, government, or both.

The following steps will be followed when determining the amount of Title IV federal aid to be returned upon withdrawal:

1. Determine percentage of enrollment period completed by student. Divide the number of days attended by the number of days (less any schedule breaks of five days or more) in the enrollment period.

2. Calculate the amount of earned Title IV aid. Multiply the percentage of the enrollment period completed by the total Title IV aid disbursed. If the calculated percentage of the enrollment period exceeds 60%, then the student has earned all Title IV aid for the enrollment period.

3. Determine amount of unearned aid to be returned. Subtract the amount of earned aid from the total amount of federal aid disbursed.

4. Return of Title IV funds by institution and student:

Amount of Unearned Aid Due from the School: DTS will return unearned Title IV aid up to an amount that is equal to the total institutional charges for the payment period multiplied by the percentage of the Title IV aid that was unearned. The return of the unearned aid will be returned as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after the date DTS determined the student withdrew.

Amount of Unearned Aid Due from the Student: The student’s portion of aid to be returned is not immediately required to repay the loan. The terms of the original loan repayment agreement (Master Promissory Note, MPN) will apply. Unearned Title IV Funds will be returned to the unsubsidized federal direct loan program. Postwithdrawal disbursements will be made as soon as possible but no later than 180 days after the date the school determines the student withdrew and in accordance with requirements for disbursing Title IV funds.

Written notification to the student providing the opportunity to accept all or part of a post withdrawal disbursement of Title IV loan funds will be sent within 30 days of the school’s determination that the student withdrew.

Written notification of the student’s eligibility for a direct postwithdrawal disbursement of Title IV loan funds in excess of outstanding current (educational related charges) will be sent within 30 days of the school’s determination that the student withdrew.

Postwithdrawal disbursement to student for earned Title IV funds in excess of outstanding current (educational related charges) will be made as soon as possible after the date the school determined the student withdrew but no later than 180 days.

Notification to the student of outcome of late request for a postwithdrawal disbursement to the student (request received by school after the specified period and school chooses not to make disbursement) will be made as soon as possible.

If a student withdraws from all classes, the student is encouraged to contact the Financial Aid office before doing so. The consequences of withdrawing from all classes can be explained at that time. When a student withdraws from all classes, a balance due to DTS could result because of lost scholarships and unearned aid being returned.

The seminary reserves the right to amend the Title IV Return of Funds Policy at any time in order to comply with Federal regulations.

Tuition Management Systems Payment Plan (TMS)

For students who are unable to pay their expenses in full at the beginning of the semester, financing in the form of a monthly payment plan with no interest for tuition and fees is available at the time of registration.

Students must apply for TMS online (afford.com/dts) or call TMS (800-722-4867) prior to the semester they plan to attend. An Enrollment fee does apply. Fees are subject to change. More information about monthly payment plans is available online at dts.edu/financialaid. Questions regarding the monthly payment plan should be directed to the bursar/student account office (stuacct@dts.edu).

Scholarships

For a full list of over 200 scholarships available to DTS students, go to dts.edu/scholarships.

Doctoral Student Scholarships

Doctoral scholarships are available for students in the Doctor of Philosophy program who meet the scholarship criteria. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

Minority Student Scholarships

DTS provides a significant amount of aid each year to qualified American-born minority... students. Minority students are required to reapply each semester that aid is needed using the standard financial aid application form. Applications for aid are reviewed by the Financial Aid Committee. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

International Student Scholarships

International students may apply for tuition scholarships and on-campus employment. To be considered for aid, incoming students must be approved for enrollment in a regular program of study and pursue study under the F–1 or J–1 (student) visas. New international applicants who will require aid are encouraged to file their applications by January 31, as all international aid is assigned by March 31 for the following academic year. International applicants should be aware that competition for available scholarships is heavy and that grants are made only to the most highly qualified candidates, with respect to ministry experience, ministry potential, support from a sponsoring organization, and academic background. Applications for aid to international students are reviewed by the Financial Aid Committee. Students who are awarded an international scholarship should be aware that acceptance of a tuition scholarship obligates them to leave the United States upon completion of their program. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the General Information section of this catalog.

Continuation of Scholarship

Scholarships must be approved each semester. Students who postpone enrollment must reapply for scholarship for the semester they plan to attend. Current students are required to reapply each semester that aid is needed.

VA Benefits at DTS

In order to utilize VA benefits at DTS, the following items must be submitted to the School Certifying Official prior to the first day of the entering term:

1. A copy of the VA Certificate of Eligibility
2. A copy of the DD-214
3. An official copy of military transcripts, sent directly from the military to admissions@dts.edu

DTS will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities due to the delayed disbursement of funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33 (up to 90 days after the certification of tuition and fees), provided that the individual has provided a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (a “certificate of eligibility” can also include a “Statement of Benefits” obtained from the Department of Veterans Affairs’ (VA) website – eBenefits, or a VAF 28-1905 form for chapter 31 authorization purposes).

Other Sources of Financial Aid

Additional financial aid is available through foundation grants, denominational support, employers, and nonprofit organizations. For a listing of the available scholarships and eligibility requirements, see the Student Scholarship section of this catalog.
“The depth of knowledge that I’m gaining at the Seminary has really revolutionized the way I think about my faith; ideas about why we do things the way we do in the West has really been shaped by my time here at DTS.”
UPLIFTING FELLOWSHIP AND CONNECTIONS

Dallas Theological Seminary cares deeply about its students. Training students for future ministry involves serving them and encouraging them to minister to each other. The atmosphere and programs on our campus are intentionally designed to build authentic community for life transformation.
Spiritual Development
At DTS, students have many opportunities for personal interaction and growth—in class, in chapel, in prayer, and in fellowship—that develop your growing passion for ministry.

Chapel
The administration and faculty strongly believe in the vital role of chapel and its ministry of encouragement, worship, and community development. DTS provides chapel services each week during the fall and spring semesters and during Summer Session. Chapel services feature music and messages by faculty members and Christian leaders from around the world as well as student-led chapels. Prayer needs, campus announcements, and items of general interest are also shared during this community time of rest, relief, and renewal. (See the Student Handbook for chapel attendance requirements and for location-specific information regarding chapel.)

Prayer Opportunities
Prayer is an integral part of the Christian life and therefore is essential to the community at DTS. In addition to the regularly scheduled prayer chapels, students meet each Monday evening and Tuesday morning for prayer on the Dallas campus, and prayer requests are accepted through the Chaplain’s office.

Spiritual Formation
Spiritual Formation at DTS is an intentional attempt to provide a context for life-change. Students are placed in a small group environment for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with ministry. As group members grow together in Christlikeness the potential for significant relationships and ministry partnerships is established. Spiritual Formation is required of ThM, MACE, MACL, MACM, MAMW, MABEL, and MACS students and is offered as an elective in other programs. Students at the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC sites should plan to complete this requirement in four consecutive fall/spring semesters. MABEL and MACS (Chinese language version) students participate in a specialized Spiritual Formation program. Spiritual Formation is a prerequisite for the student’s Ministry Formation Internship requirement. See the Interdepartmental section of this catalog for more information.

Student Resources
DTS provides a variety of resources to students and their spouses. Whether it’s social events, ongoing conversations, campus involvement, or crisis counseling, the Student Life office always has an open door and a listening ear. Come on in!

Counseling and Testing Services
The Counseling Services department offers short-term counseling assistance to students, staff, faculty, and their immediate families. The Director of Counseling and Testing Services maintains a referral network of counselors who work from a biblical foundation within the local community, and can also provide professional counseling services to the seminary family.

Christian Ministry Opportunities
The Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex offers a variety of opportunities for students to apply what they are learning in the classroom. Many churches and parachurch organizations welcome students to teach Sunday School, lead youth groups, and minister in other ways. Students are often able to fulfill their internship requirements while ministering at these churches and organizations. (Students should see the Ministry Formation department section of this catalog for more information about internship requirements and opportunities.)

Student Council and Groups
DTS hosts several student groups that provide fellowship and resources for different student interests within the seminary. While the list of official student groups may change from year to year, below are listed a few of the long-standing communities.

Student Government
The DTS Student Council is elected by students each spring. The Student Council members interact with their counterparts in the seminary’s staff and faculty, as well as integrating all phases of the extracurricular life of the student body. Leaders from active student groups participate in Student Council as well.

Student Missions Fellowship (SMF)
Student Missions Fellowship exists to advance student involvement in God’s global enterprise of missions. SMF hosts prayer meetings, special events, and chapels, and encourages students to participate in Intercultural Ministries Internships. Each spring, SMF organizes a campus-wide World Evangelization Conference to show the DTS community how it can serve Christ in a global context.

ARISE
(Women Student Fellowship)
The Arise Women Student Fellowship exists to serve and help female students connect with one another and to acclimate to seminary life, and is led by a leadership team of women students dedicated to enriching the academic, spiritual, relational, and social lives of fellow women students.

Seminary Wives in Ministry (SWIM)
Seminary Wives in Ministry exists to equip wives to become competent servants alongside their husbands in ministry, and provides several programs and special events throughout the academic year to facilitate this preparation.

Physical Fitness Facilities
DTS encourages consistent, regular physical activity as a means of attaining your best level of wellness. Each fall and spring semester, all Dallas campus student accounts are automatically charged an activity fee that provides a limited-access membership to the Baylor Tom Landry Fitness Center. Should students wish to invest in other options, they may opt out of the activity fee within the first three weeks of each semester.

Employment Opportunities
Employment opportunities are listed on the seminary’s website at dts.edu/jobs.

Students and their spouses who wish to be considered for on-campus employment should contact the Human Resources office. To view a list of on-campus openings, or to obtain an application, go to dts.edu/jobs. Contact Human Resources for questions regarding these on-campus openings.

Students with Disabilities
In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Dallas Theological Seminary, a privately funded, nonprofit, religious organization, will make modifications to ensure equal opportunity and access for qualified students with disabilities to applicable programs, services, activities, and facilities.

After acceptance and prior to entering classes, students with disabilities must submit written requests for modifications or auxiliary aids to the Director of Services to Students with Disabilities. Documentation of disability may be required in order to receive appropriate modifications. The department responsible for the services requested will coordinate with the appropriate seminary personnel and/or federal or state agency to provide the student with maximal assistance.

The seminary will not make substantial adjustments in existing programs beyond those necessary to eliminate discrimination against otherwise qualified students, and will not modify existing programs to the extent it places an undue financial or administrative burden on the seminary. The seminary assumes no responsibility for personal care attendants, health-care providers, personal devices, individually-prescribed devices, readers for personal use or study, or private tutors.

Student Handbook
The Student Handbook includes academic, library, and financial regulations and procedures as well as other instructions and policies regarding student life.

DTS Community Covenant
The Mission of Dallas Theological Seminary (DTS) is to, “glorify God by equipping godly servant leaders for the proclamation of his word and the building up of the body of Christ world-wide.”

As a community dedicated to fulfilling this mission to glorify the Father in the power of the Spirit, the board, faculty, staff, and students commit ourselves as a seminary to the cultivation of Christian doctrine, purity, and love consistent with the character and person of Christ. As physical-spiritual image bearers of the Triune God, we aspire to be known for excellence and integrity in Christlikeness. We commit ourselves to seeking the Spirit’s wisdom and discernment through the study of Scripture as we seek to honor Christ in the following areas:

• We commit ourselves to the biblical model of sexual purity expressed through either celibacy in singleness or fidelity in Christian marriage as a sacred union between one man and one woman and to the standards of conduct set forth in the DTS Marriage & Human Sexuality Policy, which is available online at dts.edu/about/policies/marriagealsexuality.

• We commit ourselves to maintain a non-prescriptive drug-free, alcohol-free, and tobacco-free environment with respect to all seminary facilities, events, and activities, knowing that any exception for the liturgical or medicinal use of alcohol on campus is to be approved by the administration.

• We commit ourselves to carefully exercise Christian freedom with regard to the use of alcohol, guarding against the misuse of any substances that might abuse our bodies, foster addictions, or cause others to stumble and to the standards of conduct set forth in the DTS Alcohol Policy, which is available online at dts.edu/policies.

• We commit ourselves to build and live in community that encourages responsible care and stewardship of the human body and soul while personally reflecting Christian modesty, maturity, discretion, and respect. Guidelines for campus appearance and conversation are available at dts.edu/handbook.

• We commit, within the context of our theological convictions and mission, not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, national and ethnic origin, or disability, and to take active measures against discriminatory harassment, and sexual harassment, including any type of violence or misconduct. As used herein, the term “sex” refers to an individual’s immutable sex—either male (man) or female (woman)—as objectively determined by genetics or physiology present by or before birth. Please visit dts.edu/title-ix for the complete abuse and harassment policy.

As we strive toward these commitments, we acknowledge our weakness and our constant need for God’s ongoing redemptive power expressed through his Spirit and fostered in the community of faith. When breaches of these commitments occur, we encourage the practice of repentance, confession, pardon, correction, and redemptive discipline when necessary.

Title IX

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination—which includes sexual violence—in educational programs and activities. Students, staff, faculty, and other employees have the right to pursue education, including athletic programs, scholarships, and other activities, free from sex discrimination, including sexual violence, sexual misconduct, stalking and harassment. In this context, DTS understands that the term “sex” historically, textually, and logically refers to an individual’s immutable sex—either male (man) or female (woman)—as objectively determined by genetics or physiology present by or before birth.

DTS is committed to maintaining an environment conducive to learning for all students and a professional workplace for its employees; as such, we take active measures against discriminatory harassment, and sexual harassment, including any type of violence or misconduct. For the complete abuse and discrimination policy, visit dts.edu/title-ix.

Health Insurance

The seminary requires all students taking 6 or more credit hours per semester to carry health insurance for themselves and their immediate families. All master’s-level students enrolled in at least 6 credit hours and Doctor of Philosophy students enrolled in at least 3 credit hours are eligible to enroll in the student health insurance program offered through the seminary.

Faculty and Academic Advising

The seminary considers advising an integral part of each student’s experience. For ease of access, many student advising needs are met in one centralized location. The Advising Center staff help students make informed decisions in light of current life circumstances and future ministry possibilities. Faculty members mentor students, discuss ministry realities, and help students select appropriate electives. Academic advisors listen to the life circumstances and ministry goals of students. They then help each student select an appropriate degree and/or courses in light of these goals. Academic advisors also help students plan toward degree completion in light of life circumstances and seminary policies. Financial aid advisors provide guidance on how to pay for school.
DTS is committed to providing quality, economical housing that supports the mission of DTS by encouraging spiritual growth and community in two on-campus housing facilities on the Dallas campus. DTS is equally committed to guiding students to resources available for off-campus housing. For information regarding housing and relocation, please visit dts.edu/housing.

On-campus Housing (Dallas)
Swiss Tower provides facilities for married couples with or without children and singles with children in 159 apartments. Washington Hall provides 89 one- and two-bedroom apartments totaling 156 private bedrooms for our single students without children. Both apartment facilities are equipped with electronically controlled access to the properties and apartments and are patrolled 24 hours a day by the DTS campus Police department.

Swiss Tower Apartments
Swiss Tower is a 10-story gated apartment complex, built in 2002, offering one bedroom apartments with a study and two bedroom apartments to married students, with or without children, and single students with children. Amenities include adult and child swimming pools, a community room featuring a small kitchen for social functions, game and conversation areas, an indoor playroom for residents' children, group study room and resource library. Laundry facilities are available on each floor. In addition to the pools, the courtyard offers a small grassy area for play, grills, a porch, and picnic tables with benches spread throughout the area. Wifi is available in select areas of 1st floor.

Apartment Descriptions
This apartment complex is a gated community with electronic entry to both the building and the parking lot. All apartments are unfurnished and are located along interior corridors. The apartments include central air and heat, refrigerators, stoves, dishwashers, built-in bookshelves, linen and coat closets, and vinyl plank flooring. All apartments are unfurnished.
One Bedroom
The 139 one-bedroom apartments are 781 square feet with the following dimensions:

- living/dining room—11’6” x 16’8”
- bedroom—11’ x 12’ with a walk-in closet
- study—9’ x 11’8” (large enough to be a child’s room)

Two Bedroom
The 20 two-bedroom apartments do not have a study and are 942 square feet with the following dimensions:

- living/dining room—12’ x 16’4”
- one bedroom—11’ x 12’ with a walk-in closet
- second bedroom—11’8” x 1’ with a wide closet

Laundry Facilities
There are laundry facilities located on each floor in the building.

Parking
One parking space is allotted per bedroom (i.e., one-bedroom apartments are allotted one spot, the study does not count as bedroom. Two-bedroom apartments are allotted two spots).

Washington Hall Apartments
Washington Hall is a seven-story apartment complex, built in 2008, offering one and two bedroom apartments to single male and female students without children. Various amenities are located within the core of the building, which are shared by all the residents. The building amenities include small lounges on each floor, meeting rooms, computer center and resource library, laundry room, game room, media rooms, music practice rooms, multi-purpose room which can be used for half-court basketball and volleyball, an outdoor pool, and gas grills.

Apartment Descriptions
This apartment complex is a gated community with electronic entry control to both the building and the parking lot. All apartments include central air and heat, refrigerators, stoves, and dishwashers in the kitchen and living area which is shared by both residents of two bedroom apartments. The apartments are unfurnished and are not provided with a microwave. Both bedrooms in a two bedroom apartment are designed as private rooms. Each bedroom is therefore provided with a full private bathroom and walk-in closet. All apartments are unfurnished.
One Bedroom
The one-bedroom apartments are approximately 535 square feet with the following dimensions:

- living/dining room/kitchen—21’ x 12’
- bedroom—10’ x 11’ plus a private bath and walk-in closet

Two Bedroom
The two-bedroom apartments are approximately 775 square feet with the following dimensions:

- living/dining room/kitchen—21’ x 12’
- bedrooms—10’ x 11’ plus a private bath and walk-in closet in each bedroom

Parking
One parking space is allotted per bedroom (i.e., one-bedroom apartments are allotted one spot. Two-bedroom apartments are allotted two spots).

Winter and Summer Subleasing
During summer and winter breaks, residents often leave on mission trips or leave to go home for various periods of time. These residents have the option to sublet their apartment to help cover their rent while they are away. In order to sublease one of these apartments you must be a current student or a direct family member of a current resident. The permanent residents will set a nightly rate for subleases. Because local students often do not know of their plans until the last minute, we will not have a list of available subleases until close to the period of residency. Because of this, sublease requests will not be accepted until April 1st (for Summer) or November 1st (for Winter Intercession). Apartments are assigned on a first come, first serve basis, and availability is dependant upon how many residents offer to sublease their apartments.

Contact Housing and Relocation Services at 214-887-5210 for more information.

Off-campus Housing
Housing and Relocation Services maintains a number of helpful online resources if on-campus accomodations are not available. These resources can be found at dts.edu/housing. Housing staff can offer ideas and suggestions to help students work through the variety of Housing options. Contact Housing and Relocation Services for further information and/or assistance.

Student Recommend Apartments
Occasionally, Dallas students living off-campus provide personal recommendations for properties and landlords in the Dallas area. Only properties with very positive grades for management, maintenance, and safety are placed on the recommended housing list, which can be found at dts.edu/off-campus-housing.

Off-campus Property Listings
Through the years, property owners have sought DTS students as tenants. In order to better accommodate students and the landlords, the Housing office provides a property listing and search service, which can be found at dts.edu/off-campus-housing. A typical listing includes a written description of the apartment or house, pictures, maps, rent rate, and contact information. Some property owners have long standing relationships with DTS.

Dallas Housing Area
In order to assist students with off-campus housing, Housing and Relocation Services provides a written description of the many neighborhoods and sub-communities that make up the Dallas metroplex. These descriptions can found at dts.edu/off-campus-housing.
Alumni Services

More than 16,000 alumni have studied at Dallas Theological Seminary. They currently serve in all 50 states and in more than 100 countries, ministering in more than 70 denominations and independent churches. DTS is committed to the success of its alumni and provides support, resources, and networking in the following ways.

Career Services

The Office of Career Services offers a lifetime of support for DTS graduates and provides consultation to graduating students, alumni, and ministries throughout the hiring process. Its services include assistance with résumé development, interviewing and candidating, and compensation guidelines. The Career Services office also assists ministries as they search for candidates and maintains a database of ministry opportunities through their Ministry Opportunities Listing. For more information about career services, please visit alumni.dts.edu/career.services

Placement Information

The seminary also tracks the percentage of known graduates who are in various categories of employment within a specified number of months of graduation. Of the graduates in 2017 whose ministry placements are known to the seminary, 49% are working in church ministry, 22% in parachurch ministry, 4% in missions, 10% in education, 13% in secular employment, and 2% are students in doctoral and other programs. Further evidence that graduates of the seminary are prepared for a lifetime of ministry can be seen from an overview of the seminary’s 14,821 living alumni. Of those for whom the seminary has the information, 34% are working in church ministry, 18% in parachurch ministries, 13% in education, 6% in missions, 17% in secular work, and 12% are retired.

Ways to Stay Connected

In addition to providing placement services, DTS seeks to foster and maintain a network for seminary alumni through other means such as DTS Magazine; monthly email updates, eNews; and a password protected online Alumni Directory. The alumni website (alumni.dts.edu) fosters a networking community among alumni. The seminary helps its constituents find churches, schools, and counselors that employ DTS graduates through its online locator.

Continuing Education

DTS is committed to continuing education for alumni in order to address the changing demands of ministry as well as current biblical and theological issues.

Through the alumni-only website, graduates are able to view online courses free of charge. They may also audit master’s-level courses for a small fee or take courses for credit at a reduced rate. Courses taken for credit cannot be applied toward another degree at the seminary unless the full tuition rate is paid, however, these courses may be transferable to other graduate institutions.

CGS Completion for Nongraduate Alumni

Qualified nongraduate alumni may apply to complete the Certificate of Graduate Studies at the Alumni Nondegree tuition rate. The program requires readmission to the seminary and completion of all remaining CGS requirements. Interested alumni will need to complete at least one course the semester before graduation, even if all other requirements have been previously met.

For more information, contact the Alumni or Admissions office.
The Hendricks Center

The Hendricks Center, founded by Professor Howard Hendricks in 1986, seeks to shape compassionate, courageous leaders who stand strong for biblical truth and who communicate that truth through words and actions that embody Christ’s love. With Christ-like character as the foundation, Christian leaders in today’s context must also develop Scriptural comprehension, an understanding of cultural contextualization, compassion, courage, and competence. The goal of the Hendricks Center is to equip leaders with Christ-like wisdom for every situation.

The Center seeks to develop these kinds of church and workplace leaders through events; leadership programs; and a weekly podcast, The Table (voice.dts.edu/tablepodcast/). Additionally, the Hendricks Center offers the following programs:

• Student internships fulfilling DTS program requirements in a variety of areas including, but not limited to Cultural Engagement, Christian Leadership, Media, Events, and Giftedness.

• Giftedness Workshops and Giftedness Coaching, providing a robust set of resources for DTS students to discern direction in their careers and callings.

• Complimentary Student Dinners, offered each semester involving a meal as well as a program created to engage a felt need on the campus or a to address a current ministry issue.

• The William N. Garrison Faith-and-Work Fellowship, named for Fort Worth attorney and long-time DTS Board member Bill Garrison. The Garrison Fellowship is a 20 hour-per-week paid fellowship that exposes future Bible preachers and teachers to the real-life realities of people in the workplace and contemporary theological pastoral needs.

• Apprenticeships, available for those interested in working alongside the multi-faceted focus of the Center. Apprenticeships provide an opportunity for a hands-on-learning experience while participating in the unique ministry of the Hendricks Center.

• Difficult Conversations, an ongoing series of readings, discussions, and brownbags. Difficult Conversations is an opportunity for the DTS community to engage with some of the more conflicting issues of our day. The aim of this series is to equip the student body for interaction with those who have different perspectives, and to see how the Bible informs those interactions. Special attention is given to the areas of faith and work, and cultural intelligence in a pluralistic setting involving diversity of religion, gender, and ethnicity.

• Event discounts and leadership development programs, available for all alumni.
Supporting Ministries

Bibliotheca Sacra
The oldest conservative theological journal in America, Bibliotheca Sacra, has been in continuous publication since 1843 and has been published by DTS since 1934. This quarterly journal contains articles, periodical reviews, and book reviews on biblical exposition and current theological and ministerial issues of interest to pastors, scholars, alumni, teachers, and serious lay Bible students. Bibliotheca Sacra enjoys one of the largest circulations of any theological journal in the world.

Faculty Ministries
DTS’s distinguished faculty members are in frequent demand as speakers and leaders at Christian conferences and professional association conferences in the United States and around the world. Several of them are involved in popular radio and video ministries, and all serve in local churches.

DTS Magazine
DTS Magazine is a ministry of Dallas Theological Seminary. Published three times a year, the award-winning magazine highlights profiles of students and alumni and features articles on Bible doctrine and Christian living from an evangelical perspective. It also includes book excerpts, alumni updates, and campus news. Free subscriptions are available within the United States. For more information, visit voice.dts.edu/magazine.

Lay Institute
The Lay Institute in partnership with Open Bible Academy (the-oba.org) is an outreach ministry of Dallas Theological Seminary that offers nondegree, adult continuing-education courses for the purpose of equipping lay people in the church to build the body of Christ. Classes are offered in Bible, theology, spiritual life, and ministry skills for people in the Dallas/Fort Worth area during the spring and fall terms and taught by upper-level MA and ThM students and DTS alumni.

DTS Bible Conference at Mount Hermon
Each year the seminary sponsors a Bible conference taught by faculty members and alumni at Mount Hermon Conference Center in California.
“DTS offers a very strong foundation in the Bible. Watching Alec, I knew I that I needed to be at DTS to get that same in depth basis.”
A FLEXIBLE COURSE OF STUDY

DTS partners with churches and ministries around the world by providing training designed to equip godly servant-leaders for the proclamation of God’s Word and the building up of the body of Christ worldwide. Several fully online programs offered in three different languages train students for service wherever they are. Main campus, online, and extension courses are taught by the same world-class faculty: scholar-pastors who care deeply about students and ministry. The flexibility of the programs at DTS means students don’t have to relocate in order to start their education today.
Extension Locations and Degree Programs

In an effort to serve students who cannot attend classes on the Dallas campus, DTS offers classes at nine extension sites. The mission of the Office of Online and Distance Education is twofold: (1) to deliver a DTS education to those who cannot study at the Dallas campus and (2) to encourage extension students, at the right time, to migrate to the Dallas campus for degree programs not offered in full at the other extension sites.

Dallas Theological Seminary offers courses at the following extensions:

- Atlanta, Georgia
  - North Point Community Church
  - 4400 North Point Parkway
  - Suite 100
  - Alpharetta, GA 30022

- Atlanta, Georgia
  - Passion City Church
  - 515 Garson Drive Northeast
  - Atlanta, GA 30324

- Austin, Texas
  - Hill Country Bible Church
  - Room 4.102
  - 12124 Ranch Road 620 North
  - Austin, TX 78750

- Guatemala City, Guatemala
  - Seminario Teológico Centroamericano
  - Ave. Bolívar 30-42, Zone 3
  - City of Guatemala 01003

- Houston, Texas
  - 7100 Regency Square Boulevard
  - Suite 100
  - Houston, TX 77036

- Nashville, Tennessee
  - Fellowship Bible Church–Brentwood
  - 1210 Franklin Road
  - Brentwood, TN 37027

- Manassas, Virginia (Washington, DC extension)
  - McLean Bible Church–Prince William
  - 10002 Battleview Parkway
  - Manassas, VA 20109

- San Antonio, Texas
  - Wayside Chapel
  - 1705 Northwest Loop 410
  - San Antonio, TX 78213

- Spring, Texas (The Woodlands extension)
  - WoodsEdge Community Church
  - 25333 Gosling Road
  - Spring, TX 77389
The seminary also offers less than fifty percent of the courses for the MA (Christian Studies) in Hong Kong at the Hong Kong Baptist Theological Seminary and less than fifty percent of the courses for the Master of Biblical and Theological Studies at Grace Bible Church in College Station, Texas.

Course Offerings

Many courses required for DTS degree programs are available at the seminary’s extensions. Students should be aware, however, that they might need to complete coursework at another location or online.

Extension classes take place on weekends and/or evenings, facilitating study for those already involved in full-time ministry or other vocations. Many courses are offered in a hybrid (online and face-to-face) format, requiring no more than three weekends of live attendance.

Students can complete coursework toward the MBTS and MACS online in Chinese or Spanish and the entire MBTS and MACS online in English. Up to two-thirds (2/3) of the seminary’s professional master’s degrees may be completed through online education. Additionally, the seminary offers students in vocational ministry the opportunity to complete a ministry residency (an internship local to the student with periodic intensives on the Dallas campus).

The ability to complete a degree at an extension varies by program and extension location. Additional information on this and other matters related to the seminary’s extensions is also available from the Online and Distance Education office by phone, 800-DTS-WORD (800-387-9673), ext. 5320, by email (distanceeducation@dts.edu), or by visiting the seminary’s website (dts.edu/locations).

Admission Requirements

The application process and admission requirements for the extension programs are the same for all degree programs (see the Admission section of this catalog). Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Admissions office at 800-3-DALLAS (800-332-5527).
Online education at DTS is designed to allow students to receive DTS ministry training in their own contexts. Online courses are ideal for students who wish to balance education with life responsibilities, such as work, ministry, and family. Also, by receiving graduate-level preparation through online courses, students may supplement their current vocations and better serve their families, churches, or communities.

Students can complete the Certificate of Graduate Studies (CGS), the Master of Arts (Christian Studies) (MACS), and the Master of Biblical and Theological Studies (MBTS) online. Online courses may also apply toward other degree programs. Contact the Admissions office or Advising Center for more information.

Elements of an Online Course

All of the elements necessary for truly life-changing theological education are present in our online format: instruction from world-class faculty, challenging assignments, and a community experience. Online courses are structured in a very similar format to traditional classroom learning. Courses are arranged in units (usually one to three weeks in length). Students are assigned a series of learning experiences to accomplish before the end of each unit. These tasks include reading, watching video lectures, completing and posting written assignments, offering feedback on fellow students’ work, and participating in class discussions.

Online courses provide flexibility but are not independent studies. Most online courses do not meet at a certain time on a given day, but during a given period of days for a particular unit. Like any course, there are due dates for each unit. However, there is often flexibility for viewing lecture materials and accomplishing assignments within each unit.

Remote Video Courses

Select Dallas campus courses provide the opportunity for distance students to join live class lectures and discussions through a synchronized remote video technology. Students attend the same lectures and complete the same assignments as their colleagues on the main campus without relocating. Courses available for remote video are listed at dts.edu/schedule.
Online Education

Technology Requirements
To have a successful educational experience, students will need to possess specific technology and basic technological skill. Students must have access to a fully-functional computer with a camera, microphone, and word processing program. Their computer must have an appropriate web browser and high-speed internet connection. Students must also possess the technical ability to take full-advantage of the online course experience. Assistance and technology training is available to current students through the DTS Media Center.

Online Studies in Chinese and Spanish
DTS offers a number of online courses in Chinese and Spanish. These online courses are designed to train individuals who desire to be equipped for effective ministry in the local church without leaving their ministries, career, or home. Students may take online courses in Chinese and Spanish toward completion of the 30-hour Certificate of Graduates Studies, the 36-hour Master of Biblical and Theological Studies, or the 62-hour Master of Arts (Christian Studies) programs.

Courses Offered Online
The Online Course chart lists courses currently available. These online courses are typically offered in the fall, spring, and summer sessions.

The application and admission requirements for online courses are the same for all degree programs. For a detailed description of the seminary’s online-education format, philosophy, and general requirements, visit dts.edu/online or contact the Admissions office.

* Online courses available to meet the oral Communications or World Missions course requirement.
Jerusalem University College

Students in master’s-level or doctoral programs may participate in a three-week graduate program in Israel and transfer credits earned to their seminary program. Students in the CGS, MACS, ThM, and STM programs may transfer up to 4 hours of credit from this university to the seminary.

Instruction is given by staff and faculty members of universities in Israel. In addition to receiving class-time instruction in archaeology, Bible geography, history of Palestine, and ancient Near Eastern cultures, students spend a portion of their time on field trips in Bible lands.

Additional information on this program may be obtained from the Academic Dean’s office.

Israel Study Program

DTS partners with IBEX (Israel Bible Extension) of The Master’s College in California to provide an opportunity each summer for students to take a study tour of Israel for seminary credit. The three-week study tour is team-led by a DTS faculty member and a faculty member from IBEX. Students wanting seminary credit should register for BE909 Field Study of the Bible in the Registrar’s office.

Additional information on this program and other opportunities to study in Israel through IBEX may be obtained from the Bible Exposition office.

DTS Partnerships with Cru (Campus Crusade for Christ), Young Life, And The Kanakuk Institute

DTS and the US campus ministry of Cru have partnered to provide training opportunities for full-time Cru staff seeking to enhance their ministry skills through seminary training. The program provides a tuition discount for qualifying full-time Cru staff and gives the opportunity to earn seminary credit for select courses offered through the Institute of Biblical Studies (IBS). Cru training courses accepted toward degree programs at DTS are subject to the requirements and limits of the individual degree programs.

DTS also partners with Young Life to help in the training of Young Life staff by transferring up to 12 hours of Young Life training courses toward the Certificate of Graduate Studies program, the Parachurch Ministries emphasis of the ThM degree, or the Parachurch Ministry concentration of the MACE degree. The program also provides a tuition discount for qualifying full-time Young Life staff.

The partnership with the Kanakuk Institute in Branson, Missouri, a youth-ministry training program associated with Kanakuk Ministries, allows students to receive credit toward the ThM program and the MACE degree program, depending on a student’s selected ministry emphasis or concentration. Students must have satisfactorily completed the one-year Kanakuk Institute program and matriculate into a DTS degree program within five years of graduation from the Kanakuk Institute to be able to transfer credit toward a DTS degree program. DTS offers a tuition discount to any students who are also on full-time staff with any of the Kanakuk ministries.

In addition to the seminary’s Youth Education emphasis in the ThM and the Youth Ministry concentration in the MACE program, and in order to provide more flexibility to the seminary’s Cru, Young Life, and Kanakuk Institute partners, a Parachurch Ministries emphasis in the ThM degree program and a 12-hour Parachurch Ministry concentration in the MACE degree program were developed. (For specifics on the Parachurch Ministries emphasis, see the ThM degree program in the Academic Programs section of this catalog. For specifics on the Parachurch Ministry concentration, see the MACE degree program in the Academic Programs section of this catalog.) These programs provide maximum flexibility. for those engaged in or anticipating parachurch ministry and seeking to enhance ministry skills through seminary training. The ThM Parachurch Ministries emphasis and the MACE Parachurch Ministry concentration are taken under the leadership of an advisor from either the Educational Ministries and Leadership department or the World Missions and Intercultural Studies department.

Contact the Registrar’s office for more information on tuition costs, the specific requirements, eligibility, transfer of courses, and limitations of the Cru, Young Life, and Kanakuk Institute partnership programs.

Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

TESOL is a certificate program offered by the World Missions and Intercultural Studies department. It equips Christian workers both academically and professionally for teaching English (outside the U.S. public-school system) to speakers of other languages.

Students must complete the following courses to be eligible for the certificate: WM620 Dynamics of TESOL, INT205 TESOL Ministry Formation Internship (1 hour), and WM210 Intercultural Communication (3 hours), also required for MACM and ThM Intercultural Ministries Emphasis. WM205 Cultural Dynamics in Ministry or WM325 Ministry in Multicultural America is recommended but not required.

TESOL courses are open to all regularly enrolled students, including nondegree and CGS TESOL. TESOL students should consult the Internship Staff in the Ministry Formation department before planning and registering for their degree required internships to connect their required internship and the INT205 TESOL Ministry Formation Internship.

Ministry Residency

To provide more intentional opportunities to integrate classroom instruction with field-based experience within partnering churches and parachurch/mission organizations, DTS offers ThM, MACE, and MACL students the opportunity to earn seminary credit for on-site instruction and cohort interactions at select ministry sites. While students in every vocational degree do some type of internship, this larger block of academic credit will allow students the opportunity to pursue integration at a much deeper level, since their focus during the residency will primarily be in the field.

This intensive learning opportunity is designed as an eight-month residency (two consecutive semesters—Ministry Residency I and Ministry Residency II) with an approved church or parachurch/mission organization during a student’s ThM, MACE, or MACL program.

Additional information on this program may be obtained by contacting the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership.

Ministry-Enhancement Programs

DTS students may earn academic credit for work done through a variety of ministry-enhancement programs or special conferences and seminars offered by parachurch ministries or local churches. These special learning opportunities may be taken as a foundation for independent study in a student’s emphasis or as free electives. Some examples of ministry-enhancement programs in which students have participated as a foundation for independent study are:

- BILD International
- CASA Academy (Christian Association Serving Adults)
- Church Discipleship Ministry through the Navigators
- T-Net (Training Network for Disciple-Making Churches)
- Willow Creek Association’s leadership training programs
- Youthfront (formerly Sonlife Ministries)

Students who desire to participate in a ministry enhancement program for independent study credit must have prior approval from the department in which they desire to receive academic credit, and must complete the Independent Study Request form available from the Registrar’s office prior to registration.
Additional For-Credit Programs

DTS has a more formal relationship with some ministry organizations that provide specialized training for ministry. In such cases, students may participate in these special programs under the 905 Special Topics course found in the different departmental listings of courses in this catalog. These experiences are normally preapproved and require only the submission of the Special Topics approval form available from the Registrar's office.

In most cases, the programs in which students participate for Special Topics credit require additional registration fees. To help offset these additional fees, the seminary will reimburse the approved organization up to 50 percent of the student’s tuition. Most Special Topics programs are offered off-campus, and some are offered at various locations around the United States (or occasionally in other countries). In these cases, students will need to plan for travel costs and living expenses as well.

Following are some of the approved programs through which students may earn Special Topics credit.

Campus Ministry Today Training Seminar
Campus Ministry Today, a ministry of the Center for Mission Mobilization, offers annual training seminars for launching, growing, and multiplying a campus ministry. This Special Topics course trains students to build a Great Commission movement on college campuses through preparation, leader training, and long-range ministry planning. Contact the Educational Ministries and Leadership Department for more information.

China Academic Consortium
The China Academic Consortium provides academic dialogue and exchange about religion, worldviews, values, and ethics with the Chinese intellectual community. This learning experience provides students the opportunity to immerse themselves in Chinese culture for preparation to serve in that context. Contact the Department of World Missions and Inter-cultural Studies for more information.

Church Planting Boot Camp (Evangelical Free Church of America)
The Church Planting Boot Camp is an intensive five-day training experience that covers the major issues church planters face in their first year starting a new church. The Boot Camp is offered as a 3-hour, one-week intensive course in the first summer session on the Dallas campus and in the Winter Session at the Houston campus. Credit for the Church Planting Boot camp is earned in the Pastoral Ministries department. More information on the Boot Camp is available at the EFCA website (efca.org).

The Cranmer Institute: A Center for Anglican Studies
The Cranmer Institute (TCI) at Canterbury House in Dallas, Texas, is a traditional Anglican Studies Center associated with The Episcopal Diocese of Dallas. It serves the Dallas area and beyond by providing a variety of courses and training programs in classical Anglican studies for both general public and those interested in vocational ministry within the Episcopal tradition. Students interested in these courses may earn elective credit in the Pastoral Ministries department. More information on The Cranmer Institute is available from the Pastoral Ministries Department or at The Cranmer Institute website (cranmerinstitute.org).

Cranmer Theological House
The Cranmer Theological House in Houston, Texas, is a graduate-level educational institution associated with the Reformed Episcopal Seminary in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The Cranmer House provides training for those who plan on entering vocational ministry in the evangelical Anglican Church in North America. Students who desire to take courses through Cranmer Theological House must have prior approval from the department in which they desire to receive academic credit. More information is available on the Cranmer House website at cranmerhouse.org.
D6 Conferences
The D6 Conference is an annual conference that is designed to bring together speakers, seminar leaders, and collected resources to help minister to families. Students will enroll in EML905 Special Topics in Christian Educational Ministries and Leadership, attend the D6 Conference, and complete all necessary coursework in order to receive credit. More information is available from the Educational Ministries and Leadership department.

Joni and Friends: Beyond Suffering
The ministry of Joni and Friends is dedicated to extending the love and message of Jesus Christ to people who are affected by disability around the world. This learning experience guides students in developing a biblical theology of disability. Students attend the Joni and Friends family retreat and engage in practical application through interaction and service to families impacted by disability. Contact the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies for more information.

Inspire Women Leadership Institute
Inspire Women offers rotating courses at its headquarters in Houston, Texas. This training develops women to have the spiritual fortitude to define, pursue, and finish God’s mission for their lives. Women students may complete the Women’s Leadership Certificate and earn 3 hours of DTS credit. Contact the Educational Ministries and Leadership Department and visit the Inspire Women website (inspirewomen.org) for more information.

Manarah or Darshan, Christar
Are you investigating the possibility of cross-cultural service among Muslims or Hindus? Held in the greater Detroit area, Manarah combines classroom training on Islam, its people and cultures with daily outreach opportunities by seasoned mentors. Taste Arab hospitality while learning how to share with these least-reached people. To focus on reaching Hindus, consider Darshan which is held in Chicago. Darshan includes classroom studies about Hinduism, its people and cultures. Students also participate in daily guided Hindu community interaction. Don’t miss your opportunity to enroll in Manarah or Darshan to learn how to communicate biblical truth in a culturally relevant way. Special Topics credit for Manarah or Darshan may be earned in the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. For more information contact the WMIS department or visit the Christar website at christar.org/training.

Rural Home Missionary Association’s Town & Country Training (TACT) Program
Rural Home Missionary Association (RHMA) is devoted to planting and strengthening Bible-based, evangelical churches in small-town America. The TACT Program curriculum includes the following:

• Ministering in the Town and Country Church
An overview of ministry in the town and country community and church with an emphasis on understanding the varied types of contexts and how each affects pastoral work and strategy. The town and country culture is experienced as well as studied during the class.

• Leading the Town and Country Church
A look at how town and country residents think and the spiritual and social tools required to lead them. The course examines the standard issues of church leadership as they apply to the town and country church. It also touches on the role of the pastor as community leader.

• Faith Communication in a Town and Country Context
The oral culture and intimacy of the town and country context present a unique set of circumstances for preaching, evangelism, discipleship, and youth and children’s ministries. This course explores the ways town and country culture impacts and reshapes the common methods and strategies for communicating the gospel.

• Pastoral Care in a Town and Country Context
Pastors in isolated settings find themselves facing a large number of pastoral care issues, some unique to the context, with less help than their suburban and urban counterparts have available. This course looks at some of the stresses town and country life places on pastors and their families as well as those in the church, and explores ways pastors can keep themselves spiritually, emotionally, and physically healthy and thereby able to offer pastoral care to others.

• Seminar in Town and Country Ministry
Students in this course will research a topic in Town and Country Ministry and present their findings to the class in a collaborative learning environment. The instructor will suggest topics and offer reading lists, and students may suggest topics of special interest.

TACT courses each represent 3 semester hours of credit and may be taken for emphasis or elective credit in the Pastoral Ministries department. All TACT classes are held during the summer at RHMA headquarters in Morton, Illinois. For more information on the TACT Program, visit the TACT website (tactprogram.rhma.org)

Walk Thru the Bible
For more than 30 years, Walk Thru the Bible, a ministry founded by DTS graduate Bruce Wilkinson, has created discipleship materials that reach millions of people all over the world. Their live Bible seminars are highly interactive and scripturally sound overviews of the Old and New Testaments. Students may participate in the Walk Thru the Old Testament and the Walk Thru the New Testament live seminars and earn 1 hour of elective academic credit in the Bible Exposition department for each seminar. More information on the Walk Thru the Bible seminars is available from the Bible Exposition department or online at walkthru.org.
達拉斯神學院中文課程

達拉斯神學院的使命就是裝備敬畏神的僕人領袖，幫助他們藉著傳講神的話語，建立普世教會來榮耀祂。

達拉斯神學院很榮幸能為華人信徒提供中文神學課程，所有的教材、作業和師生互動都是以中文進行。學生可以修讀中文的神學研究證書 (Certificate of Graduate Studies)、聖經研究碩士 (Master of Biblical and Theological Studies) 以及基督教研究碩士 (Master of Arts [Christian Studies]) 學位；另外還有教牧教育博士 (Doctor of Educational Ministry) 課程幫助華人教牧同工繼續深造。達拉斯神學院以純網路、傳統面授及混合教學等教學模式，在世界各地提供許多中文的神學課程。

所有關於中文神學學位的詳情資料都可以在本目錄中或者直接上網 dts.edu/chinese 查詢。也可以與我們的中文入學部同工聯絡洽詢。

中文網路課程

達拉斯神學院提供了許多中文的網路神學課程。設計這些網路神學課程旨在培養訓練各地教會中有志接受神學裝備的信徒，使他們在不必離開自己的事工、職業或家庭的環境下學習有效事奉之道。學生可以通過修讀網路課程來完成 30 學分的中文神學研究證書、36 學分的中文聖經研究碩士、或大部分 62 學分的基督教研究碩士學位。關於學位課程主要使用語言的相關資訊，請參考 Academic Programs 底下的學位綜覽表。

聖經研究碩士 (MBTS)

聖經研究碩士 (MBTS) 是一個 36 學分的課程，專為基督徒專業人士所預備的學位，讓他們可以在公司上班、家庭生活和教會事奉以外又能接受正規神學裝備。聖經研究碩士 (MBTS) 給學生一個基本的聖經概述，介紹給他們認識關鍵神學理念，並有幾門課程可以自由選修。所有關於中文聖經研究碩士學位的詳情資料都可以在本目錄中或者直接上網 dts.edu/chinese 查詢。也可以與我們的中文入學部同工聯絡洽詢。

基督教研究碩士學位 (MACS)

基督教研究碩士學位 (Master of Arts in Christian Studies) 是針對華人教會事工而設計的，為幫助在教會或基督教機構事奉人員奠定碩士程度的聖經和神學根基。雖然本學位大多數課程可以通過網絡完成，但有一些課程的要求需在傳統課堂裡完成。所有關於基 基督教研究碩士

學生可以藉著中文的網路神學課程及面授課程來取得基督教研究碩士的學位。世界各地的華人信徒都可以註冊修讀這些網路課程。這些課程所有的教材、作業和師生互動都是以中文進行。面授課程則需在有提供中文課程的分校修讀。

就讀基督教研究碩士的學生除了必須完成達拉斯神學院 50 學分的核心課程之外，還要修讀 WM340 華人文化環境中的事工(2 學分)、WM545 華人神學歷史/當代神學趨勢(3 學分)、EML101 教會教育進程與領袖學(3 學分)。另外還有 4 學分可選修配合個人興趣或事工需要的課程。

所有關於基督教研究碩士學位的詳細資料都可以在本目錄中或者直接上網 dts.edu/chinese 查詢。也可以與我們的中文入學部同工聯絡洽詢。

神學研究證書

神學研究證書課程是在聖經與神學兩方面以碩士的學術程度裝備學生。華人信徒可以透過網絡完成中文的神學研究證書，也可以在有提供中文課程的分校修讀面授課程。神學研究證書課程是為想嘗試修讀神學課程的學生而設，提供較彈性的課程安排，讓華人同工可以在短時期內修完，又或教會領袖在事工繁忙時仍然可以接受神學裝備。鼓勵有志於全職教會事工的華人信徒申請修讀基督教研究碩士。

所有關於中文神學研究證書的詳細資料都可以在本目錄中或者直接上網 dts.edu/chinese 查詢。也可以與我們的中文入學部同工聯絡洽詢。

目的

教牧教育博士學位課程的設計乃是為那些參與於在職或雙職之教育事工的人員提供進深培訓，使他們能實施以聖經和神學為本的教育事工。本課程專注於開發教育事工在神聖的基本原理，社會學的研究策略，及實際事工上所需的專門知識技能。

教牧教育博士 (DeMin) 學位是為那些參與於基督教會和與教會有關的文教事工、或是普世宣教，和類似的教育事工人員而設的最高專業學位。(相較之下，教牧博士 (DMin) 學位專注於使學生能在當地教會的環境下實踐聖經和神學為本之事工的進深培訓；而博士 (PhD) 學位的主要目的是裝備學生從事於學術研究和教學工作。) 本教牧教育博士課程並非「在校區居留」的模式，而是讓學生仍然在「原地」一邊事奉一邊學習。達拉斯神學院不會要求博士生搬遷到校本部上課。通常要求在入學前至少具有三年的事工經驗。每門課會採用這個服事經驗，致力於使培訓學習與學生目前服事的環境及未來的目標能協調相符。

達拉斯神學院的教牧教育博士課程最吸引人的特點之一是該課程內容的設計具有高度靈活性。在博士學位中所需的39學分的課程裡，至少有15學分的課程讓學生針對目前所參與的事工提供量身訂製的規劃，以實現自己的事工目標。除了有3學分的課程讓博士生進行應用論文的研究與寫作外，另外還有3學分的課程是學術文獻閱讀，在指導教授的帶領下、針對自己的論文內容所進行的文獻研究綜述。所有關於教牧教育博士學位的詳細資料都可以在本目錄中或者直接上網 dts.edu/chinese 查詢。也可以與我們的中文入學部同工聯絡洽詢。
DTS en Español

La misión de DTS en Español, como una escuela profesional a nivel posgrado, es glorificar a Dios por medio de la preparación de siervos-líderes Hispanos dedicados al Señor para la proclamación de Su Palabra y la edificación del cuerpo de Cristo a nivel global. DTS en Español desea producir líderes Hispanos que enseñen la verdad y amen bien en conformidad con la misión central del Seminario Teológico de Dallas.

DTS tiene el privilegio de servir a la comunidad hispanohablante al ofrecer asignaturas en español. Toda la literatura, tareas e interacciones entre los estudiantes y los profesores se hacen en español. Los estudiantes pueden tomar asignaturas acreditadas para cualquiera de los siguientes programas: la Maestría en Estudios Bíblicos y Teológicos—MEBT (MBTS) de 36 horas—y la Maestría de Artes en Estudios Cristianos—MAEC (MACS) de 62 horas. También se ofrece el Doctorado en Ministerio.

Para más información sobre las asignaturas en español, vea la sección de Grados Académicos de este catálogo o visite la página web de DTS en Español dts.edu/espanol.

Estudios en Español en Línea

DTS ofrece asignaturas en línea. Estas asignaturas están diseñadas para entrenar a individuos que deseen ser capacitados para un ministerio eficaz en la iglesia local sin tener que mudarse a Dallas y dejar sus ministerios, profesiones y hogares.

Favor de consultar la información con respecto a los idiomas en la tabla de la sección de Programas Académicos (Academic Programs).

Maestría en Estudios Bíblicos y Teológicos—MEBT (MBTS)

La Maestría en Estudios Bíblicos y Teológicos es un programa a nivel posgrado de 36 horas creditos. Esta maestría está diseñada para profesionales y laicos que deseen ser capacitados para servir en el hogar, la iglesia y el mundo. La MEBT (MBTS) provee a los estudiantes un panorama completo de la historia de la Biblia, introduce conceptos teológicos clave y contiene 13 horas de asignaturas optativas.

La MEBT es completamente en línea. Toda la literatura, tareas e interacciones entre los estudiantes y los profesores se ofrecen en español. Para más información acerca de la MEBT, visite la página web de DTS en Español dts.edu/espanol.

Maestría de Artes en Estudios Cristianos—MAEC (MACS)

La Maestría de Artes en Estudios Cristianos—MAEC (MACS)—está diseñada para proveer un conocimiento bíblico y teológico a nivel posgrado para el servicio cristiano. Este título está dirigido a líderes que desean ser entrenados con el propósito de lograr un ministerio más eficaz dentro de su iglesia u organización. La MAEC también puede proporcionar una formación complementaria para los que trabajan en ministerios eclesiales o están en puestos de apoyo con las agencias misioneras o iglesias.

La MAEC es completamente en línea. Toda la literatura, tareas e interacciones entre los estudiantes y los profesores se hacen en español. Para más información acerca de la MAEC visite la página web de DTS en español dts.edu/espanol.

Doctorado en Ministerio—DMin
El propósito del Doctorado en Ministerio es ofrecer una preparación avanzada en liderazgo ministerial para los que ya están sirviendo activamente en ministerios de liderazgo en la iglesia local, misiones transculturales, u organizaciones cristianas. El programa procura ayudar al alumno a profundizar su pensamiento bíblico-teológico y a desarrollar estrategias actualizadas para ser implementadas en el contexto de su propio ministerio.

El Doctorado en Ministerio se realiza en forma modular con una semana de clases residenciales por cada módulo, con el fin de que el alumno pueda cumplir sus responsabilidades ministeriales mientras que estudia en el programa. Se ofrecen cuatro asignaturas por año en semestres de seis meses (dos asignaturas por semestre). Diez asignaturas integran el programa, incluyendo el proyecto de tesis doctoral. El programa no es por cohorte, lo cual le permite al alumno cierto grado de flexibilidad en confeccionar su propio plan de estudios. La semana de clases residenciales se celebra en el campus del Seminario Teológico Centroamericano (SETECA) en la ciudad de Guatemala.

Los requisitos principales para ser admitido al programa son: (1) contar con el grado de Maestría en Divinidades o su equivalente en programas de licenciatura y maestría en teología de instituciones teológicas acreditadas de América Latina y España, (2) contar con el mínimo de tres años de experiencia ministerial vocacional y (3) demostrar carácter personal, la trayectoria ministerial y la capacidad académica que se esperan de un estudiante a nivel doctoral.

El título del Doctor en Ministerio es el grado profesional más alto que se les otorga a aquellos que sirven en el ministerio pastoral, mientras que el PhD es diseñado para aquellos que aspiran a desempeñarse principalmente en la docencia y el liderazgo en instituciones teológicas.
“My passions for leadership and my sense of confidence and God’s abilities through me were honed through my time at Dallas Theological Seminary.”
The following academic programs are the primary expression of Dallas Theological Seminary's mission: glorifying God by equipping godly servant-leaders. These degree programs have been carefully crafted by the seminary faculty and administration to provide training necessary for a lifetime of faithful service.
Students are responsible for meeting the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog in effect at the time of their matriculation or reclassification. The requirements for each catalog are in force for a full academic year (fall–summer).

DTS offers 14 degrees and 1 certificate. Information in this section describes each of these programs, including course requirements. All programs are coeducational.

The seminary offers the following master’s degrees and certificate:

- A 120-hour program leading to the Master of Theology degree.
- A 90-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling degree. Students in this program interested in pursuing licensure may be required to take additional courses beyond the 90 hours required for the degree.
- A 66-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Christian Education degree.
- A 66-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Christian Leadership degree.
- A 66-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Cross-cultural Ministries degree.
- A 66-hour program leading to the professional Master of Arts in Media Arts and Worship degree.
- A 36-hour program leading to the Master of Biblical and Theological Studies degree in English, Spanish, and Chinese.
- A 62-hour program leading to the Master of Arts (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) degree, offered in collaboration with the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics (associated with Wycliffe Bible Translators).
- A 62-hour program leading to the Master of Arts (Christian Studies) degree in English, Spanish, and Chinese.
- A 30-hour program leading to the Certificate of Graduate Studies in Bible and Theology in English, Spanish, and Chinese.

The seminary offers the following postgraduate and doctoral degrees:

- A 32-hour program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree for students who previously earned a three-year Master of Divinity or its equivalent.
- A 30-hour professional program leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree for those presently in ministry and holding a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent.
• A 39-hour professional program leading to the Doctor of Educational Ministry degree for those presently in ministry and holding a Master of Arts in Christian Education degree from Dallas Theological Seminary or its equivalent.

• A 35-hour program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree for those presenting a Master of Theology degree or its equivalent, with an additional 26 hours for those holding a Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent.

Students desiring to earn a second master’s degree may do so by adding additional hours to the earned degree. The total hours needed to earn two degrees are listed below. Consult the Advising Center for the specific courses that must be completed to earn the second degree.

- 2-year MA + 2-year MA = 90 hours
- 3-year MA + 2-year MA = 120 hours
- ThM + 2-year MA = 150 hours
- ThM + 3-year MA = 165 hours

With approval, the 36-hour MBTS may be earned in combination with another DTS master’s degree through the addition of 24 credit hours to any other DTS master’s program. Contact the Advising Center for more information.

While all programs at DTS are coeducational, the seminary holds the position that Scripture assigns to men the roles of elder and senior pastor in the local church. Therefore the seminary programs of study are not designed to prepare women for these roles.

Overview of the Academic Year

Fall & Spring
The DTS academic year is based on a two-semester structure, comprised of fall and spring semesters, during which the majority of classes take place. Each semester is a total of seventeen weeks in length (fourteen weeks of lecture, one week of final examinations, two weeks of break). Commencement takes place after the conclusion of the spring semester.

Summer Session
In addition to the two-semester academic year, DTS conducts summer sessions that offer a diversified curriculum during a 13-week period. A number of the seminary’s programs can be completed during summer session. Contact the Advising Center at 214-887-5080 for more information.

Summer Session dates are listed in the Academic Calendar. Summer Session schedules for the upcoming year are published in late fall. Inquiries about application should be addressed to the Admissions office.

All coursework for summer classes must be completed within the time frame in which the class is offered. (The professor may extend the due date until the end of the week following the end of the course at his or her discretion.)

Winter Session
DTS offers a variety of courses each year in the recess period between fall and spring semesters. Winter Session courses are held in the one- or two-week period immediately before the spring semester begins. All coursework must usually be completed within two weeks of the end of Winter Session.

Evening and Weekend Courses
DTS offers a number of evening and weekend courses during the fall, spring, and summer terms. These courses offer those with full-time jobs or other daytime obligations an opportunity to pursue graduate-level biblical and theological education. Courses apply to several of DTS’s degree programs. A number of the seminary’s programs can be completed during evenings and/or weekends. A current listing of available courses can be found at dts.edu/schedule. Contact the Advising Center at 214-887-5080 for more information.
Residential, Distance, and Online

DTS believes in life-on-life education expressed in both residential and nonresidential educational models. Because distance learning may be best for some students, DTS is pleased to offer flexible courses in a variety of formats. Most DTS degree programs require at least 1/3 of the necessary coursework to be completed in a residential format, while up to 2/3 of required coursework can be completed through nonresidential or distance learning.

- Residential refers to courses in which the majority of instruction is completed in face-to-face formats including synchronous video conferencing, regardless of location. One important exception is the Ministry Residency Internship which does count as residential because it has a classroom component even though much of it may be completed at another location.

- Nonresidential courses can be taken in a variety of formats, primarily online, but are asynchronous. Nonresidential also includes theses, applied research projects, internships (with the exception of EML801 and EML802), advanced standing, transfer credit, and independent study.

The Master of Theology degree program is designed to produce competent Bible expositors who are qualified to serve God effectively as pastors, missionaries, or leaders in other areas of vocational Christian ministry.

Goals

Educational Goals
To enable students to:

• verbalize a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
• demonstrate the ability to exegete the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible; and
• evidence an understanding of the educational program of the local church and an awareness of the worldwide mission of the church.

Spiritual Goals
To enable students to evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:

• communicate the Bible effectively;
• demonstrate skills in various ministries; and
• lead a local church or other group by means of biblical exposition, leadership skills, evangelism, and service.

Admission Requirements
Admission requirements and application procedures for the ThM program are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary. See the Admission section of this catalog.

• Transfer of up to 60 semester hours is allowed toward the ThM degree from accredited graduate theological schools. See the Admission section of this catalog.
• Students entering DTS with a strong background in Bible or theology from an approved Christian university, Bible college, or parachurch ministry may apply for the accelerated ThM program on the Dallas campus.

For more information about the accelerated ThM program or visit dts.edu/advancedstanding.
Course Requirements

The prescribed Master of Theology curriculum involves not only extensive preparation in Hebrew, Greek, Bible, and systematic and historical theology, but also preparation in pastoral ministries, Christian education, missions, and ministry leadership. ThM students enroll in Spiritual Formation groups during four consecutive fall and spring semesters at the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC campus.

Students are encouraged to take courses in the order in which they appear on the curriculum chart in this section. This is to the student’s advantage as courses are designed to build on previous coursework.

Out of the required 120 credit hours in the ThM curriculum, 91 credit hours are predetermined in the curriculum. With the remaining 29 credit hours beyond this core, students are given the flexibility to pursue areas of ministry emphasis and choose electives based on vocational intent and interests.

As part of the 29 customized credit hours, all students participate in a 3-hour internship. During the internship, students will complete a portfolio. When students declare their ministry emphasis (no later than at the completion of 60 hours), they should start planning for their internship experience. Students with an emphasis in the Department of Media Arts and Worship should consult that department to clarify their apprenticeship requirements. Consult the Ministry Formation department section of this catalog for more information on internship requirements.

ThM students are responsible for demonstrating competence in research by satisfactorily completing either (1) a ThM thesis in an academic department of their choosing or (2) a 2-hour research seminar (RS102).

To provide greater opportunity for learning, students may also take up to five courses for credit beyond the 120 hours required for the degree for a modest fee. Consult the Registrar’s office for more information and limitations on this special program.
Master of Theology (ThM)

Each student in the Master of Theology program must select a Ministry Emphasis from the following list prior to beginning their INT105 ThM Ministry Formation Internship. In addition to the 96-hour core curriculum (which includes a 3-hour internship involving the production of a portfolio), students customize the remaining 24 elective hours with respect to their ministry goals and areas of interest. Regardless of their Ministry Emphasis, students must complete at least 9 of their 24 elective hours in the Ministries and Communication division. A faculty coordinator for each emphasis is available to assist students. Departments responsible for particular emphases are noted after each. The requirements for each emphasis vary based on student backgrounds and interests, but each department may require certain courses and hours for the emphases supervised by that department. Academic advising for all Ministry Emphases begins with the Advising Center. Students may request an emphasis through students.dts.edu.

Apologetics (TS)

- EML104 Media Presentations*
- EML230 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts
- EML320 Christian School Administration
- EML310 Administration in Christian Higher Education
- EMLxxx (Other course as approved in consultation with the EML Department)
* Students may substitute EML105 for EML103 & EML104.

Apologetics
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary for defending Christianity against its various opponents. In so doing, it equips students to respond effectively to intellectual challenges to their faith in a variety of ministerial settings.

Requirements:
- ST605 Apologetics
- RS102 Senior Research Seminar
- ST6xx (Other course as approved in consultation with the Theology Department)
* Students may substitute ST605 for ST610 & ST611.

At the completion of the program, ThM students are assessed by faculty for satisfactory completion of their emphasis requirements. A student’s emphasis is noted on his or her transcript. Those students who do not meet the requirements of their chosen emphasis will graduate with the General Studies designation.

The following descriptions provide the specific purpose and requirements for each emphasis.

Academic Ministry
This 12-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for the teaching ministry in a variety of educational contexts, including grade schools, institutions of higher education, and other formal and non-formal educational institutions. Elements of foundational education training, which include the exploration of learning theory, the practice of curriculum and course design and the investigation of prominent educational models, are combined with courses related to the students’ interests to equip them for leadership in a variety of educational environments.

(Note: Most college, universities, and seminaries require an earned doctorate in the teaching discipline. Most seminaries and graduate schools also require an MDiv degree or, in some cases, the ThM/STM degree for admission to doctoral programs).

Requirements:
- EML102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education
- EML103 Teaching Process*

Bible Translation
This 18-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for the task of Bible translation. Most courses in this emphasis are offered by Dallas International University (Dallas Intl.). Dallas Intl. is located at the International Linguistic Center in south Dallas and is associated with Wycliffe Bible Translators. Because of the unique nature of the Bible translation ministry and the needs of translators on the field, 18 semester hours of courses are required to complete the Bible Translation emphasis.

AL5207 Field Data Management
AL5312 Discourse Analysis
AL5315 Semantics and Pragmatics
AL5316 Theory and Practice of Translation
AL5406 Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis

Select one of the following:
WM205 Cultural Dynamics in Ministry
WM540 Applied Biblical Contextualization (taken for 3 credit hours).
Dallas Intl. Elective in Cultural Anthropology

Biblical Theology
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on the development of a biblical theology. Biblical theology is that exegetical and synthetic study of a biblical text, texts, or section of the Bible that seeks to determine the theological meaning of that portion as it was written and then to explain what that theology means for today.

Requirements:
BE505 The Kingdom and Covenants
BE545 Introduction to Biblical Theology

Select 3 hours from the following:
BE412 Job and a Theology of Suffering
BE503 The Psalms and the Worship of God
BE542 The Lord’s Supper
BE555 Messianic Prophecy
OT705 Introduction to Old Testament Biblical Theology

Disability Ministry
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry with people affected by disability through theological, biblical, and practical understanding. The study equips the student to constructively engage the issues and implications of ministering with persons affected by disability.

Requirements:
BE/BCS47 A Biblical Theology of Suffering, Disability, and the Church

Select 6 hours from the following:
BE412 Job and a Theology of Suffering
WM412 Ministry to Children at Risk
WM460 Disability and the Body of Christ
WM905 Applied Beyond Suffering

Educational Ministries
This 12-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for educational ministry and leadership in a local church or parachurch ministry organization. It includes training in foundational education and courses related to the student’s ability to design, direct, supervise, and evaluate various aspects of a ministry program.

Requirements:
EML102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education
EML103 Teaching Process*
EML104 Media Presentations*
*Students may substitute EML105 for EML103 & EML104.

Select 6 hours from the following areas as approved the EML department:
Adult Ministry
Children’s Ministry
Educational Leadership
Marriage and Family Ministry
Parachurch Ministry
Youth and Young Adult Ministry

Evangelism and Discipleship
This 12-hour emphasis is designed to equip students to do the work of evangelism and to develop disciples. It combines advanced courses taught in Bible Exposition, Theological Studies, Pastoral Ministries, Christian Education, and World Missions and Intercultural Studies departments.

Requirements:
Select 12 hours from the following:
BE540 Discipleship in the Gospels
EML435 Effective Ministry with Women
EML450 Women Teaching Women
EML705 Principles of Discipliemaking
EML710 Practice of Disciplenmaking

ST215 Issues in Soteriology and Sanctification
WM210 Intercultural Communication
WM3xx Intercultural Ministry Context Elective
WM525 Spiritual Warfare
WM530 Cross-cultural Apologetics and Worldview Evangelism

Exposition of Biblical Books
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by concentrating on developing expositional skills (understanding and application) by studying specific biblical books.

Requirements:
9 hours from the following:
BE405 Exposition of Genesis
BE408 The Books of Samuel
BE410 The Wisdom Books
BE412 Job and a Theology of Suffering
BE415 The Book of Isaiah
BE425 The Minor Prophets
BE430 The Sermon on the Mount
BE445 The Gospel of John
BE446 The Upper Room Discourse
BE450 The Book of Hebrews
BE455 Daniel and Revelation

Students should choose courses representing both OT & NT, and various genres.

Hebrew and Cognate Studies
This 9-hour emphasis broadens skills necessary for advanced work in Hebrew exegesis through introduction to cognate Semitic languages, further development of Hebrew reading ability, and an emphasis on research methods.

Requirements:
OT310 Hebrew Reading
Select 6 hours from any OT300-level Philological Studies course.

Hermeneutics
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by helping students to advance in their understanding and practice of a proper approach to the application of Scripture.

Requirements:
BE220 Advanced Hermeneutics
Select 6 hours from the following:
BE210 Advanced Bible Study Methods
BE215 Literary Genre in the Scriptures
BE225 Interpreting Progressive Revelation
OT720 The Use of the Old Testament in the New Testament

Historical Theology
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on the development of the Christian faith through historical study of its classic sources. This study equips the student to communicate faithfully the teachings of Scripture in continuity with historic orthodoxy in various ministerial settings.

Requirements:
HT200 History of Doctrine
RS102 Senior Research Seminar
Select an additional 6 hours from the following:
HTxxx Historical Theology electives
(Students may also select one of the following courses as part of their 6 elective hours.)
ST620 History of Philosophy
ST630 Postmodernism
PM510 Spiritual Formation in Historical Perspective
WM270 Historical Expansion of Global Christianity

Homiletics
This 9-hour emphasis, designed to prepare students for pastoral ministry that is centered on biblical exposition, helps students develop their personal preaching styles across multiple biblical genres. Courses in this emphasis will be selected in consultation with the Department of Pastoral Ministries.

Requirements:
PM202 Advanced Expository Preaching
PM2xx Homiletics Elective
Select 3 hours from the following:
PM360 Preparation for Ordination
MW802 Dramatizing Scripture
PM2xx Additional Homiletics Elective

Intercultural Ministries
This 13-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for evangelistic, church planting, discipleship, and educational ministries in intercultural situations in North America and abroad. It provides training in cultural adaptation, effective mission strategies, religious and cultural contexts, and leadership development. Students may consult with WMIS department professors to construct the most appropriate courses for the ministry context they anticipate.

Requirements:
WM205 Cultural Dynamics in Ministry
WM210 Intercultural Communication
WM215 Dynamics of Missionary Development
Select 4 hours from any WM305–615 courses.
The WMIS department recommends that students complete one course from each of these four elective categories: Context (WM300-level), Strategic Approaches (WM400-level), Biblical and Theological Studies (WM500-level), and TESOL (WM600-level). However, students also may freely select from any of these categories.

Leadership Studies
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance the student’s ability to provide organizational leadership in a variety of ministry settings.
by offering additional training in areas such as leadership dynamics, change and resistance in leadership, personal and organizational leadership development, and team leadership.

Requirements:
A minimum of 9 hours in Leadership, to be selected in consultation with the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership.

Media Arts and Worship
This 12-hour emphasis is designed to equip students to serve the Lord in media arts-related positions as worship pastors, artists, writers, musicians, directors, and producers in a variety of vocational contexts. Students with an emphasis in the Department of Media Arts and Worship must complete MW102 Media Arts Apprenticeship in place of the ThM Ministry Formation Internship. Courses in this emphasis will be selected in consultation with the Department of Media Arts and Worship.

Requirements:
- MW101 The Art of Media and Worship
- MW103 A Christian View of Art
- Select 6 additional hours in the Media Arts and Worship department.

Ministry in Multi-Ethnic Communities
This 9-hour emphasis deals with selected topics related to multi-ethnic communities, whether in city centers, suburbs, or rural areas. It provides an opportunity for students to focus on leadership development, ethical responsibility, and scripturally-based ministry in diverse communities.

Requirements:
- Choose one of the following:
  - PM540 Developing and Leading the Culturally Diverse Church
  - WM325 Ministry in Multicultural America
- Select 6–7 hours from the following:
  - ST515 Theology of Ethnic Concerns
  - BC235 Social and Cultural Foundations
  - WM425 Intercultural Church Planting
  - WM440 Foundations of Christian Community Development
  - WM445 Business as Mission
  - WM450 Local Church and Social Outreach Ministry

Ministry with Women
This 15-hour emphasis is designed to equip women to understand women as an audience and learners and how to teach, lead, mentor, shepherd, and care for women in a variety of contexts. The Ministry with Women emphasis falls under the oversight of the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership.

Requirements:
- EML102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education
- EML103 Teaching Process*

New Testament Studies
This 12-hour emphasis is designed to prepare students to serve the body of Christ in a variety of church, parachurch, or academic ministries through additional studies in exegesis and other New Testament disciplines, such as textual criticism, lexical, historical, and literary analysis, use of interpretive tools, exegetical problem-solving, New Testament introduction, grammar, and syntax.

Requirements:
A minimum of 12 hours in New Testament Studies electives (including BE315 Bible Manners and Customs) selected in consultation with the Department of New Testament Studies (excluding independent studies). Students in this emphasis might consider selecting at least one elective from each of the following areas:
- Exegetical/Theological Studies (NT335–390; NT415; NT430)
- Gospel/Jesus Studies (NT305–325; NT405–407)
- Background Studies (BE315; NT400; NT410; NT420)
- Grammatical/Textual Studies (NT205–230)

Old Testament Studies
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by refining skills for Bible interpretation and exposition. It focuses on interpreting the Hebrew text, use of the Old Testament in the New Testament, theological and spiritual formation, and engaging contemporary culture.

Requirements:
- Select 3 hours from any OT400-level courses (OT405–460) or OT720.
- Select 6 hours from any remaining Old Testament electives (OT205–905).

Pastoral Care and Counseling
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to equip students for effective Christian counseling in a nonprofessional environment. Individuals interested in exploring nuances of pastoral counseling might pursue this emphasis.

*Students may substitute EML105 for EML103 & EML104.
Master of Theology (ThM)

counseling, pastoral care, and marriage and family ministry will be served well by this area of emphasis.

Requirements:
A minimum of 9 hours in Biblical Counseling electives selected in consultation with the Department of Biblical Counseling.

Pastoral Theology and Practice
This emphasis, designed to equip students for the multiple challenges of pastoral ministry in the local church, provides students with pastoral theology and a broad exposure to diverse pastoral skills. Courses in this emphasis will be selected in consultation with the Department of Pastoral Ministries.

Requirements:
PM301 Pastoral Theology and Leadership I
PM302 Worship and Pastoral Care

Choice of 6 credit hours from:
- General Pastoral Ministry—Homiletics elective, PM360 (for 3 hours), or EML330
- Church Planting—PM341, PM342, Church Planting Boot Camp (PM905)
- Rural/Small Town Pastoral Ministry—Town and Country Training Courses (PM905)
- Spiritual Formation—PM510, PM520

Philosophy
This 9-hour emphasis focuses on developing and articulating a distinctively Christian philosophy. In so doing, it equips students to engage constructively the broader philosophical milieu in which they find themselves and to use philosophical reflection to serve Christ and His church.

Requirements:
ST620 History of Philosophy
RS102 Senior Research Seminar

Select an additional 6 hours from the following:
ST6xx Apologetics and Philosophy electives
HT220 Augustine and Augustinian Theology
HT245 Theology of Karl Barth
HT260 Readings in Jonathan Edwards
ST210 Issues in Trinitarianism
ST220 Issues in Dispensational Theology

Spiritual Formation
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance the student’s ability to guide others in spiritual formation in a variety of ministry settings by offering additional training in areas such as spiritual formation in historical perspective, spiritual formation in contemporary culture, and the practice of the spiritual disciplines.

Requirements:
EML730 Spiritual Formation in Historical Perspective

Plus six hours from
EML705 Principles of Disciplemaking
EML710 Practice of Disciplemaking
EML740 Spiritual Formation in Contemporary Culture
EML750 Spiritual Disciplines
EML760 Readings in Christian Spirituality

Systematic Theology
This 9-hour emphasis is designed to enhance ministry by focusing on articulating the evangelical Christian faith through systematic study of its sources. This study equips the student to constructively engage the issues and implications of theology in various ministerial settings.

Requirements:
ST295 Systematic Theology Colloquium
RS102 Senior Research Seminar

Select 3 hours from the following:
ST6xx Apologetics and Philosophy electives
HT200 History of Doctrine
HT230 Readings in John Calvin

General Studies
This option is designed to provide a more generalized ministry preparation course of study for students whose ministry goals are less settled, who want to incorporate elements from multiple courses in various departments, or whose specialized ministry goals are not addressed by the above ministry emphases. Courses and the internship in this emphasis will be selected in consultation with the faculty advisor based on the student’s unique ministry experience and goals. Students considering this emphasis should consult with the faculty advisor before taking electives.

Spiritual Formation
Because Dallas Theological Seminary values Christlike character and spiritual maturity, ThM students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups for four consecutive fall and spring semesters at the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC campus.

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of five to seven students focus on identity, community, integrity, and fidelity. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with ministry. Students participate with the same group during four consecutive semesters; therefore, they should arrange their schedules so they meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. For all degrees for which it is required, Spiritual Formation, an approved communications course, and completion of half of the student’s DTS course work are the primary prerequisites for internship eligibility.

Agape Project
The Agape Project is an initiative that gives feet to the seminary’s commitment to the concept “Teach Truth. Love Well.” The Agape Project provides opportunities to put into practice compassionate ministry in often-overlooked settings. ThM students are required to complete two Agape assignments prior to enrolling in their Internship.

Agape assignments are embedded in courses throughout the curriculum and enhance the learning outcomes of those courses. Some courses require Agape assignments, while other courses offer them as optional. Agape assignments require students to engage in an approved ministry setting in the community for approximately 15 hours over the term of a 3-hour course. A final reflection paper will also be written. Assessment for the Agape Project will take place at the beginning of the student’s ThM program and again during the student’s ThM Internship. For more information, visit dts.edu/agape.

Residential Requirements
Of the 120 semester hours of coursework required for graduation, a minimum of 48 hours must be taken in a residential (majority face-to-face) format at any of the seminary’s approved locations. (Students should note that not all courses are offered at all locations.) All work leading to the degree must normally be completed within eight years from the time a student matriculates. Extension beyond the eight years requires approval by the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Admission to Candidacy
Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the Master of Theology degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony after these requirements have been met: (1) a minimum grade point average of 2.0; (2) satisfactory progress toward meeting ThM Internship requirements, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry; (3) evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, of proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ; (4) provision of a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary; and (5) provision of a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

Graduation Requirements
Candidates for the Master of Theology degree must have completed 120 semester hours of coursework, including ThM Internship credits, with a grade point average of at least 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, proven Christian character, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section. Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or student loan program are current.
CURRICULUM (MASTER OF THEOLOGY)

The following table represents the required curriculum for the Master of Theology program. Students should create an individualized plan of study in light of their current realities and future ministry plans in consultation with an academic advisor. The prerequisites and corequisites for each course may be found in the course descriptions section of this catalog. Course offering sessions vary by location. The planned sessions provided below pertain specifically to Dallas campus course offerings. Online courses are typically offered each fall, spring, and summer. Courses may be cancelled or offered in alternate semesters as needed. Required courses are regularly offered in summer sessions as intensive or hybrid courses. Visit dts.edu/schedule for the most updated course offerings.¹

Fourth Year Hours: 30

In addition to the specific goals listed for each professional MA program in this section, professional MA students will be able to:

• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues; and
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit.

Admission Requirements
Admission requirements and application procedures for professional MA degree programs are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.) Students generally will not be admitted into a degree program without goals consistent with the ministries for which the program is designed to equip them.

Those applying to the MA in Biblical Counseling program also will need to complete a process of testing and interviews with faculty in the department. This process will determine whether the applicant has the dispositional and relational skills needed to enter into this kind of interpersonally intense program of study.

Transfer of Credit
Transfer of some credit is allowed toward the professional MA programs from accredited graduate theological schools. Up to 30 hours of credit may be transferred toward the MA in Christian Education, the MA in Christian Leadership, the MA in Cross-cultural Ministries, or the MA in MA in Biblical Counseling (see page 89)
MA in Christian Education (see page 93)
MA in Christian Leadership (see page 98)
MA in Cross-cultural Ministries (see page 102)
MA in Media Arts & Worship (see page 105)
Media Arts and Worship. Up to 45 hours may be transferred toward the MA in Biblical Counseling. (Of the 45 hours, students are limited to 15 hours of transfer in counseling courses.)

MABC students pursuing licensure may have stricter transfer-credit guidelines as required by the state licensing agency. Students must have earned a grade of C or better for a course to be considered in transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

Accelerated MA Programs

Students entering DTS with a strong background in Bible or theology from an approved Christian university, Bible college, or parachurch ministry may apply for an accelerated professional MA program on the Dallas campus. In place of core courses of a Master of Arts curriculum, accelerated MA participants take four advanced standing courses (AS103–106). This results in a curricular reduction of a professional MA program by up to 16 credit hours.

For more information about an accelerated professional MA program see the “Advanced Standing” section or visit dts.edu/advanced-standing.

Residential Requirements

Of the 90 semester hours required for the professional MA in Biblical Counseling, a minimum of 30 hours must be taken in a residential (majority face-to-face) format at any of the seminary’s approved locations. Counseling courses must be taken at either of the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC campuses. Of the 66 semester hours required for the MA in Christian Education, a minimum of 22 hours must be taken in a residential format at any of the seminary’s approved locations.

All work leading to any of the professional MA degrees must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to these programs after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Spiritual Formation

Because DTS values Christlike character and spiritual maturity, students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups for four consecutive fall and spring semesters at the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC campus. (Students who are not planning to move to Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC for four consecutive fall and spring semesters must contact the Spiritual Formation office concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirement.)

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of five to seven students...
Professional Master of Arts Degrees focus on identity, community, integrity, and fidelity. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with life and ministry. Because students participate with the same group during four consecutive semesters, they should plan their schedules so they may meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience. Internship prerequisites include successful completion of SF100-1, EML101, and completion of half of their DTS course work.

Admission to Candidacy

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the MA in Christian Education degree, the MA in Christian Leadership degree, the MA in Cross-cultural Ministries degree, or the MA in Media Arts and Worship degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral, or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony. They must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0. Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the MA in Biblical Counseling degree. They must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0 and show reasonable promise for effective ministry in people’s lives.

In addition, students must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in all MA programs also must provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer. Those students who are required to complete an internship must demonstrate satisfactory progress toward the completion of all internship requirements prior to admission to candidacy, thereby evidencing ability and acceptability in Christian ministry.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

Graduation Requirements

Candidates for the MA in Biblical Counseling degree must have completed 90 hours of coursework. Candidates for the MA in Christian Education degree must have completed 66 hours of coursework. Candidates for the MA in Christian Leadership must have completed 66 hours of coursework. Candidates for the MA in Cross-cultural Ministries degree must have completed 64 hours of coursework. Candidates for the MA in Media Arts and Worship must have completed 66 hours of coursework. Candidates must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section. Diplomas (or certificates) will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or student loan program are current.
Goals
In addition to the goals common to all professional degree programs at the seminary (see the Professional Master of Arts [MA] section of this catalog), students in this program will be able to:
• understand and explain the issues and problems that people face in life from a thoroughly biblical point of view;
• understand and evaluate secular and Christian psychological theories and practices from a sound biblical and theological point of view in order to develop professional competence within a thoroughly biblical framework focused on ministry;
• develop deep levels of biblical and spiritual integrity in their own personal life, relationships, and ministry;
• possess the personal and spiritual maturity, discernment, and wisdom needed to help people resolve spiritual, relational, and behavioral issues and problems; and
• engage in effective biblically based counseling in the context of a local church, private practice, or mental health institution.

Licensure
Meeting the program course requirements enables a student to apply for licensure to the State Board of many states. In addition to completing the course requirements, students must also complete predegree and postdegree supervised-practicum or internship-clinical-supervised hours. The number of practicum hours and courses required varies from one state board to another and must be checked directly with that particular board. Additional electives may be taken to also enable a student to apply to a state board for licensure related to marriage and family therapy. Any license as a mental health professional is granted by the state board of that particular state and will require the completion of postgraduate licensure requirements, including additional internship hours and state-licensing examinations. Students desiring professional licensing in a particular state should consult the licensing board of that state to determine licensure requirements and, in consultation with the department, structure their program accordingly. It is important to note that the seminary only grants the degree and the state board grants the license. Earning the MABC degree does not, in itself, guarantee the graduate will be licensed in a particular state. Each state board makes an independent decision based on its state regulations and its determination of the applicant’s completion of those requirements.

Admission Requirements
Those applying to the MA in Biblical Counseling program will need to demonstrate appropriate academic and practical preparation broadly related to the field of counseling. Admitted students are designated as MABC in either the first or second stage. In Stage 1 students move toward official designated as MABC, and in Stage 2 they complete a process of interviews and examination with faculty members of the Biblical Counseling department during their second year.

Course Requirements

The MA program in Biblical Counseling is three years in length, with 90 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. Students in the MABC program complete core 3-hour Bible Exposition, Systematic Theology, and Pastoral Ministries courses for 2 credit hours. The reduction in credit hours corresponds to reduced coursework requirements in each of these classes. Of the 90 semester hours required, 16 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 12 are in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, and 2 are in the Christian Life and Witness course. In addition, there are 54 hours in prescribed counseling courses and 6 hours in counseling electives. No thesis is required.

Students move from Stage 1 to Stage 2 of the MABC program on the satisfactory completion of a minimum of 24 hours of coursework, including BC305 Counseling and Ethics Practicum I. This normally occurs after the student’s third semester in the program. This process involves a Personal, Academic, and Professional Progress Interview with the department faculty and will help determine the appropriate fit for the profession. Students must successfully move to Stage 2 to continue in the program.

Students may take certain specialized counseling courses, other than those that are prescribed and/or offered in the MA in Biblical Counseling curriculum, at other accredited schools to fulfill any needed academic requirements for state licensure in other states. Biblical Counseling course transfers are subject to prior department approval, not to exceed 15 hours. Transferring courses last semester may delay graduation.

THIRD YEAR HOURS: 29

1. Students studying at the Houston and Washington, DC extension sites should contact their respective, location-specific advisor for schedule planning and course availability.

2. Students in the MABC program complete core 3-hour Bible Exposition, Systematic Theology, and Pastoral Ministries courses for 2 credit hours. Contact the Registrar’s office for assistance.

3. Electives should be chosen in consultation with Biblical Counseling faculty to ensure that all licensing requirements are met for the state in which the student intends to practice. The MABC program may not meet the minimum requirements for licensure in all states.
Goals
In addition to the goals common to all professional degree programs at the seminary (see the Professional Master of Arts [MA] section of this catalog), students in this program will be able to:

• develop a biblical philosophy of Christian education;
• demonstrate knowledge and needs of at least one ministry population, state biblical goals for that ministry, and apply appropriate educational principles to that ministry;
• organize, administer, and evaluate an educational program based on stated goals and objectives, working successfully with people from a variety of ministry situations; and
• communicate effectively in a Christian education ministry setting.

Course Requirements
Sixty-six semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 are in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 3 are in the Christian Life and Witness course, 9 are in prescribed Educational Ministries and Leadership courses, 12 are elective Educational Ministries and Leadership hours, and 2 hours are in the MACE Ministry Formation internship (INT165 MACE Ministry Formation Internship). No thesis is required.

All students in the MA in Christian Education degree program are required to take EML101 Introduction to Educational Ministries and Leadership, EML102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education, EML103 Teaching Process, EML104 Media Presentations, and INT165 MACE Ministry Formation Internship. In addition, each student must select 12 hours in one of the following 9 ministry concentrations. Concentration courses will be selected in consultation with the student’s advisor.

Academic Ministry
Students completing this ministry concentration should have a foundation for success as a teacher or administrator in a Christian educational institution at the elementary, secondary, or collegiate level. Note: most institutions of higher education require an earned doctorate in the teaching discipline for employment. Many seminaries and graduate schools also require an MDiv or equivalent degree as the minimum credential for admission to doctoral programs in the disciplines of biblical and theological studies.

PURPOSE:
The program leading to the Master of Arts in Christian Education degree is designed to provide a graduate-level biblical and theological education for men and women who anticipate vocational ministry as Christian education specialists. This program helps prepare its graduates to assume positions as ministers of Christian education, children’s workers, ministers of youth, parachurch youth leaders, ministers of adults, directors of family-life education, administrators or teachers in Christian higher education, Christian school teachers and administrators, or women’s ministry leaders.

1 Students studying at the Houston and Washington, DC extension sites should contact their respective, location-specific advisor for schedule planning and course availability.
2 Completion of SF100 Spiritual Formation requires two calendar years. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. The first Spiritual Formation class is only offered in the fall. See the Interdepartmental course description of this catalog for more information.
3 Students are encouraged to select a concentration prior to taking electives. Contact the Advising Center for a list of concentrations and required courses.
4 Students should plan to take EML102 History and Philosophy of Christian Education in their final semester of study.
5 Students may substitute EML105 Teaching Process and Media Presentations (3 hours) for EML103 and EML104.
6 Students complete an internship in two consecutive semesters. In lieu of the internship, qualifying students may elect to complete the Ministry Residency (EML801 and EML802) in a Fall-Spring, two-semester format. See the Interdepartmental course description and the Educational Ministries and Leadership department sections of this catalog for more information.
MA IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP (MACL)

Goals
In addition to the goals common to all professional degree programs at the seminary (see the Professional Master of Arts [MA] section of this catalog), students in this program will be able to:

- develop a biblical philosophy of Christian leadership;
- appraise the leadership needs of an organization;
- design a leadership development plan for an organization; and
- demonstrate transformational leadership skills within an organization.

Course Requirements
Sixty-six semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 hours are in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 3 are in the Christian Life and Witness course, 18 are leadership related courses from the Division of Ministries and Communication, 1 is in Orientation and Research Methods, and 3 hours are in a 3-hour MACL Ministry Formation Internship. A 1-hour summative research project is also required.

Ministry Residency Option
Qualifying students may complete a ministry residency (an internship local to the student with intensives on the Dallas campus). See dts.edu/ministryresidency for a detailed explanation. The ministry residency (EML801 and EML802) replaces the INT155 MACL Ministry Formation Internship, EML330, and 6 hours of electives. Thus, after 44 hours online and a 12-hour ministry residency, only 11 hours need to be completed in a classroom to earn the MACL. These 9 hours can be completed through week-long intensives in Dallas or Houston, or through regular courses at any of the seminary’s distance locations.
Mobile MACL

The mobile MACL is designed to allow qualifying students to stay in their current ministry while completing the requirements for the degree. The mobile MACL is a cohort delivery model that allows students in a particular locale to go through the program together. DTS partners with local church and parachurch ministries to offer the degree. Locations are approved by the seminary as needed and when a sufficient number of students to comprise a cohort are enrolled in the program. DTS currently operates the MACL throughout the world. The seminary continues to consider new locations at which to offer the mobile MACL.

The model includes a combination of face-to-face or synchronous video courses at the mobile location, courses in Dallas (or at another approved location), and online courses. In order to minimize time away from work and ministry, the courses in Dallas are special week-long courses at four different times during the degree program. During these weeks students complete online work before coming to Dallas, fulfill the residential requirements for courses in one week at Dallas, and complete online work after returning home. In the end, students spend a total of four weeks in Dallas over the course of the program.

For additional information on the mobile model and on current locations and new locations for the mobile MACL, go to dts.edu/mobile.

The program leading to the Master of Arts in Cross-cultural Ministries is designed to provide graduate-level training for people whose ministries include serving in other cultures. Prospective and veteran missionaries from North America and around the world will benefit from this program. It meets the essential academic requirements of most missions agencies and is ideal for those whose anticipated ministries will not include regular preaching.

Goals
In addition to the goals common to all professional degree programs at the seminary (see the Professional Master of Arts [MA] section of this catalog), students in this program will be able to:

- verbalize principles of effective intercultural ministry;
- demonstrate familiarity with essential principles of anthropology, ethnology, and sociology in relation to missions;
- evidence a deep commitment to world evangelism;
- communicate the Bible effectively in an intercultural context;
- produce an accurate profile of a chosen country or area of the world; and
- design an effective strategy for an intercultural ministry.

Course Requirements
Sixty-four semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 22 are in prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 in prescribed Systematic Theology courses, and 3 are in the Christian Life and Witness course. There are 12 hours of prescribed World Missions and Intercultural Studies courses and a 2-hour MACM Ministry Formation Internship. The remaining 7 hours are missions electives. Department professors will assist students in designing the most appropriate program of missions electives for each student’s personal career goals.

Missions electives should be selected as follows:

1. Contexts course
2. Strategic Approaches course
3. Biblical and Theological Studies course

*If WM405 Christian Education in Intercultural Contexts, WM410 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts, or WM505 Christianity and Non-Christian Education are chosen, the number of electives will be reduced to 6.

Locations: Dallas, Houston, DC, Extensions, Online

Hours: 64 Languages: English
Religions is elected, students not needing the 3rd hour of those courses for normal program requirements may reduce expenses by taking WM405, WM410, or WM505 for 2 hours of credit and 1 hour of audit. Contact the Registrar's office for details.

Students are required to do a cross-cultural internship as part of completing the missions electives of the program. The acceptability of this experience is determined by the Ministry Formation office. Those interested in the TESOL certificate must take TESOL courses in addition to missions electives.

No thesis is required for the MACM degree.

SECOND YEAR HOURS: 32

Students desiring to earn a TESOL (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages) certificate must take the following courses in addition to the required missions electives:

- WM620 Dynamics of TESOL
- INT205 TESOL Ministry Formation Internship

1. Students studying at the Houston and Washington, DC extension sites should contact their respective, location-specific advisor for schedule planning and course availability.
2. Completion of SF100 Spiritual Formation requires two calendar years. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. The first Spiritual Formation class is only offered in the fall semester. See the Interdepartmental course description section of this catalog for more information.
3. Students complete an internship in two consecutive semesters. See the Interdepartmental course description section of this catalog for more information.
Goals
In addition to the goals common to all professional degree programs at the seminary (see the Professional Master of Arts [MA] section of this catalog), students in this program will be able to:

- Communicate biblical content through creative, culturally relevant media;
- articulate the role of art and worship in shaping and expressing Christian life;
- express the interdependence of theology and art;
- develop and demonstrate a model of collaboration designed to serve and shape culture through the arts and worship;
- demonstrate Spirit-empowered leadership that recognizes others’ gifts and encourages their creative development; and
- develop a model of creativity integrated with Spirit-directed work habits that leads to sustainable professional practices.

Admission Requirements
Students applying to the MAMW degree program or a ThM emphasis in the Department of Media Arts and Worship, in addition to the regular requirements for admission to the school, will be required to complete the Department of Media Arts and Worship Admissions Inventory.

Course Requirements
Sixty-six semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Twenty-two of the 66 hours are prescribed Bible Exposition courses, 18 are prescribed Systematic Theology courses, 3 are in the Christian Life and Witness course, 6 are in prescribed Media Arts courses, and 2 are in the Media Arts and Worship apprenticeship in which the student develops a professional portfolio in a field experience context. The remaining 15 hours must be taken in media arts and worship electives. Students may receive credit in the Department of Media Arts and Worship for several courses taken in other departments. For a complete list, please see the Department of Media Arts and Worship course description section of the catalog.

No thesis is required for the MAMW degree.

The following table represents the required curriculum for the Master of Arts in Media Arts and Worship. Students should create an individualized plan of study in light of their current realities and future ministry plans in consultation with an academic advisor. The prerequisites and corequisites for each course may be found in the course descriptions section of this catalog. Course offering sessions vary by location. The planned sessions provided below pertain specifically to Dallas campus course offerings. Online courses are typically offered each fall, spring, and summer. Courses may be cancelled or offered in alternate semesters as needed. Required courses are regularly offered in summer sessions as intensive or hybrid courses. Visit dts.edu/schedule for the most updated course offerings.

1 Completion of SF100 Spiritual Formation requires two calendar years. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. The first Spiritual Formation class is offered only in the fall. See the Interdepartmental course description section of this catalog for more information.
Admission Requirements

Admission requirements and application procedures for general master’s degree programs are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.) Students generally will not be admitted into a degree program without goals consistent with the purposes for which the program is designed.

Those applying to the MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) program also must be accepted as students at the Dallas International University (Dallas Intl.).

Transfer of Credit

Transfer of some credit is allowed toward the general master’s degree programs from accredited graduate theological schools. Up to 30 hours of credit may be transferred toward the general master’s degrees (12 toward the MBTS).

No more than 30 hours of coursework from institutions outside of DTS and Dallas Intl. will be transferred toward the MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics). Some provision will be made for students to transfer work from the Jerusalem University College to the MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) program. Entering students with missions experience in Bible translation may be eligible for advanced standing.

Students must have earned a grade of C or better for a course to be considered in transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.
Residential Requirements

General master’s degrees allow for completion of many of the DTS courses online. For more information, consult the residential requirements for each of the general master’s degrees in this section.

All work leading to any of the general master’s degrees (except the 36-hour MBTS, which has a time limit of six years) must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to these programs after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Admission to Candidacy

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the general master’s degree (MBTS, MA, MABEL, and MACS) in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral, or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony. They must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

In addition, students must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in all general master’s degree programs also must provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

Graduation Requirements

Candidates for the general master’s degrees (MBTS, MA, MABEL, and MACS) must have completed the required number of hours of coursework for their respective degree. Candidates must have a minimum grade point average of 2.0, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or student loan program are current.
Goals
Students in the MBTS program will be able to:

• demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
• evidence a general knowledge of theology;
• evidence an ability to biblically and theologically support their views on a specific contemporary issue;
• evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit; and
• evidence an interest and involvement in the local church or other ministries with which they are associated.

Admission Requirements
Admission requirements and application procedures for the MBTS are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary. (See the Admission section of this catalog.) However, since the MBTS is primarily designed for individuals who desire to enhance their biblical and theological foundation for lay ministry in professional contexts, admission to the program will normally be limited to those who meet this purpose.

Transfer of up to 12 hours of credit is allowed toward the MBTS program from accredited graduate theological schools. Students must have earned a grade of C or better (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) for a course to be considered in transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.
Residential Requirements

While the MBTS can be completed entirely online, the courses are also offered as classroom courses on the Dallas campus and at the seminary’s extension sites. This is to enhance the learning objectives of certain subjects that may be better achieved through a live interactive setting as well as for those who prefer a traditional face-to-face format.

Regardless of mode of delivery (online or in face-to-face courses on campus, or at an approved extension), at least 24 hours of the course work required for the degree must be earned through DTS.

Course Requirements

Thirty-six semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Nine hours are prescribed in Bible Exposition courses, 9 are prescribed in Theological Studies courses, 3 are the Christian Life and Witness course, and 2 are required in research. The remaining 13 hours are taken in open electives in courses of interest to the student.

The program normally requires a minimum of two years of study. Some exceptions to the two-year limit may apply, allowing some students to finish the program in as little as one year. Contact the Admissions Office or Advising Center for more information.

Students may pursue this degree on a year-round basis or during summers. By taking only 3 credit hours per term (fall, spring, summer), students can still complete the program in four years. All work leading to the MBTS must, however, be completed within six years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

1. Students studying at the Houston and Washington, DC extension sites or in languages other than English should contact their respective, location- or language-specific advisor for schedule planning and course availability.

2. The MBTS normally requires two years of study. Exceptions to this rule apply for those who have previous advanced theological study or prior extensive undergraduate studies in religion and/or other appropriate foundational areas. Contact the Advising Center for more information.

3. Historical or Systematic Theology courses are to be selected in consultation with the Theological Studies department.
The MA currently provides majors in Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, and Theological Studies. Those who are anticipating vocational ministry should apply for admission to one of the seminary’s professional degree programs. Those who desire to pursue the seminary’s PhD program should apply for the Master of Theology (ThM) program.

Goals

Students in the MA program will be able to:

- demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of major Bible books;
- evidence a general knowledge of systematic theology from a premillennial framework and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
- demonstrate specific knowledge in the discipline of their selected concentration in the program necessary for advanced research in that discipline;
- evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit; and
- demonstrate involvement in their local churches and/or other ministries with which they are associated.

Admission Requirements

The Admission requirements and application procedures for the MA are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary. However, due to the research nature of the MA, admission to the program will be limited to students who have a strong biblical, theological, and ministry-training background. It assumes students admitted to the program meet or exceed the seminary’s Accelerated Advanced Standing requirements. If such prerequisites are not met, leveling work will be required. For more information on the seminary’s Accelerated Advanced Standing Program requirements see dts.edu/advancedstanding.

Transfer of Credit

Transfer of up to 30 hours of credit is allowed toward the MA program from accredited graduate programs in related fields of study. Students must have earned a grade of C or better (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) for a course to be considered for transfer. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

Residential Requirements

While some of the MA courses may be completed online or at one of the seminary’s approved extension locations, the unique nature of the MA will require students to complete the majority of their course work in residence at the Dallas campus. Students in the MA degree program will work with the Advising Center and the department of their intended major on course requirements and scheduling.
Regardless of the mode of delivery (at the Dallas campus, an approved extension, or online), at least fifty percent of the course work required for the degree must be earned through DTS.

All work toward the MA degree must be completed within seven years from the time of initial matriculation. Extension of this time limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the MA after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

Sixty semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Students may also be required to complete additional leveling work in foundational biblical, theological, and ministry areas as well as in the biblical languages (Hebrew and Greek) if they have not had sufficient background in these disciplines prior to admission. The amount of leveling work required will be determined as part of the admissions process for the degree.

Common Required Core

In addition to any required leveling work students in the MA will complete 32 hours of common prescribed courses, which include advanced Hebrew language study for Old Testament Studies majors or advanced Greek language study for New Testament Studies majors. The core requirements also include a 2-hour thesis in the student’s intended major. In addition to the common 32-hour core, MA students will complete 28 hours in their intended major (Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, or Theological Studies). All students in the MA will be required to pass comprehensive exams in their major.

MA Majors

Students in the MA will select a major in Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, or Theological Studies. The required thesis listed above in the Common Core for the MA will be written in the department of the student’s major. Students must also pass comprehensive exams in their area of major. Students may contact their major department for more information concerning the exams.

Total Hours for TS Major 28

Spiritual Formation

Because DTS values Christlike character and spiritual maturity, MA students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation groups for four consecutive fall and spring semesters. MA students who are not planning to move to Dallas for four consecutive fall and spring semesters must contact the Spiritual Formation office and apply for an alternative program for completing their Spiritual Formation requirement.

In the Spiritual Formation curriculum, small groups of five to seven students focus on identity, community, integrity, and fidelity. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with life and ministry.

Because students participate with the same group during four consecutive semesters, they should plan their schedules so they may meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. Spiritual Formation is a noncredit, transcripted experience.
The following table represents the required curriculum for the Master of Arts. Students should create an individualized plan of study in light of their current realities and future ministry plans in consultation with an academic advisor. The prerequisites and corequisites for each course may be found in the course descriptions section of this catalog. Course offering sessions vary by location. The planned sessions provided below pertain specifically to Dallas campus course offerings. Online courses are typically offered each fall, spring, and summer. Courses may be cancelled or offered in alternate semesters as needed. Required courses are regularly offered in summer sessions as intensive or hybrid courses. Visit dts.edu/schedule for the most updated course offerings.

1. Proficiency in both Elements of Hebrew and Elements of Greek is required for all MA students. Students who cannot demonstrate proficiency in these languages must complete OT101–102 Elements of Hebrew (6 hours) and NT101–102 Elements of Greek (6 hours) in addition to the 60 hours required for the degree.

2. Completion of SF100 Spiritual Formation requires two calendar years. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. The first Spiritual Formation class is only offered in the fall semester. See the Interdepartmental course description section of this catalog for more information.

3. Students will select a major in Old Testament Studies (OT), New Testament Studies (NT), or Theological Studies (TS). In addition to the thesis, students will complete comprehensive exams in the major area.

The program leading to the Master of Arts (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) degree is designed to provide graduate-level training for men and women who desire instruction in tools for effective Bible translation. It is designed for those who desire to pursue advanced study in linguistics and for those who desire to serve in Bible translation ministries, including missionary recruits from America and other nations, furloughing and in-service missionaries, and translation support personnel.

The MABEL is offered jointly with Dallas International University (Dallas Intl.), which prepares people with the linguistics skills necessary for good Bible translation. It also prepares people for service with Wycliffe Bible Translators, meeting the minimum requirements for the first term of service. The program only fulfills the minimum requirements for the first term of service with Wycliffe Bible Translators.

The World Missions and Intercultural Studies department is responsible for administering the program on the DTS campus.

Goals

Students in the MABEL program will be able to:

- exegete the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible;
- form a basic theological foundation as a grid for Bible translation;
- apply basic principles of hermeneutics in Bible study and Bible translation;
- understand the theory and principles of language translation and contextualization;
- employ computational tools to construct a phonological analysis, descriptive grammar partial lexicography, and interlinear text of a minority language; and
- design an effective strategy for cross-cultural ministry.

Admission Requirements

The application process for the MABEL is a dual process. Applicants for the program must apply to both DTS and Dallas Intl., and the admission requirements of both institutions must be met. In most cases students admitted to DTS will meet the admission requirements at Dallas Intl. However, prospective MABEL students should be aware that the requirements for linguistic courses at Dallas Intl. vary and will include a minimum of 15 prerequisite credit hours.

Until they apply to DTS for admission to the program, students will not be officially enrolled in the MABEL program. Students are advised to contact both institutions as soon as possible regarding their intentions to enroll in the MABEL program so that adequate advice and direction can be provided.

Because the majority of students enrolled in the MABEL are either already involved in or anticipate being involved in Bible translation ministries cross-culturally, applicants to the MABEL are required to have a basic understanding of world missions, normally attained through the completion of an introductory or foundations course in world missions such as the Perspectives on the World Christian Movement course (see perspectives.org) or other approved means of meeting this entrance requirement. Students without this prerequisite may be required to take,
Transfer of Credit

In addition to the normal transfer credit policies of the seminary for general master’s degrees (see Transfer of Credit in the General Master’s Degrees section of this catalog), no more than 30 hours of coursework from institutions outside of DTS and Dallas Intl. will be transferred toward the MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) degree. Some provision will be made for students to transfer work from Jerusalem University College to the MABEL program. Entering students with missions experience in Bible translation may be eligible for advanced standing.

Residential Requirements

Currently up to 33 hours of the DTS course requirements may be completed online or in a residential (face-to-face) format at one of the seminary’s approved locations. (Students should note that not all courses are available at all locations.) Of the 62 hours required for the MABEL degree, a minimum of 21 hours must be taken through DTS and a minimum of 18 hours must be taken through Dallas Intl.

Course Requirements

Sixty-two semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 18 are prescribed in linguistics field preparation, 12 in Greek grammar and exegesis, 12 in Hebrew grammar and exegesis, 3 in biblical manners and customs, 3 in world missions, 9 in Bible exposition, and 5 in systematic and historical theology, as well as successful completion of either the two-semester SF245 or the four-semester SF100 requirement. The World Missions and Intercultural Studies department advises students in this program. Career guidance is also available from Dallas Intl. staff.

Substitutions may be made for required courses with appropriate departmental approval. Students who have linguistics background or training should consult the Dallas Intl. registrar for course advice.

In addition to their MABEL requirements, WM101 Introduction to World Missions. Contact the Admissions office for more information.
Linguistics and related translation courses are offered on the campus of Dallas Intl. in Dallas. Biblical and theological coursework, as well as course work in biblical languages, is offered at DTS. A Spiritual Formation group supervised by the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies is designed to meet the needs of this group of students.

Completion of course requirements for the MABEL requires careful planning on the part of students as they seek to coordinate coursework at two institutions. Therefore students are strongly encouraged to plan their studies so that they take courses at only one institution at a time.

Students will split their time between DTS and Dallas Intl. Due to the difference in academic calendars of DTS and Dallas Intl., it is extremely difficult for students to take courses at both institutions concurrently. Dallas Intl. has designed its courses to be taught in six-month bimesters, from either January through June or July through December. Each bimester is divided into four sessions. DTS follows a regular early-semester calendar. This results in the overlap of DTS courses with Dallas Intl. courses in a given term. As such, students are strongly encouraged to adhere to the curriculum chart at the end of this section.

Every attempt is made to facilitate the completion of the program in no more than three calendar years for full-time students. Students may shorten this time by taking advantage of winter and summer offerings at DTS. However, students should be aware that the linguistics courses from Dallas Intl. require prerequisites that may extend the length of the program. Furthermore, students who choose to pursue the MA in Applied Linguistics from Dallas Intl. in addition to the MABEL may need additional time to complete the program.

Before students begin their studies in the MABEL, they should consult the DTS Advising Center to develop a degree plan for completing requirements. This plan will include input from Dallas Intl. on the completion of linguistics requirements.

Students should consult both the DTS and Dallas Intl. Registrars’ offices for information on scheduling options. The Admissions office at DTS also will be able to assist students.

Dual Degree Option

Students who complete the 62-hours required for the DTS MABEL degree may complete an additional 4 hours from Dallas Intl. to earn the 37-hour MA in Applied Linguistics at Dallas Intl. In addition to the 18 hours taken at Dallas Intl. as part of the MABEL program, students may transfer 15 hours from the MABEL program to Dallas Intl. and take an additional 4 hours at Dallas Intl., plus comprehensive exams, to meet the 37-hour requirement for an MA in Applied Linguists. This essentially allows students to earn both degrees for a minimum of 66 hours plus comprehensive exams. Consult your Dallas Intl. advisor for details.

Dallas International University Course Descriptions

The following courses are offered through Dallas Intl. Prerequisite courses are not listed, but may be found in the Dallas Intl. catalog available from the Dallas Intl. Admissions office at by calling 972-708-7415 or 972-708-7343, emailing admissions@diu.edu, or going online at diu.edu/admissions.

AL5207 Field Data Management

After completing this course, students will be able to use computational tools for managing and presenting phonological, textual, and lexical data collected in linguistic field research. Prerequisite: AL4302 Principles of Articulatory and Acoustic Phonetics, AL4303 Principles of Phonological Analysis, AL4410 Principles of Grammatical Analysis, AA4505 Second Language and Culture Acquisition. Corequisite: AL5405 Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis. 2 hours.

AL5312 Discourse Analysis

After completing this course, students will be able to analyze the discourse structure of a text, using a specific approach to text analysis, and be able to compare this with other current approaches to text analysis. They will be able to describe typical features of different types of prominence and cohesion and coherence. They will be able to chart sample texts from different languages and analyze how a discourse may be segmented into hierarchical units. They will be able to indicate evidence for foregrounding and backgrounding (or mainline and supportive information), including differences in verb forms; to describe topic or participant reference; and to investigate constituent order variation. They will focus on the interface between syntactic forms and their functions in discourse as they investigate grammatical structures of discourse, paragraph, sentence, and clause. Prerequisite: AL4410b Principles of Grammatical Analysis. 3 hours.

AL5315 Semantics and Pragmatics

After completing this course, students will be able to explain and discuss relationships between form and meaning at various levels of language. They will be able to explain the difference between meaning and reference; describe and identify homonymy, polysemy, and ambiguity; analyze and describe word meanings, sentence meanings, utterance meanings, and speech act functions; identify and describe presuppositions, entailments, implicature, and ellipsis; identify components of meaning, and write clear definitions based on componential analysis. Prerequisite: AL4410b Principles of Grammatical Analysis. 3 hours.

AL5316 Theory and Practice of Translation

Upon completing this course, students will be able to explain and practice the principles of transferring meaning across languages and cultures. They will be conversant with different theories and approaches to translation. They will be able to critically analyze the meaning of a text from another language, translate that text, and evaluate the result for accuracy, communicative effectiveness, and naturalness. They will be conversant with methods for training and facilitating national colleagues in the process of translation. They will be able to recognize common translation problems and apply standard methods for solving them. They will be able to access current literature on translation theory and practice and the tools most commonly used by professional Bible translators. Prerequisites: AL5312 Discourse Analysis and either AL5311 Relevance Theory or AL5315 Semantics and Pragmatics. 3 hours.

AL5406 Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis

By the end of Field Methods and Linguistic Analysis, students will be able to elicit, record, and transcribe linguistic data by working with a speaker of a nonwestern language; use external sources plus the elicited data to formulate explanatory hypotheses; test those hypotheses against available data; and refine them. Prerequisites: AL4302 Principles of Articulatory and Acoustic Phonetics, AL4303 Principles of Phonological Analysis, AL4410b Principles of Grammatical Analysis, and AA4505 Second Language and Culture Acquisition. Corequisite: AL5207 Field Data Management. 4 hours.

AA5151 Cross-cultural Teaching Seminar

After completing this course, students will be able to analyze a teaching process from the perspective of learning and teaching styles, and identify factors related to teaching cross-culturally. They will perform a teaching task, and be able to identify concepts from intercultural communication that could facilitate or impede the teaching process in cross-cultural context. Prerequisites: AA 4350 Language and Society or AA4505 Second Language and Culture Acquisition. This course is required only for the Dallas Intl. MA in Applied Linguistics. 1 hour.

CURRICULUM (MASTER OF ARTS [BIBLICAL EXEGESIS AND LINGUISTICS])

The following table represents the required curriculum for the Master of Arts (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics). This plan has been developed in consultation with Dallas Intl. and should be followed closely to reduce scheduling difficulties. Though some courses may be completed online, the MABEL program must be completed largely through resident study in Dallas at Dallas Intl. and DTS. The planned sessions provided below pertain specifically to Dallas campus course offerings. DTS Online courses are typically offered each fall, spring, and summer. Courses may be cancelled or offered in alternate semesters as needed.

Fourth Year Hours

1 Students who wish to complete the MA in Applied Linguistics with a Bible Translation concentration through Dallas Intl. in addition to the DTS MABEL degree should take AAS151 and an additional 3-hour Dallas Intl. elective in Bimester 2. These additional 4 hours plus comprehensive exams are required to complete the MA in Applied Linguistics at Dallas Intl.

2 Bible Exposition courses may be replaced with exegesis courses in the Old or New Testament Studies departments or with other Bible Exposition courses as approved by the MABEL program coordinator.

3 HT200 History of Doctrine is a 3-hour course which may be taken for 2 hours of credit and 1 hour of audit. Contact the Registrar’s office for more information.

4 Students may choose any Dallas Intl. master’s-level elective recommended by their Dallas Intl. advisor. Consult the current Dallas Intl. catalog for available electives. Students have the option of taking their elective during either Bimester 2 or Bimester 3.
The program leading to the Master of Arts degree with a major in Christian Studies (MACS) is designed to provide a graduate-level biblical and theological foundation for various kinds of Christian service. This degree is designed primarily for lay leaders who desire training for more effective ministry within their church or organization. The MACS may also provide supplemental training for those engaged in parachurch ministries or those in support positions with missions agencies or churches. Those who are seeking fuller preparation for a vocationally specific ministry should apply for admission to one of the professional degrees.

PURPOSE:

The MACS is offered in English, Chinese, and Spanish with some customized requirements. The program can be completed entirely online in English. Most of the courses in the Chinese-language MACS can be completed online, but some will need to be completed in a residential (majority face-to-face) format in Dallas, Houston, or Hong Kong. See dts.edu/chinese or contact the Chinese Studies office for more information on completing the MACS in Chinese.

Goals

All students in the MACS program will be able to:

- demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, including a synthetic understanding of the major books;
- evidence an understanding of the historical development of theology, a knowledge of premillennial theology, and an ability to support their theological views and apply them to contemporary issues;
- communicate biblical and theological knowledge to a contemporary audience;
- evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit;
- evidence an interest and involvement in the local church or other ministries with which they are associated; and
- minister within a local church or other group by means of leadership skills, evangelism, and service.

In addition to the above goals, students in the Chinese-language version of the MACS will also be able to:

- design an effective strategy for Chinese ministry

Admission Requirements

Admission requirements and application procedures for the MACS are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog). Students generally will not be admitted into this degree program without goals consistent with the ministries for which the program is designed to equip them.
Transfer of Credit

Transfer of up to 31 hours of credit is allowed toward the MACS program from accredited graduate programs in related fields of study. Students must have earned a grade of C or better (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at Dallas Theological Seminary and transferred to another institution is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for information on eligibility for transfer credit.

Residential Requirements

While the MACS can be completed entirely online, all of the courses are also offered as classroom courses on the main Dallas campus. Most of the courses are also available at the seminary’s extension campuses. This is to enhance the learning objectives of certain subjects that may be better achieved through a live interactive setting as well as for those who prefer a traditional face-to-face format.

Not all of the MACS courses are offered in a live face-to-face format in Chinese. Some are offered live at the Dallas and Houston campuses, and 30 hours can be completed in face-to-face courses in Chinese at the seminary’s extension in Hong Kong. For more information on course availability in Chinese, contact the office of Chinese Studies.

Regardless of the mode of delivery (online or in face-to-face classes in Dallas or at an approved extension), at least fifty percent of the course work required for the degree must be earned through DTS.

All work toward the MACS degree must be completed within seven years from the time of initial matriculation. Extension of this time limit requires approval of the Credits Committee. Reinstatement to the degree after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

1. EML105 or an approved EML communications course may be substituted.
2. EML103 and EML104 (or EML105), EML450, or an approved PM Communication course.
3. See Spiritual Formation in this section of the catalog for SF requirements.
4. English-language MACS students must take at least 2 hours from the Educational Ministries and Leadership department and at least 2 hours from the World Missions and Intercultural Studies department as part of their electives.
Course Requirements

Sixty-two semester hours of coursework are required as a minimum for graduation. Students may pursue this degree on a year-round basis or during summers. By taking about 12 hours of coursework each year or summer, students can complete the program in five years or five summers depending on scheduling needs.

Students who intend to complete the requirements for the MACS online, but do not have prior experience with online courses are not encouraged to take more than one course their first online semester.

All students in the MACS, regardless of language, are required to take 24 hours of prescribed Biblical Studies courses, 18 hours of prescribed Theological Studies courses, 3 hours in the Christian Life and Witness course, 3 hours in an approved communications course, and 2 hours in research for a total of 50 core hours.

MACS in English

In addition to the common 50 hours of core requirements above, all students in the MACS in English are required to take HT200 History of Doctrine for 3 hours. Of the remaining 9 elective hours, students in the English-language MACS must take at least 2 hours from the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership and at least 2 hours from the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies.

Spiritual Formation

Because DTS values Christlike character and spiritual maturity, MACS students are required to register for and participate in Spiritual Formation (SF) groups for four consecutive fall and spring semesters at the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC campus. Online MACS students or those who are not planning to move to Dallas or Houston for four consecutive semesters must contact the Spiritual Formation office and apply for an alternative program for completing SF requirements.

In the SF curriculum, small groups of five to seven students focus on identity, community, integrity, and fidelity. The groups also provide an atmosphere for prayer, fellowship, and the integration of learning with life and ministry.

Because students participate with the same group during four consecutive semesters, they should plan their schedules so they may meet on the same day and at the same time each semester. SF is a noncredit, transcripted experience. Students in the Chinese-language MACS must contact the Chinese Studies Department concerning how to meet their Spiritual Formation requirement.

Accelerated MACS

Students entering the English MACS with a strong background in Bible or theology from an approved Christian university, Bible college, or parachurch ministry may apply for the accelerated program during the admissions process. In place of core courses in the MACS curriculum, accelerated participants take four advanced standing courses (AS103–106). This results in a curricular reduction of up to 12 credit hours. The accelerated program is limited to students taking courses on the Dallas campus.

For more information about the accelerated program see “Advanced Standing” in this catalog or visit dts.edu/advancedstanding.
The following table represents the required curriculum for the Master of Arts (Christian Studies). Students should create an individualized plan of study in light of their current realities and future ministry plans in consultation with an academic advisor. The prerequisites and corequisites for each course may be found in the course descriptions section of this catalog. Course offering sessions vary by location. The planned sessions provided below pertain specifically to Dallas campus course offerings. Online courses in English are typically offered each fall, spring, and summer. Courses may be cancelled or offered in alternate semesters as needed. Required courses are regularly offered in summer sessions as intensive or hybrid courses. Visit dts.edu/schedule for the most updated course offerings.

SECOND YEAR HOURS 31

1. Students studying at the Houston and Washington, DC extension sites or in languages other than English should contact their respective, location- or language-specific advisor for schedule planning and course availability.
2. The MACS requires the equivalent of two years of full-time study. While students have up to seven years to complete the degree, this curriculum chart reflects how students in the English-language version of the program can complete the MACS in two years. Contact the Advising Center for more information.
3. Completion of SF100 Spiritual Formation requires two calendar years. Students who register for SF100 need to keep in mind that the course is a four-semester-long course that will meet at the same day and time each of the four semesters. The first Spiritual Formation class is only offered in the fall semester. See the Interdepartmental course description section of this catalog for more information.
4. English-language MACS students may choose any elective courses suited to their interests and needs, provided that at least 2 hours are from the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies.
5. The following courses are approved to meet the Communications course requirement: EML103 Teaching Process (2 hours) AND EML104 Media Presentations (1 hour), EML105 Teaching Process and Media Presentations (3 hours), or an approved PM communications course (3 hours). For more information contact the Advising Center.

1. Students studying at the Houston and Washington, DC extension sites or in languages other than English should contact their respective, location- or language-specific advisor for schedule planning and course availability.

2. The MACS requires the equivalent of two years of full-time study. While students have up to seven years to complete the degree, this curriculum chart reflects how students in the Chinese-language version of the program can complete the MACS in two years. Contact the Advising Center for more information.

3. Students in the Chinese-language MACS will take SF110 Spiritual Formation over two consecutive semesters. Alternative models may be approved. Contact the Chinese Studies office for more information on meeting this requirement.

4. Chinese-language MACS students must take at least 2 hours of electives from the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership and at least 2 hours of electives from the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. If EML103/104, EML105, or EML450 is taken for the student’s Communications course, the EML elective requirement will have been met.

5. The following courses are approved to meet the Communications course requirement: PM100 Basics of Biblical Communication (3 hours) or EML105 Teaching Process and Media Presentations (3 hours). For more information contact the Chinese Studies office.
The Certificate of Graduate Studies (CGS) in Bible and Theology provides a flexible course of study for:

- Christian laypersons who desire a short program of seminary studies to equip them for effective ministry in the local church or elsewhere;
- those who wish to begin seminary studies on a trial basis to help them determine if they desire to pursue a degree program;*
- Christian workers with limited time available for seminary studies (those who intend to enter a professional ministry are encouraged to apply for admission to one of the master’s-level degree programs);
- missionary candidates who anticipate service in nonprofessional ministries whose mission board requires graduate study in Bible and theology;
- college graduates who want a year of seminary studies as a supplement to their undergraduate work; and
- spouses of current DTS students who want to complete a program of graduate seminary studies.

* Students should contact the Advising Center as soon as they decide to pursue a degree.

Goals

All students in the CGS program will be able to:

- demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible;
- evidence a general knowledge of premillennial theology and an ability to support their theological views;
- evidence an increasing likeness to Christ as manifested in love for God, love for others, and the fruit of the Spirit; and
- evidence an interest and involvement in the local church or other ministries with which they are associated.
Admission Requirements
Admission requirements and application procedures for the CGS program are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog).

In a few cases applicants without a bachelor’s degree may be admitted, but such applicants must demonstrate both maturity and adequate educational background. Contact the Admissions office for further details.

Graduates of this certificate program normally are not recommended by the Alumni and Church Relations office for ministry placement. Students in the CGS program are classified as nondegree students.

Transfer of Credit
Transfer of up to 6 credit hours from accredited graduate programs in related fields of study is allowed toward the Certificate of Graduate Studies.

Students must have earned a grade of C or better (2.0 on a 4.0 scale) in order to be eligible to transfer a course from another institution to DTS. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar’s office for further information.

Residential Requirements
While the CGS in Bible and theology can be completed entirely online, CGS courses are also offered as classroom courses on the main Dallas campus and at all of the seminary’s extension campuses. This is to enhance the learning objectives of certain subjects that may be better achieved through a live interactive setting as well as for those who prefer a traditional face-to-face format.

Of the 30 semester hours of coursework required for graduation, a minimum of 24 must be taken through DTS.

Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the certificate.

Course Requirements
Thirty hours of coursework are required for the CGS. Students will complete 9 hours in Bible Exposition, 9 hours in Systematic Theology, 3 hours in the Christian Life and Witness course, and 9 hours of electives. Students are able to take up to 6 additional hours beyond the designated 30 hours without needing to apply to a degree program.

Flexibility in the Bible and theology courses and in the 9 hours of electives allows students to select courses suited to their particular interests and needs. Many, if not all, of these courses may be completed online. Contact the Admissions office or Advising Center for more information.

Admission To Candidacy

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the CGS in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony after these requirements have been met: (1) grade point average of at least 2.0; (2) evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, of proven Christian character; and (3) adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ. Students in the CGS program must also provide a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Admission to candidacy is normally valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring may be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

Graduation Requirements

To receive the Certificate of Graduate Studies in Bible and Theology, students must have completed 30 semester hours of coursework with a grade point average of at least 2.0; evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character; and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section above.

Certificates will not be released or transcripts issued unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or the student loan program are current.

CGS Completion For Nongraduate Alumni

Qualified nongraduate alumni may apply to complete the Certificate of Graduate Studies at a reduced tuition rate. The program requires re-admission to the seminary and completion of all remaining CGS requirements. Interested alumni will need to complete at least one course the semester before graduation, even if all other requirements have been previously met.

For more information, contact the Alumni or Admissions office.
POSTGRADUATE AND DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

DTS offers one postgraduate and three doctoral programs

- Master of Sacred Theology (see page 132)
- Doctor of Ministry (see page 134)
- Doctor of Educational Ministry (see page 139)
- Doctor of Philosophy (see page 143)

PURPOSE:

The Master of Sacred Theology degree is a postgraduate degree program for those seeking further theological training in preparation for doctoral studies or other Christian service. The Doctor of Ministry degree is the highest professional degree for those engaged in local church and parachurch ministries, world missions, and similar ministries. By contrast, the DEdMin degree focuses primarily on educational types of ministries in the local church, parachurch, and world missions, and the PhD degree purposes primarily to equip students to engage in scholarly research and teaching.
Master of Sacred Theology (STM)

Goals
To enable students to:

• interpret competently the Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible;
• understand the major areas of systematic theology and their historical development;
• demonstrate Christlike leadership;
• communicate the Bible and/or theology effectively;
• critically address contemporary issues within their chosen area of study; and
• charitably interact with the ideas of others.

Admission Requirements
Admission requirements and application procedures for the STM program are the same as for all programs of study at the seminary (see the Admission section of this catalog), with three exceptions: (1) students who desire to pursue studies toward this degree must present at the time of application approved college and seminary degrees or their respective academic and theological equivalents; (2) transcripts of this work must show a grade point average of at least 2.5 on a scale of 4.0; and (3) applicants must provide a research paper, in English, previously written at the master's level that shows an acceptable level of competency in research and writing.

Each applicant's evaluation for admission to the STM program will include a review of the applicant's completed MDiv (or equivalent) coursework to ensure the appropriate breadth of preparation necessary to pursue the STM degree. Identified deficiencies must be completed in addition to the following program requirements.

All STM students must demonstrate exegetical proficiency in Greek and Hebrew. Students who do not have the appropriate Hebrew and Greek courses at the Master of Divinity level will also be required to take the prerequisite Hebrew and Greek courses as necessary (OT101–OT102, NT101–NT103).

Students who have had Hebrew or Greek at the MDiv level will need to pass a Hebrew or Greek proficiency exam before enrolling in OT103 or NT103. Failure to pass the exams will require the student to enroll in first-year language courses. Prerequisite courses in Hebrew or Greek, if required, will not count toward the 32-hour requirement for the STM degree. (See Admission Requirements above.)

• Transfer up to 6 credit hours from accredited graduate theological schools is allowed under certain circumstances. Consult the Registrar’s office for further information.

The program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree is open to those who have graduated from a standard three-year seminary program and hold the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent. The STM is designed for those who desire greater competency in a specific area of study in the biblical, theological, and ministry disciplines, in support of Christian service or for advanced theological study.

Purpose:
The program leading to the Master of Sacred Theology degree is open to those who have graduated from a standard three-year seminary program and hold the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent. The STM is designed for those who desire greater competency in a specific area of study in the biblical, theological, and ministry disciplines, in support of Christian service or for advanced theological study.
Course Requirements

The STM degree normally requires 32 semester hours of coursework. Students pursuing this degree individually customize their program for their intended ministry goals by selecting courses from one of the following departments of choice (selected in conjunction with Academic Advising): Biblical Counseling, Bible Exposition, Educational Ministries and Leadership, Historical Theology, Media Arts and Worship, Pastoral Ministries, Systematic Theology, or World Missions.

Required Courses

Divisions of Biblical and Theological Studies 15
OT103* Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I (3)
NT104* Introduction to New Testament Exegesis (3)
ST101 Theological Method and Bibliology (3)
HT200 History of Doctrine (3)

or
PM103 Expository Preaching I (3)

Departmental Courses 11
RS102 Senior Research Seminar (2)
Courses in Selected Department (9)

Total STM Ministry Track hours 32

* STM students intending to apply to the PhD program at DIS must include OT104 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction II, and NT105 Exegesis of Romans.

Admission to Candidacy

Students may be admitted to candidacy by action of the faculty for the STM degree in the fall or spring semester prior to the semester/term of degree conferral or the semester prior to their participation in the Commencement ceremony after these requirements have been met: (1) grade point average of 2.5; (2) evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, of proven Christian character and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ; (3) provision of a written statement of church involvement from the local church regularly attended while in seminary; and (4) provision of a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Admission to candidacy is valid for one year. Students who postpone degree conferral beyond one year from original admission to candidacy or who postpone participation in the Commencement ceremony until the following spring will be required to reapply for admission to candidacy.

Graduation Requirements

Candidates for the STM degree must have completed the required 32 semester hours of coursework with a grade point average of at least 2.5, and must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, proven Christian character, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be released, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or student loan program are current.
DOCTOR OF MINISTRY (DMIN)

The DMin program is offered “in ministry” rather than “in residence,” as it assumes students will remain in ministry throughout the program and does not require them to relocate to Dallas. It normally requires a minimum of three years of meaningful ministry experience. Each course assumes this ministry experience and endeavors to integrate learning with the student’s present context of ministry as well as future goals.

One of the most inviting features of the DMin at DTS is that the curriculum is designed with a high degree of flexibility. Of the 27 hours of coursework required for the degree, only 6 hours are prescribed so that students may tailor their programs to their own ministry goals. Three additional hours are granted for the student’s applied research project, which the student reports in the dissertation.

Goals

Educational Goals

To enable students to:

• evaluate their own personal, spiritual, and professional development;
• assess and construct biblical ministries in a variety of contemporary contexts;
• conduct biblically and theologically integrated professional applied research within their chosen field of study;
• manifest a maturing and Spirit-filled character;
• enhance identified ministerial skills such as preaching, leadership, administration, counseling, spiritual formation, educational programming, and communication;
• communicate God’s Word effectively through preaching, teaching, writing, or other media; and
• contribute to the practice of ministry for greater local church and parachurch effectiveness.

Admission Requirements

The DMin program admits men and women who show evidence that they (1) are born again; (2) are of proven Christian character; (3) are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and (4) adhere to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

In addition, the following prerequisites apply to DMin applicants.
All applicants must:

- normally have at least three years of vocational or bivocational Christian ministry experience since receiving their first graduate theological degree;
- give evidence of growth and competence in ministerial skills and leadership;
- be involved in an ongoing ministry (including lay ministry);
- have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies; and
- hold an accredited Master of Divinity (MDiv), Master of Theology (ThM) degree, or a Master of Arts (MA) degree plus leveling courses as necessary to provide MDiv equivalence. Prerequisite degrees and/or equivalence must include:
  - a minimum of 90 semester hours of credit (80 hours for selected DTS master’s degrees) and
  - four semesters of Greek and two semesters of Hebrew. (If a student has only three semesters of Greek, he or she may take ID201 Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis in lieu of the fourth semester of Greek. For selected DTS master’s degrees the student needs only ID201 Computer Tools for Biblical Exegesis in lieu of Greek and Hebrew.)

Credits needed to meet MDiv equivalence requirements must cover the breadth and scope of DTS’s curriculum and commitment to Scripture as prescribed by the DMin office and the Registrar’s office. Courses required for MDiv equivalence may be earned at DTS, its extension sites, through external studies programs, or other accredited institutions. For more information on MDiv equivalence, please contact the Doctor of Ministry office or the Registrar’s office.

Applicants must supply the requisite written admission materials and must have a personal or phone interview with members of the faculty. Prospective DMin students may apply for admission at any time. The deadline for the summer seminar is January 15 and for the winter seminar, June 1. Further details on admission requirements and procedures are available from the Admissions office.

DMin Program Overview

The Doctor of Ministry program offers two tracks of study: Ministry Leadership and Spanish Ministry Leadership. Students may select different emphases within each of the two tracks. While the DMin program generally follows a standard model in which students, in consultation with their advisor, design and customize their degree plan around individual ministry needs and goals, some emphases follow a cohort model. In the cohort model, students proceed through the courses necessary for their emphasis with a small group of ministry colleagues. This group moves through the designated part of the program together. The cohort model has the advantage of providing a community experience with fellow learners and faculty mentors.

Ministry Leadership Track

This Ministry Leadership Track is designed to equip students for greater ministry effectiveness in their respective areas of leadership. Ministry leaders can concentrate their individualized plan of study in Church Planting, Expository Preaching, Pastoral Leadership, Marriage and Family, Spiritual Formation, Multicultural Ministry, Women in Ministry, or customize their own concentration. The Ministry Leadership track also offers the following cohort emphases.

- Advanced Expository Preaching

  This emphasis provides advanced training in the art and discipline of expository preaching as practiced in a church context. This specialty will reaffirm and refine the principles of homiletics. The courses will also address leading from the pulpit, long-range sermon planning, and preaching the major biblical genres with accuracy and creativity. This cohort-based program will further provide advanced study in audience analysis, variety in sermon structures, mentoring in homiletics and preaching to the post-modern generation. Key aspects of this cohort specialty are peer group interactive learning and individual mentoring in homiletics.

- Church Health, Leadership, and Multiplication

  This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for church pastors and church planters. It focuses on an evaluation of problems, programs and/or procedures unique to church leaders through case-study methodology, with special attention given to church health, leadership development, and ministry multiplication.
Executive/Associate Pastors
This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for executive and associate pastors serving in the local church. This training specialty supports and promotes pastoral leadership development through the evaluation of problems, programs, and/or procedures unique to executive and associate church leaders. Attention is given to leadership development and case-study research methodology.

Pastors of Large Churches
This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for pastors serving in large churches. It is designed to support and promote pastoral leadership development through the evaluation of problems, programs and/or procedures unique to pastors of large churches. Attention is given to leadership development and case-study research method.

Ministry Leadership in International Contexts
This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for those ministering in international contexts. This cohort focuses on pastoral and parachurch leadership issues, and challenges and opportunities unique to ministry abroad.

Multicultural Ministry
This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for multicultural church leaders serving the local church and parachurch organizations. This cohort program is designed to help ministry leaders through a study of the principles, leadership issues, challenges, and opportunities uniquely confronting multicultural church leaders with the goal of helping students take their ministry to the next level. Attention is given to leadership development and case-study research method. This cohort is hosted at the DTS-Houston campus.

Marriage and Family Ministry
This emphasis explores biblical and theological foundations, cutting edge programs, and ministry education strategies. Certification in the use of research-based tools for marriage and family educators will be included. A major focus will be to design sustainable, context-specific marriage and family ministries, particularly in the church.

Spiritual Formation
This emphasis provides advanced training in Christian spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. Special attention will be given to the theology and history of Christian spirituality, personal and corporate practices of spiritual formation, and the process of providing spiritual nurture and guidance to others. This cohort-based program will further provide advanced study on such topics related to the history and practice of soul care, spiritual direction, and spiritual formation in small groups.

Women in Ministry
This emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for women. It is designed to support and promote the complementary role of men and women in ministry.

Spanish Ministry Leadership Track
The Spanish Ministry Leadership track is designed to equip Spanish-speaking students for greater ministry effectiveness in their respective areas of leadership. This program of study is offered on the campus of Seminario Teológico Centroamericano (SETECA) in Guatemala City for leaders in Latin America, Spain, North America, and elsewhere.

DMin Extension Programs
The seminary offers DMin classes in two locations outside the Dallas area: Guatemala City, Guatemala and Houston, Texas. These extension sites are designed to provide greater access to DMin studies for interested students.

The DMin extension in Guatemala City is the seminary’s Spanish language DMin program for leaders in Latin America, Spain,
North America, and elsewhere. The week of residence is offered on the campus of the Seminario Teológico Centroamericano (SETECA) in Guatemala City. The courses offered in the Spanish DMin program are the same as those offered in Dallas, but are contextualized for the Spanish-speaking world. Interested students should contact the DMin office for more information.

The Houston campus is designed to make the DTS DMin degree more accessible to students living in the larger Houston metroplex. Any DMin student may take courses at the extension site; international students entering the United States on an F-1 student visa are required to take all DMin courses at the Dallas campus.

National Certifications
Presently, three national certification programs are offered for DMin students in cooperation with the following partnership organizations.
1. Christian Conciliator, Peacemaker Ministries
2. Sexual Educator, Institute for Sexual Wholeness
3. Sexual Abuse Awareness, MinistrySafe
Contact the DMin and Counseling offices for more information.

Course Requirements
The DMin program requires 27 semester hours of coursework (which includes from 21 to 24 hours of prescribed and elective courses and from 3 to 6 hours of independent study courses) plus a 3-hour applied research project related to the student’s ministry. The program normally requires at least four years of study.

Normally, three prescribed courses must be taken by all DMin students: DM101 The Ministry Leader, DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar, and DM103 The Applied Research Project. Some cohorts fuse the leadership and/or research components into the selected cohort. In addition, students normally complete at least one independent study course, DM901 Independent Study. Course descriptions for these and other DMin courses may be found in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All courses are six months in length and include one or two weeks of residence in either January or July. Classes meet on the main campus, the Houston campus, or at the Guatemala site. (See the Special Programs and Sessions section for more information on these two sites.) During the pre-resident months, students read and interact with course material. After the course meets for the resident week, students complete assignments that are appropriate for their ministry. DTS alumni are allowed to audit the resident portion of a course as space permits. Registration for summer DMin courses must be completed by March 15, and registration for winter DMin courses must be completed by September 15. Electives in the various areas of concentration are listed in the Course Descriptions section of this catalog.

All work leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree must be completed in no less than three and no more than six years from the time of matriculation. A minimal grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the applied research project.

Additional information on DMin policies and procedures is given in the Doctor of Ministry Handbook, which is available on the DTS website.

Transfer of Credit
Transfer of credit for the DMin may not exceed 10 credit hours. Doctoral-level credit completed at another accredited institution may be applied toward the DMin degree if those hours constitute equivalent work. Normally only courses taken after receiving an MA, MDiv, ThM, STM, or equivalent degree can be credited toward the DMin degree.
The training and courses completed in the Basic and Advanced Chaplaincy programs of the US Army or equivalent training and courses completed as a chaplain in other branches of the US Military may be transferred for up to 10 hours of credit toward a DMin degree at Dallas Theological Seminary.

Requests for transfer of credit should be directed to the director of DMin studies. Plans to take other courses for transfer credit must be approved by the DMin committee prior to taking the course.

Admission to Candidacy

Students may be admitted to candidacy for the DMin degree by action of the faculty only after these requirements have been met: (1) completion of all residence requirements leading to the degree; (2) the satisfactory completion of a minimum of 21 semester hours of coursework; (3) evidence of proven Christian character; (4) effectiveness in Christian ministry; and (5) adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students applying to candidacy for the DMin degree must also provide a written letter of reference from the local church or organization where the student is serving, endorsing the student’s ministry as well as a personal reference from another source.

Students must be admitted to candidacy before they can register for DM103 The Applied Research Project. Six of the 9 hours that remain for completion of the degree can be taken concurrently with DM103 (3 hours).

Applied Research Project Requirements

The applied research project is the student’s major research project in the degree program. It must be directly related to his or her ministry and must make a significant contribution to the field of professional ministry as well as to the student’s personal life. The project normally should deal with some aspect of communication, administration, nurture, leadership, or Christian education. The length is to be appropriate for the subject as judged by the student’s advisors.

If the applied research project is not completed within the first year after enrolling in DM103, then the student will be required to register for DM105 Applied Research Continuation each summer and winter term until project completion.

Details on the procedures and deadlines for the topic approval, proposal, and first and final drafts of the applied research project are available in the Doctor of Ministry office as well as in the DMin Handbook.

Graduation Requirements

Candidates for the DMin degree must have completed 27 semester hours of coursework and the 3-hour applied research project along with any other requirements that may have been assigned. The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify a student for the degree. The candidate must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the previous Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or the student loan program are current.
The Doctor of Educational Ministry degree is the highest professional degree for those engaged in local church and parachurch ministries, world missions, and similar educational ministries. (By contrast, the DMin degree focuses on advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry primarily in the context of the local church, and the PhD degree purposes primarily to equip students to engage in scholarly research and teaching.) The DEdMin program is offered “in ministry” rather than “in residence,” as it assumes students will remain in ministry throughout the program and does not require them to relocate to Dallas. It normally requires a minimum of three years of meaningful ministry experience prior to admission to the program. Each course assumes this ministry experience and endeavors to integrate learning with the student’s present context of ministry as well as future goals.

One of the most inviting features of the DEdMin at DTS is that the curriculum is designed with a high degree of flexibility. Of the 39 hours of coursework required for the degree, at least 15 hours are provided for students to customize their programs to their own ministry goals. Three hours are granted for the student’s applied research project and 3 hours are given to directed reading leading to a literature review the student reports in the dissertation project.

Goals

Students in the DEdMin will be able to:

- evaluate their own personal, spiritual, and professional development;
- assess and construct biblical, educational ministries in a variety of contemporary contexts;
- conduct biblically and theologically integrated professional applied research within their chosen field of study;
- manifest a maturing and Spirit-filled character;
- enhance identified ministerial skills such as teaching, leadership, administration, counseling, spiritual formation, educational programming, and communication; and
- contribute to the practice of educational ministry for greater local church and parachurch effectiveness.

Admission Requirements

The DEdMin program admits men and women who show evidence that they (1) are born again; (2) are of proven Christian character; (3) are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and (4) adhere to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.
In addition, the following prerequisites apply to DEdMin applicants. All applicants must:

- normally have at least three years of vocational or bivocational Christian ministry experience;
- give evidence of growth and competence in educational ministerial skills and leadership;
- be involved in an ongoing educational ministry (including lay ministry);
- have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies; and
- hold a Dallas Theological Seminary’s Master of Arts in Christian Education (MACE) or its equivalent, Master of Divinity (MDiv), Master of Theology (ThM), or a Master of Arts (MA) degree plus leveling courses as necessary to provide DTS MACE equivalence.

Courses needed to meet the DTS MACE equivalence requirements must cover the breadth and scope of DTS’s curriculum and commitment to Scripture as prescribed by the DMin/DEdMin office and the Registrar’s office. Courses required for MACE equivalence may be earned at DTS, its extension sites, through external studies programs, or other accredited institutions. For more information on MACE equivalence, please contact the Doctor of Ministry office.

TOTAL PROGRAM HOURS: 39

* While a cohort normally consists of 18 hours, we often build the Research Seminar into the cohort rotation. This normally allows the student an additional elective in their program.

The Doctor of Educational Ministry (DEdMin) is designed to encourage students in their ministry journey and to further equip them to effectively minister in today’s world.

Distance Model

Students stay in their current ministry and come to campus 1 or 2 weeks out of the year.

Educationally Driven

Designed for an MACE or equivalent degree working in educational ministries.

Customized Approach

Work with a like-minded small group (Cohort) or one-on-one with a mentor.

General Approach

The general program allows students to pursue a flexible, individualized plan of study with the guidance of a faculty advisor. This program empowers students to design and customize their course map around their core ministry needs, goals, and interests.

DEdMin Process and Details

The heart of the DEdMin is flexibility and personalization. To begin, students will create an overall plan of study. This plan may emphasize one of several areas such as Advanced Academic Ministry, Educational Leadership, Marriage and Family Ministry, Spiritual Formation, or Women in Ministry. Students may also design a degree plan with a varied approach. That plan, which is evaluated annually, originates from individual goals and an assessment of the perceived strengths and limitations of each student.
Applicants must supply the requisite written admission materials and must have a personal or phone interview with members of the faculty. Prospective DEEdMin students may apply for admission at any time. The deadline for the summer seminar is January 15 and for the winter seminar, June 1. Further details on admission requirements and procedures are available from the Admissions office.

DEdMin Program Overview

The Doctor of Educational Ministry program generally follows a standard model in which students, in consultation with their advisor, design and customize their degree plan around individual ministry needs and goals. Some emphases follow a cohort model. In the cohort model, students proceed through the courses necessary for their emphasis with a small group of ministry colleagues. This group moves through the designated part of the program together. The cohort model has the advantage of providing a community experience with fellow learners and faculty mentors.

Cohort Emphases

The Doctor of Educational Ministry is designed to equip students for greater ministry effectiveness in church and parachurch educational leadership roles. Ministry leaders can concentrate their individualized plan of study in Advanced Academic Ministry, Educational Leadership, Marriage and Family Ministry, Spiritual Formation, or Women in Ministry, or a customized concentration. The DEdMin also offers the following cohort emphases.

- Advanced Academic Ministry
  This cohort-based emphasis provides advanced training unique to academic ministry leadership. The major focus of this program includes teaching in Christian institutions, administration in Christian education, curriculum design, creativity, and current issues in teaching and education.

- Chinese Educational Ministry Leadership
  This cohort-based emphasis provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented educational ministry for those ministering in Chinese-speaking communities throughout the world. This cohort focuses on church and parachurch educational ministry leadership issues, challenges, and opportunities unique to ministry in the Chinese culture.

- Marriage and Family Ministry
  This cohort-based emphasis explores biblical and theological foundations, cutting-edge programs, and ministry education strategies. Certification in the use of research-based tools for marriage and family educators will be included. A major focus will be to design sustainable, context-specific marriage and family ministries, particularly in the church.

- Spiritual Formation
  This cohort-based emphasis provides advanced training in Christian spiritual formation for ministry practitioners. Special attention will be given to the theology and history of Christian spirituality, personal and corporate practices of spiritual formation, and the process of providing spiritual nurture and guidance to others. This cohort-based program will further provide advanced study on topics related to the history and practice of soul care, spiritual direction, and spiritual formation in small groups.

- Women in Ministry
  This cohort-based Christian Education program provides advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for women. It is designed to support and promote the complementary role of men and women in ministry.

National Certifications

Presently, the following three national certification programs are offered for DEdMin students in cooperation with the following partnership organizations:

- Christian Conciliator, Peacemaker Ministries
- Sexual Educator, Institute for Sexual Wholeness
- Sexual Abuse Awareness, MinistrySafe

Contact the DMin/DEdMin and Counseling offices for more information.

Course Requirements

The DEdMin program requires 39 semester hours, 36 of which are coursework (including 30 to 33 hours of prescribed and elective courses and 3 to 6 hours of independent study courses) plus a 3-hour applied research project related to the student’s ministry. The program normally requires at least four years of study.

Normally, eight prescribed courses must be taken by all DEdMin students: DE302 History and Philosophy of Christian Education (required for those students who have not taken an equivalent course at the masters level), DM102 Applied Research Project Development Seminar, DM103 The Applied Research Project, and seven electives.
Transfer of Credit
Transfer of up to 10 hours of doctoral-level credit may be applied toward the DEdMin degree if those hours constitute equivalent work. Normally only courses taken after receiving an MA, MDiv, ThM, STM, or equivalent degree can be credited toward the DEdMin degree. Requests for transfer of credit should be sent to the director of DMin/DEdMin studies. Plans to take other courses for transfer credit must be approved by the DMin/DEdMin committee prior to taking the course.

Admission to Candidacy
Students may be admitted to candidacy for the DEdMin degree by action of the faculty only after these requirements have been met: (1) completion of all residency requirements leading to the degree; (2) the satisfactory completion of a minimum of 21 semester hours of coursework; (3) evidence of proven Christian character; (4) effectiveness in Christian ministry; and (5) adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students applying to candidacy for the DEdMin degree must also provide a written letter of reference from the local church or organization where the student is serving, endorsing the student’s ministry.

Students must be admitted to candidacy before they can register for DM103 The Applied Research Project. Three of the 6 hours that remain for completion of the degree can be taken concurrently with DM103 (3 hours).

Applied Research Project Requirements
The applied research project is the student’s major research project in the degree program. It must be directly related to his or her ministry and must make a significant contribution to the field of professional ministry as well as to the student’s personal life. The project normally should deal with some aspect of educational ministry related to communication, administration, nurture, or program leadership. The length is to be appropriate for the subject as judged by the student’s advisors.

If the applied research project is not completed within the first year after enrolling in DM103, then the student will be required to register for DM105 Applied Research Continuation each summer and winter term until project completion.

Details on the procedures and deadlines for the topic approval, proposal, and first and final drafts of the applied research project are available in the Doctor of Ministry office as well as in the DEdMin handbook.

Graduation Requirements
Candidates for the DEdMin degree must have completed 36 semester hours of coursework and the 3-hour applied research project along with any other requirements that may have been assigned. The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify a student for the degree. The candidate must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability, and acceptability in Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the previous Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or the student loan program are current.
Goals

Educational Goals
To enable students to:
• develop skills of critical thinking and reflection;
• acquire a suitable mastery of the content of their chosen field of study;
• evaluate major issues and scholarly views within their academic discipline;
• engage in reliable independent research, using relevant primary and secondary sources; and
• contribute to biblical and theological research.

Spiritual Goal
To enable students to:
• manifest traits of personal integrity, character, and spirituality.

Ministry Goals
To enable students to:
• communicate effectively through writing and teaching and
• demonstrate ability and acceptability for Christian ministry.

Admission Requirements
Applicants must (1) hold or be completing the final semester of coursework for the Master of Divinity degree (MDiv), Master of Theology degree (ThM), or Master of Sacred Theology (STM) degree; (2) have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability; (3) complete the psychological assessment (arranged with the Director of Counseling Services); (4) satisfactorily pass a written examination in the field of their intended major and an oral examination of their Christian experience, scholarship, theology, achievement, and purpose; and (5) show evidence that they
• have saving faith in Christ;
• are of proven Christian character;
• are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts; and
• adhere to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Applications for the doctoral program must be received by the Admissions office by January 1 for admission the following fall semester or by September 1 for admission the following spring semester. Supporting materials (e.g., references, transcripts) completed psychological assessment) must be received by January 15 and September 15, respectively. The completed applications are then considered for preliminary acceptance by the faculty of the appropriate academic department and by the PhD Studies Committee.

Depending on their prior academic preparation, students enter the PhD program either at Stage 1 or Stage 2. Applicants entering at Stage 1 must have attained a bachelor’s degree (BA, BS, etc.) and the Master of Divinity degree (MDiv) or their educational equivalents. For purposes of admission to Stage 1 of the PhD program, an MDiv degree is understood to be a minimum of three years of full-time study (approximately 90 semester hours). Applicants must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies. In the absence of a master’s thesis, applicants must provide a research paper previously written at the master’s level that shows an acceptable level of competency in research and writing. After completing Stage 1, applicants must complete requirements for entrance into Stage 2.

Applicants entering at Stage 2, in addition to a bachelor’s degree, must have attained the Master of Theology degree (ThM) or Master of Sacred Theology degree (STM) or their educational equivalents. For purposes of admission to Stage 2 of the PhD program, the ThM or STM degree must be a minimum of one year of full-time study (approximately 30 semester hours), or in the case of DTS graduates, the four-year ThM degree. Applicants entering at Stage 2 must give evidence either by transcript or by examination of at least two years of study in biblical Hebrew and two-and-a-half years of study in New Testament Greek. Any deficiencies in these areas must be made up without credit in the PhD program. Applicants must have an academic record that demonstrates superior ability and shows promise of success in doctoral studies. Applicants must also present an acceptable master’s thesis. In lieu of a master’s thesis, Stage 2 applicants may submit a research paper previously produced for a graduate-level course. This paper should demonstrate research skill in one’s academic discipline, clarity of organization, logical presentation, attention to detail, and writing ability at a level suitable for entrance to a PhD program.

Course Requirements

Students in the PhD program may major in either the Division of Biblical Studies or the Division of Theological Studies. For students admitted with only the MDiv degree, the program requires two stages. Stage 1 consists of 26 semester hours of coursework (see chart below), and Stage 2 requires an additional 35 hours of doctoral work. Students with the ThM or STM degree must complete only Stage 2 of the program, or 35 semester hours of coursework, involving at least three semesters of study.

Qualifying exams for Stage 2 assume completion of the 26 hours of Stage 1. However, students are eligible for exams for Stage 2 during their final semester before completion of Stage 1 if they are making satisfactory progress on the thesis. Qualifying exams for Stage 2 must be completed successfully before continuing in the doctoral program. Students may attempt the Stage 2 qualifying exams a maximum of two times.

Stage 1 requirements for students admitted with the MDiv degree consist of 26 hours of coursework. The student is required to pass a proficiency exam in Greek grammar and syntax, complete NT104 and NT105 (6 hours), pass a proficiency exam in Hebrew grammar and syntax, and complete OT103 and OT104 (6 hours). The student must also complete a major of 11 hours in a Biblical Studies or Theological Studies department, and complete either EML215 or EML230/WM410 (3 hours). After completion of the 26 hours of Stage 1, the student must pass the PhD written and oral qualifying exams.

Stage 1 courses are master’s-level courses with increased requirements consistent with the demands of doctoral study.

Stage 2 requirements for all doctoral students are as follows.

All Biblical Studies majors are required to take 9 hours of coursework in designated divisional courses. Students must take BS1001 Old Testament Backgrounds (3 hours), BS1002 New Testament Backgrounds (2 hours), BS1003 Hermeneutics (3 hours), and BS1004 Research Procedures (1 hour). In addition to these required divisional courses, students in Biblical Studies also must satisfy the requirements of their concentration, whether Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, or Bible Exposition.
The following guidelines for completion of elective courses apply.

- Each student is required to take two electives outside the concentration but within the Biblical Studies division—one from each of the two departments in which he or she is not concentrating. These courses are selected in consultation with the respective departments and with consideration of the student’s background and needs. At the student’s request, exceptions to this requirement may be considered jointly by the department coordinators in the Biblical Studies division.
- Remaining elective hours should be selected in consultation with the student’s departmental advisor.

For a concentration in Old Testament Studies, students must take OT1001 Old Testament Criticism (2 hours), OT1002 Historical Hebrew Grammar (3 hours), OT1003 Advanced Old Testament Biblical Theology (2 hours), and two of the following three exegetical courses: OT1004 Exegesis in the Torah (3 hours), OT1005 Exegesis in the Prophets (3 hours), and OT1006 Exegesis in the Writings (3 hours). Students also must take either OT2020 Introduction to Akkadian (3 hours) or OT2030 Introduction to Ugaritic (3 hours), 7 hours of electives, and OT1008 Old Testament Dissertation (3 hours). See the following chart for further details.

TS1008 Theological Studies Dissertation 3

Doctoral students are required to demonstrate ability to read scholarly French and German. Information on the dates when the examinations in these languages must be taken is given in the Doctor of Philosophy Handbook.

Only courses taken after receiving the prerequisite degree (MDiv, ThM, or STM) can be credited toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Normally work done in other institutions may not be credited toward Stage 2 of the PhD degree. A minimum grade of B- must be received in every course credited toward graduation and also on the dissertation.

Residential Requirements
The program normally includes at least three years of study, a minimum two years of which must be spent in residence in Dallas. All work leading to the PhD degree must be completed within eight years from the time of matriculation.

STM Completion
Students who fail the qualifying exams on completion of Stage 1 of the PhD program may choose to complete the STM degree by finishing any requirements that remain for that degree (see the STM degree program section of this catalog). In most cases, this will require only 6 more hours of coursework.

Students may transfer a maximum of 6 hours into the STM program, even if additional transfer was considered toward Stage 1 requirements of the PhD program. Additional information on STM completion is available from the Advising Center.

Admission to Candidacy
Students may be admitted to candidacy for the PhD degree by action of the faculty only after (1) completing all residence requirements leading to the degree; (2) passing written and oral examinations in the fields within the major; (3) meeting foreign language requirements and (4) evidencing, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability, and acceptability for Christian ministry, and adherence to the following doctrines: the authority and inerrancy of Scripture, the Trinity, the full deity and humanity of Christ, the spiritual lostness of the human race, the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ, salvation by faith alone in Christ alone, and the physical return of Christ.

Students in the PhD program also must provide a written letter of church involvement from the local church the student has regularly attended while in seminary and a reference form completed by a pastor or spiritual overseer.

Dissertation Requirements
Students must register for and complete a dissertation of between 50,000 and 75,000 words on an approved subject. Details on the procedures and deadlines for the dissertation subject proposal, syllabus, first and final drafts, and oral defense are given in the Doctor of Philosophy Handbook.

Graduation Requirements
Candidates in the PhD program must have completed 61 semester hours of coursework (35 for students entering with a ThM or STM degree), including dissertation and any other requirements that may have been assigned.

The completion of minimum requirements does not automatically qualify students for the degree. They must evidence, to the satisfaction of the faculty, proven Christian character, ability and acceptability for Christian ministry, and adherence to the doctrines stated in the Admission to Candidacy section.

Diplomas will not be awarded, transcripts issued, or placement assistance provided unless all financial obligations to the seminary and/or the student loan program are current.
Admission Process

• Stage 1
  - Application form
  - Psychological Assessment
  - Approval by the PhD Studies Committee

• Stage 2
  - Application form

• Oral comprehensive exam (within 15 days of completion of written exams)
• Submit application for admission to candidacy to the Registrar’s office

Dissertation and Graduation

All submissions of dissertation material must be registered with the PhD Studies Office. The dates within the following parentheses indicate the dates of submissions in relation to graduation—the first date is for May graduation, the second is for August graduation, and the third is for December graduation.

• Register for the dissertation course
• File the syllabus
• Meet with the dissertation committee
• Submit the first two chapters (September 15, January 1, or May 1)
• Submit the entire first draft (December 1, March 15, or July 15)
• Meet with the dissertation committee for the oral defense of the dissertation (on or before February 15, May 30, or September 30)
• Submit the preliminary final draft (March 15, July 1, or November 1)
• Submit the final draft (April 15, August 1, or December 1) and pay the filing fee at the PhD Studies Office
• Publish the dissertation through University Microfilms International
“The faculty at DTS want to see you succeed. If you ever have any issues, they want you to call, talk with them, walk you through the process.”
The following section is intended to guide students in course planning and selection. Required courses are offered on a regular basis. Courses are often offered according to the curriculum chart for each program in the Academic Programs section of this catalog. Elective courses are generally offered on a rotating basis. For more information on elective course offerings in a given academic year, contact the respective department. For assistance with degree planning, contact the Advising Center.
Orientation and Research Courses

ThM students are responsible to demonstrate competence in research by satisfactorily completing either (1) a ThM thesis in an academic department of their choosing or (2) a 2-hour research seminar culminating in a written thesis-style research project. All ThM students are required to register for RS101 (or AS101 for students in the Accelerated ThM) and either RS102 or a thesis.

RS100 Research Seminar for International Students
The Faculty
This course prepares international students for academic success through instruction on the research process, research strategies, thesis topic selection, formatting, academic cultural differences, computerized databases, and bibliographic resources. Attention is given to research writing, communication, documentation, and cultural adaptation. The course is required for incoming international students and is a substitute for RS101 Orientation and Research Methods. 1 hour.

RS101 Orientation and Research Methods
The Faculty
This course is designed to guide students in the use of library materials, computerized databases, and bibliographic resources. It provides instruction in research strategies, thesis-topic selection, and familiarization with form and style for papers and theses. In addition, this course provides an orientation to the educational philosophy of biblical, theological, and ministry-related studies at DTS. 1 hour.

RS102 Senior Research Seminar
The Faculty
The seminar provides guidance for advanced research methods and an opportunity for writing a summative research paper within the ThM degree program. Prerequisites: RS101 Orientation and Research Methods and Satisfactory completion of 90 hours in the ThM program. 2 hours.

RS103 Summative Research Project
The Faculty
This course will guide the student in the selection and writing of a research project on an approved topic under the supervision of a faculty advisor and an approved second reader. Prerequisite: RS101 Orientation and Research Methods. 1 hour.

Advanced Standing Courses

The following courses are required for students in the Accelerated ThM and MA programs. Students in the Accelerated ThM will take AS101–AS106. Students in the Accelerated MA program will take AS103–AS106. For students in the Accelerated ThM, AS101 is a pre- or corequisite for AS103. For Students in the Accelerated MA, BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics is a pre- or corequisite for AS103 and AS104.
AS101 Seminar on Practical Theology, Hermeneutics, and Research
The Department
A study of key practices and passages related to Practical Theology and Hermeneutics, with discussion on research procedures. Enrollment is limited to students in the Accelerated Advanced Standing program and requires the consent of the Advanced Standing Committee. 3 hours.

AS102 Seminar on Educational Process of the Church and World Missions
The Department
A study of key issues and practices related to the educational ministry of the local church and the biblical meaning and purpose of missions at home and abroad. Attention is given to developing the educational cycle, as well as to the influence of culture on ministry. Enrollment is limited to students in the Accelerated Advanced Standing program and requires the consent of the Advanced Standing Committee. 3 hours.

AS103 Seminar on the Old Testament
The Department
A select exposition of the Old Testament books, with emphasis on critical issues, biblical theology, genre, and application. Enrollment is limited to students in the Accelerated Advanced Standing program and requires the consent of the Advanced Standing Committee. Prerequisite: AS101 Seminar on Practical Theology, Hermeneutics, and Research or Corequisite: AS101 Seminar on Practical Theology, Hermeneutics, and Research and BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics for MA students. 3 hours.

AS104 Seminar on the New Testament
The Department
A select exposition of the New Testament books, with emphasis on critical issues, biblical theology, genre, and application. Enrollment is limited to students in the Accelerated Advanced Standing program and requires the consent of the Advanced Standing Committee. Prerequisite or Corequisite: AS101 Seminar on Practical Theology, Hermeneutics, and Research and BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics for MA students. 3 hours.

AS105 Seminar on God, Creation, Humanity, and Sin
The Department
A biblical, historical, and systematic study of the seminal issues in trinitarianism, angelology, anthropology, and hamartiology. Enrollment is limited to students in the Accelerated Advanced Standing program and requires the consent of the Advanced Standing Committee. Prerequisite: ST101 Theological Method and Bibliology. 3 hours.

AS106 Seminar on Salvation, Sanctification, and the Church
The Department
A biblical, historical, and systematic study of the seminal issues in soteriology, sanctification, and ecclesiology. Enrollment is limited to students in the Accelerated Advanced Standing program and requires the consent of the Advanced Standing Committee. Prerequisite: ST101 Theological Method and Bibliology. 3 hours.

Spiritual Formation
All students in the ThM, MACE, MACL, MACM, MAMW, and MACS degree programs are required to enroll in SF100. Though the Spiritual Formation courses do not grant academic credit, they will appear on students' transcripts and are required for graduation. Students who have completed portions of their required coursework online or at extension sites, and who are therefore unable to spend two full academic years in residence in Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC must contact the Spiritual Formation office and apply for an alternative program for completing their Spiritual Formation requirement. This alternative program will take a minimum of one calendar year to complete; therefore the responsibility lies with the student to contact the Spiritual Formation office in a timely manner. Internship prerequisites include progress or completion of SF100. MA students must complete at least SF100-1 and ThM students must successfully complete the four-part sequence of SF100 prior to internship enrollment.

The four-semester SF100 course must be taken over four consecutive fall/spring semesters. MACS (Chinese language only) students will take SF110 for two consecutive semesters, and MABEL students are required to take only one year of Spiritual Formation—SF245. At the beginning of the fall semester at the Dallas, Houston, or Washington, DC campus, each new student is placed in a Spiritual Formation group that meets together for four consecutive fall and spring semesters and is led by a qualified leader/facilitator. Groups are designated as follows:

- Men only: single and married* male students;
- Women only: single and married* female students;
- Married* couples only: married students whose spouses wish to join them in the Spiritual Formation process. The spouse will fully participate in the two-year course along with the student receiving credit.

* Spouses of registered students are STRONGLY encouraged to join their spouses in a married couple’s group. If a student’s spouse wishes not to take part in the Spiritual Formation group, the registered student must sign up for a men’s or women’s group.

SF100 Spiritual Formation
The Department
This course challenges students in the following key areas: Identity, Community, Integrity, and Fidelity. These subjects will be addressed over four consecutive fall/spring semesters in the context of a Spiritual Formation group and through a series of projects. The goal is to equip the student for future ministry and service through the exploration of these four key concepts through practical application in community with other students. Transcripted as a noncredit academic requirement.
SF100 Spiritual Formation
The Department
This course challenges students over the course of two consecutive semesters to interact with the concepts of Identity, Community, Integrity, and Fidelity through a one-on-one mentoring relationship and through a series of projects. This course is available by department approval only to extension students who are unable to complete the traditional SF100 program at one of the approved sites. Transcribed as a noncredit academic requirement.

SF205 Spiritual Formation
The Department
This 2-consecutive-semester course challenges students to focus on the personal and ministry implications of issues related to identity, community, integrity, and fidelity through a series of lectures, workshops, projects, and group experiences. In addition to the regularly scheduled meeting time, the course will begin with a mandatory retreat at the beginning of the fall semester and conclude with another mandatory retreat at the end of the spring semester. This course is available by departmental approval and serves as a substitute for the two-year SF100 Spiritual Formation requirement.

SF245 MABEL Spiritual Formation
The Department
This 2-consecutive-semester course focuses on building community through an understanding of and appreciation for God’s sovereign and gracious work in the student’s life. It is an orientation uniquely suited to a cross-cultural experience. This course may not be taken as a substitute for SF100. Required of and limited to MA (Biblical Exegesis and Linguistics) students. Transcribed as a noncredit academic requirement, Fall/Spring, consecutive semesters.

Elective Courses

Spiritual Formation group leadership electives cannot be used to fulfill the Educational Ministries and Leadership elective requirement for students in the MA(Christian Studies) program.

SF203 Spiritual Formation III (Integrity)
The Department
This course challenges students to examine the personal and corporate implications of sin and grace in their lives. The Life Change Exercises are the primary resource used in developing integrity in the lives of group members. This course must be taken concurrently with the third semester of SF100. 1 hour.

SF204 Spiritual Formation IV (Fidelity)
The Department
This course challenges students to implement their divine design in pursuing Christlikeness in every area of life. The Life Vision Exercises are the primary resources used for exploring each member’s vision for a continued life of fidelity in faith and practice. This course guides students through synthesizing the previous modules and considering the kind of life they want to live as a follower of Jesus Christ. This course must be taken concurrently with the fourth semester of SF100. 1 hour.

SF210 Preparation for Leadership
The Department
This course is designed to prepare Spiritual Formation group leaders. It trains leaders on the philosophy, process, and problems of leading a Spiritual Formation group and emphasizes personal leadership development through a mentoring model of discipleship. Enrollment requires consent of the department. Fall and summer only, 2 hours.

Courses SF215–SF230 are to be taken consecutively and in conjunction with leading a Spiritual Formation group through SF100. This leader laboratory provides development and training in the context of leading. The integrated approach focuses on the development of Christlike character and skill in the context of relationships. Enrollment in courses SF215–SF230 requires consent of the department.

SF215 Leadership Development I (Invest)
The Department
This course guides Spiritual Formation leaders through leading an SF100 group, challenging them to invest in group members’ lives using Life Inventory, and acquiring leadership skills for establishing small groups. Fall only. 1 hour.

SF220 Leadership Development II (Connect)
The Department
This course guides Spiritual Formation leaders through leading an SF100 group, challenging them to connect members of the group using Life Story, and acquiring leadership skills for developing authentic community. Spring only. 1 hour.
SF225  Leadership Development III (Explore)
The Department
This course guides Spiritual Formation leaders through leading an SF100 group, challenging them to explore issues of integrity with group members using Life Change, and acquiring leadership skills for facilitating spiritual growth. Fall only, 1 hour.

SF230  Leadership Development IV (Direct)
The Department
This course guides Spiritual Formation leaders through leading an SF100 group, challenging them to direct group members according to their specific ministry goals using Life Vision and acquiring leadership skills for providing spiritual direction. Spring only, 1 hour.

Ministry Formation Internships

An internship for academic credit is required for ThM, MACE, MACL, MACM, MAMW, and the TESOL certificate program. Spiritual Formation and completion of half a student’s required DTS course work are primary prerequisites for internship eligibility. Additional degree-specific prerequisites are found on the following pages.

ThM—INT105 ThM Ministry Formation Internship
MACE—INT165 MACE Ministry Formation Internship
MACL—INT155 MACL Ministry Formation Internship
MACM—INT140 MACM Ministry Formation Internship
MAMW—MW102 Media Arts Apprenticeship

ThM students seeking an emphasis overseen by the Department of Media Arts and Worship and all MAMW students should consult that department to clarify degree requirements utilizing an apprenticeship in lieu of the required internship.

Ministry Formation is a holistic and personalized process geared to help students accomplish their vocational goals. Elective internship credit is also available to all students, including the MACS degree. Internship credit in the form of advanced standing or course substitution is not offered for any degree.

An internship requires the student to be involved in specific ministry roles in a local church related to the area for the student’s chosen ministry emphasis for the ThM program or concentration for the professional MA programs. ThM and MACL degrees require one calendar year (three consecutive semesters) to complete the internship requirements. All other MA internships require two consecutive semesters to complete the internship requirements.

For the standard Ministry Formation internship, in addition to the ministry hours earned in the field, the student will demonstrate readiness for ministry through the development of a portfolio related to the student’s ministry emphasis or concentration. The portfolio consists of assessed work that is based on the student’s vocational intent and uniqueness of the ministry site.

Registration for all internships occurs only through a registration interview with Ministry Formation staff the semester prior to the start of the internship. Registration for the internship follows the same timeline and payment schedule as other courses.

For available local, national, and international internship opportunities with churches and parachurch organizations consult the internship listings on the DTS Job Board (dts.edu/internship). For specific information on internship site requirements, the internship registration process, and portfolio requirements, visit the Ministry Formation website (dts.edu/internship).
DTS offers qualified ThM, MACE, and MACL students the opportunity to earn seminary credit for on-site instruction and cohort interactions at select ministry sites. This 12-credit-hour Ministry Residency allows students the opportunity to pursue integration at a much deeper level, since their focus during the residency is primarily in the field.

This intensive learning opportunity is designed as an eight-month residency in two consecutive semesters: EML801 Ministry Residency I and EML802 Ministry Residency II. For more information, see the Educational Ministries and Leadership section of this catalog.

Required Internships for Professional Degrees

INT105 ThM Ministry Formation Internship

Enrollment limited to MACE students and requires consent of the Ministry Formation staff. Prerequisites: Satisfactory completion of half of their DTS course work, including EML101 Introduction to Educational Ministries and Leadership and progress toward completion of SF100 Spiritual Formation. 2 hours.

Elective Internships

INT205 TESOL Ministry Formation Internship
The Department
Supervised field-based education in cross-cultural TESOL classroom situations in a foreign country or the United States, under the supervision and encouragement of an experienced ministry mentor. Enrollment limited to TESOL Certificate students and requires consent of the Ministry Formation staff. Prerequisite: WM620 Dynamics of TESOL. 1 hour.

INT210 Specialized Ministry Formation Internship
The Department
Supervised field-based education in the student’s intended vocational ministry context, under the supervision and encouragement of an experienced ministry mentor. Enrollment requires consent of the Ministry Formation staff. Prerequisite: INT105 ThM Ministry Formation Internship. 1–4 hours.

INT215 MACS Ministry Formation Internship
The Department
Supervised field-based education in the student’s intended ministry context, under the guidance and encouragement of approved field observers. Enrollment limited to MACS students and requires consent of the Ministry Formation staff. Prerequisites: Satisfactory completion of half of their DTS course work, including PM105 Christian Life and Witness and progress toward completion of SF100 Spiritual Formation. 2 hours.
Department of Old Testament Studies (see page 156)
Department of New Testament Studies (see page 160)
Department of Bible Exposition (see page 164)

PURPOSE: The Division of Biblical Studies: equips students with foundational knowledge and skill in interpreting and applying the Bible.
The purpose of the Department of Old Testament Studies is to equip students to do accurate exegetical work in the Old Testament and to expound the Old Testament in their ministries, with the goal of meeting contemporary needs. The required courses give students the skills necessary for such work as follows:

• Hebrew grammar, syntax, textual criticism
• lexicography
• literary forms
• Old Testament backgrounds
• critical theory
• hermeneutics
• biblical theology

The elective courses provide opportunity for further development of students’ proficiency in these disciplines as well as in the exegesis of various kinds of Old Testament literature.

Required Courses
Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for specific courses required in each degree program.

OT101 Elements of Hebrew I
The Department
An introduction to the basic principles of Hebrew phonology and morphology. 3 hours.

OT102 Elements of Hebrew II
The Department
A study of Hebrew morphology and syntax, with an introduction to lexical tools and methods of lexical analysis. Includes translation of the Book of Jonah, with lexical analysis of key words and syntactical analysis of selected forms, phrases, and clauses. Prerequisite: OT101 Elements of Hebrew I. 3 hours.

OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I
The Department
An introduction to the exegesis of Hebrew narrative, including an introduction to textual criticism, as well as a review of Hebrew morphology and syntax in conjunction with translation of the Book of Ruth. The course will also include a survey of the historical, cultural, literary, and theological backgrounds of the Old Testament and an introduction to various forms of Old Testament criticism. Prerequisite: OT102 Elements of Hebrew II or a satisfactory score on the advanced standing exam. 3 hours.

OT104 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction II
The Department
An introduction to the exegesis of Hebrew poetry focusing on the Book of Psalms. The course will also include an introduction to background and interpretive issues in prophetic, wisdom, apocalyptic, and legal literature. Prerequisite: OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I or a satisfactory score on the advanced standing exam. 3 hours.

Elective Courses
ThM students in the Old Testament Studies ministry emphasis must take 9 hours in the department, 3 of which must be an exegetical course listed in the 400 series of courses below or OT720 The Use of the Old Testament in the New Testament. Elective offerings for a given semester are subject to change without advance notice. Students in the Hebrew and Cognate Studies ministry emphasis must take 9 hours in the department from the 300 series of courses listed below, including OT310 Hebrew Reading.

Introductory Studies

OT205 Introduction to Old Testament Criticism
The Department
An investigation of the origins, development, and impact of various critical approaches to the Old Testament, with a view to understanding and responding to them. Special attention is given to how modern criticism affects exegesis, interpretation, and theology. This elective is highly recommended for students intending to pursue doctoral studies in Old Testament. 3 hours.

OT206 Seminar in Old Testament Criticism I
Chisholm, Johnston, and Taylor
A seminar addressing special issues in Old Testament criticism of the Torah and Former Prophets. Prerequisite: OT205 Introduction to Old Testament Criticism. 3 hours.

OT207 Seminar in Old Testament Criticism II
Chisholm, Johnston, and Taylor
A seminar addressing special issues in Old Testament criticism of the Latter Prophets and Writings. Prerequisite: OT205 Introduction to Old Testament Criticism. 2 hours.

OT210 The Old Testament in Contemporary Culture
Johnston
An examination of current issues in Old Testament studies that engages the student in a critical dialogue with contemporary approaches to the sacred texts, culture, history, and religion(s) of ancient Israel. This course is open to MA students. 3 hours.

Philological Studies

Taylor
An inductive and deductive study of biblical Hebrew from the perspective of its historical development within the Semitic family of languages. Enrollment requires consent of professor. 3 hours.

OT305 Advanced Hebrew Grammar
Taylor
An advanced study of Hebrew grammar and syntax as an essential phase of Old Testament exegesis. The major steps in grammatical and syntactical analysis are explored and then applied to specific passages. Prerequisite: OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I. 3 hours.

OT310 Hebrew Reading
Coober-Cox
Studies in selected portions of the Old Testament to improve the student’s ability to read Hebrew, emphasizing morphology, vocabulary, and syntactical recognition. Prerequisite: OT102 Elements of Hebrew II. 2 or 3 hours.

OT315 Old Testament Textual Criticism
Taylor
A study of the history of the Hebrew text and versions of the Old Testament, with a view to developing ability in doing textual criticism. Students gain practice in solving textual problems and in relating textual criticism to exegesis. Prerequisite: OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I. 3 hours.

OT320 The Septuagint
Taylor
An introduction to the Greek translation of the Old Testament, with attention to its value for textual and lexical studies. Selected Old Testament passages are studied in relation to their use in the New Testament. May also be credited in the Department of New Testament Studies. Prerequisites: OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I. 3 hours.

OT325 Biblical Aramaic
Taylor
A study of the basic principles of phonology, morphology, and syntax of biblical Aramaic. Translation and analysis of the Aramaic portions of Ezra and Daniel are accompanied by discussion of the relevance of Aramaic studies to Old and New Testament research. Prerequisite: OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I. 3 hours.

The following courses are offered to master’s-degree students concurrently with the corresponding doctoral courses listed in the PhD course description section of this catalog. Doctoral students have increased course requirements. Consequently these courses cannot be credited at a later time in the PhD program at DTS.

OT330 Introduction to Ugaritic
Webster
An introduction to Ugaritic grammar, with reading and analysis of selected poetic texts that have special bearing on the literature and thought of Old Testament Israel. Prerequisite: OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I. 3 hours.

OT335 Northwest Semitic Inscriptions
Taylor
Translation and analysis of Aramaic, Hebrew, Phoenician, and other Northwest Semitic inscriptions, with emphasis on their contribution to Old Testament studies. Prerequisite: OT103 Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Introduction I. 3 hours.

OT340 Introduction to the Aramaic Targums
Taylor
An introduction to the grammar and syntax of targumic Aramaic, with selected readings from the major Aramaic targums. Attention is given to targumic translation techniques and the relevance of targumic studies to Old and New Testament research. Prerequisite: OT325 Biblical Aramaic. 3 hours.

OT345 Introduction to Syriac
Taylor
An introduction to the grammar and syntax of classical Syriac, with readings from both biblical and extrabiblical Syriac texts. Particular attention is given to the value of a working knowledge of Syriac for Old and New Testament studies. Prerequisite: OT325 Biblical Aramaic. 3 hours.

OT730 A Biblical Theology of the Law
Johnston
An exegetical, hermeneutical, and theological study of the law of God. Special attention will focus on historical-cultural, literary, exegetical, hermeneutical, and theological issues, such as the relation of the Mosaic Law to Mesopotamian law codes, the relation of the Decalogue to the case laws, the relation of the Law to the covenants and promise, continuity and discontinuity in the relation of the Old Covenant law to the New Covenant, and the relevance of the Law in the Christian life. The course also will compare and evaluate the various models of the role/relevance of the Mosaic Law in the Christian life, as presented in various schools of dispensational and Reformed theology. 3 hours.

Directed Studies
OT901 Independent Study in Old Testament
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of Old Testament studies not specifically treated in other courses. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed four semester hours in any one subject. Limited to advanced students and subject to consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

OT902 Old Testament Thesis
The Department
Independent research and writing of a thesis on an approved topic under the supervision of two faculty advisors. Students will have one calendar year to complete the thesis. If the thesis is not completed by the end of a year, students will be registered in OT903. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 2 or 3 hours.

OT903 Old Testament Thesis Continuation
The Department
The thesis continuation course is required of all students writing a thesis who are beyond one year in the thesis process. Students must register for this course each fall, spring, and summer until completion of the thesis. Thesis continuation is permitted for a maximum of one additional semester (for a 2-hour thesis, including summer) or two additional semesters (for a 3-hour thesis, including summer). 1 hour.

OT905 Special Topics in Old Testament Studies
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed four semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.
The purpose of the Department of New Testament Studies is to equip students to do accurate exegetical work in the Greek New Testament so that they can expound and apply it effectively in their ministries. The required courses help students develop the skills necessary for this work in the following areas.

- New Testament introduction
- Greek grammar and syntax
- textual criticism
- lexical and literary analysis
- use of interpretive tools
- exegetical problem-solving
- movement from exegesis to theology and exposition

The elective courses allow students to advance their skills in these areas and in the exegesis of New Testament books.

An advanced-standing examination is available for all new students who have taken some Greek. Students who have not had Greek should enroll in NT101–NT102 Elements of Greek.

Required Courses

Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

NT101–NT102 Elements of Greek

The Department

A study of the basic principles of biblical Greek for students who have not had Greek or who need an extensive review in the elements of the language. 3 hours each semester.

One section each of NT101 and NT102 will be an honors Greek section. The purpose of honors Greek is to gain greater facility in the Greek language as a preparation for more thorough exegesis in the New Testament. Besides the standard requirements for NT101–NT102, honors Greek will focus on increased vocabulary and composition from English to Greek. No previous study of Greek is required.

NT103 Intermediate Greek

The Department

A study of the grammar and syntax of the Greek New Testament and an introduction to New Testament textual criticism. Prerequisite: NT101–NT102 Elements of Greek or a satisfactory score on the advanced-standing exam. 3 hours.

One section of NT103 will be an honors section. The purpose of honors Greek is to gain greater facility in the Greek language as a preparation for more thorough exegesis in the New Testament. Besides the standard requirements for NT101–NT102, honors Greek will focus on increased vocabulary and composition from English to Greek. No previous study of Greek is required.

NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis

The Department

An introduction to exegetical procedures and practice of exegesis in various New Testament genres, with an emphasis on Ephesians. Procedures include outlining the argument of passages, doing word studies, validating exegetical decisions, and using exegetical tools properly. Prerequisite: NT103 Intermediate Greek or a satisfactory score on the advanced-standing exam. 3 hours.
Elective Courses

Elective courses are designed to aid students who wish to make a more intensive study of the Greek New Testament than is possible in the required courses. Students in the New Testament Studies ministry emphasis must take 12 hours in this department (exception: BE315 Bible Studies ministry emphasis must take 12 hours required courses. NT390 The Book of Revelation
The Department
Exegesis of the Greek text of the Book of Revelation, with emphasis on the unique interpretive problems of the book. 3 hours.

Thematic Studies

NT400 The New Testament in Contemporary Culture
Fantin
An examination of New Testament biblical introduction that interacts with key issues about the Bible in the public square and university contexts. This course will engage in discussion of contemporary issues about the origins of the Jesus tradition, the apostolic teaching, the New Testament as a canon, and the origins of Christian orthodoxy as seen in the New Testament and important collateral writings of the period. Attention will be given to major first-century cultural features, both Jewish and Greco-Roman, that serve as a backdrop for the original Christian message leading to a greater appreciation of the New Testament message. The course will also treat how such issues impact one’s understanding of Scripture as inspired by God. Students may substitute NT400 The New Testament in Contemporary Culture for NT113 but may only take one or the other. Prerequisite: ST101 Theological Method and Bibliology. 3 hours.

NT405 New Testament Study and the Life of Christ
Bock
A study of the backgrounds to the ministry of Christ, a survey of His ministry in the Gospels, with primary focus on the Synoptics, and consideration of how to study the Gospels. Special attention will be given to evaluation of recent critical discussions of the life of Christ, including such topics as the quest for the historical Jesus and the Jesus Seminar. Open to non-Greek students. 3 hours.

NT407 Historical Jesus
Bock
An examination of the history, method, and approach of Historical Jesus studies to Jesus’s life in general and to specific key events in Jesus’s ministry. The student will be equipped to interact with current discussion and debate on the Historical Jesus and to understand the ways in which such discussion and debate are undertaken. 3 hours.

NT409 Jesus and Paul
Bock and Smith
A study of the historical and theological relationship between the historical Jesus and the apostle Paul. 3 hours.

NT410 Daily Life in the First-Century City
Fantin
A course utilizing nonliterary sources (i.e., inscriptions, papyri, ostraca, coins, art, and the findings of archaeology) to illuminate various cities and cultural topics of the ancient world and thus shed light on the contexts of certain New Testament books. This will be a visuals-based course and will focus on the day-to-day life in New Testament times. 3 hours.
NT415  The New Testament and Sexual Ethics
Smith
An exegetical examination of selected New Testament texts related to sexual ethics (sexuality, singleness, marriage, and family), with attention to biblical theology and contemporary application. New Testament passages on such topics as divorce, adultery, fornication, homosexuality, celibacy, and the significance of the physical body will be studied in the course. Prerequisite: NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis. 2 or 3 hours.

NT420  Seminar in New Testament Literary Contexts
Fantin
A critical survey and exploration of ancient literature to give the student exposure to a wide variety of ancient literary sources, with a focus on methodology and specific texts that have significance for New Testament exegesis. 3 hours.

NT430  Seminar in New Testament Theology
The Department
A survey of the theology of the New Testament organized around the distinctive contributions of the particular authors. The course emphasizes biblical theology and the inherent categories of the New Testament text itself. Emphasis is placed on key themes and texts within each author and how they contribute to the broad sweep of New Testament theology. Prerequisite: NT104 Introduction to New Testament Exegesis. 3 hours.

Directed Studies

NT901  Independent Study in New Testament
The Department
Independent research on some aspect of New Testament studies not specifically treated in other courses. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed 4 semester hours in any one subject of study. Limited to advanced students and subject to consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

NT902  New Testament Thesis
The Department
Independent research and writing of a thesis on an approved topic under the supervision of two faculty advisors. Students will have one calendar year to complete the thesis. If the thesis is not completed by the end of a year, students will be registered in NT903. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 2 or 3 hours.

NT903  New Testament Thesis Continuation
The Department
The thesis continuation course is required of all students writing a thesis who are beyond one year in the thesis process. Thesis continuation is permitted for a maximum of one additional semester (for a 2-hour thesis, including summer) or two additional semesters (for a 3-hour thesis, including summer). 1 hour.

NT905  Special Topics in New Testament Studies
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed 4 semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hour
The purpose of the Department of Bible Exposition is to help students comprehend the Bible and to equip them for a lifetime of study, exposition, and application of the Scriptures. Courses help them develop skills in:

- inductive Bible study,
- applying principles of interpretation to the biblical text, and
- relating Bible content to the problems of contemporary life.

The Division of Theological Studies equips students with discernment in systematic and biblical theology and an awareness of the historical and theological development of the church.
The purpose of the Department of Theological Studies is to equip godly servant-leaders for worldwide ministry by:

• passing on to students an understanding of the church’s one true faith embraced within a distinctively dispensational, premillennial evangelicalism;
• encouraging students to think theologically as a response to Scripture, with a sensitivity to the history of theology, philosophy, and culture; and
• helping students gain perspectives essential to spiritual formation, global servant-leadership, and the evaluation of contemporary issues and trends.

Required Courses

The Department of Theological Studies offers a core curriculum, common to the ThM and most of the MA programs. Those courses, ST101 to ST106, develop the biblical, philosophical, and historical rationale for vital doctrines, addressing the traditional subject areas of Prolegomena, Bibliology, the Doctrine of God, Christology, Pneumatology, Anthropology, Angelology, Hamartiology, Soteriology, Sanctification, Ecclesiology, and Eschatology. In addition to these courses in systematic theology, the ThM includes two courses in historical theology, HT101 and HT102, which survey the history of Christianity, particularly in the West, from the second century to the present.

Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

HT101  The Church to the Modern Era
The Department
A study of Christianity from the second century to the modern era, with special emphasis on the institutional history of the church as well as theological developments in the church. 3 hours.

HT102  The Church in the Modern Era: Europe and North America
The Department

Biblology. 3 hours.

ST103  Angelology, Anthropology, and Hamartiology
The Department
A study of angelology, the doctrines of the unfallen angels, the fallen angels, and Satan; anthropology, a study of the creation of humanity, the material and immaterial aspects of humanity, and the Fall of humanity; and original and personal sin.
Prerequisite: ST101 Theological Method and
Biblology. 3 hours.

ST104  Soteriology
The Department
A study of the grace of God in salvation, including election, the ministry of the Savior in His humiliation and exaltation, the nature and extent of the Atonement, efficacious grace, justification, regeneration, the salvation ministries of the Holy Spirit (including Spirit baptism, indwelling, and sealing), and eternal security.
Prerequisite: ST101 Theological Method and
Biblology. 3 hours.

ST105  Sanctification and Ecclesiology
The Department
A study of sanctification, the doctrine of the spiritual life, and ecclesiology, the doctrines of the body of Christ and the local church, including its organization, ministry, ordinances, government, and purpose.
Prerequisite: ST101 Theological Method and
Biblology. 3 hours.

ST106  Eschatology
The Department
A study of eschatology, the doctrine of the consummation of God’s plan of redemption, including major themes in eschatology and the order of predicted events. The course will include a review of the biblical creation and redemption narrative, with an opportunity for a synthetic capstone summary of Christian document.
Prerequisite: ST101-105. 3 hours.

The purpose of the Division of Ministries and Communication is to equip students with the concepts, attitudes, and skills necessary to communicate biblical truth effectively through a variety of ministries.
The purpose of the Department of Pastoral Ministries is to prepare biblically centered, Spirit-empowered servants with pastoral hearts and skills to reach God’s world, preach God’s word, and lead God’s church, in order to conform all people to Christ.

In light of the need for pastoral hearts and skills in a wide range of church and parachurch ministries, the Department of Pastoral Ministries invites all students to participate in its courses, regardless of academic program, ministry emphasis, or vocational aspiration. Courses in this department are designed to help students employ theology in a variety of Christian ministries.

- Preaching Courses—help students interpret and communicate the Bible for the purpose of transformation, whether in a worship service, at a Bible study, or around the camp fire.
- Pastoral Theology Courses—help students employ theology in leading the church from inception (evangelism and church planting) to expression (worship and oversight).
- Critical Issues Courses—help students respond theologically to contemporary issues like bioethics and spiritual formation.

Required Courses

Consult the program curriculum charts in the Academic Programs section of this catalog for courses required in each degree program.

PM100 Basics in Biblical Communication

An introduction to basic biblical communication theory and skills, emphasizing the preparation and delivery of a biblical message with a biblical main idea and with relevance. Students deliver a message once and receive evaluation from the professor and from fellow students. Limited to students in the Chinese-language programs only. Prerequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

PM103 Expository Preaching I

An introduction to basic expository preaching theory and skills, emphasizing the preparation and delivery of a theologically derived proposition/thrust of a biblical text/pericope with accuracy, clarity, relevance, and interest. Students preach twice and receive evaluation from fellow students and the professor. Prerequisite: BE101 Bible Study Methods and Hermeneutics. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

PM104 Expository Preaching II

Instruction in narrative preaching, with attention to narratology, theological development, and long-term sermon development. PM260 Preaching and Theology of Genesis 1-11
Kuruvilla
This course focuses on preparing for and preaching Genesis 1-11, emphasizing pericopal theology and application. Attention is given to researching and presenting stances on the key theological/worldview issues in this first major section of Scripture. This course prepares students not only to preach Scripture and to apply the theological thrusts of Genesis 1:1-11 to life and ministry, but also to think through critical topics in Genesis 1:1-11 pertinent to society and culture and to take a personal stance on those issues in order to teach them. Prerequisites: BE102 Old Testament History I, PM104 Expository Preaching II, OT102 Elements of Hebrew II. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.
PM292 Capstone Preaching
The Department
This course challenges ThM students to prepare independently and deliver a portfolio-quality sermon that demonstrates their ability to apply exegetical, theological, and homiletical skills learned throughout their education. Required of ThM students in the last 30 credit hours of program completion. Prerequisite: PM104 Expository Preaching II. 1 hour.

Pastoral Theology

PM301 Introduction to Pastoral Theology
Malphurs
A study of the theology and leadership of the church, with attention given to the leader's personal development and the core concepts for “building Christ's church” such as the church's leadership, values, mission, vision, and strategy, including community, disciple-making, teaming, and finances. 3 hours.

PM302 Worship and Pastoral Care
Ralston
Skill development in the preparation and leadership of corporate worship experiences and pastoral care. The student will study the significance of worship for Christian formation and pastoral care, survey biblical and historical theology, the significance of music, the ordinances, and other pastoral duties. The student will also design and lead brief experiences of worship and pastoral care in the class. 3 hours.

PM341 Church Planting I
Malphurs
This course defines church planting, assesses potential church planters, and takes students through the first stage (conception stage) of church planting, including preparation, personnel, and church-planting principles. Students will team together to develop an actual or potential church plant for North America or abroad. 3 hours.

PM342 Church Planting II
Malphurs
A study of the remaining five stages of the church-planting process: development, birth, growth, maturity, and reproduction. Students will team together to design a leadership-development program for a new church in North America or abroad. Prerequisite: PM341 Church Planting I. 3 hours.

PM351 Foundations for Women in Ministry Leadership
Glahn
A study of biblical, theological, historical, and sociological foundations for women in ministry leadership. The course is designed to aid both men and women who will be responsible for various areas of ministry. May also be credited in the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership. 3 hours.

PM360 Preparation for Ordination
Ralston
Orientation and preparation for the student’s ordination or commissioning to vocational Christian ministry within the local church and its extensions of ministry. Open to students in all programs and ministry emphases. (ThM students are strongly encouraged to elect a third hour of academic credit by preaching in class a sermon suitable for an ordination service and which will be evaluated according to the homiletic standards taught in the department's preaching courses.) 2 hours.

PM361 Bioethics and Pastoral Care
Voet
A study of pastoral ethics, counseling, and ministry in the current health-care environment, including issues created by research strategies, reproductive technologies, eugenics, end-of-life decisions, and directions in public policy. May also be credited in the Department of Theological Studies or the Department of Biblical Counseling. 2 hours.

Evangelism

PM405 Theology and Apologetics in Advanced Evangelism
The Department
This course involves students in theological reflection, apologetics approaches, and evangelistic presentations effective in reaching pre-Christians through personal and proclamation evangelism. This course may also be credited in the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies. Prerequisite: PM105 Christian Life and Witness. 3 hours.
Critical Issues in Pastoral Ministries

PM510 Spiritual Formation in Historical Perspective
Jones
A study in the history of Christian spiritual formation from the patristic era through its contemporary evangelical expressions designed to introduce students to the rich resources of the Christian tradition available for providing nurture and guidance in soul care. May also be credited in the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership (see EML730). 3 hours.

PM520 Spiritual Formation in Contemporary Culture
Jones
A study of contemporary cultural dynamics and the implications for spiritual formation which they present with special attention given to paradigms of the church’s engagement with the broader cultural environment, the contemporary cultural realities that inhibit growth in Christ-likeness, and cultural factors that inform and shape faithful expressions of soul care. 3 hours.

PM540 Developing and Leading the Culturally Diverse Church
The Department
A study of theological and practical strategies for the development and leadership of nationally, ethnically, racially, and economically diverse churches, with particular attention to the relative roles and issues for homogeneous and diverse churches, anticipating the challenges that emerge in churches with major differences among the members. 3 hours.

Directed Studies in Pastoral Ministries

PM901 Independent Study in Pastoral Ministries
The Department
Independent research in some phase of homiletics, pastoral theology, counseling, evangelism, or urban ministry. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed 4 semester hours in any one phase of study. Limited to advanced students and subject to consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

PM902 Pastoral Ministries Thesis
The Department
Independent research and writing of a thesis on an approved topic under the supervision of two faculty advisors. Students will have one calendar year to complete the thesis. If the thesis is not completed by the end of a year, students will be registered in PM903. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 2 or 3 hours.

PM903 Pastoral Ministries Thesis Continuation
The Department
The thesis continuation course is required of all students writing a thesis who are beyond one year in the thesis process. Thesis continuation is permitted for a maximum of one additional semester (for a 2-hour thesis, including summer) or two additional semesters (for a 3-hour thesis, including summer). 1 hour.

PM905 Special Topics in Pastoral Ministries
The Department
This course is designed for students who choose to participate in special conferences, training, or programs that are more formal in nature and require student participation other than a standard independent study. Approved special topics will provide expertise or training not specifically covered in the seminary curriculum. Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed 4 semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.¹

PM906 Independent Study in Pastoral Ministry in the Urban Context
The Department
Independent research in an area of pastoral ministry in the urban or inner-city context. Students may choose to research questions related to demographics and ethnicity of the inner-city church, family life in the urban context, leadership in the urban church, pastoral care in the urban church, or other relevant topics. Credit is granted proportionate to the amount of work but is not to exceed 4 semester hours in any single phase of study. Enrollment is subject to the consent of the professor. 1–4 hours.

¹For a list of special topics, see the Special Programs and Sessions section of this catalog.
The purpose of the Department of Media Arts and Worship is to glorify the Triune God by preparing students to recognize and reveal God in and through worship and the arts.

In addition to the courses listed below, students may receive credit in the Department of Media Arts and Worship for the following courses taken in other departments: BC498 Sexuality and Ethics, BE503 The Psalms and the Worship of God, PM103 Expository Preaching I, PM302 Worship and Pastoral Care, ST525 Theology and Popular Culture, and ST530 Theology and Science Fiction.

Required Courses

Theological Foundations: The Arts and Worship

Basselin

A biblical, theological, and worshipful introduction to the imagination and creativity. This course provides a cursory history of the church’s relationship with the arts, explores a theology of beauty, and seeks to develop a spiritual discipline of creative response to God’s truth and beauty in students’ particular areas of art and/or worship. 3 hours.

MW102 Media Arts Apprenticeship

Basselin

A supervised, field-based apprenticeship, comprising the development and enhancement of media-related communication skills and/or worship design and implementation in a ministry context. Disciplines may include, but are not limited to, writing, acting, audio production, and video and film production, as well as worship design and implementation. Students will construct a professional portfolio and complete the MinistrySafe Sexual Abuse Awareness certification as part of the apprenticeship. Enrollment is limited to MAMW and ThM Media Arts emphasis students. Students must complete 30 credit hours of DTS coursework before enrolling in MW102. 2 hours.

MW103 A Christian View of Art

Basselin

How can a Christian evaluate artistic expression? What is beauty? These questions and others are answered in this study of biblical-exegetical foundations of creativity and art, the development of a Judeo-Christian theology of art, and biblical philosophical analyses of artistic expression, with emphasis on the visual arts (painting, sculpture, and film). Prerequisite: MW101 The Art of Media and Worship or professor approval. 3 hours.

Elective Courses

Immersive Studies

Immersive Studies provide opportunities for students to participate in a group accompanied by a DTS Media Arts and Worship faculty member in conferences, training, or programs that are immersive and formal. The courses offer expertise on topics complementary to those offered in the Department of Media Arts and Worship. Enrollment in immersive field studies requires consent of the department. Students may incur additional costs such as conference fees and travel expenses.
MW201 Medieval Art and Spirituality
Glahn
A two-week immersive experience on location in Northern Italy (with optional three-day add-on in Rome). Students accompanied by a DTS professor in the Media Arts and Worship department and at least one other DTS department interact with art, practices, key people, and theological ideas as they visit medieval cities with a view to integrating classic visual art and Christian practices with their communication of truth. 3 hours.

MW202 Calvin Festival: Writing and Writers
Glahn
This course offers an immersive experience in which students, accompanied by a DTS professor in the department, interact with critically acclaimed writers and their writing. Attention is given on ways to incorporate faith themes winsomely. The course takes place in conjunction with the biennial Calvin Festival of Faith and Writing in Grand Rapids, Michigan. 3 hours.

MW203 Calvin Symposium: Worship Arts in the Church
Glahn
In this immersive-experience course, students, accompanied by a DTS professor in the department, participate in worship experiences and interact with worship-arts professionals with a view to communicating biblical truth in worship contexts. This course is held in conjunction with the annual Calvin Symposium on Worship held in Grand Rapids, Michigan. 3 hours.

MW204 Theology at Sundance Film Festival
Basselin
This course provides an opportunity for students, accompanied by a DTS professor in the department, to dialogue with the film industry (movies and people) from a theological perspective. Students will attend Sundance Film Festival, one of the most significant film festivals in the world. While at the festival, the class will take part in the Windrider Forum in order to meet and discuss theological issues with about 150 other Christians. The course also contains an online component that fills the rest of the semester. 3 hours.

MW205 South by Southwest (SXSW) Conference and Festivals
Kreider
This course is a supervised cultural immersive experience at the annual SXSW Conference and Festivals held in March in Austin, Texas. Ministry Through Writing

MW301 Creative Writing in Ministry
Glahn, Grant
A study of the principles and techniques of effective writing, designed to prepare students to communicate biblical truth through the written word. Students will write and read their own material in class as well as edit and critique the writing of their fellow students. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

MW302 Writing for Publication
Glahn
A course designed to help students develop basic skills in writing for publication. Students research, write, and submit work to publications in a variety of formats during the semester. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

MW303 Advanced Creative Writing
Glahn, Grant
A course in which the student applies the techniques from MW301 Creative Writing in Ministry to a particular creative-writing project. Each student selects and develops one form from a variety of media (e.g., play, article, short story, teleplay, film script, first-person narrative sermon, novel, radio drama) and adapts the style and message to the unique character of the chosen medium.
Prerequisite: MW301 Creative Writing in Ministry or consent of the professor. Enrollment limited to 12 students. 3 hours.

MW304 Theology and Contemporary Literature
Basselin
An exploration of modern and postmodern attitudes toward the “spiritual/transcendent/God” found in selected American literature. Students will read a variety of writings from notable authors, as well as selected essays in critical theory, as a means of engendering dialogue from a theological perspective on how American fiction over the past fifty years has interacted with the religious and spiritual currents that pervade culture. 3 hours.

MW305 C. S. Lewis and J. R. R. Tolkien: Imaginary Worlds and Learning Moral Virtue
Basselin and Harris
An examination of selected fictional and nonfictional writings of C. S. Lewis and J. R. R. Tolkien, which illustrate and describe the creation of imaginary worlds. The student will read and interact with a variety of essays, correspondence, and fictional works by Lewis and Tolkien and reflect on how experience of these fictional worlds enables the reader to grow in moral virtue by refining one’s ability to discern between good and evil. 3 hours.

MW307 Blogging for Ministry
Stiles
This course will introduce basic blogging techniques as part of an effective writing ministry. The student will learn to set up a self-hosted WordPress blog, choose a niche audience, maintain a blogging schedule, apply creativity to repurposing content, write for search engine optimization (SEO), set up and grow an email list, learn tips and tools to maximize productivity, utilize Google Analytics, and implement an effective social media strategy. The course will also discuss the balance of promotion, monetization, and motive in the context of a blogging ministry. Requires the purchase of a Premium WordPress Theme. 3 hours.

MW451 Theological Reflections on Technology and Digital Culture
Dyer, Harris
This course examines the place of technology in the biblical drama and in modern culture. Students will critically reflect on how technology affects their personal lives and ministries, analyze various theories of the nature of technology and how those theories contribute to and/or influence our understanding of what it means to be human, and investigate how selected Old and New Testament passages contribute to a biblical theology that can offer ethical guidance on current and forthcoming technologies. 3 hours.

Collaborative Studies

MW603 Collaborative Practices in Art and Theology
Basselin
This course will explore theological study through collaborative practices of research, discussion, and art-making (music, video, painting, acting, poetry, etc.). Credit is allowed proportionate to the required amount of work but is not to exceed 4 semester hours on any one topic. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 1–4 hours.

EML950 MACL Applied Research Project
Hillman
Independent research and writing of an applied research project on an approved topic under the supervision of a faculty advisor and an approved second reader who may be a faculty member or an approved ministry practitioner. Enrollment requires consent of the department. 2 hours.

Ministry Residency

To provide more intentional opportunities to integrate classroom instruction with field-based experience within partnering churches and parachurch/mission organizations, DTS offers qualified ThM, MACE, and MACL students the opportunity to earn seminary credit for on-site instruction and cohort interactions at select ministry sites. While students in every vocational degree engage in an internship, this larger block of academic credit allows students the opportunity to pursue integration at a much deeper level by practicing leadership specific activities at their current full-time ministry positions. These specific activities reflect various components of particular electives offered and subsequently can earn up to 12 hours of residential credit. Students intending to do the residency should plan ahead to not duplicate any course work the residency includes.

This intensive learning opportunity is designed as an eight-month residency (two consecutive semesters—Ministry Residency I and Ministry Residency II) with an approved church or parachurch/mission organization during a student’s program.

Additional information on this program may be obtained by contacting the Ministry Formation department and the Department of Educational Ministries and Leadership.

EML801–Ministry Residency I and II
EML802 Humphries
Supervised field-based education in the student’s intended vocational ministry context, under the supervision and encouragement of an experienced on-site Ministry Mentor. This contextual education experience consists of instruction, cohort interaction, and practical application in selected ministry settings in the Dallas area, across the United States, or around the world. This intensive learning opportunity is designed as an eight-month residency (two consecutive semesters—Ministry Residency I and Ministry Residency II) with an approved church or parachurch/mission organization during a student’s studies. Enrollment is limited to ThM, MACE, and MACL and requires professor approval. Prerequisite: Follows degree-specific internship requirements for ThM, MACE, and MACL 12 hours (6 hours each semester).
The purpose of the Department of World Missions and Intercultural Studies is to motivate, prepare, and mobilize students to fulfill Christ’s mandate to make disciples globally and to make Christ known to all cultures through the DTS community.

- The department is a resource for the seminary and local communities regarding cross-cultural and intercultural aspects of ministry.
- It gives biblical, theoretical, and practical preparation for intercultural evangelism, church planting, leadership development, Christian education, and Christian higher education.

Women in Ministry

The Women in Ministry emphasis in the Christian Education track will offer advanced training in the practice of biblically and theologically oriented ministry for women. It is designed to support and promote the complementary roles of men and women in ministry.

Following a cohort structure, students will go through a designated part of the program together, enjoying a community experience with fellow learners and mentor scholars. Over a three-year period they move through the cohort courses specific to their track, forming networking relationships and sharpening their skills together. In addition, they take elective hours outside the cohort. This uniquely designed program combines the benefit of the cohort relational experience and the flexibility to study with a variety of DTS’s faculty.

The Women in Ministry emphasis requires 27 semester hours of coursework plus a 3-hour applied research project related to the student’s ministry.

The Doctor of Philosophy program is designed for those who are capable of doing research at the highest level, with a view to becoming scholars and educational leaders in various fields of Christian ministry. The program leading to the Doctor of Philosophy degree has two divisions: Biblical Studies and Theological Studies. PhD students enter the program either at Stage 1 or Stage 2. See the PhD degree program section of this catalog for more information. Stage 1 students complete courses outlined in that section of the catalog. The courses listed in this section of the catalog are for Stage 2 of the PhD program.

PhD in Biblical Studies (Stage 2)

In addition to the Biblical Studies core of 9 hours listed below, each student must take 5–15 hours of coursework and 3 hours of dissertation research in a concentration, either Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, or Bible Exposition.

Each student in the Biblical Studies major also has 7–18 hours of electives, with at least one course to be taken in each of the other departments in the Biblical Studies division. An Old Testament student, for example, is required to take one doctoral course from the New Testament Studies department and one course from the Bible Exposition department. The remaining elective hours are open and are taken in consultation with the student’s departmental advisor.

With approval of the director, EML.230/WM.410 Theological Education in Intercultural Contexts may be credited to the PhD program.

Required Courses

BS1001 Old Testament Backgrounds
Allen and OT Department
A critical investigation of historical, literary, religious, and cultural backgrounds pertaining to the interpretation of the Old Testament. 3 hours.

BS1002 New Testament Backgrounds
NT Department, Allen, Allman, Taylor
A critical investigation of historical, literary, religious, and cultural backgrounds pertaining to the interpretation of the New Testament. 2 hours.

BS1003 Hermeneutics
Hoff
A study of hermeneutics, including its history, with emphasis on recent trends and applications. This will include issues such as the impact of presuppositions on interpretation, the dynamics of dual authorship, the question of where meaning resides, the effect of differences in genre on interpretation, as well as considerations of the reality of the progress of revelation and its application to today’s world. The seminar involves a mixture of discussion of theory and discussion of texts. 3 hours.

BS1004 Research Procedures
Taylor
This course is designed to guide the student in the use of library materials, computer-ized databases, bibliographic resources, as well as research strategies, dissertation topic selection, and familiarization with form and style for dissertations. 1 hour.
Concentration
The purpose of the Old Testament Studies concentration is to prepare students for a ministry based on scholarly research in the text of the Old Testament. The program integrates the study of biblical Hebrew exegesis, historical Hebrew grammar, Old Testament backgrounds, Old Testament criticism, and biblical theology. PhD students majoring in Old Testament Studies are encouraged either to teach in the Lay Institute or to serve for a year as a teaching assistant in the department.

In addition to 9 hours of divisional courses, an Old Testament concentration requires 16 hours of Old Testament courses, 3 hours of dissertation research in Old Testament Studies, and 7 hours of electives, with at least one of the courses selected in New Testament Studies and one in Bible Exposition. Electives should be chosen in consultation with the student’s departmental advisor.

Before the end of the first semester in the PhD program, students with an Old Testament Studies concentration must pass a reading proficiency exam demonstrating competence in Hebrew grammar and syntax and the ability to translate Hebrew prose literature. Remedial instruction to prepare for this exam will be provided by the department, but no credit will be given for such instruction.

Required Courses

Fantin
A study of the cultural contexts of the New Testament, utilizing ancient sources to which the student was exposed in BS1002 (New Testament Backgrounds) and relevant secondary sources in order to facilitate and understanding of the cultural contexts of and daily life in the first century. Topics such as honor/shame, patronage, family life, and religion will be discussed. The class will meet in conjunction with BE315 Bible Manners and Customs. Doctoral students in the class will be required to prepare and teach on a topic during the semester. Prerequisite: BS1002 New Testament Backgrounds. 3 hours.

Directed Studies

NT9001 Teaching the New Testament
The Department
A student internship, supervised by a departmental professor, in which the philosophy and practice of teaching and writing and the details of class preparation, examination, and grading are discussed. As part of the internship, students are expected to teach at least one session in an approved educational context under supervision of the professor. This course is intended to provide a mentoring relationship to help the student prepare for teaching New Testament courses at the college or seminary level. 2 hours.

NT9002 Independent Doctoral Study in the New Testament
The Department
Independent research on an approved topic within the scope of the department, with a thesis required. Credit is allowed proportionate to the amount of work but not to exceed 4 semester hours. 1–4 hours.

Bible Exposition Concentration

The purpose of the Bible Exposition concentration is to help students acquire a thorough knowledge of Bible content and related fields, and to equip them for a lifetime of scholarly biblical research and exposition. The program of study is designed to develop expertise in applying hermeneutical principles to Scripture, in studying the Bible synthetically and analytically, and in researching and evaluating historical, geographical, and cultural backgrounds of the Scriptures.

In addition to 9 hours of divisional courses, a Bible Exposition concentration requires 5 hours of Bible Exposition courses (BE1001 and BE1002), 3 hours of dissertation research in Bible Exposition, and 18 hours of electives, with at least one of the courses selected in Old Testament Studies and one in New Testament Studies. Normally a Bible Exposition major in the PhD program would not select his or her Old Testament electives from a Semitic language course other than Hebrew. Electives should be chosen in consultation with the student’s departmental advisor.

Required Courses

“People want to come to Dallas Theological Seminary because of who we have been but they will stay with us because of who we are today.”
WORLD-CLASS FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Dallas Theological Seminary has been blessed with widely respected faculty and administration committed to training the next generation of leaders for the sake of God’s global mission.
THE FACULTY

The greatest asset of a seminary is its faculty. These godly men and women translate the school’s philosophy into meaningful content in the classroom. DTS faculty devote much of their time to teaching, are current in their studies, and publish an impressive number of books and articles for theological journals and Christian magazines.

JOHN A. ADAIR
BS, The Criswell College, 1997; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2000; PhD, 2008.
Dr. John Adair emphasizes guiding his students toward a Christ-centered, historically informed faith. His research interests include historical exegesis and the role of culture in theology. Prior to joining the faculty at DTS, Dr. Adair spent several years as a writer at Insight for Living. He and his wife, Laura, have three children—Nicholas, Harper, and Thomas.

JOE M. ALLEN JR.
(2015–) Campus Pastor.
Dr. Allen became having pastored churches for more than 30 years. Dr. Allen came to DTS from the First Baptist Church of Cairo, GA, where he had been Lead Pastor since 2003. Dr. Allen completed his ThM degree in 1986 from DTS and his DMin degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1994. Dr. Allen is married to Lindsey and they have two children, Joey (ThM, 2007) married to Christy (ThM, 2004) and Bethany married to David. They also have two grandchildren. Dr. Allen enjoys playing with his grandkids and watching football.

RONALD B. ALLEN
(1995–) Senior Professor of Bible Exposition.
Diploma, California Lutheran Bible School, 1960; BA, California State University at Los Angeles, 1964; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1968; ThD, 1973; DD, Rocky Mountain Bible College and Seminary, 2009.
In addition to his teaching responsibilities at DTS, Dr. Allen preaches in churches across the country, speaks at Bible conferences, regularly leads study tours in Israel, Turkey, and Greece, and has been a biblical and theological consultant for Maranatha! Music. He has written a dozen books; was one of the senior Old Testament editors for The New King James Version; and was the editor for both The Nelson Study Bible (also known as The New King James Study Bible) and The Nelson’s New Illustrated Bible Commentary. Aside from his academic pursuits, Dr. Allen loves to ride his bicycle—the one that fits into his suitcase—and is licensed as both a massage therapist and instructor.

JAMES E. ALLMAN
(2000–) Professor of Old Testament Studies and Bible Exposition.
Dr. Allman was professor at Crichton College for eighteen years before joining the DTS faculty. Since 1987 he has been a visiting lecturer in Australia, Ukraine, India, and Siberia. He served as a translator for many of the psalms in the Holman Christian Standard Bible.
VICTOR D. ANDERSON

BS, Michigan State University at Lansing, 1981; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1986; PhD, Intercultural Education, Biola University, 2008.

After 15 years of engagement in theological education in Ethiopia, Dr. Anderson joined the DTS faculty in 2006. With a broad base of teaching experience in Africa, in local churches, and briefly at Talbot School of Theology, he completed a PhD in Intercultural Education, focusing his research on preaching in rural Ethiopia. Dr. Anderson maintains active ministry on a preaching team at his local church in Mesquite and at churches and conferences around the USA. He and his wife, Cindy, have two children. As associate missionaries with Serving in Mission (SIM), they continue to minister in cross-cultural contexts each summer.

MARK L. BAILEY

(1985–) President, Senior Professor of Bible Exposition.

AA, Maricopa Technical College, 1970; BA, Southwestern College, 1972; MDiv, Western Seminary, 1975; ThM, 1977; PhD, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1997; DD, Dallas Baptist University, 2006.

Dr. Bailey assumed the seminary’s presidency after years of service as both a professor in the Bible Exposition department and as the Vice President for Academic Affairs. In addition to his years at Dallas Theological Seminary, he has pastored various churches in Arizona and Texas. He was a seminar instructor for Walk Thru the Bible Ministries for twenty years and is in demand for Bible conferences and other preaching engagements. His overseas ministries have included Venezuela, Argentina, Hungary, and China. He is also a regular tour leader in Israel, Jordan, Egypt, Turkey, Greece, and Rome. His board service includes Bible Study Fellowship, Insight for Living, Jews for Jesus, and Walk Thru the Bible Ministries.

D. SCOTT BARFOOT

(2008–) Director of Doctor of Ministry Studies.

BA, Atlantic Baptist University, 1994; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1999; PhD, Regent University, 2007.

Dr. Barfoot aspires to equip and empower global executive, pastoral, and educational ministry leaders who impact the next generation for the cause of Christ. Having served in a variety of pastoral leadership capacities in rural Canadian and suburban Asian and American churches in Canada and the United States since 1992, he has a special heart for leadership development in the local church. His most recent research surveyed pastors who graduated from DTS to assess views of the leadership structure in their churches. He and his wife, Debbie, have three children—David, Joel, and Karissa.

C. GARY BARNES

(1997–) Professor of Biblical Counseling.

Dr. Barnes is an ordained minister and a licensed psychologist who specializes in marriage and family research, counseling, and training. After graduating from DTS he served as an assistant pastor for seven years. While in the New York area he was a research project coordinator at NYU Medical Center’s Family Studies Clinic and later completed a two-year postdoctoral fellowship through Parkland Hospital (Dallas) and the Child Guidance Clinics of Dallas and Texoma. His great celebrations of life are his wife, four adult kids plus three more by marriage, nine grandkids, and bicycle racing.

TIMOTHY J. BASSELIN

(2013–) Assistant Professor of Media Arts and Worship.

BA, Evangel University, 1998; MA, Fuller Theological Seminary, 2002; PhD, 2010.

Dr. Basselin’s research interests include the interaction between theology, culture, and literature as well as a theology of disability and weakness. He is on the editorial board for Christian Scholar’s Review. Dr. Basselin also serves as the director of the Media Arts apprenticeship program at DTS and enjoys collaborating with his students. He and his wife, Robin, have four children and enjoy road trips and camping.
Dr. Baylis has taught Bible Exposition at Dallas Theological Seminary since 1994. His love is teaching the biblical story and the literary exposition of each of the books as they contribute to the grand narrative of the Bible. Following this focus, his website, BiblicalStory.org, provides study and teaching resources for the evangelical community. In addition, he serves as a preacher, conference speaker, and Bible teacher and is author of a number of articles for journals as well as a book contributor. When he is not speaking or writing, he enjoys exploring the Biblical sites in Israel, Greece, Turkey, and Italy.

Dr. Bock has earned recognition as a Humboldt Scholar (Tübingen University in Germany), is the author of over 40 books, including well-regarded commentaries on Luke and Acts and studies of the historical Jesus, and work in cultural engagement as host of the seminary’s Table Podcasts. He was president of the Evangelical Theological Society (ETS) for 2000–2001, is a consulting editor for Christianity Today, and serves on the boards of Wheaton College and Chosen People Ministries. His articles appear in leading publications. He often is an expert for the media on NT issues. Dr. Bock has been a New York Times best-selling author in nonfiction and is elder emeritus at Trinity Fellowship Church in Dallas. When traveling overseas, he will tune into the current game involving his favorite teams from Houston—live—even in the wee hours of the morning. Married for over 40 years to Sally, he is a proud father of two daughters and a son and is also a grandfather.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Dr. Bolden migrated to southern California in 1971, and in 1979 he completed his undergraduate studies at Biola University, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in Christian Education. He earned a Master of Arts in Theological Education from Talbot Theological Seminary in 1992. In 2006, Dr. Bolden earned a Doctor of Ministry in Missions and Evangelism from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, TX. He currently serves as the Executive Director of Community and Church Relations at DTS-Houston. As a sought after conference speaker, preacher, and teacher, Dr. Bolden has been the featured lecturer in national conferences. His lectures and conference subjects range from successful biblical marriage, blended families, and evangelism to Bible doctrine and Christian education. He is married to Loretta C. Bolden. They are the parents of seven children and eight grandchildren.
J. LANIER BURNS
(1982–) Senior Professor of Systematic Theology, Research Professor of Theological Studies.
BA, Davidson College, 1965; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1972; ThD, 1979; PhD, University of Texas at Dallas, 1993; Postdoctoral research, Harvard University, 2001.
Dr. Burns is actively involved in administration in Christian and secular organizations. He also devotes time to writing, conferences, and pastoral leadership. He has been involved in post-doctoral research at Harvard and Oxford Universities. For over forty years he has served as president of the Asian Christian Academy in Hosur, India. He has participated in numerous neuroscientific activities for about eighteen years. His research interests include Trinitarianism, anthropology, sin, eschatology, the relationship of science and religion, and issues in social justice. He spends his spare time with his family and enjoying sports. He and Kathy have four children and 11 grandchildren.

MICHAEL H. BURER
BMus, University of Georgia, 1993; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1998; PhD, 2004.
Before beginning his faculty service Dr. Burer worked for many years with Bible.org as an editor and assistant project director for the NET Bible. He was also instrumental in the completion of the New English Translation-Novum Testamentum Graece diglot, published jointly by Bible.org and the Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft of Stuttgart, Germany. An ordained minister, Dr. Burer is an elder in his local church and has ministered frequently with The Evangelical Alliance Mission in France. He has served as a visiting teacher at the Faculté Libre de Théologie Évangélique in Vaux-sur-Seine, France. His research and teaching interests include Greek language and exegesis, the Gospels, and Jesus studies.

ROBERT B. CHISHOLM JR.
(1981–) Chair and Senior Professor of Old Testament Studies.
BA, Syracuse University, 1973; MDiv, Grace Theological Seminary, 1976; ThM, 1978; ThD, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1983.
While Dr. Chisholm enjoys teaching the full breadth of Old Testament studies, he takes special delight in the books of Judges, Samuel, Isaiah, and Amos. Dr. Chisholm has published seven books, most recently commentaries on Judges–Ruth and on 1–2 Samuel. He was translation consultant for the International Children’s Bible and for The Everyday Bible and is senior Old Testament editor for the NET Bible. Any discussion with Dr. Chisholm on the Old Testament, however, can be quickly sidetracked when mentioning Syracuse University basketball or the New York Yankees, teams which probably do not have a greater fan to the chagrin of his colleagues.

STEPHEN J. BRAMER
(1997–) Chair and Professor of Bible Exposition.
BTh, Tyndale University College, 1976; BA, University of Waterloo, 1978; MDiv, Tyndale Seminary, 1980; ThM, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, 1982; PhD, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1997.
Dr. Bramer taught for 16 years at Briercrost Bible College and at Briercrost Biblical Seminary in Saskatchewan, Canada, before joining the faculty of DTS. He also has enjoyed a variety of other ministries such as teaching elder, youth pastor, and pulpit supply throughout Canada and the United States. He serves as an adjunct professor for Word of Life Bible Institute, Hungary, Briercrost Seminary, Canada; as well as at the Jordan Evangelical Theological Seminary (JETS) in Jordan. He is a teaching pastor at Waterbrook Bible Fellowship and travels yearly to Israel and Jordan. Stephen and his wife, Sharon, enjoy visiting their three married children and nine grandchildren who live in three different countries.

SAMUEL P. C. CHIA
BS, University of Alberta, 1986; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1994; PhD, 2003.
Dr. Chia has been teaching in higher education for more than ten years. He regularly teaches classes related to a variety of New Testament topics and issues and has served as a lecturer, assistant professor, or adjunct professor at seminaries in Hong Kong, Taiwan, and the United States. In addition to teaching, he has served as a senior pastor of a Chinese church for nine years before moving to Taiwan in 2004. After serving as an adjunct professor for the Chinese Online program at DTS in 2006, Dr. Chia became the Director of Chinese Studies in 2008. Dr. Chia and his wife have one son.
AARON B. COE
(2017-) Executive Director, Passion Global Institute (in partnership with DTS), Assistant Professor of World Missions and Intercultural Studies.
BA, Middle Tennessee State University, 1999; MDiv, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, 2010; ThM, 2012; PhD, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, 2016.

Aside from his responsibilities at DTS, Dr. Coe serves Passion Conferences and Passion City Church in Strategic Initiatives. Previously, Aaron served as a church planting missionary, Lead Pastor of the Gallery Church, Executive Director of Send NYC, and Vice President of Mobilization and Marketing at the North American Mission Board. Aaron and his wife, Carmen, have four children and live in Atlanta, Georgia.

DORIAN G. COOVER-COX
(2001-) Professor of Old Testament Studies.

Dr. Coover-Cox has been a part of DTS as a student, a teacher, and associate editor for Bibliotheca Sacra. Originally she came to the seminary to become a better editor; she found, however, that what she enjoys most about editing is helping people learn. While still an editor, she has found her niche in the classroom as well, encouraging students as they learn Hebrew. She has special interest in the book of Exodus and in literary analysis of narratives and poetry.

CHARLES W. DICKENS
(2003-) Chair and Professor of Biblical Counseling.
BS, Texas Wesleyan University, 1991; MA, Southern Methodist University, 1992; PhD, 1995.

Prior to joining the faculty, Dr. Dickens served as an associate pastor in the areas of marriage ministry and counseling. He has previously served on the faculty of Biola University and has taught seminary and graduate-level courses internationally in Austria, Hong Kong, and Sri Lanka. Dr. Dickens is professionally active in the Christian Association of Psychological Studies and The Association of Marriage and Family Ministries and also serves as a contributing editor for the Journal of Psychology and Theology. He is married to Rebecca, and they have two children: Joshua and Jillian. At 6’8” Dr. Dickens loves to play basketball and will gladly dunk a basketball right over your head—in a very gentle, loving way of course.

SUE G. EDWARDS
(2005-) Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership.

Dr. Edward's heartbeat is to reinforce ministry partnerships between men and women, which strengthen church and parachurch organizations locally and worldwide. She has over forty years of experience in Bible teaching, educational ministries, leading ministry to women, retreat and conference speaking, training teams and teachers, overseeing staff, and writing curriculum. As former minister to women at her local church she experienced healthy men and women partnerships on staff, and her passion is to pass on what she has learned. She is the author of ‘The Discover Together Series’, currently providing thirteen inductive Bible studies for women (www.discovertogetherseries.com), co-author of five leadership books for women, and co-editor of ‘Invitation to Educational Ministry, Foundations of Transformative Christian Education.” Dr. Edward's research and teaching interests include coaching and instructing women to teach the Bible and organic mentoring. Married to David for forty-six years, she especially enjoys romping with their five grandchildren and their two west highland terriers.

JOSEPH D. FANTIN
BA, Eastern Michigan University, 1986; MA, Michigan State University, 1988; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1995; PhD, 2003; PhD, University of Sheffield, 2007.

Dr. Fantin believes an accurate understanding of God’s Word will enable the believer to grow in his or her relationship with Christ, to love God and others, to bring Christ’s love to a lost world, to build up the church, and, most importantly, to glorify God. He is committed to teaching exegetical method in order to help students understand, apply, and teach the Bible in order to achieve these goals. His research interests include the prison epistles, the first-century world, Greek, linguistics, and relevance theory. He and his wife, Robin, have two children: Jillian and David.
Ministering at the intersection of parachurch, pastoral, and academic ministry, Dr. Fong is committed to teaching God's Word "to anyone and everyone who will lend him an ear." By serving as the Dean of DTS-Houston and Professor of Pastoral Ministries, he is excited to minister to and train the next generation of Christian leaders. Dr. Fong and his wife, Yvonne, have five children (three children plus two in-law children that he and his wife love so much that they are counted as their own). He enjoys the outdoors and spending time with his family.

In addition to teaching on-campus classes, Dr. Glahn teaches immersive courses in Italy and Great Britain, as well as immersive courses in writing and in worship. Dr. Glahn is a multi-published author of both fiction and non-fiction, a journalist, and a speaker who advocates for thinking that transforms, especially on topics relating to art, gender, sexual intimacy in marriage, and first-century backgrounds as they relate to gender. Dr. Glahn’s more than twenty books reveal her interests in bioethics, sexuality, and biblical women. She has also written eleven Bible studies in the Coffee Cup Bible Study series. A regular blogger at Engage, bible.org’s site for women in Christian leadership, she is the owner of Aspire Productions, and served as editor-in-chief for Kindred Spirit from 1999 to 2016. She and her husband have one adult daughter.

Dr. Gonzales has pastored in the local church, ministered overseas in short-term missions, and mentored international students from many countries (London, Guadalajara, Cochabamba [Bolivia], Tokyo, and Tainan [Taiwan]). The former Dallas Baptist University and Liberty University professor enjoys reading, writing, and running. A former member of the UCLA track team and former school record holder (1,500 meter event), he was involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action ministries for many years. Dr. Gonzales and his wife, Deedy, have two adult children.

Dr. Grant enjoys teaching courses in homiletics, drama, oral interpretation, and creative writing. He also serves on the board of directors for Insight for Living. Dr. Grant has coauthored several books and has written, produced, and acted for radio, television, theater, and film. Dr. Grant is married to Lauren, and they have three grown children and one grandson (Lauren is "Lolly", Reg is "Pop"). Reg loves to spend time on his ranch south of San Antonio. You’d never know it from his cultured personality, but this guy can “cowboy up” right quick.

Dr. Hannah has enjoyed a distinguished career for more than forty years at DTS. He is a frequent and popular church and conference speaker both at home and abroad. His teaching interests include the general history of the Christian church, with particular interest in the works of Jonathan Edwards and John Owen. Among his published works are a history of DTS and a general history of the Christian Church. He remains active in church ministries and serves on the boards of several organizations.
W. HALL HARRIS III
(1978–) Senior Professor of New Testament Studies.
BA, North Carolina State University, 1974; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1978; PhD, University of Sheffield, 1989.

A DTS faculty member for forty years, Dr. Harris has worked extensively on the Gospel of John, and now actively collaborates with faculty from other departments teaching courses on C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, science fiction, and the intersection of theology and technology. His wife is a native of Germany, and he has worked closely with the German Bible Society (Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft) as lead editor of the New English Translation—Novum Testamentum Graece New Testament. Since 1995, Dr. Harris has served as project director and managing editor of The NET Bible (New English Translation), the first modern Bible translation to be published freely on the internet (lumina.bible.org). He has served as both translator and general editor for The Lexham Greek-English Interlinear New Testament: SBL Edition, general editor and NT translator for the Lexham English Bible (LEB), and is involved in other Faithlife Corporation projects. Dr. Harris serves on the board of directors of the Center for the Study of New Testament Manuscripts (CSNTM.org), and as an ordained minister, he has served in various churches as pastor of single adults, elder, adult Sunday school teacher, and Bible study leader.

N. SCOTT HARRIS
(2018–) Director of Doctor of Educational Ministry Studies, Associate Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership
BBA, University of Oklahoma, 1987; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1998; PhD, University of North Texas, 2005

Dr. Scott Harris finds great joy in equipping men and women for the task that God has called them to fulfill. He has had a varied background of ministry platforms. He worked with college students while on staff with Campus Crusade. He served on staff with the local church. He has been the Headmaster of a small private school, and he has directed the graduate program at a Christian university. He and his wife, Kathryn, have four sons—Jonathan, David, Mark, and Noah. He enjoys sitting on the front porch talking with Kathryn, watching his sons’ sports, working in the yard, and old cars.

GREGORY A. HATTEBERG
(1998–) Executive Director of Alumni Services, Assistant Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership
AA, Joliet Junior College, 1977; BA, Moody Bible Institute, 1980; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1992; DMin, 2014

Before joining the faculty, Dr. Hatteberg worked in recruitment at Moody Bible Institute and at DTS in the offices of the Academic Dean, Advancement, Placement, and Admissions. The former youth pastor is an instructor for Walk Thru the Bible Ministries and especially enjoys teaching Physical and Historical Geography of Israel, Christian Marriage and Family, and Rapid Reading. Based on his experiences in Israel, he has been a licensed tour guide for Israel and coauthored The Christian Traveler's Guide to the Holy Land. Dr. Hatteberg grew up on the prairies of Illinois and still loves the farming life. He also enjoys golf, a good game of pool, a few licks on the harmonica, but most of all being “Papa” to his family and grandbabies.

DANIEL L. HILL
BA, Hampton University, 2009; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2015; PhD, Wheaton College, 2018

Prior to arriving at DTS, Dr. Daniel Hill helped launch an urban, Christian classical school in Chicago, IL and served at a church in Houston, TX. His research interests include ecclesiology, theological anthropology, and political theology. After completing his ThM at Dallas Theological Seminary, Dr. Hill had the privilege of attending Wheaton College for his doctoral studies where he researched the intersection of ecclesiology and anthropology. He desires to encourage students to delight in the vastness of God’s goodness, the richness of our inheritance in Christ, and the beauty of the community into which we have been saved.
GEORGE M. HILLMAN JR.
(2002–) Vice President for Student Life, Dean of Students, Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership.
BS, Texas A&M University, 1990; MDiv, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1994; PhD, 2004.
Dr. Hillman has a passion for education, spiritual formation, and leadership development. He came to Dallas Theological Seminary with years of ministry experience in churches and parachurch organizations in Texas and Georgia. Nationally known in theological field education, he has been active in leadership of both the Association of Theological Field Education (former member of the Steering Committee) and the Evangelical Association of Theological Field Educators (former two-time co-chair). He and his wife have one daughter.

MARK L. HITCHCOCK
BS, Oklahoma State University, 1981; JD, Oklahoma City University School of Law, 1984; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1991; PhD, 2005.
Dr. Hitchcock is Senior Pastor of Faith Bible Church in Edmond, Oklahoma, a position he has held since 1991. He served as Adjunct Professor of Bible Exposition at Dallas Theological Seminary from 2006–2013 before joining the faculty part-time in 2014. Dr. Hitchcock has authored over twenty books, primarily on end time prophecy, and speaks across the country and internationally at churches and conferences. He and his wife, Cheryl, have two married sons, one grandson, and one granddaughter. Aside from reading and studying, he enjoys walking, lifting weights, and playing golf.

NATHAN N. HOFF
BA, Temple University, 2005; ThM, DTS, 2010; PhD, 2018.
Dr. Hoff developed a love for Bible Exposition soon after he began his master's studies at Dallas Seminary. Since that time, Dr. Hoff has gained a strong desire to help both those in the academy and in the local church develop in the discipline of Bible exposition. His academic interests include hermeneutics, dispensationalism, and biblical theology. During his free time, Dr. Hoff enjoys Crossfit, weightlifting, and spending time with his wife, Abby, and their four boys—Judah, Jeshua, Jordan, and Josiah.

KAM-CHEUNG RICHARD HON
BSSC, Chinese University of Hong Kong, 1987; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1996; PhD, 2015.
Dr. Hon worked for over 19 years in multiple leadership positions with Campus Crusade for Christ. He has been involved in church planting ministries and was the founder and lead-Pastor of Neighborhood Bible Church for 8 years. He currently serves at New Life Gospel Church in Lewisville. For many years, he was actively involved in discipleship, leadership development, and Bible seminars. He and his wife, Eira, have three grown children—Lydia, Priscilla, and Nathan.

J. SCOTT HORRELL
(1997–) Professor of Theological Studies.
Dr. Horrell has been a missionary and theologian in various world cultures, in addition to evangelism and church-planting with World Team, InterVarsity, and Youth with a Mission (YWAM). Along with teaching in several seminaries and cofounding and editing a leading Latin American theological journal, he has written several books in Portuguese and English. He serves as adjunct faculty at SETECA (Guatemala), JETS (Jordan), and CDL (Mozambique). He desires to strengthen believers in the doctrinal truths of the Bible, a Trinitarian framework of life, and an understanding of global Christian faith.
PHILIP F. HUMPHRIES
(2017-) Associate Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership.

Dr. Humphries majored in public administration in college and worked for 7 years as a tax auditor before God called him into full-time ministry. After earning his ThM in Christian Education from Dallas Seminary, he worked as an associate pastor of church education at a church in Virginia and as director of small group development and later executive pastor at Scofield Bible Church in Dallas. He is the founding pastor of Clearwater Community Church in Richardson, TX. He has over 30 years of experience in the areas of Christian education, administration, and pastoral leadership. Dr. Humphries has a heart for both the congregant and the student. The great joys of his life are his wife, children, and grandchildren.

MARVIN T. HUNN
(2009-) Library Director.
BA, Trinity University, 1972; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1977; MLS, University of North Texas, 1981.

Mr. Hunn brings nearly forty years of library experience to his job at DTS, with particular strengths in public services and information technologies. He is a member of the American Theological Library Association and the Association of Christian Librarians, and past president of the Southwestern Area Theological Library Association. His is especially interested in developing online resources and services to meet the needs of students. His wife, Debbie, is also a librarian. Since 1998 they have volunteered together to help youth detained by the Dallas county juvenile justice system. They are inveterate walkers and you can see them walking around the campus daily, come rain or shine.

GORDON H. JOHNSTON
BA, University of Nebraska, 1981; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1985; ThD, 1992.

Dr. Johnston possesses a specialist’s depth and generalist’s breadth. Known for thorough research and meticulous detail, he delights in helping students see the broad themes that unify the Scriptures. He has degrees in Classical Greek, Biblical Hebrew, and Hebrew and Semitic languages, as well as post-doctoral study in Hittite as visiting research professor at University of Chicago (2010-11). His research/teaching interests include Wisdom Literature and Biblical Theology. Dr. Johnston has published numerous articles in scholarly journals, contributed to the NET Bible and co-authored a monograph entitled Jesus the Messiah. Gordon and his wife Danielle, the love of his life, have been blessed with three dearly loved children.

FRENCH A. JONES
BS, Georgia State University, 1972; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1980; PhD, University of North Texas, 1988.

In addition to serving on the faculty at DTS, Dr. Jones is a Licensed Professional Counselor Supervisor with a private practice specializing in marriage and divorce issues. For twelve years he served as a pastor/counselor for singles at a church in Dallas and also has been the executive director and clinical director at the Swiss Avenue Counseling Center in downtown Dallas. Dr. Jones belongs to the American Association of Christian Counselors and the Christian Association for Psychological Studies. He is a former staff member of both Cru (Campus Crusade for Christ) and Probe Ministries. He is also currently Director for the Global Counseling Initiative, a ministry of counseling missionaries overseas.
DAVID R. KLINGLER
BBA, University of Houston, 1991; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2004; PhD, 2010.

Prior to coming to Dallas Theological Seminary, Dr. Klingler was an All-American quarterback at the University of Houston and first round NFL draft pick. In the summer after his rookie season in the NFL, David attended a summer Bible study where the teacher exhorted David to quit football and go to seminary. Ten years later, he had earned both a ThM and PhD from DTS.
Dr. Klingler is married to his wife, Katie, and has two sons.

GLENN R. KREIDER
(2001- ) Professor of Theological Studies, Editor in Chief of Bibliotheca Sacra.

Prior to teaching at DTS, Dr. Kreider served as Director of Christian Education and then as Senior Pastor in Cedar Hill, TX. His research and writing interests include Jonathan Edwards, theological method, theology and popular culture, and our eschatological hope. Dr. Kreider believes that grace really is amazing; it is a thought that will change the world. He is married to his best friend, Janice, and they have two grown children and one granddaughter, Marlo Grace. He and Janice enjoy live music, good stories, bold coffee, spending time together and with their rescue dogs—a terrier/greyhound mix named Chloe and a black lab named Carlile.

ABRAHAM KURUVILLA
(2007- ) Senior Research Professor of Preaching and Pastoral Ministries.
MD, University of Kerala, 1988; PhD, Baylor College of Medicine, 1993; Post-doctoral Research, Baylor College of Medicine, 1995; Internship in Pediatrics, Texas Children’s Hospital, 1996.

Captivated by the intricacies of the interpretive movement from Scripture to sermon, Dr. Kuruvilla centers his ministry around homiletics: exploring preaching through research and scholarship, explaining preaching by training the next generation of church leaders, and exemplifying preaching in regular pulpit engagements. He has also served as interim pastor of several churches. Dr. Kuruvilla is a Diplomate of the American Board of Dermatology, and he maintains an active clinical schedule. Single by choice, he also has a special interest in the theology of Christ-centered singleness and celibacy.

MICHAEL S. LAWSON
(1986- ) Senior Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership.
BBA, University of North Texas, 1965; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1969; PhD, Oklahoma University, 1983.

Dr. Lawson invested seventeen years in pastoral work and Christian education before returning to teach at DTS in 1986. His special concern for Christian education in the developing world has guided his international preaching and teaching schedule to scores of countries around the world. In recent years numerous international Bible colleges and seminaries have requested his help in curriculum design and faculty development. His recent focus has been on developing the Family Ministry, Advanced Academic Ministry, and Chinese cohorts within the Doctor of Educational Ministry Degree program.

AUBREY M. MALPHURS
(1981- ) Senior Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership and Pastoral Ministries
AA, University of Florida, 1964; BA, Florida Atlantic University, 1966; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1978; PhD, 1981.

Dr. Malphurs is a visionary with a deep desire to influence a new generation of leaders through his classroom, pulpit, consulting, and writing ministries. He is involved in a number of ministries ranging from church planting and growth to leadership development. He has pastored three churches and is the author of numerous books and articles on leadership and church ministry. Currently he is the president of the Malphurs Group and is a trainer and consultant to churches, denominations, and ministry organizations throughout North America and Europe. His research and teaching interests include church planting, church growth, and leadership development.
LINDA M. MARTEN
(2002–) Associate Professor of Biblical Counseling.
BA, University of Iowa, 1964; MA, University of Northern Iowa, 1971; PhD, University of North Texas, 1984.

Dr. Marten brings to her classes both an enthusiasm for the counseling profession and skills that have been honed through her thirty plus years of client interactions in private practice. Though she works with many different life problems, her specialties are trauma and dissociation. She is an LPC supervisor member of the Christian Association of Psychological Studies, and a clinical member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy.

NATHAN J. MCKANNA
(2012–) Director of Admissions.
BA, Appalachian Bible College, 2009; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2015; Graduate study toward PhD, University of North Texas, 2017–.

During his ThM studies, Mr. McKanna served in a variety of roles with Team Admissions before being appointed Director of Admissions in July 2015. This role brings together his pastoral heart and passion for academic training as he helps shepherd the next generation of DTS students. These interests also fuel his desire to minister in his local church, where he serves on the preaching team and co-teaches an Adult Bible Fellowship class. He and his wife, Noel, have three children: Zoë, Noble, and Wesley.

S. JONATHAN MURPHY
(2015–) Chair and Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries.
MA(Hons), Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh, 2000; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2004; PhD, 2009.

Dr. Murphy comes to the Seminary from a variety of places. While born in Belfast, Northern Ireland, he was raised in the Canary Islands, Spain, and educated in Northern Ireland, Edinburgh (Scotland), and Dallas, Texas! Such cross-cultural exposure has nurtured a diverse range of interests from cheering for Ulster in rugby and Spain in soccer to enjoying all things related to history and a love for God’s people all over the world. Jonathan pastored in Northern Ireland before joining the seminary. His heart beats to encourage and shape leaders for the local church worldwide. He and his wife, Sarah Jane, have four children.

LINDEN D. MCLAUGHLIN
(1996–) Assistant to the Academic Dean for Assessment, Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership.
BA, Austin College, 1978; MA, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1985; PhD, University of North Texas, 2002.

Dr. McLaughlin brings a love for the church to the classroom. His forty years of ministry encompass aspects of church administration and Christian education. He brings to DTS a wide variety of experience, ranging from campus staff minister for InterVarsity Christian Fellowship to a guest professorship at the Greek Bible Institute in Athens. Dr. McLaughlin also has been active on the boards of the Texas Sunday School Association and the Professional Association of Christian Educators.

RODNEY H. ORR
(2012–) Chair and Associate Professor of World Missions and Intercultural Studies.
BS, Purdue University, 1977; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1990; PhD, University of Edinburgh, 1998.

Dr. Orr spent his formative years in Ethiopia and Germany. He served with Cru (Campus Crusade for Christ) for thirty-four years, seventeen of which were overseas. Dr. Orr taught at the Nairobi International School of Theology in Kenya, and while serving as executive director, he helped build Africa Leadership and Management Academy, a graduate school in Zimbabwe. While stateside, his ministry focused on Yale University and United Nations diplomats in New York City. Dr. Orr and his wife, Cortina (deceased), have two children, Ariel and Bradley.
MICHAEL A. ORTIZ
(2016–) Director of DTS en Español, Associate Professor of World Missions and Intercultural Studies.
BA, University of South Florida, 1984; JD, Southern Methodist University, 1988; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2008; PhD, Seminario Teológico Centroamericano (SETECA), 2015.

Dr. Ortiz moved to Dallas from Sarasota, Florida with his wife, Kathy, in November 2015, but they are not strangers to Dallas as they lived here while he was getting his ThM from DTS in 2008. They have two children: Michael and Alyssa. He and Kathy have been married for over 30 years and now attend Northwest Bible Church. He is a Cuban American with a passion for theological education in the Hispanic Community. He has had extensive ministry in Cuba related to leadership development and contextualization within the Cuban setting. He is also a practicing attorney and enjoys cycling, fishing, and photography.

TIMOTHY J. RALSTON
(1992–) Professor of Pastoral Ministries.
BS, University of Waterloo, 1978; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1983; PhD, 1994.

Dr. Ralston brings a rich pastoral background to the classroom. He has served as not only an associate pastor and pastor in Ontario, but also as a director of adult education in the United States. Dr. Ralston is an active member in the North American Academy of Liturgy, the Evangelical Theological Society, and the Evangelical Homiletics Society. His research in New Testament manuscripts, worship, and spiritual direction has taken him into a wide variety of settings and produced many scholarly articles. He is also an active Master Scuba Diving instructor and emergency first-response trainer. He and his wife, Carol, have two daughters.

RAMESH P. RICHARD
BCom, Madras Christian College, 1973; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1979; ThD, 1982; PhD, University of Delhi, 1991.

In addition to more than 30 years of faculty service, Dr. Richard is founder and president of Ramesh Richard Evangelism and Church Health (RREACH), a global proclamation ministry that seeks to evangelize leaders and strengthen pastors primarily of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. He has ministered in over 100 countries, speaking to wide-ranging audiences, from pastors in rural areas to heads of state. In partnership with DTS, RREACH launched the Global Proclamation Academy to equip influential young pastors from all over the world. Dr. Richard is also the founder of Trainers of Pastors International Coalition (TOPIC) and the general convener of the 2016 Global Proclamation Congress for Pastoral Trainers. He and his wife, Bonnie, have three grown children and two grandchildren.

ERIK D. SALWEN
(2014–) Assistant Professor of Biblical Counseling, DTS-Houston.
BA, University of Texas at Austin, 1993; MBA, Columbia University, 2002; MABC/MABS, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2011; PhD, Regent University, 2016.

In addition to his teaching responsibilities at Dallas Theological Seminary, Dr. Salwen is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and the founder of College Station Christian Counseling, PLLC, ministering to the Bryan/College Station area. He has exercised executive leadership in the discipline of counseling across business, educational, and church contexts. Active in the Greater Houston area since 1996, Dr. Salwen has consistently sought out opportunities to serve the local community and currently serves on the board of regents of Texas Southern University. His ongoing research interest is in the area of church leadership and mental health.

JAY L. SEDWICK JR.
(1998–) Chair and Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership.
BS, Pennsylvania State University, 1984; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1989; MA, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1996; PhD, 2003.

Dr. Sedwick has over thirty years of youth ministry experience. He serves on the board of the Association of Youth Ministry Educators and has served as president of the board for the Society of Professors in Christian Education. An ordained minister who teaches youth at a large Dallas-area church, Dr. Sedwick is also a popular conference and seminar speaker. His research and teaching interests include youth development, youth culture, biblical education for youth, curriculum design, and legal and financial issues in ministry.
EDWARD W. SHYU
(2011-) Assistant Director of Chinese Studies, Adjunct Professor in Educational Ministries and Leadership, and for Doctor of Ministry.
BS, Ocean University, Taiwan, ROC, 1987; MIBA, West Coast University, 1992; MDiv, International Theological Seminary, 1995; DMin, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2010; DEdMin, 2017.
Dr. Shyu has served as Missionary Director of CEF San Gabriel Valley Region in mobilizing Good News Clubs in public schools and training Sunday school teachers at local churches since 1999. He also has served on pastoral teams at Chinese local churches in Southern California. His major duties are building online or hybrid courses for online Chinese studies. His passion is to teach children, train teachers, and equip leaders so that they are able to teach the truth, preach the gospel, and make disciples for the Lord.

BENJAMIN I. SIMPSON
(2011-) Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies.
BA, Bryan College, 1998; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2003; PhD, 2011.
Dr. Simpson joined the faculty in 2006 as the registrar. In 2011, he moved to Houston to work with the Houston campus. In 2016, he and his family moved to Washington, DC where he continues helping external students complete their degrees while positively influencing their ministries. His research interests include Jesus, the Gospels, and hermeneutics. He is married to Amber and they have two children: Madison and Eli.

JAY E. SMITH
(1996-) Chair and Professor of New Testament Studies.
BS, Bowling Green State University, 1982; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1989; PhD, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, 1996.
Various forms of ministry in the local church complement Dr. Smith’s role as a teacher in the New Testament Studies department. He has a special interest in the apostle Paul’s letters and New Testament theology. He regularly contributes to leading academic journals and several professional societies. His current teaching and research interests include 1 Corinthians and sexual ethics in Pauline literature. “Dr. Jay” often uses sports, history, and music metaphors to help his students learn Greek grammar and syntax. And maybe someday he and his daughters, Karissa and Dayna, will hook a big one at the lake right by his house.

MICHAEL J. SVIGEL
(2007-) Chair and Professor of Theological Studies.
BS, Philadelphia Biblical University, 1996; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2001; PhD, 2007.
Besides teaching both historical and systematic theology at DTS, Dr. Svigel is actively engaged in teaching and writing for a broader evangelical audience. His passion for a Christ-centered theology and life is coupled with a penchant for humor, music, and writing. Dr. Svigel comes to DTS after working for several years in the legal field as well as serving as a writer with the ministry of Insight for Living. His books and articles range from text critical studies to juvenile fantasy. He and his wife, Stephanie, have three children: Sophie, Lucas, and Nathan.

RICHARD A. TAYLOR
(1989-) Senior Research Professor of Old Testament Studies.
BA, Bob Jones University, 1966; MA, 1968; PhD, 1973; MA, Catholic University of America, 1985; PhD, 1990.
Dr. Taylor’s research interests include the Hebrew Bible and its ancient versions, exegetical method, and Semitic languages. His specialties include Aramaic studies and Syriac literature. His travels have taken him to Central America, the UK, Europe, Israel, Jordan, Canada, Sweden, Finland, Russia, Estonia, Africa, and India. His wife is a Christian school administrator, his daughter is a public school teacher, and his son is a university professor.
ANDI J. THACKER
(2014–) Assistant Professor of Biblical Counseling.
BS, Texas Tech University, 2003; MABC, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2006; PhD, University of North Texas, 2010.

As a professor in the Biblical counseling department, Dr. Thacker is passionate about teaching counseling students to integrate scripture and psychology and apply those concepts to real life counseling situations. In addition to her teaching responsibilities at DTS, Dr. Thacker maintains a small private practice in which she specializes with children and adolescents and supervises LPC-Interns. Dr. Thacker completed her training with a master’s degree in biblical counseling from Dallas Theological Seminary and a PhD in counselor education and supervision from the University of North Texas. She is a Licensed Professional Counselor, a Board Approved Supervisor, and holds multiple certifications in counseling. Most importantly, she is married to Chad, and they have three children—Emerson, William, and Webb.

JAMES H. THAMES
(1984–) Dean of Academic Administration, Director of Summer Session and Winter Session, Associate Professor of Educational Ministries and Leadership.
BA, Grace University, 1978; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1985; PhD, University of North Texas, 1997.

From his unique position as faculty and administrative staff member, Dr. Thames understands frontline teaching and behind-the-scenes logistics. Since joining the seminary in 1984, he has served in a variety of positions and has been involved in establishing a professional association for registrars and admissions officers for theological schools. His areas of special interest include administration and accreditation in Christian higher education. In addition, Dr. Thames, an ordained minister, has been involved in overseas ministry and is active in his local church, including several years of service as a teacher and as a member of the board of elders. Both he and his wife, Laurie, grew up in Colorado and have a love for the outdoors. In fact, most of their vehicles are easily identified by the Colorado Native bumper sticker they sport. Dr. Thames and his wife have two married daughters.

EKPEDAME U. WADE
BS, University of Missouri-Columbia, 2001; MD, 2005; MABC, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2015

Dr. Wade obtained her Medical Degree from University of Missouri-Columbia and is a Board Certified Family Physician with a special interest in mental health. She has been practicing medicine and is a member of the American Academy of Family Physicians for over 15 years. She also graduated from DTS with a Masters in Biblical Counseling and is a Licensed Professional Counselor. Dr. Wade is married to Kweku, and they have two children.

DANIEL B. WALLACE
BA, Biola University, 1975; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1979; PhD, 1995; Post-doctoral studies at Cambridge University, University of Münster, and Tübingen University.

Dr. Wallace, a fourth-generation Californian, is a member of the Society of New Testament Studies, the Institute for Biblical Research, the Society of Biblical Literature, the American Society of Papyrologists, and the Evangelical Theological Society (of which he was president in 2016). He has been a consultant for several Bible translations. He has written, edited, or contributed to more than three dozen books and has published articles in New Testament Studies, Novum Testamentum, Biblica, Westminster Theological Journal, Bulletin of Biblical Review, the Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society, and several other peer-reviewed journals. His Exegetical Syntax of the New Testament is the standard intermediate Greek grammar and has been translated into more than a half-dozen languages. He is the executive director of the Center for the Study of New Testament Manuscripts (csntm.org), an institute whose initial purpose is to preserve Scripture by taking digital photographs of all known Greek New Testament manuscripts. In the process CSNTM staff have discovered over ninety New Testament manuscripts throughout the world. He and his wife, Pati, have four sons, three daughters-in-law, three granddaughters, one grandson, and one Labrador.
BRIAN L. WEBSTER
(2002-) Professor of Old Testament Studies.
BA, Cornerstone University, 1987; MPhil, Hebrew Union College, 1993; PhD, 2000.
In the course of his professional career, Dr. Webster has worked as a research fellow at The Scriptorium, cataloguing cuneiform texts and working with Hebrew scrolls; taught Greek and Hebrew at Cornerstone University and at Puritan Reform Theological Seminary; and served as associate professor of Bible and chair of the Bible, Religion, and Ministry division at Cornerstone University. He has won several teaching awards and recognition in Who's Who Among America’s Teachers.

MICHELLE O. WOODY
(2013-) Assistant Professor of Biblical Counseling, DTS-Washington, DC.
BA, University of California at Los Angeles, 1976; MBA, Atlanta University, 1978; MABC, Dallas Theological Seminary, 2010; EdD, University of Southern California, 2014.
Dr. Woody is a graduate of the DTS Counseling program with several years of ministry and business experience. She served in Bible Study Fellowship for nearly fifteen years in a number of roles including Teaching Leader. In the summer of 2016, she became a resident MABC faculty member of DTS-Washington, DC. She is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC), an ordained minister, and a conference and seminar presenter. Her on-going training and teaching interests include social and cultural issues for women and at-risk youth, K–12 public education reform, and working in inpatient mental health facilities. Her passion is to equip and empower clients though counseling interventions and creative educational strategies. Dr. Woody enjoys international travel, college sports, health club workouts, teaching in youth ministry, and spending time with her children (Jason, Lindsey, and Kelsey) and her poodle (Jordan).

MARK M. YARBROUGH
(2001-) Vice President for Academic Affairs; Academic Dean, Associate Professor of Bible Exposition.
BA, Dallas Christian College, 1993; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary, 1996; PhD, 2008.
Dr. Yarbrough has served in a variety of positions during his tenure at DTS: Research Assistant to the President, Executive Director of Information Technology, Associate Dean for External Education, and Vice President for Communications. Regardless of the title, he is delighted to engage in the world of Christian higher education. His love for the classroom draws him to the Bible Exposition department, where he teaches a variety of courses, and his love for the local body of Christ has called him to the pastoral preaching team at Centerpoint Church in Mesquite, Texas. Mark and his wife, Jennifer, have four children: Kayla, Jacob, Kayci, and Joseph—and two energetic dogs named Biscuit and Gravy.

TIMOTHY S. YODER
(2017-) Associate Professor of Theological Studies.
BS, Cairn University, 1986; MDiv, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, 1992; MA, Marquette University, 2002; PhD, 2005.
Dr. Timothy Yoder has been teaching at various universities for over 25 years. In addition to Bible and Theology, the list of courses he has taught includes Philosophy, Ethics, Apologetics, World Religions, Logic and Church History. The challenge of teaching feeds his love of learning and reading. On top of teaching, he has been privileged to work as a missionary. In the 90s, Dr. Yoder served in Vologda, Russia, and he has also been on short-term trips in several countries. Together with his wife, Lisa, they have led a half-dozen student trips to Macedonia. They love to travel, read, watch movies and follow NFL football.

The David L. Edwards Servant-Leader Award for Faculty Excellence in Spirit and Service

The David L. Edwards Servant-Leader Award for Faculty Excellence in Spirit and Service is given annually at the beginning of the fall semester to the full-time faculty member who, in the estimation of his or her peers, best represents:

- A servant attitude toward faculty, staff, and students;
- A willingness to invest one’s time and life in serving students;
- An integrity of word and behavior—someone whose commitments are faithfully met;
- A genuine humility toward the teaching/leading role, being able to serve without much notice or recognition; and
- A high standard of excellence in both task and process, doing the best one can do with the resources God has provided.

Recipients of this award since its inception are:

1998  Michael S. Lawson

Senior Class Award for Faculty Excellence

Two annual awards of $500 each, endowed by the class of 1984, are given by the graduating class to the two faculty members, one nontenured and one tenured, who, in the estimation of the graduating class, contributed most to their ministry preparation through teaching excellence.

Faculty who have received this award since its inception are:

1984  Dr. Howard G. Hendricks—Tenured
       Dr. William D. Lawrence—Nontenured
1985  Dr. John D. Hannah—Tenured
       Dr. John A. Martin—Nontenured
1986  Dr. J. Lanier Burns—Tenured
       Dr. Robert J. Choun Jr.—Nontenured
1987  Dr. Frederic R. Howe—Tenured
       Dr. Darrell L. Bock—Nontenured
1988  Dr. Thomas L. Constable—Tenured
       Prof. Mark L. Bailey—Nontenured
1989  Dr. Stanley D. Toussaint—Tenured
       Dr. Michael S. Lawson—Nontenured
1990  Dr. Walter L. Baker—Tenured
       Prof. Kenneth L. Sarles—Nontenured
1991  Dr. John D. Hannah—Tenured
       Dr. Charles H. Dyer—Nontenured
1992  Dr. J. Ronald Blue—Tenured
Prof. John D. Grassmick—Nontenured
1993  Dr. Robert J. Choun—Tenured
Dr. Robert A. Pyne—Nontenured
1994  Dr. Thomas L. Constable—Tenured
Prof. Mark L. Bailey—Nontenured
1995  Dr. Stephen R. Spencer—Tenured
Dr. Daniel B. Wallace—Nontenured
1996  Dr. Roy B. Zuck—Tenured
Prof. G. William Bryan—Nontenured
1997  Dr. Harold W. Hoehner—Tenured
Dr. Mark S. Young—Nontenured
1998  Dr. Ronald B. Allen—Tenured
Prof. Linden D. McLaughlin—Nontenured
1999  Dr. J. Lanier Burns—Tenured
Prof. John D. Grassmick—Nontenured
2000  Dr. J. Scott Horrell—Tenured
Dr. Stephen J. Bramer—Nontenured
2001  Dr. Stephen R. Spencer—Tenured
Prof. Kent D. Berghuis—Nontenured
2002  Dr. D. Jeffrey Bingham—Tenured
Dr. Gordon H. Johnston—Nontenured
2003  Dr. John D. Hannah—Tenured

DTS Enrolls Men and Women Who:

(1) show evidence of saving faith in Christ
(2) are of proven Christian character
(3) are endowed with appropriate spiritual gifts
(4) adhere to the following doctrines:
   • the authority and inerrancy of Scripture
   • the Trinity
   • Christ’s full deity and humanity
   • the spiritual lostness of the human race
   • Christ’s substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection
   • salvation by faith alone in Christ alone
   • the physical return of Christ

While students must adhere to the seven doctrines listed above to be admitted and graduate, each faculty member affirms full agreement with the entire doctrinal statement reproduced below.

Article I—The Scriptures
We believe that “all Scripture is given by inspiration of God,” by which we understand the whole Bible is inspired in the sense that holy men of God “were moved by the Holy Spirit” to write the very words of Scripture. We believe that this divine inspiration extends equally and fully to all parts of the writings—historical, poetical, doctrinal, and prophetical—as appeared in the original manuscripts. We believe that the whole Bible in the originals is therefore without error. We believe that all the Scriptures center about the Lord Jesus Christ in His person and work in His first and second coming, and hence that no portion, even of the Old Testament, is properly read, or understood, until it leads to Him. We also believe that all the Scriptures were designed for our practical instruction (Mark 12:26, 36; 110:11; 2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21).

Article II—The Godhead
We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—and that these three are one God, having precisely the same nature, attributes, and perfections, and worthy of precisely the same homage, confidence, and obedience (Matt. 28:18–19; Mark 12:29; John 1:14; Acts 5:3–4; 2 Cor. 13:14; Heb. 1:1–3; Rev. 1:4–6).

Article III—Angels, Fallen and Unfallen
We believe that God created an innumerable company of sinless, spiritual beings, known as angels; that one, “Lucifer, son of the morning”—the highest in rank—sinned through pride, thereby becoming Satan; that a great company of the angels followed him in his moral fall, some of whom became demons and are active as his agents and associates in the prosecution of his unholy purposes, while others who fell are “reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day” (Isa. 14:12–17; Ezek. 28:11–19; 1 Tim. 3:6; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6).

We believe that Satan is the originator of sin, and that, under the permission of God, he, through subtlety, led our first parents into transgression, thereby accomplishing their moral fall and subjecting them and their posterity to his own power; that he is the enemy of God and the people of God, opposing and exalting himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped; and that he who in the beginning said, “I will be like the most High,” in his warfare appears as an angel of light, even counterfeiting the works of God by fostering religious movements and systems of doctrine, which systems in every case are characterized by a denial of the efficacy of the blood of Christ and of salvation by grace alone (Gen. 3:1–19; Rom. 5:12–14; 2 Cor. 4:3–4; 11:13–15; Eph. 6:10–12; 2 Thess. 2:4; 1 Tim. 4:1–3).

We believe that Satan was judged at the Cross, though not then executed, and that he, a usurper, now rules as the “god of this world”; that, at the second coming of Christ, Satan will be bound and cast into the abyss for a thousand years, and after the thousand years he will be loosed for a little season and then “cast into the lake of fire and brimstone,” where he “shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” (Col. 2:15; Rev. 20:1–3, 10).

We believe that a great company of angels kept their holy estate and are before the throne of God, from whence they are sent forth as ministering spirits to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation (Luke 15:10; Eph. 1:21; Heb. 1:14; Rev. 7:12).

We believe that man was made lower than the angels; and that, in His incarnation, Christ took for a little time this lower place that He might lift the believer to His own sphere above the angels (Heb. 2:6–10).

Article IV—Man, Created and Fallen

We believe that man was originally created in the image and after the likeness of God, and that he fell through sin, and, as a consequence of his sin, lost his spiritual life, becoming dead in trespasses and sins, and that he became subject to the power of the devil. We also believe that this spiritual death, or total depravity of human nature, has been transmitted to the entire human race of man, the Man Christ Jesus alone being excepted; and hence that every child of Adam is born into the world with a nature which not only possesses no spark of divine life, but is essentially and unchangeably bad apart from divine grace (Gen. 1:26; 2:17; 6:5; Pss. 14:1–3; 51:5; Jer. 17:9; John 3:6; 5:40; 6:35; Rom. 3:10–19; 8:6–7; Eph. 2:1–3; 1 Tim. 5:6; 1 John 3:8).

Article V—The Dispensations

We believe that the dispensations are stewardships by which God administers His purpose on the earth through man under varying responsibilities. We believe that the changes in the dispensational dealings of God with man depend on changed conditions or situations in which man is successively found with relation to God, and that these changes are the result of the failures of man and the judgments of God. We believe that different administrative responsibilities of this character are manifest in the biblical record, that they span the entire history of mankind, and that each ends in the failure of man under the respective test and in an ensuing judgment from God. We believe that three of these dispensations or rules of life are the subject of extended revelation in the Scriptures, viz., the dispensation of the Mosaic Law, the present dispensation of grace, and the future dispensation of the millennial kingdom. We believe that these are distinct and are not to be intermingled or confused, as they are chronologically successive.

We believe that the dispensations are not ways of salvation nor different methods of administering the so-called Covenant of Grace. They are not in themselves dependent on covenant relationships but are ways of life and responsibility to God which test the submission of man to His revealed will during a particular time. We believe that if man does trust in his own efforts to gain the favor of God or salvation under any dispensational test, because of inherent sin his failure to satisfy fully the just requirements of God is inevitable and his condemnation sure.

We believe that according to the “eternal purpose” of God (Eph. 3:11) salvation in the divine reckoning is always “by grace through faith,” and rests upon the basis of the shed blood of Christ. We believe that God has always been gracious, regardless of the ruling dispensation, but that man has not at all times been under an administration or stewardship of grace as is true in the present dispensation (1 Cor. 9:17; Eph. 3:2; 3:9, asv; Col. 1:25; 1 Tim. 1:4, asv).

We believe that it has always been true that “without faith it is impossible to please” God (Heb. 11:6), and that the principle of faith was prevalent in the lives of all the Old Testament saints. However, we believe that it was historically impossible that they should have had as the conscious object of their faith the incarnate, crucified Son, the Lamb of God (John 1:29), and that it is evident that they did not comprehend as we do that the sacrifices depicted the person and work of Christ. We believe also that they did not understand the redemptive significance of the prophecies or types concerning the sufferings of Christ (1 Pet. 1:10–12); therefore, we believe that their faith toward God was manifested in other ways as is shown by the long record in Hebrews 11:1–40. We believe further that their faith thus manifested was counted unto them for righteousness (cf. Rom. 4:3 with Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:5–8; Heb. 11:7).

Article VI—The First Advent

We believe that, as provided and purposed by God and as preannounced in the prophesies of the Scriptures, the eternal Son of God came into this world that He might manifest God to men, fulfill prophecy, and become the Redeemer of a lost world. To this end He was born of the virgin, and received a human body and a sinless human nature (Luke 1:30–35; John 1:18; 3:16; Heb. 4:15).
We believe that, on the human side, He became and remained a perfect man, but sinless throughout His life; yet He retained His absolute deity, being at the same time very God and very man, and that His earthly life sometimes functioned within the sphere of that which was human and sometimes within the sphere of that which was divine (Luke 2:40; John 1:1–2; Phil. 2:5–8).

We believe that in fulfillment of prophecy He came first to Israel as her Messiah-King, and that, being rejected of that nation, He, according to the eternal counsels of God, gave His life as a ransom for all (John 1:11; Acts 2:22–24; 1 Tim. 2:6).

We believe that, in infinite love for the lost, He voluntarily accepted His Father’s will and became the divinely provided sacrificial Lamb and took away the sin of the world, bearing the holy judgments against sin which the righteousness of God must impose. His death was therefore substitutionary in the most absolute sense—the just for the unjust—and by His death He became the Savior of the lost (John 1:29; Rom. 3:25–26; 2 Cor. 5:14; Heb. 10:5–14; 1 Pet. 3:18).

We believe that, according to the Scriptures, He arose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He had lived and died, and that His resurrection body is the pattern of that body which ultimately will be given to all believers (John 20:20; Phil. 3:20–21).

We believe that, on departing from the earth, He was accepted of His Father and that His acceptance is a final assurance to us that His redeeming work was perfectly accomplished (Heb. 1:3).

We believe that He became Head over all things to the church which is His body, and in this ministry He ceases not to intercede and advocate for the saved (Eph. 1:22–23; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1).

Article VII—Salvation Only Through Christ

We believe that, owing to universal death through sin, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless born again; and that no degree of reformation however great, no attainments in morality however high, no culture however attractive, no baptism or other ordinance however administered, can help the sinner to take even one step toward heaven; but a new nature imparted from above, a new life implanted by the Holy Spirit through the Word, is absolutely essential to salvation, and only those thus saved are sons of God. We believe, also, that our redemption has been accomplished solely by the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was made to be sin and was made a curse for us, dying in our room and stead; and that no repentance, no feeling, no faith, no good resolutions, no sincere efforts, no submission to the rules and regulations of any church, nor all the churches that have existed since the days of the Apostles can add in the very least degree to the value of the blood, or to the merit of the finished work wrought for us by Him who united in His person true and proper deity with perfect and sinless humanity (Lev. 17:11; Isa. 64:6; Matt. 26:28; John 3:7–18; Rom. 5:6–9; 2 Cor. 5:21; Gal. 3:13; 6:15; Eph. 1:7; Phil. 3:4–9; Titus 3:5; James 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:18–19, 23).

We believe that the new birth of the believer comes only through faith in Christ and that repentance is a vital part of believing, and is in no way, in itself, a separate and independent condition of salvation; nor are any other acts, such as confession, baptism, prayer, or faithful service, to be added to believing as a condition of salvation (John 1:12; 3:16, 18, 36; 5:24; 6:29; Acts 13:39; 16:31; Rom. 1:16–17; 3:22, 26; 4:5; 10:4; Gal. 3:22).

Article VIII—The Extent of Salvation

We believe that when an unregenerate person exercises that faith in Christ which is illustrated and described as such in the New Testament, he passes immediately out of spiritual death into spiritual life, and from the old creation into the new; being justified from all things, accepted before the Father as Christ His Son is accepted, loved as Christ is loved, having his place and portion as linked to Him and one with Him forever. Though the saved one may have occasion to grow in the realization of his blessings and to know a fuller measure of divine power through the yielding of his life more fully to God, he is, as soon as he is saved, in possession of every spiritual blessing and absolutely complete in Christ, and is therefore in no way required by God to seek a so-called “second blessing,” or a “second work of grace” (John 5:24; 17:23; Acts 13:39; Rom. 5:1; 1 Cor. 3:21–23; Eph. 1:3; Col. 2:10; 1 John 4:17; 5:11–12).

Article IX—Sanctification

We believe that sanctification, which is a setting-apart unto God, is threefold: It is already complete for every saved person because his position toward God is the same as Christ’s position. Since the believer is in Christ, he is set apart unto God in the measure in which Christ is set apart unto God. We believe, however, that he retains his sin nature, which cannot be eradicated in this life. Therefore, while the standing of the Christian in Christ is perfect, his present state is no more perfect than his experience in daily life. There is, therefore, a progressive sanctification wherein the Christian is to “grow in grace,” and to “be changed” by the unhindered power of the Spirit. We believe also that the child of God will yet be fully sanctified in his state as he is now sanctified in his standing in Christ when he shall see his Lord and shall be “like Him” (John 17:17; 2 Cor. 3:18; 7:1; Eph. 4:24; 5:25–27; 1 Thess. 5:23; Heb. 10:10, 14; 12:10).
Article X—Eternal Security
We believe that, because of the eternal purpose of God toward the objects of His love, because of His freedom to exercise grace toward the meritorious on the ground of the propitiatory blood of Christ, because of the very nature of the divine gift of eternal life, because of the present and unending intercession and advocacy of Christ in heaven, because of the immutability of the unchangeable covenants of God, because of the regenerating, abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in the hearts of all who are saved, we and all true believers everywhere, once saved shall be kept saved forever. We believe, however, that God is a holy and righteous Father and that, since He cannot overlook the sin of His children, He will, when they persistently sin, chasten them and correct them in infinite love; but having undertaken to save them and keep them forever, apart from all human merit, He, who cannot fail, will in the end present every one of them faultless before the presence of His glory and conformed to the image of His Son (John 5:24; 10:28; 13:1; 14:16–17; 17:11; Rom. 8:29; 1 Cor. 6:19; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1–2; 5:13; Jude 24).

Article XI—Assurance
We believe it is the privilege, not only of some, but of all who are born again by the Spirit through faith in Christ as revealed in the Scriptures, to be assured of their salvation. We believe it is the privilege, not only of the saints, but is ever present to testify of Christ; seeking to occupy believers with Him and not with themselves nor with their experiences. We believe that His abode in the world in this special sense will cease when Christ comes to receive His own at the completion of the church (John 14:16–17; 16:7–15; 1 Cor. 6:19; Eph. 2:22; 2 Thess. 2:7).

Article XII—The Holy Spirit
We believe that the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the blessed Trinity, though omnipresent from all eternity, took up His abode in the world in a special sense on the day of Pentecost according to the divine promise, dwells in every believer, and by His baptism unites all to Christ in one body, and that He, as the Indwelling One, is the source of all power and all acceptable worship and service. We believe that He never takes His departure from the church, nor from the feeblest of the saints, but is ever present to testify of Christ; seeking to occupy believers with Him and not with themselves nor with their experiences. We believe that His abode in the world in this special sense will cease when Christ comes to receive His own at the completion of the church (John 14:16–17; 16:7–15; 1 Cor. 6:19; Eph. 2:22; 2 Thess. 2:7).
the Spirit, and so to live in the power of the indwelling Spirit that we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. But the flesh with its fallen, Adamic nature, which in this life is never eradicated, being with us to the end of our earthly pilgrimage, needs to be kept by the Spirit constantly in submission to Christ, or it will surely manifest its presence in our lives to the dishonor of our Lord (Rom. 6:11–13; 8:2, 4, 12–13; Gal. 5:16–23; Eph. 4:22–24; Col. 2:1–10; 1 Pet. 1:14–16; 1 John 1:4–7; 3:5–9).

Article XVI—The Christian’s Service
We believe that divine, enabling gifts for service are bestowed by the Spirit upon all who are saved. While there is a diversity of gifts, each believer is energized by the same Spirit, and each is called to his own divinely appointed service as the Spirit may will. In the apostolic church there were certain gifted men—apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers—who were appointed by God for the perfecting of the saints unto their work of the ministry. We believe also that today some men are especially called of God to be evangelists, pastors, and teachers, and that it is to the fulfilling of His will and to His eternal glory that these shall be sustained and encouraged in their service for God (Rom. 12:6; 1 Cor. 12:4–11; Eph. 4:11).

We believe that, wholly apart from salvation benefits which are bestowed equally upon all who believe, rewards are promised according to the faithfulness of each believer in his service for his Lord, and that these rewards will be bestowed at the judgment seat of Christ after He comes to receive His own to Himself (1 Cor. 3:9–15; 9:18–27; 2 Cor. 5:10).

Article XVII—The Great Commission
We believe that it is the explicit message of our Lord Jesus Christ to those whom He has saved that they are sent forth by Him into the world even as He was sent forth of His Father into the world. We believe that these who believe, rewards are promised according to the faithfulness of each believer in his service for his Lord, and that these rewards will be bestowed at the judgment seat of Christ after He comes to receive His own to Himself (1 Cor. 3:9–15; 9:18–27; 2 Cor. 5:10).

Article XVIII—The Blessed Hope
We believe that, according to the Word of God, the next great event in the fulfillment of prophecy will be the coming of the Lord in the air to receive to Himself into heaven both His own who are alive and remain unto His coming, and also all who have fallen asleep in Jesus, and that this event is the blessed hope set before us in the Scripture, and for this we should be constantly looking (John 14:1–3; 1 Cor. 15:51–52; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thess. 4:13–18; Titus 2:11–14).

Article XIX—The Tribulation
We believe that the translation of the church will be followed by the fulfillment of Israel’s seventieth week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 6:1–19:21) during which the church, the body of Christ, will be in heaven. The whole period of Israel’s seventieth week will be a time of judgment on the whole earth, at the end of which the times of the Gentiles will be brought to a close. The latter half of this period will be the time of Jacob’s trouble (Jer. 30:7), which our Lord called the great tribulation (Matt. 24:15–21). We believe that universal righteousness will not be realized previous to the second coming of Christ, but that the world is day by day ripening for judgment and that the age will end with a fearful apostasy.

Article XX—The Second Coming of Christ
We believe that the period of great tribulation in the earth will be climaxed by the return of the Lord Jesus Christ to the earth as He went, in person on the clouds of heaven, and with power and great glory to introduce the millennial age, to bind Satan and place him in the abyss, to lift the curse which now rests upon the whole creation, to restore Israel to her own land and to give her the realization of God’s covenant promises, and to bring the whole world to the knowledge of God (Deut. 30:1–10; Isa. 11:9; Ezek. 37:21–28; Matt. 24:15–25:46; Acts 15:16–17; Rom. 8:19–23; 11:25–27; 1 Tim. 4:1–3; 2 Tim. 3:1–5; Rev. 20:1–3).

Article XXI—The Eternal State
We believe that at death the spirits and souls of those who have trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation pass immediately into His presence and there remain in conscious bliss until the resurrection of the glorified body when Christ comes for His own, whereupon soul and body reunited shall be associated with Him forever in glory; but the spirits and souls of the unbelieving remain after death conscious of condemnation and in misery until the final judgment of the great white throne at the close of the millennium, when soul and body reunited shall be cast into the lake of fire, not to be annihilated, but to be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power (Luke 16:19–26; 23:42; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:23; 2 Thess. 1:7–9; Jude 6–7; Rev. 20:11–15).

Statement of Educational Effectiveness

In an effort to assess the effectiveness of its educational programs, Dallas Theological Seminary tracks persistence rates, graduation rates, and placement information for all its educational programs. Since the majority of graduate theological institutions track such effectiveness data in a variety of ways, the following information is designed only to give interested individuals and the seminary’s constituents information about the seminary and should not be used as a comparison, either good or bad, to the effectiveness of other seminaries and graduate-level theological institutions.

Persistence

DTS tracks persistence and graduation rates for its master’s-level degree programs. The persistence rates are a measure of the number of students that continue in a seminary degree program three years after initial matriculation into the seminary. Of master’s students initially matriculating from spring 2004 through fall 2014, 67% continued or graduated after three years. Within that group, 74% of Master of Theology (ThM) students (the seminary’s flagship, four-year, ministry-preparation degree program) continued after three years.

Graduation Rates

Graduation rates are a measure of the number of students who actually graduated with a DTS degree within eight years of initial matriculation. Eight years is the upper time-limit within which a student must complete a program of study. Of the master’s-level students initially matriculating from spring 2004 through fall 2009, 57% graduated within eight years. Within that group, 64% of students matriculating into the ThM earned their degree within eight years.

The DTS extension in Guatemala City offers the seminary’s Spanish-language DMin program for Hispanic leaders in the United States, Latin America, and Spain. It is offered on the campus of Seminario Teológico Centroamericano (SETECA). The courses offered in the Spanish DMin program are the same as those offered in Dallas, but are contextualized for Hispanic ministry. All courses in the Spanish DMin program can be completed at SETECA. Interested students should contact the DMin office for more information.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I apply?
You can apply online at dts.edu/apply. Enrollment requires a four-year bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university, with limited exceptions (see “Admission Process”).

Can I receive Advanced Standing?
You sure can! Advanced standing credit for up to one-fourth of most degree programs can be earned by passing the appropriate proficiency exams. Visit dts.edu/advancedstanding for more information.

Can I receive transfer credit?
Yes, we accept transfer credit, pending evaluation by our Registrar’s office. Students may be eligible to transfer up to one-half of a completed degree from other accredited seminaries and graduate schools. Visit dts.edu/transfer for more information.

Is financial aid available?
Absolutely! Last year, DTS students received more than $4.5 million in financial aid. General scholarship funds are available as well as specialized funds for American-born minorities and international students. Eligible students can take advantage of an interest-free payment plan for tuition and books, and low-cost group health insurance is also available.

What about housing?
DTS is committed to providing quality, economical housing that supports the mission of DTS by encouraging spiritual growth and community in two housing facilities on the Dallas campus. For housing information, visit dts.edu/housing.

How can I find a job while in school?
Once you are admitted to DTS, you gain access to the seminary’s job board, an online tool that lists jobs from employers who frequently seek seminary students to fill positions. Access to the DTS Job Board for both secular and ministry opportunities is available to all students at dts.edu/jobs.

Is there job placement assistance after graduation?
Yes! After graduation, our Career Services office works with you to help you find a ministry position. Our graduates serve in church and parachurch ministries, mission organizations, Bible colleges and seminaries, and in a number of other fields. Many also go on to further study after completing one of our degrees. Our placement record is excellent.

What is your doctrinal position?
The full Doctrinal Statement appears in the back of this catalog. While our faculty and board annually affirm their agreement with the entire statement, students need only affirm these seven essentials:
• the authority and inerrancy of Scripture
• the Trinity
• the full deity and humanity of Christ
• the spiritual lostness of the human race
• the substitutionary atonement and bodily resurrection of Christ
• salvation by faith alone in Christ alone
• the physical return of Christ

Academic Procedures section addition (page 34):

Class Attendance

Class attendance and participation are an important part of the academic process and should be considered both a privilege and a responsibility in both face-to-face and online contexts. The course professor has the right to dismiss any disruptive student during any class session. Absences should be taken only for important and necessary reasons.

Each professor will establish the attendance requirements for his or her course in the syllabus. However, the professor must provide for a minimum number of permitted absences in the fall and spring semesters equal to twice the number of times the course meets each week; for each fifty-minute session (i.e., one class hour), the minimum number of permitted absences is equal to twice the credit hours of the course. Each unexcused absence in excess of the prescribed limit given by the professor of the course may cause a reduction in the final course grade. Students who fail a course due to lack of attendance, must reregister for and pay the normal tuition and fees for the course. (See section 1.14 Class Attendance in the DTS Student Handbook for additional information on class attendance.)

Student Progress

The maximum length of time students have to complete a DTS degree varies with the degree and is published for each degree in the Degree Residential Requirements and Time Limits table in this catalog. Students may be withdrawn from the seminary for failure to complete their degree programs in the allotted time. Readmission to the seminary is possible through the Admissions Office and is contingent on an acceptable written plan for program completion. Students may access current program status at any time by accessing their student portal online.

Financial Information section addition (page 38):

Refunds

Tuition refunds are granted according to the course drops and withdrawal schedules published in Section 2.3 of the DTS Student Handbook available online. Semester fees will be refunded only if the student withdraws from all classes prior to the beginning of the term. Exceptions to refund policies may be approved by the Credits Committee for justifiable extenuating circumstances. A Credits Committee petition must be completed online at students.dts.edu. Reading Week in the fall, and the World Evangelization Conference (WEC) and Spring Break in the spring are not counted as part of the calculations for refund.

When a student drops one or more courses or withdraws from seminary, grades and tuition refunds are given based on when the course is dropped and the type or length of the particular course (see section 1.3.9 in the DTS Student Handbook). Semester fees are nonrefundable beginning the first day of the semester. Fees may be waived only with approval of the Credits Committee. Students who withdraw from all classes prior to the beginning of a term in which the classes are scheduled will receive a 100% refund of tuition and fees paid for that term.

For the most current refund schedule of tuition, please consult dts.edu/registrar or the most current Student Handbook. Semester fees are nonrefundable once the semester begins.

Student Life section addition (page 46):

Student Conduct, Dismissal, and Readmission

Students at Dallas Theological Seminary commit themselves to follow the Community Covenant of the seminary. When breaches of these commitments occur, the seminary encourages the practice of repentance, confession, pardon, correction, and redemptive discipline when necessary (see Student Handbook 3.1.3). Student conduct and discipline are overseen by the dean of students in conjunction with the Student Affairs Committee (which also serves as the appellate body for decisions made by the dean of students).
The dean of students and/or the Student Affairs Committee may impose the following actions:

- Disciplinary Warning: a written warning given to the student and placed in the student’s personal file during the time he or she is a student at the seminary. This warning may include conditions for which the student is responsible. Failure to keep these conditions could incur further review.

- Disciplinary Probation: a specified time period during which the student will be evaluated further. This action may also include special conditions. Probation for more than three semesters during the time of a student’s enrollment will normally be cause for suspension.

- Required Leave of Absence: a specified time period during which the student shall be granted a leave of absence with responsibility for fulfilling conditions specified by the committee. Readmission is normally granted when these conditions are met. A required leave of absence of more than one year typically will result in withdrawal after one year.

- Suspension: a specified time period during which a student is suspended from the seminary. Readmission is possible but is subject to admission procedures.

- Dismissal: the termination of a student’s relationship with the seminary. Readmission is not expected, and recommendation for acceptance to another seminary is subject to committee action. Disciplinary dismissal is noted on the student’s official transcript from the seminary and becomes a part of the student’s permanent record. Other disciplinary actions are noted on the transcript but are removed if and when the issue is resolved.

A student will receive notification of any disciplinary decision in writing from the dean of students or the Student Affairs Committee (see Student Handbook 3.6.5). A student will not be presented for admission to candidacy nor advanced to graduation while under any unresolved disciplinary action at the seminary (see Student Handbook 3.6.1).

Students who have been dismissed from the seminary for cause may be readmitted only after satisfactory resolution of the matter resulting in their dismissal. Readmission is subject to the normal policies and procedures required through the office of admissions.

Appeal and Complaint Procedure

Student Appeal Procedure

Criteria for appealing decisions made by a professor or committee are outlined in the DTS Student Handbook. In all other situations for which a formal appeal process is not specified, an appeal should first be directed to the Credits Committee. Appeals will be reviewed and a written response provided to the student within two weeks of the receipt of the appeal. If the student is not satisfied with the decision given by the Credits Committee, he or she may then appeal to the dean of academic administration by filing a written statement of particulars. The dean of academic administration will confer with the individuals involved and seek a satisfactory resolution of the problem. If the problem cannot be solved in this manner, the dean may make a decision on the matter, or at his discretion he may refer it to a faculty committee for a ruling. Appeals will normally be resolved in less than six months.

The Credits Committee evaluates each appeal in terms of extenuating circumstances or circumstances beyond the control of the student. For an explanation of what the seminary considers to be extenuating circumstances, please see the DTS Student Handbook, Section 1.30.2.

Student Complaint Procedure

The seminary’s procedures for handling student grievances fall into three categories: credit/academic, dismissals/conduct, and operational/general. All types of student complaints will be reviewed and a written response provided to the student within two weeks of the receipt of the complaint. Normally, student complaints will be resolved in less than six months. The policies and procedures uniquely applicable to the three categories are included in the DTS Student Handbook, Section 1.30.3.

Georgia students who have followed complaint and appeal procedures as outlined in this handbook without reaching an acceptable resolution may file a written complaint with the Georgia Nonpublic Postsecondary Education Commission (GNPEC), 2082 East Exchange Place, Suite 220, Tucker, GA 30084-5305; 770-414-3300 (office), 770-414-3309 (fax), gnpec.georgia.gov.

If North Carolina students are unable to resolve a complaint through the institution’s grievance procedures, they may review the Student Complaint Policy, complete the Student Complaint Form (PDF) located on the State Authorization webpage at https://www.northcarolinaedu/stateauthorization, and submit the complaint to studentcomplaint@northcarolina.edu or to the following mailing address: North Carolina Post-Secondary Education Complaints, c/o Student Complaints, University of North Carolina General Administration, 910 Raleigh Road, Chapel Hill, NC, NC 27515-2688.

Tennessee students who have grievances that have not been settled at the institutional level may contact the Tennessee Higher Education Commission, Parkway Towers Suite 1900, 404 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, TN 37243-0830; 615-741-5293.

Virginia students who have followed complaint and appeal procedures as outlined in this handbook without reaching an acceptable resolution may file a written complaint with the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, Private and Out-of-State Postsecondary Education, 101 N 14th Street, 9th Floor, James Monroe Building, Richmond, VA 23219; 804-371-2285.

Dallas Theological Seminary students are not subject to unfair action-treatment as a result of the initiation of a complaint.
Information in the catalog is subject to update. Necessary changes will be made to the digital version at dts.edu/catalog.

Within the context of its theological convictions and mission, Dallas Theological Seminary does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, national and ethnic origin, or disability. DTS prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual violence, in educational programs and activities. For DTS’s full policy regarding sexual abuse and discrimination, see dts.edu/titleix.
